GEORGE T. MOBILLE AND RADIO GAITHERSBURG, INC.

Declaratory Ruling

In re letters of George T. Mobille and Radio Gaithersburg, Inc., for declaratory tions for deleted facilities of station tions for deleted facilities of station WHMC, Gaithersburg, Maryland.

1. We have before us for consideration a request for a declaratory ruling filed on December 10, 1974, on behalf of George T. Mobille [Mobille] regarding the status of future applications for the deleted facilities of station WHMC, Gaithersburg, Maryland (1150 kHz), and a similar request filed on behalf of Radio Gaithersburg, Inc. [RGI]. Both Mobille and RGI are potentially mutually exclusive applicants.

2. On December 3, 1973, WHMC was ordered to cease operations following denial of that station's application for renewal of license. Nick J. Chaconas v. F.C.C., Case No. 72–1684 (D.C. Cir., October 11, 1973).

3. It is the practice of the Commission, where a station has been deleted, to accept applications to continue that service in order to avoid an extended period of interruption in service to the community of license. Such applications are subject to those rules, regulations and technical criteria applicable to the deleted facility, rather than those normally applied to a request for an entirely new assignment. However, since our standard broadcast allocation is not based on a predetermined table of assignments, as in the case of FM broadcast stations, once a standard broadcast station has been deleted for a significant length of time, an application for that particular frequency is considered to be an application for a new station, unrelated to the prior facility, and is subject to the Commission's rules and standards as of the date the application is tendered. Opal Rompel, 24 F.C.C. 2d 458 (1970); LaFourche Valley Enterprises, Inc., 31 RR 2d 1409 (1974). In Opal Rompel, the applicant tendered an application for the deleted facilities of station KOLR, Sterling, Colorado, one year and ten days after KOLR had ceased operation and almost seven months after the station had been deleted. In LaFourche, the applicant tendered its application fourteen and one-half months after the effective date of the revocation. In both Opal Rompel and LaFourche, due to the "significant length of time" between cessation of operation of the station and the tendering of the application, as well as the absence of sufficient grounds to warrant departure from the Commission's practice, as indicated above, we declined to consider the applications as being for continuing service.

4. In the instant case, the applications for the deleted facilities will be filed with the Commission more than a year after the effective date of the WHMC deletion. Nevertheless, we believe that although this would generally constitute the "significant length of time" required to cause an application for the deleted facilities to be considered as an application for an entirely new assignment, there are sufficient grounds here to permit acceptance of the applications.

5. WHMC's five-tower directional antenna and studio site is on land which was owned by the former licensee, Nick J. Chaconas. In addition, a portion of the facilities had been constructed on land owned by Montgomery County and under the control of the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission [Park and Planning Commission]. In its request, RGI indicates that in view of engineering considerations as well as the local land use and zoning restrictions, this site is the only reasonable site for the location of a station on 1150 kHz. Following deletion of the WHMC facilities, negotiations commenced which resulted in acquisition of the site by Montgomery County. During the negotiations Mobille and RGI were informed that the Park and Planning Commission would make no representations concerning the terms of a possible lease until the contract with Mr. Chaconas was final. In May 1974, the County entered into a contract with Chaconas for the sale of his land. However, Mobille and RGI indicate that they were not notified of this transaction until September 1974, and furthermore, were not informed of the terms upon which the County would lease the facilities until December 5, 1974.[1] Mobille's request for a declaratory ruling in this matter was filed immediately thereafter.

6. In view of these circumstances, we believe that Mobille and RGI have exercised due diligence and have shown good cause why applications to replace WHMC could not have been filed earlier. Since the delay was occasioned by factors beyond their control, we will afford them additional time to file proposals for the facilities. Furthermore, consistent with our established practice in this area, the forthcoming applications will be granted pro forma waivers of our acceptability criteria provided they cause no more interference on the frequency than the former facilities. Following acceptance of the future Mobille and RGI proposals, they will be placed on a "cut-off" list and a deadline established for the filing of other competing applications.

7. Accordingly, it is ordered, that the aforementioned requests for declaratory ruling, filed by George T. Mobille and Radio Gaithersburg, Inc., are granted to the extent that the above parties may tender applications to replace the facilities of former station WHMC no later than sixty (60) days following release of this order.

[1] The 21-acre site may now be leased for 10 years at $15,000 per annum. A second ten-year lease can be negotiated for a percentage of the station's yearly gross revenues but in no event less than $15,000.

[2] Commissioner Hooks concurring in the result.

MARANATHA, INC. ET AL.

Construction Permits

In re applications of MARANATHA, INC., Princess Anne, Maryland, requests: 102.5 MHz; Channel #273; 50 kW (H&V); 500 feet; Leisure Time Communications, Inc., Pocomoke City, Maryland, requests: 102.5 MHz; Channel #273; 50 kW (H&V); 500 feet; Peter and John Radio Fellowship, Inc., Pocomoke City, Maryland, requests: 102.5 MHz, Channel #273; 50 kW (H&V); 500 feet, for construction permits.

1. The Commission, by the Chief of the Broadcast Bureau, acting pursuant to delegated authority, has under consideration the three above-captioned applications which are mutually exclusive in that they seek the same channel allocated to Pocomoke City, Maryland.

2. Leisure Time Communications, Inc. [Leisure Time], proposes to alter the vertical radiator of its existing AM station, WDMV, by increasing its antenna height from 324 feet above ground to 525 feet above ground. Since the increase in tower height has not received FAA clearance, it will be necessary to determine whether there is a reasonable possibility that the tower height and location proposed by Leisure Time would constitute a menace to air navigation. Accordingly, an appropriate issue will be included as to this application.

3. The FM antenna proposed by Leisure Time is to be side-mounted on the WDMV tower and will result in an increase in the antenna height. No application is pending for a change in the WDMV tower. Accordingly, a grant of the Leisure Time application should contain a condition requiring the submission and approval of an appropriate application by WDMV for changes in its antenna structure.

4. Peter and John Radio Fellowship, Inc. [Radio Fellowship], proposes to locate its studio-transmitter site 6.0 miles northwest of Pocomoke City, Maryland. Section 73.210 of the Commission's rules provides that the main studio of a commercial FM station must be located in the proposed city of license, or good cause must be shown for locating the main studio outside that community. Radio Fellowship states that its proposed site is located at the intersection of a major U.S. Highway and Cottage Grove Road. This location is approximately 10 minutes in driving time from Pocomoke City. The proposed site is not located within any other city or significant community, nor is it closer to any other city or significant community than to Pocomoke City. Radio Fellowship also states that the selected site is within reasonably short highway distances from Princess Anne and Crisfield, neither of which has a radio station. In addition to showing the convenience and accessibility of the site to the residents of Pocomoke City, as well as other cities within the service area, Radio Fellowship states that the substantial amount of land available at its proposed site will allow expansion of the station's physical plant whenever warranted. Good cause to locate the studio-transmitter complex at the proposed site has been shown in this instance.

5. Although two of the applicants propose to serve primarily Pocomoke City, Maryland, while Maranatha, Inc. [Maranatha], proposes to serve primarily Princess Anne, Maryland, the respective applicants would serve substantial areas in common. Thus, a contingent comparative issue has been specified. In the event it is determined, pursuant to section 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that one of the proposals for Pocomoke City is to be preferred, it will be necessary to conduct a full comparison between the two applicants for that community to determine which is better qualified. If the proposal for Princess Anne is found preferable from a section 307(b) standpoint, it will be granted. If, however, a choice between the Princess Anne and Pocomoke City proposals cannot be made under 307(b) criteria, it will be necessary to determine, on a comparative basis, which of the three applicants is best qualified.

6. Maranatha and Radio Fellowship propose independent programming, while Leisure Time proposes to duplicate the programming of its commonly owned AM station, WDMV, on the average of 12 hours a day. Therefore, in the event that the proposals for Pocomoke City are preferred pursuant to section 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, or in the event that the Administrative Law Judge decides that a choice between the three applications in this proceeding should not be based solely on considerations relating to section 307 (b), evidence regarding program duplication will be admissible under the comparative issue. When duplicated programming is proposed, the showing permitted under the comparative issue is usually limited to evidence concerning the benefits to be derived from the proposed duplication which would offset its inherent inefficiency. Jones T. Sudbury, 8 FCC 2d 360, 10 RR 2d 114 (1967). However, since Radio Fellowship proposes predominantly religious programming, while Leisure Time proposes general market programming, the relative need for these different types of programming will also be considered if the proposals for Pocomoke City are preferred pursuant to section 307(b) or if the Administrative Law Judge determines that a choice between the three applications should not be based solely on considerations relating to section 307(b). Ward L. Jones, FCC 67-32 (1967); Policy Statement on Comparative Broadcast Hearings, 1 FCC 2d 393, footnote 9 at 397 (1965).

7. Except as indicated by the issues specified below, the applicants are qualified to construct and operate as proposed. However, since the proposals are mutually exclusive, they must be designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding on the issues specified below.

8. Accordingly, it is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent Order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine whether there is a reasonable possibility that the tower height and location proposed by Leisure Time Communications, Inc., would constitute a menace to air navigation.

2. To determine the areas and populations which would receive FM service of 1 mV/m or greater intensity from the respective proposals together with the availability of other primary (1 mV/m or better for FM) aural services in such areas.

3. To determine, in light of section 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the proposals would best provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

4. To determine, in the event that it is concluded that a choice between applications should not be based solely on considerations relating to section 307(b), which of the proposals would best serve the public interest.

5. To determine, in light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which, if any, of the applications should be granted.

9. It is further ordered, That, pursuant to § 73.210(a)(2) of the rules, permission to locate the main studio as proposed in the Peter and John Radio Fellowship, Inc., application is granted.

10. It is further ordered, That, the Federal Aviation Administration is made a party to this proceeding.

11. It is further ordered, That, in the event of a grant of the application of Leisure Time Communications, Inc., the construction permit shall contain the following condition:

Construction of the antenna structure shall not commence until an application for appropriate changes in the facilities of WDMV has been approved by the Commission.

12. It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants and party respondent herein, pursuant to § 1.221(c) of the Commission's rules, in person or by attorney, shall within 20 days of the mailing of this Order, file with the Commission in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this Order.

13. It is further ordered, That the applicants herein shall, pursuant to section 311(a)(2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 1.594 of the Commission's rules, give notice of the hearing, either individually or, if feasible and consistent with the rules, jointly, within the time and in the manner prescribed in such rule, and shall advise the Commission of the publication of such notice as required by § 1.594(g) of the rules.

Adopted: March 19, 1975.

TELEPROMPTER CABLE SYSTEMS, INC. AND CENTRAL CALIFORNIA COMMUNICATIONS CORP.

Petitions for Declaratory Ruling

In re Teleprompter Cable Systems, Inc., Santa Cruz, Scotts Valley, Santa Cruz County, California, and Central California Communications Corporation, Capitola, Watsonville, East Lake Village, Freedom, Salinas, Serra Village, San Benancio, California, petitions for declaratory ruling.

1. On October 26, 1973, TelePrompTer Cable Systems, Inc., operator of cable television systems serving Santa Cruz, Scotts Valley and Santa Cruz County, California, filed a "Request for Declaratory Ruling Concerning § 76.99 of the Commission's Rules" (CSR-480). TelePrompTer's systems are within the San Francisco-Oakland-San Jose market (#7) and the Salinas-Monterey smaller TV market. On November 7, 1973, Central California Communications Corporation, operator of cable television systems at Capitola, Watsonville, East Lake Village, Freedom (each within the San Francisco-Oakland-San Jose and the Salinas-Monterey markets), Salinas, Serra Village and San Benancio (each within the Salinas-Monterey market), California, filed a "Request for Declaratory Ruling" (CSR-477). Both requests involve similar issues and therefore will be consolidated.

2. TelePrompTer carries Television Broadcast Stations KMST, Channel 46 (CBS), Monterey, and KTVU, Channel 2 (Ind.), Oakland, on its Santa Cruz systems. Both signals are significantly viewed in Santa Cruz County where the cable systems are located, and therefore must be carried pursuant to § 76.61 on each system. KMST places a Principal Community contour and KTVU a predicted Grade B contour over the cable communities. On March 31, 1972, TelePrompTer was providing exclusivity protection to KMST's network and non-network programming pursuant to former § 74.1103 of the Commission's rules.[1] Currently, KMST and KTVU simultaneously broadcast the same episodes of at least two syndicated programs: "Mission Impossible" and "Dragnet". Prior to March 31, 1972, KMST did not receive exclusivity protection for either program, since it did not broadcast either one. But KMST now has requested protection for both from TelePrompTer. KTVU has objected to KMST's request.

3. Central California Communications Corp. (hereinafter Central) also carries both KMST and KTVU. In addition to KMST and KTVU, Central carries Television Broadcast Stations KPIX, Channel 5 (CBS), and KRON-TV, Channel 4 (NBC), San Francisco on its cable systems. Both KMST and KTVU are significantly viewed in Santa Cruz and Monterey counties, where the systems are located, and therefore must be carried pursuant to either § 76.59 or 76.61 on each system. Neither KPIX nor KRON-TV is significantly viewed in either county but both are market signals and must be carried pursuant to § 76.61 on the systems located in the San Francisco-Oakland-San Jose market. All of Central's systems are located within the predicted Grade A contour of KMST and the predicted Grade B contours of KTVU, KPIX and KRON-TV. On March 31, 1972, Central provided exclusivity protection to KMST pursuant to former § 74.1103 as to both network and non-network programming. KMST currently is requesting exclusivity for syndicated programs which Central claims had the following status on March 31, 1972:

[1] Former § 74.1103 of the rules states in pertinent part that, "Where a station is entitled to program exclusivity, the CATV system shall, upon the request of the station licensee or permittee, refrain from duplicating any program broadcast by such station, on the same day as its broadcast by the station, if the CATV operator has received notification from the requesting station of the date and time of its broadcast of the program and the date and time of any broadcast to be deleted, as soon as possible and in any event no later than 48 hours prior to the broadcast to be deleted. Upon request of the CATV system, such notice shall be given at least 6 days prior to the date of any broadcast to be deleted."

Lawrence Welk	KMST was operating under a contract running from September 1971-August 1972 to broadcast these programs.	KPIX
Wild Kingdom		KRON-TV
Mike Douglas		KPIX
Mission Impossible	Network program series	KTVU
Good Ole Nashville	Television Broadcast Station KSBW-TV was under contract to broadcast these programs.	KTVU
Dragnet		KTVU
Rock Concert	Not in existence	KGO-TV

KTVU has objected to KMST's request for protection on Central's cable television systems.

4. KMST is not entitled to syndicated program exclusivity pursuant to §§ 76.151 and 76.153[3] of the rules because it is not licensed to a major market. Additionally, three of the cable television communities—Salinas, Serra Village and San Benancio—are not located within major television markets. KMST asserts that it is entitled to such protection, however, pursuant to the grandfather provisions of § 76.99.[2] Since it was entitled to exclusivity protection for its non-network programming prior to March 31, 1972, KMST believes it continues to have the right to request protection for all of its syndicated programming, whether or not a specific program was being carried and protected on March 31, 1972. On the other hand, KTVU argues that § 76.99 grandfathers only the specific syndicated programs which were subject to exclusivity rights prior to March 31, 1972, and that a cable system is not required to provide protection for programs which are no longer subject to an exclusivity contract which was in effect on March 31, 1972.

5. In the Cable Television Report and Order, FCC 72-108, 36 FCC 2d 143, we first distinguished for exclusivity purposes between network and non-network programming. In the Reconsideration of the Cable Television Report and Order, 36 FCC 2d 326, FCC 72-530, Par. 67, we stated, that "we restore to stations whose signals were carried by a cable system prior to March 31, 1972, the non-network exclusivity rights that they enjoyed under former § 74.1103, but on a simultaneous-only basis." And the grandfather rule thus states that a station whose signal was carrier prior to March 31, 1972, shall not be deprived of the non-network exclusivity rights it enjoyed on March 31, 1972. This right, provided by former § 74.1103 of the rules, was a right to exclusivity as a program outlet and it required the cable system to refrain from duplicating any program broadcast on the same day by a station of lower priority. The right attached to the signal and covered whatever programs might be broadcast, not any particular programs. Since the grandfather rule continues a right, it continues the same right—the right to non-duplication of whatever non-network programs are broadcast, limited now to simultaneous non-duplication. The right does not depend upon the continued broadcast of any particular program or programs. This right is circumscribed only in the following manner: (a) A station must have been carried by a cable television system prior to March 31, 1972; (b) it must have been extended non-network exclusivity protection by the cable system against lower priority television stations; (c) the protection has been reduced to a "simultaneous-only" basis outside the Mountain Time Zone. The station's rights to such exclusivity protection persist regardless of whether the particular program for which protection is being sought is the same program which received non-network protection prior to March 31, 1972.

Accordingly, It is ordered, That the "Request for Declaratory Ruling Concerning § 76.99 of the Commission's Rules," filed by TelePrompTer Cable System, Inc., is granted in accordance with this opinion.

It is further ordered, That the "Request for Declaratory Ruling," filed by Central California Communications Corporation, is granted in accordance with this opinion.

Adopted: March 12, 1975.

[2] Section 76.151(b) of the rules provides that: (b) No cable television system, operating in a community in whole or in part within a major television market, shall carry a syndicated program, pursuant to §§ 76.61 (b), (c), (d), or (e), or 76.63(a) (as it refers to § 76.61 (b), (c), (d), or (e)), while a commercial television station licensed to a designated community in that market has exclusive broadcast exhibition rights (both over-the-air and by cable) to that program * * *

Section 76.153(b) of the rules provides in pertinent part: (b) Television broadcast stations licensed to designated communities in the major television markets shall be entitled to the exclusivity provided by § 76.151 (b).

[3] Section 76.99 of the rules states that: "The provisions of §§ 76.91, 76.93, 76.151, and 76.153 shall not be deemed to deprive a television station whose signal was carried by a cable television system prior to March 31, 1972, of the non-network program exclusivity rights that such station had on March 30, 1972; Provided, however, That such exclusivity rights shall extend only to simultaneous duplication of programming by lower priority television stations, unless the station whose exclusivity rights are at issue is entitled to same-day network program exclusivity pursuant to § 76.93(b), in which case that station shall also be entitled to continued same-day non-network program exclusivity."

RADIO TECHNICAL COMMISSION FOR AERONAUTICS

Establishment of Special Committee 130

The Federal Communications Commission has determined that the establishment of Special Committee 130, "Reliability Specifications for Airborne Electronics Systems", as a subcommittee of the Radio Technical Commission for Aeronautics is in the public interest and necessary in order to discharge the agency's responsibilities. Notice of establishment is hereby published.

The purpose of RTCA Special Committee 130 is to: Investigate the various means of determining and specifying reliability for electronic systems recommended by RTCA Minimum Performance Standards; Assess the significance of specifying MTBR and MTBF for safety of flight electrical and electronic equipment; Recommend which, if any, of these available techniques may be applicable for incorporation into Minimum Performance Standards. During its investigations, the Special Committee should review the techniques employed by both civil and military agencies to improve reliability, and the result these techniques have achieved.

The final report of Special Committee 130 is expected to be completed no later than April 1, 1976.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] VINCENT J. MULLINS,
Secretary.

RADIO TECHNICAL COMMISSION FOR AERONAUTICS

Meeting

As a matter of public notice, members of the Executive Committee of the Radio Technical Commission for Aeronautics will meet on administrative matters on Friday, April 25, 1975, in Conference Room 261, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D.C., commencing at 9:30 a.m.

The agenda for the meeting is:

1. Approval of the minutes of the March 21, 1975, meeting.
2. Special Committee activities report for April, 1975.
3. Chairman's report on RTCA administration and activities.
4. Proposed changes to RTCA Document DO-161.
5. Proposed guidelines for implementation of future Minimum Performance Standards.
6. Changes to RTCA constitution and by-laws.
7. Other business.
8. Date and place of next meeting.

Meetings of the Executive Committee are open to the public subject to limitations of space available. Persons planning to attend or who desire additional information concerning this meeting should contact the RTCA Secretariat, Suite 655, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20006, or telephone area code (202) 296-0484.

RADIO TECHNICAL COMMISSION FOR AERONAUTICS

Meeting

Pursuant to Pub. L. 92-463, notice is hereby given of a meeting of the Radio Technical Commission for Aeronautics Special Committee 130—Reliability Specifications for Airborne Electronics Systems. The meeting is to be held on May 22-23, 1975, in RTCA Conference Room 261, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D.C. The meeting will commence each day at 9:30 a.m.

The agenda is as follows:

1. Opening comments from the Chairman.
2. Review terms of reference and definition of systems reliability.
3. Review events leading up to determination of MTBF for ground proximity warning system.
4. Review international consideration of reliability specifications.
5. Reliability specifications for airborne electronic systems as related to reliability of the National Airspace System (to be presented by the FAA).
6. NTSB views on reliability specifications for airborne electronic systems.
7. Military views on systems reliability.
8. Identify special committee work program:
   a. Collection of information and establishment of required studies.
   b. Consideration of task assignments.
9. Other business.
10. Date and place of next meeting.

NOTE.—Participants are requested to bring to this meeting for the Special Committee Library a copy of current of proposed Reliability Documents.

Meeting of Special Committee 130 are open to the public subject to limitations of space available. Persons planning to attend or who desire additional information concerning this meeting should contact the RTCA Secretariat, Suite 655, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20006, or telephone area code (202) 296-0484.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. RP71-130, RP72-58, RP74-39-11]

TEXAS EASTERN TRANSMISSION CORP.

Certification of Proposed Settlement Agreement

MARCH 27, 1975.

Public notice is hereby given that on March 26, 1975, Presiding Administrative Law Judge Morse certified to the Commission a stipulation and agreement, drafted by the parties of interest, as a proposed settlement of the issues raised in Docket No. RP74-39-11, said docket having been consolidated, for purposes of hearing and decision, with Docket Nos. RP71-130 and RP72-58, pursuant to an order of the Commission issued January 17, 1975.

Under the proposed settlement, Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation (TETCO) would alter its present method of calculating the demand charge adjustments for its DCQ Rate Schedule customers. Since July 2, 1974, the date on which TETCO's demand charge adjustment (DCA) provisions became effective, TETCO has made adjustments for a customer only on those days on which the customer requested 96 percent or more of its curtailed maximum daily quantity. Under the proposed settlement, TETCO will make demand charge adjustments for a DCQ customer on a monthly basis, calculated on the difference between the customer's actual monthly takes and the monthly quantity taken by that customer during the corresponding month of the proforma year used to establish annual quantity entitlements.

TETCO has agreed to file revised tariff sheets reflecting the changes agreed to in the stipulation and agreement, and described above, within ten days of the date on which the Commission order approving the settlement becomes final. The new sheets will become effective as of July 2, 1974. Texas Eastern will make special one time refunds and recoup these through charges to its DCA Commodity Surcharge Accounts to effect the retroactive changes in its tariff.

Article III, section 2 of the stipulation and agreement provides that the settlement shall become effective only if the Commission, in its order approving the settlement, waives TETCO's refund liability for the difference between its present and proposed methods of implementing its DCA provisions.

Initial comments by the parties shall be filed by April 7, 1975. Reply comments shall be filed by April 21, 1975.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make protest with reference to said filing should on or before April 7, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, petitions to intervene or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to a proceeding. Persons wishing to become parties to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file petitions to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules. The stipulation and agreement is on file with the Commission and is available for public inspection.

Secretary.

Notice of Conference

MARCH 31, 1975.

Take notice that on Wednesday, April 9, 1975 a conference of all interested persons in the above-referenced docket will be convened at 2 p.m. in Room No. 5200 at the offices of the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NE., Washington, D.C. 20426.

The conference will be held pursuant to § 1.18 (Conferences, Offers of Settlement) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.18). Customers and other interested persons will be permitted to attend, but if such persons have not previously been permitted to intervene by order of the Commission, such attendance at the conference will not be deemed to authorize such intervention as a party in the proceedings.

In accordance with the provisions of § 1.18 of the Rules, all parties will be expceted to come fully prepared to discuss the merits of all issues concerning the lawfulness of National Gas PipeLine's proposed tariff changes, any procedural matters preparatory to a full evidentiary hearing, or to make commitments with respect to such issues and any offers of settlement or stipulations discussed at the conference. Failure to attend the conference shall constitute a waiver of all objections to stipulations and agreements reached by the parties in attendance at the conference.

Receipt of Report Proposal

The following request for clearance of a report intended for use in collecting information from the public was received by the Regulatory Reports Review Staff, GAO, on March 26, 1975. See 44 U.S.C. 3512 (c) & (d). The purpose of publishing this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER is to inform the public of such receipt.

The notice includes the title of the request received; the name of the agency sponsoring the proposed collection of information; the agency form number, if applicable; and the frequency with which the information is proposed to be collected.

Written comments on the proposed FEA form are invited from all interested persons, organizations, public interest groups, and affected businesses. Because of the limited amount of time GAO has to review the proposed form, comments must be received on or before April 21, 1975, and should be addressed to Mr. Monte Canfield, Jr., Director, Office of Special Programs, United States General Accounting Office, 425 I Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20548.

Further information about the item in this notice may be obtained from the Regulatory Reports Review Officer, 202-376-5425.

Request for clearance of Form FEA P314-M-O, "Monthly Survey of Distillate and Residual Fuel Oil Sales to Ultimate Consumer". This new monthly questionnaire is a follow-on to FEA Form P308-S-O (Historical Survey of Propane, Distillate Fuel Oil, and Residual Fuel Oil Sales to Ultimate Consumer). Potential respondents are a sample of firms, as selected by FEA, which sell distillate and/or residual fuel oil directly to ultimate consumers. The sample will include all refiner/importer marketers and a lesser number of other marketers. The size of the sample will be approximately 1,500 firms. The questionnaire is mandatory under Pub. L. 93-159 & Pub. L. 93-275. Respondent burden is estimated to average about 40 hours per month per respondent.

NASA ADVISORY BOARD ON AIRCRAFT FUEL CONSERVATION TECHNOLOGY

Notice of Establishment

Pursuant to Section 9(a)(2) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Pub.

V 40-64 APR 275

L. 92-463), and after consultation with the Office of Management and Budget, the NASA Administrator has determined that the establishment of an Advisory Board on Aircraft Fuel Conservation Technology is in the public interest in connection with the performance of duties imposed upon NASA by law.

The functions of this Advisory Board will include the review and evaluation of the aircraft fuel conservation technology program under way and planned in NASA in terms of its adequacy and timing with respect to future civil aviation requirements. The Advisory Board will provide advice and recommendations on the objectives, approach, content, and technical balance of the NASA technology program in this area and its relationship to complementary activities in other Government agencies and the civil sector.

The Advisory Board will also advise NASA on the means available to encourage utilization of fuel conservation technology developments in the civil air transportation system.

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION

SCIENCE ADVISER WITH SCIENTIFIC AND TECHNICAL SOCIETIES

Meeting

In order to improve channels of communication with members of scientific and technical societies, the Science Adviser and members of his Science and Technology Policy Office hold informal discussions from time to time with various representatives of these societies to discuss issues of mutual interest. While these ad hoc informal discussions are not considered to be meetings of "advisory committees" as that term is defined in section 3 of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Pub. L. 92-436), these sessions are believed to be of sufficient importance and interest to the general public to have them opened for public attendance and observation.

A meeting of representatives of various scientific and technical societies with the Science Adviser and members of his Science and Technology Policy Office is scheduled to be held on Monday, April 14, 1975, in the Board Room of the National Science Foundation, Room 540, at 1800 G Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20550. The meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m. and will conclude at approximately 4:15 p.m. The general subject matter will be scientific and technical manpower, and discussions will focus on the impact of changing national objectives of science and engineering manpower; Federal programs affecting the supply of scientists and engineers; data needs; and programs to relieve the impact of unemployment.

Members of the public are invited to observe this meeting. Space will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Public participation is limited to questions or statements submitted to the Chairman in writing or to such oral presentations as the Chairman may permit within the available time. Persons wishing to attend such a meeting are requested to either write or phone Mr. Richard L. Stone, STPO, National Science Foundation, 1800 G Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20550, telephone 202/632-4259.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

[Docket No. 50-482A]

KANSAS GAS AND ELECTRIC CO. AND KANSAS CITY POWER AND LIGHT CO. (WOLF CREEK GENERATING STATION, UNIT NO. 1)

Antitrust Hearing

Pursuant to the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), the regulations in Title 10, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 50, and Part 2, the notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of December 23, 1974 (39 FR 44200) by the Atomic Energy Commission, as statutory predecessor of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, and the memorandum and order dated March 27, 1975, granting the petition of Kansas Electric Cooperatives, Inc. for leave to intervene in this proceeding and directing a hearing to determine whether the activities under the proposed construction permit would create or maintain a situation inconsistent with the antitrust laws as provided in subsection 105(c) of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, 42 USC 2135(c), a hearing will be held at a time and place to be designated by the licensing board. The members of the board designated by the Chairman of the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board Panel are Margaret M. Laurence, Sidney G. Kingsley, and Marshall E. Miller, Chairman.

The application, and a letter of the Attorney General dated December 10, 1974, have been placed in the Public Document Room of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission at 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D.C. As they become available, the transcripts of the prehearing conference and of the hearing will also be placed in the Public Document Room and will be available for inspection by members of the public. Copies of the foregoing documents will also be available at Office of County Clerk, c/o Miss Joan Cox, Coffey County Courthouse, Burlington, Kansas 66839.

Any person who wishes to make an oral or written statement in this proceeding setting forth his position on the issue specified, but who has not filed a petition for leave to intervene, may request permission to make a limited appearance pursuant to the provisions of 10 CFR 2.715 of the Commission's "Rules of Practice." Limited appearances will be permitted at the time of the hearing in the discretion of the board, within such limits and on such conditions as may be fixed by the board. Persons desiring to make a limited appearance are requested to inform the Secretary of the Commission, United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555, on or before May 2, 1975. A person permitted to make a limited appearance does not become a party, but may state his position and raise questions which he would like to have answered to the extent that the questions are within the scope of the hearing. A member of the public does not have the right to participate in the proceeding unless he has been granted the right to intervene as a party or the right of limited appearance.

Papers required to be filed in this proceeding may be filed by mail or telegram addressed to the Secretary of the Commission, United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555, Attention: Supervisor, Docketing and Service Section, 1717 H Street, NW., Washington, D.C. Pending further order of the board, parties are required to file, pursuant to the provisions of 10 CFR 2.708 of the Commission's rules of practice, an original and twenty conformed copies of each such paper with the Commission.

Issued at Bethesda, Maryland, this 27th day of March, 1975.

APPENDIX A

KOSHKONONG NUCLEAR GENERATING PLANT UNITS 1 AND 2, WISCONSIN ELECTRIC POWER CO.; WISCONSIN PUBLIC SERVICE CORP.; WISCONSIN POWER AND LIGHT CO.; AND MADISON GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

MARCH 14, 1975.

You have requested our advice pursuant to the provisions of section 105c of the Atomic Energy Act, as amended, in regard to the above-cited application.

1. Facility Involved. The Koshkonong Nuclear Generating Plant, Units 1 and 2, will consis of two 900 MW units located near Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin. The plant will be jointly owned as tenants in common by four investor-owned utilities: Wisconsin Electric Power Company (58.6 percent), Wisconsin Power and Light Co. (19.1 percent); Wisconsin Public Service Corporation (16.0 percent) and Wisconsin Gas and Electric Company (6.3 percent). Unit 1 is scheduled to go into operation in 1983 with Unit 2 following in 1984. The estimated cost of the two units at completion is projected to be about $1.2 billion. Applicants intend to utilize these units to provide base load power to be integrated into their electric bulk power supply systems and to market the power therefrom as a portion of their respective system output. Wisconsin Electric Power Company has primary responsibility for design, construction and operation of the plant.

2. The Applicants. Wisconsin Electric Power Company (WEP) is a vertically integrated business engaging in the generation, transmission, distribution and sale at retail and wholesale of electric energy to approximately 685,500 customers in southeastern Wisconsin. Its subsidiary, Wisconsin-Michigan Power Company (WMP) is also a vertically integrated company engaging in the generation, transmission, distribution and sale of electricity to about 86,200 customers in east central and northern Wisconsin and in the upper peninsula of Michigan. Another subsidiary of WEP, Wisconsin Natural Gas Company, furnishes gas service in southeastern Wisconsin. In 1973 the combined companies received 82 percent of total operating revenues and 92 percent of total operating income from electrical operations. WEP and WMP operate their electrical properties as an integrated system whereby the entire generation and high voltage transmission plant of both companies is considered as supplying power to both companies, and each company pays its proportionate share of the cost associated with the operation of the combined facility.[2] In 1973 the two companies together had a maximum peak load demand of about 3.2 million kw and a total combined generating capability of about 3.6 million kw. The combined companies have a total of 75 generating units consisting of two nuclear generating units (Point Beach), 38 hydroelectric plants, six combustion turbines, and the balance coal fired steam plants. As of May 31, 1974, the combined system had 2,778 miles of transmission lines, including 504 miles of 345 kv and 123 miles of 230 kv extra high voltage transmission lines and operated 22,608 pole miles of distribution line.

[1] WEP owns all of the common stock and none of the preferred stock of Wisconsin-Michigan which gives WEP approximately 98.9 percent of the voting securities. Both companies have the same officers and for the most part directors and share the same corporate offices.

Wisconsin Power and Light Company (WPL) is a vertically integrated company engaging in the production, transmission, distribution and sale at retail and wholesale of electricity in an area of approximately 16,000 square miles in central and southwestern Wisconsin. WPL also distributes natural gas in the same general areas.[3] WPL obtains about 76 percent of its operating revenues from sales of electricity. The company operates four coal fired steam electric generating plants with capacity of 546.2 MW, two gas turbine generators with capacity of 42.3 MW, three gas oil turbines with capacity of 141.6 MW and six hydro electric generation plants with an aggregate dependable capacity of 41,220 KW. WPL also receives power from a 333 MW coal fired steam generating unit (Edgewater unit) owned with Wisconsin Public Service Corporation in which WPL has a 68.2 percent share. WPL operates this plant. WPL, together with Wisconsin Public Service Corporation and Madison Gas and Electric Company, jointly own a 540 MW nuclear generating plant (Kewaunee unit). WPL has a 41 percent interest in the Kewaunee unit which is operated by Wisconsin Public Service Corporation. WPL, Wisconsin Public Service Corporation, and Madison Gas and Electric jointly own a 527 MW coal fired steam electric generating unit (Columbia Generation Station). WPL receives 39.3 percent of the output of this unit and upon completion of a second jointly owned 527 MW unit will receive 46.2 percent of the total power generated at the Columbia plant. WPL owns one-third of the capital stock of the Wisconsin River Power Company which owns and operates two hydro-generating plants having an aggregate capacity of 35 MW from which WPL receives one-third of the electrical output. In 1973 WPL had a peak demand of 1,032,000 kw, of which 88.6 percent was supplied by its generating facilities and 11.4 percent was purchased from other sources. Overall, WPL produces approximately 90.6 percent of its total energy demands and purchases the remaining. WPL owns and operates 18,500 miles of transmission and distribution lines. WPL and Madison Gas and Electric have recently been granted permission to construct 110 miles of 345 kv transmission lines extending from the Columbia plant to the Madison area and on to the Illinois State Line.

Wisconsin Public Service Corporation (WPS) is a vertically integrated company engaging in the generation, transmission, distribution and sale at retail and wholesale of electrical energy to some 235,000 electrical customers in a service area territory of about 10,000 square miles in northeastern Wisconsin and an adjacent part of the Michigan upper peninsula. Approximately 67.9 percent of its operating revenues are derived from sales of electricity with the remainder from sales of natural gas. The company generating capacity consists of 555.5 MW of wholly-owned steam plant facilities, 41.2 percent of the Kewaunee nuclear plant output or about 222 MW capacity, 31.8 percent share of the Edgewater Steam Plant or about 100.9 MW capacity, four combustion turbines with aggregate capacity of 182.3 MW, two diesel plants with an aggregate capacity of 7,300 kw and fifteen hydroelectric plants with an aggregate capacity of 51 MW. WPS also has one-third interest in the Wisconsin River Power Company and receives one-third of its output. This gives the company a total capability of 1,131 MW. In 1973 the peak demand was 824 MW. The company has 17,151 route miles of electric transmission and distribution lines.

Madison Gas and Electric Company (MGE) is a vertically integrated company engaged in the generation, transmission, distribution, and sale at retail of electric power in a service area of about 222 square miles consisting primarily of the cities of Madison, Middleton, and Monona, Wisconsin. In 1973 approximately 62 percent of MGE operating revenues was derived from electirical sales and the remainder from gas distribution business. In 1973 MGE had a total generating capacity of about 288 MW of capacity provided by coal fired steam plant and combustion turbine peaking units. MGE purchased 75 MW of firm capacity from Wisconsin Electric Power Company pursuant to a contract effective until May 31, 1975. MGE's 1973 peak demand was about 350 MW. The company has determined that it can most economically expand its base load electrical generation capability through jointly owned projects with other electric utilities. Pursuant to this determination the company is participating in the Kewaunee nuclear generating facility and the Columbia generation facility with Wisconsin Public Service Corporation and Wisconsin Power and Light receiving 17.8 percent and 21.8 percent respectively of the output of those two facilities. Upon completion of the second 527 MW unit at the Columbia plant in 1978 MGE will take 22.2 percent of the total output of that facility. MGE has a 345 kv single circuit transmission line from Fond du Lac to Madison providing an interconnection with WPL and indirectly with WPS. MGE also has a 138 kv double circuit transmission line interconnecting with WEP and WPL.

3. Pools and Coordinating Groups. WPL, WPS and MGE comprise the Wisconsin Power Pool; a pool providing for the planning and scheduling of new facilities and the sale and purchase of capacity in order to equalize the reserves of the participating companies. This pool was originally formed in 1960 by WPS and WPL with MGE joining in 1968.[3] The pool has been reformalized in a power pool agreement dated July 26, 1973; this agreement does not set forth in any respect entry requirements for new members. Participation in this joint power pool agreement obtains for the three companies the benefits of advanced technologies in the economies of scale of power production while making the most effective use of existing power generation and transmission facilities, and assures the participants a supply of economical reliable electric power. Under the aegis of this pool arrangement the Edgewater and the Columbia coal fired plants as well as the Kewaunee nuclear plant were constructed.

The four applicant companies—WEP, MGE, WPS, and WPL—together with WMP and Upper Peninsula Power Company[4] constitute

[2] An undated study in documents provided by WPL projected a $21,000,000 savings for the three companies over the period 1966–1980 if they entered into a power pooling and coordination arrangement.

[3] WPC also sells water which provided 1.8 percent of its total operating income in 1973.

[4] Upper Peninsula Power Company is an investor-owned integrated electrical utility located wholly in the Michigan upper peninsula. In 1972 it had 240.3 MW peak load with 124.9 MW installed generation capacity. It is interconnected to WUMS through Wisconsin Michigan Power Company. Upper Peninsula engages in coordinated planning and ownership of generation facilities with Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co., a private corporation engaged primarily in the business of mining.

the Wisconsin Upper Michigan System (WUMS) power pool.[8] WUMS was formalized by agreement signed on September 11, 1968.[9] The agreement provides for adoption of operating procedures and standards to obtain increased reliability and economy in utilizing capacity to meet day-to-day demand and reserve requirements, and for long range coordinated planning and development.

The WUMS organization represents the member companies in the Mid-American Interpool Network (MAIN). MAIN is a power planning group composed of individual power suppliers located in Wisconsin, Illinois, Missouri, Iowa and Minnesota. MAIN's purpose is to promote regional coordination of planning, construction and operation of the member generation and transmission facilities with an emphasis on reliability and economy. As an example of the benefits of participating in MAIN, WEP was able to defer construction in 1964-65 of a major unit for some eight months by purchasing some 300 MW power from Commonwealth Edison Company.

4. Competitive Considerations. A. Wholesale and Retail Competition—Sales of bulk power at wholesale constitutes delivery to a customers who either resells the power at retail to ultimate customers or resells it at wholesale. Wholesale power sales are normally under the jurisdiction of the Federal Power Commission,[1] and competition in the wholesale power market is not subject to legally imposed restraints. In the State of Wisconsin wholesale power customers consist primarily of municipalities which distribute electricity to ultimate customers, rural electric cooperatives which distribute electric power to their members, and investor-owned utilities which distribute electric power to their customers. With the exception of MGE the applicant companies provide wholesale service to various types of customers within their general service area. These wholesale purchasers are potential competitors of applicant companies in that they could install generation for supplying their own needs and/or for selling power at wholesale. Other smaller systems which have generation constitute actual competitors of the applicant companies. As discussed below, in order for viable wholesale competition to exist small systems must have the ability to obtain and transmit power from and to other wholesale power suppliers or customers.

Retail competition can and does exist under the laws of the State of Wisconsin. A municipality whose residents are supplied by a utility may acquire the distribution facilities and itself begin to serve electricity to its residents.[2] The distribution system of a retail supplier can be purchased by another electric utility, and on several occasions cooperatives and investor-owned companies have sought to purchase the distribution system of an electric utility. State law prohibits under certain circumstances the duplication of distribution facilities;[3] however, this does not preclude competition for new retail loads. Consequently, vigorous competition does take place for new retail loads which locate within an area accessible to several electric power suppliers. Retail territorial boundary agreements can be filed with and approved by the Wisconsin Public Service Commission. Such agreements have been entered into between the applicant companies and some municipal systems, and between some applicant companies and rural electric cooperatives.[10] In the case of rural electric cooperatives, larger retail loads are exempted from such agreements.

B. Structure of the Industry—The structure of the electric power industry can be viewed from three functional aspects, that is generation, transmission, and distribution of electric power. The four applicant companies (including WEP's subsidiary Wisconsin-Michigan Power Company) own or control most of the generating capacity within the areas in which they operate. Other generating capacity is owned by small investor-owned utilities, private corporations, consisting primarily of paper mills and mining operations, and by a rural electric cooperative. Several municipalities also have generating capability, often in the form of small hydro plants. The principal municipalities having generating capabilities are Manitowoc with 69 MW capacity and Marshfield with 42 MW capacity, both located in the general service area of WPS, and Menasha and Kaukauna located within the general area served by Wisconsin-Michigan.[11] There is no significant generating capability owned by others within the general area served by WPL although adjacent systems, investor-owned utilities and Dairyland Power Cooperative, have generating capacity. Dairyland is a generation and transmission cooperative having approximately 701 MW generating capacity.

The applicant companies own or control virtually all of the high voltage and all of the extra high voltage transmission lines located within their general service areas. The four applicant companies are also, as indicated above, engaged in the distribution of electric power. Other distributors of electric power are a few small investor-owned utilities and in excess of 50 municipal electric systems and rural electric cooperatives.

C. Relevant Economies of the Electric Power Industry and Access to Such Economies:—Bulk power supply has significant economies of scale. Power to be commercially marketable must have a guarantee of a high degree of continuity of supply. Such power is marketed as "firm power". As the electrical and mechanical generation and transmission elements of a bulk power supply system are subject to forced outage in varying degrees, it is necessary to provide for this risk of forced outage. It is less expensive for electric utilities to deal with this risk collectively since a predictable and smaller total amount of reserves will supply a satisfactory degree of service continuity for the participants.

Demand for electrical power has tended to grow at a steadily increasing rate. In contrast, installation of new generation capacity necessary to meet growth and load tends to be lumpy: costs are mainly incurred before a new unit commences operation and ordinarily the entire generating output of a new unit becomes available shortly after construction and testing. The economies of installing increasingly large units of capacity must, therefore, be offset with the diseconomies of idling a portion of that capacity until demand grows sufficiently to require its full utilization. Through the coordinated planning of new generation capacity bulk power suppliers are able to minimize such diseconomies by, for example, joint ownership of generation capacity and/or staggered construction of new capacity and term sales of capacity.

High voltage transmission is the integrating and coordinating medium for bulk power supply. It integrates and coordinates generation to take advantage of dealing with the risk collectively; it integrates and coordinates loads so that facilities can be planned to meet pool load growth. Such reserve sharing, coordinated development, and other types of coordination available through high voltage and extra high voltage transmission, make possible the economies of scale in bulk power supply to systems participating in such coordination.

As discussed above, applicant companies are members and participants in various pool arrangements which provide the economies and reliabilities described above. In particular, they have undergone coordinated planning and operation under the auspices of the WUMS agreement. This agreement has not been formally filed with or approved by either the Federal Power Commission or the Wisconsin Public Service Commission. The WUMS agreement provides for the installation of generating capacity for the purpose of meeting the combined load of the members. Installation of new generating facilities to be owned either individually or collectively is on the basis of the most economical size, and such facilities are located where they will best serve the combined load. New facilities are constructed to maintain installed reserves equal to or exceeding the minimum requirement for reliable performance of the combined systems. Pursuant to the agreement additional transmission facilities are installed to insure the reliability and service continuity of the combined systems. WUMS' members have adopted uniform operation procedures and practices that effectively set standards for reliable and economical operation. The construction of the Koshkonong nuclear generating plant exemplifies the benefits obtained by these companies through coordinated planning of new generating facilities and collective ownership of the facilities.

The WUMS agreement provides that membership shall be open to all companies meeting the following qualifications: (1) each must own and operate substantial amounts of generation capacity; (2) each must have a high capacity interconnection (115 kv or above) with a present member of WUMS and have operations which are significant to the reliability of the WUMS interconnected system; (3) each must own or participate in the operation of up-to-date system operating center with adequate intra and inter company communication facilities; and (4) each must be located in Wisconsin or the Michigan upper peninsula. New members must also be members of MAIN.

The terms of the WUMS' entry requirements raise substantial cost barriers for smaller systems and effectively preclude such systems from qualifying. Since the applicant companies control all the transmission lines necessary to small systems gaining comparable benefits from coordination with others, the Department undertook to have each applicant company clarify its interpretation of the membership requirement language. The initial responses from the applicant companies did not allow a confident conclusion that small systems will have an opportunity to gain access to the WUMS agreement, and thus to nuclear generated power.

Moreover, an examination of the contracts between applicant companies and the municipal systems having generation located within the general area of the applicant companies indicated that the small companies have not in the past received same relative benefits as accrue to the applicant companies through the WUMS agreement.

The municipalities and rural electric cooperatives in the State of Wisconsin have recently employed the engineering consulting firm of R. W. Beck and Associates to make a power survey to examine the various alternatives for future bulk power supply available to these systems. Without going into detail as to the findings of that study, it is relevant to note that the study concluded that the most economical alternative available to such systems was to undertake a coordinated development arrangement with the applicant companies. This would include joint ownership or staggered construction of future generation, including nuclear units, as well as coordinated operations and planning. Another economical alternative source of power would be the installation of generating and transmission facilities by the publicly owned systems and coordination of reserves with the applicant companies.

D. Antitrust Review—Upon receipt of the application from your predecessor Commission, the Department made inquiries of other electric systems located within the general service areas of the applicant companies. These inquiries were designed to elicit information about the structure of the electric power industry within those areas and the competitive conduct of the applicant companies.

With respect to MGE, the Department received no allegation of conduct which would be inconsistent with the antitrust laws. MGE has no wholesale customers and geographically serves a small compact area which, for the most part, is surrounded by WPL. MGE and WPL vigorously compete for large retail loads in those areas where their systems interface. The two companies are or have been engaged in litigation with respect to the right to provide service to new large retail loads.

However, because MGE participates in the WUMS agreement, the Department sought to ascertain the policies of MGE with respect to providing access to the Koshkonong nuclear plant and entering into bulk power exchange arrangements with small electric systems in order to make their access to the nuclear plant viable. MGE has provided satisfactory policy assurances in these respects and is also willing to have them incorporated as conditions to the Koshkonong construction permit and operating license. Attached hereto is a February 7, 1975 letter from MGE concerning these matters.

MGE affirms that it will make the following type of arrangements with other electric power systems in south central Wisconsin: access to the Koshkonong Nuclear Power Units, 1 and 2, as well as future nuclear units; interconnection and reserve sharing; sales of bulk power for full or partial requirements; transmission services over existing facilities and coordinated planning of future facilities; and bulk power exchanges. Furthermore, MGE affirms that it has no understanding with the other applicant companies that would prohibit or restrain MGE from making such arrangements.

With respect to WEP, WEP's subsidiary WMP, and WPS, our inquiries disclosed that a number of smaller systems in their general areas are interested in access to the Koshkonong nuclear units. Within their respective areas the three companies own or control virtually all transmission lines. Certain information brought to the Department's attention raised questions as to possible misuse of these companies' dominance of transmission and generation. WEP and WPS denied involvement with any anticompetitive policies or practices, but in order to resolve any possible question each was willing to enunciate a procompetitive policy with respect to bulk power supply and access to nuclear generated power and to accept conditions to the Koshkonong construction permit and operating license incorporating such policy. Letters to the Department of Justice to this effect from WEP (for itself and WMP) and WPS, dated February 7, 1975, are attached hereto. WEP, WMP and WPS affirm that each will make the same types of arrangements with electric power suppliers in the State of Wisconsin, Michigan (upper peninsula) and Illinois as described above with reference to MGE. Each company also affirms that it does not have any understanding with any other company applying for the instant license that would prohibit or impede its making of such arrangements.

We turn now to consideration of WPL. This company owns or controls virtually all the transmission lines in its general area. It appears that WPL is able to obtain maximum benefits and economies of nuclear power generation through participation in the WUMS agreement. The WUMS group also coordinates the planning and the ownership of the high and extra high voltage transmission grid found in Wisconsin. While coordinated planning enables the WUMS' members to efficiently use resources to increase the reliability of their interconnected systems and to achieve economies of scale, such coordination also insures that each member can retain ownership or control of virtually all transmission lines within its respective general area. Coordinated planning, prior to the formation of WUMS, was obtained by WPL through an organization known as the Wisconsin Planning Group. None of the smaller electric power systems located within the general service area of WPL have participated in WUMS, either as a member or informally, nor, apparently, did such systems participate in Wisconsin Planning Group. There is reason to believe that WPL coordinated its policies and practices toward small electric power systems with other Wisconsin power suppliers through the medium of WUMS. As a part of this action WPL in 1972 outlined a concerted course of conduct intended to "retain its wholesale power business and its associated goals."

Many of WPL's practices in pursuing that course have been inconsistent with antitrust principles. Thus while receiving benefits from coordinated planning and joint ventures, including joint venture facilities such as the instant Koshkonong units, WPL alone and through its coordinating group has denied similar benefits and opportunities to other small electric power systems. WPL appears to have aided in carrying out this policy by wholesale territorial agreements which WPL has had since the 1930's with the other "major" wholesale power suppliers in Wisconsin. These appear to have impaired the ability of wholesale purchasers in WPL's areas to seek out alternative bulk power supply arrangements.

Within its general service area WPL serves at wholesale all the electric power requirements of five distribution cooperatives. These cooperatives have organized Badger Power Cooperative (Badger), which intends to develop its own bulk power supply.[12] Badger began in the mid-1960's to attempt to obtain power from Dairyland Power Cooperative (Dairyland), a G&T cooperative in western Wisconsin. Such sales by Dairyland to Badger would necessitate wheeling the power over WPL's lines. WPL and Dairyland made engineering studies of the proposed wheeling arrangement. Although there were some problems, it was determined that wheeling was technically feasible. However, WPL continuously set as a precondition to any wheeling arrangement that it must receive "real benefits." The cooperatives understood this position to mean that WPL must maintain its present level of revenues and profits, a position amounting to a refusal to wheel. WPL delayed negotiation of a wheeling agreement and finally terminated negotiations after one of the cooperatives cancelled its wholesale contract. WPL's position was succinctly stated in an April 11, 1968, meeting by a WPL official, "We are the power supply business (sic). We are not willing to get rid of [the] load." WPL has steadfastly refused to make a direct interconnection with Dairyland, except for several minor interconnections of low capacity and one emergency interconnection which remains open,[13] even though some proposed interconnections would have enabled WPL to achieve substantial economies in its operations.[14]

* * * * *

WPL also pursued a course of action designed to retain the city of Richland Center (Richland) as a wholesale customer and to frustrate Richland's development of its own generation system into a more reliable and economical system. Richland had an established interconnection with WPL and for a number of years received from WPL part of the electrical power required for, its distribution to retail customers. Richland generated the remainder. In the mid-1960's Richland installed additional generation capacity to enable it to supply all its customers' electrical requirements. In 1966 after having added the capacity, Richland requested WPL to enter into a new contract providing for certain power exchange arrangements, including exchanges of economy energy, rather than a strict wholesale power sale arrangement. WPL declined to discuss the requested power exchange arrangement. Richland then cancelled its contract with WPL and initiated discussions with Dairyland Power Cooperative for the type of power exchanges and sales it desired. Upon reaching an agreement with Dairyland, Richland applied to the Wisconsin Public Service Commission for authority to construct about 3½ miles of transmission line to interconnect with Dairyland's lines. WPL vigorously opposed the application and appealed a favorable decision for Richland through the courts to the Supreme Court of Wisconsin, which affirmed the Commission's decision. Thus, after lengthy delay, Richland was finally able to construct transmission lines for an interconnection which made available to it the benefits of reserve coordination and bulk power exchanges.

Until 1974, when the Federal Power Commission required their elimination, WPL had a series of provisions in its wholesale [12] Other distribution cooperatives located in the general service area of other investor-owned electric power systems belong to Badger but are not to be construed as included in the discussion hereafter or by reference to Badger herein.

[13] WPL's attitude toward the emergency interconnection was apparently influenced by consideration of whether the interconnection would put it in a "vulnerable position to a wheeling request from Dairyland."

[14] One interconnection would have eliminated the rebuilding of a line at a projected savings of $450,000.

power contracts and rate schedules applicable to cooperatives and municipalities which explicitly prevented purchases of power from any other source and prevented the resale of purchased power at wholesale.[24] In addition to the above provision, cooperatives had to take all requirements from WPL for a term of five to ten years. Municipal systems were subject to a similar obligation (except that if a city had some generation itself it was required only to purchase the remainder of its needs from WPL). Since WPL has generally followed a policy of requiring a new contract each time it upgrades a facility or makes a change in its service, the net effect has been to create a rolling kind of perpetual all-requirements contract. Moreover, wholesale purchasers were required to obtain the consent of WPL before interconnecting with any other system, without there being specified any standard for WPL to apply in determining whether consent could reasonably be withheld.[25] The total impact of these contract provisions upon the competitive environment has been to restrict the availability of bulk power supply in WPL's general service area to virtually one supplier—WPL. The action of the PSC in requiring WPL to eliminate many of the restrictive provisions merely removes future impediments, but it alone does not enable the municipal and cooperative systems to make up the ground they have lost during the long period they were subject to these restrictions.

5. Summary of Applicable Antitrust Principels. The facts outlined above demonstrate that WPL has had a policy of attempting to confine small municipal and cooperative systems to the status of wholesale customers and has carried out that policy by exercising in various ways its control over bulk power supply in its region.

Principles which have evolved under the antitrust laws place distinct limits upon a supplier's exercise of monopoly power to prevent its customers from developing alternative sources of supply. Section 2 of the Sherman Act is particularly relevant to this situation. As the Supreme Court states, "The offense of monopoly under section 2 of the Sherman Act has two elements: (1) the possession of monopoly power in the relevant market and (2) the willful acquisition or maintenance of that power as distinguished from the growth or development of a superior product, business acumen or historic accident." United States v. Grinnell Corporation, 364 U.S. 563, 571 (1966). The question particularly relevant here is whether a person who maintains a monopoly has separately, or with others, carried out business policies which raise unnecessary "barriers to competition." United States v. United Shoe Machinery Corp., 110 F. Supp. 295, 344, 345 (D. Mass. 1953), affirmed per curiam, 347 U.S. 521. The actions by WPL to prevent its wholesale customers from obtaining access to alternative bulk power supplies or to the forms of system coordination necessary to develop their own supplies appear to have created such barriers to competition. The District Court in United States v. Otter Tail Power Co., 331 F. Supp. 54 (D. Minn. 1971), aff'd, 410 U.S. 366 (1973) held that a utility could not use its lawful monopoly of bulk power supply (in that case a monopoly of subtransmission facilities) to impair competition at the retail level.

Apart from the question of whether WPL, acting unilaterally, has exceeded permissible bounds in attempting to prevent its customers from obtaining alternative bulk power supplies, WPL's participation with other utilities in important joint facilities and programs, such as the WUMS pool, raises additional antitrust questions. Firms which jointly control a resource which is essential to effective competition in a particular market are required, under long established antitrust principles, to grant access on equal and nondiscriminatory terms to all others engaged in the given business. See e.g., United States v. Terminal R.R. Ass'n., 224 U.S. 383 (1912); Associated Press v. United States, 326 U.S. 1 (1945); Gamco, Inc. v. Providence Fruit & Produce Bldg., 194 F. 2d 484 (1st Cir. 1952), cert. denied, 344 U.S. 817 (1952). This principle applies to bulk power supply arrangements. United States v. Otter Tail Power Co., 331 F. Supp. 54 (D. Minn. 1971), aff'd, 410 U.S. 366 (1973).

Other antitrust principles are relevant to evaluating the matters discussed above. Territorial division of markets by agreement constitutes per se violations of the antitrust laws. United States v. Topco Associates, 405 U.S. 596 (1972); White Motor Co. v. United States, 372 U.S. 253 (1963). Exclusive dealing contracts or all-requirement contracts which are of excessively long duration and which substantially foreclose actual and potential competitors from access to particular markets are unreasonable restraints of trade. A seller's placing of a general restraint or limitation upon the freedom of a purchaser to dispose of a product is an unreasonable restraint of trade and this would be particularly true where such restraint on alienation serve to foreclose competition. See Arnold, Schwinn Co. v. United States, 388 U.S. 365 (1967); Standard Oil Co. v. United States, 337 U.S. 293 (1949).

CONCLUSION

The power to be generated by the Koshkonong Nuclear Power Plant, Units 1 and 2, will be integrated into each applicant's system and will provide a low-cost base load power supply for each system. The ability to construct such units is obtained through coordinated planning with each other and with other systems. Without the ability to similarly coordinate with others smaller systems in Wisconsin cannot gain access to economies of scale in bulk power supply, particularly access to nuclear power. As indicated above, the large electric systems in Wisconsin appear to have had a common policy of not coordinating with the smaller systems. Secondly, the applicant companies own or control the transmission grid which might otherwise offer some opportunity for smaller systems to coordinate with others. With respect to MGE, WEP, its subsidiary WMP, and WPS, the Department has assurances that, to the extent they own or control the transmission grid, other electric power systems will have an opportunity to utilize their transmission lines. Furthermore, those companies have assured the Department that the smaller electric power systems in their areas will have an opportunity to engage in bulk power exchanges and coordination, as well as an opportunity to participate in their nuclear generating projects.

The specific practices of WPL in refusing to wheel power, in refusing to interconnect, in refusing to enter into reserve sharing and power exchange arrangements and in maintenance of restrictive contract provisions, demonstrate a pattern of conduct designed to prevent its wholesale customers from obtaining an alternative bulk power supply. Smaller systems in WPL's area, therefore, have no present access to nuclear power because they have no access to this Applicant's transmission grid and to the pattern of coordination arrangements which WPL maintains with other Wisconsin systems. WPL dominance will be continued if the company does not alter its policies and practices. Therefore, there is reason to believe that, absent assurances that WPL will act promptly to correct the situation, issuance of the construction permit to WPL would create and maintain a situation inconsistent with the antitrust laws.

RECOMMENDATION

With respect to MGE, WEP and WPS, if the statements of bulk power policy attached hereto were to be imposed by the Commission as conditions to the constructon permit applied for in the instant docket, as is agreeable to these companies and as the Department hereby recommends, an antitrust hearing would appear unnecessary.

With respect to WPL, the Department, for the reasons elaborated above, concludes that the Commission should hold an antitrust hearing. If, however, WPL were to (1) indicate its willingness to accept license conditions similar to these agreed to by the other applicants and (2) demonstrate its good faith intention to eliminate any competitive restraints upon the smaller systems by agreeing to undertake interim negotiations with the small systems in order to assure prompt effectuation of coordinating arrangements as soon as the license conditions become effective, an antitrust hearing would not then be required.

WISCONSIN PUBLIC SERVICE CORP.

FEBRUARY 7, 1975.

Re: Koshkonong Nuclear Generating Plant, Units 1 and 2.

Attached to this letter is a Statement of Bulk Power Supply Policy which sets forth the policies that will be applicable to Wisconsin Public Service Corporation's (WPSC) bulk power dealings with other electric power utilities. We have discussed this Statement with the staff of the Department of Justice and the Staff of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission in connection with the antitrust review of the application for Construction Permit and Operating License to be issued by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission in the above-referenced proceedings.

You have indicated that if WPSC is willing to have the above-referenced Statement of Bulk Power Supply Policy and the commitments contained therein incorporated in the Nuclear Regulatory Commission permit and license, this would enable the Department of Justice to advise the Nuclear Regulatory Commission that no antitrust hearing with reference to WPSC will be necessary. We are willing to have this done based on the following understanding:

1. Nothing in the Statement of Bulk Power Supply Policy or in this letter shall be construed as a waiver by WPSC of its rights to contest the application of any commitment therein to a particular factual situation.

2. By this Statement of Bulk Power Supply Policy WPSC does not waive any rights that it may have to apply to any appropriate forum to seek such changes in the Statement of Policy as may at the time be appropriate in accordance with the then existing law and good operating practice.

3. WPSC does not intend, and shall not become, by this Statement of Bulk Power Supply Policy or by operations in accordance therewith, to become a common carrier.

4. Nothing in this Statement of Bulk Power Supply Policy or in this letter shall be construed to affect in any manner the franchises, indeterminate permits, or certificates or authority of WPSC.

STATEMENT OF BULK POWER SUPPLY POLICY

I. DEFINITIONS

(a) "Service Area" means those areas within the States of Wisconsin and Michigan and any other adjacent State served now or in the future by Licensee and areas proximate thereto.

(b) "Bulk Power" means electric capacity and any attendant energy supplied or made available at transmission or subtransmission voltage by one electric utility to another.

(c) "Licensee" means Wisconsin Public Service Corporation, any successor corporation of the above, or any assignee(s) of its interest in this license.

(d) "Neighboring Entity" means a financially responsible private or public corporation, governmental agency or authority, municipality, electric cooperative, or any lawful association of any of the foregoing, owning, contractually controlling, or operating, or in good faith proposing to own, contractually control, or operate, facilities for the generation or transmission of electricity for Bulk Power supply which meets each of the following criteria: (1) Its existing or proposed facilities are technically feasible of interconnection with those of Licensee; (2) its existing or proposed facilities are fully or partially within the Service Area, and (3) with the exception of municipalities, electric cooperatives, governmental agencies or authorities, or lawful associations of any of the foregoing, it is, or upon commencement of operations will be, a public utility subject to regulation as to rates and services under state laws or under the Federal Power Act.

(e) "Neighboring distribution system" means a financially responsible private or public corporation, governmental agency or authority, municipality, electric cooperative, or lawful association of any of the foregoing, engaging, or in good faith proposing to engage, in the distribution of electric power at retail which meets each of the criteria numbered (1) through (3) in subparagraph (d) above.

(f) "Electric system" means a financially responsible private or public corporation, governmental agency or authority, municipality, electric cooperative, or lawful association of any of the foregoing, owning, contractually controlling, or operating, or in good faith proposing to own, contractually control, or operate, facilities for the generation, transmission or distribution of electricity whose facilities are not within the Service Area and which meets the criteria specified in (3) of subparagraph (d) above.

(g) "Cost" means any administrative, general, and capital costs, operating and maintenance expenses, and reasonable return on investment which are properly allocable to the particular transaction.

(h) "Good operating practice" refers to those practices, methods, or acts that would be expected to provide at the lowest reasonable cost the reliability and safety required under the circumstances by the exercise of reasonable judgment in the light of the current state of technology, provided such practices, methods, or acts are not unreasonably restrictive.

II. INTERCONNECTIONS

(a) Licensee will interconnect and will operate in parallel in accordance with Good Operating Practice with any Neighboring Entity and will interconnect with any Neighboring Distribution System.

(b) Interconnections will not be limited to lower voltages when higher voltages are requested and available.

(c) Interconnection arrangements shall provide for the necessary facilities, operating procedures and control equipment as required for safe and prudent operation of the interconnected systems in accordance with Good Operating Practice.

(d) The Cost of interconnection will be allocated on the basis of benefits derived from the interconnection by each party after consideration of the various transactions for which the interconnection facilities are to be utilized.

(e) Interconnection agreements will not embody provisions which impose limitations upon the use or resale of capacity and energy sold or exchanged pursuant to the agreement except as may be necessary in accordance with Good Operating Practice.

(f) Interconnection agreements will not prohibit any party from entering into other interconnections or coordination agreements, but will include appropriate provisions to assure that (1) The party(ies) receives adequate notice of such additional interconnection or coordination arrangement, and (2) the parties will jointly consider and agree upon such measures, if any, as are reasonably necessary in accordance with Good Operating Practice.

III. RESERVE COORDINATION

(a) Licensee and the Neighboring Entities with which it interconnects shall jointly establish a level of minimum reserves to be provided as necessary to maintain a total reserve margin sufficient to provide reliability of power supply to the interconnected systems of the parties. Unless otherwise mutually agreed upon, the level of minimum reserves thus determined shall be calculated as a percentage of estimated annual peak load (including sales of firm power) adjusted to exclude purchases of firm power. No party to the interconnection shall be required to maintain more than such percentage; provided, if such percentage is increased over the amount that Licensee would be required to maintain without such interconnection arrangement, then the other party shall be required to carry, or provide for, as its reserves the full amount of kilowatts of such increase.

(b) Licensee will sell emergency power to any Neighboring Entity which maintains the level of minimum reserve established in paragraph (a) above and agrees to sell emergency power to Licensee. Licensee shall engage in such transactions if and when capacity and energy for such transactions are available from its own generating resources, from a Neighboring Entity(ies), or from interconnected Electric Systems, but only to the extent that it can do so without impairing service to Licensee's customers. Emergency power shall be furnished to the fullest extent available from the supplying party and desired by the party in need and at rates which compensate the seller for its Cost.

(c) Licensee and the Neighboring Entities with which it interconnects shall jointly establish a level of minimum ready (operating) reserves. Unless otherwise mutually agreed upon, the level of minimum ready (operating) reserves thus determined shall be calculated as a percentage of estimated annual peak load (including sales of firm power) adjusted to exclude purchases of firm power. No party to the interconnection shall be required to maintain more than such percentage, provided, that if such percentage is increased over the amount that Licensee would be required to maintain without such interconnection arrangements then the other party shall be required to carry, or provide for, as its ready (operating) reserves the full amount of kilowatts of such increases. However, in no circumstances shall a party's ready (operating) reserve requirement exceed its level of minimum reserves established in paragraph (a) above.

(d) When Licensee has generating capacity in excess of the amount called for by its own reserve criteria, it will offer, on terms which enable Licensee to recover its Costs, any such excess to a Neighboring Entity to meet such Entity's own reserve requirements if the Neighboring Entity is willing to do likewise for Licensee when circumstances allow.

(e) Licensee and the Neighboring Entities, who request to do so, shall prepare joint maintenance schedules and shall make sales of maintenance power and energy when it is reasonable to do so in accordance with Good Operating Practice.

IV. OTHER POWER EXCHANGES

Licensee currently has on file, and may hereafter file, with the Federal Power Commission rate schedules and/or contracts with other electric utility systems providing for the sale and purchase of short-term capacity and energy, limited term capacity and energy, long term capacity and energy, economy energy, and other forms of capacity and energy. Licensee will, on a fair and equitable basis, enter into contracts with any Neighboring Entity providing for the same or like capacity and energy transactions. In order to facilitate the making of such transactions, Licensee will respond promptly to inquiries of Neighboring Entities concerning the availability of all such forms of capacity and energy from its system. Such transactions will be on terms which will enable Licensee to recover its Cost.

V. WHOLESALE POWER SALES

(a) Licensee will sell Bulk Power to any Neighboring Distribution System in accordance with rates, terms and conditions which compensate the Licensee for its Cost, and which do not restrict use or resale except as may be necessary in accordance with Good Operating Practice. Such sales shall be for full or for partial requirements as requested by the Neighboring Distribution System. Such sales shall not be made subject to any condition which would prohibit, restrict or in any manner impede the Neighboring Distribution System from providing service to any type of, class of, or specific electrical user. Licensee shall not be required to make any such sale if it does not have available sufficient generation or transmission to provide the requested service or if such sale would impair its ability to render adequate service to its customers.

(b) Licensee shall, upon request of a Neighboring Entity(ies) and/or Neighboring Distribution System(s), file with the appropriate regulatory authority an appropriate rate schedule(s) for sales requested pursuant to this Section V, provided no such rate schedule is currently effective.

VI. TRANSMISSION SERVICES

(a) Licensee will provide transmission service for Bulk Power transactions between or among two or more Neighboring Entities or a Neighboring Entity(ies) and Neighboring Distribution System(s) with whom Licensee is now, or in the future, interconnected. Licensee will also provide transmission services for Bulk Power transactions between any Neighboring Entity(ies) or Neighboring Distribution System(s) and other Electric System(s) between whose facilities Licensee's transmission lines and the lines of others form a continuous electrical path, provided Licensee shall not be responsible for procuring permission of such other parties for use of such parties' transmission lines. Licensee will provide such transmission services if such services can reasonably be accommodated from a technical standpoint without impairing Licensee's system reliability or its own use of its facilities in a manner consistent with Good Operating Practice.

[24] WPL justified the restraint on resale as necessary to prevent the cooperatives from taking advantage of a special low rate tailored to their load characteristics in order to resell power to municipal systems with very different load characteristics. The restriction, however, was obviously broader than necessary to accomplish the legitimate purpose of identifying relevant load characteristics.

[25] For example, when the city of Stoughton contemplated selling its hydro plants to a private corporation and buying back the power output WPL was reluctant to allow this arrangement. WPL, however, decided it would consent if the private corporation gave assurances the amount of power sold would never exceed a specified limit.

(b) Licensee shall include in its planning and construction programs sufficient transmission capacity as required for the transactions referred to in paragraph (a) of this section VI, provided the Neighboring Entity(ies) or Neighboring Distribution System(s) gives Licensee sufficient advance notice as may be necessary to accommodate the requesting party's requirements from a technical standpoint and such Neighboring Entity(ies) or such Neighboring Distribution System(s) compensates Licensee for its Cost. Licensee shall not be required to construct transmission facilities (1) if such facilities would not be in accord with Good Operating Practice, (2) if such facilities will be of no demonstrable present or future benefit to Licensee, (3) if such facilities could be constructed by the requesting party without duplicating any portion of Licensee's transmission system, or (4) if construction of such facilities would jeopardize Licensee's ability to finance on reasonable terms, facilities to meet its anticipated system requirements.

(c) Consistent with Paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Section VI, Licensee shall provide transmission services for transporting power from the Koshkonong Nuclear Power Plant or from any future nuclear generating unit(s) which Licensee may own or operate for the life of this license, or any renewal thereof, to any Neighboring Entity participating therein pursuant to the requirements of Section VII.

(d) Nothing herein shall require Licensee to provide transmission services for a retail customer.

(e) Licensee shall, upon request of a Neighboring Entity(ies) and/or Neighboring Distribution System(s), file with the appropriate regulatory authority an appropriate rate schedule for the required transmission service so requested, provided no such rate schedule is currently effective.

VII. ACCESS TO NUCLEAR GENERATION

(a) When a Neighboring Entity(ies) or a Neighboring Distribution System(s) makes a timely request to Licensee for participation in the ownership of a portion of, or (if the requesting party so elects) by the purchase of a portion of the output of, Koshkonong Nuclear Power Plant and any future nuclear generating Unit(s) which Licensee may hereafter own or operate, severally or jointly, during the life of this license, or any renewal thereof, Licensee will afford to the requesting party the opportunity to so participate on a basis that will compensate Licensee for its Cost incurred and to be incurred. The request shall be deemed timely with respect to Koshkonong Nuclear Power Plant, Unit 1, if received by July 1, 1975, and Unit 2, if received by January 1, 1976. With respect to any future nuclear generating unit(s), the request shall be deemed timely if received within 180 days after the formal announcement of the intention to construct such unit.

(b) Any Neighboring Entity(ies) or Neighboring Distribution System(s) making a timely request for participation must enter into an executory agreement to assume financial responsibility for such participation in the unit(s) and the associated transmission facilities. Such an agreement shall be entered into within one year after Licensee shall have provided to each requesting party the financial and technical data which is specified by the Regulatory Staff of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission as being sufficient to enable such party to make a feasibility study as to participation. The requesting party shall pay to Licensee the additional expenses incurred by Licensee in making such financial and technical data available.

VIII. EFFECTUATION

(a) Licensee shall use its best efforts to amend any outstanding contract to which it is a party that contains provisions which are inconsistent with the terms of sections II through VII hereof.

(b) With respect to any initial rate schedule (including an initial contract submission) associated with the commitments herein which Licensee files with any such regulatory agency having jurisdiction, Licensee shall include a provision that (1) if within thirty (30) days after such filing by the Licensee a protest or complaint with respect thereto is filed with such regulatory agency, and (2) if the submitted rates become effective prior to the resolution of any contested issues set forth in such protest or complaint, and (3) if such submitted rates are thereafter changed in accordance with regulatory proceedings and findings, then, within sixty (60) days after issuance of a final and nonappealable order effecting such change, the Licensee shall make appropriate refunds (including interest) to retroactively reflect such changes.

(c) Licensee affirms that it does not, and will not have agreement(s) or understanding(s) requiring it to obtain consents from the other companies (or subsidiaries thereof) applying for this license to enable such Licensee to carry out its obligations hereunder or to enable the Neighboring Entity(ies) or Neighboring Distribution System(s) to enjoy their rights hereunder.

IX. REGULATORY COMMISSION JURISDICTION

The foregoing is to be implemented and applied in a manner consistent with Federal, state, and local laws, regulations and orders. All rates, charges, terms and practices are and will be subject to the acceptance and/or approval of any regulatory agencies or courts having jurisdiction over them.

MADISON GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

FEBRUARY 7, 1975.

We understand that in the course of your review of the joint application to construct the Koshkonong Nuclear Power Plant, Units 1 and 2, certain antitrust questions relating to the bulk power supply policies of certain of the applicants have been raised. Insofar as Madison Gas and Electric Company (MG&E) is concerned, we are confident that any such questions can be satisfactorily answered. MG&E believes that its policies and activities have been and are consistent with the antitrust laws. We have outlined these policies in meetings with the Department. We understand that if we are willing to have these policies of MG&E, which you consider relevant to your antitrust review, incorporated in the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the NRC) license, as license conditions, this would enable the Department of Justice to advise the NRC that no antitrust hearing, with respect to MG&E, will be necessary. We are perfectly willing to do this.

Therefore we have enclosed with this letter a proposed Statement of Bulk Power Supply Policy (the Statement) of MG&E concerning bulk power supply arrangements with neighboring electric systems. MG&E agrees that this Statement may be included as a condition to the Construction Permits and Operating Licenses to be issued by the NRC with respect to these units.

The attached Statement is subject to the following understandings:

1. Nothing contained in the Statement or in this letter shall be construed as a waiver by MG&E of its right to contest the application of the Statement to a particular factual situation.

2. By the Statement, MG&E does not waive any rights that it may have to apply to any appropriate forum to seek such changes in the Statement as may at the time be appropriate in accordance with the then existing law and Good Industry Practice.

3. By the Statement or by operations in accordance therewith, MG&E does not intend and shall not become a common carrier.

4. Nothing in the Statement or in this letter shall be construed to affect in any manner the franchises or indeterminate permits of MG&E, or declaratory rulings or certificates of authority of the Wisconsin Public Service Commission pertaining to MG&E.

5. MG&E reserves all rights and protection as may be afforded to it by law with respect to any and all distribution and/or sale of retail electric service in the area in which it renders electric service.

6. The Statement is not intended to preclude MG&E and a Neighboring Entity from reaching an agreement not covered which extends or supplements the provisions of the Statement in a manner not inconsistent with the broad purposes expressed therein and applicable law.

7. The Statement shall not affect any right MG&E may have to receive compensation for any electric facilities it voluntarily sells or is legally required to sell or relinquish.

In making the Statement, it is recognized that arrangements to effectuate it will involve planning by the parties and should be reciprocal as nearly as may be although it is recognized that in any particular arrangement the benefits may not be equal or identical for each party. The policies therein expressed cannot be implemented unilaterally. If an arrangement between or among the parties is to be successful and is to operate in the public interest, it must be negotiated and performed in good faith and with full cooperation by the parties to such arrangement. No party should capriciously reject a proposal submitted by another party and should give reasonable consideration to proposals made by each other and should afford similar opportunities on similar terms to each other.

STATEMENT OF BULK POWER SUPPLY POLICY

I. DEFINITIONS

(a) "Service area" means Dane County, Wisconsin, and counties adjacent thereto within the State of Wisconsin.

(b) "Bulk power" means electric capacity and any attendant energy supplied or made available at transmission or subtransmission voltage by one electric utility to another.

(c) "Licensee" means Madison Gas and Electric Company, any successor corporation, or any assignee of its interest in this license.

(d) "Neighboring entity" means a financially responsible private or public corporation, governmental agency or authority, municipality, electric cooperative, or any lawful association of any of the foregoing, owning, contractually controlling, or operating, or in good faith proposing to own, contractually control, or operate, facilities for the generation or transmission of electricity for Bulk Power supply which meets each of the following criteria: (1) its existing or proposed facilities are technically feasible of interconnection with those of Licensee; (2) its existing or proposed facilities are fully or partially within the Service Area, and (3) with the exception of municipalities, electric cooperatives, governmental agencies or authorities, or lawful association of any of the foregoing, it is, or upon commencement of operations will be a public utility under state laws or under the Federal Power Act.

(e) "Neighboring distribution system" means a financially responsible private or public corporation, governmental agency or authority, municipality, electric cooperative, or lawful association of any of the foregoing, engaging, or in good faith proposing to engage in the distribution of electric power to consumers at retail which meets each of the criteria numbered (1) through (3) in subparagraph (d) above.

(f) "Electric system" means a financially responsible private or public corporation, governmental agency or authority, municipality, electric cooperative, or lawful association of any of the foregoing, owning, contractually controlling, or operating or in good faith proposing to own, contractually control, or operate, facilities for the generation or transmission of Bulk Power or distribution of electric power to consumers at retail whose facilities are not within the service area and which meets the criterion numbered (3) in subparagraph (d) above.

(g) "Cost" means any administrative, general, and capital costs, operating and maintenance expenses, and reasonable return on investment which are properly allocable to the particular transaction.

(h) "Good operating practice" means those practices, methods or acts that would be expected to provide, at the lowest reasonable cost, the reliability and safety required under the circumstances by the exercise of reasonable judgment in the light of the then current state of technology provided such practices, methods or acts are not unreasonably restrictive.

II. INTERCONNECTIONS

(a) Licensee will interconnect and operate in parallel with any Neighboring Entity and will interconnect with any Neighboring Distribution System.

(b) Interconnections pursuant to this license will not be limited to lower voltages when higher voltages are requested and available.

(c) Interconnection arrangements shall provide for the necessary facilities, operating procedures and control equipment as required by Good Operating Practice.

(d) The Cost of interconnection will be allocated on the basis of benefits derived from the interconnection by each party after consideration of the various transactions for which the interconnection facilities are to be utilized.

(e) Interconnection agreements will not embody provisions which impose limitations upon the use or resale of capacity and energy sold or exchanged pursuant to the agreement except as may be necessary in accordance with Good Operating Practice.

(f) Interconnection agreements will not prohibit any party from entering into other interconnections or coordination agreements, but will include appropriate provisions to assure that (1) such party(ies) receives adequate notice of such additional interconnection or coordination arrangement, and (2) such parties will jointly consider and agree upon such measures, if any, as are reasonably necessary in accordance with Good Operating Practice.

III. RESERVE COORDINATION

(a) Licensee and the Neighboring Entities with which it interconnects shall from time to time jointly establish a level of minimum reserves to be provided as necessary to maintain a total reserve margin sufficient to provide reliability of power supply to the interconnected systems of the parties. Unless otherwise mutually agreed upon, the level of minimum reserves thus determined shall be calculated as a percentage of estimated annual peak load (including sales of firm power) adjusted to exclude purchases of firm power. No party to the interconnection shall be required to maintain more than such percentage, provided that, if such percentage is increased over the amount that Licensee would be required to maintain without such interconnection arrangements, then the other party shall be required to carry or provide for, as its reserves, the full amount of kilowatts of such increase.

(b) Licensee will sell emergency power to any Neighboring Entity which maintains the level of minimum reserve established in the paragraph (a) above and agrees to sell emergency power to Licensee. Licensee shall engage in such transactions if and when capacity and energy for such transactions are available from its own generating resources, from a Neighboring Entity(ies), or from interconnected Electric Systems, but only to the extent that it can do so without impairing service to Licensee's customers. Emergency power shall be furnished to the fullest extent available from the supplying party and desired by the party in need and at rates which compensate the seller for its Cost.

(c) Licensee and the Neighboring Entities with which it interconnects shall jointly establish a level of minimum ready reserves. Unless otherwise mutually agreed upon, the level of minimum ready reserves thus determined shall be calculated as a percentage of estimated annual peak load (including sales of firm power) adjusted to exclude purchases of firm power. No party to the interconnection shall be required to maintain more than such percentage, provided, that if such percentage is increased over the amount that Licensee would be required to maintain without such interconnection arrangements then the other party shall be required to carry or provide for, as its ready reserves, the full amount of kilowatts of such increases. However, in no circumstances shall a party's ready reserve requirement exceed its level of minimum reserves established in paragraph (a) above.

(d) When Licensee has generating capacity in excess of the amount called for by its own reserve criteria, it will offer, on terms which enable Licensee to recover its Cost, any such excess to a Neighboring Entity to meet such entity's own reserve requirements if the Neighboring Entity is willing to do likewise for Licensee when circumstances allow.

(e) Licensee and any Neighboring Entity(ies), upon the request of either party to do so, shall prepare joint maintenance schedules and shall make sales of maintenance energy when it is reasonable to do so in accordance with Good Operating Practice.

IV. OTHER POWER EXCHANGES

Licensee will sell Bulk Power to any Neighmay hereafter file, with the Federal Power Commission rate schedules and/or contracts with Neighboring Entities providing for the sale and purchase of short-term capacity and energy, economy energy, emergency energy, general purpose energy and other forms of surplus capacity and energy. Licensee will, on a fair and equitable basis, enter into contracts with any Neighboring Entity providing for the same or like capacity and energy transactions. In order to facilitate the making of such transaction, Licensee will respond promptly to inquiries of Neighboring Entities concerning the availability of all such forms of capacity and energy from its system. Each transaction will be on terms which will enable Licensee to recover its Cost.

V. WHOLESALE POWER SALES

Licensee will sell Bulk Power to any Neighboring Distribution System in accordance with rates, terms and conditions which compensate the Licensee for its Cost, and which do not restrict use or resale. Such sales shall be for full or for partial requirements as requested by the Neighboring Distribution System. Licensee shall not be required to make any such sale if it does not have available sufficient generation or transmission or interconnection capability, subject to the provisions of Section II above, to provide the requested service in accordance with Good Operating Practice.

VI. TRANSMISSION SERVICES

(a) Licensee will provide transmission service for Bulk Power transactions between or among two or more Neighboring Entities or a Neighboring Entity (ies) and Neighboring Distribution System(s) with whom Licensee is now, or in the future, interconnected. Licensee will also provide transmission services for Bulk Power transactions between any Neighboring Entity(ies) or Neighboring Distribution System(s) and any other Electric System(s) between whose facilities Licensee's transmission lines and the lines of others form a continuous electrical path provided Licensee shall not be responsible for procuring permission of such other Electric System(s) for use of that system's transmission lines. Licensee will provide such transmission services if and for so long as such services can reasonably be accommodated from a technical standpoint without impairing Licensee's reliability or its own use of its facilities in a manner consistent with Good Operating Practice.

(b) Licensee shall include in its planning and construction programs sufficient transmission capacity as required for the transactions referred to in Paragraph (a) of this section VI, provided the Neighboring Entity(ies) or Neighboring Distribution System(s) gives Licensee sufficient advance commitment as may be necessary to accommodate the requesting party's requirements from a technical standpoint and such Neighboring Entity(ies) or such Neighboring Distribution System(s) compensate Licensee for its Cost. Licensee shall not be required to construct transmission facilities (1) if such facilities would not be in accord with Good Operating Practice, (2) if such facilities will be of no demonstrable present or future benefit to Licensee, (3) if such facilities could be constructed by the requesting party without duplicating any portion of Licensee's transmission system, or (4) if construction of such facilities would jeopardize Licensee's ability to finance on reasonable terms facilities to meet anticipated system requirements.

(c) Consistent with paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section VI, Licensee shall provide transmission services for transporting Bulk Power from the Koshkonong Nuclear Power Plant or from any future nuclear generating unit(s) which Licensee may own or operate during the term of this license or any renewal thereof to any Neighboring Entity participating therein pursuant to the requirements of Section VII.

(d) Nothing herein shall require Licensee to provide transmission facilities or services for a retail customer.

(e) Licensee shall file any agreements providing for transmission services with the appropriate regulatory authority.

VII. ACCESS TO NUCLEAR GENERATION

(a) When a Neighboring Entity(ies) or a Neighboring Distribution System(s) makes a timely request to Licensee for participation by the ownership of a portion of, or (if the requesting party so elects) by the purchase of a portion of the output of, the Koshkonong Nuclear Generating Plant or any future nuclear generating unit(s) which Licensee may hereafter own or operate, severally or jointly, during the life of this license, or any renewal thereof, Licensee will afford to the requesting party the opportunity to so participate on a basis that will compensate Licensee for its Cost incurred and to be incurred. The request shall be deemed timely with respect to Koshkonong Nuclear Power Plant, Unit 1, if received by July 1, 1975, and Unit 2, if received by January 1, 1976. With respect to any future nuclear generating unit(s), the request shall be deemed timely if received within 180 days after the formal announcement of the intention to construct such unit(s).

(b) Any Neighboring Entity or any Neighboring Distribution System making a timely request for participation must enter into an executory agreement to assume financial responsibility for participation in the unit(s) and the associated transmission facilities. Such agreement must be entered into within one year after Licensee shall have provided to each requesting party the financial and technical data which is specified by the Regulatory Staff of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission to be sufficient to enable such party to make a feasibility study as to participation. The requesting party shall pay to Licensee the additional expenses incurred by Licensee in making such financial and technical data available.

VIII. IMPLEMENTATION

(a) The foregoing is to be implemented and applied in a manner consistent with Federal, state, and local laws, regulations, rulings and orders. All rates, charges, terms and practices are and will be subject to the acceptance and/or approval of any regulatory agencies or courts having jurisdiction over them.

(b) Licensee affirms that it does not and will not have agreement(s) or understanding(s) requiring it to obtain consents from the other companies or subsidiaries thereof applying for this license to enable such Licensee to carry out its obligations hereunder or to enable the Neighboring Entity(ies) or Neighboring Distribution System(s) to enjoy their rights hereunder.

(c) Nothing contained herein shall enlarge any rights of a Neighboring Entity, Neighboring Distribution System or Electric System to provide services to retail customers of Licensee beyond the rights they have under state or federal law.

WISCONSIN ELECTRIC POWER CO.

FEBRUARY 7, 1975.

Attached to this letter is a Statement of Bulk Power Supply Policy which sets forth the policies that will be applicable to Wisconsin Electric Power Company's ("Wepco") and Wisconsin Michigan Power Company's bulk power dealings with other electric power utilities. We have discussed this Statement of Policy with the Staff of the Department of Justice and the Staff of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission in connection with the antitrust review in the application for a construction permit and operating license to be issued by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission in the above-referenced proceedings.

You have indicated that if Wepco is willing to have the above-referenced Statement of Bulk Power Supply Policy and the commitments contained therein incorporated in the Nuclear Regulatory Commission permit and license, this would enable the Department of Justice to advise the Nuclear Regulatory Commission that no antitrust hearing with reference to Wepco will be necessary. We are willing to have this done based on the following understandings:

(1) Nothing in the Statement of Bulk Power Supply Policy or in this letter shall be construed as a waiver by Wepco or Wisconsin Michigan Power Company of its rights to contest the application of any commitment therein to a particular factual situation.

(2) By the Statement of Bulk Power Supply Policy, neither Wepco nor Wisconsin Michigan Power Company waives any rights that it may have to apply to any appropriate forum to seek such changes in the Statement of Bulk Power Supply Policy as may at the time be appropriate in accordance with the then existing law and good operating practice.

(3) By the Statement of Bulk Power Supply Policy or by operations in accordance therewith, neither Wepco nor Wisconsin Michigan Power Company intends to become, and neither shall become, a common carrier.

(4) Nothing in the Statement of Bulk Power Supply Policy or in this letter shall be construed to affect in any manner the franchises, indeterminate permits or certificates of authority of Wepco or Wisconsin Michigan Power Company, or declaratory rulings or certificates of authority of the Wisconsin Public Service Commission or the Michigan Public Service Commission pertaining to Wepco or to Wisconsin Michigan Power Company.

STATEMENT OF BULK POWER SUPPLY POLICY

I. DEFINITIONS

(a) "Service area" means those areas within the States of Wisconsin and Michigan and any other adjacent State served now or in the future by Licensee and areas proximate thereto.

(b) "Bulk power" means electric capacity and any attendant energy supplied or made available at transmission or subtransmission voltage by one electric utility to another.

(c) "Licensee" means Wisconsin Electric Power Company and, solely for the purpose of these conditions, its subsidiary Wisconsin Michigan Power Company, any successor corporation of the above, or any assignee(s) of its interest in this license.

(d) "Neighboring entity" means a financially responsible private or public corporation, governmental agency or authority, municipality, electric cooperative, or any lawful association of any of the foregoing, owning, contractually controlling, or operating, or in good faith proposing to own, contractually control, or operate, facilities for the generation or transmission of electricity for Bulk Power supply which meets each of the following criteria: (1) its existing or proposed facilities are technically feasible of interconnection with those of Licensee; (2) its existing or proposed facilities are fully or partially within the Service Area, and (3) with the exception of municipalities, electric cooperatives, governmental agencies or authorities, or lawful associations of any of the foregoing, it is, or upon commencement of operations will be, a public utility subject to regulation as to rates and services under state laws or under the Federal Power Act.

(e) "Neighboring distribution system" means a financially responsible private or public corporation, governmental agency or authority, municipality, electric cooperative, or lawful association of any of the foregoing, engaging, or in good faith proposing to engage, in the distribution of electric power at retail which meets each of the criteria numbered (1) through (3) in subparagraph (d) above.

(f) "Electric system" means a financially responsible private or public corporation, governmental agency or authority, municipality, electric cooperative, or lawful association of any of the foregoing, owning, contractually controlling, or operating, or in good faith proposing to own, contractually control, or operate, facilities for the generation, transmission or distribution of electricity whose facilities are not within the Service Area and which meets the criteria specified in (3) of subparagraph (d) above.

(g) "Cost" means any administrative, general, and capital costs, operating and maintenance expenses, and reasonable return on investment which are properly allocable to the particular transaction.

(h) "Good operating practice" refers to those practices, methods, or acts that would be expected to provide at the lowest reasonable cost the reliability and safety required under the circumstances by the exercise of reasonable judgment in the light of the current state of technology, provided such practices, methods, or acts are not unreasonably restrictive.

II. INTERCONNECTIONS

(a) Licensee will interconnect and will operate in parallel in accordance with Good Operating Practice with any Neighboring Entity and will interconnect with any Neighboring Distribution System.

(b) Interconnections will not be limited to lower voltages when higher voltages are requested and available.

(c) Interconnection arrangements shall provide for the necessary facilities, operating procedures and control equipment as required for safe and prudent operation of the interconnected systems in accordance with Good Operating Practice.

(d) The Cost of interconnection will be allocated on the basis of benefits derived from the interconnection by each party after consideration of the various transactions for which the interconnection facilities are to be utilized.

(e) Interconnection agreements will not embody provisions which impose limitations upon the use or resale of capacity and energy sold or exchanged pursuant to the agreement except as may be necessary in accordance with Good Operating Practice.

(f) Interconnection agreements will not prohibit any party from entering into other interconnections or coordination agreements, but will include appropriate provisions to assure that (1) the party(ies) receives adequate notice of such additional interconnection or coordination arrangement, and (2) the parties will jointly consider and agree upon such measures, if any, as are reasonably necessary in accordance with Good Operating Practice.

III. RESERVE COORDINATION

(a) Licensee and the Neighboring Entities with which it interconnects shall jointly establish a level of minimum reserves to be provided as necessary to maintain a total reserve margin sufficient to provide reliability of power supply to the interconnected systems of the parties. Unless otherwise mutually agreed upon, the level of minimum reserves thus determined shall be calculated as a percentage of estimated annual peak load (including sales of firm power) adjusted to exclude purchases of firm power. No party to the interconnection shall be required to maintain more than such percentage; provided, if such percentage is increased over the amount that Licensee would be required to maintain without such interconnection arrangement, then the other party shall be required to carry, or provide for, as its reserves the full amount of kilowatts of such increase.

(b) Licensee will sell emergency power to any Neighboring Entity which maintains the level of minimum reserve established in paragraph (a) above and agrees to sell emergency power to Licensee. Licensee shall engage in such transactions if and when capacity and energy for such transactions are available from its own generating resources, from a Neighboring Entity(ies), or from interconnected Electric Systems, but only to the extent that it can do so without impairing service to Licensee's customers. Emergency power shall be furnished to the fullest extent available from the supplying party and desired by the party in need and at rates which compensate the seller for its Cost.

(c) Licensee and the Neighboring Entities with which it interconnects shall jointly establish a level of minimum ready (operating) reserves. Unless otherwise mutually agreed upon, the level of minimum ready (operating) reserves thus determined shall be calculated as a percentage of estimated annual peak load (including sales of firm power) adjusted to exclude purchases of firm power. No party to the interconnection shall be required to maintain more than such percentage, provided, that if such percentage is increased over the amount that Licensee would be required to maintain without such interconnection arrangements then the other party shall be required to carry, or provide for, as its ready (operating) reserves the full amount of kilowatts of such increases. However, in no circumstances shall a party's ready (operating) reserve requirement exceed its level of minimum reserves established in paragraph (a) above.

(d) When Licensee has generating capacity in excess of the amount called for by its own reserve criteria, it will offer, on terms which enable Licensee to recover its Costs, any such excess to a Neighboring Entity to meet such Entity's own reserve requirements if the Neighboring Entity is willing to do likewise for Licensee when circumstances allow.

(e) Licensee and the Neighboring Entities, who request to do so, shall prepare joint maintenance schedules and shall make sales of maintenance power and energy when it is reasonable to do so in accordance with Good Operating Practice.

IV. OTHER POWER EXCHANGES

Licensee currently has on file, and may hereafter file, with the Federal Power Commission rate schedules and/or contracts with other electric utility systems providing for the sale and purchase of short-term capacity and energy, limited term capacity and energy, long term capacity and energy, economy energy, and other forms of capacity and energy. Licensee will, on a fair and equitable basis, enter into contracts with any Neighboring Entity providing for the same or like capacity and energy transactions. In order to facilitate the making of such transactions, Licensee will respond promptly to inquiries of Neighboring Entities concerning the availability of all such forms of capacity and energy from its system. Such transactions will be on terms which will enable Licensee to recover its Cost.

V. WHOLESALE POWER SALES

(a) Licensee will sell Bulk Power to any Neighboring Distribution System in accordance with rates, terms and conditions which compensate the Licensee for its Cost, and which do not restrict use or resale except as may be necessary in accordance with Good Operating Practice. Such sales shall be for full or for partial requirements as requested by the Neighboring Distribution System. Such sales shall not be made subject to any condition which would prohibit, restrict or in any manner impede the Neighboring Distribution System from providing service to any type of, class of, or specific electrical user. Licensee shall not be required to make any such sale if it does not have available sufficient generation or transmission to provide the requested service or if such sale would impair its ability to render adequate service to its customers.

(b) Licensee shall, upon request of a Neighboring Entity(ies) and/or Neighboring Distribution System(s), file with the appropriate regulatory authority an appropriate rate schedule(s) for sales requested pursuant to this section V, provided no such rate schedule is currently effective.

VI. TRANSMISSION SERVICES

(a) Licensee will provide transmission service for Bulk Power transactions between or among two or more Neighboring Entities or a Neighboring Entity(ies) and Neighboring Distribution System(s) with whom Licensee is now, or in the future, interconnected. Licensee will also provide transmission services for Bulk Power transactions between any Neighboring Entity(ies) or Neighboring Distribution System(s) and other Electric System(s) between whose facilities Licensee's transmission lines and the lines of others form a continuous electrical path, provided Licensee shall not be responsible for procuring permission of such other parties for use of such parties' transmission lines. Licensee will provide such transmission services if such services can reasonably be accommodated from a technical standpoint without impairing Licensee's system reliability or its own use of its facilities in a manner consistent with Good Operating Practice.

(b) Licensee shall include in its planning and construction programs sufficient transmission capacity as required for the transactions referred to in Paragraph (a) of this section VI, provided the Neighboring Entity(ies) or Neighboring Distribution System(s) gives Licensee sufficient advance notice as may be necessary to accommodate the requesting party's requirements from a technical standpoint and such Neighboring Entity(ies) or such Neighboring Distribution System(s) compensates Licensee for its Cost. Licensee shall not be required to construct transmission facilities (1) if such facilities would not be in accord with Good Operating Practice, (2) if such facilities will be of no demonstrable present or future benefit to Licensee, (3) if such facilities could be constructed by the requesting party without duplicating any portion of Licensee's transmission system, or (4) if construction of such facilities would jeopardize Licensee's ability to finance on reasonable terms, facilities to meet its anticipated system requirements.

(c) Consistent with Paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Section VI, Licensee shall provide transmission services for transporting power from the Koshkonong Nuclear Power Plant or from any future nuclear generating unit(s) which Licensee may own or operate for the life of this license, or any renewal thereof, to any Neighboring Entity participating therein pursuant to the requirements of Section VII.

(d) Nothing herein shall require Licensee to provide transmission services for a retail customer.

(e) Licensee shall, upon request of a Neighboring Entity(ies) and/or Neighboring Distribution System(s), file with the appropriate regulatory authority an appropriate rate schedule for the required transmission service so requested, provided no such rate schedule is currently effective.

VII. ACCESS TO NUCLEAR GENERATION

(a) When a Neighboring Entity(ies) or a Neighboring Distribution System(s) makes a timely request to Licensee for participation in the ownership of a portion of, or (if the requesting party so elects) by the purchase of a portion of the output of, Koshkonong Nuclear Power Plant and any future nuclear generating Unit(s) which Licensee may hereafter own or operate, severally or jointly, during the life of this license, or any renewal thereof, Licensee will afford to the requesting party the opportunity to so participate on a basis that will compensate Licensee for its Cost incurred and to be incurred. The request shall be deemed timely with respect to Koshkonong Nuclear Power Plant, Unit 1, if received by July 1, 1975, and Unit 2, if received by January 1, 1976. With respect to any future nuclear generating unit(s), the request shall be deemed timely if received within 180 days after the formal announcement of the intention to construct such unit.

(b) Any Neighboring Entity(ies) or Neighboring Distribution System(s) making a timely request for participation must enter into an executory agreement to assume financial responsibility for such participation in the unit(s) and the associated transmission facilities. Such an agreement shall be entered into within one year after Licensee shall have provided to each requesting party the financial and technical data which is specified by the Regulatory Staff of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission as being sufficient to enable such party to make a feasibility study as to participation. The requesting party shall pay to Licensee the additional expenses incurred by Licensee in making such financial and technical data available.

(a) Licensee shall use its best efforts to amend any outstanding contract to which it is a party that contains provisions which are inconsistent with the terms of sections II through VII hereof.

(b) With respect to any initial rate schedule (including an initial contract submission) associated with the commitments herein which Licensee files with any such regulatory agency having jurisdiction, Licensee shall include a provision that (1) if within thirty (30) days after such filing by the Licensee a protest or complaint with respect thereto is filed with such regulatory agency, and (2) if the submitted rates become effective prior to the resolution of any contested issues set forth in such protest or complaint, and (3) if such submitted rates are thereafter changed in accordance with regulatory proceedings and findings, then, within sixty (60) days after issuance of a final and nonappealable order effecting such change, the Licensee shall make appropriate refunds (including interest) to retroactively reflect such changes.

(c) Licensee affirms that it does not, and will not have agreement(s) or understanding(s) requiring it to obtain consents from the other companies applying for this license to enable such Licensee to carry out its obligations hereunder or to enable the Neighboring Entity(ies) or Neighboring Distribution System(s) to enjoy their rights hereunder.

IX. REGULATORY COMMISSION JURISDICTION

The foregoing is to be implemented and applied in a manner consistent with Federal, state, and local laws, regulations and orders. All rates, charges, terms and practices are and will be subject to the acceptance and/or approval of any regulatory agencies or courts having jurisdiction over them.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70-5350]

OHIO POWER CO.

Filing of Post-Effective Amendment

MARCH 27, 1975.

Notice is hereby given that Ohio Power Company ("Ohio"), 301 Cleveland Avenue, SW., Canton, Ohio, 44701, an electric utility subsidiary company of American Electric Power Company, Inc., a registered holding company, has filed with this Commission an eleventh post-effective amendment to the application previously filed in this matter, pursuant to section 6(b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act") and Rule 50(a) (5) promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transaction. All interested persons are referred to the post-effective amendment to the application, which is summarized below, for a complete statement of the proposed transaction.

By orders dated June 29, 1973, September 18, 1973, April 8, 1974, June 10, 1974, July 5, 1974, October 1, 1974, December 31, 1974, and March 10, 1975 (Holding Company Act Release Nos. 18018, 18100, 18367, 18444, 18482, 18585, 18744, and 18853), this Commission, among other things, authorized the issuance and sale of short-term notes by Ohio to 71 banks in an aggregate amount up to $168,665,000 outstanding at any one time. At the time of said orders, the maximum amount of short-term indebtedness which Ohio could incur at any one time could not exceed $215,000,000.

It is now proposed that Ohio incur short-term indebtedness in an aggregate amount not to exceed $270,000,000. In no event would the borrowings by Ohio of short-term funds through the issuance and sale of notes to banks and commercial paper to dealers in commercial paper exceed the maximum amount allowable both under Ohio's Articles of Incorporation and the consent granted by Ohio's Cumulative Preferred stockholders permitting an increase in the amount of unsecured short term debt that Ohio could incur, which maximum amount as of December 31, 1974, was approximately $274,000,000.

Each note payable to a bank to be issued by Ohio will be dated as of the date of the borrowing which it evidences and will mature not more than 270 days after the date of issuance or renewal thereof. Each note will bear interest no greater than the prime rate of commercial banks at the time of issuance or in effect from time to time and will be prepayable at any time without premium or penalty. It is stated that Ohio will not pay any fees or charges to any of the banks in connection with the issuance and sale of such notes. Sufficient bank balances to meet operating and financial needs are kept at such banks to satisfy any compensating balance requirements in connection with the borrowings. If the average of such bank balances were maintained solely in order to fulfill the prevailing compensating balance requirements of such banks, generally between 15 and 20 percent, the effective interest cost to Ohio, based on a prime commercial rate of 7½ percent, would be 9.1 percent.

The commercial paper will be in the form of promissory notes in denominations of not less than $50,000 nor more than $5,000,000 and will be of varying maturities, with no maturity more than 270 days after the date of issue; none will be prepayable prior to maturity. The commercial paper notes of Ohio will be sold directly to not more than two dealers at a discount not in excess of the discount rate per annum prevailing at the time of issuance for commercial paper of comparable quality and maturity. No commercial paper notes will be issued having a maturity of more than 90 days at an effective interest cost which exceeds the effective interest cost at which Ohio could borrow from banks. The dealers will reoffer the commercial paper notes to not more than 100 of their customers identified and designated in a list (nonpublic) prepared in advance. It is expected that Ohio's commercial paper notes will be held by each dealer's customers to maturity, but if the customers wish to resell prior to maturity, the dealer, pursuant to a verbal repurchase agreement, will repurchase the notes and reoffer them to others in its group of 100 customers.

The proceeds from the issuance and sale of the notes will be used by Ohio to reimburse its treasury for past expenditures made in connection with its construction program and to pay part of the cost of its future construction program. Such construction expenditures for the year 1975 is estimated to total $180,000,000. The application states that, unless otherwise authorized by the Commission, all of the short-term debt of Ohio will be retired by December 31, 1975, from internal cash resources, debt or equity financing, or cash capital contributions.

Ohio requests exception from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule 50 for the proposed issuance and sale of its commercial paper pursuant to paragraph (a)(5) thereof on the grounds that it is not practicable to invite competitive bids for commercial paper. Ohio also requests authority to file certificates under Rule 24 with respect to the issuance and sale of commercial paper on a quarterly basis.

No state commission and no federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 18, 1975, request in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by said post-effective amendment to the application which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified should the Commission order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request should be served personally or by mail (air mail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon the applicant at the above-stated address, and proof of service (by affidavit or, in case of an attorney at law, by certificate) should be filed with the request. At any time after said date, the application, as now amended or as it may be further amended, may be granted as provided in Rule 23 of the general rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, or the Commission may grant exemption from such rules as provided in Rules 20(a) and 100 thereof or take such other action as it may deem appropriate. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive any notices and orders issued in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

For the Commission, by the Division of Corporate Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

[SEAL] GEORGE A. FITZSIMMONS,
Secretary.

RELIANCE WORLD TRADE COMPANY LTD.

Application and Opportunity for Hearing

MARCH 26, 1975.

Notice is hereby given that Reliance World Trade Company Ltd. (formerly Leasco World Trade Company Ltd.) ("Applicant") has filed an application pursuant to section 12(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "1934 Act"), for a finding that an exemption from the requirement to file reports pursuant to section 13 of the 1934 Act would not be inconsistent with the public interest or the protection of investors.

Section 12(b) of the 1934 Act provides that an issuer may register securities on a national exchange by filing a registration statement with both the exchange and the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") which registration statement contains information as to the issuer and any person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by the issuer as the Commission may require for the protection of investors or in the public interest.

Section 13 of the 1934 Act requires that issuers of securities registered pursuant to section 12 must file certain periodic reports with the Commission for the protection of investors and to insure fair dealing in the security.

Section 12(h) of the 1934 Act empowers the Commission to exempt, in whole or in part, any issuer or class of issuers from the registration or periodic reporting provisions under sections 12 and 13, if the Commission finds, by reason of the number of public investors, amount of trading interest in the securities, the nature and extent of the activities of the issuer, income or assets of the issuer or otherwise, that such exemption is not inconsistent with the public interest or the protection of investors.

The Applicant states in part:

1. Applicant, a Delaware corporation, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Reliance Group, Inc. ("Reliance"), a diversified financial services company with numerous subsidiaries. Applicant operates as an overseas financing vehicle for Reliance and its subsidiaries and affiliates.

2. In June 1968, Applicant issued $20,000,000 principal amount of 5 percent Guaranteed Convertible Debentures due 1988 (the "Debentures").

3. The Debentures are convertible into shares of Reliance common stock and are unconditionally guaranteed as to payment of principal, premium (if any) and interest by Reliance.

4. The Debentures were offered abroad to foreign nationals in accordance with procedures designed to prevent the sale of the Debentures in the United States or its territories or to nationals or residents thereof.

5. The Debentures are listed on the American Stock Exchange and are registered pursuant to section 12(b) of the 1934 Act.

In the absence of an exemption, Applicant is required to file certain periodic reports with the Commission pursuant to section 13 of the 1934 Act because the Debentures are registered with both the American Stock Exchange and the Commission.

Accordingly, Applicant believes that the exemption order requested by it is appropriate in view of the fact that none of the securities of the Applicant (other than the Debentures) are or will be held by any person other than Reliance or a wholly-owned subsidiary of Reliance; that since the Debentures are guaranteed by and convertible into common stock of Reliance, it is the reports of Reliance filed pursuant to section 13 of the 1934 Act and not those of Applicant in which reasonable investors would be primarily interested; and since the Debentures were admitted to trading on the American Stock Exchange, no transactions in the Debentures on such exchange have occurred.

For a more detailed statement of the information presented, all persons are referred to said application which is on file in the offices of the Commission at 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C.

Notice is further given that any interested person not later than April 21, 1975, may submit to the Commission in writing his views or any substantial facts bearing on this application or the desirability of a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed to: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20549 and should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person submitting such information or requesting the hearing, the reason for such request, and the issues of fact and law raised by the application which he desires to controvert. At any time after said date, an order granting the application in whole or in part may be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

TAX-EXEMPT SECURITIES TRUST (SERIES 1 AND SUBSEQUENT NATIONAL AND STATE SERIES)

Filing of Application

MARCH 27, 1975.

Notice is hereby given that Tax-Exempt Securities Trust (Series 1 and Subsequent National and State Series) ("Applicant"), c/o Harris, Upham & Co. Incorporated, 120 Broadway, New York, New York, 10005, a unit investment trust registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act"), has filed an application pursuant to section 6(c) of the Act for an order of exemption from the provisions of section 14(a) of the Act and Rules 19b-1 and 22c-1 under the Act. All interested persons are referred to the application on file with the Commission for a statement of the representations therein, which are summarized below.

Loeb, Rhoades & Co. and/or Harris, Upham & Co., Incorporated will act as sponsors of the Applicant ("Sponsors"). The objective of each Series offered by the Applicant will be tax-exempt income for its unit holders through investment in long-term municipal bonds. Each Series of Applicant will be governed by a trust agreement ("Agreement") under which the Sponsors (or any succeeding sponsor or sponsors) will act as such, United States Trust Company of New York will act as trustee ("Trustee"), and Standard & Poor's Corporation will act as evaluator ("Evaluator"). Each Agreement will contain standard terms and conditions of trust common to all Series. Pursuant to each Agreement, the Sponsors will deposit with the Trustee in excess of $3,000,000 principal amount of tax-free municipal bonds, including contracts and cash for the purchase of certain of such bonds ("Bonds"), and simultaneously the Trustee will deliver to the Sponsors registered certificates representing in excess of 3,000 units, which will represent the entire ownership of each Series. The units will then be offered for sale to the public by the Sponsors. All of the Bonds deposited with the Trustee will be interest bearing obligations of states and territories of the United States and political sub-divisions and authorities thereof the interest on which is exempt from Federal income taxation under existing law. The Applicant represents that the Bonds will not be pledged or be in any other way subjected to any debt by the Applicant at any time after the Bonds are deposited with the Trustee.

On February 6, 1975, a registration statement on Form S–6 under the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act") was filed for 10,000 units of undivided interest in Series 1 of Applicant. This registration statement has not yet become effective. On February 6, 1975, Applicant also filed a Notification of registration on Form N–8A for said Series and on the same date filed a registration statement on Form N–8B–2 under the Act for said Series.

Each Series of Applicant (Series 1 and Subsequent Series) will consist of Bonds, such Bonds as may continue to be held from time-to-time in exchange or substitution for any of the Bonds upon certain refunds, and accrued and undistributed interest and undistributed cash. Certain of the Bonds may from time-to-time be sold under the special circumstances set forth in the Agreement, or may be redeemed or may mature in accordance with their terms. The proceeds from such dispositions will be distributed to unit holders and not reinvested. There is no provision for the sale and reinvestment of the Bonds.

Each unit for a particular Series will represent a fractional undivided interest in that Series and will be redeemable. In the event that any unit shall be redeemed, the portion of the fractional undivided interest represented by each unit outstanding will be increased. Units will remain outstanding until redeemed or until the termination of the Agreement. The Agreement may be terminated by 100 percent agreement of the unitholders or, in the event that the value of the Bonds shall fall below an amount specified for each Series, upon the direction of the Sponsors to the Trustee, or by the Trustee without such direction, respectively.

Section 14(a). Section 14(a) of the Act, in substance, provides that no registered investment company and no principal underwriter for such a company shall make a public offering of securities of which such company is the issuer unless (1) the company has a net worth of at least $100,000; (2) at the time of a previous public offering it had a net worth of $100,000; or (3) provision is made that a net worth of $100,000 will be obtained from not more than twenty-five responsible persons within ninety days, or the entire proceeds received, including sales charge, will be refunded.

Applicant seeks an exemption from the provisions of section 14(a) in order that it may make a public offering of units of each series as described above. Applicant represents that in connection with the requested exemption from section 14(a), the Sponsors have agreed as follows: (A) To refund, on demand and without deduction, all sales charges paid by purchasers of units in the initial public offering of a series if, within 90 days from the time that the registration statement relating to such series becomes effective, either (i) the net worth of such series shall be reduced to less than $100,000, or (ii) such trust shall have been terminated; (B) to instruct the Trustee on the date of deposit of each Series that in the event that redemption by the Sponsors of units constituting a part of the unsold units shall result in that series having a net worth of less than $2,000,000, the Trustee shall terminate the Series in the manner provided in the Agreement and distribute any municipal bonds or other assets deposited with the Trustee pursuant to the Agreement as provided therein.

Rule 19b–1. Rule 19b–1(a) under the Act provides, in substance, that no registered investment company which is a "regulated investment company", as defined in section 851 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 ("Code"), shall make more than one distribution of capital gains in any one taxable year of such investment company. Paragraph (b) of the Rule contains a similar prohibition for a company not a "regulated investment company" but permits a unit investment trust to distribute capital gain distributions received from a "regulated investment company" within a reasonable time after receipt.

Applicant states that it proposes to make monthly distributions of principal and interest to unitholders of a Series and that distributions of principal constituting capital gains to unitholders may arise in two instances: (1) If an issuing authority calls or redeems an issue held in the portfolio, the sums received by Applicant will be distributed to unitholders on the next distribution date; and (2) if Bonds are sold in order to provide funds necessary to meet redemptions each unitholder will receive his pro rata portion of the proceeds from the Bonds sold. In such instances, a unitholder may receive in his distribution funds which constitute capital gains since the value of the portfolio Bonds redeemed or sold may have increased since the date of initial deposit.

As has been stated, Paragraph (b) of Rule 19b–1 provides that a unit investment trust may distribute capital gains received from a "regulated investment company" within a reasonable time after receipt. Applicant states that the purpose behind such provision is to avoid forcing unit investment trusts to accumulate capital gains distributions received throughout the year as the result of acts of their portfolio investment companies. Applicant states that it too should not have to hold until the end of its taxable year any involuntarily realized capital gains. Applicant contends that retention of such involuntarily realized capital gains by Applicant until the end of its taxable year would clearly be to the detriment of the unitholders.

In support of the requested exemption, the Applicant states that the dangers against which Rule 19b–1 is intended to guard will not exist in connection with any Series of Applicant, since neither Applicant nor the Sponsors have control over the events which could trigger capital gains. Applicant seeks to make a combined distribution of principal (including capital gains) and interest each month, and states that any capital gains in such distribution will be clearly indicated as such in accompanying reports to unitholders. In addition, Applicant alleges that the amounts involved in a normal distribution of principal will be relatively small in comparison to the normal interest distribution.

Rule 22c–1. Applicant states that the Sponsors, while not obligated to do so, intend to maintain a market for the units following the initial public offering period by continuously offering to demption prices. For purposes of the purchase units at prices in excess of re-secondary market transactions, an evaluation will be made by the Evaluator once each week. Evaluation will be made at the expense of the Applicant. Applicant contends that additional evaluations would be so costly as to significantly impair the interests of unitholders.

Applicant also states that the Sponsors have undertaken to adopt a procedure whereby the Evaluator, without a formal evaluation, will provide the Sponsors with estimated evaluations on trading days. In the case of a repurchase, if the Evaluator cannot state that the previous Friday's price is at least equal to the current bid price, the Sponsors will order, and the Applicant will pay for, a full evaluation which shall determine the repurchase price. In case of resale by the Sponsors, if the Evaluator cannot state that the previous Friday's price is no more than one-half point ($5.00 per $1,000.00 principal amount of underlying bonds) greater than the current offering price, a full evaluation will be ordered. Thus, Applicant contends that a unitholder wishing to sell his unit will not receive less from the Sponsors than he might have received from the Applicant upon redemption, and a purchaser of such units from the Sponsors will not pay more for a unit than approximately the current net asset value per unit.

Rule 22c–1 provides, in part, that redeemable securities of registered investment companies may not be sold, redeemed, or repurchased except at a price based on the current net asset value (computed on each day during which the New York Stock Exchange is open for trading not less frequently than once daily as of the time of the close of trading on such Exchange) which is next computed after receipt of a tender of such security for redemption or of an order to purchase or sell such security.

Applicant states that the Rule has two purposes: (1) To eliminate or to reduce any dilution of the value of outstanding redeemable securities of registered investment companies which might occur through the sale, redemption or repurchase of such securities at prices other than their current net asset values; and (2) to minimize speculative trading practices in the securities of registered investment companies.

The secondary market activities of Sponsors, which may buy units, and the manner for the acquisition by investors of new units, may be deemed to violate Rule 22c–1 because of the absence of daily pricing. Applicant argues, however, that the purposes of Rule 22c–1 will not be offended by the Sponsors' secondary market activities. Applicant asserts that the pricing of units by the Sponsors in the secondary market will in no way dilute the assets of Applicant, and that unitholders will benefit from the Sponsors' pricing procedure in the secondary market, since they will normally receive a higher repurchase price for their units than they could by redeeming their units at the current net asset value and that this will be accomplished without the cost burden to the Applicant of daily evaluations of the unit redemption value.

Applicant also contends that speculation in units of any Series is unlikely because price changes are limited in respect to the kind of bonds which will be held by such Series.

Applicant therefore requests an exemption from the provisions of Rule 22c–1 for Series 1 and for all subsequently created Series of Applicant insofar as the Rule may apply after completion of the primary distribution of units of such Series.

Section 6(c) of the Act provides that the Commission may, upon application, conditionally or unconditionally exempt any person, security, or transaction, or any class or classes of persons, securities, or transactions from any provisions of the Act or of any rule or regulation under the Act, if and to the extent such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 22, 1975 at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request, and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission shall order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (air mail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing), upon Applicant at the address stated above. Proof of such service (by affidavit, or in case of an attorney-at-law, by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. As provided by Rule 0–5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application will be issued as of course following said date, unless the Commission thereafter orders a hearing upon request or upon the Commission's own motion. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered, will receive any notices and orders issued in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

For the Commission, by the Division of Investment Management Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

[SEAL] GEORGE A. FITZSIMMONS,
Secretary.

[No. 75–3450; Application No. 732]

CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND AND PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.

Emergency Terminal Surcharge Tariff

At a General Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 27th day of March, 1975.

Upon consideration of the record in this proceeding including the petition filed by C. R. Sheets, Director of Marketing Services, Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company (Rock Island), the replies filed on or before March 24, 1975, and the views expressed at oral hearing before Division 2 on March 25, 1975:

It appearing, that the Rock Island requests authority under Section 6 of the Interstate Commerce Act to publish and file with this Commission a terminal surcharge tariff providing for application of $30 per car and $15 per trailer upon not less than five days' notice to the Commission and to the public which would accomplish the following:

Permit form of tariff publication for application of a $30 per car and $15 per trailer surcharge on traffic originating, terminating or originating and terminating on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company (Rock Island).

(a) On traffic both originating and terminating on the Rock Island, surcharge will be assessed against party making prepayment, or if shipment is collect, assessment will be against party paying collect bill.

(b) On traffic originating on the Rock Island and not terminating on the Rock Island, surcharge will be assessed against and due from origin shipper regardless of whether prepaid or collect.

(c) On traffic not originating on the Rock Island but terminating on the Rock Island, surcharge will be assessed against receiver regardless of whether prepaid or collect.

It further appearing, that the Rock Island seeks a grant of relief from all outstanding orders, and relief from the 4th Section of the Interstate Commerce Act.

It further appearing, that the Rock Island requests that the Commission consider permitting by order, under section 13 of the Interstate Commerce Act, a surcharge (the same as proposed on interstate traffic) on intrastate traffic to become effective concurrently with the interstate surcharge;

It further appearing, that at the oral hearing before Division 2, the representative for the Rock Island stated that the carrier intended to monitor the effect of the surcharge on a daily basis and proposes to cancel the surcharge should it prove self-defeating;

It further appearing, that applicant's representative testified that the Rock Island construes the proposed tariff, which bases the application of the surcharge on the term "traffic," to provide that on shipments receiving transit service the date controlling the application of the surcharge is the date the freight is billed and moves from the transit station in each instance, not the bill of lading date of original shipment, which is contrary to the consistent holding of the Commission that only the date of original shipment may determine the application of charges for services to which the shipment is lawfully entitled and contracted for at time of original shipment, and that the tariff must be clear on this point;

It further appearing, that relief from outstanding orders and from the Commission's tariff publishing regulations [49 CFR 1300] is warranted in view of the severe financial situation facing the Rock Island;

And it further appearing, that consistent with the authority hereinafter granted it may be necessary to order an increase of Rock Island intrastate rates and to consider this matter a proceeding designated No. 36156, Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company—Emergency Terminal Surcharge Tariff (Intrastate Application is being instituted.

It is ordered, That the Rock Island, subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth be, and it is hereby, authorized to depart from the Commission's tariff publishing rules to the extent necessary for publishing and filing a terminal surcharge tariff in the manner and form set forth in the petition.

It is further ordered, That the authority granted be, and it is hereby, conditioned in the following manner:

1. The tariff published under this authority shall bear an expiration date not beyond sixty days from effective date, which may not be changed unless specifically authorized by this Commission.

2. The surcharge shall remain in effect not to exceed 60 days from effective date, unless terminated, modified, changed, or otherwise ordered by the Commission.

3. The Rock Island shall determine on a continuous basis the extent to which application of the surcharge results in diversion of shipments from its lines, the net revenue effect of any such diversion and the effect of the net revenue result on the applicant's cash position. Beginning on April 14, 1975, and on each seventh day thereafter, the applicant shall submit to the Interstate Commerce Commission, Room 5342, a report covering the previous seven days showing its daily determination of such diversion, and net revenue and cash effects. The report shall summarize the diversion and net revenue effect in terms of local, interline received and interline forwarded traffic, and provide details of these effects for the applicant's major interchange points. The effect on the net cash position shall include the total amounts realized from the surcharge also in terms of local, interline forwarded and interline received estimates, assumptions and other factcomplete details on the methodology, estimates, assumptions and other factors entering into the determinations.

4. That the word "shipment" or "shipments" be substituted for "traffic" wherever the latter term appears in the text of the proposed tariff.

5. That the tariff include a provision reading:

On shipments entitled to and receiving authorized transit service, the date of original shipment (not the date shipment is billed or moves from the transit station) shall determine the application of this tariff, and the surcharge is not applicable to any shipment so made prior to the effective date of this tariff.

6. The tariff shall state that as to any one shipment not more than one surcharge per car or per trailer shall be applied.

It is further ordered, That authority is hereby granted to publish and file said publication effective upon notice to this Commission and the public of not less than five working days observed by the Commission (i.e. excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays). Any filing hereunder shall be subject to protest and possible suspension.

It is further ordered, That the publication filed under authority of this permission shall bear the following notation:

Notice and form of publication authorized, I.C.C. permission No. 75-3450.

And it is further ordered, That all outstanding orders of the Commission are hereby modified only to the extent necessary to permit the filing of the publication authorized herein.

FOURTH SECTION ORDER No. 20474

It further appearing, that an interstate surcharge cannot be published and made effective without producing in some instances charges that yield greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of like kind of property for a shorter than for a longer distance over the same line or route in the same direction, or greater compensation as a through charge than the aggregate-of-intermediate charges subject to the act, in contravention of section 4 thereof; that the financial condition of petitioner necessitates the surcharges involved which cannot be made effective without fourth-section relief; that there is no showing of record indicating an adverse affect by any such fourth-section departures as a result of the surcharges; and that a special case has been presented in which relief from the provisions of section 4 may be authorized;

It is ordered, That upon the effective date of the surcharges for which relief is herein authorized, petitioner be, and it is hereby, authorized to establish and maintain said surcharges without observing the provisions of section 4 of the act;

It is further ordered, That the tariff shall make reference to this order in the manner required by rule 28 of Tariff Circular No. 20.

And it is further ordered, That notice of orders entered herein with respect to the Special Permission application and the section 4 relief be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the Office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D.C., and by filing a copy with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

This is not a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment within the meaning of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969.

By the Commission.

MOTOR CARRIER APPLICATIONS AND CERTAIN OTHER PROCEEDINGS

MARCH 28, 1975.

The following publications include motor carrier, water carrier, broker, freight forwarder and rail proceedings indexed as follows: (1) Grants of authority requiring republication prior to certification; (2) notices of filing of petitions for modification of existing authorities; (3) new operating right's applications directly related to and processed on a consolidated record with finance applications filed under sections 5(2) and 212(b); (4) notices of filing of sections 5(2) and 210a (b) finance applications; and (5) notices of filing of section 212(b) transfer applications.

Each applicant (except as otherwise specifically noted) states that there will be no significant effect on the quality of the human environment resulting from approval of its application in compliance with the requirements of 49 CFR 1100.250.

Protests to the granting of the requested authority must be filed with the Commission on or before May 2, 1975 (unless otherwise specified). Failure seasonably to file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding. A protest should comply with section 247(d) or section 240(c) as appropriate of the Commission's general rules of practice which requires that it set forth specifically the grounds upon which it is made, contain a detailed statement of protestant's interest in the proceeding (including a copy of the specific portions of its authority which protestant believes to be in conflict with that sought in the application, and a detailed description of the method—whether by joinder, interline, or other means—by which protestant would use such authority to provide all or part of the service proposed), and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests not in reasonable compliance with the requirements of the rules may be rejected. The original and one (1) copy of the protest (except for petitions and Finance Dockets under Rule 40 requiring the original and six (6) copies of the protest) shall be filed with the Commission, and a copy shall be served concurrently upon applicant's or petitioner's representative, or applicant or petitioner if no representative is named If the protest includes a request for oral hearing, such requests shall meet the requirements of section 247(d)(4) or section 240(c)(4) of the special rules, and shall include the certification required therein.

MC 130237 (Republication) filed April 5, 1974, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of June 27, 1974, and republished this issue. Applicant: SOUTH PENN MOTOR CLUB, a corporation, 230 Lincoln Way East, Chambersburg, Pa. 17201. Applicant's representative: Christian V. Graf, 407 North Front Street, Harrisburg, Pa. 17101. A Supplemental Order of the Commission, Operating Rights, Board, dated February 28, 1975, and served March 19, 1975, finds, that operation by applicant at Chambersburg and Waynesboro, Pa., as a broker in arranging for the transportation by motor vehicle, interstate or foreign commerce, of passengers and their baggage, in special and charter operations, in one-way and round-trip tours, beginning and ending at points in Franklin County, Pa., and extending to points in the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii will be consistent with the public interest and the national transportation policy that applicant is fit, willing and able properly to perform such service and to conform to the requirements of the Interstate Commerce Act and the Commission's rules and regulations thereunder. The purpose of this republication is to include Waynesboro, Pa. as a point at which applicant may conduct operations as a broker. Because it is possible that other parties who have relied upon the notice of the application as published, may have an interest in and would be prejudiced by the lack of proper notice of the authority described above, issuance of a license in this proceeding will be withheld for a period of 30 days from the date of this publication of the authority actually granted, during which period any proper party in interest may file an appropriate petition for intervention or other relief in this proceeding setting forth in detail the precise manner in which it has been so prejudiced.

No. MC 12520 (Sub-No. 2) (Notice of filing of petition to modify a license), filed March 12, 1975. Petitioner: ROGER Q. WILLIAMS TOURS, INC., P.O. Box 9112, Knoxville, Tenn. 37920. Petitioner's representative: Charles J. Williams, 47 Lincoln Park, Newark, N.J. 07102. Petitioner holds a license to engage in operation as a broker at Knoxville, Tenn. in No. MC 12520 (Sub-No. 2), issued July 6, 1964, to sell or offer to sell the transportation of Passengers and their baggage, in round-trip tours: (1) beginning and ending at Norris, Tenn., and points within 75 miles thereof, and extending to points in the United States (except Alaska and Hawaii); and (2) beginning and ending at points in Alabama, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina, and West Virginia, and at points in Kentucky, Virginia, and North Carolina (except those within 75 miles of Norris, Tenn.), and extending to points in the United States (except Alaska and Hawaii).

By the instant petition, petitioner seeks to modify the above license by adding Lexington, Ky. as a point at which operations as a broker may be conducted in addition to Knoxville, Tenn. Any interested person or persons desiring to participate may file an original and six copies of his written representations, views, or arguments in support of or against the petition on or before May 2, 1975.

No. MC 115570 (Notice of filing of petition to add an origin point), filed August 21, 1974. Petitioner: WALTER A. JUNGE, INC., P.O. Box 91531, 3818 84th St., SW., Tacoma, Wash. 98491. Petitioner's representative: George R. LaBissoniere, 130 Andover Park East, Seattle, Wash. 98188. Petitioner holds a motor contract carrier permit in No. MC 115570, issued August 28, 1958, authorizing transportation, as pertinent, over regular routes, of Paper, paper products and paper mill supplies, from Portland, Oreg., to Seattle, Wash., serving the intermediate point of Tacoma, Wash., restricted to delivery only: (1) From Portland over U.S. Highway 99 to Grand Mound, Wash., thence over unnumbered highway (formerly U.S. Highway 99) via Tenino, Wash., to Olympia, Wash., thence over U.S. Highway 99 via Tacoma, Wash., to Seattle, and return over the same route; (2) From Portland to Tacoma, Wash., as specified above, thence over U.S. Highway 410 to Sumner, Wash., thence over Washington Highway 5 to junction Washington Highway 2, thence over Washington Highway 2 to Seattle, and return over the same route; and (3) From Portland over the above-described routes to Tenino, Wash., thence over Washington Highway 5H to junction Washington Highway 5, thence over Washington Highway 5 through Parkland, Wash., to Tacoma, Wash., thence over the above-specified routes to Seattle, and return over the same route, under contract with shippers willing to enter into a contract with petitioner to perform the above service. By the instant petition, petitioner seeks to add Albany, Oreg. as an origin point (over routes which petitioner has not specified) in the above authority. Any interested person or persons desiring to participate may file an original and six copies of his written representations, views or arguments in support of or against the petition on or before May 2, 1975.

No. MC 129747 (Notice of filing of petition to modify territorial description), filed March 19, 1975. Petitioner: CASCO SERVICES, INC., 47 Chetwood Terrace, Fanwood, N.J. 07023. Petitioner's representative: George A. Olsen, 60 Tonnele Avenue, Jersey City, N.J. 07306. Petitioner holds a motor common carrier certificate in No. MC-129747, issued October 7, 1968, authorizing transportation, over irregular routes, of General commodities (except those of unusual value, classes A and B explosives, household goods as defined by the Commission, commodities in bulk, commodities requiring special equipment, and those injurious or contaminating to other lading). Between Kearny, Jersey City, and Newark, N.J., on the one hand, and, on the other, New York, N.Y. By the instant petition, petitioner seeks to amend the territorial description in the above authority so as to read: Between Kearny, Jersey City, and Newark, N.J., on the one hand, and, on the other, points in the New York, N.Y. Commercial Zone, as defined in Commercial Zones and Terminal Areas, 53 M.C.C. 451, within which local operations may be conducted pursuant to the partial exemption of section 203(b)(8) of the Interstate Commerce Act, (the "exempt" zone), and those points in New Jersey any part of which is within 5 miles of New York, N.Y.; or in the alternative, that the Commission issue its appropriate order that the petitioner be empowered and permitted to designate as its terminal area, all points within which local operations may be conducted in the New York, N.Y. Commercial Zone as established by the Commission. Any interested person or persons desiring to participate may file an original and six copies of his written representations, views or arguments in support of or against the petition on or before May 2, 1975.

No. MC 135811 and (Sub-No. 1) (Correction of notice of filing of petition to modify permits), filed February 19, 1975, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of March 19, 1975, and partially republished as corrected this issue. Petitioner: GARDNER TRUCKING CO., INC., 320 Woodlawn, Walterboro, S.C. 29488. Petitioner's representative: Theodore Polydoroff, Suite 600, 1250 Connecticut Avenue NW., Washington, D.C. 20036. By the instant petition, petitioner seeks to modify the above permits so as to read, in MC 135811, Welding rods, welding wire, and electric welders and parts, materials and supplies used in connection therewith: (1) From Hanover, Pa., Monticello, Ind., and Charlottesville, Va., to points in Arizona, California, Oregon, Texas, and Washington, under a continuing contract or contracts with Chemetron Corporation of Hanover, Pa. The rest of the petition remains as originally published. The purpose of this corrected republication is to indicate that Charlottesville, Va., should be included as an origin point in the above authority. Any interested person or persons desiring to participate may file an original and six copies of his written representations, views or arguments in support of or against the petition on or before May 2, 1975.

APPLICATIONS UNDER SECTIONS 5 AND 210a (b)

The following applications are governed by the Interstate Commerce Commission's special rules governing notice of filing of applications by motor carriers of property or passengers under sections 5(a) and 210a(b) of the Interstate Commerce Act and certain other proceedings with respect thereto. REAGAN, doing business as SOUTHEAST TRUCKING CO., is authorized to operate as a common carrier in Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, and the District of Columbia.

NOTICE

Chicago and North Western Transportation Company (hereinafter "CNW") hereby gives notice that on the 13th day of March, 1975, it filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington, D.C., an application for approval of an agreement authorizing trackage rights by the CNW over tracks of the Milwaukee Road between Winona, Minnesota and Tunnel City, Wisconsin, all in Winona County, Minnesota and La Crosse and Monroe Counties, Wisconsin, a distance of approximately 67.79 miles, beginning at Milepost 243.52 at Winona, Minnesota and extending to Milepost 311.61 at Tunnel City, Wisconsin. CNW states that no shippers or receivers will be adversely effected. The trackage rights to be operated lie between Winona, Minnesota and Tunnel City, Wisconsin. This application has been assigned Finance Docket No. 27867. Correspondence in regard to this matter including all protests should be addressed to Stuart F. Gassner, General Attorney, Chicago and North Western Transportation Company, 400 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois 60606.

In the opinion of Applicant the Commission's action requested, i.e., approval of the trackage rights, will not have any significant impact and will not significantly adversely effect the quality of the human environment. Rather applicant alleges that coordination of through train operations will have a beneficial effect on the environment. The proceeding will be handled without public hearings unless protests are received which contain information indicating a need for such hearings. Any protests submitted shall be filed with the Commission on or before May 2, 1975.

NOTICE

The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company, represented by Mr. Harvey Huston, Assistant General Counsel, 80 East Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois 60604, hereby gives notice that on the 10th day of March, 1975, it filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington, D.C., an application under section 5(2)(a)(i) of the Interstate Commerce Act for authority to purchase from Chicago and North Western Transportation Company a line of railroad extending from Superior, Nebraska, to the Kansas-Nebraska State Line, including 2.2 miles of main track and 2.0 miles of side tracks, for a total of approximately 4.2 miles, located in Nuckolls County, Nebraska. The applicant presently and for many years past has operated over this line pursuant to a trackage rights agreement with the Chicago and North Western Transportation Company which desires to sell this line to the applicant, having discontinued its own operations over it pursuant to authority granted by the Interstate Commerce Commission in Finance Docket No. 26417. This application has been assigned Finance Docket No. 27865. In the opinion of the applicant, the authority sought by this application will have no significant effect upon the quality of the human environment within the meaning of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. In accordance with the Commission's regulations (49 CFR 1100.250) in Ex Parte No. 55 (Sub-No. 4), Implementation - National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, 340 I.C.C. 431 (1972), any protests may include a statement indicating the presence or absence of any effect of the requested Commission action on the quality of the human environment. If any such effect is alleged to be present the statement shall include such information relating to the factors set forth in Ex Parte No. 55 (Sub-No. 4), supra, Part (b)(1)–(5), 340 I.C.C. 431, 461. The proceeding will be handled without public hearings unless protests are received which contain information indicating a need for such hearings. Any protests submitted shall be filed with the Commission on or before May 2, 1975.

By the Commission.

IRREGULAR-ROUTE MOTOR COMMON CARRIERS OF PROPERTY

Elimination of Gateway Letter Notices

MARCH 27, 1975.

The following letter-notices of proposals to eliminate gateways for the purpose of reducing highway congestion, alleviating air and noise pollution, minimizing safety hazards, and conserving fuel have been filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission under the Commission's Gateway Elimination rules (49 CFR 1065), and notice thereof to all interested persons is hereby given as provided in such rules.

An original and two copies of protests against the proposed elimination of any gateway herein described may be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission on or before April 14, 1975. A copy must also be served upon applicant or its representative. Protests against the elimination of a gateway will not operate to stay commencement of the proposed operation.

Successively filed letter-notices of the same carrier under these rules will be numbered consecutively for convenience in identification. Protests, if any, must refer to such letter-notices by number.

PROJECT DEAUTHORIZATION REVIEW PROGRAM

Proposed Policies and Procedures

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of the Army, acting through the Chief of Engineers, is proposing a regulation prescribing policies and procedures to implement section 12, Pub. L. 93–251, Water Resources Development Act of 1974. The proposed regulation supersedes a final regulation published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on 15 May 1974 (33 CFR 213), which provided policies and procedures for only first-year implementation of the Program.

Under section 12, the Chief of Engineers has been directed to annually conduct a review of projects for possible deauthorization. A project is eligible for review only if it has been authorized for at least eight years and has received no funds in the last eight years. Reviews are conducted within the availability of funds appropriated by Congress. Each year, the Chief of Engineers will transmit a list of projects recommended for deauthorization to the Secretary of the Army for submittal to Congress.

The review process is designed to include the public both in determining which projects are reviewed each year for possible deauthorization (from the list of eligible projects) and in determining the appropriateness of recommending deauthorization by Congress.

Prior to adoption of the proposed regulation, consideration will be given to any comments submitted to the Chief of Engineers, on or before 15 May 1975, at the following address:

Chief of Engineers
Office of the Chief of Engineers
Department of the Army
ATTN: DAEN–CWP–A
Washington, D.C. 20314

Until the final regulation is adopted and so published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, elements of the Office of the Chief of Engineers and field operating agencies having Civil Works responsibilities will utilize the proposed regulation as interim guidance in conducting reviews under section 12, Pub. L. 93–251.

Dated: March 18, 1975.

MARVIN W. REES,
Colonel, Corps of Engineers,
Executive Director of Civil Works.

AUTHORITY: Section 12, Pub. L. 93–251, Water Resources Development Act of 1974 (88 Statute 16), dated 7 March 1974.

§ 266.10 Purpose.

This regulation provides policies and procedures for implementation of section 12, Pub. L. 93–251, which directs the Chief of Engineers to submit annually to Congress a list of projects which have been authorized for at least eight years, have received no funds in the last eight years, and which should be no longer authorized.

This regulation is applicable to all OCE elements and all field operating agencies having civil works responsibilities.

§ 266.12 References.

(a) Section 12, Pub. L. 93–251, "Water Resources Development Act of 1974," (88 Stat. 16), dated 7 March 1974 (Appendix A).[1]

(b) ER 1105–2–502, "Public Meetings", (33 CFR 209.405).

§ 266.13 Program eligibility.

The following criteria are applicable to determine if an authorized project is eligible for review under this program; assume that recommendations will be submitted on 1 January each year:

(a) The project must have been authorized for at least eight years prior to submission of a recommendation to Congress.

(b) The project must have received no funds for advanced engineering and design or construction in the successive eight years prior to submission of a recommendation to Congress. (Funds include those which have been appropriated by Congress or alloted with specific Congressional approval.)

(c) The project is not being reviewed under another Corps program.

(d) Projects which have been automatically deauthorized due to the expiration of the 5-year limitation for receipt of local assurances (33 U.S.C. 701c) are not eligible for review under this program.

§ 266.14 Program policies.

(a) A list of projects eligible for deauthorization will be maintained by OCE. Division and District Engineers will maintain those portions of the list for States within their respective areas of jurisdiction. Such listings may be made available to the public upon request.

(b) Within the capability for implementation of this program, and within available funds, projects eligible for deauthorization should be reviewed in the order of priority given in this subparagraph. Reporting officers may release information regarding which projects are being reviewed for deauthorization following receipt of funds to conduct such reviews.

(1) Projects for which a deauthorization review has been requested by a Congressional resolution adopted pursuant to section 12(e), P.L. 93–251.

(2) Completion of deauthorization reviews previously started.

(3) Projects for which a deauthorization review has been requested by local interests (i.e., governmental or nongovernmental entities in the project area), or national organizations having a legitimate interest in the project area.

(4) Projects considered by the reporting officer as suitable for a recommendation of deauthorization without further study.

(5) Projects requiring further study in order to make a recommendation concerning deauthorization.

(c) Review under section 12 should be conducted to the extent necessary to determine whether the project as authorized, should continue to be authorized based on the criteria in § 266.14e. The review is not intended to affirm the viability of the project as authorized or to reformulate the authorized project to meet current needs. These objectives are to be reserved for Phase I Advanced Engineering and Design, should the project become funded by Congress, for the Deferred for Restudy Program if the project was deferred due to lack of economic justification, or for a review specifically authorized by Congress. However, a review conducted under section 12 may provide sufficient information to recommend reclassification of the project.

(d) Reporting officers will solicit views from the public that would be affected by, or interested in, the authorized project and coordinate their review with other agencies, as part of their formulation of recommendations to Division Engineers on deauthorization. The procedures by which views are solicited are to be determined by the reporting officer, and may include public meetings, public notices, news releases and others.

(e) In addition to the eligibility criteria given in § 266.13, a recommendation for deauthorization must be supported by one or more of the following reasons:

(1) The project lacks economic justification, and it is apparent that a restudy would not develop an economically justified plan.

(2) The project, as authorized, is not adequate to meet current or prospective needs, and to obtain an adequate improvement would require such substantial modifications and involve such increased costs that the Corps could not proceed without new authorization from Congress.

(3) The project is generally opposed by local interests or there is little or no prospect that the required local cooperation will be forthcoming.

(4) The project, or part thereof, is no longer required because it has been accomplished by local interests or another agency, has been superseded by another project, or for any other reason.

(f) Recommendations of reporting officers and Division Engineers regarding project deauthorizations are considered internal staff recommendations to the Chief of Engineers and are not to be released to the public until the Chief of Engineers list of projects proposed for deauthorization is transmitted to States and Federal agencies for comment. Information obtained during the deauthorization review process may be released on request.

(g) The Chief of Engineers will formulate his list of projects proposed for deauthorization based on the recommendations of Division Engineers. The Chief of Engineers will coordinate this list with Governors of affected States and Federal department, agency and instrumentality heads, as prescribed by section 12.

§ 266.15 Program management responsibilities.

(a) Office of the Chief of Engineers. Planning Division (DAEN–CWP) has primary responsibility for management of the program, to include providing guidance to field operating agencies, formulating recommendations for the Chief of Engineers based on inputs from Division Engineers, and formulating program budgetary submissions and work allowances. All funding and budgetary matters will be coordinated with DAEN–CWB, which will issue work allowances to field operating agencies.

(b) Division Engineers. Division Engineers are responsible for reviewing budgetary requests submitted by District Engineers and for recommending project deauthorizations to the Chief of Engineers in accordance with the procedures in § 266.16.

(c) District Engineers/Operating Division Engineers. Reporting officers are responsible for conducting reviews of projects in accordance with the policies and procedures contained in this regulation. Reporting officers are encouraged to annually conduct the maximum number of reviews possible within their capability and funding limitations.

§ 266.16 Program procedures.

(a) Maintenance of eligibility listing. A listing of projects eligible for deauthorization will be revised as necessary by DAEN–CWP–A. Division Engineers will submit changes together with recommendations, as provided in § 266.16c below, or at other times as they deem appropriate. A project will be removed from the listing:

(1) If funds are appropriated for advanced engineering and design or construction for the project,

(2) If deauthorized under section 12 or other appropriate legislation, or

(3) If either Committee on Public Works adopts a resolution stating that the project shall continue to be authorized.

(b) Conduct of deauthorization review. Pursuant to the policies stated in § 266.14, reporting officers should prepare project information sheets and other appropriate data for the purposes of public involvement, coordination, and documenting a determination on the appropriateness of deauthorization at the conclusion of the review. The reporting officer should conduct those studies and analyses, and initiate public involvement and coordination activities, as he deems necessary to achieve the objective of this program and the Corps public involvement objectives. Public meetings, if held, will be generally in accordance with guidelines in ER 1105–2–502.

(c) Submittal of deauthorization recommendations to the Chief of Engineers (RCS DAEN–CWP–13). Division Engineers will submit annually to the Chief of Engineers the following information. Submissions are to be sent to HQDA (DAEN–CWP–A) WASH DC 20314 by 1 September.

(1) Recommendations (in 3 copies) on projects for which reviews have been conducted since the previous annual submission, in accordance with the format given in Appendix B.[2]

(2) Project information sheets for all projects recommended for deauthorization, in accordance with the format given in Appendix C. A map which can be reproduced in black-and-white, 8" x 10½" in size, should be attached whenever possible, to clearly indicate the project to be deauthorized. Project information sheets are to be typed in 12-pitch elite, with margins as shown, and are to be submitted as an original and one copy. The original will be signed by the reporting officer.

(3) Appropriate pages from the listing of projects eligible for deauthorization with changes noted by typing in the new data.

APPENDIX A

DISCUSSION OF SECTION 12, PUBLIC LAW 93–251 CONTAINED IN THE REPORTS OF THE COMMITTEES ON PUBLIC WORKS

Many water resources development projects become, after they are authorized, inappropriate for one reason or another. Changing economic conditions may render them uneconomic. Population and industrial growth may make them inadequate to serve new needs. The local interests may decide they do not want a project. Yet, in all of these cases, unless the time consuming process of obtaining specific Congressional deauthorization through an Act of Congress is followed, the project remains authorized, is considered part of the backlog of authorized but unconstructed projects, and continues to discourage homeowners and landowners in the project area from maintaining, much less improving, their property.

It should be clearly noted that this section is not intended to be used as a vehicle for the abandonment by the Federal Government of maintenance of completed projects.

This section fulfills a very real need for a means to remove from the books projects which are not needed or justified, while at the same time providing ample congressional review and final decision-making authority.

ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY

State and Federal Enforcement of Implementation Plan Requirements After Statutory Deadlines

The regulations proposed below establish a new Part 65 pertaining to enforcement authority. Under this new part rules would be established which the Agency would observe when ordering a source to comply with a requirement under Part 52, but only if the order includes a timetable for compliance that extends past the applicable attainment date under Part 52. Guidance under this new part would also set forth the minimum conditions under which the Agency would be willing to defer to similar enforcement action taken by the State.

On September 26, 1974, the Administrator proposed regulations under Part 52 and promulgated regulations under Parts 51 and 52 designed in part to implement the decisions of several Federal Courts of Appeal relating to State compliance deferral authority and procedures (39 FR 34533, 34572). The regulations promulgated under Part 51 (Subpart B) provided that no State plan implementing the national ambient air quality standards could contain enabling authority which would permit the State to defer compliance by a source after an attainment date without observing the postponement requirements of section 110(f) of the Act (40 CFR 51.11(g), 51.15(d); 39 FR 34535). The regulations promulgated under Part 52 (Subpart A) amounted to a finding that State plans generally were deficient, in that many, if not all, contained enabling authority which would permit deferrals after an attainment date without observing section 110(f); accordingly, all enabling authority was "disapproved" insofar as it permitted such deferrals (40 CFR 52.26, 39 FR 34535); and the effect of this disapproval was to expel from all State implementation plans any claim of authority to grant such deferrals. In conjunction with this general disapproval, regulations were proposed in Part 52 for all State plans, which would specifically preclude State action amounting to a deferral extending beyond an attainment date (39 FR 34574).

Since the promulgation and proposal of the September 26th regulations, the Agency has received numerous comments, primarily from representatives of the States, questioning the extent to which EPA intended in those regulations to limit State enforcement prerogatives. While the regulations apply explicitly to any "enforcement orders * * * or other State initiated measures designed to defer compliance * * *," it was not the intent of the Administrator to restrict a State from taking such enforcement action; rather, the intent was to prohibit the State from revising its implementation plan to reflect such action with the attendant effect of insulating the source from citizen suit or federal enforcement. Hence, if a State were to require a source to comply with a plan requirement after the federal deadline, and not require the source to shut down during the interim, the intent of the September 26th regulations was to prevent such action from being treated as a revision to the State plan. As a result, the source would gain no immunity from suit by a citizen under section 304 of the Act, or from enforcement action by EPA under section 113 of the Act. Therefore, if the public or EPA were to feel that such a source should comply more expeditiously, or even shut down, each would be able to pursue that objective according to procedures provided in the Act.

This is not intended to discredit use of the section 110(f) postponement procedure for obtaining post deadline compliance date extensions. Section 110(f) is essentially a complex variance mechanism with a high standard for aproval. The rare source which wins a postponement under section 110(f) deserves insulation from further action. By contrast, the stated purpose of these regulations is not to provide plan protection to sources in violation, but rather to assure that such sources achieve compliance, albeit after the deadlines have passed.

In this respect, the Agency is reasonably certain now that a significant number of major air pollution sources will not achieve compliance by the mid-1975 deadlines. It also appears fairly certain that few States plan to resort to the use of section 110(f) to obtain postponements for these sources. Understanding this, the Agency intends to use its full enforcement authority under section 113 to insure compliance after the deadlines. Moreover, the Agency anticipates that the States will assist, to the extent they are able, by taking effective enforcement of their own.

Because of the magnitude of the problem it is more important now than ever before for the States to assume the principal role, given them by Congress, to insure that the national ambient air quality standards are attained rapidly and efficiently. Accordingly, the Administrator finds that it is appropriate to delineate specifically what EPA considers to be effective enforcement after a deadline, so that any State will know whether the action it is taking would be consistent with that which the Administrator would take in the same situation, and so that the source may gain some assurance that its conscientious compliance efforts, in response to a State issued enforcement order, will be relatively free from Federal challenge. Therefore, the major part of this proposed rule making, as explained in further detail below, establishes rules that the Administrator will follow when ordering a source to comply with a plan requirement after an attainment date, and guidelines that the State is urged to follow, both to insure that State implementation of section 110 through enforcement is in fact effective, as well as to minimize the potential for independent EPA enforcement action in a given case.

Public participation requirements are included, primarily to encourage valuable public assistance, but with the hope as well that such public participation will minimize the need for independent citizen action, in cases of both Federal and State enforcement. Public participation is provided in the enforcement context because it is a natural follow-up to the requirements for public hearings which applied to the development of control requirements and compliance schedules (through variances, permits, enforcement orders, etc.) at earlier stages of the air pollution control effort. To attempt to exclude the public now and in the near future, when some of the most difficult compliance problems are being faced, would be inconsistent with one of the chief purposes of the Act.

SYNOPSIS

The regulations proposed below established a combination of substantive and procedural requirements (guidance for States) to be observed by an enforcement agency when proceeding with enforcement that will result in an enforcement timetable that extends past a statutory attainment date. Briefly, the substantive requirements are those presently pursued under the Agency's existing enforcement policy. They include existing regulatory requirements under Part 51, i.e., compliance must be achieved as expeditiously as practicable, or within a reasonable time, depending upon whether a primary standard is at issue (40 CFR 51.15 (b)); and, there must be appropriate increments of progress (40 CFR 51.15 (e)). There is an additional requirement that there be appropriate interim control measures.

In general, the procedural requirements involve the preparation of post attainment date enforcement schedules, public participation, and the essential characteristics of Federal/State coordination. The basic compliance plan, or order, should be prepared as a proposal prior to public participation, and the enforcement agency should have compiled all of the information necessary to support a finding that the plan, as proposed, satisfies the above noted substantive requirements. In addition, very general information concerning the alternative permanent control techniques should have been compiled. In some cases general information concerning interim control techniques should also have been compiled.

After the proposed plan or order has been prepared the public should be invited to comment and request a hearing. Fifteen days may be allowed to request a hearing—thirty days to submit comments. Whether or not a hearing should be held is at the discretion of a hearing officer, but depends largely upon the justification submitted by the person requesting a hearing. If a hearing is to be held, public notice will be given and the hearing may be scheduled within twenty-one days of the notice. The hearing would normally be legislative, rather than adjudicatory.

In addition to issues regarding the substance of the compliance plan or enforcement order, the public is invited to comment on whether prior compliance efforts by the source have been in good faith. In cases where such comments are persuasive, it is expected that the enforcement agency will pursue an appropriate punitive remedy; however, it is not anticipated that a source will be forced, for that reason, to comply by some earlier date, since the schedule in each case is intended to reflect the earliest appropriate date.

Public notice of the final action is to be given. This notice is brief; but the public is to be given continued access to the final order after its issuance. (Access is also given to the proposed order, all preparation materials, modifications to the final order, written comments, and the record of the public hearing.)

Several exceptions to the procedural requirements are allowed. Any schedule that lasts ninety days or less is so close to immediate that preparation and public participation requirements are considered unnecessary. (This exception would be allowed only once for any source.) Another exception is allowed for the Federal enforcement agency to adopt a State action that complies with Federal guidance; however, the Regional Administrator must be prepared to support findings that the substance of the State plan is satisfactory and that the procedural requirements were satisfied. Finally, an exception is allowed for the Federal enforcement agency to forego certain public participation requirements when the Federal order is different from the State plan or when the State action has some other defect, but when there is no need for further public participation. In this case, too, the Regional Administrator must be prepared to justify his use of the exception. No mention is made of State adoption of Federal enforcement, etc., not because such action is deemed inappropriate, but because the State's ability to do so is purely a matter of State law; nothing in the Clean Air Act would prevent the State from taking such action.

The regulations are separated into requirements applicable to EPA, and guidance applicable to the States. Largely they are duplicative. The major reason for the separation is merely to emphasize that the State guidance is not obligatory. This is stated clearly in § 65.1(b).

APPLICABILITY

Federal orders. Section 113 of the Clean Air Act authorizes the Administrator to issue administrative orders requiring compliance with sections 111(e), 112(c), 114, 119(g), and substantive requirements of implementation plans under section 110. However, since the adoption of regulations requiring an opportunity for public participation and public notice is designed to offer the public an input into enforcement orders that delay compliance beyond the attainment dates specified in Part 52 and mandated by section 110 of the act, only orders relating directly to attainment of the National Ambient Air Quality Standards are appropriately subject to these regulations. Federal orders requiring compliance with section 111(e) (New Source Performance Standards), section 112(c) (National Emission Standards for Hazardous Air Pollutants), section 114 or section 110 reporting requirements, or section 119 (g) (Energy Related Authority), are therefore not subject to the requirements of these proposed regulations.

The Administrator acknowledges that there are also important statutory deadlines under sections 111 and 112, and that it may be appropriate at some time in the future to publish guidelines or regulations outlining criteria under which the Agency intends to exercise its enforcement authority under those sections. At present, however, the Administrator considers it more appropriate to defer the development of such criteria until there has been more extensive experience in the enforcement of those sections of the Act.

Orders to comply with section 119(g) are also inappropriate subjects of this proposed part. Congress has, in the section 119 amendments to the Clean Air Act, expressed an intent to supersede the provisions of section 110. Section 119 permits non-compliance with the emission limitations approved under section 110, while subjecting a source which has been granted a temporary suspension of those limitations, or which has been granted a compliance date extension, to other restrictions necessary for attainment and maintenance of air quality standards.

Federal orders to comply with the reporting requirements promulgated pursuant to section 114 (or reporting requirements adopted pursuant to section 110 of the Act) do not delay compliance with emission limitations or emission standards necessary for attainment of ambient air quality standards. As such, they, also, are not proper subjects of this proposed part, and are not covered.

It is intended that these regulations not apply to orders involving state plan requirements that do not bear a direct relationship to achievement of the ambient standards by permanent emission reduction. Thus, Federal orders which delay compliance with federally approved State mass or visible emission limitations, process weight or fuel burning regulations, and operation and maintenance regulations, are the types of orders to which this proposed Part applies. Where, however, the Federal order requires compliance with federally approved State monitoring or reporting requirements, provides only for interim control measures, or adopts or changes only increments of progress, (without affecting a final compliance date), the order is not covered.

State orders. The guidance provisions of this part, apply only to State compliance plans which order compliance with State implementation plan requirements directly related to attainment of national ambient standards, and in which final compliance is required at a time beyond the attainment date specified in Part 52. The reasoning for this applicability is the same as stated above under Applicability—Federal Orders.

SUBSTANTIVE REQUIREMENTS

This proposed part imposes three kinds of substantive requirements on orders which result from Federal enforcement actions subject to Part 65, and provides identical guidance on compliance plans which result from State enforcement actions. These requirements set forth standards for the time limitations for compliance, the increments of progress, and the interim control measures contained in Federal orders.

The proposed § 65.3(a)(1) and the guidance of § 65.3(b)(1) require final compliance under the order as expeditiously as practicable with an implementation plan requirement necessary for attainment or maintenance of a primary standard, or requires final compliance under the order within the shortest reasonable time for any implementation plan requirement which is not necessary for the attainment or maintenance of a primary standard. Since these requirements are essentially the same as the individual source compliance schedule requirements under Parts 51 and 52, both EPA and the various State environmental agencies have experience in setting schedules which compuly with these requirements.

The proposed § 65.3(a)(2) and guidance of § 65.3(b)(2) require that the order contain appropriate increments of progress together with deadlines for meeting those increments. These increments must conform with the requirements of § 51.15(c), which are those required in state compliance schedule submittals for Federal approval of State implementation plans. Once, again, both the States and EPA are familiar with, and experienced in, writing schedules which comply with § 65.3(a)(2) or § 65.3(b)(2).

The proposed § 65.3(a)(3) and the guidance of § 65.3(b)(2) require the enforcement action to result in an order or plan containing reasonable interim control measures to reduce emissions from the sources and to protect the primary standard. These sections may be complied with by a provision in the order which requires the sources to submit an interim control plan within a specified time. This interim plan will then be evaluated by the Regional Administrator, and approved, modified, or replaced with a substitute, and the interim control plan will subsequently be incorporated into the order and become enforceable as part of the order.

An interim control plan, as required herein, is one which protects the public health during the period in which the source is acting to limit emissions permanently by the final compliance date. The focus of standards for interim plans is upon the reasonableness—both in terms of the effect on the ambient standards and upon the amount of emission reduction required. Thus, where a source impacts upon a primary standard that is currently being exceeded, more stringent interim control measures may be required of that source than if the primary standards were not presently being exceeded. However, in circumstances where the primary standard is being achieved, a source's interim control plan may still require substantial emission reduction, especially where such reduction is reasonable in terms of cost and availability. It is also expected that every attempt will be made to insure that such reduction measures are not incompatible with the technology required for ultimate achievement of applicable control requirements. Each source must be considered individually, and its circumstances analyzed in order to determine what are reasonable interim control measures. EPA and most states have experience in developing appropriate interim control plans.

PREPARATION OF THE ENFORCEMENT ACTION

In general, the same preparation required under § 65.5(a) for proposed Federal enforcement orders is also provided in the State guidance provisions of § 65.5(b) for proposed compliance plans. This preparation must be completed before publication of the notice of the opportunity to comment and request a hearing provided in §§ 65.4(a)(2) and 65.4(b)(2).

The proposed order must be developed in satisfaction of the substantive requirements of § 65.3(a)(1)–(3). The information supporting (1) the proposed final compliance date as proper in relation to the requirements of the plan, (2) the proposed increments of progress as appropriate and in conformance with § 51.15(c), and (3) the proposed interim control plan as reasonable and appropriate, must be assembled into one report, either in total or in summary form. In addition, a general description of the control equipment or measures which are available, and could be used to achieve compliance by the proposed final compliance date, must be compiled. If the proposed order does not contain interim control measures, but satisfies the requirements of § 65.3(a)(3) through a provision ordering submittal of an interim control plan, a general description of possible interim control measures must be compiled. If the proposed order contains a specific interim control plan, this general description is not required. The proposed action, report, and description are required in order to give the public a meaningful opportunity to participate, and in order to preserve a meaningful record of the action and its basis for the future reference of any interested person.

There are three categories of exceptions to these preparation requirements. First, short term orders and compliance plans under §§ 65.8(a)(1) and 65.8(b)(1) are excepted from all preparation requirements. The ninety-day time period is so short that it limits the alternatives available for compliance, and therefore the quantity of analysis necessary for preparation of an appropriate order. Where compliance is almost immediate, the public receives little benefit from extensive formal preparation of the order. Accordingly, these short term orders are not subject to public participation prior to their effective dates.

The second category of exceptions is Federal orders which adopt State enforcement actions. Although in such instances the Regional Administrator need not provide for a second round of public participation, he must nevertheless compile information which supports his determination (1) that the State enforcement action complied substantially with the guidance of this Part relating to final compliance, increments of progress and interim control measures, and (2) that the resulting Federal order is not materially different from the State compliance plan.

The third category of exceptions is Federal use of State public participation, as provided in § 65.8(a)(3). Although all preparation requirements except development of a proposed order are still required, they do not need to be completed until notice of the final order is published in accordance with § 65.4(a)(5). In addition, however, the Regional Administrator must compile the information, or a summary of the information, which supports the three determinations required by § 65.8(a)(3)(i): (1) The State action is found to be defective in a manner which makes it inappropriate for Federal adoption; (2) it is found that the federal order is substantially identical to a proposed State enforcement plan with respect to which the State has already provided for public participation conforming to this part, or, if the federal order is not substantially identical to such State plan, it is found that the federal order reflects public comments made on the State plan; and (3) if the State did not hold a hearing on the proposed compliance plan, it is found that the decision not to hold a hearing was proper in relation to the requests for a hearing which were submitted.

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

The proposed § 65.4(a) provides for public participation in each Federal enforcement action subject to this part, and the proposed § 65.4(b) provides guidance for public participation in each State enforcement action subject to this part. The public participation required is, at a minimum, the opportunity for written comment, and, at the maximum, the holding of a public hearing on the proposed order or compliance plan at the discretion of the hearing officer.

Sections 65.4(a)(1) and 65.4(b)(1) delineate the scope of public participation on the issues of a final compliance date, increments of progress, interim control measures, and whether or not prior compliance efforts by the source have been in good faith.

Initially, it is important to note that under this proposed Part the public will never be excluded from notice of an enforcement action. Their written comments on the enforcement action are invited in all cases before the effective date of the resulting order or compliance plan, except where the action comes within the exception provided in §§ 65.8(a)(1) and 65.8(b)(1). These sections apply respectively to short-term orders or compliance plans and Federal adoption of State enforcement. Notice to the public of an order or compliance plan as issued is always required, regardless of any public participation exceptions that may apply to an enforcement action prior to its issuance.

The public access to information provisions of § 65.6 set forth the requirements and guidance applicable to enforcement actions, in order that the public may have access to information necessary for meaningful public participation.

Although the public has in most cases an absolute right to comment in writing before the final order or compliance plan is issued, the right to a public hearing is not absolute. Rather, the holding of a public hearing as provided in §§ 65.4(a)(3) and 65.4(b)(3) is, within the discretion of the hearing officer, limited by the standards of significant public interest, and the pertinency and substantiality of information on the enforcement action that will be offered at such a hearing.

It is the Administrator's belief that although public participation is important, a mandatory hearing, or a hearing upon request as a matter of right, is an unnecessary burden on the resources available to both EPA and the State agencies. This decision is based on various factors. Among these are the Agency's favorable experience with similar hearing provisions under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, and the Agency's sometimes unfavorable experience with mandatory hearings under section 110 of the Clean Air Act. These experiences have indicated that there is often not significant public interest in compliance plans for particular sources, and that on occasion there is no attendance at mandatory hearings involving such sources. Comments on preliminary drafts of this proposed part substantiate that the standards for holding a hearing under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act provide for maximization of both the opportunity for public participation and the use of manpower resources needed to hold hearings.

The procedure for inviting public participation is simple. After preparation of a proposed enforcement order under § 65.5(a), notice of the opportunity to comment and request a public hearing, and of the availability of the documents supporting the proposed order, will be given by prominent advertisement in the air quality control region in which the source is located. This notice will specifically state that individuals have fifteen days in which to submit requests for a hearing along with a statement supporting the need for the hearing, including their interest in, and a summary of information they intend to offer at such a hearing. In addition, this notice will designate the individual who, as the hearing officer, will determine whether a hearing will be held. If no hearing is held, the order may be made effective thirty days after publication of the notice.

If the hearing officer, after receipt and consideration of the requests for a hearing, determines that a hearing should be held, notice of the hearing will be given by prominent advertisement. Since any hearing held pursuant to this proposed part is legislative, rather than adjudicatory, the procedures for a hearing will be published with this notice; it will contain particular information on the hearing as set forth in § 65.4(a)(3)(iv). These procedures will reflect both the purpose of the hearing as fact-finding and the differing circumstances in each case. Thus, the hearing officer may specify such procedural requirements as time limitations for testimony, submittal of testimony prior to the hearing, and the registration of a witness prior to the hearing, according to the circumstances of the case. Since the hearing is legislative, no strict rules of evidence need be followed, and the giving of testimony is limited only by the restraints of efficiency, relevancy, and the purpose of the hearing. The hearing will not take place sooner than twenty-one days after publication of the notice scheduling the hearing. An enforcement order on which a hearing is held may not be effective against the source prior to the conclusion of the hearing. The time period between the hearing and the effective date is unspecified, and is dependent on the amount of modification of the proposed order, if any, warranted by consideration of all public comments.

Within thirty days after the effective date of every order issued in accordance with this proposed part, public notice of the order will be given by prominent advertisement in the air quality control region in which the source is located. All notices, except for specific requirements regarding actual notice to specified individuals or agencies, are required to be by prominent advertisement. Prominent advertisement for Federal enforcement actions will be in newspapers in the locality where the source is situated. Prominent advertisement for State enforcement actions will be through the approach developed by the State under § 51.4. This notice requirement is identical to that required by § 51.4 for hearings on state implementation plan revisions and compliance schedules. Since all states have developed their own approaches to complying with § 51.4, this method of public notice is considered to be the most practical and most easily implemented.

EXCEPTIONS

Short-term orders and compliance plans. The Administrator feels that it is appropriate to exempt both the State and EPA from the public participation provisions of this part in certain instances where a source is put under a Federal order or a State compliance plan of limited duration. Any order or compliance plan which sets final compliance within 90 days of its effective date, and which is the first such order or plan issued against a source, is exempted from the public participation requirements and guidance of this proposed part.

In general, it can be assumed that any compliance delay of 90 days or less is as expeditious as practicable. Any information relative to the timing or method of final compliance which the public could bring to the enforcing agency's attention can not justify delaying issuance of the short-term order by requiring prior public participation. However, under this proposal, the public is afforded notice of such orders under § 65.4(a)(6) and 65.4(b)(5).

This exemption applies to all orders and compliance plans, whether the source involved was subject to a compliance schedule adopted under Part 52, or a previous section 113 order or State enforcement order. The most important advantage of exempting these short-term orders from prior public participation is obtaining control over a source quickly through the issuance of an administrative order not subject to the 30 day minimum public participation delay—45 days, with a hearing. (In actuality the delay might be much longer.) Where a source can be ordered to comply within 90 days or less from the order's or the compliance plan's effective date, such delays are unwarranted.

This exemption in no way limits the right of a citizen to bring a section 304 action against a source subject to a short-term order or plan, nor does it limit section 113 action by EPA against a source subject to a State compliance plan exempted under § 65.8(b). Thus, these avenues remain available for correction of possible abuses of the exemption. Since only one such exempted order or plan per source will be available to EPA or the State, there is no possibility that the public will be excluded from participation for an indefinite amount of time. It is the opinion of the Administrator that the advantage of prompt compliance through an exempted short-term order outweighs any disadvantage of delay that public participation involves.

Federal adoption of State enforcement. In certain limited instances, EPA may issue a Federal order under this part without complying with the public participation requirements of § 65.4(a) or the preparation requirements of § 65.5(a)(1), (3) and (4). This exception to the usual procedures for issuing Federal enforcement orders, provided by § 65.8(a)(2), is available only where the resulting Federal order is, in all substantial aspects, identical to a State compliance plan issued pursuant to the guidance of this part.

Where Federal action is deemed appropriate, even though a source is already subject to a State compliance plan, and the appropriate Federal order is not materially different from the State compliance plan, it is the Administrator's opinion that a duplication by EPA of the public participation requirements, and most of the preparation requirements of this proposed part (which have been complied with by the State agency) are unnecessary and contrary to the public interest. In such cases, the public has had an opportunity to comment and request a hearing on a proposed compliance plan, and has had for its inspection the information which would have been required under § 65.5(a)(1), (3), and (4) if no exception was applicable. Thus, the citizen has had an opportunity to participate in the formation of the state compliance plan which the Federal order adopts, and, in effect, has indirectly participated in the Federal enforcement action.

Although the resulting Federal order to which the exception in § 65.8(a)(2) may apply need not be identical to the State compliance plan it adopts, the two enforcement actions must not be materially different. For example, major differences in source reporting requirements would not eliminate use of this exception provision, primarily, because reporting is not the type of requirement that requires one specific solution to insure attainment of substantive objectives of this part, e.g., that compliance be attained as expeditiously as practicable. Differences which would prohibit use of the exception relate to fundamentally important requirements such as the timing of a final compliance date. Even in the latter case, however, some minor discrepancy would be permissible, e.g., a one or two week difference to alleviate some administrative inconvenience. It is expected that the use of this exception will rarely involve variations from the major substantive provisions in State compliance plans. To do so would be to establish conflicting Federal and State requirements. Normally a minor difference would not warrant imposing inconsistent requirements.

One expected use of Federal orders to which this exception will apply is the instance where a source, already subject to a State compliance plan issued in accordance with the guidance of this part, desires to be put under a similar Federal order to gain assurance that independent Federal action will not be taken. Where such circumstance occurs, and the Regional Administrator determines both that the compliance plan was issued in accordance with the guidance of this part and that it is an appropriate subject of Federal enforcement action, the Federal order comes within this exception. The Administrator encourages use of the federal adoption mechanism in all appropriate cases, and particularly encourages the use of consent orders to expedite the adoption process. Through waiver of the notice of violation and opportunity for a conference required by section 113 of the Act, a source subject to a Federally acceptable State compliance plan may be issued a federal enforcement order which adopts the State plan with minimum delay. Other appropriate circumstances for the adoption of State enforcement include cases in which the resources available to the State agency should be augmented by the use of Federal resources for effective monitoring and assurance of compliance, and cases in which EPA believes minor requirements of an enforcement compliance schedule, such as reporting requirements, should be different from those provided in the State compliance plan. In addition, it may be appropriate for EPA to adopt State enforcement where the remedies for violation of the State compliance plan are not as strict or expeditious as those available for violation of a Federal order, and the Regional Administrator feels that the availability of such remedies is necessary to insure compliance.

XUM

Although a Federal order comes within the exception of § 65.8(a)(2), the Regional Administrator must still make available to the public a summary of the information under § 65.5(a)(2) supporting the substantive appropriateness of the order as required by § 65.3(a)(1)–(3), give public notice of the order as issued within 30 days of its effective date, and make publicly available information which supports the determination that the adopted compliance plan complied substantially with Part 65 guidance, and that the Federal order is both appropriate and not materially different from the State compliance plan.

Federal use of State public participation. Under § 65.8(a)(3) of this proposed part, EPA is exempted from the public participation requirements of § 65.4(a)(1)–(4) when pursuing the issuance of an independent Federal enforcement order under section 113 against a source already subject to a state enforcement action, provided that certain affirmative determinations designed to protect the public interest are made by the Regional Administrator. All other public notice requirements and the preparation requirements of § 65.5(a)(2)–(4) remain applicable to the Federal enforcement action and its development.

In order to comply with the requirements of § 65.8(a)(3) and thereby exempt the Federal enforcement action from public participation, the Regional Administrator must make several determinations. First, he should find that the State enforcement action is for some reason defective making federal adoption of the State plan under § 65.8(a)(2) inappropriate. Second, he should find that the State has provided for public participation consistent with the guidance of § 65.4(b) on either: (1) A proposed compliance plan which is substantially identical to the Federal order which EPA will issue, or (2) a proposed compliance plan not substantially identical to the Federal order, but in which differences are justified by public comment made on the proposed State plan. And third, he should find that if the State exercised its discretion under § 65.4(b)(3), deciding not to hold a public hearing, that such determination is supported by a review of the requests for such a hearing.

This exception from the public participation requirements of § 65.4(a)(1)–(3) eliminates repetitive public airing of issues already brought to the attention of the Agency, the source, and the public. Where the issues involved in the Federal order are substantially the same as those involved in the State compliance plan, or the Federal order justifiably reflects public comment on the State's proposed compliance plan, the expenditure of resources involved in a second round of public participation is essentially duplicative and therefore would be unproductive.

After the determinations enumerated in § 65.8(a)(3)(i), as explained above, are made, a Federal order to which this exception applies may be issued effective immediately upon issuance. Notice of the order will be given pursuant to § 65.4(a)(5), and all preparation documents compiled pursuant to § 65.5(a)(2)–(4), as well as supporting information on the determinations required by § 65.8(a)(3)(i), must be available to the public.

GOOD FAITH AS AN ISSUE

The Administrator considers it appropriate and important to raise in the context of public participation the issue of whether prior compliance efforts by a source receiving an order or plan under this part have been in good faith. As a purely legal matter he is required by section 113(a)(4) of the act to consider such efforts when formulating a compliance schedule in any enforcement order—whether such order will expire prior to or after an attainment date. Moreover, it is the Administrator's determination that Congress expressed in section 110(f) of the act its clear intent that good faith be an important consideration in any postponement of a statutory deadline for an individual air pollution source.

The Administrator recognizes that there is some likelihood that many sources will not have complied with the applicable emission limitations by the statutory deadlines for justifiable cause. However, he also recognizes that noncompliance may also have resulted from a lack of effort, or, in some cases, a decision not to comply. In such cases, he considers it the Agency's responsibility to the public, and to those similar sources who have in good faith invested substantial resources in legitimate compliance efforts, to redress the wrong.

To this end, the Administrator encourages the public or any other interested person to comment during the public participation stage of a State or Federal enforcement action on whether a source's prior compliance efforts were in good faith. Although no formal finding concerning the issue is required, where a persuasive case is made, it is expected that the enforcement agency involved will pursue whatever punitive sanctions may be available. It is not expected, however, that a source will be penalized by requiring compliance by some earlier date, since the timetable in each case is intended to reflect the earliest appropriate date.

These regulations are intended to apply to any enforcement action that is not yet effective against a source on the date that the final version becomes effective. Interested persons may participate in this rule making by submitting written comments (in triplicate) to Richard D. Wilson, Division of Stationary Source Enforcement, Environmental Protection Agency, 401 M Street SW., Washington, D.C. 20460. All relevant comments received not later than May 2, 1975, will be considered. Receipt of comments will be acknowledged. Comments received will be available to the public at the Office of Public Affairs, 401 M Street SW., Washington, D.C. 20460.

This notice of proposed rule making is issued under the authority of sections 113 and 301 of the Clean Air Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. 1857c–8 and 1857g).

Dated: March 26, 1975.

RUSSELL E. TRAIN,
Administrator.

It is proposed to amend Chapter I, of Title 40, Code of Federal Regulations, by adding Part 65 as follows:

PART 65—ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY

Sec.
65.1 Intent.
65.2 Definitions.
65.3 Enforcement deadlines for compliance.
65.4 Public publication.
65.5 Preparation of enforcement action.
65.6 Public access to information.
65.7 Effective date for enforcement order or compliance plan.
65.8 Exceptions.
65.9 Federal review of State enforcement action.
65.10 Savings provisions.

AUTHORITY: Secs. 113 and 301 of the Clean Air Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. 1857c–8 and 1857g).

(a) No requirement under this part is intended to restrict enforcement authority except as specifically provided herein.

(b) Any requirement applicable to a State under this part is intended to be guidance only and not to be enforceable as such. There is no obligation that the State observe such guidance; however, if the State fails to do so, the Administrator may consider that failure when determining whether or not to enforce independently against a source that may have been the subject of a State enforcement action.

(c) Although the regulations under this part provide an opportunity for public comment and a hearing on the issue of whether prior compliance efforts by certain sources have been in good faith, there is no requirement or guidance that a finding relating to that issue be made. While a new time for compliance may be required, if evidence tends to indicate that a source has not exercised good faith, it is expected that the enforcing agency will give careful consideration to pursuing in a concurrent action whatever punitive sanctions may be available.

(d) It is intended that the requirements and guidance of this part apply only to an enforcement action which requires that a source comply with an emission limitation of an implementation plan after the applicable attainment date in that plan. This Part does not apply to an enforcement action that requires compliance with a reporting or a certification requirement, an interim control measure, an increment of progress, or any other requirement that will not affect the final date by which the source must be in compliance with an emission limitation.

Except as otherwise defined herein, terms used in this part shall have the meaning given them in the Act, Part 51, or Part 52.

(a) "Compliance plan" shall mean a plan for compliance issued by a State as a consequence of an enforcement action.

(b) "Emission limitation," for purposes of this part only, shall mean any requirement approved as a part of the control strategy of an implementation plan for the purpose of establishing a permanent limit on the amount of pollutants that may be emitted into the ambient air by a pollution source.

(c) "Enforcement action" shall mean enforcement action brought by either the State or the Administrator. If brought by the Administrator, "enforcement action" shall mean any action brought against a source pursuant to section 113(a) of the Act resulting in an enforcement order. If brought by a State, "enforcement action" shall mean any action against a source resulting in a compliance plan for that source to comply with an emission limitation of an applicable implementation plan, provided that such action is initiated by the State against a source found by the State to be in violation of an existing requirement under the implementation plan.

(d) "Enforcement order" shall mean an order to comply with a requirement of an applicable plan issued under authority of section 113(a)(4), and shall include an amendment to or modification of an existing enforcement order.

(e) "State" shall mean any agency or person authorized under State law to take the actions described in § 65.3 et seq.

§ 65.3 Enforcement deadlines for compliance.

(a) Federal requirements. Any Federal enforcement action that requires a person to comply with an emission limitation of an implementation plan after the applicable attainment date under that plan shall conform with the requirements of this paragraph.

(1) The enforcement action shall require final compliance as expeditiously as practicable with any requirement of a plan necessary for the attainment or maintenance of a primary standard; or, the enforcement action shall require final compliance within the shortest reasonable time with any requirement of a plan not necessary for the attainment or maintenance of a primary standard.

(2) The enforcement action shall result in a timetable for compliance which contains appropriate increments of progress with specific deadlines for achieving such increments. Such increments shall conform to those required under § 51.15(c) of this chapter.

(3) The enforcement action shall require the source to apply reasonable interim measures to reduce emissions and protect against pollution concentrations in excess of those specified by a primary standard. In satisfaction of this requirement it shall be sufficient to require (i) that the source submit within the shortest reasonable time an interim control plan which may be approved, modified, or disapproved and replaced with a substitute plan by the Regional Administrator, and (ii) that upon such action the plan will become enforceable as a part of the order.

(4) The Regional Administrator shall have taken such enforcement action in accordance with the requirements of §§ 65.4, 65.5 and 65.6 of this part.

(b) State guidance. Any State enforcement action that requires a person to comply with an emission limitation of an implementation plan after the applicable attainment date under that plan should conform with provisions of this paragraph

(1) The enforcement action should require final compliance as expeditiously as practicable with any requirement of a plan necessary for the attainment or maintenance of a primary standard; or, the enforcement action should require final compliance within the shortest reasonable time with any requirement of a plan not necessary for the attainment or maintenance of a primary standard.

(2) The enforcement action should result in a timetable for compliance which contains appropriate increments of progress with specific deadlines for achieving such increments. Such increments should conform to those required under § 51.15(c) of this chapter.

(3) The enforcement action should require the source to apply reasonable interim measures to reduce emissions and protect against pollution concentrations in excess of those specified by a primary standard. In satisfaction of this provision it will be sufficient to require (i) that the source submit within the shortest reasonable time an interim control plan which may be approved, modified, or disapproved and replaced with a substitute plan by the State, and (ii) that upon such action the plan will become enforceable as a part of the enforcement action.

(4) The State should have taken such enforcement action in accordance with the requirements of §§ 65.4, 65.5 and 65.6.

§ 65.4 Public participation.

(a) Federal requirements. (1) Except as provided in § 65.8(a), the Regional Administrator shall, subsequent to any conference offered under section 113 of the Act but prior to the effective date of an enforcement order, provide the public an opportunity for comment and offer the public an opportunity for a hearing on the following aspects of any enforcement order subject to this part:

(i) A proposed date for final compliance,

(ii) Proposed increments of progress,

(iii) Proposed interim control measures, and

(iv) Whether or not prior compliance efforts by the source have been in good faith.

(2) Notice of opportunity to comment and request a hearing. (i) Notice of such opportunity shall be by prominent advertisement in the air quality control region in which the source is located. Actual notice shall be given to the State and local air pollution control agency involved. In the case of an interstate region actual notice shall be given to the State and local air pollution control agencies of each State included within the region.

(ii) Such notice shall contain, at a minimum, (A) notice of the opportunity as described in paragraph (a)(1) above, (B) the time limits for requesting a public hearing or making comments as described in paragraphs (a)(3) and (4) below, (C) a statement that any person requesting a public hearing shall include with his request a statement supporting the need for such a hearing, which includes an indication of his interest and a brief summary of the information he intends to offer at such hearing, and (D) the availability of the documents described in § 65.6(a).

(3) Public hearing. (i) At least fifteen days following publication of the notice described in paragraph (a)(2) of this section shall be allowed for receipt of a request for a public hearing.

(ii) A public hearing shall be held if the hearing officer finds that there is significant public interest in such a hearing or if there is pertinent and substantial information to be offered on the issues listed in paragraph (a)(1) of this section.

(iii) If a public hearing is to be held, the hearing shall be scheduled no sooner than twenty-one days following the notice described in paragraph (a)(3)(iv) of this section.

(iv) Notice of a public hearing shall be given the public and the State and local agencies in the same manner as required by paragraph (a)(2)(i) of this section. Such notice shall contain, at a minimum, the date, time, and place and subject of such hearing, as well as a brief description of how the hearing will be conducted.

(v) A hearing held pursuant to this subparagraph shall be legislative, not adjudicatory.

(4) Due consideration shall be given to all relevant public comment, whether submitted as a comment or adduced at a hearing, and where appropriate the enforcement order under consideration shall be modified in view of such comments.

(5) Within thirty days after the effective date of a Federal enforcement order issued in accordance with this part, the Regional Administrator shall give public notice of such action by prominent advertisement in the air quality control region in which the source is located. This notice shall include the source name, location, the applicable regulation, and a date for final compliance.

V 40 I 64
XUM

(b) State guidance. (1) Except as provided in § 65.8(b), the State should, prior to the effective date of a compliance plan, provide the public an opportunity for comment and offer the public an opportunity for a hearing on the following aspects of any compliance plan subject to this part:

(i) A proposed date for final compliance,

(ii) Proposed increments of progress,

(iii) Proposed interim control measures, and

(iv) Whether or not prior compliance efforts by the source have been in good faith.

(2) Notice of opportunity to comment and request a hearing. (i) Notice of such opportunity should be by prominent advertisement in the air quality control region in which the source is located. At the same time, actual notice should be given the Regional Administrator by certified mail. In the case of an interstate region actual notice should also be given to the State included within the region.

(ii) Such notice should contain at a minimum:

(A) Notice of the opportunity as described in paragraph (b)(1) of this section, and

(B) The time limits for requesting a public hearing or making comments as described in paragraphs (b)(3) and (4) of this section,

(C) A statement that any person requesting a public hearing should include with his request a statement supporting the need for such a hearing, which includes an indication of his interest and a brief summary of the information he intends to offer at such hearing, and

(D) The availability of the documents described in § 65.6(b).

(3) Public hearing. (i) At least fifteen days following publication of the notice described in paragraph (b)(2) of this section should be allowed for receipt of a request for a public hearing.

(ii) A public hearing should be held if the hearing officer finds that there is a significant public interest in such a hearing or if there is pertinent and substantial information to be offered on the issues listed in paragraph (b)(1) of this section,

(iii) If a public hearing is to be held, the hearing should be scheduled no sooner than twenty-one days following the notice described in paragraph (b)(3)(iv) of this section,

(iv) Notice of public hearing should be given the public, the Regional Administrator, and local agencies in the same manner as required by paragraph (b)(2)(i) above. Such notice should contain, at a minimum, the date, time, place and subject of such hearing as well as a brief description of how the hearing will be conducted.

(v) A hearing held pursuant to this subparagraph may be legislative, rather than adjudicatory.

(4) Within thirty days after the effective date of a State compliance plan, the state should give public notice of such action by prominent advertisement in the air quality control region in which the source is located. This notice should include the source name, location, the applicable regulation, and a date for final compliance. A copy of the compliance plan in its final form, should be provided the Regional Administrator by certified mail immediately following its effective date.

§ 65.5 Preparation of enforcement action.

(a) Federal requirements. Except as provided in § 65.8(a), prior to the notice required by § 65.4(a)(2) of this chapter the Regional Administrator shall:

(1) Develop a proposed enforcement order which, in the Regional Administrator's determination, satisfies the requirements of § 65.3(a)(1)–(3), after giving full consideration to the best information available, including but not limited to such information as may have been provided by the source prior to or at a conference held pursuant to section 113(a)(4) of the Act; and

(2) Assemble into a single report all information, or a summary of that information, supporting the determination made in paragraph (a)(1) above; and

(3) Compile a general description of available control equipment or other control measures that could be used to attain compliance within the proposed final compliance time period; and

(4) Compile a description of possible interim control techniques (if such techniques are not described in the order).

(b) State guidance. Except as provided in § 65.8(b), prior to the notice required by § 65.4(b)(2) of this chapter, the State should:

(1) Develop a proposed compliance plan, which in the State's determination, satisfies the requirements of § 65.3(b)(1)–(3), after giving full consideration to the best information available, including but not limited to such information as may have been provided by the source prior to public notice under § 65.4(b)(2); and

(2) Assemble into a single report all information, or a summary of that information, supporting the determination made in paragraph (b)(1) of this section; and

(3) Compile a general description of available control equipment or other control measures that could be used to attain compliance within the proposed final compliance time period; and

(4) Compile a general description of possible interim control techniques (if such techniques are not described in the order).

§ 65.6 Public access to information.

(a) Federal requirements. (1) The proposed enforcement order and the information required by § 65.5(a)(1)–(4) shall be made available to the public at a place with reasonable public access and at reasonable times, beginning when notice of the opportunity for comment and a hearing under § 65.4(a)(2) is published, and thereafter.

(2) The Regional Administrator shall also provide reasonable public access at reasonable times to—

(i) The final enforcement order, including requirements incorporated within the order at a later time, and

(ii) Any written comments, and

(iii) The record of the public hearing, if one has been held.

(b) State guidance. (1) The proposed compliance plan and the information as provided for by § 65.5(b)(1)–(4) should be made available to the public at a place with reasonable public access and at reasonable times, beginning when notice of the opportunity for comment and a hearing under § 65.4(b)(2) is published, and thereafter.

(2) The State should also provide reasonable public access at reasonable times to—

(i) The final compliance plan, including requirements incorporated within the plan at a later time, and

(ii) Any written comments, and

(iii) The record of the public hearing, if one has been held.

§ 65.7 Effective date for enforcement order or compliance plan.

(a) Federal enforcement order. Except as provided by § 65.8(a), the enforcement order shall be effective against the source no sooner than thirty days after the publication of notice under § 65.4(a)(2) of this chapter, but shall not be made effective against the source prior to any public hearing.

(b) State compliance plan. Except as provided by § 65.8(b), the compliance plan should be effective against the source no sooner than thirty days after the publication of notice under § 65.4(b)(2) of this chapter, but should not be made effective against the source prior to any public hearing.

§ 65.8 Exceptions.

(a) Federal exceptions—(1) Short term enforcement orders. (i) If an enforcement order under this part will require final compliance no later than ninety days following the date it is issued against a source, the order may be made effective against the source without prior public participation, and without observing the preparation requirements of § 65.5.

(ii) Within thirty days following the issuance of a short term order pursuant to this subparagraph, the Regional Administrator shall provide the public notice of such order as required under § 65.4(a)(5).

(iii) An exception under this subparagraph shall be allowed only once for each source.

(2) Federal adoption of State enforcement. (i) If the Regional Administrator determines that a State enforcement action complies substantially with the guidance under this part, but that a Federal enforcement action is nevertheless appropriate, he may forego the public participation requirements under § 65.4(a)(1) through (4) and the preparation requirements under § 65.5(a)(1), (3) and (4) when bringing an enforcement action against the same source, provided that the resulting order is not materially different from the compliance plan required by the State. Such determination shall be made only after review of all actions taken in accordance with the guidance under this part, including review of a record of any hearing held pursuant to 65.4(b)(3).

(ii) The regional Administrator shall give public notice in the manner prescribed by § 65.4(a)(5) of any enforcement order for which the exception provided in this subparagraph is applicable.

(iii) Whenever an exception under this subparagraph is applicable, information normally required to be available to the public under § 65.6(a) need not include the descriptions required by § 65.5(a)(1), (3) and (4). However, in addition to the materials required by § 65.5(a)(2), information must be made available that supports the determination made in paragraph (a)(2)(i) of this section.

(iv) Enforcement orders issued pursuant to this subparagraph may be effective immediately upon issuance.

(v) Information prepared pursuant to paragraph (a)(2)(iii) of this section shall be made available to the public at the same time that public notice of the enforcement order is given under § 65.4(a)(5).

(3) Federal use of State public participation requirements. (i) If the Regional Administrator determines that a State enforcement action is for some reason defective, so that federal adoption under (a)(2) of this section is inappropriate, he may, in adopting a Federal enforcement order, forego the public participation requirements under § 65.4(a)(1)–(4) provided that—

(A) He finds, after reviewing the information made available by the State pursuant to § 65.6(b) that the State has already provided for public participation in a manner consistent with the guidance under § 65.4(b)—

(1) On the compliance plan in question and that it is substantially identical to the federal enforcement order, or

(2) On the compliance plan in question and that, if not substantially identical to the federal enforcement order, any differences reflected in terms of the federal order are justified in view of public comment on the State compliance plan, and

(B) If no hearing was held by the State, he finds, after considering requests, if any, made to the State for such a hearing, that the State has acted in accordance with the guidance under § 65.4(b)(3)(ii).

(ii) Whenever an exception under this subparagraph is applicable, prior to the effective date of the order the Regional Administrator shall assemble into a single report all information, or a summary of that information, supporting the findings made in paragraph (a)(3)(i) of this section.

(iii) The preparation requirements under § 65.5(a) remain applicable, except that it is not required that a proposed order be developed. The required preparation must be accomplished prior to public notice under § 65.4(a)(5).

(iv) Enforcement orders issued pursuant to this subparagraph may be effective immediately upon issuance.

(v) Information prepared pursuant to paragraphs (a)(3)(ii) and (iii) of this section shall be made available to the public at the same time that public notice of the enforcement order is given under § 65.4(a)(5).

(b) State exceptions—(1) Short term compliance plans. (i) If a compliance plan under this part, or an amendment thereof, will require final compliance no later than ninety days following the date it is issued against a source, the compliance plan may be made effective against the source without prior public participation, and without observing the preparation requirements of § 65.5.

(ii) The State should give notice to the public and the Regional Administrator as provided by § 65.4(b)(4).

(iii) An exception under this subparagraph should be allowed only once for each source.

§ 65.9 Federal review of State enforcement action.

The State may at any time request a determination by the Regional Administrator as to whether a State procedure in general, or as applied in a specific case, satisfies one or more of the guidance criteria in this part. The Regional Administrator shall make a prompt response to any such request.

§ 65.10 Savings provisions.

(a) No enforcement action taken by the State shall in any way restrict the right of

(1) A person to sue independently for appropriate relief under section 304 of the Act, or other applicable law, or

(2) The Regional Administrator to enforce independently against that source under section 113 of the Act.

(b) No enforcement action taken by the Agency shall in any way restrict the right of

(1) A person (including a State) to sue independently under section 304 of the Act, or other applicable law, or

(2) A State to bring independent enforcement action to compel compliance according to stricter requirement.

(c) Nothing in this subpart shall affect the validity of enforcement action taken by either the State or the Agency prior to the effective date of these regulations.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 11848

Extending the Reporting Date for the Commission on CIA Activities Within the United States

Section 6 of Executive Order No. 11828 entitled Establishing a Commission on CIA Activities Within the United States, dated January 4, 1975 is amended by deleting the words "three months from the date of this order," and substituting therefor "June 6, 1975."

Establishing the Collective Bargaining Committee in Construction

The President's Labor-Management Committee established by Executive Order No. 11809 was authorized to "encourage the establishment of labor-management committees (bipartite or tripartite) in particular sectors or industries as may be appropriate." That Committee expressed the view that a committee should appropriately be established in the construction industry.

An interim labor-management committee on collective bargaining problems in construction, representative of labor and management organizations involved in collective bargaining in the industry, has met regularly since November 1974 to explore the feasibility and details of a continuing committee.

The recommendations of the interim labor-management committee have been ratified by the standard national labor and management organizations engaged in collective bargaining in the industry, and their representatives have been authorized to participate and serve on such a committee.

This Order is required to establish an arrangement and machinery for an operating structure with a minimum of government interference in the furtherance of more effective collective bargaining in the industry.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States of America, it is ordered as follows:

Section 1. There is hereby established the Collective Bargaining Committee in Construction (hereinafter referred to as the Committee). The Committee shall consist of ten labor members and ten management members appointed by the President. The Secretary of Labor or his designee shall serve as Chairman. The Director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service shall participate as a member of the Committee. Additional alternate members may be appointed by the Secretary of Labor.

Sec. 2. (a) The Committee shall facilitate the collective bargaining process at local and area levels, assist in providing a data bank of wage and benefit information, encourage peaceful negotiation of responsible local and area agreements, facilitate local coordinated bargaining and larger area bargaining wherever appropriate, and seek to resolve particular disputes that cannot otherwise be reasonably resolved.

(b) In the furtherance of these objectives the Committee is authorized to hold conferences; and if it deems appropriate, in particular collective bargaining disputes or in groups of related disputes, the Committee may make recommendations to the appropriate standard organizations which are party to collective bargaining in the construction industry concerning the provisions of agreements or the structure of collective bargaining.

(c) The Committee shall promote more effective machinery for the resolution of disputes over the terms of collective bargaining agreements which recognizes the interests of each branch of the industry and preserves existing procedures that have been effective.

Sec. 3. In addition to the foregoing tasks, the Committee shall also:

(a) Review and analyze construction manpower under collective bargaining agreements, including regional requirements and availabilities of respective skills for projected needs, and the effectiveness of training programs, and, if appropriate, maintain a continuing central data file of manpower requirements and availabilities by major areas of the country;

(b) Consider measures to reduce the instability of demand for construction labor and to provide more weeks of work per year;

(c) Take measures to increase productivity in the industry under collective bargaining agreements;

(d) Improve further the current wage and benefit data base for construction to facilitate collective bargaining at local and regional levels and the role of the national organizations in dispute settlements;

(e) Consider the problems for collective bargaining arising from the activities of separate Federal government agencies as they affect the construction industry;

(f) Consider from time to time such problems in the construction industry under collective bargaining as it may deem appropriate; and

(g) Encourage the establishment of comparable joint regional or local committees on an area basis to the extent it deems appropriate.

Sec. 4. In carrying out its functions, the Committee shall give consideration to long term developments in the construction industry under collective bargaining agreements and shall seek to develop appropriate policies in the national interest.

Sec. 5. All executive departments and agencies of the Federal government are authorized and directed to cooperate with the Committee and to furnish such information, personnel and assistance, not inconsistent with law, as it may require in the performance of its duties.

Sec. 6. The Committee shall make periodic reports to the President. Standard national labor and management organizations are encouraged to review the operation of the Committee and report to the President annually on the extent to which the purposes of this Order are being achieved.

rules and regulations

This section of the FEDERAL REGISTER contains regulatory documents having general applicability and legal effect most of which are keyed to and codified in the Code of Federal Regulations, which is published under 50 titles pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 1510.
The Code of Federal Regulations is sold by the Superintendent of Documents. Prices of new books are listed in the first FEDERAL REGISTER issue of each month.

Title 7—Agriculture

CHAPTER IX—AGRICULTURAL MARKETING SERVICE (MARKETING AGREEMENTS AND ORDERS; FRUITS, VEGETABLES, NUTS) DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

[Orange Reg. 73, Amdt. 6; Grapefruit Reg. 75, Amdt. 6; Export Reg. 24, Amdt. 5]

PART 905—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, TANGERINES, AND TANGELOS GROWN IN FLORIDA

Grade and Size Requirements

Amendment 6 to Regulation 73 and Amendment 5 to Regulation 24 lower the minimum grade requirements applicable to domestic and export shipments of Florida Temple oranges, respectively, to U.S. No. 2 on March 31, 1975. Amendment 6 to Regulation 75 lowers the minimum diameter requirement applicable to domestic shipments of white seedless grapefruit to 3 4/8 inches on March 31, 1975. The U.S. No. 2 minimum grade requirement specified for domestic and export shipments of Temple oranges recognizes the lesser quality of such oranges available for fresh shipment from the production area. The specification of such lower minimum diameter requirement for white seedless grapefruit recognizes the size distribution of much of the white seedless grapefruit remaining for fresh shipment.

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 905, as amended (7 CFR Part 905), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, tangerines, and tangelos grown in Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the requirements applicable to Temple oranges and white seedless grapefruit, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) These amendments reflect the Department's appraisal of the current and prospective demand for Florida Temple oranges by domestic and export outlets. The lower grade requirement specified for domestic and export shipments of Temple oranges is consistent with the external appearance and remaining supply of such oranges. Fresh shipments of Florida Temple oranges for the season through March 23, 1975, totaled 2,998 carlots, and there were an estimated 302 carlots remaining for shipment. The lower minimum diameter requirement specified for shipments of white seedless grapefruit is necessary to satisfy the demand for such fruit by domestic outlets. For the season through March 23, 1975, fresh shipments of Florida grapefruit totaled 21,160 carlots and there were 6,840 carlots estimated to be remaining for fresh shipment.

(3) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of these amendments until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which these amendments are based became available and the time when these amendments must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; and these amendments lower requirements applicable to the handling of Temple oranges and white seedless grapefruit grown in Florida.

Order. 1. The provisions of paragraph (b) (5) of § 905.555 (Orange Regulation 73; 39 FR 32976, 37186, 40745, 42899; 40 FR 2792, 12846) are revised to read as follows:

[Navel Orange Reg. 346]

PART 907—NAVEL ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

Limitation of Handling

This regulation fixes the quantity of California-Arizona Navel oranges that may be shipped to fresh market during the weekly regulation period April 4–10, 1975. It is issued pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and Marketing Order No. 907. The quantity of Navel oranges so fixed was arrived at after consideration of the total available supply of Navel oranges, the quantity currently available for market, the fresh market demand for Navel oranges, Navel orange prices, and the relationship of season average returns to the parity price for Navel oranges.

§ 907.646 Navel Orange Regulation 346.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 907, as amended (7 CFR Part 907), regulating the handling of Navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Navel Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Navel oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) The need for this regulation to may be handled during the period April ceeding week. Such recommendation deand "carton" have the same meaning as It is hereby found that it is impracti- delegated to make determinations re-

(2) The need for this regulation to limit the respective quantities of Navel oranges that may be marketed from District 1, District 2, and District 3 during the ensuing week stems from the production and marketing situation confronting the Navel orange industry.

(i) The committee has submitted its recommendation with respect to the quantities of Navel oranges that should be marketed during the next succeeding week. Such recommendation, designed to provide equity of marketing opportunity to handlers in all districts, resulted from consideration of the factors enumerated in the order. The committee further reports that the fresh market demand for Navel oranges was fairly steady during the past week.

Prices f.o.b. averaged $3.65 per carton on a reported sales volume of 1,493 carlots last week, compared with an average f.o.b. price of $3.57 per carton and sales of 1,581 carlots a week earlier.

Track and rolling supplies at 682 cars were up 128 cars from last week.

(ii) Having considered the recommendation and information submitted by the committee, and other available information, the Secretary finds that the respective quantities of Navel oranges which may be handled should be fixed as hereinafter set forth.

(3) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of this regulation until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this regulation is based became available and the time this regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Navel oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Navel oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this regulation effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this regulation will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on April 1, 1975.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of Navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period April 4, 1975, through April 10, 1975, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 1,190,000 cartons;

(ii) District 2: 210,000 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement."

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order.

[Valencia Orange Reg. 492]

PART 908—VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

Limitation of Handling

This regulation fixes the quantity of California-Arizona Valencia oranges that may be shipped to fresh market during the weekly regulation period April 4–10, 1975. It is issued pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and Marketing Order No. 908. The quantity of Valencia oranges so fixed was arrived at after consideration of the total available supply of Valencia oranges, the quantity of Valencia oranges currently available for market, the fresh market demand for Valencia oranges, Valencia orange prices, and the relationship of season average returns to the parity price for Valencia oranges.

§ 908.792 Valencia Orange Regulation 492.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 908, as amended (7 CFR Part 908), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) The need for this regulation to limit the respective quantities of Valencia oranges that may be marketed from District 1, District 2, and District 3 during the ensuing week stems from the production and marketing situation confronting the Valencia orange industry.

(i) The committee has submitted its recommendation with respect to the quantities of Valencia oranges that should be marketed during the next succeeding week. Such recommendation, designed to provide equity of marketing opportunity to handlers in all districts, resulted from consideration of the factors enumerated in the order. The committee further reports that the fresh market demand for Valencia oranges continues to be very slow.

Prices f.o.b. averaged $3.03 per carton on a reported sales volume of 66 carlots last week, compared with an average f.o.b. price of $3.17 per carton and sales of 71 carlots a week earlier.

Track and rolling supplies at 94 cars were up 45 cars from last week.

(ii) Having considered the recommendation and information submitted by the committee, and other available information, the Secretary finds that the respective quantities of Valencia oranges which may be handled should be fixed as hereinafter set forth.

(3) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of this regulation until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this regulation is based became available and the time when this regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this regulation, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this regulation effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this regulation will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on April 1, 1975.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period April 4, 1975, through April 10, 1975, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited;

(ii) District 2: Unlimited;

(iii) District 3: 125,000 cartons."

(2) As used in this section, "handled", "District 1", "District 2", "District 3", and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order.

[Grapefruit Reg. 15; Amdt. 4]

PART 944—FRUITS; IMPORT REGULATIONS

Minimum Size Requirement for Imports of White Seedless Grapefruit

This amendment lowers the minimum diameter requirement applicable to imported white seedless grapefruit to 3 5/16 inches on March 31, 1975. The requirement is the same as that applicable to grapefruit produced in Florida and regulated pursuant to Marketing Order No. 905.

This amendment is consistent with section 8e of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674). This section requires that whenever specified commodities, including grapefruit, are regulated under a federal marketing order, imports of that commodity must meet the same or comparable grade, size, quality or maturity requirements as those in effect for the domestically produced commodity. This regulation fixes the same minimum size requirement on imported white seedless grapefruit as is effective under Marketing Order No. 905, as amended (7 CFR Part 905), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, tangerines, and tangelos grown in Florida.

Order. In § 944.111 (Grapefruit Regulation 15; 39 FR 33306, 37188; 40 FR 8322, 11346) the provisions of paragraph (a) (1), (2), and (3) are revised to read as follows:

(1) Seeded grapefruit shall grade at least U.S. No. 1 and be of a size not smaller than 3 12/16 inches in diameter except that a tolerance for seeded grapefruit smaller than such minimum size shall be permitted as specified in § 51.761 of the United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit;

(2) Seedless grapefruit, other than pink seedless grapefruit, shall grade at least Improved No. 2 ("Improved No. 2" shall mean grapefruit grading at least U.S. No. 2 and also meeting the requirements of the U.S. No. 1 grade as to shape (form) and color), and pink seedless grapefruit shall grade at least U.S. No. 2 Russet; and

(3) Seedless grapefruit shall be of a size not smaller than 3 5/16 inches in diameter, except that a tolerance for seedless grapefruit smaller than such minimum size shall be permitted as specified in § 51.761 of the United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit.

• • • • •

It is hereby found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective time of this amendment beyond that hereinafter specified (5 U.S.C. 553) in that (a) the requirements of this amended import regulation are imposed pursuant to Section 8e of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), which makes such regulation mandatory; (b) this amendment fixes the same requirement for imports of white seedless grapefruit as is applicable under amended Grapefruit Regulation 75 (§ 905.556) to the shipment of white seedless grapefruit grown in Florida; and (c) this amendment lowers the minimum size requirement applicable to imported white seedless grapefruit.

Dated, March 28, 1975, to become effective March 31, 1975.

FLOYD F. HEDLUND,
Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

CHAPTER XXVII—OFFICE OF AUDIT, DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

PART 2710—AVAILABILITY OF INFORMATION TO THE PUBLIC

Freedom of Information

Chapter XXVII, Title 7 CFR is hereby revised by deleting all of Part 2710—Availability of Information to the Public; and by adding a new Part 2710—Availability of Information to the Public.

Sec.
2710.1 General Statement.
2710.2 Public Inspection and Copying.
2710.3 Requests.
2710.4 Appeals.

AUTHORITY: (5 U.S.C. 301, 552).

§ 2710.1 General Statement.

This part is issued in accordance with the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture, in Part 1, Subpart A, of Subtitle A of this Title (7 CFR 1.1–1.16 and Appendix A thereto), implementing the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552). The Secretary's regulations, as implemented by the regulations in this part, govern the availability of records of the Office of Audit to the public.

§ 2710.2 Public Inspection and Copying.

The Office of Audit does not maintain records within the categories required by 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(2) to be made available for public inspection and copying. It therefore maintains no index of such materials.

§ 2710.3 Requests.

Requests for records under 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(3) shall be made in accordance with 7 CFR 1.3(a) and addressed to the Assistant Director, Policy, Plans and Inspection, OA, Administration Building, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250. This official is hereby delegated to make determinations regarding such requests in accordance with 7 CFR 1.4(c).

§ 2710.4 Appeals.

Any person whose request under § 2710.3 is denied shall have the right to appeal such denial. This appeal shall be submitted in accordance with 7 CFR 1.3(e) and addressed to the Director, Office of Audit, Administration Building, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

Effective date: April 3, 1975.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 28th day of March 1975.

Title 14—Aeronautics and Space

CHAPTER I—FEDERAL AVIATION ADMINISTRATION, DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

[Airworthiness Docket No. 75–WE–18–AD; Amdt. 39–2167]

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Douglas Model DC–10 Series Airplanes

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (31 FR 13697), an airworthiness directive was adopted on March 1, 1975, and made effective immediately by telegrams dated March 1, 1975 to all known United States operators of Douglas Model DC–10 Series airplanes, certificated in all categories. The agency has received a report of a Type A passenger door opening after takeoff and deploying the evacuation slide. The condition was attributed to the door operating mechanism having been left in a partially engaged emergency position. The door opened when a flight crew member checked the arming handle to determine the cause of air leakage at the door. The airworthiness directive requires cycling of Type A passenger door arming handles prior to taxi from the terminal area, until Douglas Service Bulletin No. 52–74, Revision 1, dated December 6, 1974, has been accomplished. Modification of the door operating mechanism assembly and detent assembly by incorporating redesigned cams will minimize the possibility of a passenger door accidentally opening.

Since it was found that immediate corrective action was required, notice and public procedure thereon were impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and good cause existed for making the airworthiness directive effective immediately to all known U.S. operators of Douglas Model DC–10–10, –30, –30F, and –40 Series airplanes by individual telegrams dated March 1, 1975.

After issuing this emergency AD, the agency determined a compliance time for accomplishment of the service bulletin, and found that Revision 1 was not applicable to the modification part of the AD, although otherwise indicated in the telegraphic AD. Therefore, prior to publishing the original emergency AD in the FEDERAL REGISTER, an airworthiness directive is being issued which supersedes the telegraphic AD. The adopted rule provides for accomplishment of the modification of the door operating mechanism as a terminating action to the mandatory cycling procedure. The procedure must be followed on all airplanes until the operator's fleet has been modified per the manufacturer's service bulletin.

The conditions which required issuance of the telegraphic AD still exist. Immediate adoption of the regulation is required; it is found that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and good cause exists for making this amendment effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (31 FR 13697), § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation regulations is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

McDONNELL DOUGLAS. Applies to Douglas Model DC-10-10, -30, -30F, and -40 Series airplanes, certificated in all categories, with factory serial numbers as indicated in Douglas Service Bulletin No. 52-74, Revision 1, dated December 6, 1974, or later FAA-approved revisions.

To prevent inadvertent opening of Type A passenger doors (other than the most forward left and right doors) during taxi or in flight, accomplish the following:

(a) Prior to taxi from the terminal area, after the effective date of this AD, and after all passengers have been seated, all Type A passenger door (other than the most forward left and right doors) arming handles must be cycled to the armed position; then returned to the fully disarmed position; and then returned to the fully armed position. If any difficulty in operating the arming handles is experienced the airplane must be corrected by maintenance personnel prior to further flight. The flight crew will be advised of the check accomplishment prior to takeoff. Operators shall advise flight crews and cabin attendants of the foregoing procedure by the most immediate and practicable means. The procedure is to be accomplished until the modification described in (b), below, is performed on all airplanes in the operator's fleet.

(b) On or before July 1, 1975, unless already accomplished, modify the door operating mechanism per Douglas Service Bulletin No. 52-74, dated September 30, 1973, or later FAA-approved revisions, or equivalent modifications approved by the Chief, Airpraft Engineering Division, FAA Western Region.

(c) Airplanes may be flown to a base for performance of maintenance required by this AD per FAR's 21.197 and 21.199, provided that, with respect to the door(s) identified as in need of maintenance, the emergency evacuation slides will either be removed or deactivated.

This supersedes the telegraphic AD, adopted March , 1975, and distributed by telegrams dated March 1, 1975.

This amendment becomes effective April 10, 1975.

Issued in Los Angeles, California on March 26, 1975.

ROBERT H. STANTON,
Director, FAA Western Region.

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Lockheed L-1011-385-1 Series Airplanes

The L-1011 has a light on the cargo door with a lens temperature of about 500° F. The light on the door is situated at a position in the cargo compartment, such that, with the door closed, bulk baggage not within the bulk cargo net can come into contact with the light lens. The light is controllable by a manual switch inside the cargo compartment and a door switch on the cargo door sill. Normally the light is off when the cargo door is closed, unless the manual switch was closed, in this case the light remains on until lift off on some airplanes or for the flight duration on other airplanes.

There have been two cases where the light remained on with the cargo door closed with loose baggage against the light. In these two cases, the items of cargo were smoldering when removed from the cargo compartment.

The cargo compartment was certificated to class "D" requirements, i.e., ventilation and drafts are controlled so that any fire likely to occur in the compartment will not progress beyond safe limits. In addition, the FAA has determined that a potential ignition source such as the unguarded light on the door, should not be present as part of the cargo compartment type design.

Since this condition is likely to exist or develop in other airplanes of the same type design, an airworthiness directive is being issued to require deactivation of the compartment manual light switch, and to require a periodic functional check of the door switch until an approved modification to the cargo door light is installed.

The FAA considered safety wiring of the manual switch to the off position. This action was considered unsatisfactory, since the switch could be easily reactivated.

Since a situation exists that requires immediate adoption of this regulation, it is found that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and good cause exists for making this amendment effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (31 FR 13697), § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive.

LOCKHEED. Applies to L-1011-385-1 airplanes certificated in all categories.

Compliance required as indicated.

To prevent a possible fire hazard in the C-1 or C-1A, C-2 and C-3 cargo compartment:

(a) Within the next 300 flight hours, perform the following, unless a modification acceptable per (b), below, has been accomplished:

(1) Deactivate the cargo door compartment manual light switch in accordance with Lockheed Service Bulletin 093-33-052, dated March 5, 1975, or later FAA-approved revisions; or an equivalent deactivation modification procedure approved by the Chief, Aircraft Engineering Division, FAA Western Region.

(2) Check the functioning of the door switch which controls the cargo compartment light per Lockheed Service Bulletin 093-33-052, dated March 5, 1975, or later FAA-approved revisions.

(b) Within 3000 hours time in service and each 3000 hours thereafter, recheck the door switch per item (a)(2), above. These tests may be discontinued after installation of a modification to the cargo door light, acceptable to the Chief, Aircraft Engineering Division, FAA Western Region. The approved data must reference this AD, and the approval data.

(c) After incorporation of an acceptable modification, per (b) above, the manual switch may be reactivated.

(d) An airplane may be flown to a base for the performance of the work required by this AD per FAR's 21.197 and 21.199.

This amendment becomes effective April 9, 1975.

Issued in Los Angeles, California on March 25, 1975.

[Airworthiness Docket No. 75-WE-6-AD; Amdt. 39-2151]

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

McDonnell Douglas Model DC-10-30 Airplanes

An autopilot go around mode has been certificated by the agency for Douglas Aircraft Company Model DC-10-30 airplanes. Subsequent flight testing has indicated that the autopilot go around may command an unsafe attitude during the go-around, if an Autothrottle/Speed Command Computer, Sperry Part Number 2593342-910C, is installed.

Douglas Aircraft Company has advised the agency that thirty-seven Autothrottle/Speed Command Computers, Part Number 2593342-910C, were manufactured by the supplier and that thirty-five of these computers have been returned to the manufacturer. The remaining two computers were damaged and salvaged from a DC-10-30 airplane, serial number 46925, after the accident involving this airplane in Boston. Douglas advises that these computers are in the possession of Aero Systems of Miami, Florida.

The agency has determined that the installation of an Autothrottle/Speed Command Computer, Part Number 2593342-910C in Douglas DC-10-30 airplanes is unsafe and must be prohibited.

Since no airplanes are currently affected by this amendment and no additional burden is imposed on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and the amendment may be made effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (31 FR 13697), § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

McDONNELL DOUGLAS. Applies to all Douglas Aircraft Company DC-10-30 series airplanes, certificated in all categories.

Compliance required as indicated unless previously accomplished.

After the effective date of this airworthiness directive do not install Autothrottle/Speed Control Computer Part Number 2593342-910C.

NOTE: Refer to paragraph 2 of McDonnell Douglas DC-10 Service Bulletin No. 22-67 dated February 21, 1975 or later FFA-approved revision.

This amendment becomes effective April 7, 1975.

PART 97—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

Miscellaneous Amendments

This amendment to Part 97 of the Federal Aviation Regulations incorporates by reference therein changes and additions to the Standard Instrument Approach Procedures (SIAPs) that were recently adopted by the Administrator to promote safety at the airports concerned.

The complete SIAPs for the changes and additions covered by this amendment are described in FAA Forms 3139, 8260-3, 8260-4, or 8260-5 and made a part of the public rule making dockets of the FAA in accordance with the procedures set forth in Amendment No. 97-696 (35 FR 5609).

SIAPs are available for examination at the Rules Docket and at the National Flight Data Center, Federal Aviation Administration, 800 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20591. Copies of SIAPs adopted in a particular region are also available for examination at the headquarters of that region. Individual copies of SAIPs may be purchased from the FAA Public Document Inspection Facility, HQ-405, 800 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20591 or from the applicable FAA regional office in accordance with the fee schedule prescribed in 49 CFR 7.85. This fee is payable in advance and may be paid by check, draft or postal money order payable to the Treasurer of the United States. A weekly transmittal of all SIAP changes and additions may be obtained by subscription at an annual rate of $150.00 per annum from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. Additional copies mailed to the same address may be ordered for $30.00 each.

Since a situation exists that requires immediate adoption of this amendment, I find that further notice and public procedure hereon is impracticable and good cause exists for making it effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 97 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended as follows, effective on the dates specified:

CHAPTER II—CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

SUBCHAPTER A—ECONOMIC REGULATIONS

[Regulation ER-901; Amdt. 39]

PART 288—EXEMPTION OF AIR CARRIERS FOR MILITARY TRANSPORTATION

Surcharge Rates

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C. March 31, 1975.

In accordance with established procedure and methodology, the Board, having completed its review of fuel prices for foreign and overseas MAC air transportation services as of March 1, 1975, is herein amending the surcharge provisions in Part 288 of its Economic Regulations (14 CFR Part 288) applicable to the rates established for those services.[1]

[1] ER-896, effective January 17, 1975.

V 40165
APR 3 75
XUM

Appendices A and B [1] set forth the results of our computations of reported fuel price changes as of March 1, 1975, for both commercial and military fuel, based upon application of the "active stations" methodology to fuel consumption reported for the quarter ended December 31, 1974;[2] and the rate impact of the change in current average fuel prices from that reflected in the base rates. Based on these computations, we will revise the fuel surcharge rates effective April 1, 1975, as follows: (a) decrease the long-range Category B and Category A rate from 1.51 to 1.13 percent; (b) decrease the Pacific interisland short-range Category B rate from 1.73 to 1.67 percent; and, (c) decrease the "all other" short-range Category B rate from 2.05 to 1.79 percent.

In view of the continuing need for a fuel surcharge to the minimum rates set forth in Part 288, we find good cause exists to make the within amendments effective on less than thirty (30) days' notice.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Board hereby amends Part 288 of its Economic Regulations (14 CFR Part 288) effective April 1, 1975 as follows:

1. Amend § 288.7(a) by revising the third proviso following the tables to read as follows:

§ 288.7 Reasonable level of compensation.

* * * * *

(a) * * *: Provided, however, That effective April 1, 1975, the total minimum compensation pursuant to the rates set forth in subparagraph (1) above for (i) services performed with regular jet, wide-bodied jet, and DC-8F-61/63 aircraft, (ii) Pacific interisland services performed with B-727 aircraft, and (iii) all other services performed with B-727 aircraft shall be increased by surcharges of 1.13 percent, 1.67 percent, and 1.79 percent, respectively.[3]

* * * * *

2. Amend § 288.7(d) by revising the proviso to subparagraphs (1) and (2) to read as follows:

§ 288.7 Reasonable level of compensation.

* * * * *

(d) For Category A transportation

Provided, That effective April 1, 1975, the total minimum compensation pursuant to the rates specified in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall be increased by a surcharge of 1.13 percent.

* * * * *

[1] Appendices filed as part of the original document.

[2] The most recent quarter available. The Board feels that this is the most representative distribution of fuel as between commercial fuel and military fuel for prospective rate purposes. It should be noted that this distribution can vary from quarter to quarter affecting the average price of fuel for each carrier performing MAC services.

[3] The surcharge provisions for services performed with B-727 aircraft will be applied to all other common-rated aircraft types.

(Secs. 204, 403 and 416 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended; 72 Stat. 743, 759 and 771 as amended; 49 U.S.C. 1324, 1373 and 1386.)

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

In the Matter of AAMCO Automatic Transmissions, Inc., a Corporation

Order modifying a consent order issued against respondent, 37 FR 24737 corrected at 25704, 81 F.T.C. 618, by deleting Paragraphs III and IV of the original order which permitted respondent to formulate and establish standards for a quality control program, "secondary level of inspection", whereby transmission parts are tested and inspected by vendors prior to sale; permitted respondent to maintain an approved vendors list which contains the names of vendors who actually perform a "secondary level of inspection"; and restricted franchisees to purchase only from AAMCO or vendors whose names appear on the approved vendors list. The respondent is required by the modified order to effect modification of the provisions of every contract between it and its franchisees contrary to or inconsistent with the modified order.

Order reopening proceeding and modifying cease and desist order is as follows:[1]

The Commission, on October 30, 1974, having issued an order against respondent to show cause why the proceedings herein should not be reopened for the purpose of modifying the consent order to cease and desist entered on October 18, 1972; and

Respondent having answered that it has no objection to the reopening of the proceeding and the modification of the consent order, as set forth in the order to show cause.

Accordingly, it is ordered, That the matter be reopened, and that the order herein be modified so that it will read:

I. It is ordered, That respondent, AAMCO Automatic Transmissions, Inc. (AAMCO), a corporation, its successors, assigns, officers, directors, agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the franchising or licensing of persons to operate an automotive transmission repair franchise business, such franchising and operation constituting commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, forthwith cease and desist from requiring, in any manner or by any means, directly or indirectly, its franchisees to purchase the automotive parts, new or rebuilt, equipment and merchandise used by such franchisees in the establishment and operation of their automotive repair business from AAMCO or from any other source;

Provided, That nothing in this order shall prohibit AAMCO from establishing, maintaining and implementing, from time to time, reasonable manufacturing specifications for transmission parts, equipment or merchandise to be used by its franchisees in their business, and reasonable standards for transmission services, repairs, and rebuilding offered by its franchisees. Such specifications and standards shall be made available without charge to sources of supply of such items to AAMCO's franchisees.

II. It is further ordered, That respondent take all necessary action to effect the modification of each provision of every contract between it and its franchisees which is contrary to or inconsistent with this order.

III. It is further ordered, That respondent notify the Commission at least thirty (30) days prior to any proposed change in the corporate respondent such as dissolution, assignment or sale resulting in the emergence of a successor corporation, the creation or dissolution of subsidiaries or any other change in the corporation which may affect compliance obligations arising out of the order.

IV. It is further ordered, That the respondent herein shall within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with the order.

The Order Reopening Proceeding and Modifying Cease and Desist Order was issued by the Commission February 3, 1975.

PART 13—PROHIBITED TRADE PRACTICES, AND AFFIRMATIVE CORRECTIVE ACTIONS

Adolph Coors Co.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U.S.C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U.S.C. 45)

In the Matter of Adolph Coors Company, a Corporation

Order modifying an earlier order dated July 24, 1973, 38 F.R. 23399, 83 F.T.C. 32, pursuant to decision and judgment of June 4 and 21, 1974, respectively, of the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit,[1] by deleting Paragraphs 12 and 13 of the order which rewrite the termination provisions of respondent's distributor contracts.

Order modifying order to cease and desist is as follows:[2]

Respondent, having filed in the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit on August 15, 1973, a petition to review and set aside an order to cease and desist issued herein on July 24, 1973, and the Court having rendered its decision on June 4, 1974, and its judgment on June 21, 1974, affirming the order to cease and desist, except for numbered Paragraphs 12 and 13 of the order which it directed be set aside;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That the aforesaid order to cease and desist be, and it hereby is, modified in accordance with the decision and judgment of the Court to read as follows:

ORDER

It is ordered, That respondent Adolph Coors Company and its subsidiaries, successors, assigns, officers, directors, agents, representatives and employees, individually or in concert with others, directly or indirectly, or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the brewing, distribution, offering for sale or sale of beer in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Entering into, maintaining or enforcing any contract, agreement, combination, understanding or course of conduct which has as its purpose or effect the fixing, maintaining, establishing or setting of the prices at which distributors sell Coors beer to retailers or the prices at which retailers sell Coors beer to consumers.

2. Publishing, disseminating or providing any price list or other document indicating suggested or mandatory prices for the sale of Coors beer by any distributor to any retailer or any price list or other document indicating suggested or mandatory prices for the sale of Coors beer by any retailer to any consumer.

Provided, however, That nothing contained in this paragraph of the Order shall prohibit respondent from complying with the requirements of any state law, provided, That when respondent purports to be complying with the state law regarding price suggestions, respondent will specifically advise the Commission of the statute and all court decisions and administrative agency decisions and rulings interpreting said statute pursuant to which it is purporting to act.

3. Publishing, disseminating or providing to any distributor or any retailer any information or suggestions concerning what Coors may believe to be an appropriate or proper mark-up or profit for Coors beer when the distributor sells to the retailer or when the retailer sells to the consumer or a mark-up or profit below which the distributor or retailer is advised not to sell Coors beer.

Provided, however, That nothing contained in paragraphs two (2) and three (3) of the Order shall prohibit respondent from publishing, disseminating, or providing any price list or other document indicating suggested prices for the sale of Coors beer or suggested mark-ups or profits for Coors beer after three years from the effective date of this Order. Two years following the effective date of this Order respondent may petition the Commission, upon a showing that competition in the resale of its products has been restored, to be permitted to publish, disseminate or provide suggested prices, mark-ups, and profits as set forth in this proviso.

4. Refusing to sell beer to any Coors distributor or terminating or threatening to terminate any Coors distributor because:

A. the distributor has in the past or might in the future sell Coors beer at prices, mark-ups, or profits different from those approved or recommended by respondent;

B. one or more of the distributor's customers sold Coors beer or advertised Coors beer for sale at prices, mark-ups, or profits different from those approved or recommended by respondent;

C. the Coors distributor sold Coors beer to another distributor or to a retailer whose business is located outside of the territory granted to the distributor; or

D. the Coors distributor distributes, has distributed, or proposes to distribute in the future the product of another brewer.

5. Entering into, maintaining or enforcing any contract, agreement, combination, understanding or course of conduct to fix, establish, limit or restrict the territory in which or the persons to whom a distributor may sell Coors beer.

Provided, however, That nothing contained in this paragraph of the Order shall prohibit respondent from complying with the requirements of any state law, provided, That when respondent purports to be complying with a state law requiring the restriction of territories or customers, respondent will specifically advise the Commission of the statute and all court decisions and administrative agency decisions and rulings interpreting said statute pursuant to which it is purporting to act.

6. Allocating Coors beer among its distributors in times of beer shortage at the Coors brewery, by any means other than by allocating shares to distributors equal to their proportionate purchases of Coors beer from the brewery during the last three months before the allocation or when the distributor has not been in business for more than a year as a Coors distributor, or some other equitable basis.

7. Refusing to deliver all of a distributor's order because the distributor has made sales to customers outside of the territory granted the distributor or because the distributor or the distributor's customer is selling Coors beer at prices, mark-ups or profits lower than those approved by respondent.

8. Prohibiting its distributors from selling for central warehouse delivery; provided, however, That respondent can establish refrigeration standards for the central warehouse which are substantially similar to those established for distributors and can require its distributors to be responsible, directly or indirectly, for maintenance of such refrigeration standards and for rotation of Coors beer in the central warehouse and at the retail delivery locations where the beer is redelivered from the central warehouse, if respondent changes its container dating system so that the retailer and the consumer will recognize the date without reference to a code or measuring stick.

9. Entering into, maintaining or enforcing any contract, agreement, combination, understanding or course of conduct with its distributors which has as its purpose or effect requiring that retailers serve Coors draught beer as their only light-colored draught beer.

10. Entering into, maintaining or enforcing any contract, agreement or understanding, or taking any action or course of conduct with any of its distributors which has as its purpose or effect the requirement that the distributor eliminate, or refrain from obtaining and handling rival brands of beer in order to become or remain a Coors distributor.

11. Hindering, suppressing or eliminating competition or attempting to hinder, suppress or eliminate competition between or among distributors or between or among retailers handling Coors beer.

It is further ordered, That respondent corporation shall forthwith distribute a copy of this Order to each of its operating divisions, to its present and future sales representatives, and to its present and future distributors.

It is further ordered, That respondent notify the Commission at least thirty (30) days prior to any proposed change in the corporate respondent such as dissolution, assignment or sale resulting in the emergence of a successor corporation, the creation or dissolution of subsidiaries or any other change in the corporation which may affect compliance obligations arising out of the Order.

In the event that respondent proposes a change in the corporate respondent, as set forth above, respondent shall require said successor or transferee to file, with the Commission, at the time of respondent's notification, a written agreement to be bound by the terms of this Order; provided that if respondent wishes to present to the Commission any reasons why said Order should not apply in its present form to said successor or transferee, respondent shall submit to the Commission a written statement setting forth said reasons at least sixty (60) days prior to the consummation of said succession or transfer.

It is further ordered, That respondent herein shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this Order, file with the Commission a report, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this Order.

In the Matter of Federated Sanitary Corp., a Corporation, and Harry Wessel, Individually and as an Officer of Said Corporation

Consent order requiring a New Rochelle, N.Y., seller and distributor of toilet bowl cleaners, air refreshers and other products to salesmen, franchisees and other distributors, among other things to cease misrepresenting earnings and profits of franchisees; misrepresenting the number of individuals engaged in the sale of respondents' products; using false testimonials, and failing to make certain disclosures to prospective franchisees.

The order to cease and desist, including further order requiring report of compliance therewith, is as follows: [1]

ORDER

It is ordered, That respondents Federated Sanitary Corp., a corporation, its successors and assigns, and its officers, and Harry Wessel, individually and as an officer of said corporation, and respondents' agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporation, subsidiary, division or other device, in connection with the advertising, offering for sale, sale or distribution of toilet bowl cleaners, air refreshers, or other products, in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing, directly or by implication, that individuals will earn any stated gross or net amount, or representing, in any manner, the past earnings of individuals where such profits represent unusual earnings by a small percentage with reference unless the pertinent facts with reference to such earnings are disclosed: for example, full or part-time employment or whether the individual operates alone or employs a staff.

2. Representing, directly or by implication, a prospective franchisee's potential income or gross or net profits unless such representation is based upon the actual average figures for all franchises and distributorships in operation during the entire preceding twelve-month period and unless there is disclosed clearly and spicuously immediately adjacent to any such representation that "REPRESENTATIONS ARE BASED ON THE AVERAGE EARNINGS OR PROFITS OF ALL FRANCHISES AND DISTRIBUTORSHIPS IN OPERATION DURING THE PAST YEAR. THESE FIGURES SHOULD NOT BE CONSIDERED AS ACCURATE REPRESENTATIONS OF POTENTIAL EARNINGS OR PROFITS OF ANY SPECIFIC FRANCHISEE OR DISTRIBUTOR."

[1] Copies of the complaint, decision and order, filed with the original document.

3. Misrepresenting, directly or by implication, the number of individuals regularly engaged in the sale or distribution of respondents' products.

4. Using testimonials from individuals who did not purchase from the respondent corporation the products covered by the testimonials.

5. Failing to furnish any prospective distributor or franchisee, in a separate written statement in a clear and concise manner, prior to the consummation of any contracts between respondents and any such prospective distributor or franchisee:

A. The conditions under which the franchise or distributorship agreement may be terminated or renewal refused by respondents, and a statement of the number of franchises or distributorships which were terminated or renewal refused in the past calendar year.

B. Complete financial details pertaining to the distributor or franchise agreement including the amount to be paid by the distributor or franchisee for the distributorship or franchise, the amount to be paid for any services to be rendered by respondents and the amount to be paid for any merchandise offered for sale or sold thereunder.

C. The median and mean gross sales to respondents' franchisees or distributors, exclusive of initial inventories sold to new franchisees or distributors, during the 12-month period preceding the month in which the information is to be furnished.

D. The number of franchisees or distributors at the beginning of the 12-month period, the number appointed during the 12-month period, the number terminated during the 12-month period, the number retained at the end of the 12-month period, and the median and mean length of time that those retained at the end of the 12-month period have been respondents' franchisees or distributors.

6. Using reprints of magazine articles, describing the experience of respondents' salesmen, distributors or franchisees with the respondents' products when such articles are suggested, drafted or prepared by respondents or on their behalf, unless it is clearly indicated that said articles were initiated by the respondents.

7. Misquoting, exaggerating or otherwise distorting statements from purchasers.

It is further ordered, That respondents furnish any prospective franchisee or distributor a copy of the franchise or distributorship agreement proposed to be used reasonably prior to the date the agreement is to be consummated or payment is to be made by the prospective franchisee or distributor for such franchise or distributorship.

It is further ordered, That respondents maintain files containing all inquiries or complaints from any source relating to acts or practices prohibited by this order, for a period of two years after their receipt, and that such files be made available for examination and copying by a duly authorized agent of the Federal Trade Commission during the regular hours of the respondents' business.

It is further ordered, That respondents deliver a copy of this Order to Cease and Desist to all present and future office personnel employed directly by respondents and to all persons engaged in the offering for sale or sale of respondents' distributorships or franchises or in any aspect of preparation, creation or placing of advertising and that respondents secure a signed statement acknowledging receipt of said order from each such person.

It is further ordered, That respondents notify the Commission at least thirty (30) days prior to any proposed change in the corporate respondent such as dissolution, assignment or sale resulting in the emergence of a successor corporation, the creation or dissolution of subsidiaries or any other change in the corporation which may affect compliance obligations arising out of the order.

It is further ordered, That the individual respondent named herein promptly notify the Commission of the discontinuance of his present business or employment and of his affiliation with a new business or employment. Such notice shall include respondent's current business address and a statement as to the nature of the business or employment in which he is engaged as well as a description of his duties and responsibilities.

It is further ordered, That no provision of this order shall be construed in any way to annul, invalidate, repeal, terminate, modify or exempt respondents from complying with agreements, orders or directives of any kind obtained by any other agency or act as a defense to actions instituted by municipal or state regulatory agencies. No provision of this order shall be construed to imply that any past or future conduct of respondents complies with the rules and regulations of or the statutes administered by the Federal Trade Commission.

It is further ordered, That the respondents herein shall within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

The Decision and Order was issued by the Commission January 27, 1975.

In the Matter of Kassler & Co., a Corporation

Consent order requiring a Denver, Colo., mortgage banker, among other things to cease distributing to real estate agents forms which restrict the buyer's source of home loan credit, which require the purchaser to sign at a later date a real estate contract form, the terms of which are not set forth or attached to the earnest money agreement, and which require a purchaser's title insurance policy or preliminary report only be delivered to the respondent. Other provisions of the order will enable the buyer to be informed of the conditions of the real estate contract into which he is entering.

The order to cease and desist, including further order requiring report of compliance therewith, is as follows: [1]

ORDER

It is ordered, That respondent Kassler & Co., a corporation, its successors or assigns, its officers, agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporation, subsidiary, division or other device, in connection with the promoting and granting of residential loans in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Disseminating or distributing, in any manner, directly or indirectly, any earnest money or other contract forms used in connection with the purchase and sale of real estate (all hereinafter referred to as "earnest money forms"):

a. Which provide that the seller or purchaser authorizes the real estate agent to select a lending institution, or to arrange financing of the sale, or to advance any of the purchaser's funds to any lending institution, or that otherwise have the effect of restricting where the purchaser may seek credit;

b. Which provide that the seller or purchaser agree to execute a real estate contract or any other document without, at the option of respondent, either (1) setting forth the terms of such real estate contract or other document in the earnest money forms, or (2) setting forth the following language in the earnest money forms: "THIS AGREEMENT IS

c. Which provide for delivery of the title policy and report preliminary thereto to any party other than the purchaser, or which provide for delivery at any specified place: Provided, That nothing herein shall preclude the inclusion of a provision permitting the sending of copies of the preliminary report and title policy to the lender or other closing agent, or other interested parties.

2. Failing to send, by certified mail, return receipt requested, a notice to all purchasers of residential real estate (hereinafter referred to as "covered applicants") who have, after the effective date hereof, both (a) executed an agreement on the form printed and distributed by the respondent which contains the language quoted in Paragraph Five of the complaint, and (b) filed a loan application with the respondent. Such notice shall be sent within two business days of the receipt of the loan application by any representative of Kassler & Co. and shall advise the covered applicant that he may withdraw his loan application without costs, obligations or penalties by delivering or posting written notice to respondent of his determination to do so within ten calendar days of receipt of the required notice from respondent. The notices described herein, which shall include a blank form of loan withdrawal notice, shall be sent by the respondent in the language, form and manner, and with the enclosures, approved by the Seattle Regional Office of the Federal Trade Commission or other representative designated by the Commission.

3. Failing to allow all covered applicants to withdraw their application for credit without costs, obligations or penalties if the respondent receives a loan application withdrawal notice as described above in subparagraph 2.

4. Failing to make contact in person with each real estate office to which respondent may have distributed earnest money agreement forms which contain the language stated in Paragraph Five of the complaint, and to use its best efforts to obtain possession of such earnest money agreement forms from the agent, and to destroy such forms.

It is further ordered, That respondent maintain at all times in the future, for a period, in each case, of not less than one year, complete records relative to the manner and form of its continuing compliance with the above terms and provisions of this order.

It is further ordered, That respondent deliver a copy of this order to cease and desist to the heads of each operating division and separate office within the company and to the heads of each region and branch office, and that respondent secure from each such person a signed statement acknowledging receipt of said order.

It is further ordered, That respondent notify the Commission at least thirty days prior to any proposed change in the respondent such as dissolution, assignment or sale resulting in the emergence of a successor corporation, the creation or dissolution of subsidiaries or any other change in the corporation which may affect compliance obligations arising out of the order.

It is further ordered, That respondent shall, within sixty days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a written report setting forth in detail the manner and form of its compliance with this order.

The Decision and Order was issued by the Commission February 3, 1975.

Subpart—Discriminating in price under Sec. 2, Clayton Act—Payment or acceptance of commission, brokerage or other compensation under 2(c): § 13.800 Buyers' agents; § 13.817 Decreased brokerage. Subpart—Discriminating in price under Section 5, Federal Trade Commission Act: § 13.892 Knowingly inducing or receiving discriminating payments.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U.S.C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; Sec. 2, 49 Stat. 1526; 15 U.S.C. 45, 13)

In the Matter of Men's Market Service, Inc., and Hart Schaffner & Marx, Corporations

Consent order requiring a New York City manufacturer and seller of men's clothing and its affiliated merchandising service, among other things to cease inducing discriminatory price reductions or advertising allowances from suppliers.

The Order to cease and desist, including further order requiring report of compliance therewith, is as follows: [1]

I. It is ordered, That the respondent corporations, Men's Market Service, Inc. and Hart Schaffner & Marx, their respective successors, assigns, officers, agents, representatives, and employees, in connection with the centralized selection, recommedation and negotiation of net prices for the purchase for resale by Hart Schaffner & Marx menswear stores of any product in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Clayton Act, shall not receive or accept, or arrange directly or indirectly for any subsidiary operating HSM menswear stores to receive or accept, from any supplier or from anyone acting for or in behalf of or who is subject to the direct or indirect control of such supplier, any rebate or discount in lieu of brokerage, by purchasing products from such supplier at net prices reflecting a reduction from the net prices at which sales of such products of like grade and quality are being effected by such supplier to competing purchasers, where such reduction in net price exceeds the cost savings derived by said supplier in manufacture, sale or delivery to HSM menswear stores; provided that said cost savings derived by any such supplier shall not include savings derived from a reduction in the regular rate of commission, brokerage or other compensation currently being paid by said supplied for sales services.

II. It is further ordered, That respondents Men's Market Service, Inc. and Hart Schaffner & Marx, their respective successors, assigns, officers, agents, representatives, employees, and subsidiaries operating HSM menswear stores, in connection with the purchase for resale by said HSM menswear stores in competition with other purchasers from the same suppliers of goods of like grade and quality, of any product in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Clayton Act, shall not:

(a) Induce suppliers to grant discriminatory discounts, rebates or other reductions in net prices to or for the benefit of HSM menswear stores, except to meet the lawful net prices offered by a competitor, where such reduction in net price exceeds the cost savings derived by said supplier in manufacture, sale or delivery to HSM menswear stores.

(b) Induce suppliers to grant catalog advertising allowances or other advertising allowances directly or indirectly to HSM menswear stores, unless such allowances are available on proportionally equal terms to all competitors of such HSM menswear stores purchasing from said suppliers' products of like grade and quality.

For the purpose of determining "net price" under the terms of Paragraphs I and II of this Order, there shall be taken into account all discounts and rebates or other terms and conditions of sale by which net prices are affected.

It is further ordered, That respondents notify the Commission at least thirty (30) days prior to any proposed change in either corporate respondent such as dissolution, assignment or sale resulting in the emergence of a successor corporation, the creation or dissolution of subsidiaries or any other change in the corporation which may affect its compliance obligations arising out of this Order.

It is further ordered, That respondents furnish a copy of this Order to all suppliers of merchandise purchased for resale by HSM menswear stores who, currently and during the five years preceding the date of this Order, are and were designated "preferred resources" and to all future such suppliers of such merchandise for a ten year period following the date of this Order, and respondent HSM shall also furnish a copy of this

[1] Copies of the complaint, decision and order, filed with the original document.

Order to each of its subsidiaries operating menswear stores.

It is further ordered, That respondents shall, within 60 days after service upon them of this Order, file with the Commission reports in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied and will comply with this Order.

The decision and order was issued by the Commission February 11, 1975.

In the Matter of J. M. Sanders, an Individual Trading and Doing Business as J. M. Sanders Jewelry Company

Consent order requiring a Chattanooga, Tenn., retailer of jewelry and small appliances, among other things to cease violating the Truth in Lending Act by failing to disclose to consumers, in connection with the extension of consumer credit, such information as required by Regulation Z of the said Act.

The Final Order, including further order requiring report of compliance with the order to cease and desist, is as follows: [1]

FINAL ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge filed his Initial Decision in this matter on December 31, 1974, finding respondent to have engaged in the acts and practices as alleged in the complaint and entering a Cease-and-Desist Order against respondent. A copy of the Initial Decision and Order was served on the respondent on January 23, 1975. No appeal was taken from the Initial Decision.

The Commission having now determined that the matter should not be placed on its own docket for review, and that the Initial Decision should become effective as provided in § 3.51(a) of the Commission's Rules of Practice,

It is ordered, That the Initial Decision and Order contained therein shall become effective on February 24, 1975.

It is further ordered, That J. M. Sanders, an individual trading and doing business as J. M. Sanders Jewelry Company, shall, within sixty (60) days after service of this order upon him, file with the Commission a report in writing, signed by respondent, setting forth in detail the manner and form of his compliance with the order to cease and desist.

The order to cease and desist as set forth in the Initial Decision is as follows:

ORDER

It is ordered, That respondent J. M. Sanders, an individual trading and doing business as J. M. Sanders Jewelry Company, his successors or assigns, respondent's agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporation, subsidiary, division or other device, in connection with any extension or arrangement of consumer credit or any advertisement to aid, promote, or assist directly or indirectly any extension of consumer credit, as "consumer credit" and "advertisement" are defined in Regulation Z (12 CFR Part 226) of the Truth in Lending Act (Pub. L. 90–321, 15 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.), do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Failing in any consumer credit transaction to disclose the price at which respondent, in the regular course of business, offers to sell for cash the property or services which are the subject of the credit sale, and to describe that price as the "cash price," as required by § 226.8 (c) (1) of Regulation Z.

2. Failing to disclose the amount of any downpayment in money made in connection with any consumer credit transaction and to describe that amount as the "cash downpayment," as required by § 226.8(c) (2) of Regulation Z.

3. Failing to disclose the amount of any downpayment in property made in connection with any consumer credit transaction and to describe that amount as the "trade-in," as required by § 226.8 (c) (2) of Regulation Z.

4. Failing to disclose the sum of the "cash downpayment" and the "trade-in" made in connection with any consumer credit transaction, and to describe that sum as the "total downpayment," as required by § 226.8(c) (2) of Regulation Z.

5. Failing to disclose the "unpaid balance of cash price" to describe the difference between the "cash price" and the "total downpayment," as required by § 226.8(c) (3) of Regulation Z.

6. Failing to disclose the "unpaid balance" to describe the sum of the "unpaid balance of cash price" and all other charges included in the amount financed but which are not part of the finance charge, as required by § 226.8(c) (5) of Regulation Z.

7. Failing to disclose the amount of credit extended, and to describe that amount as the "amount financed," as required by § 226.8(c) (7) of Regulation Z.

8. Failing to disclose the sum of all charges made to the customer which are required by Section 226.4 of Regulation Z to be included in the finance charge, and to describe that sum as the "finance charge," as required by § 226.8(c) (8) (i) of Regulation Z.

9. Failing in any consumer credit transaction to disclose accurately the sum of the cash price, all charges which are included in the amount financed but which are not part of the finance charge, and the finance charge, and to describe that sum as the "deferred payment price," as required by § 226.8(c) (8) (ii) of Regulation Z.

10. Failing to disclose the "annual percentage rate" accurately to the nearest quarter of one percent, in accordance with § 226.5 of Regulation Z, as required by § 226.8(b) (2) of Regulation Z.

11. Failing to disclose the number, amount, and due dates or period of payments scheduled to repay the indebtedness, as required by § 226.8(b) (3) of Regulation Z.

12. Failing to disclose the sum of the payments scheduled to repay the indebtedness, and to describe the sum as the "total of payments" as required by § 226.8(b) (3) of Regulation Z.

13. Stating, utilizing, or placing any information or explanation not required or authorized by Regulation Z in a manner which might tend to mislead or confuse the customer or contradict, obscure, or detract attention from the information required by Regulation Z to be disclosed, as required by § 226.6(c) of Regulation Z.

14. Stating in any advertisement the amount of the downpayment or that no downpayment is required, the amount of any installment payment, the dollar amount of any finance charge, the number of installments or the period of repayment, or that there is no charge for credit, unless there is also stated in terminology prescribed under § 226.8 of Regulation Z, as required by § 226.10(d) (2) thereof:

(i) The cash price;

(ii) The amount of the downpayment required or that no downpayment is required, as applicable;

(iii) The number, amount, and due dates or periods of payments scheduled to repay the indebtedness if the credit is extended;

(iv) The amount of the finance charge expressed as an annual percentage rate; and

(v) The deferred payment price.

15. Failing in any consumer credit transaction or advertisement, to make all disclosures, determined in accordance with §§ 226.4 and 226.5 of Regulation Z, in the manner, form and amount required by §§ 226.6, 226.7, 226.8 and 226.10 of Regulation Z.

It is further ordered, That respondent deliver a copy of this order to cease and desist to all present and future personnel of respondent engaged in the consummation of any extension of consumer credit or in any aspect of the prepara-lowing information and statements in the tion, creation, or placing of advertising, and that respondent secure a signed statement acknowledging receipt of said order from each such person.

It is further ordered, That the respondent named herein promptly notify the Commission of the discontinuance of his present business or employment and of his affiliation with a new business or employment. Such notice shall include respondent's current business address and a statement as to the nature of the business address and a statement as to the nature of the business or employment in which he is engaged, as well as a description of his duties and responsibilities.

The Final Order was issued by the Commission February 18, 1975.

In the Matter of Theodore Stephen Company, Inc., a Corporation, and Benjamin Eisenman, Individually, and as an Officer of Said Corporation

Order requiring a Silver Spring, Md., carpet retailer, among other things to cease using bait and switch tactics; failing to maintain adequate records; misrepresenting savings available to consumers; misrepresenting prices or terms and conditions thereof; misrepresenting guarantees; misrepresenting credit services or terms; failing to notify consumers of their right to cancel contracts within three business days; misbranding and falsely advertising its textile fiber products; and failing to disclose to consumers, in connection with the extension of consumer credit, such information as required by Regulation Z of the Truth in Lending Act.

The Final Order is as follows: [1]

FINAL ORDER

This matter has come before the Commission on the motion of respondents, for consideration of the question whether the consumer warning provision ordered by the Administrative Law Judge should be adopted as part of the Commission's cease-and-desist order. The Commission has determined that this matter is indistinguishable from the matter of Wilbanks Carpet Specialists, Inc., et al., Docket 8933 and Tri-State Carpets, Inc., et al., Docket 8945, inasmuch as the record presents insufficient evidence that a consumer warning is a necessary or appropriate means for the termination of the act or practices complained of or for the prevention of their recurrence. Having declined to order a consumer warning in the Wilbanks and Tri-State matters, the Commission has concluded that the same disposition is warranted herein.

Accordingly, the initial decision issued by the Judge should be modified in accordance with the foregoing views of the Commission, and, as so modified, adopted as the decision of the Commission:

It is ordered, That the initial decision issued by the Administrative Law Judge be modified by striking therefrom the following:

Those portions of the conclusions of law which concern "consumer warning" relief (at pp. 11–13) sub nom. "THE REMEDY"); and the second "FURTHER ORDERED" paragraph of Part III of the order to cease and desist issued by the judge (at pp. 29–30).

As so modified, the initial decision is hereby adopted.

The order to cease and desist contained in the initial decision including further order requiring report of compliance therewith, as modified by the Commission, is as follows:

ORDER

I. It is ordered, That respondents Theodore Stephen Company, Inc., a corporation, its successors and assigns, and its officers, and Benjamin Eisenman, individually and as an officer of said corporation, and respondents' agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporation, subsidiary, division or other device, in connection with the advertising, offering for sale, sale or distribution of carpeting and floor coverings, or any other article of merchandise, in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Using in any manner, a sales plan, scheme, or device wherein false, misleading, or deceptive statements or representations are made in order to obtain leads or prospects for the sale of carpeting or other merchandise or services.

2. Making representations, orally or in writing, directly or by implication, purporting to offer merchandise for sale when the purpose of the representation is not to sell the offered merchandise but to obtain leads or prospects for the sale of other merchandise at higher prices.

3. Disparaging in any manner, or discouraging the purchase of any merchandise or services which are advertised or offered for sale.

4. Representing, orally or in writing, directly or by implication, that any merchandise or services are offered for sale when such offer is not a bona fide offer to sell such merchandise or services.

5. Failing to maintain and produce for inspection and copying for a period of three years adequate records to document for the entire period during which each advertisement was run and for a period of six weeks after the termination of its publication in press or broadcast media:

a. The cost of publishing each advertisement including the preparation and dissemination thereof;

b. The volume of sales made of the advertised product or service at the advertised price; and

c. A computation of the net profit from the sales of each advertised product or service at the advertised price.

6. Using the word "Sale", or any other word or words of similar import or meaning not set forth specifically herein unless the price of such merchandise being offered for sale constitutes a reduction, in an amount not so insignificant as to be meaningless, from the actual bona fide price at which such merchandise was sold or offered for sale to the public on a regular basis by respondents for a reasonably substantial period of time in the recent, regular course of their business.

7. (a) Representing, orally or in writing, directly or by implication, that by purchasing any of said merchandise, customers are afforded savings amounting to the difference between respondents' stated price and respondents' former price unless such merchandise has been sold or offered for sale in good faith at the former price by respondents for a reasonably substantial period of time in the recent, regular course of their business.

(b) Representing, orally or in writing, directly or by implication, that by purchasing any of said merchandise, customers are afforded savings amounting to the difference between respondents' stated price and a compared price for said merchandise in respondents' trade area unless a substantial number of the principal retail outlets in the trade area regularly sell said merchandise at the compared price or some higher price.

(c) Representing, orally or in writing, directly or by implication, that by purchasing any of said merchandise, customers are afforded savings amounting to the difference between respondents' stated price and a compared value price for comparable merchandise, unless substantial sales of merchandise of like grade and quality are being made in the trade area at the compared price or a higher price and unless respondents have in good faith conducted a market survey or obtained a similar representative sample of prices in their trade area which establishes the validity of said compared price and it is clearly and conspicuously disclosed that the comparison is with merchandise of like grade and quality.

8. Failing to maintain and produce for inspection or copying for a period of three (3) years, adequate records (a) which disclose the facts upon which any savings claims, sale claims and other similar representations as set forth in Paragraphs Six and Seven of this order are based, and (b) from which the validity of any saving claims, sale claims and similar representations can be determined.

9. Representing, orally or in writing, directly or by implication, that a stated price for carpeting or floor coverings includes the cost of a separate padding and the installation of such padding and carpeting thereof, unless in every instance where it is so represented the stated price for floor covering does, in fact, include the cost of such separate padding and installation thereof; or misrepresenting in any manner, the prices, terms, or conditions under which respondents supply separate padding and provide installation in connection with the sale of floor covering products.

10. Representing, orally or in writing, directly or by implication, that any product or service is guaranteed unless the nature and extent of the guarantee, the identity of the guarantor, and the manner in which the guarantor will perform thereunder are clearly and conspicuously disclosed; and respondents deliver to each purchaser, prior to the signing of the sales contract, a written guarantee clearly setting forth all of the terms, conditions and limitations of the guarantee fully equal to the representations, orally or in writing, directly or by implication, made to each such purchaser, and unless respondents promptly and fully perform all of their obligations and requirements under the terms of each such guarantee.

11. Representing, orally or in writing, directly or by implication, that respondents extend credit to customers or extend credit at bank rates; or misrepresenting in any manner, credit services or credit terms.

12. Contracting for any sale whether in the form of trade acceptance, conditional sales contract, promissory note, or otherwise which shall become binding on the buyer prior to midnight of the third day, excluding Sundays and legal holidays, after the date of execution.

13. Failing to furnish the buyer with a fully completed receipt or copy of any contract pertaining to such sale at the time of its execution, which is in the same language, e.g., Spanish, as that principally used in the oral sales presentation and which shows the date of the transaction and contains the name and address of the seller, and in immediate proximity to the space reserved in the contract for the signature of the buyer or on the front page of the receipt if a contract is not used and in bold face type of a minimum size of 10 points, a statement in substantially the following form:

You, the buyer, may cancel this transaction at any time prior to midnight of the third business day after the date of this transaction. See the attached notice of cancellation form for an explanation of this right.

14. Failing to furnish each buyer, at the time he signs the sales contract or otherwise agrees to buy consumer goods or services from the seller, a completed form in duplicate, captioned, "NOTICE OF CANCELLATION", which shall be attached to the contract or receipt and easily detachable, and which shall contain in ten point bold face type the following information and statements in the same language, e.g., Spanish, as that used in the contract:

NOTICE OF CANCELLATION

[Enter date of transaction]

(Date)

You may cancel this transaction, without any penalty or obligation, within three business days from the above date.

If you cancel, any property traded in, any payments made by you under the contract or sale, and any negotiable instrument executed by you will be returned within 10 business days following receipt by the seller of your cancellation notice, and any security interest arising out of the transaction will be cancelled.

If you cancel, you must make available to the seller at your residence, in substantially as good condition as when received, any goods delivered to you under this contract or sale; or you may if you wish, comply with the instructions of the seller regarding the return shipment of the goods at the seller's expense and risk.

If you do make the goods available to the seller and the seller does not pick them up within 20 days of the date of your notice of cancellation, you may retain or dispose of the goods without any further obligation. If you fail to make the goods available to the seller, or if you agree to return the goods to the seller and fail to do so, then you remain liable for performance of all obligations under the contract.

To cancel this transaction, mail or deliver a signed and dated copy of this cancellation notice or any other written notice, or send a telegram, to ----------, at

(name of seller)

(address of seller's place of business)

Not later than midnight of ----------

(date)

I hereby cancel this transaction.

(Buyer's signature)

15. Failing, before furnishing copies of the "Notice of Cancellation" to the buyer, to complete both copies by entering the name of the seller, the address of the seller's place of business, the date of the transaction, and the date, not earlier than the third business day following the date of the transaction, by which the buyer may give notice of cancellation.

16. Including in any sales contract or receipt any confession of judgment or any waiver of any of the rights to which the buyer is entitled under this order including specifically his right to cancel the sale in accordance with the provisions of this order.

17. Failing to inform each buyer orally, at the time he signs the contract or purchases the goods or services, of his right to cancel.

18. Misrepresenting, directly or indirectly, orally or in writing, the buyer's right to cancel.

19. Failing or refusing to honor any valid notice of cancellation by a buyer and within 10 business days after the receipt of such notice, to (i) refund all payments made under the contract or sale; (ii) return any goods or property traded in, in substantially as good condition as when received by the seller; (iii) cancel and return any negotiable instrument executed by the buyer in connection with the contract or sale and take any action necessary or appropriate to terminate promptly any security interest created in the transaction.

20. Negotiating, transferring, selling, or assigning any note or other evidence of indebtedness to a finance company or other third party prior to midnight of the fifth business day following the day the contract was signed or the goods or services were purchased.

21. Failing, within 10 business days of receipt of the buyer's notice of cancellation, to notify him whether the seller intends to repossess or to abandon any shipped or delivered goods.

22. Advertising the price of carpet, either separately or with padding and installation included, for specified areas of coverage without disclosing in immediate conjunction and with equal prominence the square yard price for additional quantities of such carpet with padding and installation needed.

23. Advertising any carpeting or floor covering using a unit of measurement not usually and customarily employed in the retail advertising of carpet or which tends to exaggerate the size or quantity of carpeting or floor covering being offered at the advertised price.

Provided, however, That nothing contained in Part I of this order shall relieve respondents of any additional obligations respecting contracts required by federal law or the law of the state in which the contract is made. When such obligations are inconsistent, respondents can apply to the Commission for relief from this provision with respect to contracts executed in the state in which such different obligations are required. The Commission, upon showing, shall make such modifications as may be warranted in the premises.

II. It is further ordered, That respondents Theodore Stephen Company, Inc., a corporation, its successors and assigns, and its officers, and Benjamin Eisenman, individually and as an officer of said corporation, and respondents' agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporation, subsidiary, division or other device, in connection with the introduction, sale, advertising, or offering for sale, in commerce, or the transportation or causing to be transported in commerce of any textile fiber product; or in connection with the sale, offering for sale, advertising, delivery, transportation or causing to be transported, of any textile fiber product which has been advertised or offered for sale, in commerce; or in connection with the sale, offering for sale, advertising, delivery, transportation, or causing to be transported, after shipment in commerce, of any textile fiber product, whether in its original state or contained in other textile fiber products, as the terms "commerce" and "textile fiber product" are defined in the Textile Fiber Products Identification Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

A. Misbranding textile fiber products by falsely or deceptively stamping, tagging, labeling, invoicing, advertising or otherwise identifying such products as to the name or amount of the constituent fibers contained therein.

B. Falsely and deceptively advertising textile products by:

1. Making any representations by disclosure or by implication, as to fiber content of any textile fiber product in any written advertisement which is used to aid, promote or assist, directly or indirectly, in the sale, or offering for sale, of such textile fiber product unless the same information required to be shown on the stamp, tag, label or other means of identification under sections 4(b) (1) and (2) of the Textile Fiber Products Identification Act is contained in the said advertisement, except that the percentages of the fibers present in the textile fiber product need not be stated.

2. Failing to set forth in advertising the fiber content of floor covering containing exempted backings, fillings or paddings, that such disclosure related only to the face, pile or outer surface of such textile fiber products and not to the exempted backings, fillings or paddings.

3. Using a fiber trade-mark in advertising textile fiber products without a full disclosure of the required fiber content information in at least one instance in said advertisement.

4. Using a fiber trade-mark in advertising only one fiber without such fiber trademark appearing at least once in the advertisement, in immediate proximity and conjunction with the generic name of the fiber, in plainly legible and conspicuous type.

III. It is further ordered, That respondents Theodore Stephen Company, Inc., a corporation, its successors and assigns, and its officers, and Benjamin Eisenman, individually and as an officer of said corporation, and respondents' agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporate, subsidiary, division or other device, in connection with any extension of consumer credit or advertisement to aid, promote, or assist directly or indirectly any extension of consumer credit, as "consumer credit" and "advertisement" are defined in Regulation Z (12 CFR Part 226) of the Truth in Lending Act (Pub. L. 90-321, 15 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.), do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Failing to include in the finance charge the amount of the charges or premiums for credit life insurance in instances where customers desiring such insurance coverage did not give specific dated and separately signed affirmative written indications of such desire, as provided in § 226.4(a) (5) (ii) of Regulation Z.

(2) Failing to disclose accurately the "amount financed", and "finance charge", as required by §§ 226.8(b) (7), and 226.8(c) (8) (i), respectively, of Regulation Z.

(3) Failing to disclose the "annual percentage rate" accurately to the nearest quarter of one percent, computed in accordance with the provisions of § 226.5 of Regulation Z, as required by § 226.8 (b) (2) of Regulation Z.

(4) Failing to disclose the sum of the cash price, all charges which are included in the amount financed but which are not part of the finance charge, and the finance charge, and to describe that sum as the "deferred payment price", as required by § 226.8(c) (8) (ii) of Regulation Z.

(5) Failing in any consumer credit transaction or advertisement, to make all disclosures, determined in accordance with §§ 226.4 and 226.5 of Regulation Z, in the manner, form and amount required by §§ 226.6, 226.7, 226.8, 226.9 and 226.10 of Regulation Z.

It is further ordered, That respondents shall maintain for at least a one (1) year period, following the effective date of this order, copies of all advertisements, including newspaper, radio and television advertisements, direct mail and in-store solicitation literature, and any other such promotional material utilized for the purpose of obtaining leads for the sale of carpeting or floor coverings, or utilized in the advertising, promotion or sale of carpeting or floor covering and other merchandise.

It is further ordered, That respondents, for a period of one (1) year from the effective date of this order, shall provide each advertising agency utilized by respondents and each newspaper publishing company, television or radio station or other advertising media which is utilized by the respondents to obtain leads for the sale of carpeting or floor coverings and other merchandise, with a copy of the Commission's News Release setting forth the terms of this order.

It is further ordered, That respondents shall maintain for at least a one (1) year period, following the effective date of this order, copies of all advertisements, including newspaper, radio, and television advertisements, direct mail and in-store solicitation literature, and any other such promotional material utilized for the purpose of obtaining leads for the sale of carpeting or floor coverings, or utilized in the advertising, promotion or sale of carpeting or floor covering and other merchandise.

It is further ordered, That respondents, for a period of one (1) year from the effective date of this order, shall provide each advertising agency utilized by the respondents and each newspaper publishing company, television or radio station or other advertising media which is utilized by the respondents to obtain leads for the sale of carpeting or floor coverings and other merchandise, with a copy of the Commission's News Release setting forth the terms of this order.

It is further ordered, That respondents notify the Commission at least thirty (30) days prior to any proposed change in the corporate respondent such as dissolution, assignment or sale resulting in the emergence of a successor corporation, the creation or dissolution of subsidiaries or any other change in the corporation which may affect compliance obligations arising out of the order.

It is further ordered, That respondents shall forthwith distribute a copy of this order to each of their operating divisions.

It is further ordered, That respondents deliver a copy of this order to cease and desist to all present and future personnel of respondents engaged in the offering for sale, sale of any product, consummation of any extension of consumer credit or in any aspect of preparation, creation, or placing of advertising, and that respondents secure a signed statement acknowledging receipt of said order from each such person.

It is further ordered, That the individual respondent named herein promptly notify the Commission of the discontinuance of his present business or employment and of his affiliation with a new business or employment. Such notice shall include respondent's current business address and a statement as to the nature of the business or employment in which he is engaged as well as a description of his duties and responsibilities.

It is further ordered, That the said respondents herein shall within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

The Final Order was issued by the Commission January 28, 1975.

SLIMICIDES

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs, having evaluated the data in a petition (FAP 4H3023) filed by the Dow Chemical Co., Midland, MI 48640, and other relevant material, concludes that the food additive regulations should be amended as set forth below to provide for safe use of 2,2-dibromo-3-nitrilopropionamide as a slimicide in the manufacture of paper and paperboard intended to contact food.

Therefore, pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 409(c)(1), 72 Stat. 1786; 21 U.S.C. 348(c)(1)) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner (21 CFR 2.120), § 121.2505(c) is amended by alphabetically inserting a new item in the list of substances, to read as follows:

PART 121—FOOD ADDITIVES

Subpart F—Food Additives Resulting from Contact with Containers or Equipment and Food Additives Otherwise Affecting Food

Polyhydric Alcohol Esters of Long Chain Monobasic Acids

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs is amending the food additive regulations to provide for a new lubricant to be used in the fabrication of polyvinyl chloride and/or polyvinyl chloride copolymers.

Notice was given by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of July 2, 1974 (39 FR 24396) that a petition (FAP 4B3008) had been filed by Emery Industries, Inc., 3200 Carew Tower, Cincinnati, OH 45232, proposing that the food additive regulations (21 CFR Part 121) be amended to provide for safe use of esters produced by esterification of monobasic acids with either ethylene glycol or glycerol as lubricants in the fabrication of vinyl chloride plastic food-contact articles.

The Commissioner having evaluated public authorities, whose jurisdictions, the grounds of race, color, national ori-

The Commissioner having evaluated data in the food additive petition and other relevant material concludes that the food additive regulations should be amended to provide for the safe use of the petitioned additive, subject to the limitations that it be used only in articles contacting nonfatty foods under conditions of room temperature or refrigerated filling and storage.

Therefore, pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 201(s), 409, 701(a), 52 Stat. 1055, 72 Stat. 1784–1788; 21 U.S.C. 321(s), 348, 371(a)) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner (21 CFR 2.120), Part 121 is amended by adding to Subpart F the following new section:

§ 121.2630 Polyhydric alcohol esters of long chain monobasic acids.

Polyhydric alcohol esters of long chain monobasic acids identified in this section may be safely used as lubricants in the fabrication of polyvinyl chloride and/or polyvinyl chloride copolymer articles complying with § 121.2521 that contact food of types I, II, IV–B, VI–B, VII–B, and VIII identified in table 1 in § 121.2526 (c) under conditions of use E, F, and G described in table 2 in § 121.2526(c), subject to the provisions of this section.

(a) Identity. For the purpose of this section, polyhydric alcohol esters of long chain monobasic acids consist of polyhydric alcohol esters having number average molecular weights in the range of 1,050 to 1,700. The esters are produced by the reaction of either ethylene glycol or glycerol with long chain monobasic acids containing from 9 to 40 carbon atoms obtained by the oxidation of long chain alpha-olefins, the unreacted carboxylic acids in the formation of the glycerol esters being neutralized with calcium hydroxide to produce a composition having up to 2 percent by weight calcium. The alpha-olefins, obtained from the polymerization of ethylene, have 20 to 50 carbon atoms and contain a minimum of 75 percent by weight straight chain alpha-olefins and not more than 25 percent vinylidene compounds.

(b) Specifications. The polyhydric alcohol esters have the following specifications:

(1) Melting point of 60–80° C for the ethylene glycol ester and 90–105° C for the glycerol ester as determined by the Fisher Johns method.

(2) Acid value 15–25 for each ester as determined by the A.O.C.S. Method Tria-6f,[1] modified to use as the acid solvent a 1:1 volume mixture of anhydrous isopropyl alcohol and toluene. The solution is titrated with 0.1*N* methanolic sodium hydroxide.

(3) Saponification value 126–160 for the ethylene glycol ester and 90–130 for the glycerol ester as determined by an analytical method available upon request from the Division of Food and Color Additives, HFF–330, U.S. Food and Drug Administration, 200 C St. SW., Washington, D.C. 20204.

(4) Ultraviolet absorbance as specified in § 121.2605(a)(4) when tested by the analytical method described therein.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time on or before May 5, 1975, file with the Hearing Clerk, Food and Drug Administration, Rm. 4–65, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20852, written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order, specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable, and state the grounds for the objections. If a hearing is requested, the objections shall state the issues for the hearing, shall be supported by grounds factually and legally sufficient to justify the relief sought, and shall include a detailed description and analysis of the factual information intended to be presented in support of the objections in the event that a hearing is held. Six copies of all documents shall be filed. Received objections may be seen in the above office during working hours, Monday through Friday.

Effective date. This order shall become effective April 3, 1975.

PART 444—OLIGOSACCHARIDE ANTIBIOTIC DRUGS

Neomycin Vaginal Suppositories; Confirmation of Effective Date of Order Revoking Certification Provisions

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs is confirming the effective date of an order, which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of September 30, 1974 (39 FR 35160) to become effective November 11, 1974, amending the antibiotic drug regulations to revoke provisions for certification of vaginal suppositories containing neomycin sulfate, polymyxin B sulfate, and acetarsone (21 CFR 444.642a). Any person adversely affected by the order could file objections to it and request a hearing.

Pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 502, 507, 52 Stat. 1050–1051 as amended, 59 Stat. 463 as amended (21 U.S.C. 352, 357)) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner (21 CFR 2.120), notice is given that no objections were filed to the subject order. Accordingly, the amendment promulgated thereby became effective November 11, 1974.

Dated: March 25, 1975.

SAM D. FINE,
Associate Commissioner for Compliance.

Title 23—Highways

CHAPTER I—FEDERAL HIGHWAY ADMINISTRATION, DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

SUBCHAPTER G—ENGINEERING AND TRAFFIC OPERATIONS

PART 635—CONSTRUCTION AND MAINTENANCE

Miscellaneous Amendments

Revisions and corrections are hereby published as set forth below.

In order to eliminate unnecessary redtape, those States operating under Certification Acceptance pursuant to 23 U.S.C. 117 may henceforth construct any Federal-aid system project, except projects on the Interstate System, by the force account method without securing the prior approval of the Federal Highway Administration. Under existing regulations only secondary system force account projects can proceed without prior approval.

The matters affected relate to grants, benefits, or contracts within the purview of 5 U.S.C. 553(a)(2), therefore, general notice of proposed changes is not required. The revisions and corrections will become effective on the date of issuance.

Issued on March 24, 1975.

NORBERT T. TIEMANN,
Federal Highway Administrator.

Subpart A, Contract Procedures, is amended as follows:

[Docket No. 75–5]

PART 662—OFF-SYSTEM ROADS PROGRAM ADMINISTRATIVE GUIDELINES

These regulations provide guidelines for administering the Off-System Roads Program. Section 122 of the Federal-Aid Highway Amendments of 1974 amended title 23, United States Code to add section 219 which authorizes grants for the construction, reconstruction, and improvement of roads not on any Federal-aid system. Section 101(6) of the Federal-Aid Highway Amendments of 1974 authorized to be appropriated $200 million for off-system roads for the fiscal year 1976. The $200 million was apportioned to the States pursuant to 23 U.S.C. 219 on January 10, 1975.

Since these regulations relate to a grant program, notice and public procedure thereon are unnecessary, and they may be made effective in fewer than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. These regulations are being issued effective on the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER so that the program can begin promptly, thereby reducing unemployment, stimulating the economy, and providing needed rural road improvements.

However, because of public interest in this program, interested persons may submit comments on these regulations to the Federal Highway Administration, Department of Transportation, Room 4226, Docket No. 75–5, 400 7th St. SW., Washington, D.C. 20590. Comments should be submitted on or before May 5, 1975. Material submitted will be considered and evaluated in determining any changes to these regulations.

In consideration of the foregoing, Subchapter G of Chapter I of title 23, Code of Federal Regulations, is amended by adding a new Part 662 to read as set forth below:

Sec.
662.1 Definitions.
662.3 Roads eligible for improvement.
662.5 Project objective.
662.7 Fair and equitable availability of funds in the counties.
662.9 Matching of funds.
662.11 Procedures.
662.13 Standards.
662.15 Project identification.

AUTHORITY: 23 U.S.C. 219 and 315; 49 CFR 1.48.

§ 662.1 Definitions.

As used in this part—

(a) "Local road officials" means the duly elected or appointed officials of public authorities whose jurisdictions include rural off-system roads.

(b) "Maintained" means the preservation of the entire highway, including surface, shoulders, roadsides, structures, and such traffic control devices as are necessary for its safe and efficient utilization.

(c) "Minority business enterprise" means that the company has at least 50 percent minority ownership or control; minorities are identified as Blacks, the Spanish-surnamed, American Indians, and Asian-Americans.

(d) "Open to public travel" means that the road section is available, except during scheduled periods, extreme weather or emergency conditions, passable by four-wheel standard passenger cars, and open to the general public for use without restrictive gates, prohibitive signs, or regulation other than restrictions based on size, weight, or class of registration.

(e) "Public authority" means a State, county, town, or township, Indian tribe, municipal or other local government or instrumentality thereof, with authority to finance, build, operate or maintain toll-free highway facilities.

(f) "Rural area" means all areas of a State not included in urban areas. The term "urban area" is defined in 23 U.S.C. 101(a).

(g) "State" means any one of the 50 States and Puerto Rico.

(h) "State agency" means the State highway agency which is legally empowered to administer this program in cooperation with the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) or such other State agency as may be legally empowered and suitably equipped and organized to administer this program, as designated by the governor of the State, and as approved by the Federal Highway Administrator.

§ 662.3 Roads eligible for improvement.

Roads (including bridges) which are eligible for improvement under this program shall not be on any Federal-aid highway system but shall be: toll free, located in a rural area, under the jurisdiction of and maintained by a public authority, and open to public travel.

§ 662.5 Project objective.

The Federal objective of this program shall be to assist State and local road officials to improve eligible off-system roads (including bridges) by projects which are selected by those officials in cooperation with each other. Maintenance projects are not eligible, nor is any work which has not been authorized to proceed by FHWA.

§ 662.7 Fair and equitable availability of funds in the counties.

Each State shall make funds apportioned under this program available for expenditure in the counties of such State on a fair and equitable basis. Each State shall ensure equality in distribution of funds and further ensure that projects are selected, designed, and constructed with such funds in a manner which will not discriminate against any person on the grounds of race, color, national origin, or sex. Minority communities must receive adequate consideration in the selection and implementation of projects under this program.

§ 662.9 Matching of funds.

Federal-aid funds apportioned to a State under 23 U.S.C. 219 shall be matched by State or local funds in the same manner and ratio as Federal-aid secondary funds under 23 U.S.C. 120(a).

§ 662.11 Procedures.

This program shall be administered by FHWA in cooperation with the several State agencies. Regular Federal-aid highway procedures applicable to particular types of projects and work shall also be applicable to projects administered under this program, except that, subject to approval of the FHWA Division Engineer, State agencies may assume responsibilities for:

(a) Approval of the PS&E assembly, construction changes, and third-party agreements (e.g. utility, railroad and consulting engineer agreements),

(b) Authorization to advertise for bids for construction or commence work on an agreed-unit-price basis,

(c) Concurrence in the contract award, and

(d) Inspecting construction.

Each contracting authority shall notify bidders that minority business enterprises will be afforded full and affirmative opportunity to submit bids in response to the invitation and will not be discriminated against on grounds of race, color, or national origin in consideration for an award. If land acquisition or relocation of individuals, families, or businesses is required for the project and FHWA does not authorize advertising, the State agency shall submit a certification to the FHWA Division Engineer that it has complied with the applicable provisions of the relocation assistance and land acquisition directives contained in volume 7 of the Federal-Aid Highway Program Manual[1] (FHPM) (23 CFR, Chapter I, Subchapter H). Written approval of such certification by the FHWA Division Engineer shall be obtained prior to advertisement for bids for physical construction. FHWA shall make an inspection of each completed project.

§ 662.13 Standards.

Design standards for projects constructed under this program shall be:

(a) Those standards, policies and guides set forth in FHPM 6–2–1–1 (23 CFR Part 625) or, as an alternative,

(b) Such standards, policies and guides as may be developed by local road officials in cooperation with the State and approved by FHWA.

Within project limits or immediately adjacent to a project, no bridge may be left in place which has a width narrower than the approach roadway, including the width of shoulder paving, unless sultsible signing, marking, and guarding is provided. No bridge shall be left in place which has a width narrower than the approach roadway except as may be approved by the FHWA Division Engineer. All projects shall be signed and marked in accordance with the Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices.

§ 662.15 Project identification.

Projects shall be identified in programming and other documents by a three-element coding (e.g. OS–(187(2))), as follows:

(a) The prefix designation "OS,"

(b) A series of numbers not exceeding four digits which may be the traffic route number or another statewide independent series. At the option of the State, a single unique number not exceeding four digits may be assigned to each local jurisdiction within the State, and

(c) The agreement number ("(2)" in the example) shall be the chronological number of the project within each assigned route or local jurisdiction number.

Effective Date: April 3, 1975.

Title 29—Labor

SUBTITLE A—OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF LABOR

PART 90—CERTIFICATION OF ELIGIBILITY TO APPLY FOR WORKER ADJUSTMENT ASSISTANCE

On March 17, 1975, a document was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 11987) proposing to revise the rules pertaining to worker adjustment assistance as administered by the Department of Labor. All comments with respect to the proposed revision were given due consideration.

A. As a result of comments received and our further review, the following changes in the revised rules are made in addition to language changes for clarification:

1. The definition of "increased imports" is added to § 90.2 and generally follows the definition given in the legislative history of the Trade Act of 1974.

2. The definition of "like or directly competitive" is expanded in § 90.2, to include the definition set forth in section 601 of the Act.

3. The contents of the petition (§ 90.11 (c)) are changed to require the name, address, telephone number, and title of an official of the firm, in order to facilitate the certification investigation process.

4. The primary objectives and procedures of a certification investigation have been specified (§ 90.12), in order to better inform the public of the possible scope of such investigations.

5. Section 90.13 is changed to include specification of the content of a request for public hearing; this will be particularly helpful in determining whether a person requesting a public hearing has a "substantial interest" in the proceedings.

B. Certain other recommendations have been carefully considered but have not been accepted. The following suggestions were not adopted for the reasons assigned:

1. Section 90.11(c) has been criticized because it is believed workers will be required to provide information which is unavailable during the petitioning process. This contention is not correct since the regulations clearly provide, in § 90.31 (b), that workers need only furnish a reason for the unavailability of information in petitions.

2. Section 90.13 has been criticized as requiring too many "legalistic formalities" for public hearings and for not taking into account the difficulty of parties attending hearings at a "time and place" to be determined by the certifying officer. The judicial review and public hearings sections of the Act (§ 221 and § 250) and current case law concerning administrative proceedings indicate that persons requesting public hearings should be afforded the opportunity to be heard, to be present, and to produce evidence. The requirements in § 90.13 are intended to protect, not interfere with, the rights of petitioners and other interested parties. As for the "time and place" for the hearing, we are of the opinion that the latitude prescribed in § 90.13(c) allows for those situations where parties would be unable to attend unless the location of the hearing can be set as circumstances dictate. It is for this reason that the regulations do not prescribe Washington, D.C., as the only place where hearings will be held.

3. We have been requested to delete the statement in § 90.16(d) that a certification may identify individual workers by name. However, there may be situations (as there were under the Trade Expansion Act of 1962) in which it may be necessary to notify workers of their eligibility by naming them, especially in circumstances where the persons named are not members of the larger group included in a certification. In any event, administrative measures will be taken to protect the privacy of individuals involved.

4. No opportunity for a hearing is provided concerning the termination date of a certification when such a date has been specified in the certification itself (§ 90.16(d)(2)), although it has been suggested that such opportunity for hearing should be provided. This section was not changed because under no other circumstances is an opportunity for hearing provided after a final determination has been made, and any discussion of the termination date would be a proper subject in th hearing provided prior to the certification (§ 90.13).

5. It has been recommended that § 90.21 provide a more specific and detailed description of the type of industry studies to be conducted under section 224 of the Act. Although we are of the opinion that § 90.21 is sufficient as presently drafted, we will continue to consider this recommendation, with the possibility that we may revise this section at a later date.

6. Some concern has been expressed that the "date of filing" mentioned in §§ 90.2 and 90.31 will be interpreted in such a way as to interfere with the prompt disposition of petitions. We believe that this concern is minimized by the liberalized filing requirements in §§ 90.11 and 90.31 and the fact that the "date of filing" is primarily the date from which the 60-day determination period and 10-day hearing period are measured. In most cases, only delay on the part of petitioners or failure to substantially comply with filing requirements will adversely affect the workers' rights under the certification process.

7. Several comments were directed at an alleged lack of clarity in the statements concerning the confidentiality of information, especially in § 90.33. These regulations were drafted with the intention of avoiding any specific clarifications or definitions of "confidential business data" which might go beyond the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 U.S.C. 552). Any attempt to obtain information concerning the adjustment assistance program probably will be in the form of an FOIA request; therefore, we are of the opinion that any confidentiality standards we devise for these regulations should refer the requesting party to the Department's regulations pertaining to the FOIA (29 CFR Part 70).

Since the new program for worker adjustment assistance will become effective on April 3, 1975, it is essential that regulations be in effect on that date in order to assure the availability of program benefits to workers. For this reason I, as Secretary of Labor, find that it is in the public interest to make these regulations effective April 3, 1975.

Although Part 90 is being published in final form and is made effective as stated above, it is the policy of the Department of Labor that all comments concerning our regulations will be fully considered. Because certain persons have stated that they could not adequately comment on the proposal before March 26, 1975, further comments will be received, just as though Part 90 were presently a proposal, until May 5, 1975, after which time the comments received will be evaluated and, if warranted, the regulations will be appropriately revised. Meanwhile, in the interest of making Part 90 as revised in this document effective as soon as possible, it shall remain in force until further revised.

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, or arguments on Part 90, to the U.S. Department of Labor, Office of the Solicitor, Room N2458, New Department of Labor Building, 200 Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D.C. 20210 on or before May 5, 1975. All material received in response to this invitation will be available for public inspection during normal business hours at that address.

Accordingly, 29 CFR Part 90 is revised as set forth below.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 1st day of April 1975.

JOHN T. DUNLOP,
Secretary of Labor.

AUTHORITY: Sec. 248, Pub. L. 93–618, 88 Stat. 2029 (19 U.S.C. 2320).

Subpart A—General

§ 90.1 Purpose.

The purpose of this Part 90 is to set forth regulations relating to the responsibilities vested in the Secretary of Labor by the Trade Act of 1974 (Pub. L. 93–618) concerning petitions and determinations of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance. Section 248 of the Act directs the Secretary of Labor to prescribe regulations which will implement the provisions relating to adjustment assistance for workers. This part will provide for the prompt and effective disposition of workers' petitions for certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance. It reflects delegations of authority which will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 90.2 Definitions.

As used in this part, the term:

"Act" means the Trade Act of 1974, Pub. L. 93–618, 88 Stat. 1978, 2011–2030 (19 U.S.C. 2271–2322).

"Appropriate subdivision" means an establishment in a multi-establishment firm which produces the domestic articles in question or a distinct part or section of an establishment (whether or not the firm has more than one establishment) where the articles are produced. The term "appropriate subdivision" includes auxiliary facilities operated in conjunction with (whether or not physically separate from) production facilities.

"Certifying officer" means an official in the Bureau of International Labor Affairs, U.S. Department of Labor, who has been delegated responsibility to make determinations and issue certifications of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, preside at public hearings under section 221(b) of the Act, issue subpenas, and perform such further duties as may be required by the Secretary or by this part 90.

"Commission" means the United States International Trade Commission, formerly named the United States Tariff Commission.

"Date of the petition" means the date thereon, but which in no event shall be more than 30 days before the date of filing.

"Date of filing" means the date on which petitions and other documents are received in the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Bureau of International Labor Affairs, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, D.C. 20210.

"Date of issuance" means the date on which a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance is signed by the certifying officer.

"Director" means the Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Bureau of International Labor Affairs, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, D.C. The Director is responsible for the conduct of worker investigations under this part and for recommending to the certifying officer whether or not to issue certifications of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance.

"Firm" includes an individual proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, association, corporation (including a development corporation), business trust, cooperative, trustee in bankruptcy, and receiver under decree of any court.

"Group" means three or more workers in a firm or an appropriate subdivision thereof.

"Increased imports" means that imports have increased either absolutely or relatively, and would generally mean these increases as have occurred from a representative base period subsequent to the effectiveness of the most recent trade agreement concessions proclaimed by the President beginning in 1968.

"Layoff" means a suspension from pay status for lack of work initiated by the employer and expected to last for no less than seven (7) consecutive calendar days.

"Like or directly competitive" means that "like" articles are those which are substantially identical in inherent or intrinsic characteristics (i.e., materials from which the articles are made, appearance, quality, texture, etc.); and "directly competitive" articles are those which, although not substantially identical in their inherent or intrinsic characteristics, are substantially equivalent for commercial purposes (i.e., adapted to the same uses and essentially interchangeable therefor).

An imported article is "directly competitive with" a domestic article at an earlier or later stage of processing, and a domestic article is "directly competitive with" an imported article at an earlier or later stage of processing, if the importation of the article has an economic effect on producers of the domestic article comparable to the effect of importation of articles in the same stage of processing as the domestic article.

"Partial separation" means, with respect to an individual who has not been totally separated, that:

(a) The worker's hours of work have been reduced to 80 percent or less of the worker's average weekly hours at the firm or appropriate subdivision thereof, and

(b) The worker's wages have been reduced to 80 percent or less of the worker's average weekly wage at the firm or appropriate subdivision thereof.

"Secretary" means the Secretary of Labor, U.S. Department of Labor.

"Significant number or proportion of the workers" means that:

(a) In most cases the total or partial separations, or both, in a firm or appropriate subdivision thereof, are the equivalent to a total unemployment of five percent (5 percent) of the workers or 50 workers, whichever is less; or

(b) At least three workers in a firm (or appropriate subdivision thereof) with a work force of fewer than 50 workers would ordinarily have to be affected.

"Threatened to begin" means, in the context of impending total or partial separations, the date on which it could reasonably be predicted that separations were imminent.

"Total separation" means the layoff or severance of an individual from a firm or an appropriate subdivision thereof.

§ 90.3 Applicability of part.

This Part 90 generally relates to certifications of eligibility made under the Act. Subpart B specifically applies to the initiation and conduct of worker investigations and the issuance of determinations and certifications of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance. Subpart C applies to studies of workers in industries which are the subject of investigations for industry import relief. Subpart D contains general provisions with respect to filing of documents and public availability of documents.

Subpart B—Petitions and Determinations of Eligibility To Apply for Adjustment Assistance

§ 90.11 Petitions.

(a) Who may file petitions. A petition under section 221(a) of the Act and this Subpart B shall be filed by a group of workers for a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance or by their certified or recognized union or other duly authorized representative.

(b) Identification of petitioners. Every petition filed with the Department shall clearly state the group of workers on whose behalf the petition is filed and the name(s) and address(es) of the person(s) by whom the petition is filed. Every petition shall be signed by at least three individuals of the petitioning group or by an official of a certified or recognized union or other duly authorized representative. Signing of a petition shall constitute acknowledgement that each signer has read the entire petition, that to the best of the signer's knowledge and belief the statements therein are true, and that each signer is duly authorized to sign such a petition.

(c) Contents. Petitions may be filed on a U.S. Department of Labor form. Copies of this form may be obtained at State Employment Security Agency local offices or by writing the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Bureau of International Labor Affairs, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, D.C. 20210. Every petition shall include: (1) The name(s), address(es), and telephone number(s) of the petitioner(s); (2) The name or a description of the group of workers on whose behalf the petition is filed (e.g., all hourly and salaried employees of the XYZ plant of ABC corporation); (3) The name and address of the workers' firm or appropriate subdivision thereof; (4) the name, address, telephone number, and title of an official of the firm; (5) The approximate date(s) on which the total or partial separation of a significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm or subdivision began and continued, or threatened to begin, and the approximate number of workers affected by such actual or threatened total or partial separations; (6) A statement of reasons for believing that increases of like or directly competitive imports contributed importantly to total or partial separations and to the decline in the sales or production (or both) of the firm or subdivision (e.g., company statements, articles in trade association publications, etc.); and (7) A description of the articles produced by the workers' firm or appropriate subdivision, the production or sales of which are adversely affected by increased imports, and a description of the imported articles concerned. If available, the petition also should include information concerning the method of manufacture, end uses, and wholesale or retail value of the domestic articles produced and the United States tariff provision under which the imported articles are classified.

(d) Number of copies. One (1) signed original and two (2) clear copies of the petition shall be filed. The name(s) of the person(s) signing the petition shall be typewritten or otherwise clearly reproduced.

§ 90.12 Investigation.

Upon receipt of a petition, properly filed, the Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance shall promptly publish notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER that the petition has been received. The Director shall initiate, or order to be initiated, such investigation as he determines to be necessary and appropriate. The investigation may include one or more field visits to verify information furnished by the petitioner(s) and to elicit other relevant information. In the course of the field investigation representatives of the Department shall be authorized to meet with and obtain information from responsible company officials, union officials, employees and other interested parties, or organizations, both private and public as may be necessary to marshal all relevant facts to recommend an appropriate finding with respect to the issuance of a determination of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance. Upon conclusion of the investigation a report thereof, including a recommendation regarding group eligibility shall be made, as more specifically defined in § 90.16 of this Part 90.

§ 90.13 Public hearings.

(a) When held. A public hearing shall be held in connection with an investigation instituted under § 90.12 of this part whenever, not later than ten (10) days after the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of the notice of receipt of the petition, such a hearing is requested in writing by:

(1) The petitioner; or

(2) Any other person found by the Secretary or certifying officer to have a substantial interest in the proceedings.

Such petitioner and other interested persons shall be afforded an opportunity to be present, to produce evidence, and to be heard.

(b) Form of request. A request for public hearing shall be filed in the same manner as provided for filing of petitions and other documents under § 90.31(a) of this part. A request by a person other than the petitioner shall contain:

(1) The name, address, and telephone number of the person, organization, or group requesting the hearing; and

(2) A complete statement of the relationship of the person, organization, or group requesting the hearing to the petitioner or the subject matter of the petition and a statement of the nature of its interest in the proceeding.

(c) Time and place. Public hearings will be held at the time and place specified in a notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Such notice shall be published at least seven (7) calendar days before the scheduled hearing.

(d) Presiding officers. A certifying officer shall conduct and preside over public hearings.

(e) Order of testimony. Witnesses will testify in the order designated by the presiding officer. Each witness, after being duly sworn, will proceed with testimony. After testifying, a witness may be questioned by the presiding officer or an agent designated by the presiding officer. Any person who has entered an appearance in accordance with paragraph (j) of this section may direct questions to the witness, but only for the purpose of assisting the presiding officer in obtaining relevant and material facts with respect to the subject matter of the hearing.

(f) Evidence. Witnesses may produce evidence of a relevant and material nature to the subject matter of the hearing.

(g) Briefs. Briefs of the evidence produced at the hearing and arguments thereon may be presented to the presiding officer by parties who have entered an appearance. Three (3) copies of such briefs shall be filed with the presiding officer within ten (10) days of the completion of the hearing.

(h) Oral argument. The presiding officer shall provide opportunity for oral argument after conclusion of the testimony in a hearing. The presiding officer will determine in each instance the time to be allowed for argument and the allocation thereof.

(i) Authentication of evidence. Evidence, oral or written, submitted at hearings, will upon order of the presiding officer be subject to verification from books, papers, and records of the parties submitting such evidence and from any other available sources.

(j) Transcripts. All hearings will be stenographically reported. Persons interested in transcripts of the hearings may inspect them at the U.S. Department of Labor in Washington, D.C., or purchase copies as provided in 29 CFR 70.62(c).

(k) Appearances. The petitioner or any other person showing a substantial interest in the proceedings may enter an appearance at a hearing, either in person or by a duly authorized representative.

§ 90.14 Subpena power.

(a) The Secretary or certifying officer may require by subpena the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of evidence necessary to make a determination.

(b) If a person refuses to obey a subpena issued under paragraph (a) of this section, the Secretary or a certifying officer may petition the United States district court within the jurisdiction of which the proceeding is being conducted requesting an order requiring compliance with such subpena.

(c) Witnesses subpenaed under this section shall be paid the same fees and mileage as are paid for like services in the District Court of the United States. The witness fees and mileage shall be paid by the United States Department of Labor.

§ 90.15 Recommendation.

As promptly as possible, but in any event not later than 45 days after the filing of a worker petition, the Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance shall submit to the certifying officer recommendations concerning whether or not to issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance. These recommendations shall be forwarded together with an investigative report, proposed findings of fact, transcripts of any public hearing conducted under this subpart, and other material developed during the investigation.

§ 90.16 Determinations and certifications of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance.

(a) General. Not later than 15 days after receipt of the recommendations forwarded pursuant to § 90.15 of this part, the certifying officer shall make a determination on the petition and where affirmative issue a certification of eligibility as provided below.

(b) Requirements for determinations. After reviewing the material submitted under § 90.15 of this part, including any supplemental material which may be required in reaching a determination the certifying officer shall make findings of fact concerning whether:

(1) A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm (or an appropriate subdivision of the firm) have become, or are threatened to become, totally or partially separated;

(2) Sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely; and

(3) Increases (absolute or relative) of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision thereof contributed importantly to such total or partial separation, or threat thereof, and to such decline in sales or production. For purposes of this paragraph and part, the term "contributed importantly" means a cause which is important but not necessarily more important than any other cause.

(c) Notice of affirmative determination and certification of eligibility. Upon reaching a determination on a petition that a group of workers has met all the requirements set forth in section 222 of the Act and paragraph (b) of this section, the certifying officer shall issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance and shall promptly publish in the FEDERAL REGISTER a summary of the determination together with the reasons for making such determination (with the exception of information which the certifying officer determines to be confidential). Such summary shall include the certification of eligibility and shall constitute a Notice of Determination and Certification of Eligibility.

(d) Contents of certification of eligibility. The certification shall specify in detail:

(1) The firm or subdivision thereof at which the workers covered by the certification have been employed (which need not be limited to the unit specified in the petition), and may identify individual workers by name; and

(2) The impact date(s) on which the total or partial separations of the workers covered by the certification began or threatened to begin. When applicable, the certification shall specify the date(s) after which the total or partial separations of the petitioning group of workers from the firm or subdivision thereof specified in the certification are no longer attributable to the conditions set forth in paragraph (b) of this section. For purposes of this section, the "impact date" is the earliest date on which any part of the total or partial separations involving a significant number or proportion of workers began or threatened to begin.

(e) Exclusions from coverage of a certification of eligibility. A certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance shall not apply to any worker:

(1) Whose last total or partial separation from the firm or appropriate subdivision occurred more than one (1) year before the date of the petition; or

(2) Whose last total or partial separation from the firm or appropriate subdivision occurred before October 3, 1974.

(f) Notice of negative determination. Upon reaching a determination that a group of workers has not met all the requirements set forth in section 222 of the Act and paragraph (b) of this section, the certifying officer shall promptly publish in the FEDERAL REGISTER a summary of the determination together with the reasons for making such determinations (with the exception of information which the certifying officer determines to be confidential). Such summary shall constitute a Notice of Negative Determination.

§ 90.17 Termination of certifications of eligibility.

(a) Investigation. Whenever the Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance has reason to believe, with respect to any certification of eligibility, that the total or partial separations from a firm or appropriate subdivision thereof are no longer attributable to the conditions specified in section 222 of the Act and § 90.16(b) of this part, the Director shall promptly make an investigation. Notice of the initiation of the investigation shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and shall be transmitted to the group of workers concerned.

(b) Opportunity for comment and hearing. Within 10 days after publication of the notice under paragraph (a) of this section, the group of workers or other persons showing a substantial interest in the proceedings may request a public hearing or may make written submissions to show why the certification should not be terminated. If a hearing is requested under this paragraph, such hearing shall be conducted in accordance with § 90.13 of this part.

(c) Recommendation. Upon the conclusion of any public hearing conducted under this section, and after consideration of any written comments received under paragraph (b) of this section, the Director shall recommend to the certifying officer whether or not the certification should be terminated.

(d) Notice of termination. Within ten (10) days of receipt of a report recommending termination of a certification of eligibility, the certifying officer shall determine whether or not such certification shall be terminated. Upon reaching a determination that the certification of eligibility shall be terminated, the certifying officer shall make findings of fact and shall promptly have published in FEDERAL REGISTER a summary of the determination and the reasons therefor (with the exception of information which the certifying officer determines to be confidential). Such summary shall constitute a Notice of Termination. Such termination shall apply only with respect to total or partial separations occurring after the termination date specified by the certifying officer.

§ 90.18 Judicial review of determinations.

(a) General. Pursuant to section 250 of the Act, any worker, group of workers, certified or recognized union, or authorized representative of such worker or group, aggrieved by a final determination issued pursuant to the Act and §§ 90.16(c), 90.16(f), or 90.17(d) of this part may file a petition for review of such determination with the United States court of appeals for the circuit in which such worker or group is located or in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit. The party seeking judicial review must file for review in the appropriate court within sixty (60) days after the notice of determination has been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(b) Certified record of the Secretary. Upon receiving a copy of the petition for review from the clerk of the appropriate court of appeals, the certifying officer shall promptly certify and file in such court the record on which the determination was based. The record shall include transcripts of any public hearings, recommendations received pursuant to § 90.15 of this part, the findings of fact made pursuant to § 90.16(b) or § 90.17(d) of this part, and other documents on which the determination was based.

(c) Further proceedings. If a case is remanded to the Secretary by the court of appeals for the taking of further evidence, the certifying officer shall direct that further proceedings be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Subpart B of this part, including the taking of further evidence. The certifying officer, after the conduct of such further proceedings, may make new or modified findings of fact and may modify or affirm the previous determination. Upon the completion of such further proceedings, the certifying officer shall certify and file in the appropriate court of appeals the record of such further proceedings.

(d) Substantial evidence. The findings of fact by the certifying officer shall be conclusive if the appropriate court of appeals determines that such findings of fact are supported by substantial evidence.

Subpart C—Initiation and Conduct of Study With Respect to Workers in Industry Which is the Subject of an Investigation for Industry Import Relief § 90.21 Study.

(a) Initiation. Upon notification by the Commission, pursuant to section 224 of the Act, that the Commission has begun an investigation under section 201 with respect to an industry import relief action, the Secretary shall direct the Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance to immediately begin a study of (1) the number of workers in the domestic industry producing the like or directly competitive article(s) who have been or are likely to be certified eligible for adjustment assistance; and (2) the extent to which the adjustment of such workers to the import competition may be facilitated through the use of existing programs.

(b) Report. The report of the Secretary of the study under section 224(a) of the Act and paragraph (a) of this section shall be made to the President not later than fifteen (15) days after the day on which the Commission makes its report under section 201.

V 40165
APR 3 75
XUM

(c) Release of report. Upon making the report of the study to the President, the Secretary shall also promptly make the report public (with the exception of information which the Secretary determines to be confidential) and shall have a summary of it published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 90.22 Dissemination of program knowledge and assistance to workers.

Whenever the Commission makes an affirmative finding under section 201(b) of the Act that increased imports are a substantial cause of serious injury or threat thereof with respect to an industry, the Secretary shall, to the extent feasible, make available to the workers in such industry full information about programs which may facilitate their adjustment to the import competition. He shall provide assistance to such workers in the preparation and processing of petitions and applications for program benefits.

Subpart D—General Provisions

§ 90.31 Filing of documents.

(a) Where to file, date of filing. Petitions and all other documents shall be filed at the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Bureau of International Labor Affairs, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, D.C. 20210. If properly filed, such documents shall be deemed filed on the date on which they are actually received in the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

(b) Conformity with rules. Documents filed in support of the initiation of an investigation by the Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance shall be considered properly filed if they conform with the pertinent rules prescribed in this Part 90. The Director may accept documents in substantial compliance with the pertinent rules of this part provided good and sufficient reason is stated in the document for inability to comply fully with the pertinent rules. The Director cannot waive full compliance with a rule which is required by the Act.

§ 90.32 Availability of information.

(a) Information available to the public. Upon request to the Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, members of the public may inspect petitions and other documents filed with the Director under the provisions of this Part 90, transcripts of testimony taken and exhibits submitted at public hearings held under the provisions of this Part 90, recommendations to the certifying officer concerning determinations on petitions for certification of eligibility and determinations on termination of the effect of certifications of eligibility, summaries of the certifying officer's determinations concerning certifications of eligibility and terminations of the effect of certifications of eligibility, public notices concerning worker assistance under the Act and other reports and documents issued for general distribution.

(b) Information not available to the public. Confidential business information, defined in § 90.33 of this Part 90, shall not be available to the public.

§ 90.33 Confidential business information.

(a) Definition. Confidential business information means trade secrets and commercial or financial information which are obtained from a person and are privileged or confidential, as set forth in 5 U.S.C. 552(b) and 29 CFR Part 70.

(b) Identification of information submitted in confidence. Business information which is to be treated as confidential shall be submitted on separate sheets each clearly marked at the top, "Business Confidential." When submitted at hearings, such business information shall be offered as a confidential exhibit with a brief description of the nature of the information.

(c) Acceptance of information in confidence. The Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance may refuse to accept in confidence any information which he determines is not entitled to confidential treatment under this section. In the event of such refusal, the person submitting such information shall be notified and shall be permitted to withdraw such information.

§ 90.34 Notice procedures.

Formal notice of a certification, negative determination, or termination shall be transmitted promptly to the group of workers concerned and to all State Employment Security Agencies concerned whenever such notices are published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 90.35 Transitional provisions.

As more particularly provided in section 246 of the Act, a group of workers, their certified or recognized union, or other duly authorized representative who filed a petition under section 301(a)(2) of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962 before December 3, 1974, may file a new petition under section 221 of this Act if:

(a) The Commission has not rejected such previous petition before April 3, 1975; and

(b) No certification has been issued to the petitioning group under section 302(c) of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962 before April 3, 1975; and

(c) The new petition under section 221 of the Act is filed not later than July 2, 1975.

Title 36—Parks, Forests and Public Property

CHAPTER I—NATIONAL PARK SERVICE, DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

PART 7—SPECIAL REGULATIONS, AREAS OF THE NATIONAL PARK SERVICE

Rocky Mountain National Park, Colorado

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the authority contained in section 3 of the Act of August 25, 1916 (39 Stat. 535, as amended; 16 U.S.C. 3), and the Act of January 26, 1915 (38 Stat. 800, as amended; 16 U.S.C. 195), 245 DMI (34 FR 13879), as amended, National Park Service Order No. 77 (38 FR 7478), as amended, Regional Director, Rocky Mountain Region Order No. 1 (39 FR 12369) paragraphs (b), (c), (d), and (e) of § 7.7.

The purpose of this amendment is to reinstate paragraphs (b), (c), (d), and (e) to § 7.7 as they appeared in 36 CFR, § 7.7 as of July 1, 1973. These paragraphs were inadvertently omitted when § 7.7 was amended on August 3, 1973. Interested persons were given 30 days within which to submit written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to these amendments before they were presented as final rules on September 25, 1969 (34 FR 14762), therefore § 7.7 will read in its entirety as set forth below, and these regulations shall take effect on April 3, 1975.

§ 7.7 Rocky Mountain National Park.

(a) Fishing—(1) Possession Limit. Possession limit shall mean the numbers, sizes, or species of fish that may be in the possession of a person regardless if fresh or preserved. All fish a person does not elect to keep, or which do not meet the possession requirements, shall be carefully and immediately returned to the waters from which they were taken. The total possession limit shall be six (6) fish of any species.

(i) The possession limit for cutthroat trout is four (4) fish, which must be 10 inches or longer. This provision has park-wide application except as provided in paragraph (a)(3) of this section.

(ii) The possession limit for brook trout, rainbow trout and brown trout is six (6) fish, with no minimum length requirement. This provision has park-wide application except as provided in paragraph (a)(3) of this section.

(2) Method of capture. (i) each person fishing in Park water shall use only one hand-held rod or line.

(ii) Only artificial lures or flies with one (single, double, or treble) hook with a common shank may be used in Park waters.

(iii) When in possession of any fishing equipment, and while immediately adjacent to or on waters of the Park, no person shall possess any fish bait, such as, but not limited to worms, insects, minnows, fish eggs, other organic matter, or parts thereof.

(3) Special Management Area. The Colorado River above its intersection with the Park boundary (between sections 25 and 36, T4N, R76W), to the confluence of Timber Creek is designated as a special management area. Brown trout, rainbow trout, and cutthroat trout caught in this section of river must be fourteen (14) inches in length to be retained in possession.

(4) Closed Waters. Bear Lake is closed to fishing during the period April 1 to October 31.

(b) Trucking. The Superintendent may issue permits for trucking on park roads by ranchers, farmers, and business concerns located in the counties of Larimer, Boulder, and Grand, Colorado, when the loads carried originate and terminate within these counties. Fees will be charged for such trucking over Trail Ridge Road as provided in § 6.4(a) of this chapter.

(c) Boats. (1) The operation of motorboats is prohibited on all waters of the park.

(2) All vessels are prohibited on Bear Lake.

(d) Mountain climbing. Registration with a park ranger is required prior to all technical mountain climbing. Upon completion of climbing, the registrant is required to check out in the manner specified by the registering official. The term "technical climbing" means climbing where technical aids such as pitons, carabiners, ropes, expansion bolts, crampons, ice axes, or other mechanical equipment is used to make the climb.

(e) Winter back country trips. Registration with a park ranger is required prior to winter overnight travel on foot or by use of skis, snowshoes, or other mechanical means. Upon completion of the trip, the registrant is required to check out in the manner specified by the registering official. Calendar dates when registration is required will be determined and posted by the Superintendent.

DAVID J. ESSEX,
Acting Superintendent,
Rocky Mountain National Park.

Title 41—Public Contracts and Property Management

CHAPTER 1—FEDERAL PROCUREMENT REGULATIONS

[FPR Amdt. 142]

CONTRACT COST PRINCIPLES AND RELATED MATTERS

This amendment of the Federal Procurement Regulations deletes the specific labor policies pertaining to location allowances at unfavorable sites in § 1-12.105 as no longer necessary or practicable and updates several of the contract cost principles and procedures in Part 1-15. Contract clauses for Allowable cost, fee, and payments in § 1-7.202-4 and for Progress payments (Total costs) in § 1-30.510-1 are revised in accordance with the cost principles changes in this amendment.

PART 1-7—CONTRACT CLAUSES

Subpart 1-7.2—Cost-Reimbursement Type Supply Contracts

Section 1-7.202-4 is amended to substitute the following for paragraph (b) in the clause entitled "Allowable Cost, Fixed-Fee, and Payment."

§ 1-7.202-4 Allowable cost, fee, and payment.

* * * * *

ALLOWABLE COST, FIXED-FEE, AND PAYMENT

* * * * *

(b) Payments shall be made to the Contractor when requested as work progresses, but not more frequently than bi-weekly, in amounts approved by the Contracting Officer. The Contractor may submit to an authorized representative of the Contracting Officer, in such form and reasonable detail as such representative may require, an invoice or public voucher supported by a statement of cost for the performance of this contract and claimed to constitute allowable cost. For this purpose, except as provided herein with respect to pension contributions, the term "costs" shall include only those recorded costs which result, at the time of the request for reimbursement, from payment by cash, check, or other form of actual payment for items or services purchased directly for the contract, together with (when the Contractor is not delinquent in payment of costs of contract performance in the ordinary course of business) costs incurred, but not necessarily paid, for materials which have been issued from the Contractor's stores inventory and placed in the production process for use on the contract, for direct labor, for direct travel, for other direct inhouse costs, and for properly allocable and allowable indirect costs, as is shown by records maintained by the Contractor for purposes of obtaining reimbursement under Government contracts plus the amount of progress payments which have been paid to the Contractor's subcontractors under similar cost standards. In addition, when pension contributions are paid by the Contractor to the retirement fund less frequently than quarterly, accrued costs therefor shall be excluded from indirect costs for payment purposes until such costs are paid. If pension contributions are paid on a quarterly or more frequent basis, accruals therefor may be included in direct costs for payment purposes provided that they are paid to the fund within 30 days after the close of the period covered. If payments are not made to the fund within such 30-day period, pension contribution costs shall be excluded from indirect cost for payment purposes until payment has been made. The restriction on payment more frequently than bi-weekly and the requirement of prior payment for items or services purchased directly for the contract shall not apply when the Contractor is a small business concern.

PART 1-12—LABOR

The table of contents for Part 1-12 is changed to delete entries for §§ 1-12.104, 1-12.105, 1-12.105-1, 1-12.105-2, and 1-2.105-3.

Subpart 1-12.1—Basic Labor Policies

§ 1-12.104, 1-12.105, 1-12.105-1, 1-12.105-2, 1-12.105-3 [Removed]

Sections 1-12.104, 1-12.105, 1-12.105-1, 1-12.105-2, and 1-12.105-3 are deleted.

PART 1-15—CONTRACT COST PRINCIPLES AND PROCEDURES

The table of contents for Part 1-15 is changed to add revised and new entries, as follows:

Subpart 1-15.2—Contracts with Commercial Organizations

Subpart 1-15.3—Grants and Contracts with Educational Institutions

Subpart 1-15.7—Grants and Contracts with State and Local Governments

Sec.
1-15.709-3 Instructions for preparation of cost allocation plans.
1-15.709-4 Negotiation and approval of indirect cost proposals for States.
1-15.709-5 Negotiation and approval of indirect cost proposals for local governments.

Subpart 1-15.8—Training and Other Services—Educational Institutions

Subpart 1-15.1—Applicability

Section 1-15.107 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1-15.107 Advance understandings on particular cost items.

(a) The extent of allowability of the selected items of cost covered in this part has been stated to apply broadly to many accounting systems in varying contract situations. Thus, as to any given contract, the reasonableness and allocability of certain items of cost may be difficult to determine, particularly in connection with firms or separate divisions thereof which may not be subject to effective competitive restraints. In order to avoid possible subsequent disallowance or dispute based on unreasonableness or nonallocability, it is desirable that contractors seek advance agreement with the Government as to the treatment to be accorded those special or unusual costs. Such agreements may also be initiated by the Government. Advance agreements may be negotiated either before or during a contract but should be negotiated before incurrence of the cost covered by the agreement. Any such agreement must be in writing, shall be executed by both contracting parties, and should be incorporated in the applicable cost-reimbursement type contracts and/or made a part of the applicable negotiated fixed-price type contract file.

(b) The contracting officer is not authorized by this paragraph to agree to a treatment of costs inconsistent with this part. For example, an advance agreement may not provide that, notwithstanding § 1-15.205-17, interest shall be allowable.

(c) An advance agreement entered into in accordance with this section shall contain a suitable statement of its intended applicability and duration. The absence of an advance agreement on any element of cost will not, in itself, affect the reasonableness or allocability of that element.

(d) Advance agreements may be negotiated to affect only a single contract, a group of contracts, or may be broad enough to affect all the contracts of a procuring activity, an agency, or several agencies with a particular contractor. An advance agreement which affects only one contract, or class of contracts from a single procurement office, shall be negotiated by a procurement office contracting officer, his authorized representative, or another contracting officer when delegated this authority by the procurement office contracting officer (for example, to a contracting officer in the procurement office familiar with the particular contractor's costing system, or the agency cognizant contracting officer for that contractor, or the DOD cognizant contracting officer for Cost Accounting Standards Board matters). When the negotiation authority is delegated, the proposed agreement shall be coordinated with the procurement office contracting officer prior to execution.

(e) (1) Advance agreements other than those negotiated in accordance with (d), above, shall be negotiated by an agency cognizant contracting officer for a contractor or subcontractor. The agency cognizant contracting officer for a civilian executive agency shall be the contracting officer designated for a contractor or subcontractor by that agency. Each agency will maintain a current list of cognizant contracting officer designations. The results of the negotiation will be binding upon the agency which assigned the cognizant contracting officer.

(2) In the event the selected items of cost under consideration for advance understanding have broad application to the procurement activities of more than one executive agency, the negotiation responsibility can be assigned by majority vote among the agencies concerned to (i) a cognizant contracting officer from one of the voting agencies, or (ii) the designated (if any) cognizant contracting officer for Cost Accounting Standards Board matters (see § 1-3.1208) with the consent of that contracting officer's agency. Factors considered in selecting an interagency cognizant contracting officer should include distribution by agency of unliquidated dollar balance of contracts being administered, existence of a designated cognizant contracting officer for CASB matters, location of contract audit support and any other particular factors which may be relevant to the particular case. A list of such designations will be published from time to time in DOD Defense Procurement Circulars and in FPR Bulletins. The results of the negotiation will be binding upon all agencies participating in the vote selection of a cognizant contracting officer with interagency negotiation responsibility.

(f) Prior to undertaking negotiation of an advance agreement, the procurement or cognizant contracting officer shall (i) determine whether there are other procurement offices within his agency, or in other agencies, that have a significant unliquidated dollar balance in contracts with the same contractor, (ii) inform any such activity or agency of the cost item(s) or other matters under consideration for negotiation, and (iii) as appropriate, invite such activity or agency and the cognizant audit activity to participate in pre-negotiation discussions and/or in the subsequent negotiations. At the completion of the negotiation, the cognizant contracting officer who has the negotiation responsibility shall prepare and distribute to other interested agencies and activities (including the cognizant audit activity) copies of the fully executed agreement together with a memorandum setting forth the principal elements of the negotiation and containing, as a minimum, the information specified in § 1-3.811, to the extent applicable.

(g) Examples of cost on which advance agreements may be particularly important are:

(1) Compensation for personal services, including but not limited to allowances for off-site pay, incentive pay, location allowances, hardship pay, and cost of living differential;

(2) Use charges for fully depreciated assets;

(3) Deferred maintenance costs;

(4) Precontract costs;

(5) Independent research and development costs;

(6) Royalties and other costs for use of patents;

(7) Selling and distribution costs;

(8) Relocation costs, as related to special or mass personnel movements;

(9) Idle facilities and idle capacity;

(10) Automatic data processing equipment;

(11) Bid and proposal costs;

(12) Severance pay to employees on support service contracts;

(13) Plant reconversion;

(14) Professional services (legal, accounting, engineering, etc.); and

(15) General and administrative costs (including corporate, division, or branch allocations) and similar expenses, attributable to the general management, supervision, and conduct of the contractor's business as a whole. These costs are of particular significance in construction, job-site, architect-engineer, facilities, and Government-owned contractor operated (GOCO) plant contracts (see §§ 1-15.203(f), 1-15.403-7, and 1-15.502-4).

Subpart 1-15.2—Principles and Procedures for Use in Cost-Reimbursement Type Supply and Research Contracts With Commercial Organizations

Subpart 1-15.2 is amended to prescribe a new caption for the subpart which reads as follows:

Subpart 1-15.2—Contracts With Commercial Organizations

1. Section 1-15.201-5 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1-15.201-5 Credits.

The applicable portion of any income, rebate, allowance, and other credit relating to any allowable cost, received by or accruing to the contractor, shall be credited to the Government either as a cost reduction or by cash refund, as appropriate. However, payment of interest on contractors' claims pursuant to § 1-1.322 is exempt from the requirements of this section.

2. Section 1-15.204(b) is revised to read as follows:

§ 1-15.204 Application of principles and procedures.

• • • • •

(b) Costs incurred as reimbursements or payments to a subcontractor under a cost-reimbursement, fixed-price incentive, or price redeterminable type subcontract of any tier above the first firm fixed-price or fixed-price escalation subcontract are allowable to the extent that allowance is consistent with the subpart of this Part 1-15 which is appropriate to the subcontract involved. Thus, if the subcontract is for supplies, such costs are allowable to the extent that the subcontractor's costs would be allowable if this Subpart 1-15.2 were incorporated in the subcontract; if the subcontract is for construction, such costs are allowable to the extent that the subcontractor's costs would be allowable if Subpart 1-15.4 of this Part 1-15 were incorporated in the subcontract. Similarly, costs incurred as payments under firm fixed-price or fixed-price escalation subcontracts or modifications thereto, when cost analysis was performed pursuant to § 1-3.807-10(b), shall be allowable only to the extent that the price was negotiated in accordance with the principles in § 1-15.106.

• • • • •

3. In § 1-15.205-6, (a)(1), (f)(2), and (j) are revised to read as follows:

§ 1-15.205-6 Compensation for personal services.

(a) General. (1) Compensation for personal services includes all remuneration paid currently or accrued, in whatever form and whether paid immediately or deferred, for services rendered by employees to the contractor during the period of contract performance (except as otherwise provided in § 1-15.205-6(f)). It includes, but is not limited to, salaries, wages, directors' and executive committee members' fees, bonuses (including stock bonuses), incentive awards, employee stock options, employee insurance, fringe benefits, contributions to pension, annuity, and management employee incentive compensation plans, allowances for off-site pay, incentive pay, location allowances, hardship pay and cost of living differential. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this § 1-15.205-6, such costs are allowable to the extent that the total compensation of individual employees is reasonable for the services rendered and they are not in excess of those costs which are allowable by the Internal Revenue Code and regulations thereunder.

• • • • • •

(f) Deferred compensation • • •

(2) Deferred compensation is allowable only to the extent that:

(i) It is, together with all other compensation paid to the employee, reasonable in amount; and

(ii) It is paid (A) pursuant to an agreement entered into in good faith between the contractor and employees before the services are rendered, or (B) pursuant to a plan established and consistently applied thereafter by the contractor, and meets the requirements of either (1.) or (2.) of this § 1-15.205-6(f)(2):

(1.) It is deductible for the same fiscal year for Federal income tax purposes under section 404 (excluding subsection (a)(5)) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, and the regulations of the Internal Revenue Service; Provided, That:

(i) Normal costs of pension plans incurred subsequent to the effective date of this paragraph, not funded in the year incurred, shall not be allowable in subsequent years (except that a payment made to a fund by the time set for filing of the Federal income tax return for any taxable year shall be deemed to have been made during such taxable year);

(ii) Allowable costs of contributions for past service or supplementary pension or annuity credits (including contributions for the equivalent of interest that would have been earned on previously unfunded costs, sometimes called "freezing payments") shall not exceed, for any year, amounts required to systematically amortize the actuarial liability annually over not less than ten or more than forty years beginning with the year that the liability was first assumed, either by an nouncement, agreement, regular practice, or other means which would reasonably inform employees that continuing service would result in retirement benefits based in part on the previously unfunded past service;

(iii) Pension costs of previous years which have not been funded as of the effective date of this paragraph are allowable to the extent they are systematically funded over not less than 10 years, provided the contractor can demonstrate that pension costs are allocated to Government contracts on a funding rather than an accrual basis in the accounting periods previous to the effective date of this paragraph and also provided that the systematic funding starts no later than the contractor's first full fiscal year after the effective date of this paragraph;

(iv) The determination of allowable costs shall take into consideration unrealized, as well as realized appreciation in the market value of the fund assets, established on a rational and systematic basis. This recognition shall include unrealized appreciation on equity securities taking into account both the investment policy and prior growth experience of the fund. The appreciation to be recognized for equity securities generally shall be the amount by which 80 percent of the market value exceeds the total adjusted book value. The adjusted book value is defined as the acquisition cost adjusted for appreciation or depreciation previously recognized whether or not actually recorded in the asset account. Unrealized depreciation of equity securities may be recognized to the extent of unrealized appreciation previously recognized, but the total of value of all equity securities in a fund shall not be depreciated below the acquisition cost. Initial recognition of accumulated unrealized appreciation may be spread over a period of time not to exceed 10 years. Ordinarily, appreciation and depreciation need not be recognized for debt securities expected to be held to maturity and redeemed at face value;

(v) Abnormal forfeitures, due to significant reduction in the contractor's level of employment, that are foreseeable and which can be currently evaluated with reasonable accuracy, by actuarial or other sound computation, shall be reflected by an adjustment of costs otherwise allowable. Where abnormal forfeitures were not taken into account previously, appropriate credit shall be given to the Government pursuant to § 1-15.201-5;

(vi) Any amount paid or funded and deductible in any year under Section 404 (excluding Section 404(a)(5)) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, prior to the time it becomes allowable under this paragraph (1.) shall be applied to future years, in order of time, as if actually paid and deductible in such years;

(vii) Increased normal and past service cost caused by delay in funding the actuarial liability beyond 30 days after each quarter of the year to which such costs are assignable, are unallowable. Determination of unallowable costs shall be made in accordance with the actuarial method used in calculating the normal and past service costs; or

(2.) It is deductible in the same fiscal year for Federal income tax purposes under Section 404(a)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, and the regulations of the Internal Revenue Service, except that the costs of unfunded pension and retirement benefits paid directly to, or on behalf of, former employees shall be allowable only to the extent the contractor demonstrates that such costs, together with any pension and retirement costs allowed pursuant to § 1-15.20-6(f)(2)(ii)(1.) do not exceed the amount that would be allowable under § 1-15.205-6(f)(2)(ii)(1.) if the contractor were providing for equivalent benefits on an actuarial basis in the current period.

• • • • •

(j) Unallowable costs. Costs which are unallowable under other paragraphs of this Subpart 1-15.2 shall not be allowable under this § 1-15.205-6 solely on the basis that they constitute personal compensation.

4. In § 1-15.205-16, paragraph (a)(2)(iv) is revised to read as follows:

§ 1-15.205-16 Insurance and indemnification.

(2) • • •

(iv) Provisions for a reserve under an approved self-insurance program are allowable to the extent that the types of coverage, extent of coverage, and the rates and premiums would have been allowed had insurance been purchased to cover the risks, except that provisions for known or reasonably estimated self-insured liabilities, such as liabilities for workmen's compensation, which do not become payable for more than one year after such provision is made, shall not exceed the present value of the liability, determined by using a rate of 6 percent compounded annually; and

• • • • • •

5. In § 1-15.205-22, paragraph (e)(2) is revised and (e)(3) added as follows:

§ 1-15.205-22 Material costs.

• • • • • •

(e) • • •

(2) It is the result of adequate price competition in accordance with § 1-3.807-1(b)(1)(i) and (ii)(A) and (B), and is the price at which an award was made to the affiliated organization after obtaining quotations on an equal basis from such organization and one or more outside sources which normally produce the item or its equivalent in significant quantity; and

(3) Provided, That in either (1) or (2):

(i) The price is not in excess of the transferor's current sales price to his most favored customer (including any division, subsidiary, or affiliate of the contractor under a common control) for a like quantity under comparable conditions; and

(ii) The price is not determined to be unreasonable by the contracting officer.

The price determined in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (e) should be adjusted, when appropriate, to reflect the quantities being procured and may be adjusted upward or downward to reflect the actual cost of any modifications necessary because of contract requirements.

6. Paragraph (b) of § 1-15.205-26 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1-15.205-26 Patent costs.

• • • • • •

(b) Costs of preparing disclosures, reports and other documents and of searching the art to the extent necessary to make invention disclosures, if not required by the contract, are unallowable. Costs in connection with (1) filing and prosecuting any foreign patent application, or (2) any United States patent application with respect to which the contract does not require conveying title or a royalty free license to the Government, are unallowable. (Also see § 1-15.205-36.)

7. Paragraph (d) of § 1-15.205-33 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1-15.205-33 Recruitment costs.

• • • • • •

(d) Relocation costs incurred incident to recruitment of new employees are subject to § 1-15.205-25. When such costs have been allowed either as an allocable direct or indirect cost and the newly hired employee resigns for reasons within his control within 12 months after hire, the contractor shall be required to refund or credit such relocation costs to the Government. However, costs of travel to an overseas location shall be considered travel costs in accordance with § 1-15.205-46 and not relocation costs for the purpose of this subparagraph, if (1) dependents are not permitted at that location for any reason, and (2) such costs do not include costs of transporting household goods.

8. In § 1-15.205-40, paragraphs (a)(1), (2), and (3), and (b) are revised to read as follows:

§ 1-15.205-40 Special tooling and special test equipment costs.

(a) • • •

(1) Material;

(2) Special test equipment; or

(3) Buildings, and nonseverable structures (except foundations and similar improvements necessary for the installation of special tooling), general or special machine tools, or similar capital items.

V 40 165 APR 3 75 XUM

(b) The term "special test equipment" means either single or multipurpose integrated test units engineered, designed, fabricated, or modified to accomplish special purpose testing in the performance of the contract. Such testing units comprise electrical, electronic, hydraulic, pneumatic, mechanical, or other items or assemblies of equipment, that are mechanically, electrically, or electronically interconnected so as to become a new functional entity, causing the individual item or items to become interdependent and essential in the performance of special purpose testing in the development or production of particular supplies or services. The term "special test equipment" does not include:

(1) Material;

(2) Special tooling;

(3) Buildings and nonseverable structures (except foundations and similar improvement necessary for the installation of special test equipment; and

(4) Plant equipment items used for general plant testing purposes.

* * * * *

9. In § 1-15.205-44, (b) is amended, (c), (d), and (e) are revised, and (f) and (g) are added as follows:

§ 1-15.205-44 Training and educational costs.

* * * * *

(b) Costs of part-time education, at an undergraduate or postgraduate college level, including that provided at the contractor's own facilities, are allowable only when the course or degree pursued is relative to the field in which a bona fide employee is now working or may reasonably be expected to work, and are limited to:

* * * * *

(5) Salaries and related costs of instructors who are employees of the contractor; and

(6) Straight-time compensation of each employee for time spent attending classes during working hours not in excess of 156 hours per year and only to the extent that circumstances do not permit the operation of classes or attendance at classes after regular working hours; otherwise such compensation is unallowable.

(c) Costs of tuition, fees, training materials and textbooks (but not subsistence, salary, or any other emoluments) in connection with full-time education, including that provided at the contractor's own facilities, at a postgraduate (but not undergraduate) college level, are allowable only when the course or degree pursued is related to the field in which a bona fide employee is now working or may reasonably be expected to work, and are limited to a total period not to exceed one school year for each employee so trained. In unusual cases the period may be extended.

(d) Costs of attendance of up to 16 weeks per employee per year at specialized programs specifically designed to enhance the effectiveness of executives or managers or to prepare bona fide employees for such positions are allowable. Such costs include enrollment fees, training materials, textbooks and related charges, employees' salaries, subsistence, and travel. Costs allowable under this subparagraph do not include those for courses that are part of a degree-oriented curriculum, which are allowable only to the extent set forth in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this § 1-15.205-44.

(e) Maintenance expense, and normal depreciation or fair rental, on facilities owned or leased by the contractor for training purposes are allowable to the extent set forth in §§ 1-15.205-20, 1-15.205-9, and 1-15.205-34, respectively.

(f) Grants to educational or training institutions, including the donation of facilities or other properties, scholarships, or fellowships, are considered contributions and are unallowable.

(g) Training and education costs in excess of those otherwise allowable under paragraphs (b) and (c) of this § 1-15.205-44 may be allowed to the extent set forth in an advance agreement negotiated pursuant to § 1-15.107 (the limitation of § 1-15.107(b) notwithstanding). To be considered for an advance agreement, the contractor must demonstrate that such costs are consistently incurred pursuant to an established training and education program, and that the course or degree pursued is relative to the field in which a bona fide employee is now working or may reasonably be expected to work.

10. Paragraph (b)(2) (i) and (ii) of § 1-15.205-50 are revised to read as follows:

§ 1-15.205-50 Automatic data processing equipment (ADPE) leasing costs.

(b) (1) * * *

(2) Furthermore, the costs of leasing ADPE are allowable only to the extent that the contractor can annually demonstrate in accordance with paragraph (d) of this § 1-15.205-50 that such costs meet the criteria set forth in (i) through (iii) of this § 1-15.205-50(b)(2). The aforementioned requirement for an annual demonstration is applicable irrespective of whether the term of the lease was renewed or otherwise extended by the contractor.

(i) The costs are reasonable and necessary for the conduct of the contractor's business in light of such factors as the contractor's requirements for ADPE, costs of comparable facilities, the various types of leases available, and the provisions of the rental agreement;

(ii) The costs do not give rise to a material equity in the facilities (such as an option to renew or purchase at a bargain rental or price) other than that normally given to industry at large but represent charges only for the current use of the equipment, including (but not limited to) any incidental service costs such as maintenance, insurance, and applicable taxes; and

Subpart 1-15.3—Principles for Determining Costs Applicable to Research and Development Under Grants and Contracts With Educational Institutions

Subpart 1-15.3 is amended to prescribe a new caption for the subpart which reads as follows:

Subpart 1-15.3—Grants and Contracts With Educational Institutions

Subpart 1-15.7—Principles for Determining Costs Applicable to Grants and Contracts With State and Local Governments

Subpart 1-15.7 is amended to prescribe a new caption for the subpart which reads as follows:

Subpart 1-15.7—Grants and Contracts With State and Local Governments

1. Section 1-15.702 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1-15.702 Definitions.

As used in this subpart, words and phrases shall have the meanings set forth in the subsections of this section; provided however with respect to contracts subject to the regulations and standards of the Cost Accounting Standards Board (CASB) (see Subpart 1-3.12), definitions established by the CASB apply (see § 1-15.109).

2. Section 1-15.709-3 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1-15.709-3 Instructions for preparation of cost allocation plans.

The Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, in consultation with the other Federal agencies concerned, will be responsible for developing and issuing the instructions for use by State and local government grantees in preparation of cost allocation plans. This responsibility applies to both central support services at the State and local government level as well as indirect cost proposals of individual grantee departments.

3. Sections 1-15.709-4, 1-15.709-5, and 1-15.709-6 are added as follows:

§ 1-15.709-4 Negotiation and approval of indirect cost proposals for States.

(a) The Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, in collaboration with the other Federal agencies concerned, will be responsible for negotiation, approval and audit of cost allocation plans, which will be submitted to it by the States. These plans will cover central support service costs of the State.

(b) At the grantee department level in a State, a single Federal agency will have responsibility similar to that set forth in paragraph (a) of this § 1-15.709-4 for the negotiations, approval, and audit of the indirect cost proposal. Cognizant Federal agencies have been designated for this purpose. Changes which may be required from time to time in agency assignments will be arranged by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in collaboration with the other interested agencies and submitted to the General Services Administration for final approval. A current list of agency assignments will be maintained by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

(c) Questions concerning the cost allocation plans approved under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this § 1-15.709-4 should be directed to the agency responsible for such approvals.

§ 1-15.709-5 Negotiation and approval of indirect cost proposals for local governments.

(a) Cost allocation plans will be retained at the local government level for audit by a designated Federal agency except in those cases where that agency requests that cost allocation plans be submitted to it for negotiation and approval.

(b) A list of cognizant Federal agencies assigned responsibility for negotiation, approval, and audit of central support service cost allocation plans at the local government level is being developed. Changes which may be required from time to time in agency assignments will be arranged by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in collaboration with the other interested agencies, and submitted to the General Services Administration for final approval. A current list of agency assignments will be maintained by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

(c) At the grantee department level of local governments, the Federal agency with the predominant interest in the work of the grantee department will be responsible for necessary negotiation, approval, and obtaining an audit of the indirect cost proposal.

§ 1-15.709-6 Resolution of problems.

To the extent that problems are encountered among the Federal agencies in connection with §§ 1-15.709-4 and 1-15.709-5, the General Services Administration (Code: AMP) will lend assistance as required.

Subpart 1-15.8—Principles for Determining Costs Applicable to Training and Other Educational Services Under Grants and Contracts With Educational Institutions

Subpart 1-15.8 is amended to prescribe a new caption for the subpart which reads as follows:

Subpart 1-15.8—Training and Other Services—Educational Institutions

PART 1-30—CONTRACT FINANCING

Subpart 1-30.5—Progress Payments Based on Costs

1. Section 1-30.510-1(a) is amended to substitute the following for paragraph (a)(1) in the clause entitled "Progress Payments (Total Costs)":

§ 1-30.510-1 Total costs clause.

* * * * *

PROGRESS PAYMENTS

(TOTAL COSTS)

* * * * *

(a) Computation of amounts. (1) Unless a smaller amount is requested, each progress payment shall be (i) 70 percent of the amount of the Contractor's total costs incurred under this contract, except as provided herein with respect to costs of pension contributons, plus (ii) the amount of progress payments to subcontractors as provided in (j) below; all less the sum of previous progress payments. With respect to costs of pension contributions, when pension contributions are paid by the Contractor to the retirement fund less frequently than quarterly, accruals of the costs of these pension contributions shall be excluded from Contractor's total costs for progress payment purposes until such costs are paid. If pension contributions are paid on a quarterly or more frequent basis, accruals of the costs of these pension contributions may be included in Contractor's total costs for progress payment purposes provided that the pension contributions are paid to the retirement fund within 30 days after the close of the period covered by the payment. If payments are not made to the fund within such 30-day period, pension contributions costs shall be excluded from Contractor's total costs for progress payment purposes until payment therefor has been made.

(2) * * *

* * * * *

2. Section 1-30.510-1(b) is amended to substitute the following for paragraph (a)(1) in the clause entitled "Progress Payments—Short Form "Total Costs" Clause:

* * * * *

§ 1-30.510-1 Total costs clause.

* * * * *

(b) * * *

PROGRESS PAYMENTS—SHORT FORM "TOTAL COSTS" CLAUSE

* * * * *

(a) Computation of amounts.

(1) Unless a smaller amount is requested, each progress payment shall be 70 percent of the Contractor's cumulative total costs under this contract, except as provided herein with respect to costs of pension contributions, less the sum of any previous progress payments. With respect to costs of pension contributions, when pension contributions are paid by the Contractor to the retirement fund less frequently than quarterly, accruals of the costs of these pension contributions shall be excluded from Contractor's total costs for progress payment purposes until such costs are paid. If pension contributions are paid on a quarterly or more frequent basis, accruals of the costs of these pension contributions may be included in Contractor's total costs for progress payment purposes provided that the pension contributions are paid to the retirement fund within 30 days after the close of the period covered by the payment. If payments are not made to the fund within such 30-day period, pension contribution costs shall be excluded from Contractor's total costs for progress payment purposes until payment therefor has been made.

* * * * *

3. Section 1-30.524-4 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1-30.524-4 Delinquency in payment of costs of performance.

The contractor's delinquency in payment of costs of contract performance in the ordinary course of business (see paragraph (c)(iv) of the clause prescribed in § 1-30.510-1(a) and paragraph (c)(v) of the clause prescribed in § 1-30.510-2(a)) may be an indication of unsatisfactory financial condition or other circumstances endangering contract performance and involving probability of loss to the Government. If such delinquency is not connected with poor financial condition that is so unsatisfactory as to endanger contract performance or to involve reasonably foreseeable loss to the Government, further progress payments and other payments should not necessarily be denied to protect the unliquidated progress payments and minimize risks of additional losses, and payments may be continued at the contract rate, or in reduced amounts in connection with appropriate arrangements to (a) cure the contractor's delinquencies in payment of his costs of contract performance, (b) avoid further delinquencies, and (c) reasonably assure completion of the contract without loss to the Government. (See also § 1-30.524-3.) The standards set forth in paragraph (a)(1) of the clauses set forth in § 1-30.510-1 (a) and (b) for the exclusion of pension contribution costs from progress payment computations will govern a determination of delinquency in the ordinary course of business with respect to these pension contribution costs, without regard to other provisions in § 1-30.524. Amounts claimed by subcontractors, suppliers, and others, but disputed in good faith by the contractor, should not be considered delinquent until determined due by a court (or by arbitration if applicable). However, any such disputed amounts shall be excluded from costs of performance so long as they are disputed.

(Sec. 205(c), 63 Stat. 390; 40 U.S.C. 486(c))

Effective date. This amendment is effective May 26, 1975, but may be observed earlier.

Dated: March 26, 1975.

ARTHUR F. SAMPSON,
Administrator of General Services.

Title 45—Public Welfare

CHAPTER I—OFFICE OF EDUCATION, DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

PART 154—EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY CENTERS

Criteria for the Funding of Applications

On page 41538 of the FEDERAL REGISTER of November 29, 1974, there was published a notice of proposed rule making to amend the funding criteria set forth in § 154.6 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Interested persons were given 30 days in which to submit written comments, suggestions, or objections regarding the proposed amendment.

No comments, suggestions, or objections have been received; therefore, the amendment to § 154.6 is hereby adopted without change and is set forth below.

Effective Date. The Notice of Proposed Rule Making was transmitted to Congress on November 25, 1974, pursuant to section 431(d) of the General Education Provisions Act. (20 U.S.C. 1232(d)) The time period set forth therein for congressional action has expired without such action having been taken. Therefore these criteria shall become effective April 3, 1975.

(Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance Program No. 13.540 Educational Opportunity Centers)

Dated: March 3, 1975.

T. H. BELL,
U.S. Commissioner of Education.

Approved: March 31, 1975.

CASPAR W. WEINBERGER,
Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

Section 154.6 is revised to read as follows:

§ 154.6 Selection criteria.

The Commissioner will select applicants to be funded under the Educational Opportunity Center Program on the basis of the criteria set forth in 45 CFR 100a.26(b), as well as the following criteria:

(a) New awards. A request for funds for the initiation of a new project will be evaluated on the following criteria: (1) need for services to enhance the accessibility to postsecondary education opportunities as indicated by:

(i) Low historical rates of participation in postsecondary education in the area to be served;

(ii) The total number of students and other persons in the service area;

(iii) The number of low income families in the area to be served;

(iv) The proportion of the number of persons residing in the service area who would be effectively served by the Center;

(2) Appropriateness of the applicant's proposed means of carrying out activities under § 154.7 in terms of meeting needs of persons in the service area;

(3) The proposed staff of the Center and the extent to which the staff has experience in dealing with low-income and physically handicapped students;

(4) The extent to which community representatives have participated in the formulation of the proposal and will participate in the operation of the Center;

(5) The extent to which the secondary schools and institutions of higher education in the area to be served by the Center will be involved in the operation of the Center;

(6) The appropriateness of the Center's relationship to the Talent Search, Upward Bound, and Special Services for Disadvantaged Students projects being carried out in the area and to such other similar programs and services, including those for the physically handicapped, in terms of: (a) avoiding duplication of services; (b) providing authorized services not otherwise available; and (c) coordination of services to individuals who participate in more than one such program;

(7) The ability of the Center to serve as a clearinghouse and as a resource for institutions of higher education in the area which admit educationally disadvantaged persons; and

(8) The cost of operating the Center.

(b) The Commissioner will award grants and contracts to insure that major concentrations of low-income persons in both urban and rural areas will be represented among areas to be served by Centers.

(20 U.S.C. 1070d–1)

(c) Renewal awards. An application for a project which received funding in FY 1974 will be given priority over an application for the initiation of a new project. Requests for renewal applications will be subject to the evaluation criteria in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, as well as the following additional criteria: (1) satisfactory progress, as indicated by site visits, progress reports and other relevant data, has been made in implementing the approved work program; (2) the project, in conformity with the funding criteria against which the original proposal was evaluated, is achieving the approved goals and objectives; and (3) the project has been successful, and continues to offer promise of success, in increasing the postsecondary enrollment of students from the target area and improving the retention rate of students from the target area in postsecondary educational institutions.

Before any proposal for the renewal of a project is evaluated, all required reports must be received and accepted by the Office of Education.

(d) Continuation awards. A request for funds for the continuation of a project begun in a prior fiscal year containing an approved multi-year work plan will be given priority over an application for the initiation of a new project. Requests for continuation will be approved only if (1) satisfactory progress, as indicated by site visits, progress reports and other relevant data, has been made in implementing the approved work program; (2) the project, in conformity with the funding criteria against which the original proposal was evaluated, is achieving the approved goals and objectives; and (3) the project has been successful, and continues to offer promise of success, in increasing the postsecondary enrollment of students from the target area and improving the retention rate of students from the target area in postsecondary educational institutions.

Before any proposal for the continuation of a project is evaluated, all required reports must be received and accepted by the Office of Education. It is anticipated that awards made pursuant to this notice will be primarily grants. However, applications from profit-making organizations, named as the principal agent for members of a combination of institutions and/or agencies, will be considered as unsolicited proposals and will be evaluated in accoradnce with the criteria set forth in this proposed rulemaking. Successful applications from profit-making organizations will be funded under contracts.

PART 155—UPWARD BOUND

Criteria for the Funding of Applications

On pages 41537 and 41538 of the FEDERAL REGISTER of November 29, 1974, there was published a notice of proposed rule making to amend the funding criteria set forth in § 155.7 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Interested persons were given 30 days in which to submit written comments, suggestions, or objections regarding the proposed amendment.

No comments, suggestions, or objections have been received; therefore, the amendment to § 155.7 is hereby adopted without change and is set forth below.

Effective Date. The Notice of Proposed Rule Making was transmitted to Congress on November 25, 1974, pursuant to section 431(d) of the General Education Provisions Act. (20 U.S.C. 1232(d)) The time period set forth therein for congressional action has expired without such action having been taken. Therefore these criteria shall become effective April 3, 1975.

(Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance Program No. 13.492 Upward Bound)

Dated: March 3, 1975.

T. H. BELL,
U.S. Commissioner of Education.

Approved: March 31, 1975.

CASPAR W. WEINBERGER,
Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

Section 155.7 is revised to read as follows:

§ 155.7 Criteria for evaluating proposals.

The Commissioner will select applicants to be funded under the Upward Bound Program on the basis of the criteria set forth in 45 CFR 100a.26(b), as well as the following criteria:

(a) New awards. A request for funds for the initiation of a new project will be evaluated on the following criteria:

(1) Knowledge of the specific needs of an identifiable student population to be served in terms of income, educational achievement, educational and related problems, and conditions and/or attitudes which are barriers to educational advancement;

(2) Comprehensiveness of recruiting sources and methods;

(3) Experience in serving low-income students, including cooperation with other agencies providing services to the target community;

(4) Evidence of the commitment of the applicant to see that all of its Upward Bound students are provided with opportunities to attend postsecondary institutions, by assisting students in receiving special review from the admissions and financial aid personnel of the host institution, and by assisting students in learning about and applying for admission to other postsecondary institutions;

(5) A work program which is designed to develop critical thinking, effective expression, and positive attitudes toward learning and which: (i) is realistic and practicable; (ii) diagnoses individual student needs and abilities, including academic deficiencies, at the time of entry into the project; (iii) contains an individualized curriculum design appropriate for each student's identified needs and involves a variety of methods and levels of instruction appropriate to individual needs; (iv) contains a mechanism for measuring the effectiveness of the project, and each student's progress, in remedying academic deficiencies; (v) provides for a timetable for implementation and development; (vi) contains supportive services directly related to the application of formal learning experiences, and designed to enhance the academic, personal and social effectiveness, and the cultural development of the student; (vii) contains a prognostic evaluation of individual student performance, including documentation of student growth and development, academic and personal; (viii) contains internal evaluation mechanisms to test program effectiveness; and (ix) includes a comprehensive counseling program;

(6) Clearly delineates the lines of authority and communication between the applicant institution and the project staff; and

(7) Outlines the composition and responsibilities of the Advisory Committees.

(b) Continuation awards. A request for funds for the continuation of a project begun in a prior fiscal year and containing an approved multi-year work plan will be given priority over an application for the initiation of a new project. Requests for continuation awards will be approved only if (1) satisfactory progress, as indicated by site visits, progress reports and other relevant data, has been made in implementing the approved work program; (2) the project, in conformity with the funding criteria against which the original proposal was evaluated, is achieving the approved goals and objectives; and (3) the project has been successful, and continues to offer promise of success, in providing access for underachieving students into postsecondary educational institutions.

Before any proposal for the continuation of a project is evaluated, all required reports, including fiscal audits, data collection forms, quarterly fiscal reports, and semi-annual and annual narrative reports must be received and accepted by the appropriate Office of Education staff.

(c) National Demonstration Awards. The Commissioner will select a limited number of applications to be funded as Upward Bound National Demonstration awards on the basis of the criteria specified in part (a) above and these additional criteria:

(1) The proposed project is national or inter-regional in scope, neither duplicates nor competes with existing regional or national programs, nor consolidates existing regional or inter-regional educational activities under the segis of a single agency or institution;

(2) The proposal presents a clearly new or experimental technique or design for the preparation of students with inadequate secondary school preparation for success in education beyond high school, and clearly demonstrates a degree of replicability, and provides for an evaluation of the results in such a form as to be readily utilized by other educational programs concerned with the preparation of disadvantaged students for postsecondary education;

(3) The proposed project would provide a service not readily available on a local or regional basis for that preparation; and

(4) The proposed project would be able to provide a variety of educational opportunities and options for postsecondary educational careers for the disadvantaged.

It is expected that approved activities as set forth in a work plan for projects funded under this paragraph will be accomplished within a maximum 3-year period. It is anticipated that awards made pursuant to this notice will be primarily grants. However, applications from profit-making organizations will be considered as unsolicited proposals and will be evaluated in accordance with the criteria set forth in this proposed rulemaking. Successful applications from profit-making organizations will be funded under contracts.

Title 49—Transportation

CHAPTER III—FEDERAL HIGHWAY ADMINISTRATION, DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

SUBCHAPTER A—GENERAL PROVISIONS

PART 310—BRIDGE TOLL PROCEDURAL RULES

Miscellaneous Amendments

The Federal Highway Administrator is amending the Bridge Toll Procedural Rules to include among the matters to be determined under those procedures the determination of reasonableness and justness of tolls of bridges constructed under the International Bridge Act of 1972, 33 U.S.C. 535 et seq., and determination of the reasonable amortization period during which tolls may be charged for the use of such bridges when owned by a private entity, as provided under section 6 of that Act, 33 U.S.C. 535(d).

Since these amendments relate to pleading and practice before the Federal Highway Administration and do not affect substantive rights or liabilities, notice and public procedure are unnecessary and they are effective on the date of issuance set forth below.

In consideration of the foregoing, the authority paragraph and §§ 310.1, 310.2, 310.3, and 310.4 of the Bridge Toll Procedural Rules (45 CFR Part 310) are revised to read as set forth below.

(Sec. 4 of the Bridge Act of 1906, as amended (33 U.S.C. 494), sec. 503 of the General Bridge Act of 1946, as amended (33 U.S.C. 526), sec. 2 and sec. 6 of the International Bridge Act of 1972 (33 U.S.C. 535 and 535(d)), sec. 6, Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655), and the delegation of authority by the Secretary of Transportation in 49 CFR 1.48).

Issued on March 25, 1975.

NORBERT T. TIEMANN,
Federal Highway Administrator.

1. The authority citation to part 310 is revised as follows:

AUTHORITY: Sec. 4 of the Bridge Act of 1906, as amended (33 U.S.C. 494), sec. 503 of the General Bridge Act of 1946, as amended (33 U.S.C. 526), sec. 2 and sec. 6 of the International Bridge Act of 1972 (33 U.S.C. 535 and 535(d)), sec. 6 of the Department of Transportation Act; 80 Stat. 937 (49 U.S.C. 1655), and the delegation of authority by the Secretary of Transportation in 49 CFR 1.48.

2. Sections 310.1, 310.2, 310.3, and 310.4 are revised as follows:

§ 310.1 Scope of rules in this part.

The rules in this part govern procedure in proceedings before the Federal Highway Administrator authorized by section 4 of the Bridge Act of 1906, as amended (33 U.S.C. 494), section 503 of the General Bridge Act of 1946, as amended (33 U.S.C. 525), and sections 2 and 6 of the International Bridge Act of 1972 (33 U.S.C 535 and 535(d)). Those statutes require that tolls charged for transit over certain bridges must be reasonable and just. They confer authority, now vested in the Federal Highway Administrator, to determine whether such tolls are reasonable and just and to prescribe the reasonable rates of toll to be charged. In the case of international bridges constructed under the International Bridge Act of 1972 which are in private ownership, that Act confers authority to determine the reasonable amortization period during which tolls may be charged. In proceedings under this part the Administrator determines (a) whether there are sufficient grounds to initiate formal adjudication concerning the reasonableness and justness of a toll schedule or amortization period; (b) whether a rate or rates of toll or amortization period are reasonable and just; and (c) the reasonable rate or rates of toll or amortization period to be prescribed in a case in which the existing rate or rates or amortization period are found to be unreasonable, unjust, or both.

§ 310.2 Definitions.

(a) "Administrator" means the Federal Highway Administrator.

(b) "Complainant" means a person who has filed a complaint under § 310.3.

(c) "Respondent" means the person or agency, including an agency of a State or a political subdivision of a State, which has responsibility for establishing or collecting a toll, the rate or duration of which is alleged to be unreasonable, unjust, or both.

§ 310.3 Commencement of proceedings.

(a) Proceedings under this part are commenced by filing a written complaint with the Administrator or by the Administrator on his own initiative. Any person may file a complaint.

V 40 65 APR 3 75 XUM

(b) Each complaint should contain:

(1) The name and address of the person filing it, and a brief statement of the nature of his interest in the reasonableness and justness of the toll schedule or duration of tolls;

(2) The name and location of the bridge;

(3) The name and address of the person or agency responsible for establishing and collecting the tolls;

(4) The rates of toll, or amortization period during which tolls may be charged, alleged to be unreasonable or unjust;

(5) The reasons the complainant believes that the rates of toll, or any portion of them, or amortization period during which tolls may be charged, are unreasonable, unjust, or both;

(6) A statement of any prior action which the complainant has taken to obtain a change in the rates of toll, or amortization period during which tolls may be charged, alleged to be unreasonable or unjust and the results of such action; and

(7) A prayer for relief, which may include the rates of toll, or amortization period during which tolls may be charged, which the complainant seeks to have prescribed for transit over the bridge.

§ 310.4 Response to the complaint.

(a) Upon receipt of a complaint, the Administrator sends a copy of it to the respondent. The respondent must file a written response to the complaint with the Administrator within 30 days after it has received the complaint.

(b) The response to the complaint should contain:

(1) A denial, admission, or explanation of each material allegation of the complaint;

(2) The current rates of toll, or amortization period during which tolls may be charged, for transit over the bridge;

(3) A statement of any changes in the rates of toll which the respondent has instituted or proposed during the preceding 24 months and the reasons for each actual or proposed change;

(4) Reference to the provisions of Federal and State law which authorize the operation of the bridge and the imposition of tolls for transit over it;

(5) A statement showing the net amount of toll revenues from the bridge during the preceding 60 months;

(6) A statement showing the disposition of the net amount of toll revenues from the bridge during the preceding 60 months;

(7) A statement showing the anticipated future toll revenues from the bridge and the intended disposition of such revenues;

(8) The date upon which it is anticipated that the bridge will be free of tolls; and

(9) Any other matter which, in the opinion of the respondent, tends to show that the rates of toll, or amortization period during which tolls may be charged, are reasonable and just.

Title 15—Commerce and Foreign Trade

CHAPTER III—DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION, DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

PART 350—CERTIFICATION OF ELIGIBILITY OF FIRMS TO APPLY FOR ADJUSTMENT ASSISTANCE

On March 18, 1975, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 12276) prescribing new regulations which implement section 251 contained in Chapter 3 of the Trade Act of 1974, Pub. L. 93-618, 88 Stat. 1978, 19 U.S.C. 2101 et seq. ("Trade Act"), relating to certification of eligibility of firms to apply for adjustment assistance. The regulations in Part 350 supersede subparts A and B of the existing Adjustment Assistance Regulations, 15 CFR Part 500. Although the proposed regulations were published under Part 500, in order to consolidate these regulations with other rules issued by the Domestic and International Business Administration, they have been transferred to 15 CFR Chapter 3.

Interested persons were given until March 28, 1975 to submit written comments. No comments having been received, the proposed regulations are hereby adopted with minor changes and clarifications as set forth below.

The Regulations promulgated hereunder relate only to the certification under the Trade Act of eligibility of firms to apply for trade adjustment assistance. In order for any program benefits to be conferred upon such firms they must apply for adjustment assistance and meet criteria for such benefits established in the Trade Act, as implemented by rules and regulations which will be published separately. In view of the fact that the following Regulations deal only with the certification of firms which have been adversely affected by imports, it has been determined that the Regulation will have no major inflationary impact.

In view of the fact that Chapter 3 of the Trade Act becomes effective as of April 3, 1975, and in view of the necessity of providing an established procedure under which firms may seek certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, it has been determined that there is good cause for these regulations to become effective on April 3, 1975.

Effective date. This part becomes effective April 3, 1975.

Issued at Washington, D.C. and dated April 2, 1975.

JOHN K. TABOR,
Acting Secretary of Commerce.

Subpart A—General

§ 350.10 Scope and purpose.

This part sets forth regulations implementing the responsibilities of the Secretary of Commerce under Chapter 3 of Title II, Trade Act of 1974, with respect to the certification of eligibility of firms to apply for adjustment assistance.

§ 350.11 Definitions.

For purposes of the regulations in this part, unless the context otherwise indicates:

(a) "Trade Act" means the Trade Act of 1974, Public Law 93-618, 88 Stat. 1978, 19 U.S.C. 2101 et seq.

(b) "TEA" means the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, 76 Stat. 872, 19 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.

(c) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Commerce or his delegate.

(d) "Department" means the Department of Commerce.

(e) "Assistant Secretary" means the Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Domestic and International Business.

(f) "Deputy Assistant Secretary" means the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Resources and Trade Assistance.

(g) "Director" means the Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Bureau of Resources and Trade Assistance.

(h) "Firm" means an entity located in any state which is an individual proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, association, corporation (including a development corporation), business trust, cooperative, trustee in bankruptcy and receiver under decree of any court. When determined necessary by the Deputy Assistant Secretary to prevent unjustifiable benefits, a firm, together with any predecessor or successor firm, or any affiliated firm controlled or substantially beneficially owned by substantially the same person or persons may be considered a single firm.

(i) "Person" means an individual, firm, trust or estate.

(j) "Commission" means the Tariff Commission of the United States of America or after January 3, 1975, the U.S. International Trade Commission, as the context requires.

(k) "Effective Date" means April 3, 1975, the effective date of Title II, Chapter 3 of the Trade Act of 1974.

(l) "State" includes the states of the United States, the District of Columbia and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

Subpart B—Petitions for Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Adjustment Assistance

§ 350.20 Categories of firms requesting certification.

Any firm, to be considered for adjustment assistance under the provisions of Title II, Chapter 3, of the Trade Act on or after the Effective Date must request certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance. Firms requesting certification shall be classified in one of two categories, i.e.,

(a) Category A which includes:

(1) Firms that have been previously certified eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 302(c) of the TEA which had either not applied for adjustment assistance under section 311(a) of the TEA or which had applied for adjustment assistance but whose adjustment proposal had not been certified under section 311(b) of the TEA as of the Effective Date, and whose eligibility certification has not been revoked by the Department; and

(2) Firms with regard to which the Commission reported to the President an affirmative finding of injury under section 301(c) of the TEA, or with regard to which the Commission reported its members evenly divided, but with regard to which the President has not taken action, as of the Effective Date.

V40-65 APR 3 75 XUM

eligibility to apply for adjustment assist-

(b) Category B which includes:

(1) Firms that filed petitions under section 301(a)(2) of the TEA on which the Commission has not reported to the President under section 301(c) of the TEA as of the Effective Date; and

(2) Firms that believe they qualify for certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance under section 251(c) of the Trade Act.

§ 350.21 Content of application: Category A.

Firms in Category A may apply for certification or recertification of eligibility by letter to the Domestic and International Business Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230, Attention: Adjustment Assistance Certification. Upon verification by the Director that the applicant either was previously certified eligible to apply for adjustment assistance or that the Commission had reported affirmatively or that it was evenly divided with regard to the petitioner, the Applicant will be promptly certified or recertified eligible as appropriate, on Form DIB–346, Certificate of Eligibility for a Firm to Apply for Adjustment Assistance. Such certification shall be effective as of the date of enactment of the Trade Act (January 3, 1975).

A Petition by a Firm for Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Adjustment Assistance, Form DIB–345P, shall contain the following information:

(a) The name, address and telephone number of the firm.

(b) A complete description of the firm, including:

(1) A brief economic history of the firm;

(2) Number and location of all manufacturing, production or sales facilities;

(3) Legal form under which the firm is organized, i.e., corporation, partnership, association, etc.;

(4) Identification of major ownership interests in the firm;

(5) Identification of officers, directors and management;

(6) Identification of any parent company, subsidiaries or affiliates, predecessor or successor firms, co-venturers or of any other firms under substantially the same ownership or control.

(c) A general description of article(s) produced by the firm.

(d) A detailed description including appropriate Standard Industrial Classification Number of each article described in paragraph (c) of this section that is likely or directly competitive with imported articles, the increased importation of which has contributed importantly to total or partial separation and decline in sales and/or production.

(e) A detailed description, including appropriate statistical classification number listed in the Tariff Schedules of the United States, Annotated (TSUSA), of each imported article like or directly competitive with the article(s) described in paragraph (d) of this section.

(f) Annual data relative to total sales and production, by quantity and value, of the articles described in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, stated separately.

(g) Annual data relative to the firm's total average employment and average number of production workers (together with average man hours worked) directly or indirectly involved in the production of the articles described in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, stated separately.

(h) Information relative to the number and proportion of workers totally or partially separated as a result of the importation of the articles described in paragraph (e) of this section.

(i) With respect to petitions asserting a threat of worker separation, an explanation of the nature of the threat and the anticipated consequences thereof, including the number and proportion of workers threatened with total or partial separation. Petitioner shall indicate whether, to its knowledge, a petition for certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance has been filed by or on behalf of any of its workers under section 221 of the Trade Act.

(j) Annual import data, by volume and value, with respect to article(s) described in paragraph (e) of this section.

(k) A statement explaining how the increased imports contributed importantly to actual or threatened worker separation and to the decline in sales and/or production of the firm.

(l) Annual data by quantity and value for the firm's finished goods inventory, including the articles described in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, stated separately.

(m) Auditor's certified annual financial reports for the firm and its subsidiaries for the last five accounting years.

(n) Such other documentation or information as may be required on Form DIB–345P.

§ 350.23 Filing of Category B Petitions; Withdrawal.

(a) Place of Filing. Petitions for certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance shall be submitted for filing in original and four copies by personal delivery during normal U.S. Department of Commerce business hours or by registered or certified mailing to the Domestic and International Business Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230, Attention: Adjustment Assistance Certification.

(b) Conformity with Regulations. No document reporting to be a petition for certification of eligibility for adjustment assistance shall be accepted for filing unless it conforms to the provisions of this Part governing such petitions. Firms intending to submit petitions are encouraged to consult with the Director prior to presenting such petitions for filing in order to avail themselves of his guidance and assistance in the preparation and documentation of their petitions.

(c) Receipt of Petitions. All petitions received by the Director shall be stamped with the date on which received. Within five working days of the receipt of said petition the Director shall either accept or reject said petition for filing. The petitioner shall thereafter be promptly notified of the acceptance of his petition together with the date of such acceptance or the rejection of said petition and the reasons therefor. A petitioner whose petition has been rejected for filing may submit a new petition in accordance with this section, provided the reasons for the rejection have been corrected.

(d) Withdrawal of Petitions. A petition may be withdrawn by a petitioner, provided a written request therefor is received by the Director prior to any decision being made on the petition by the Deputy Assistant Secretary pursuant to § 350.51 hereof. A petitioner who withdraws a petition may at any time thereafter submit a new petition in accordance with this section.

§ 350.24 Confidential Business Information.

(a) Identification of Confidential Information. Business data which the petitioner or any other party desires to submit in confidence shall be submitted to the Director on separate sheets bearing at the top of each sheet the clear legend "Confidential Business Information." If submitted at a public hearing, such information shall be labeled "Confidential Business Information" at the top of each sheet and offered as a separate exhibit, accompanied by a brief description of the nature of the information for purposes of the public record.

(b) Acceptance of Information in Confidence. The Freedom of Information

Act, as amended (5 U.S.C. 552), provides that agency records shall be made available for public inspection and copying, unless exempted from public disclosure thereunder. The Act exempts "trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential." By submitting data identified as "Confidential Business Information," the petitioner or other party represents that such information is exempted from public disclosure, either by the Freedom of Information Act or by a specific statutory exemption. However, the Director may refuse to accept as "confidential" any information which clearly is not intended to be protected under the law. Any information which the Director refuses to accept as "confidential" may be submitted as nonconfidential or may be withdrawn and, if so withdrawn, will not be considered in the determination of the petition. The Department will only make a determination regarding the public availability of any information submitted in response to a request for records submitted in accordance with the public information regulation of the Department in 15 CFR, Subtitle A, Part 4 (40 FR 11551, March 12, 1975).

§ 350.25 Publication of Category B Petitions in Federal Register.

Promptly after a petition has been accepted for filing, the Director shall publish a notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER of the filing of such petition, the identity of the petitioner, nature of its business and such other information as may be regarded pertinent or appropriate.

Subpart C—Investigation of Petitions

§ 350.30 Initiation of investigation.

Upon the acceptance for filing of a Category B petition, the Director shall initiate an investigation to determine from the data and other information furnished by the petitioner and information available to the Department, the sufficiency of petitioner's compliance with the criteria established in section 251(c) of the Trade Act and under this Part for eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance. The investigation may include field visits to verify information furnished by petitioner and to elicit other information relevant to the petition. In the course of the field investigation representatives of the Department shall be authorized to meet with and obtain information from officers and employees of the petitioner, officers of lending institutions and other sources of financing utilized by petitioner, present or former customers and suppliers, and officials of appropriate trade associations or other organizations. Upon conclusion of the investigation, a report thereof shall be made and taken into consideration in the determination of petitioner's eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance.

Subpart D—Public Hearings on Category B Petitions

§ 350.40 Granting of request for public hearing.

(a) A public hearing will be held on each Category B petition, if such hearing is requested in a timely manner in writing, hand delivered or marked registered or certified mail, by the petitioner or by any person, organization or group that has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Director that it has a substantial interest in the proceedings. A request for public hearing shall be filed in the same manner as provided for filing of petitions under § 350.23(a), and must be received by the Director, within ten days after the publication in the Federal Register of the notice of filing of the petition under § 350.25. A request by a person other than the petitioner shall contain:

(1) The name, address and telephone number of the person, organization or group requesting the hearing;

(2) A complete statement of the relationship of the person, organization or group requesting the hearing to the petitioner or the subject matter of the petition and a statement of the nature of its interest in the proceeding, including how such interest may be adversely affected by certification of the petitioner's eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance; and

(3) A summary of the nature of the evidence or other information that it desires to submit at the public hearing.

(b) For purposes of this part, a person, organization or group will be deemed to have a "substantial interest in the proceedings" if it has included sufficient information in its request to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Director that it has a direct, material, economic interest which will be, or may be, adversely affected by certification or denial of certification of petitioner's eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance.

§ 350.41 Denial of request for public hearing by a party other than the petitioner.

In the event of a denial of a request for public hearing, a notice of denial shall be signed by the Director and shall be addressed to the requesting party. Such notice shall specify the reasons upon which the denial is based. In view of the sixty day period provided under section 251(d) of the Trade Act for the processing of petitions for certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, there shall be no appeal from such a denial.

§ 350.42 Notice of hearing.

If petitioner has included a timely request for public hearing in a Category B petition, notice of the date, time and place of such hearing shall be included in the notice of the filing of the petition published in the FEDERAL REGISTER under § 350.25. If the petitioner does not include a request for public hearing in its petition, but a request for public hearing is received in conformity with § 350.40 and is granted by the Director, notice of the public hearing in the matter shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as soon following the granting of the request as practicable and the petitioner shall be notified, specifying the date, time and place of such hearing. Notice of public hearing on any petition shall be published once only, and the date, time and place set for such hearing shall be applicable to all persons, organizations and groups requesting a public hearing on the petition.

§ 350.43 Conduct of hearings on Category B petitions.

The public hearing on any petition for certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance shall be conducted by the Director, or, in his absence or inability to attend, by such person as may be designated by the Deputy Assistant Secretary. The hearing shall be stenographically reported. Any party may be represented at such hearing by attorney designated as such in writing prior to commencement of the hearing. The petitioner and all parties whose request for a public hearing has been granted under § 350.40 shall be given an opportunity to present their views and submit evidence under oath and may be questioned by the Director or other Department representatives in attendance. Evidence, oral or written, submitted at the hearing may be subject to verification from books, papers or records of the parties submitting such evidence and from any other available sources. Interested parties may examine the transcripts and exhibits or other materials presented, or obtain copies thereof by making application in accordance with the public information procedures of 15 CFR, subtitle A, Part 4. Confidential business information that is exempted by law from public disclosure shall not be a part of the transcripts.

§ 350.44 Effect of public hearing.

The public hearing held with regard to a Category B petition is part of the overall investigation of the petition by the Department. The determination to certify or to deny certification of such petitions will be based not only on the evidence adduced at the public hearing, but also upon the information originally furnished by the petitioner with his petition or thereafter, or otherwise acquired by the Director incident to the investigation.

Subpart E—Certification or Denial of Certification of Eligibility

§ 350.50 Criteria for certification.

(a) A petitioner filing a Category B Petition will be certified eligible to apply for adjustment assistance if the Deputy Assistant Secretary determines, under section 251(c) of the Trade Act that:

(1) A significant number or proportion of the workers in such firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

(2) Sales or production, or both, of such firm have decreased absolutely; and

(3) Increases in imports (absolute or relative to domestic production) or articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm contributed importantly to such total or partial separation, or threat thereof, and to such decline in sales or production.

(b) For purposes of this part:

(1) A "significant number or proportion of workers" shall normally mean the equivalent of a total separation of five percent of the firm's work force or fifty workers, whichever is less. In computing such equivalent partially separated workers shall be taken into account in proportion to their percentage of separation. In small firms a smaller number of workers may be held to constitute a significant number or proportion of workers. With regard to agricultural operations that are sole proprietorships, the criterion may be met by an individual farmer.

(2) A "totally separated worker" means an employee who has been laid off or whose employment has been terminated by his employer for lack of work. The term "Layoff" means a suspension from pay status for lack of work initiated by the employer for an indefinite period but in no event expected to last for less than seven consecutive calendar days.

(3) "Partial Separation" means, with respect to an employee who has not been totally separated, a reduction in an employee's hours of work to eighty percent or less of the employee's average weekly hours at the firm and a reduction in the employee's weekly wage to eighty percent or less of the employee's average weekly wage.

(4) A group of workers shall be considered to be "threatened" with total or partial separation if there is reasonable evidence that such total or partial separation is imminent.

(5) The term "decreased absolutely" is used in reference to petitioner's sales or production irrespective of industry or market fluctuations and relative only to the previous performance of the firm.

(6) The terms "like" or "directly competitive" are not synonymous. "Like" articles are those articles which are substantially identical in inherent or intrinsic characteristics. "Directly competitive" articles are those articles which are not substantially identical in inherent or intrinsic characteristics but are substantially equivalent for commercial purposes, i.e., are adapted to the same function or use and substitute for or are essentially interchangeable therewith.

(7) The term "contributed importantly" means a cause which is important but not necessarily more important than any other cause. Imports will be considered to have "contributed importantly" to total or partial separation, or threat thereof, of a significant number or proportion of workers, and to a decline in sales or production, even if such imports were not the major factor in effecting such separation, threat thereof, or decrease. In determining whether imports contributed importantly among possible causes for separation or decreases, the influence of imports as a cause will be considered on the basis of the totality and interrelationship of all possible causes. If, for example, another factor was so dominant, acting singly, that the worker separation or decrease in sales or production would have been essentially the same irrespective of the influence of imports, then imports would not be determined to have contributed importantly. Worker separation or threat thereof, and sales or production decreases which would have occurred regardless of the level of imports—such as resulted from domestic competition, seasonal or cyclical variations or technological factors—would not qualify a firm eligible to apply for adjustment assistance.

(c) In all cases, although the Department will bring to bear all available resources to assist the petitioner to demonstrate his meeting the criteria for certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance under paragraph (a) of this section, the burden of proof is upon the petitioner to establish his eligibility by the submission of probative evidence thereof.

§ 350.51 Decision on Category B petitions.

As promptly as practicable, but not more than sixty days from the date the petition has been accepted for filing, the Deputy Assistant Secretary shall either certify the petitioner eligible to apply for adjustment assistance or shall deny the petition and, in either event, shall promptly notify the petitioner in writing of his action. Certifications of eligibility shall be issued by the Deputy Assistant Secretary on Form DIB–346, Certificate of Eligibility for a Firm to Apply for Adjustment Assistance. Notices of denials of petitions shall specify the reasons upon which the denial is based. If a petition is denied, petitioner shall not be entitled to resubmit its petition for certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance within the twelve month period succeeding the date of the formal notice of denial of the petition.

§ 350.52 Appeals.

Any petitioner may appeal to the Assistant Secretary from a denial of certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, provided that such appeal is received in writing and in triplicate by personal delivery or by registered or certified mail, by the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Domestic and International Business, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230, within sixty days from the date of the formal notice of denial of the petition issued under § 350.51. The appeal shall set forth the grounds upon which the appeal is based and a concise statement of the facts and circumstances or legal arguments asserted by the petitioner in support thereof. The decision of the Assistant Secretary shall be final within the Department and shall be provided in writing to the petitioner as promptly as practicable.

§ 350.53 Revocation of certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance.

(a) The Secretary may terminate the eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance of any firm pursuant to section 252 (d) of the Trade Act. Notice of such termination shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and such termination shall take effect on the date specified by the Secretary.

Subpart F—Study of Firms in an Industry Which is the Subject of an Investigation of Injury or Threat of Injury by the International Trade Commission § 350.60 Commerce Department Study.

(a) Initiation of the Study. Upon notification by the Commission of the commencement of an investigation under section 201 of the Trade Act with respect to injury to a domestic industry occurring as a result of the increased importation of articles into the United States that are like or directly competitive with articles produced by the domestic industry, the Secretary shall immediately cause a study to be undertaken under section 264 of the Trade Act of:

(1) the number and identity of firms in the domestic industry producing the like or directly competitive article which have been or are likely to be certified eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 251 of the Trade Act and this part, and

(2) the extent to which the orderly adjustment of firms in the domestic industry to import competition may be facilitated through the use of existing programs.

(b) Report. Upon completion of the study described in paragraph (a) of this section, and within fifteen days of the date on which the Commission makes its report to the President of the United States under section 201 of the Trade Act the Secretary shall report to the President the findings and conclusions of the study. As soon thereafter as practicable the Secretary shall make his report public (with the exception of confidential business information that is exempted by law from public disclosure).

§ 350.61 Information on adjustment assistance programs.

Upon a report of the Commission to the President of an affirmative finding of injury or threat of injury to an industry under section 201(b) of the Trade Act, the Secretary shall make available to firms in such industry, to the extent feasible, information about programs that may facilitate their orderly adjustment to import competition and shall, through the agencies of the Department designated by him, provide assistance in the preparation and processing of petitions and applications for such assistance.

PART 355—CERTIFICATION OF ELIGIBILITY OF COMMUNITIES FOR ADJUSTMENT ASSISTANCE

On March 18, 1975 a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 12279) prescribing new regulations which implement section 271 contained in Chapter 4 of the Trade Act of 1974, Pub. L. 93–618, ii STAT. 1978, 19 U.S.C. 2101 et seq.,) ("Trade Act"), relating to certification of eligibility of communities for adjustment assistance. The notice of proposed rule making proposed a new Part 510 of 15 CFR Chapter V. However, in order to consolidate these regulations with other rules issued by the Domestic and International Business Administration, they have been transferred to 15 CFR Chapter III as Part 355 thereof.

Interested persons were given until March 28, 1975 to submit written comments. No comments having been received, the proposed regulations are hereby adopted with minor changes and clarifications and set forth below.

The regulations promulgated hereunder relate only to the certification under the Trade Act of the eligibility of communities for adjustment assistance. In order for program benefits to be made available, communities or groups of communities must prepare adjustment assistance plans through Trade Impacted Area Councils established therefor under section 272 of the Trade Act and apply for program benefits under the provisions of section 273 of the Trade Act, pursuant to rules and regulations which will be published separately. In view of the fact that the following regulations relate only to certification of the eligibility of communities for adjustment assistance and not to the granting or administration thereof, it has been determined that the Regulations will have no major inflationary impact.

Since Chapter 4 of the Trade Act becomes effective on April 3, 1975, and in view of the necessity of providing an established procedure under which communities may petition for certification of eligibility for adjustment assistance as of that date, it has been determined that there is good cause for these regulations to become effective as of April 3, 1975.

Effective date. This part becomes effective April 3, 1975.

Issued at Washington, D.C. and dated April 2, 1975.

JOHN K. TABOR,
Acting Secretary of Commerce.

Subpart A—General

§ 355.10 Scope and purpose.

This part sets forth regulations implementing the responsibilities of the Secretary of Commerce under Chapter 4 of Title II, Trade Act of 1974, with respect to the certification of eligibility of communities for adjustment assistance.

§ 355.11 Definitions.

For purposes of the regulations in this part, unless the context otherwise indicates:

(a) "Trade Act" means the Trade Act of 1974, Public Law 93-618, 88 Stat. 1978, 19 U.S.C. 2101 et seq.

(b) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Commerce or his delegate.

(c) "Department" means the Department of Commerce.

(d) "Assistant Secretary" means the Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Domestic and International Business.

(e) "Deputy Assistant Secretary" means the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Resources and Trade Assistance.

(f) "Director" means the Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Bureau of Resources and Trade Assistance.

(g) "Person" means an individual, firm, trust or estate.

(h) "State" includes the states of the United States, the District of Columbia and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(i) "Community" means any political subdivision of a state of the United States including, but not limited to, any municipality, county, town, parish, local government agency or other general purpose subdivision of such state.

(j) "Trade Impacted Area" means any area within U.S. customs territory, the size and geographical limits of which have been determined by the Deputy Assistant Secretary under section 271(e) of the Trade Act.

Subpart B—Petitions for Certification of Eligibility for Adjustment Assistance

§ 355.20 Petitions for certification.

A petition for certification of eligibility for adjustment assistance may be filed by a community to group of communities, or by the Governor of the state in which such community or group of communities are located.

§ 355.21 Form and contents of the petition.

A community petition for certification of eligibility for Adjustment Assistance, Form DIB-347P, shall contain the following information:

(a) The name, complete address, and telephone number of the person authorized by the community or communities to file the petition, together with documentary evidence of such authorization.

(b) A statement identifying the community or communities included in the petition, together with the name, title, complete address, and telephone number of the senior administrative official of each community, i.e., Mayor, County Executive, etc.

(c) Annual data relative to sales, production and employment of all firms in the community or communities included in the petition.

(d) An identification of each firm or subdivision of a firm within the community or communities currently producing or which formerly produced articles with respect to which increased imports or like or directly competitive articles have contributed importantly to the actual or threatened worker separation and actual decline in sales and/or production, and the identification of any firm or subdivision of a firm that has transferred to a foreign country thereby resulting in worker separation and sales or production declines, and with respect to each such firm or subdivision the following information:

(1) A general description of the articles produced by the firm;

(2) A detailed description including appropriate Standard Industrial Classification number of each article described in paragraph (d)(1) of this section that is like or directly competitive with imported articles, the increased importation of which has contributed importantly to total or partial worker separation, or threat thereof, and a decline in the firm's sales and/or production;

(3) A detailed description of the imported article(s), identified by appropriate statistical classification number listed in the Tariff Schedules of the United States, Annotated (TSUSA), that are like or directly competitive with the article(s) described in paragraph (d)(2) of this section.

(4) Annual data relative to total sales and production, by quantity and value, of the articles described in paragraphs (d)(1) and (d)(2) of this section, stated separately;

(5) Annual data relative to the firm's total average employment and average number of production workers employed, together with average man hours worked;

(6) Information relative to the number and proportion of workers totally or partially separated as a result of the importation of the articles described in paragraph (d)(3) of this section; and

(7) With respect to petitions asserting a threat of worker separation, an explanation of the nature of the threat and the anticipated consequences thereof, including the number and proportion of workers in the community threatened with total or partial separation.

(e) Annual import data, by quantity and value, with respect to the article(s) described in paragraph (d)(3) of this section.

(f) A statement explaining how the increased imports contributed importantly to actual or threatened worker separation in the community and to the decline in sales and/or production of manufacturing firms or subdivisions of firms.

(g) Such other documentation or information as may be required on Form DIB-347P.

§ 355.22 Filing of petition.

(a) Place of filing. Community petitions for certification of eligibility for adjustment assistance shall be submitted for filing in original and four copies by personal delivery during normal U.S. Department of Commerce business hours or by registered or certified mailing to Domestic and International Business Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230 Attention: Adjustment Assistance Certification.

(b) Conformity with regulations. No document purporting to be a community petition for adjustment assistance shall be accepted for filing unless it conforms to the provisions of § 355.21 governing the form and contents of such petitions. Communities intending to submit petitions are encouraged to consult with the Director prior to presenting such petitions for filing in order to avail themselves of his guidance and assistance in the preparation and documentation of their petitions.

(c) Receipt of petitions. All petitions received by the Director shall be stamped with the date on which received. Within five working days of the receipt of said petition the Director shall either accept or reject said petition for filing. The petitioner shall thereafter be promptly notified of the acceptance or the rejection of said petition and the reasons therefor. A petitioner whose petition has been rejected for filing may submit a new petition in accordance with this section, provided the reasons for the rejection have been corrected.

(d) Withdrawal of petitions. A petition may be withdrawn by a petitioner, provided a written request therefor is received by the Director prior to any decision being made on the petition by the Deputy Assistant Secretary pursuant to § 355.51. A petitioner who withdraws a petition may at any time thereafter submit a new petition in accordance with this section.

§ 355.23 Publication in the Federal Register.

Promptly after a petition has been accepted for filing, the Director shall publish a notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER of the filing of such petition setting forth the community or communities that filed the petition or on whose behalf the petition was filed and such other information as may be regarded pertinent or appropriate.

§ 355.24 Confidential business information.

(a) Identification of confidential information. Business data which the petitioner or any other party desires to submit in confidence shall be submitted to the Director on separate sheets bearing at the top of each sheet the clear legend "Confidential Business Information." If submitted at a public hearing, such information shall be labeled "Confidential Business Information" at the top of each sheet and offered as a separate exhibit, accompanied by a brief description of the nature of the information for purposes of the public record.

(b) Acceptance of information in confidence. The Freedom of Information Act, as amended (5 U.S.C. 552), provides that agency records shall be made available for public inspection and copying, unless exempted from public disclosure thereunder. The Act exempts "trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential." By submitting data identified as "Confidential Business Information," the petitioner or other party represents that such information is exempt from public disclosure, either by the Freedom of Information Act or by a specific statutory exemption. However, the Director may refuse to accept as "confidential" any information which clearly is not intended to be protected under the law. Any information which the Director refuses to accept as "confidential" may be submitted as non-confidential or may be withdrawn, and, if so withdrawn, will not be considered in the determination of the petition. The Department will only make a determination regarding the public availability of any information submitted in response to a request for records made in accordance with the public information regulations of the Department in 15 CFR, Subtitle A, Part 4 (40 FR 11551, March 12, 1975).

APR 3 75
XUM

Subpart C—Investigation of Eligibility

§ 355.30 Initiation of investigation.

Promptly following acceptance of a petition for filing, the Director shall initiate an investigation to determine whether the community or communities meet the criteria of section 271(c) of the Trade Act. Also, the geographic boundaries of the Trade Impacted Area or Areas in which such community or communities are located shall be determined. The investigation is designed to confirm information submitted by the petitioner and to elicit other information relevant or material to the petition. The investigation may include one or more field investigations to verify information submitted by petitioner and to physically inspect the area and the firms, or subdivisions thereof, located therein. In the course of the investigation, representatives of the Department shall be authorized to meet with and obtain information from public officials, officers and employees of firms or subddivision of firms located in the area, officers of banks, lending institutions and other sources of financing in the area, present or former customers or suppliers of the firms or subdivisions thereof located in the area, officials of unions and trade associations and other potential sources of relevant information. Upon conclusion of the investigation, a report thereof shall become a part of the evidence upon the basis of which a determination shall be made whether the criteria of section 271(c) of the Trade Act have met.

Subpart D—Public Hearing

§ 355.40 Granting of request for public hearing.

(a) A public hearing will be held on any petition accepted by the Director for filing, if requested in a timely manner in writing, hand delivered or mailed registered or certified mail by the petitioner, or by any person, organization or group or representative of a community not included in the petition who has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Director that it has a substantial interest in the proceedings. A request for public hearing shall be filed in the same manner as provided for filing of petitions under § 355.22(a), and must be received by the Director within ten days after the publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of the notice of filing of the petition under § 355.23. A request by a person other than the petitioner must be in writing and shall contain:

(1) The name, address, and telephone number of the person, organization or group, or of the legal representative or senior administrative officer of the community, requesting the hearing.

(2) A complete statement of the relationship of the persons, organization, group or community requesting the hearing, to the petitioner or the subject matter of the petition and a statement of the nature of its interest in the proceeding, including how such interest may be affected by certification or denial of certification of petitioner's eligibility for adjustment assistance; and

(3) A summary of the nature of the evidence or other information that it desires to submit at the public hearing.

(b) For purposes of this part, a community, person, organization or group will be deemed to have a "substantial interest in the proceedings", if it has included sufficient information in its request to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Director that it has a direct, material, economic interest which will be or may be affected by certification or denial of certification of petitioner's eligibility for adjustment assistance.

§ 355.41 Denial of request for public hearing by a party other than the petitioner.

In the event of a denial of a request for public hearing, a notice of denial shall be signed by the Director and shall be addressed to the requesting party. Such notice shall specify the reasons upon which the denial is based. In view of the sixty day period under section 271(d) of the Trade Act for processing community petitions for certification of eligibility for adjustment assistance, there shall be no appeal from such denial.

§ 355.42 Notice of hearing.

If petitioner has included a request for public hearing with the petition, notice of the date, time and place of such hearing shall be included in the notice of the filing of such petition published in the FEDERAL REGISTER under § 355.23. Notice of a public hearing requested by petitioner after the filing of his petition or by a party other than the petitioner whose request has been granted under § 355.40 shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as soon as practicable following the granting of the request, specifying the date, time and place of such hearing. Notice of public hearing on any petition shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER once only, and the date, time and place set for such hearing shall be applicable to all communities, persons, organizations and groups requesting a public hearing on said petition.

§ 355.43 Conduct of hearings.

The public hearing on any community petition for certification of eligibility for adjustment assistance shall be conducted by the Director, or in his absence or inability to attend by such person as may be designated by the Deputy Assistant Secretary. The hearing shall be stenographically reported. The petitioner, or any community, person, organization or group may be represented at such hearing by attorney designated as such in writing prior to commencement of the hearing. Petitioner and all parties whose request for a public hearing has been granted under § 355.40 shall be given an opportunity to present their views and submit evidence under oath and may be questioned by the Director or other Department representatives in attendance. Evidence, oral or written, submitted at the hearing may be subject to verification from books, papers or records of the parties submitting such evidence and from any other available sources. Interested parties may examine the transcripts and the exhibits or other materials presented or obtain copies thereof by making application in accordance with the public information procedures of 15 CFR, subtitle A, Part 4. Confidential business information shall not be a part of the transcripts.

§ 355.44 Effect of public hearings.

The public hearing held with regard to any community petition for certification of eligibility for adjustment assistance is part of the overall investigation of the petition by the Department. The determination to certify or to deny certification will be based not only on the testimony and evidence adduced at the public hearing, but also upon information originally furnished by petitioner with or in support of his petition, or otherwise acquired by the Director incident to the investigation.

Subpart E—Certification or Denial of Certification

§ 355.50 Criteria for certification.

(a) The community or group of communities included in the petition will be certified eligible for adjustment assistance if the Deputy Assistant Secretary determines that such community or group of communities are located in a Trade Impacted Area in which:

(1) A significant number or proportion of workers have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

(2) Sales or production, or both, of firms or subdivision of firms, located in such Trade Impacted Area have decreased absolutely; and

(3) Increases of imports (absolute or relative to domestic production) of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by firms, or subdivision of firms, located in such Trade Impacted Area, or the transfer of firms, or subdivision of firms located in such Trade Impacted Area to foreign countries, have contributed importantly to the total or partial separations, or threats thereof, described in paragraph (a)(1) of this section and to the decline in sales and/or production described in paragraph (a)(2) of this section.

(b) For purposes of this part:

(1) A "totally separated worker" means an employee who has been laid off or whose employment has been terminated by his employer for lack of work. The term "lay-off" means a suspension from pay status for lack of work initiated by the employer for an indefinite period but in no event expected to last for less than seven consecutive calendar days.

(2) "Partial separation" means with respect to an employee who has not been totally separated, a reduction in an employee's hours or work to eighty percent or less of the employee's average weekly hours of work at the firm and a reduotion in the employee's weekly wage to eighty percent or less of the employee's average weekly wage.

(3) A group of workers shall be considered to be "threatened" with total or partial separation if there is reasonable evidence that such total or partial separation is imminent.

(4) The term "firm" includes an individual proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, association, corporation, business trust, cooperative, trustee in bankruptcy, and receiver under decree of any court.

(5) The term "subdivision of firms" means an establishment in a multi-establishment firm which produces a domestic article with which imported articles are like or directly competitive or a distinct part or section thereof whether or not the firm has more than one establishment wherein the articles are produced.

(6) The term "decreased absolutely" is used in reference to the sales or production of the firm(s) or subdivision(s) thereof located in the Trade Impacted Area irrespective of industry or market fluctuations and relative only to the previous performance of the firm(s) or subdivision(s) thereof.

(7) The terms "like" or "directly competitive" are not synonymous. "Like" articles are those articles which are substantially identical in inherent or intrinsic characteristics. "Directly competitive" articles are those articles which are not substantially identical in inherent or intrinsic characteristics, but are substantially equivalent for commercial purposes, i.e., are adapted to the same function or use and substitute for or are essentially interchangeable therewith.

(8) The term "contributed importantly" means a cause which is important but not necessarily more important than any other cause. Imports will be considered to have "contributed importantly" to total or partial separation or threat thereof of a significant number or proportion of workers and to a decline in sales or production even if such imports were not the major factor in effecting such separation, threat thereof, or decrease. In determining whether imports contributed importantly among possible causes for separations or decreases, the influence of imports as a cause will be considered on the basis of the totality and interrelationships of all possible causes. If, for example, another factor was so dominant, acting singly, that the worker separation or decrease in sales or production would have been essentially the same irrespective of the influence of imports, then imports would not be determined to have contributed importantly. Worker separation and sales or production decreases which would have occurred regardless of the level of imports—such as resulted from domestic competition, seasonal or cyclical variations or technological factors—would not be considered for the purposes of meeting this test.

(c) In all cases, although the Department will bring to bear all available resources to assist the petitioner to demonstrate that the Trade Impacted Area in which the community or communities involved in the petition are located meets the criteria of section 271(c) of the Trade Act, the burden of proof is upon petitioner to establish the eligibility of such community or communities for adjustment assistance by the submission of probative evidence thereof.

§ 355.51 Determination of petitions.

As promptly as practicable, but not more than sixty days from the date the petition has been accepted for filing, the Deputy Assistant Secretary shall certify eligible for adjustment assistance the community or communities located in any Trade Impacted Area which he has determined to meet the criteria of section 271(c) of the Trade Act and, to the extent that any of the petitioning community or communities, or parts thereof, are not located in any such Trade Impacted Area, the certification of eligibility for adjustment assistance of such community, or communities or parts thereof will be denied. The Deputy Assistant Secretary shall promptly notify the petitioner in writing of his decision and shall publish notice of such decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Certifications of eligibility shall be issued by the Deputy Assistant Secretary on Form DIB-348, Certificate of Eligibility of a Community for Adjustment Assistance. Notice of denial in whole or in part of petitions shall specify the reason upon which the denial is based. If any community is denied certification of eligibility for adjustment assistance, it shall not be entitled to repetition for certification of eligibility for adjustment assistance within the twelve month period succeeding the date of formal notice of the denial of certification of its eligibility.

§ 355.52 Appeals.

Any petitioner may appeal to the Assistant Secretary from a denial of certification of eligibility for adjustment assistance, provided that such appeal is received in writing and in triplicate by personal delivery or by registered or certified mail, in the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Domestic and International Business, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230 within sixty days from the date of the formal notice of denial of the petition issued under § 355.51. The appeal shall set forth the grounds upon which the appeal is based and a concise statement of the facts and circumstances or legal argument asserted by petitioner in support thereof. The decision of the Assistant Secretary shall be final within the Department and shall be provided in writing to the petitioner as promptly as practicable.

§ 355.53 Revocation of certification of eligibility for adjustment assistance.

The Secretary may terminate the certification of eligibility for adjustment assistance of any community pursuant to section 271(f) of the Trade Act. Notice of such termination shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and such termination shall take effect on the date specified by the Secretary.

CHAPTER V—OFFICE OF TRADE ADJUSTMENT ASSISTANCE, DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

PART 500—ADJUSTMENT ASSISTANCE REGULATIONS

The Trade Expansion Act of 1962, 76 Stat. 872, 19 U.S.C. 1801 et seq. (the "TEA"), established a program of adjustment assistance for firms adversely affected by increased imports resulting in major part from concessions granted under trade agreements authorized by the TEA. The adjustment assistance provisions of Chapter 3, Title II, of the Trade Act of 1974, 88 Stat. 1978, 19 U.S.C. 2101 et seq., supersede the corresponding adjustment assistance provisions of the TEA, but provide that any firm whose adjustment proposal was certified under section 311 of the TEA before the effective date of the superseding provisions, i.e., April 3, 1975, may receive adjustment assistance at the level set forth in such certified proposal.

Subparts A and B of Part 500 of 15 CFR Chapter V, which dealt with certification of eligibility of firms to apply for adjustment assistance under the TEA, are transferred to 15 CFR Chapter III and redesignated as Part 350 of that chapter, in order to consolidate these regulations (as revised) with other rules issued by the Domestic and International Business Administration.

The remainder of 15 CFR Part 500, i.e., Subparts C through G, which implemented the TEA provisions governing the granting of adjustment assistance to firms, is revoked, but remains in effect with respect to firms to which adjustment assistance was either provided or authorized under the TEA prior to April 3, 1975.

The only regulations in 15 CFR Chapter V appear in Part 500. Accordingly, Chapter V of Title 15 is vacated.

Effective date. This redesignation and revocation become effective on April 3, 1975.

Issued at Washington, D.C., and dated April 2, 1975.

JOHN K. TABOR,
Acting Secretary of Commerce.

Public Health Service

[42 CFR Part 57]

FINANCIAL DISTRESS GRANTS TO SCHOOLS OF NURSING

Proposed Rule Making

Notice is hereby given that the Assistant Secretary for Health, of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare with the approval of the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, proposes to add a new Subpart X entitled "Financial Distress Grants to Schools of Nursing," to Part 57 of Title 42, Code of Federal Regulations. The proposed new Subpart X is in tentative form below.

Section 805(b) of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 296(d)) authorizes the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare to make grants to assist public or nonprofit private schools of nursing which are in serious financial straits to meet operational costs required to maintain quality educational programs or which have special need for financial assistance to meet accreditation requirements. The purpose of the proposed new Subpart X is to establish regulations implementing such section 805(b) of the Public Health Service Act.

Written comments concerning the proposed regulations are invited from interested persons. Inquiries may be addressed, and data, views and arguments relating to the proposed regulations may be presented in writing, in triplicate, to the Director, Bureau of Health Resources Development, 9000 Rockville Pike, Building 31, Room 5C-02, Bethesda, Maryland 20014. All comments received in response to this notice will be available for public inspection at the Office of Grants Policy, Bureau of Health Resources Development, Health Resources Administration, 9000 Rockville Pike, Building 31, Room 4C-08, Bethesda, Maryland 20014 on weekdays (Federal holidays excepted) between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. All relevant material received not later than May 5, 1975, will be considered.

It is therefore proposed to add a new Subpart X to Part 57 as set forth below:

Dated: March 10, 1975.

THEODORE COOPER,
Acting Assistant Secretary for Health.

Approved: March 31, 1975.

CASPAR W. WEINBERGER,
Secretary.

AUTHORITY: Sec. 215, 58 Stat. 690, as amended (42 U.S.C. 216); sec. 805(b), 85 Stat. 470 (42 U.S.C. 296d).

§ 57.2301 Applicability.

The regulations of this subpart are applicable to the award of grants pursuant to section 805(b) of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 296d) to assist public or nonprofit private schools of nursing which are in serious financial straits to meet operational costs required to maintain quality educational programs or which have a special need for financial assistance to meet accreditation requirements.

§ 57.2302 Definitions.

As used in this subpart:

(a) "Act" means the Public Health Service Act, as amended.

(b) "Construction" means the construction and equipping of new buildings and the acquisition and expansion of existing buildings (including related costs, such as architects' fees, acquisition of land, offsite improvements, and the initial equipping of such buildings), and (2) the remodeling, alteration and repair of existing buildings.

(c) "Council" means the National Advisory Council on Nurse Training (established by section 841(a)(1) of the Act).

(d) "Fiscal Year" means the Federal fiscal year beginning July 1, and ending on the following June 30.

(e) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, and any other officer or employee of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare to whom the authority involved has been delegated.

(f) "School" or "school of nursing" means a school of nursing as defined in section 843(b) of the Act and which is accredited as provided in section 843(f) of the Act.

(g) "State" means any one of the several States of the United States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia, the Canal Zone, Guam, America Samoa, the Virgin Islands, or the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

§ 57.2303 Eligibility.

To be eligible for a grant under this subpart the applicant must:

(a) be a school as defined in § 57.2302(f)(1) of this part with operating income insufficient to meet operational costs required to maintain quality educational programs or (2) with special need for financial assistance to meet accreditation requirements of a nonrecurring nature. For purposes of this paragraph, a school will be considered to have such "special need" for fiancial assistance where the requirements necessary in order to have the program of education in professional nursing of such school accredited by a recognized body or bodies, or by a State agency, approved for such purpose by the Commissioner of Education cannot be met within the school's operating income.

(b) be located in a State as defined in § 57.2302(g) of this part.

§ 57.2304 Application.

(a) Each eligible school desiring a grant under the subpart shall submit an application in such form and at such time as the Secretary may require.[1]

(b) Such application shall be executed by an individual authorized to act for the applicant and to assume on behalf of the applicant the obligations imposed by the terms and conditions of any award, including the regulations of this subpart.

(c) The application shall contain a full and adequate description of the purpose for which the application is made, of the manner in which the applicant intends to utilize funds awarded in accordance with this subpart, of the proposed plan to eliminate the need for support under this subpart and such other pertinent information as the Secretary may require.

§ 57.2305 Assurances required.

(a) Pursuant to section 805(c) of the Act, the applicant shall submit an assurance satisfactory to the Secretary that the applicant will expend in carrying out its functions as a school of nursing during the fiscal year for which the grant is sought, an amount of non-Federal funds (excluding costs of construction as defined in § 57.2302(b) of this part) at least as great as the average amount of non-Federal funds (excluding expenditures of a nonrecurring nature, including costs of construction as defined in § 57.2302(b) of this part) expended for this purpose during the 3 fiscal years immediately preceding such fiscal year. The determination of the average amount of non-Federal funds expended by a new school during such 3-year period shall be the average for such of the preceding years as expenditures were actually made in carrying out the functions of the school; Provided however, That the Secretary may, after consultation with the Council, waive the above requirements with respect to any school if he determines that the application of such requirement to such school would be inconsistent with the purposes of section 805(b) of the Act.

(b) The Secretary may in individual cases require additional assurances where he finds that such additional assurances are necessary to carry out the purposes of section 805(b) of the Act.

§ 57.2306 Grant awards.

(a) Within the limits of funds available for such purpose, the Secretary, after consultation with the Council, may award grants to those applicants whose support will best promote the purpose of section 805(b) of the Act, taking into consideration among other pertinent factors:

(1) the extent of the applicants financial need to meet its costs of operation to maintain quality educational programs or to meet accreditation requirements;

(2) the actions which the applicant has taken or proposes to take to ameliorate the problem;

(3) the alternatives available to the applicant to meet its need for financial assistance; and

(4) the merit of the applicant's proposed plan to eliminate the long-range need for support under this program.

(b) The amount of any award under this subpart shall be determined by the Secretary on the basis of his estimate of the sum necessary to carry out the purposes of the applicant's approved plan.

(c) All grant awards shall be in writing, shall set forth the amount of funds granted and the period for which such funds will be available for obligation by the grantee, generally a 12-month period.

(d) Neither the approval of any application nor the award of any grant shall commit or obligate the United States in any way to make any additional, supplemental, or other award with respect to any approved plan or portion thereof.

§ 57.2307 Grant payments.

The Secretary shall from time to time make payments to a grantee of all or a portion of any grant award, either in advance or by way of reimbursement for expenses incurred or to be incurred to the extent he determines such payments necessary to promote prompt initiation and advancement of the approved project.

§ 57.2308 Expenditure of grant funds.

(a) Grant funds awarded to schools for the purpose of meeting costs of operation to maintain quality educational programs may be expended in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Act, the regulations of this subpart and the terms and conditions of the award to meet any operating costs of the school during the period for which the grant is made, including the liquidation of obligations incurred either by the grantee or parent institution prior to the date of the grant award to the extent such obligations were incurred for costs properly considered operating costs of the school: Provided however, That such funds shall not be expended for (1) construction as defined in § 57.2302(b) of this part (except that grant funds may be used for alteration and renovation); (2) student aid; or (3) depreciation, amortization or use charges. Such funds will be available for a fixed period set forth on the grant award statement based upon the Secretary's estimate of the time necessary to permit the school to utilize the grant funds to meet such operating costs.

(b) Grant funds awarded to schools for the purpose of meeting accreditation requirements shall be expended solely for carrying out the school's approved plan in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Act, the regulations of this subpart, the terms and conditions of the award and the applicable cost principles prescribed by Subpart Q of 45 CFR Part 74; Provided however, That grant funds may only be used to pay direct costs. Such funds will be available for obligation through the end of the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the grant is sought.

§ 57.230 Nondiscrimination.

(a) Attention is called to the requirements of section 845 of the Act and to 45 CFR Part 83 which together provide that the Secretary may not make a grant, loan guarantee, or interest subsidy payment under Title VIII of the Act to, or for the benefit of any entity unless the application for the grant, loan guarantee, or interest subsidy payment contains assurances satisfactory to the Secretary that the entity will not discriminate on the basis of sex in the admission of individuals to its training programs.

(b) Attention is called to the requirements of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and in particular to section 601 of such Act which provides that no person in the United States shall, on the grounds of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance. A regulation implementing such Title VI, which is applicable to grants made under this subpart, has been issued by the Secretary with the approval of the President (45 CFR Part 80).

(c) Attention is also called to the requirements of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and in particular to section 901 of such Act which provides that no person, shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.

(d) Grant funds used for alteration or renovation shall be subject to the condition that the grantee shall comply with the requirements of Executive Order 11246, 30 FR 12319 (Sept. 24, 1965), as amended, and with the applicable rules, regulations, and procedures prescribed pursuant thereto.

§ 57.2310 Grantee accountability.

(a) Accounting for grant award payments. All payments made by the Secretary shall be recorded by the grantee in accounting records separate from the records of all other funds, including funds derived from other grant awards. With respect to each award the grantee shall account for the sum total of all amounts paid by presenting or otherwise making available evidence satisfactory to the Secretary of expenditures for costs meeting the requirements of this subpart.

(b) Accounting for royalties. Royalties received by grantees from copyrights on publications or other works developed under the grant, or from patents or inventions conceived or first actually reduced to practice in the course of or under such grant shall be accounted for as follows:

(1) Patent royalties, whether received during or after the grant period, shall be governed by agreements between the Assistant Secretary for Health, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, and the grantee, pursuant to the Department's patent regulations (45 CFR Parts 6 and 8).

(2) Copyright royalties, whether received during or after the grant period, shall first be used to reduce the Federal share of the grant to cover the costs of publishing or producing the materials, and any royalties in excess of the costs of publishing or producing the materials shall be distributed in accordance with Chapter 1–420, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare Grants Administration Manual.[2]

[2] The Department of Health, Education, and Welfare Grants Administration Manual is available for public inspection and copying at the Department's and Regional Offices' information centers listed in 45 CFR 5.31 and may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

V 40 65 APR 3 75 XUM

(c) Grant closeout.

(1) Date of final accounting. A grantee shall render, with respect to each approved project, a full account, as provided herein, as of the date of the termination of grant support. The Secretary may require other special and periodic accounting.

(2) Final settlement. There shall be payable to the Federal Government as final settlement with respect to each grant the total sum of (i) any amount not accounted for pursuant to paragraph (a) and (b) of this section and (ii) any other amounts due pursuant to Subparts F, K, and O of 45 CFR Part 74. Such total sum shall constitute a debt owed by the grantee to the Federal Government and shall be recovered from the grantee or its successors or assigns by set off or other action as provided by law.

§ 57.2311 Publications and copyright.

Except as may otherwise be provided under the terms and conditions of the award, the grantee may copyright without prior approval any publications, films, or similar materials developed or resulting from a grant under this part, subject to a royalty-free, nonexclusive, and irrevocable license or right in the Government to reproduce, translate, publish, use, disseminate and dispose of such materials, and to authorize others to do so.

§ 57.2312 Inspection and audit.

Any application for a grant under this subpart shall constitute the consent of the applicant to inspections of the facilities, equipment and other resources of the applicant at reasonable times by the Secretary and the Comptroller General of the United States or any of their duly authorized representatives. In addition, the acceptance of a grant award under this subpart shall constitute the consent of the grantee to inspections and fiscal audits by such persons of the supported activity and of progress and fiscal records relating to the use of grant funds.

§ 57.2313 Applicability of 45 CFR Part 74.

The relevant provisions of the following subparts of 45 CFR Part 74, establishing uniform administrative requirements and cost principles, shall apply to all grants awarded pursuant to this subpart:

Subpart

A General.
B Cash Depositories.
C Bonding and Insurance.
D Retention and Custodial Requirements for Records.
F Grant-Related Income.
K Grant Payment Requirements.
L Budget Revision Procedures.
M Grant Closeout, Suspension, and Termination.
O Property.
Q Cost Principles.

§ 57.2314 Additional conditions.

The Secretary may with respect to any grant impose additional conditions prior to or at the time of any award when in his judgment such conditions are necessary to asure or protect advancement of the approved activity, the interests of the public health or the conservation of grant funds, including where applicable that the school agree (1) to disclose any financial information or data deemed by the Secretary to be necessary to determine the sources or causes of that school's financial distress, (2) to conduct a comprehensive cost analysis study in cooperation with the Secretary, and (3) to carry out appropriate operational and financial reforms on the basis of information obtained in the course of a comprehensive cost analysis study or on the basis of other relevant information.

[Regulations No. 5]

FEDERAL HEALTH INSURANCE FOR THE AGED AND DISABLED

Termination of Inpatient Routine Nursing Salary Cost Differential

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 553), that the amendments to the regulations set forth in tentative form are proposed by the Commissioner of Social Security with the approval of the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

An inpatient routine nursing salary cost differential to recognize the above average costs of inpatient nursing care furnished to Medicare beneficiaries became effective July 1969. However, since that time, there have been changes in the Medicare law, changes in the way services are furnished, and changes in the way in which Medicare reimburses for routine services, and these changes gave rise to a decision to terminate recognition of this cost differential.

First, Pub. L. 92-603, the Social Security Amendments of 1972, 86 Stat. 1329, expanded the scope of Medicare coverage to include a significant number of beneficiaries in the below-age-65 population, that is, certain disabled beneficiaries and those with end-stage renal disease. The larger the segment of the below-age-65 population that is encompassed by the Medicare program, the more appropriate an average routine per diem amount for all beneficiaries (excluding recognition of any differential) becomes.

Secondly, the study originally used in establishing the inpatient nursing salary cost differential indicated that elderly patients received a greater degree of nursing care than did younger ones. Since July 1969, there has been a marked increase in the number of special-care beds (intensive care, coronary care, etc.), providing more intensive nursing care than is found in general routine-care areas, and there has thus been a substantial shift of the intensely ill from general routine-care areas to these special-care units. In addition, a higher percentage of utilization by health insurance program beneficiaries of the special-care units than of general routine-care areas reflects to a significant extent that the nursing care that brought about recognition of the routine nursing differential is now being given in special-care units. These changes were not reflected in the study.

Thirdly, changes in Medicare cost-apportionment requirements, effective January 1, 1972, (20 CFR 405.452(b)) gave special recognition to the greater degree of utilization by health insurance program beneficiaries of these higher-cost special-care units by requiring separate cost-finding and apportionment for these units. At the same time, it was determined that the inpatient nursing salary cost differential did not apply to patients in these units who received this greater level of care.

Therefore, the proposed amendments to the regulations would terminate the inpatient routine nursing salary cost differential.

Prior to the final adoption of the proposed amendments to the regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in triplicate to the Commissioner of Social Security, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare Building, Fourth and Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, D.C. 20201, on or before May 5, 1975.

Copies of all comments received in response to this notice will be available for public inspection during regular business hours at the Washington Inquiries Section, Office of Public Affairs, Social Security Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, North Building, Room 4146, 330 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, D.C. 20201.

Approved: March 25, 1975.

CASPAR W. WEINBERGER,
Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

Regulations No. 5 of the Social Security Administration (20 CFR Part 405) is further amended as set forth below:

Section 405.430 is amended by revising paragraphs (a), (c)(1), and (d)(1) and (2), and the title of paragraph (e)(1) to read as follows:

§ 405.430 Inpatient routine nursing salary cost differential.

(a) Principle. In recognition of the above-average cost of inpatient routine nursing care furnished to aged patients, an inpatient routine nursing salary cost differential is allowable as a reimbursable cost of a provider beginning July 1, 1969, and prior to that provider's first cost-reporting period which begins after the month final regulations become effective. The differential applicable to such inpatient routine nursing salary costs of aged patients for the specified period is allowable and reimbursable at the rate of 8½ percent. Recognition of the differential by the health insurance program is accomplished through an inpatient routine nursing salary cost differential adjustment factor as defined in paragraph (b)(8) of this section.

• • • • •

(c) Application. (1) In the determination of health insurance inpatient routine service costs, the rate of 8½ percent has been established as the inpatient routine nursing salary cost differential for aged, pediatric, and maternity patients. This inpatient routine nursing salary cost differential is applicable to inpatient routine nursing salary costs incurred by a provider after June 30, 1969, and prior to that provider's first cost-reporting period which begins after the month final regulations become effective.

• • • • •

(d) Effective dates. (1) Cost-reporting periods beginning after June 30, 1969, and prior to the month after final regulations become effective. For cost-reporting periods beginning after June 30, 1969, and prior to the month after final regulations become effective, the inpatient routine nursing salary cost differential adjustment factor is applicable for the entire reporting period as an element in the computation of the provider's reimbursable cost.

(2) Cost-reporting periods ending before July 1, 1969, or cost-reporting periods beginning after the month final regulations become effective. For cost-reporting periods ending before July 1, 1969, or cost-reporting periods beginning after the month final regulations become effective, there shall not be included as an element in the computation of the provider's reimbursable costs any inpatient routine nursing salary cost differential adjustment factor.

• • • • •

(e) Examples. (1) Illustration of calculation of differential adjustment factor for a cost-reporting period beginning after June 30 1969, and prior to the month after final regulations become effective.

Coast Guard

[46 CFR Parts 32, 50, 52, 53, 54, 56, 58, 63]

[CGD 73-254]

MARINE ENGINEERING SYSTEMS AND COMPONENTS

Miscellaneous Amendments

The Coast Guard is considering amendments to its regulations for certain marine engineering systems and components.

Interested persons are invited to submit written views, data, arguments, objections or comments to U.S. Coast Guard (G-CMC/82), Room 8234, 400 Seventh Street, SW., Washington, D.C. 20590. All communications received before May 15, 1975, will be fully considered before action is taken on this notice. Each submission should identify the notice (CGD 73-254) and the section, give reasons for any recommendations, and include proponent's name and address.

The proposed amendments may be changed in the light of comments received. The Coast Guard will hold a hearing on April 30, 1975, at 9 a.m. in Conference Room 8334, Department of Transportation, NASSIF Building, 400 Seventh Street SW., Washington, D.C. Interested persons are invited to attend the hearing and present oral or written statements on this proposal. Copies of all written communications will be available for examination at U.S. Coast Guard Headquarters, in Room 8234, 400 Seventh Street, SW., Washington, D.C.

The American National Standard Code for Pressure Piping, ANSI B31.1 Power Piping, published by the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, United Engineering Center, 345 East 47th Street, New York, New York 10017, was adopted in the current Marine Engineering Regulations, 46 CFR parts 50 through 63. The 1973 Code, which was issued on 15 June 1973, entails revisions which require changes to certain paragraphs of the present Marine Engineering Regulations.

The revised ANSI B31.1 contains new requirements for piping systems immediately external to power boilers. These requirements are identical to those previously contained in Section I of the ASME Boiler and Pressure Vessel Code. Section I was adopted in the current Marine Engineering Regulations. When Section I was adopted, exception was taken to the requirements for boiler external piping and separate requirements were promulgated in 46 CFR Parts 52 and 56. It is now proposed to retain these same separate requirements.

ANSI B31.1 requirements for weld reinforcement have been relaxed, and the requirements for preheat and postweld heat treatment have been reorganized editorially and modified to more closely follow Section IX of the ASME Code. It is proposed that these requirements be adopted and, in certain cases, reproduced in Part 56.

ANSI B31.1 requirements for leak tests have been completely rewritten, and it is also proposed that these be adopted with minor changes in scope and, in certain cases, reproduced in Part 56.

Additional miscellaneous changes to ANSI B31.1 which are proposed for adoption include:

a. Restriction on the use of ANSI B16.5 slip-on flanges in all sizes to the 150 and 300-pound classes.

b. Deletion of certain superseded ANSI and MSS Standards.

c. Various changes to state more clearly the intent of present requirements.

Changes are also proposed to the marine engineering regulations in the following areas:

a. Charply V-notch impact tests for certain material forms are to be conducted using transversely oriented specimens in lieu of longitudinal ones. This would ensure greater reproducibility of results, increase the quantity of isotropic base material with suitable toughness in the long transverse direction and bring Coast Guard requirements more in line with those of the American Bureau of Shipping.

b. Charpy V-notch impact testing acceptance for certain high alloy materials are to be based on lateral expansion in lieu of energy. This is in line with recent changes to Part UHA of Section VIII, Division I of the ASME Code for Boilers and Pressure Vessels.

c. Class II and II-L piping are to be permitted inside cargo tanks for Class B and C poisons.

d. The full tabulated value of allowable stress may be used in calculations for Class II piping in lieu of the 80% value currently permitted.

e. The restrictions in § 56.30-20(c) on the use of threaded joints are not to be applicable to hydraulic systems.

f. Main and auxiliary steam stop valves are to be readily accessible and operable by one person. This proposed change results from recent failures to various systems which were complicated by the inaccessibility and difficulty of operation of these valves.

g. Means for draining tank vessel cargo pumps and cargo piping into bilges are to be prohibited. This proposed change results from recent major casualties caused by the misuse of such means. This change will be applicable to all new and existing vessels.

h. Materials that are acceptable for use at low temperatures in accordance with the provisions of Part 54 are clearly indicated to be acceptable for similar use in piping systems.

i. Various superceded MSS Standards are to be deleted.

j. The movements of non-metallic expansion joints are to be clearly limited to the values set by the joint manufacturer.

k. The minimum flash point of fuels permitted to be used in boilers is to be reduced from 150° F to 140° F. This proposed change recognizes the change in flash point resulting from the change from open to closed cup test methods. This is in line with recent changes in the rules of all major Classification Societies.

l. The use of the "A" factor for piping calculations for fluid power systems is to be the same as for all other systems, following the requirements of ANSI B31.1-1973.

m. Subpart 58.30 has been rewritten to clarify which systems are regulated.

n. The scope and title of Subpart 58.50 is to be reworded to clearly indicate the applicability of this subpart to all independent fuel tanks.

o. Part 63 is to be expanded to include requirements for the use of ANSI Z21.22 hot water safety valves. This proposed change parallels the action of various other jurisdictions and standards writing bodies.

V 40165 APR 3 75 XUM

p. Various typographical errors are to be corrected. These mainly involve references to various paragraphs of adopted Codes and Standards.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is proposed to amend Parts 32, 35, 50, 52, 53, 54, 56, 58 and 63 of Title 46 of the Code of Federal Regulations as follows:

PART 32—SPECIAL EQUIPMENT MACHINERY AND HULL REQUIREMENTS

1. In § 32.50–5, the heading has been revised and paragraph (a) is revoked and reserved to read as follows:

§ 32.50–5 Cargo pump gauges on tank vessels constructed on or after November 19, 1936—TB/ALL.

(a) [Reserved]

• • • • •

PART 35—OPERATIONS

§ 35.25–10 [Amended]

2. In § 35.25–10(a), change the figure "150° F" to read "140° F".

PART 50—GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 50.25–30 [Amended]

3. In § 50.25–30, change the last word of the title from "pressures" to "pressure" and change the reference to § 56.35–10 in paragraph (a) to read "§ 56.35–15."

PART 52—POWER BOILERS

§ 52.01–1 [Amended]

4. The table in § 52.01–1(a) is amended by striking lines 8 through 10 which refer to PG–63 through PG–65 and by revising the 5th line to read: "PR–30 through PR–40 modified by ------ 52.10–15".

§ 52.01–90 [Amended]

5. In § 52.01–90(d) change "(Modified PG–5.5.1)" to read "(Modifies PG–5.5)" and in paragraph (e) strike "(Modifies PG–5.5.2)", the entire first sentence and revise the remaining sentence to read:

"Non-ferrous materials are not permitted for pipes up to the first joint on all outlets but are permitted for instrument piping and may be used in blowoff or drain service provided pressure is below 250 pounds per square-inch gage and temperature is below 400° F."

6. In § 52.01–100, by revising the title to read as follows:

§ 52.01–100 Openings and compensation (modifies PG–32 through PG–39, PG–43 through PG–55, replaces PG–42).

7. Add a new paragraph (h) to § 52.01–110 to read as follows:

§ 52.01–110 Water level indicators, water columns, gage glass connections, gage cocks, and pressure gages (modifies PG–60).

• • • • •

(h) (Modifies PG–60) Piping referred to in this section must meet the requirement of Part 56 of this subchapter.

§ 52.05–45 [Amended]

8. In § 52.05–45(b), revise the parenthetical phrase in the last line to read as follows: "(PW–41.1.1–PW–41.1.4)."

§ 52.10–15 [Amended]

9. In § 52.10–15, revise the parenthetical phrase in the heading to read as follows: "(modifies PR–30 through PR–40)".

10. Section 52.20–17 is added to read as follows:

§ 52.20–17 Opening between boiler and safety valve (Modifies PFT–44).

(a) When a discharge pipe is used, it must be installed in accordance with the requirements of Part 56 of this chapter.

PART 53—HEATING BOILERS

§ 53.10–3 [Amended]

11. In § 53.10–3(a), by revising the parenthetical phrase in the last line to read as follows: "(See HG–510 and HC–410 of the ASME Code.)"

PART 54—PRESSURE VESSELS

§ 54.01–1 [Amended]

12. In Table 54.01–1(a), revise the third line to read as follows:

U–1(d) replaced by ------ 54.01–5(a) and 54.01–15 and insert the following new line between the present eighth and ninth lines:
UG–28 modified by ------ 54.01–40.

13. Section 54.05–5(a) is amended by revising the sixth and seventh sentences to read as follows:

§ 54.05–5 Toughness test specimens.

(a) • • • Except where otherwise specified, transversely oriented specimens must be used. When longitudinal specimens are used, the required energy values may not be less than 1.5 times the values required for transversely oriented specimens. • • •

• • • • • •

14. Section 54.05–10 is amended by replacing the fourth and fifth sentences of paragraph (a) with one new sentence and by making an addition to the last sentence of paragraph (d) to read as follows:

§ 54.05–10 Certification of material toughness tests.

(a) • • • The long axis of the Charpy specimen must be perpendicular to the final direction of rolling.

• • • • • •

(d) • • • with the axis of the specimens parallel to the axis of the bar or shape.

15. In § 54.05–17, revise (a)(1), (2), and (3) to read as follows:

§ 54.05–17 Weld toughness test acceptance criteria.

• • • • • •

(a) • • •

(1) For weld metal specimens, not less than the transverse values required for the parent material.

(2) For heat affected zone specimens, when the specimens are transversely oriented, not less than the transverse values required for the parent material.

(3) For heat affected zone specimens, when the specimens are longitudinally oriented, not less than 1.5 times the transverse values required for the parent material.

• • • • • •

16. Section 54.05–20 is revised to read as follows:

§ 54.05–20 Impact test properties for service of 0° F and below.

(a) Test energy. The impact energies of each set of transverse Charpy specimens may not be less than the values shown in Table 54.05–20(a). Only one specimen in a set may be below the required average and the value of that specimen must be above the minimum impact value permitted on one specimen only. See § 54.05–5(c) for retest requirements.

TABLE 54.05–20(a).—Charpy v-notch impact requirements

Size of specimen	Minimum impact value required for average of each set of 3 specimens, foot-pounds [1]	Minimum impact value permitted on one specimen only of a set, foot-pounds
10 x 10 mm	20.0	13.5
10 x 7.5 mm	16.5	11.0
10 x 5 mm	13.5	9.0
10 x 2.5 mm	10.0	6.5

[1] Straight line interpolation for intermediate values is permitted.

(b) Transversely oriented Charpy V-notch impact specimens of ASTM A–203 nickel steels must exhibit energies not less than the values shown in § 54.05–20 (a). Requirements for 9 percent nickel steels are contained in § 54.25–20. Other nickel alloy steels, when specially approved by the Commandant, must exhibit a no-break performance when tested in accordance with the drop weight procedure. If, for such materials, there are data indicating suitable correlation with drop-weight tests, Charpy V-notch tests may be specially considered by the Commandant in lieu of dropweight tests. If the drop-weight test cannot be performed because of material thickness limitations (less than one-half inch), or product shape, or is otherwise inapplicable (because of heat treatment, chemistry etc.) other tests or test criteria will be specified by the Commandant.

(c) Where sufficient data are available to warrant such waiver, the Commandant may waive the requirements for toughness testing austenitic stainless steel materials. Where required, austenitic stainless steels are to be tested using the drop-weight procedure and must exhibit a no-break performance. Where data are available indicating suitable correlation of Charpy V-notch results with drop-weight NDT or no-break performance, Charpy V-notch tests may be specially considered by the Commandant in lieu of dropweight tests. If the dropweight test cannot be performed because of material thickness limitations (less than one-half inch), or product shape, or is otherwise inapplicable (because of heat treatment, chemistry, etc.) other tests and/or test criteria will be specified by the Commandant.

§ 54.05–25 [Reserved]

17. Section 54.05–25 is revoked and reserved.

§ 54.10–17 [Amended]

18. In § 54.10–17, strike out the words "and (5) (ii)" in the first sentence.

§ 54.20–10 [Amended]

19. In § 54.20–10(a), insert a semicolon between the words "radiograph" and "and".

20. Section 54.25–15(b) is amended by making an addition to the last sentence to read as follows:

§ 54.25–15 Low temperature operation-high alloy steels (modifies VHA–23 (b) and UHA–51).

• • • • •

(b) • • • except that the Charpy V-notch testing acceptance criteria will be in accordance with UHT–6(a) (4) and (5) of the ASME Code."

• • • • •

PART 56—PIPING SYSTEMS AND APPURTENANCES

21. A new § 56.01–3 is added to read as follows:

§ 56.01–3 Power boiler external piping (Replaces 100.1.1, 100.1.2, 102.4.7, 111.6, 122.1, 132 and 133).

(a) Piping system components associated with power boilers are covered by the requirements of this part and §§ 52.01–105, 52.01–110, 52.01–115, and 52.01–120.

(b) Specific requirements for power boiler external piping and appurtenances, as defined in §§100.1.1 and 100.1.2, appearing in the various paragraphs of ANSI–B31.1, are, therefore, not adopted unless otherwise specifically indicated elsewhere in this part.

§ 56.01–5 [Amended]

22. The table in § 56.01–5(a) is amended by revising the first line and relocating it between the present third and fourth line to read as follows:

101 through 104.7 modified by ------ 56.07–10

§ 56.04–2 [Amended]

23. In Table § 56.04–2, under "Class B and C poisons [2], amended by striking out the lints "II ------ not permitted; and "II–L ------ not permitted" and inserting the following two lines in place thereof: "II ------ not permitted except inside cargo tanks approved for Class B and C poisons.", and "II–L ------ not permitted except inside cargo tanks approved for Class B and C poisons."

24. In § 56.07–10, the first and second sentence of paragraph (c) and the seventh sentence of paragraph (e) are revised to read as follows:

§ 56.07–10 Design conditions and criteria (modifies 101 through 104.7).

• • • • • •

(c) • • • In Class I, I–L, II–L and nuclear piping systems, where the effect of • • • Where these factors are not considered for such systems, the maximum allowable stress will be 80 percent of the tabulated value for all materials.

• • • • • •

(e) • • • For Class I, I–L, II–L and nuclear piping systems • • •.

25. A new § 56.20–1(d) is added to read as follows:

§ 56.20–1 General.

• • • • • •

(d) Where liquid trapped in a closed valve can be heated, and uncontrollable rise in pressure can result, means must be provided in the design, installation and operation of the valve to ensure that the pressure in the valve does not exceed that allowed by this part for the attained temperature (An example might be a flexible wedge gate valve, installed with the stem horizontal; should the valve be closed while liquid from testing, cleaning or condensation of fluid fills the valve this liquid would be trapped in the bonnet section of the closed valve). Any resulting penetration of the pressure wall of the valve must meet the requirements of this part and of drains in ANSI–B16.5.

§ 56.30–10 [Amended]

26. Section 56.30–10(b)(3) is amended by striking out the words "exceeding 4 inches nominal pipe size" in the first sentence.

(b) Revising the words "or Class II" in the first sentence to read ", Class II, or Class II–L".

(c) And striking out the second sentence entirely.

§ 56.30–20 [Amended]

27. In Table 56.30–20(c) the heading is revised and a second footnote is added to read as follows:

TABLE 56.30–20(c).—THREADED JOINTS [1] [2]:

• • • • • •

28. In § 56.50–15, paragraph (e) is revised to read as follows:

§ 56.50–15 Steam and exhaust piping.

• • • • • •

(e) Main and auxiliary steam stop valves must be readily accessible, operable by one person and arranged to seat against boiler pressure.

• • • • • •

§ 56.50–40 [Amended]

29. Section 56.50–40(a)(1) is amended by striking out the words "and drain" in the first sentence.

30. In § 56.50–60, strike out the last sentence of paragraph (f) and add new paragraphs (g) and (h) to read as follows:

§ 56.50–60 Cargo oil systems and fuel oil systems for boilers and internal combustion engines; transfer systems, and general arrangement.

• • • • • •

(g) Means for draining the cargo pumps and piping into the bilges are not permitted in the pump room.

(h) Test cocks must not be fitted to fuel oil or cargo oil tanks.

31. In § 56.50–97, paragraph (a) is revised to read as follows:

§ 56.50–97 Instrument, control and sampling piping (modifies 122.3).

(a) Instrument, control and sampling piping must comply with paragraph 122.3 of ANSI–B31.1 except that:

(1) Soldered type fittings may not be used

(2) The outside diameter of takeoff connections may not be less than 0.840 inches for service conditions up to 900 psi or 800° F, and 1.050 inches for conditions that exceed either of these limits.

• • • • • •

§ 56.50–105 [Amended]

32. In § 56.50–105(b)(3), strike out the period at the end of the second sentence and add the words "where the weld thickness does not exceed that exempted by this table."

33. In Table 56.50–105, by revising the title to read as follows:

TABLE 56.50–105—ACCEPTABLE MATERIALS AND TOUGHNESS TEST CRITERIA [1]

• • • • • •

§ 56.60–1 [Amended]

34. In Table 56.60–1(a):

(a) In the first item under "Casting", iron:" strike out "UCN–23" and insert "UCD–23" in place thereof;

(b) In Note 13 strike out "UCN–23" and insert "UCD–23" in place thereof;

(c) In Note 14 strike out "UCN3" and insert "UCD–3" in place thereof;

(d) In the second item under "Tubes, seamless and welded," revise the description of A334 to read as follows: "A334 Seamless and welded (no added filler metal) carbon and low alloy tubing for low temperature"; and

(e) In the final item, under "Castings", iron,": strike out "UCN–23" and insert "UCD–23" in place thereof.

35. In Table 56.60–1(b), by:

(a) Strike out the line "B16.2 C.I. Flanges and Fittings 250 lb." under ANSI Standards.

(b) Revise the line "B16.1 ------" under ANSI Standards to read: "B16.1 C.I. Flanges and Fittings—125 and 250 lbs."

(c) Under B16.3, B16.4 and B16.15, strike out "Scd." and insert "Threaded" in place thereof.

[2] Size limits are not applicable to hydraulic systems.

[1] Other material specifications for product forms acceptable under Part 54 for use at low temperatures may also be used for piping systems provided the applicable toughness requirements of this Table are also met.

V 4 0 1 6 5 APR 3 7 5 XUM

(d) Revise the address of the Fluid Controls Institute to read: "(Fluid Controls Institute, Inc., 12 Bank Street, Summit, New Jersey, 07901)"

(e) Strike out the following listed MSS Standards: SP-46, SP-48, SP-49, SP-50, SP-54, SP-59 and SP-63; and by

(f) Add the line "SP-69 Pipe Hangers and Supports—Selection and Application", under MSS Standards.

36. Section 56.60-2 (a) is amended by revising the second sentence to read as follows:

§ 56.60-2 Ferrous materials.

(a) * * * Further limitations on allowable stress values are contained in paragraphs 56.07-10(c) and (e).* * *

37. A new section 56.60-3 is added to read as follows:

§ 56.60-3 Ferrous Materials.

(a) Ferrous pipe used for salt water service must be protected against corrosion by hotdip galvanizing or by the use of extra heavy schedule material.

(b) (Reproduces 123.2.3(c)). Carbon or alloy steel having a carbon content of more than 0.35 percent may not be used in welded construction or be shaped by oxygen cutting process or other thermal cutting process.

38. In § 56.60-5 paragraphs (c) and (e) are revoked and reserved as follows:

§ 56.60-5 Steel (high temperature applications)

(c) [Reserved]

(e) [Reserved]

§ 56.60-10 [Amended]

39. In § 56.60-10(a), in the last sentences by striking out the words "and B16.2."

§ 56.60-15 [Amended]

40. In § 56.60-15(a)(1) is amended in the first sentence by striking out the words ", B16.2."

§ 56.60-25 [Amended]

41. In § 56.60-25(c) is amended by inserting the following sentence before the present final sentence: "Joint movements may not exceed the limits set by the joint manufacturer."

42. Section 56.70-5(a) is revised to read as follows:

§ 56.70-5 Material.

(a) Filler metal. All filler metal, including consummable insert material, must comply with the requirements of section IX, ASME Boiler and Pressure Vessel Code and § 57.02-4 of this subchapter.

43. A new § 56.70-3 is added to read as follows:

§ 56.70-3 Limitations.

(a) Backing rings. Backing strips used at longitudinal welded joints must be removed.

44. Section 56.70-10 is amended by inserting the words "or outside" after the word "inside" in the second sentence of (a)(1)(iii), by revising (a)(3) and by inserting an additional sentence in front of the first sentence of paragraph (b) to read as follows:

§ 56.70-10 Preparation (reproduces 127.3).

(a) * * *

(3) Alignment. The inside diameters of piping components to be joined must be aligned as accurately as practicable within existing commercial tolerances on diameters, wall thicknesses, and out of roundness. Alignment must be preserved during welding. Where ends are to be joined and the internal misalignment exceeds 1/16-inch, it is preferred that the component with the wall extending internally be internally trimmed (see Fig. 127.3.1) so that adjoining internal surfaces are approximately flush. However, this trimming must not reduce a piping component wall thickness below the minimum design thickness and the change in the contour may not exceed 30°.

(b) In making fillet welds, the weld metal must be deposited in such a way as to obtain adequate penetration into the base metal at the root of the weld. * * *

45. Section 56.70-15 is amended as follows:

a. By revising § 56.70-15(b)(1) to read as follows:

§ 56.70-15 Procedure.

(b) Girth butt welds. (1) (Reproduces 127.4.2(a)). Girth butt welds must be complete penetration welds and may be made with a single vee, double vee, or other suitable type of groove, with or without backing rings or consummable inserts."

b. In § 56.70-15(b)(2), by inserting: "* * * (note restrictions in subdivision (iv) of this subparagraph) * * *" between the words "ring" and "on" in the second sentence; and by inserting after the last sentence: "Ultrasonic testing may be utilized in lieu of radiographic examination if the procedures are approved."

c. In § 56.70-15(b)(4), by inserting the following sentence before the last sentence: "Their stopping and starting ends must be properly prepared by grinding or other suitable means so that they may be satisfactorily incorporated into the final weld."

d. By revising § 56.70-15 (b)(5), (b)(6), (c)(2) and (f) to read as follows:

(b) * * *

(5) (Reproduce 127.4(c)). When components of different outside diameters are welded together, the weld joint must be filled to the outside surface of the component having the larger diameter. There must be a gradual transition, not exceeding a slope of 1:3, in the weld between the two surfaces. To avoid unnecessary weld deposit, the outside surface of the component having the larger diameter must be tapered at an angle not to exceed thirty degrees with the axis of the pipe. (See Fig. 127.4.2).

(6) (Modifies 127.4.2(d)). As-welded surfaces are permitted, however, the surface of welds must be sufficiently free from coarse ripple, grooves, overlaps, abrupt ridges and valleys to meet the following:

(i) The surface condition of the finished welds must be suitable for the proper interpretation of radiographic and other nondestructive examinations when nondestructive examinations are required by § 56.95-10. In those cases where there is a question regarding the surface condition on the interpretation of a radiographic film, the film must be compared to the actual weld surface for interpretation and determination of acceptability.

(ii) Reinforcements are permitted in accordance with Table 56.70-15.

(iii) Undercuts must not exceed 1/32-inch and must not encroach on the minimum required section thickness.

(iv) If the surface of the weld requires grinding to meet the above criteria, care must be taken to avoid reducing the weld or base material below the minimum required thickness.

(c) Seal welds. * * *

(2) The limitation on cracks and undercutting set forth in § 56.70-15(b)(8) for girth welds are also applicable to seal welds.

(f) Weld deject repairs (Reproduces 127.4.11c. (1) All defects in welds requiring repair must be removed by flame or arc gouging, grinding, chipping, or machining. Repair welds must be made in accordance with the same procedure used for original welds or by another welding process if it is a part of a qualified procedure, recognizing that the cavity to be repaired may differ in contour and dimensions from the original joint. The types, extent and method of examination and limits of imperfections of repair welds must be the same as for the original weld.

(2) Preheating may be required for flame-gouging or arc-gouging on certain alloy materials of the air hardening type in order to prevent surface checking or cracking adjacent to the flame or arc-gouged surface.

e. In § 56.70-15(g)(2), by inserting the words "and F" after the words "Fig. 127.4.8D" in the last sentence.

f. In § 56.70-15(g)(3), in the first sentence by inserting the words "and F" after the words "Fig. 127.4.8D", and by inserting "t_c=dimension of partial penetration weld, inches." as a separate line after "$t_{c\,min}$=the smaller of t_c or t_n."

(g) In § 56.70-15(g)(4), by striking out the period at the end of the first sentence and inserting the words ", except as otherwise permitted in subparagraph 56.70-15(g)(7) of this paragraph."

(h) By adding a new § 56.70-15(g)(7) as follows:

(7) Branch connections 2 in. NPS and smaller that do not require reinforcement may be constructed as shown in Fig. 127.4.8F of ANSI B31.1. This construction is limited to use in Class I and II piping systems at a maximum design temperature of 750°F or a maximum pressure of 1025 psi."

(i) By adding a new Table 56.70-15 as follows:

§ 56.70-15 Procedure.

* * * * * *

TABLE 56.70-15.—Reinforcement of girth and longitudinal butt welds

Thickness of base metal (inches)	Maximum thickness of reinforcement for design temperature (inches) below 0° F. or above—

Up to 1/8, inclusive	1/16	3/32	3/16
Over 1/8 to 3/16, inclusive	1/16	1/8	3/16
Over 3/16 to 1/4, inclusive	1/16	5/32	3/16
Over 1/4 to 1, inclusive	1/8	3/16	3/16
Over 1 to 2, inclusive	1/8	1/4	1/4
Over 2	1/32	(1)	(1)

(1) The greater of 1/4 in or 1/8 times the width of the weld in inches.

NOTES

1. For double welded butt joints, this limitation on reinforcement given above applies separately to both inside and outside surfaces of the joint.
2. For single welded butt joints, the reinforcement limits given above apply to the outside surface of the joint only.
3. The thickness of weld reinforcement is based on the thickness of the thinner of the materials being joined.
4. The weld reinforcement thicknesses must be determined for the higher of the abutting surfaces involved.
5. For boiler external piping use the column titled "Below 0° F. or above 750° F. for weld reinforcement thicknesses.

46. Section 56.80-15(e) is amended by inserting the word "heat" between the words "the" and "treatment" and by adding the following new paragraph (g) as follows:

§ 56.80-15 Heat treatment of bends and formed components.

* * * * * *

(g) (Reproduces 129.3.6). Austenitic stainless steel pipe that has been heated for bending or other forming may be used in the "as-bent" condition unless the design specification requires post bending heat treatment.

47. Section 56.85-10 is amended by revising paragraphs (a) and (b) and Table 56.85-10 and by revoking and reserving paragraph (d) to read as follows:

§ 56.85-10 Preheating.

(a) The minimum preheat temperatures listed in Table 56.85-10 for P-number materials groupings are mandatory minimum pre-heat temperatures. Preheat is required for Class I, I-L, I-N, II-N and II-L piping when the ambient temperature is below 50°F.

(b) (Modifies 131.2.2) When welding dissimilar materials the minimum preheat temperature may not be lower than the highest temperature listed in Table 56.85-10 for any of the materials to be welded or the temperature established in the qualified welding procedure.

For P-7, P-9A, P-9B, P-10C and other materials not listed the Preheat and Postheat Treatment is to be in accordance with the qualified procedure.

Notes Applicable To Table 56.85-10:

(1) Not applicable to dissimilar metal welds.

(2) When postheat treatment by annealing or normalizing is used, the postheat treatment temperatures must be in accordance with the qualified welding procedure.

(3) Wall thickness of a butt weld is defined as the thicker of the two abutting ends after end preparation including I.D. machining.

(4) The thickness of socket, fillet, and seal welds is defined as the throat thicknesses for pressure and nonpressure retaining welds.

(5) Preheat temperatures must be checked by use of temperature indicating crayons, thermocouple pyrometers, or other suitable method.

(6) For inert gas tungsten arc root pass welding lower preheat in accordance with the qualified procedure may be used.

(7) The maximum postheat treatment temperature listed for each P number is a recommended maximum temperature.

(8) Postheat treatment temperatures must be checked by use of thermocouple pyrometers or other suitable means.

(9) Heating rate for furnace, gas, electric resistance, and other surface heating methods must not exceed: (i) 600°F per hour for thicknesses 2 inches and under.

(ii) 600°F per hour divided by 1/2 the thickness in inches for thickness over 2 inches.

(10) Heating route for induction heating must not exceed:

(i) 600°F per hour for thickness less than 1½ inches (60 and 400 cycles).

(ii) 500°F per hour when using 60 cycles and 400°F per hour when using 400 cycles for thicknesses 1¼ inches and over.

(11) When local heating is used, the weld must be allowed to cool slowly from the postheat treatment temperature. A suggested method of retarding cooling is to wrap the weld with asbestos and allow to cool in still air. When furnace cooling is used, the pipe sections must be cooled in the furnace to 1000°F and may then be cooled further in still air.

(12) Local postheat treatment of butt welded joints must be performed on a circumferential band of the pipe. The minimum width of this band, centered on the weld, must be the width of the weld plus 2 inches.

Local postheat treatment of welded branch connections must be performed by heating a circumferential band of the pipe to which the branch is welded. The width of the heated band must extend at least 1 inch beyond the weld joining the branch.

(13) 0.30 C. max applies to specified ladle analysis.

(14) 600°F maximum interpass temperature.

(15) Welding on P-3, P-4, and P-5 with 3 Cr max. may be interrupted only if—

(i) At least 3/8 inch thickness of weld is deposited or 25 percent of welding groove is filled, whichever is greater;

(ii) The weld is allowed to cool slowly to room temperature; and

(iii) The required preheat is resumed before welding is continued.

(16) When attaching welding carbon steel non-pressure parts to steel pressure parts and the throat thickness of the fillet or partial or full penetration weld is 1/2 in. or less, post heat treatment of the fillet weld is not required for Class I and II piping if preheat to a minimum temperature of 175° F is applied when the thickness of the pressure part exceeds 3/4 in.

V 40 165 APR 3 75 XUM

(17) For Class I–L and II–L piping systems, relief from postweld heat treatment may not be dependent upon wall thickness. See also paragraphs 56.50–105(a)(3) and 56.50–105(b)(3) of this chapter.

§ 56.85–15 [Amended]

48. Section 56.85–15 as follows:

(a) By striking the first sentence of paragraph (a) and by inserting the words "pressure retaining" after "Where" in the existing second sentence.

(b) By amending the last sentence of § 56.85–15(d) to read "• • • band heating of welded joints in accordance with § 56.85–15(j)(3) and note (12) of Table 56.85–10."

(c) By revoking and reserving § 56.85–15(f), (g) and (h).

(d) In § 56.85–15(i), by revising the parenthetical expression to read "(Reproduces 131.3.4)" and by amending the last sentence to read "• • • wall thickness is ¾ in. or less, postheat treatment is not required."

(e) By revoking and reserving § 56.85–15(j)(1) and 56.85–15(j)(2).

(f) By revising § 56.85–15(j)(3) to read as follows:

§ 56.85–15 Postheat treatment.

• • • • • •

(j) • • •

(3) In local postheat treatment the entire band must be brought up to uniform specified temperature over the complete circumference of the pipe section, with a gradual diminishing of the temperature outward from the edges of the band.

• • • • • •

49. By revising Section 56.97–1:

§ 56.97–1 General (replaces 137).

(a) Scope. The requirements in this subpart apply to pressure tests of piping in lieu of 137 of ANSI–B31.1. Those paragraphs reproduced are so noted.

(b) Leak tightness. It is mandatory that the design, fabrication and erection of piping coordinated under the regulations in this subchapter demonstrate leak tightness. Except where otherwise permitted in this subpart, this requirement must be met by a hydrostatic leak test prior to initial operations. Where a hydrostatic test is not practicable, a pneumatic test (section 56.97–35) or initial service leak test (section 56.97–38) may be substituted if approved by the Commandant.

(1) At no time during the hydrostatic test may any part of the piping system be subjected to a stress greater than 90 percent of its yield strength (0.2 percent offset) at test temperature.

(2) Pneumatic tests may be used in lieu of the required hydrostatic test (except as permitted in subparagraph (3) below), only when—

(i) piping subassemblies or systems are so designed or supported that they cannot be safely filled with water;[1] or

(ii) piping subassemblies or systems are to be used in services where traces of the testing medium cannot be tolerated and, whenever possible, the piping subassemblies or system have been previously hydrostatically tested to the pressure required in paragraph 56.97–30(e).

(3) A pneumatic test at a pressure not to exceed 25 psig may be applied before a hydrostatic or a pneumatic test as a means of locating major leaks. The preliminary pneumatic test must be carried out in accordance with the requirements of section 56.97–35.

NOTE.—Compressed gas is hazardous when used as a testing medium. It is, therefore, recommended that special precautions for protection of personnel be taken whenever gas under pressure is used as the test medium.

(4) The hydrostatic test of the piping system, when conducted in accordance with the requirements of this part, is acceptable as the test for piping subassemblies and may also be used in lieu of any such test required by the material specification for material used in the piping subassembly or system provided the minimum test pressure required for the piping system is met, except where the installation would prevent performing any nondestructive examination required by the material specification to be performed subsequent to the hydrostatic or pneumatic test.

50. Section 56.97–25 is revised to read as follows:

§ 56.97–25 Preparation for testing (Reproduces 137.3).

(a) Exposure of joints. All joints including welds must be left uninsulated and exposed for examination during the test.

(b) Addition of temporary supports. Piping systems designed for vapor or gas may be provided with additional temporary supports, if necessary, to support the weight of the test liquid.

(c) Restraint or isolation of expansion joints. Expansion joints must be provided with temporary restraint, if required for the additional pressure load under test, or they must be isolated from the test.

(d) Isolation of equipment not subjected to pressure test. Equipment that is not to be subjected to the pressure test must be either disconnected from the piping subassembly or system or isolated by a blank flange or similar means. Valves may be used if the valve with its closure is suitable for the proposed test pressure.

(e) Treatment of flanged joints containing blinds. Flanged joints at which blinds are inserted to blank off other equipment during the test need not be tested.

(f) Precautions against test medium expansion. If a pressure test is to be maintained for a period of time and the test medium in the system is subject to thermal expansion, precautions must be taken to avoid excessive pressure. A small relief valve set to 1⅓ times the test pressure is recommended during the pressure test.

51. Section 56.97–30 is revised to read as follows:

§ 56.97–30 Hydrostatic tests (Reproduces 137.4).

(a) Provision of air vents at high points. Vents must be provided at all high points of the piping subassembly or system in the position in which the test is to be conducted to purge air pockets while the component or system is filling.

(b) Test medium and test temperature.

(1) Water must be used for a hydrostatic leak test.

(2) The temperature of the material and the test medium must be 70° or above.

(c) Check of test equipment before applying pressure. The test equipment must be examined before pressure is applied to ensure that it is tight and that all low-pressure filling lines and other items that should not be subjected to the test pressure have been disconnected or isolated by valves or other suitable means.

(d) Examination for leakage after application of pressure. Following the application of the hydrostatic test pressure for a minimum of 10 minutes (see § 56.97–30(g)), examination for leakage must be made of all joints, connections and of all regions of high stress, such as regions around openings and thickness-transition sections.

(e) Minimum required hydrostatic test pressure. Except as otherwise permitted in § 56.97–30(f) or § 56.97–40, piping systems must be subjected to a hydrostatic test pressure that at every point in the system is not less than 1.5 times the maximum allowable working pressure.

(f) Maximum permissible hydrostatic test pressure. (1) When a system is tested hydrostatically, the test pressure must not exceed the maximum test pressure of any component such as vessels, pumps, or valves in the system.

(2) At no time during the hydrostatic test may any part of the piping system be subjected to a stress greater than 90 percent of its yield strength (0.2 percent offset) at test temperature.

(g) Hydrostatic test pressure holding time. The hydrostatic test pressure must be maintained for a minimum total time of 10 minutes and for such additional time as may be necessary to conduct the examination for leakage required by paragraph 56.97–30(d).

52. Section 56.97–35 is revised to read as follows:

§ 56.97–35 Pneumatic tests (Replaces 137.5).

(a) General Requirements. When a pneumatic test is performed, it must be conducted in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(b) Test medium and test temperature. (1) The gas used as the test medium must not be flammable.

(2) The temperature of the material and the test medium must be 70°F or above.

(c) Check of test equipment before applying pressure. The test equipment must be examined before pressure is applied to ensure that it is tight and that all items that should not be subjected to the test pressure have been disconnected or isolated by valves or other suitable means.

(d) Procedure for applying pressure. The pressure in the system must gradually be increased to not more than one-half of the test pressure, after which the pressure is increased in steps of approximately one-tenth of the test pressure until the required test pressure has been reached.

(e) Examination for leakage after application of pressure. Following the application of pressure for the time specified in § 56.97–35(h), examination for leakage in accordance with paragraph 56.97–30(d) must be conducted.

(f) Minimum required pneumatic test pressure. Except as provided in § 56.97–35(g) or § 56.97–40, the pneumatic test pressure may not be less than 1.20 nor more than 1.25 times the maximum allowable working pressure of the piping subassembly system.

(g) Maximum permissible pneumatic test pressure. When a system is tested pneumatically, the test pressure may not exceed the maximum test pressure of any component such as vessels, pumps or valves in the system.

(h) Pneumatic test pressure holding time. The pneumatic test pressure must be maintained for a minimum total time of 10 minutes and for such additional time as may be necessary to conduct the examination for leakage required in paragraph 56.97–30(d).

53. A new § 56.97–38 is added to read as follows:

§ 56.97–38 Initial service leak test (Reproduces 137.7).

(a) An initial service leak test and inspection is acceptable when other types of test are not practical or when leak tightness is conveniently demonstrable due to the nature of the service. One example is turbine extraction piping where shut-off valves are not available for isolating a line and where temporary closures are impractical. Others may be systems for service water, low pressure condensate, plant and instrument air, etc., where checking out of pumps and compressors afford ample opportunity for leak tightness inspection prior to fullscale operation.

(b) The piping system must be gradually brought up to design pressure. After inspection of the piping system has proven that the installation is complete and all joints are leak-tight, the piping has met the requirements of section 56.97–1.

54. In § 56.97–40(c), the end of the sentence is revised to read: "• • • test, section 56.97–38."

PART 58—MAIN AND AUXILIARY MACHINERY AND RELATED SYSTEMS

55. Section 58.01–15 is amended by revising the figure "150° F" to read "140° F."

[1] These tests may be made with the item being tested partially filled with water, if desired.

56. In § 58.30–1(a) a new subparagraph (14) is added to read as follows:

§ 58.30–1 Scope.

• • • • • •

(a) • • •

(14) Any other hydraulic or pneumatic system on board that, in the judgment of the Commandant, constitutes a hazard to the seaworthiness of the ship or the safety of personnel either in normal operation or in case of failure.

• • • • • •

57. In § 58.30–1(b) is revised to read as follows:

§ 58.30–1 Scope.

• • • • • •

(b) Other fluid power and control systems do not have to comply with the detailed requirements of this Subpart but must meet the requirements of § 58.30–50.

58. In § 58.30–5(a); by revising the first sentence to read as follows:

§ 58.30–5 Design requirements.

(a) The requirements of Part 56 are also applicable, except as modified herein. • • •

§ 58.30–15 [Amended]

59. Section 58.30–15(d) is amended by: Placing a period after "6" in the first sentence and deleting the remainder of the sentence and changing the second sentence to read: "• • • acceptable to the Commandant using the allowable stress values specified in paragraph 56.07–10(e) of this subchapter."

60. Section 58.30–40 is revised to read as follows:

§ 58.30–40 Plans.

(a) Diagrammatic plans and lists of materials must be submitted for each of the fluid power and control systems listed in paragraph 58.30–1(a) that is installed on the vessel. Plan submission must be in accordance with Subpart 50.20 of this Subchapter and must include the following:

(1) The purpose of the system.

(2) Its location on the vessel.

(3) The maximum allowable working pressure.

(4) The fluid used in the system.

(5) The velocity of the fluid flow in the system.

(6) Details of the system components in accordance with paragraph 56.01–10(d) of this subchapter.

61. A new § 58.30–50 is added to read as follows:

§ 58.30–50 Requirements for miscellaneous fluid power and control systems.

(a) All fluid power and control systems installed on a vessel, except those listed in § 58.30–1(a), must meet the following requirements:

(1) Diagrams of the system providing the information required by § 58.30–40(a)(1) through (4) must be submitted. These are not approved but are needed for records and for evaluation of the system in accordance with § 58.30–1(a)(14).

(2) The hydraulic fluid used in the system must comply with § 58.30–10.

(3) The installed system must be tested in accordance with § 58.30–35(c)(2).

(4) All pneumatic cylinders must comply with § 48.30–30.

(5) Additional plans may be required for "fail-safe" equipment and for cargo hatch systems with alternate means of operation.

62. In § 58.50 the title is revised to read as follows:

§ 58.50 Independent fuel tanks.

• • • • • •

63. Section 58.50–1(a) is revised to read as follows:

§ 58.50–1 General requirements.

(a) The regulations in this subpart contain requirements for independent fuel tanks.

• • • • • •

64. A new § 58.30–50 is added to read as follows:

§ 58.30–50 Requirements for miscellaneous fluid power and control systems.

(a) All fluid power and control systems installed on a vessel, except those listed in paragraph 58.30–1(a), must meet the following requirements:

(1) Diagrams of the system providing the information required by § 58.30–40(a)(1) through (4) must be submitted. These are not approved but are needed for records and for evaluation of the system in accordance with § 58.30–1(a)(14).

(2) The hydraulic fluid used in the system must comply with § 58.30–10.

(3) The installed system must be tested in accordance with § 58.30–35(c)(2).

(4) All pneumatic cylinders must comply with § 58.30–30.

(5) Additional plans may be required for "fail-safe" equipment and for cargo hatch systems with alternate means of operation."

65. In § 58.50 the title is revised to read as follows:

§ 58.50 Independent fuel tanks.

• • • • • •

66. Section 58.50–1(a) is revised to read as follows:

§ 58.50–1 General requirements.

(a) The regulations in this subpart contain requirements for independent fuel tanks.

• • • • • •

PART 63—CONTROL SYSTEMS FOR AUTOMATIC AUXILIARY HEATING EQUIPMENT

67. In § 63.01–5 a new paragraph (f) is added to read as follows:

§ 63.01–5 Adoption of standards and specifications.

• • • • • •

(f) American National Standards Institute (ANSI). The standards of the American National Standards Institute, referenced in this part are adopted and form a part of this subchapter.

68. By revising Section 63.15–30 is revised to read as follows:

§ 63.15–30 Temperature-pressure relief devices.

(a) A suitable temperature-pressure relief valve must be provided which will operate to relieve the pressure in the water tank to prevent a pressure rise of more than 3 pounds per square inch above the maximum allowable working pressure and to prevent a temperature rise above 210°F with the heating elements operating continuously at the maximum rating.

(b) Temperature-pressure relief valves meeting the requirements of ANSI standard Z 21.22 must be utilized.

COST ACCOUNTING STANDARDS BOARD

[4 CFR Part 351]

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Basic Requirements

The Cost Accounting Standards Board today is proposing certain changes to its regulations. These changes pertain to the requirement for the filing of Disclosure Statements by prime contractors and subcontractors, revision of the procedures for the submission of changes to Disclosure Statements, and clarification of the requirement for reporting annual sales data.

Public Law 91–379, which applies to certain negotiated prime contracts and subcontracts, requires that contractors shall disclose in writing their cost accounting practices. The Disclosure Statement Forms, CASB–DS–1 and CASB–DS–2, have been designed to facilitate the meeting of this requirement by contractors. On February 29, 1972, the Board established an initial requirement for the submission of Disclosure Statements by contractors. This requirement provided that any company which, together with its subsidiaries received net awards of negotiated national defense prime contracts during Federal fiscal year 1971 totaling more than $30 million had to file a Disclosure Statement. Under that requirement, 94 companies submitted to the Government a total of 1,041 Disclosure Statements for their business units.

On October 4, 1973, the Board published a revision to the Disclosure Statement filing requirement providing that, effective April 1, 1974, any company which, together with its subsidiaries, received more than $10 million in negotiated national defense prime contracts of the type subject to Cost Accounting Standards in Federal fiscal year 1972 or 1973 was required to file a Disclosure Statement. Under that reduced threshold, by January 31, 1975, 60 additional companies had submitted 210 Disclosure Statements to the Government.

The purpose of this publication is first to propose that effective July 1, 1975, any company which together with its subsidiaries, received negotiated national defense prime contracts subject to Cost Accounting Standards totaling more than $10 million in Federal fiscal years 1974 or 1975, be required to submit a Disclosure Statement. Using statistics maintained by the Department of Defense, the Board estimates that about 24 companies which have not heretofore submitted Disclosure Statements would meet this requirement on the basis of the contracts they received in Federal fiscal years 1974 or 1975. The Board estimates that these companies would submit about 50 Disclosure Statements to the Government.

When the Board published its October 4, 1973, amendment to its disclosure regulations, it announced that future requirements might require the inclusion of the value of subcontract awards in determining whether or not a company met the requirement to make disclosure. Contractors and subcontractors were encouraged to begin to identify and accumulate the value of such awards separately. The Board is announcing today that beginning with Federal fiscal year 1976, firms shall include the amount of both prime contract and subcontract awards in the computation to determine whether or not a company meets the requirement to make disclosure.

The Board is also proposing today that effective July 1, 1976, any company which together with its subsidiaries, received negotiated national defense prime contracts and subcontracts subject to Cost Accounting Standards totaling more than $10 million in Federal fiscal year 1976 or which receives such awards in any subsequent Federal fiscal year, would be required to submit a Disclosure Statement. The submission of a statement by any company meeting the above requirements would be required prior to receipt of the first award subject to Cost Accounting Standards after the Federal fiscal year in which the company met the requirement.

Any company which has submitted or was required to submit a Disclosure Statement to the Government under the previously announced filing requirements by virtue of having received a covered contract shall remain subject to those requirements so long as it has any contract subject to Cost Accounting Standards. Disclosure Statements on file with the Government must be maintained in current form by these companies.

Section 351.120(d) of the Board's regulations now requires that whenever less than five items in the Disclosure Statement on file are changed, only a letter notice identifying the specific items being amended and the nature of the changes need be sent to the appropriate Government offices. That section further provides that whenever five or more items are changed, the entire Disclosure Statement must be resubmitted.

In some instances where five or more items have been changed and an entire Disclosure Statement has been resubmitted only a few pages in the Statement contain changes. Consequently, contractors contend they are experiencing unnecessary reproduction and submission costs for the unchanged pages. Also, Government offices are receiving the unchanged pages together with the pages on which changes have been made. The Board is therefore proposing a revision to its regulations to require contractors to submit only the Disclosure Statement pages on which changes have been made. Contractors would still be required to identify the items being changed. The proposed regulations would require the submission of a cover sheet and certification each time changes are made to Disclosure Statements. The proposal also would enable procurement agencies to issue regulations prescribing criteria under which a contractor may be required to submit a complete, updated Disclosure Statement.

The proposed changes to the regulations would apply to both forms of the Disclosure Statement—that being used by commercial contractors (DS–1) and the one being used by colleges and universities (DS–2). In the instructions for preparation and processing of Disclosure Statements, paragraph 6 of DS–1 and paragraph 5 of DS–2 deal with the subject of amendments. Those paragraphs would be superseded by the proposed change and would be modified when the forms are next reprinted.

The Board is also proposing clarifying amendments to § 351.120(d) of its regulations relating to procedures for reporting contractors' sales data in Disclosure Statement. Only when such data change would there be a need for reporting sales information.

The foregoing proposed changes are limited to those areas in which the Board considers clarification or change is warranted at the present time. From time to time the Board may announce further changes in the criteria for applicability of the disclosure requirement.

The Cost Accounting Standards Board solicits comments on the proposed amendments presented below. Interested persons should submit their comments to the Cost Accounting Standards Board, 441 G Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20548. To be given consideration by the Board in its deliberations relative to this proposal, written submissions must arrive no later than June 6, 1975. All written submissions made pursuant to this notice will be made available to the public for inspection at the Board's offices during regular business hours.

The following modifications to Part 351 of the Board's regulations are proposed in view of the foregoing:

1. Delete § 351.40(e) and § 351.41 and add new § 351.40(e) and (f) as follows:

§ 351.40 Filing requirement.

* * * * * *

(e) Any company which together with its subsidiaries received net awards of negotiated national defense prime contracts subject to Cost Accounting Standards totaling more than $10 million in Federal fiscal year 1974 or 1975, must submit a completed Disclosure Statement.

(f) Effective July 1, 1976, any company which together with its subsidiaries received net awards of negotiated national defense prime contracts and subcontracts subject to Cost Accounting Standards totaling more than $10 million in Federal fiscal year 1976, or which receives such awards in any subsequent Federal fiscal year, must submit a completed Disclosure Statement.

§ 351.41 [Removed]

2. Delete § 351.50 (a) and (c) and modify § 351.50 by adding new paragraphs (a), (c) and (d) as follows:

§ 351.50 Contract Awards.

(a) Effective July 1, 1975, no relevant Federal agency shall award any national defense contract subject to this regulation to any contractor required to submit a Disclosure Statement under § 351.40, unless such submission has been made or post award submission has been authorized pursuant to § 331.60.

* * * * *

(c) Any company which has submitted a Disclosure Statement to the Government under previously effective filing requirements shall remain subject to this section so long as it has any contract subject to Cost Accounting Standards.

(d) Any company which was obligated to submit a Disclosure Statement to the Government under previously effective filing requirements by virtue of having received a covered contract shall be subject to this section so long as it has any contract subject to Cost Accounting Standards.

3. Revise § 351.120(d) and add a new paragraph (e) as follows:

§ 351.120 Amendment to Disclosure Statement.

* * * * *

(d) Amendments shall be submitted to the same offices, including the Cost Accounting Standards Board, to which submission would have to be made were an original Disclosure Statement being filed. Revised responses for Items 1.4.0 through 1.7.0, 8.1.0 or 8.2.0 must be submitted at the beginning of the contractor's fiscal year only if the response to an item in the Disclosure Statement on file requires a change. If the contractor's sales were such that it would check the same boxes in the Disclosure Statement, resubmission of responses concerning these particular items is not required.

(e) For each revision of the Disclosure Statement (addition, change or deletion), only the pages containing such revision shall be resubmitted. Each resubmission shall include a new cover sheet and a signed certification. In the first line of Item 0.4 of the cover sheet, companies shall enter the date of the revision. On the next line of Item 0.4 the date of the last cover sheet that was submitted shall be entered. The numbers of the pages being revised and submitted with the cover sheet shall be entered immediately above the certification. The upper right corner of each revised page being submitted shall be marked "Revised" and dated with the date shown in the first line of Item 0.4. Companies shall enter in the right margin of each page, an asterisk (*) alongside each line containing a revision. For continuation sheets, asterisks may be used in the right margin to identify revised material. Agencies may prescribe criteria under which submission of a complete, updated Disclosure Statement will be required.

ARTHUR SCHOENHAUT,
Executive Secretary.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR Part 73]

[Docket No. 20400; RM–2362]

FM BROADCAST STATIONS

Table of Assignments; Louisiana

In the matter of amendment of § 73.202 (b), Table of Assignments, FM Broadcast Stations. (Crowley, Louisiana) Docket No. 20400 RM–2362.

1. Petitioner, Proposal and Comments. (a) Petition for rule making filed January 30, 1974, by KSIG Broadcasting Co., Inc. proposing assignment of FM Channel 249A to Crowley, Louisiana, as its second FM assignment.

(b) This channel may be assigned without affecting any existing FM assignment. The transmitting antenna for a station operating on Channel 249A must be located south and east of the center of Crowley in order to meet the mileage separation requirements.

2. Demographic Data.—(a) Location. Crowley, the seat of Acadia Parish, is approximately 20 miles west of Lafayette and 48 miles east of Lake Charles.

(b) Population: 1970 Census—Crowley—16,104; Acadia Parish 52,109. 1960 Census—Crowley 15,617; Acadia Parish 49,931.

(c) Present local broadcast service. Local service is provided by petitioner's AM Station KSIG (Class IV, unlimited time) and KAJN (Class II, daytime AM). Crowley is assigned vacant FM Channel 275 for which three license applications are pending (BPH–8459, BPH–8616, and BPH–8803).

(d) Economic conditions. Petitioner alleges that the community is a growing one. It cites five examples of construction projects to support the allegation. Crowley is located in a region where the types of agricultural products grown command high market prices. Petitioner alleges that these facts indicate expansion of Crowley's economy in the future.

3. Preclusions. Adoption of petitioner's proposal would cause preclusion on Channels 248 and 249A. The preclusion that would occur on Channel 248 would affect a very small marshland area located along the Louisiana coast. This potentially precluded area contains no communities. The co-channel preclusion would affect an area in which there is only one community, Kaplan (pop. 5540) located in Vermilion Parish (pop. 43,071). Kaplan is presently without local aural broadcast service. Petitioner should, in its comments, address the question of whether an alternate FM channel is available for future assignment at Kaplan.

4. Additional Considerations. (a) We note that adoption of petitioner's request would result in the intermixture of classes of FM channels at Crowley. Petitioner should address this issue in its response comments.

(b) Petitioner states that an additional channel should be assigned to Crowley, Louisiana in order that immediate FM service be available at that community. Petitioner alleges that the second assignment is necessary because there are three applications pending for a license to operate on Crowley's currently assigned and unoccupied Channel 275 (BPH–8459, BPH–8616, and BPH–8803). The petitioner should cite Commission precedent for this action in its response comments.

(c) We also note that petitioner fails to state that it would apply for a license to operate on Channel 249A should it be assigned to Crowley. In order to comply with Commission policy, we request that petitioner and any other person come forward and affirmatively state that intention.

5. In light of the above, the Commission proposes to amend the FM Table of Assignments, § 73.202(b) of the Commission's rules and regulations, as follows:

City	Channel No.
	Present	Proposed
Crowley, La.	275	249A, 275

6. The Commission's authority to institute rule making proceedings, showings required, cut-off procedures, and filing requirements are contained below and are incorporated herein.

7. Interested parties may file comments on or before May 16, 1975, and reply comments on or before June 4, 1975.

8. It is ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall send copies of this Notice of Proposed Rule Making to the construction permit applicants for Channel 275, KSIG Broadcasting Company, Inc., Rice Capital Broadcasting Company, and Southwest Louisiana Radio Broadcasting Company, Inc.

Adopted: March 18, 1975.

Released: March 26, 1975.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] WALLACE E. JOHNSON,
Chief, Broadcast Bureau.

1. Pursuant to authority found in sections 4(i), 5(d)(1), 303 (g) and (r), and 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 0.281(b)(6) of the Commission's Rules, it is proposed to amend the FM Table of Assignments, Section 73.202(b) of the Commission's

V 40 65 APR 3 75 XUM

Rules and Regulations, as set forth in the above notice of proposed rule making.

2. Showings required. Comments are invited on the proposal discussed in the above notice of proposed rule making. In initial comments, proponent will be expected to answer whatever questions are presented in the Notice. The proponent of the proposed assignment is expected to file comments even if he only resubmits or incorporates by reference its former pleadings. He should also restate his present intention to apply for the channel if it is assigned, and, if authorized, to build the station promptly. Failure to file may lead to denial of the request.

3. Cut-off procedures. The following procedures will govern the consideration of filings in this proceeding.

(a) Counterproposals advanced in this proceeding itself will be considered, if advanced in initial comments, so that parties may comment on them in reply comments. They will not be considered, if advanced in reply comments. (See § 1.420(d) of Commission rules.)

(b) With respect to petitions for rule making which conflict with the proposal in this Notice, they will be considered as comments in the proceeding, and Public Notice to this effect will be given as long as they are filed before the date for filing initial comments herein. If filed later than that, they will not be considered in connection with the decision in this docket.

4. Comments and reply comments; service. Pursuant to applicable procedures set out in §§ 1.415 and 1.420 of the Commission's rules and regulations, interested parties may file comments and reply comments on or before the dates set forth in the above notice of proposed rule making. All submissions by parties to this proceeding or persons acting on behalf of such parties must be made in written comments, reply comments, or other appropriate pleadings. Comments shall be served on the petitioner by the person filing the comments. Reply comments shall be served on the person(s) who filed comments to which the reply is directed. Such comments and reply comments shall be accompanied by a certificate of service. (See § 1.420 (a), (b) and (c) of the Commission's rules.)

5. Number of copies. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.419 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and fourteen copies of all comments, reply comments, pleadings, briefs, or other documents shall be furnished the Commission.

6. Public inspection of filings. All filings made in this proceeding will be available for examination by interested parties during regular business hours in the Commission's Public Reference Room at its headquarters, 1919 M Street NW., Washington, D.C.

FM BROADCAST STATIONS

Table of Assignments, New York

In the matter of amendment of § 73.202 (b), Table of assignments, FM Broadcast Stations. (Woodstock and Delhi, New York) Docket No. 20399, RM-2358.

1. On April 2, 1974, Woodstock Communications, Inc. (Communications), filed a petition with this Commission requesting the assignment of FM Channel 261A to Woodstock, New York. No other revisions in our Table of Assignments were proposed.

2. Public notice of the petition was given by the Commission on April 16, 1974. An opposition was timely filed by Hudson-Westchester Radio, Inc. (Radio Inc.), licensee of AM Station WGHQ and FM Station WGHQ-FM located at Kingston, New York. A timely reply to the opposition was filed by petitioner. The petition and the said timely filed responses will be considered in connection with the commencement of this rule making proceeding.[1]

3. Woodstock, New York (population 1,073[2]) is located in Ulster County (population 141,241). Woodstock has neither a standard broadcast station nor an FM channel assignment.

4. Woodstock is approximately 10 miles from Kingston, New York, which is the seat of Ulster County. The area's significant business activities are music recording, art galleries, manufacturing and tourism. A number of Woodstock's citizens work at nearby plants such as Ferroxcube and IBM.[3]

5. Radio Inc., in its opposition, points out that the transmitter location proposed by petitioner is halfway between Woodstock and Kingston and alleges that petitioner's goal in establishing the proposed station is to furnish an additional service to, and competition for the advertising dollar of, the citizens of Kingston. Radio Inc. suggests that the multiple Kingston stations are not presently economically healthy and that the additional service will therefore be inappropriate.[4] Radio Inc. goes on to maintain that Woodstock already has sufficient broadcast service from Kingston and that some of the Kingston stations' programming is specifically directed to the citizens of Woodstock. It combines this allegation with the fact that the assignment of Channel 261A to Woodstock would preclude its assignment to Delhi, New York, a community of 3,017 residents,[5] which has no FM assignment or AM service originating in it, to arrive at the proposal that Channel 261A be assigned to Delhi rather than to Woodstock.

6. Communications' response to the opposition asserts that Radio Inc. opposes the assignment of Channel 261A to Woodstock and recommends its assignment to Delhi solely to avoid competition for the advertising dollar in the Woodstock area of New York and that this is done at the proposed cost of depriving Woodstock's citizens of their own first local service. With respect to the allegation that the proposed Woodstock station would be in fact a Kingston station Communications announces that its proposed transmitter site, halfway between Woodstock and Kingston (five miles from each), has been chosen because it appears to be one of the most desirable locations, from an engineering viewpoint, to serve Woodstock and its contiguous area. It goes on to state that it expects the proposed station to be licensed to Woodstock and meet the requirement of such a license to serve that community. With regard to Radio Inc.'s proposal that Channel 261A be assigned to Delhi rather than to Woodstock, petitioner indicates that a need and present demand for a first local service has been demonstrated at Woodstock while neither has been proven in connection with the channel's possible assignment to Delhi. Petitioner claims, at any rate, that a channel other than Channel 261A can be found for assignment to Delhi if an interest in establishing a station in that community ultimately arises. The filing concludes by pointing out that Delhi receives, or will receive, five aural broadcast services from the communities of Oneonta and Walton, New York.

7. Our engineering study indicates that the proposed assignment of Channel 261A to Woodstock precludes further assignments solely on Channel 261A and that in an area west of Woodstock in which the only community larger than 2,500 persons is Delhi, New York. Assignment of the channel to Delhi, would, of course, preclude its assignment to Woodstock. Assignments on adjacent channels are presently precluded by existing assignments.

6. We have carefully considered the pleadings in this matter and have come to the tentative conclusion that both Woodstock and Delhi, New York may each merit a first local FM assignment. We are only being consistent with previously announced policies and findings when we point out that truly local broadcast service for any community is a service located within that community and/or licensed to that community. In

[1] Radio Inc. filed a late engineering response to petitioner's reply to the opposition. Communications filed a statement objecting to the late-filed engineering statement of Radio Inc. and in its turn filed a late supplement to the petition for rule making. The acceptance of the late-filed supplement was objected to by Radio Inc. Petitioner responded with a filing to the said objection of Radio Inc. In light of both parties' objections to late filings and the fact that all interested parties will have an opportunity to comment on the proposals as set forth in this rule making proceeding as well as the existence of our rules requiring timely filings we judge that it is inappropriate and unnecessary to consider any of the late filings tendered in this matter and will not do so.

[2] Population figures are from the 1970 U.S. Census.

[3] For a detailed history of the Woodstock area of New York see Appendix A to the petition for rule making in this proceeding.

[4] Kingston, New York has assigned FM Channels 232A and 249A—WGHQ-FM and WHVW-FM, respectively. WHVW-FM is licensed at Hyde Park, New York. Standard broadcast Stations WGHQ (daytime-only), WKNY and WKOT (daytime-only) are also licensed in the community which has a population of 25,544.

[5] Delhi is the seat of Delaware County, population 44,718.

light of the material presented in this case, neither Woodstock nor Delhi can be said to have a local broadcast voice. In view of the facts presently before us we find it in the public interest to propose the assignment of Channel 261A, in the alternative, to either Woodstock or Delhi, New York.

9. With the above material and public interest finding before us, we propose, for consideration, the following revisions in our FM Table of Assignments (§ 73.202(b) of our rules) with respect to the cities listed below:

City	Channel No.
	Present	Proposed
Woodstock, N.Y.		261A
Delhi, N.Y. or Woodstock, N.Y.
Delhi		261A

10. In commenting on the above proposals advocates of the assignment of Channel 261A to Woodstock should, if possible, indicate an FM assignment for Delhi. Advocates of the assignment of Channel 261A to Delhi should, if possible, indicate an FM assignment for Woodstock.

11. Comments in this proceeding must be filed on or before May 16, 1975; reply comments must be filed on or before June 4, 1975.

12. Authority for the institution of this rule making proceeding and the procedural rules and regulations governing it are set out below and incorporated by reference herein.

Adopted: March 18, 1975.

Released: March 26, 1975.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] WALLACE E. JOHNSON,
Chief, Broadcast Bureau.

1. Pursuant to authority found in sections 4(i), 5(d)(1), 303 (g) and (r), and 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 0.281(b)(6) of the Commission's rules, it is proposed to amend the FM Table of Assignments, § 73.202(b) of the Commission's rules and regulations, as set forth in the notice of proposed rule making above.

2. Showings required. Comments are invited on the proposal discussed in the notice of proposed rule making above. In initial comments, proponent will be expected to answer whatever questions are presented in the notice. The proponent of the proposed assignment is expected to file comments even if he only resubmits or incorporates by reference its former pleadings. He should also restate his present intention to apply for the channel if it is assigned, and, if authorized, to build the station promptly. Failure to file may lead to denial of the request.

3. Cut-off procedures. The following procedures will govern the consideration of filings in this proceeding.

(a) Counterproposals advanced in this proceeding itself will be considered, if advanced in initial comments, so that parties may comment on them in reply comments. They will not be considered, if advanced in reply comments. (See § 1.420(d) of Commission rules.)

(b) With respect to petitions for rule making which conflict with the proposal in this notice, they will be considered as comments in the proceeding, and Public Notice to this effect will be given as long as they are filed before the date for filing initial comments herein. If filed later than that, they will not be considered in connection with the decision in this docket.

4. Comments and reply comments; service. Pursuant to applicable procedures set out in §§ 1.415 and 1.420 of the Commission's rules and regulations, interested parties may file comments and reply comments on or before the dates set forth in the Notice of Proposed Rule Making to which this Appendix is attached. All submissions by parties to this proceeding or persons acting on behalf of such parties must be made in written comments, reply comments, or other appropriate pleadings. Comments shall be served on the petitioner by the person filing the comments. Reply comments shall be served on the person(s) who filed comments to which the reply is directed. Such comments and reply comments shall be accompanied by a certificate of service. (See § 1.420 (a), (b) and (c) of the Commission rules.)

5. Number of copies. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.419 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and fourteen copies of all comments, reply comments, pleadings, briefs, or other documents shall be furnished the Commission.

6. Public inspection of filings. All filings made in this proceeding will be available for examination by interested parties during regular business hours in the Commission's Public Reference Room at its headquarters, 1919 M Street NW., Washington, D.C.

[Docket No. 20398; RM-2306]

FM BROADCAST STATIONS

Table of Assignments; Oregon

In the matter of amendment of § 73.202 (b), Table of Assignments, FM Broadcast Stations. (Albany and Toledo, Oregon) Docket No. 20398, RM-2306.

1. Petitioner, proposal and comments. Notice of proposed rule making is hereby given concerning amendment of the FM Table of Assignments (§ 73.202(b) of the Commission's rules and regulations) as concerns Albany and Toledo, Oregon.

(a) A petition for rule making was filed on behalf of Linn-Benton Broadcasters, Inc. (LBBI) Albany, Oregon, proposing the delegation of unoccupied Channel 296A at Toledo, and the subsequent assignment of that channel to Albany. Public notice of the filing of the petition was issued on February 4, 1974 (Report No. 895).

(b) On February 5, 1974, a further pleading was filed on behalf of the petitioner. Entitled "Supplement to Petition for Rule Making", the document included a copy of a letter directed to the petitioner by Mr. Charles Farmer, owner of Class IV AM Station KTDO, Toledo, which indicated that KTDO had no immediate plans to seek authorization for operation of a station on the Channel 296A assignment in Toledo.

2. Demographic data—(a) Albany—(1) Location. Albany is the seat of Linn County, Oregon. It is located approximately 70 miles due south of Portland, Oregon, and 42 miles north of Eugene, Oregon.

(2) Population. Albany—18,181; Linn County—71,914 (1970 U.S. Census).

(3) Local Broadcast Service. Albany presently has three local aural services consisting of daytime-only AM Station KRKT, which is licensed to the petitioner; KWIL, an unlimited-time AM station; and KHPE, Channel 300, a Class C FM station. Both KWIL and KHPE are licensed to Albany Radio Corporation.

(4) Industry. National leader in the production of assorted varieties of grass seeds; lumber; non-metallic mineral mining (sand, gravel, and stone).

(5) Economic. Retail sales: Albany—$54,000,000; Linn County—$105,352,000. Albany is served by 3 banks and 2 savings and loan institutions. Bank deposits exceed $60,600,000.

3. Proposed Service. Petitioner states that a station operating on Channel 296A with maximum power and antenna height would provide Albany with a fourth local aural service and a third nighttime aural service. LBBI admits that the proposal raises a question of "intermixture" involving Class A and Class C FM stations, but justifies the request on the basis of an engineering study which reveals that no other channel is available for use in the Albany area.[1]

Assignment of Channel 296A to Albany would require the transmitter site to be located 7 miles south of Albany in order to satisfy the mileage separation requirements as to Channel 294 assigned to Oregon City, Oregon, but presently occupied by Station KQIV at Lake Oswego.

4. Preclusions.

295: In small area not already precluded by 296A at Toledo. There is no community with population of 1,000 or more in this area.

296A: New preclusion area is sparsely populated. With the exception of Cottage Grove (pop. 6,004) there is no community with population of 1,000 or more in this area. Cottage Grove is assigned 237A which is presently unoccupied.

297: No community with population of 1,000 or more in the new preclusion area.

298: No new significant preclusion area.

5. Proposed Amendment to FM Table of Assignments. (a) In light of the above, the Commission proposes to amend the FM Table of Assignments, § 73.202(b), with regard to the communities of Albany and Toledo, Oregon as follows:

[1] Cases considering this issue include: Yakima, Wash., 42 F.C.C. 2d 548 (1973); Lebanon, Mo., 43 F.C.C. 2d 1130 (1973); Marion, Ohio, 45 F.C.C. 2d 565 (1974); Jackson, Tenn., 49 F.C.C. 2d 785 (1974). Compare Tupelo, Miss., 42 F.C.C. 2d 884 (1973).

City	Channel No.
	Present	Proposed
Albany, Oreg.	300	300, 296A
Toledo, Oreg.	296A

6. Question Raised. Comments on the following question are requested from all interested parties:

(a) whether the public interest, convenience, and necessity would be served by the "intermixture" of Class A and Class C FM channels as proposed.

7. The Commission's authority to institute rule making proceedings, showings required, cut-off procedures, and filing requirements are contained below and are incorporated herein.

8. Interested parties may file comments on or before May 16, 1975, and reply comments on or before June 4, 1975.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] WALLACE E. JOHNSON,
Chief, Broadcast Bureau.

1. Pursuant to authority found in sections 4(i), 5(d)(1), 303 (g) and (r), and 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 0.281(b)(6) of the Commission's Rules, it is proposed to amend the FM Table of Assignments, § 73.202(b) of the Commission's rules and regulations, as set forth in the above notice of proposed rule making.

2. Showings required. Comments are invited on the proposal discussed in the above notice of proposed rule making. In initial comments, proponent will be expected to answer whatever questions are presented in the Notice. The proponent of the proposed assignment is expected to file comments even if he only resubmits or incorporates by reference its former pleadings. He should also restate his present intention to apply for the channel if it is assigned, and, if authorized, to build the station promptly. Failure to file may lead to denial of the request.

3. Cut-off procedures. The following procedures will govern the consideration of filings in this proceeding.

(a) Counterproposals advanced in this proceeding itself will be considered, if advanced in initial comments, so that parties may comment on them in reply comments. They will not be considered, if advanced in reply comments. (See § 1.420(d) of Commission rules.)

(b) With respect to petitions for rule making which conflict with the proposal in this Notice, they will be considered as comments in the proceeding, and Public Notice to this effect will be given as long as they are filed before the date for filing initial comments herein. If filed later than that, they will not be considered in connection with the decision in this docket.

4. Comments and reply comments; service. Pursuant to applicable procedures set out in §§ 1.415 and 1.420 of the Commission's rules and regulations, interested parties may file comments and reply comments on or before the dates set forth in the above notice of proposed rule making. All submissions by parties to this proceeding or persons acting on behalf of such parties must be made in written comments, reply comments, or other appropriate pleadings. Comments shall be served on the petitioner by the person filing the comments. Reply comments shall be served on the person(s) who filed comments to which the reply is directed. Such comments and reply comments shall be accompanied by a certificate of service. (See § 1.420 (a), (b) and (c) of the Commission rules.)

5. Number of copies. In accordance with the provisions of Section 1.419 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations, an original and fourteen copies of all comments, reply comments, pleadings, briefs, or other documents shall be furnished the Commission.

6. Public inspection of filings. All filings made in this proceeding will be available for examination by interested parties during regular business hours in the Commission's Public Reference Room at its headquarters, 1919 M Street NW., Washington, D.C.

FM BROADCAST STATIONS

Table of Assignments, Mo.

In the matter of amendment of § 73.202(b), table of assignments, FM broadcast stations; (Jefferson City, Missouri).

1. PETITIONER, PROPOSAL AND COMMENTS

Petitioner: George E. Bryant.

Proposal: Assign FM Channel 269A to Jefferson City, Missouri.

Comments: This channel may be assigned as proposed without affecting any existing assignments. However, the antenna must be located 3 miles west of Jefferson City.

2. LOCATION, POPULATION AND PRESENT AURAL SERVICE

Location: Jefferson City, the capital of Missouri, is located in Callaway and Cole counties and is the seat of the latter county. It lies near the center of the State approximately 105 miles west of St. Louis.

Population: Jefferson City 32,407; Callaway County 25,850; Cole County 46,228. (All population figures are from the 1970 U.S. Census.)

Present Aural Service: Jefferson City has two full-time AM stations (Class III, Station KLIK and Class IV Station KWOS) and 2 occupied commercial FM assignments (Class A Station KJMO and Class C Station KJFF).

3. PRECLUSION CONSIDERATIONS

Channels Precluded: No adjacent channel preclusion will result from the proposed assignment. However, the proposal would preclude future assignments of co-channel 269A to four communities with populations greater than 2,500 persons:

California, Mo. (pop. 3,105; Moniteau County 10,742), has no local aural service;

Columbia, Mo. (pop. 58,804; Boone County 80,911) is served locally by full-time Class IV AM Station KFRU; daytime-only AM Station KTGR; and Class A stations KTGR-FM and KFMZ(FM);

Mexico, Mo. (pop. 11,807; Andrian County 25,362) is served locally by full-time Class IV AM Station KXEO and Class C Station KWWR-FM; and Centralia, Mo. (pop. 3,618; Boone County 80,811) has no local aural service.

Comments: Bryant indicates his awareness of the fact that the proposed assignment would provide Jefferson City with one assignment more than our population criteria call for at cities with populations of less than 50,000 persons (i.e., 1 or 2 assignments), but contends that area economic and growth statistics support such an assignment. We are told that as the capital of Missouri, Jefferson City's big industry has been government. In recent years, private industry with substantial payrolls have been attracted to Jefferson City by its central location, good roads, rail transportation and barge transportation on the Missouri River. Three newly located industries employ 1,956 persons. Information obtained by the petitioner from the Office of City Public Works for Jefferson City shows a 23.6 percent increase in the number of electric meters from 1966 to 1974. Bryant states that in the period from 1970 to 1973, retail sales increased 55 percent. He states that these population criteria are not immutable standards and cites cases in which the Commission has made assignments in excess of those called for by these criteria. However, the main reason given by the Commission for making most of those assignments was that the channel requested could not be assigned elsewhere. Channel 269A could be assigned to one of the above four communities if it is not assigned to Jefferson City. Mexico has an occupied assignment; Columbia has two occupied assignments; Bryant states that Channel 232A can be assigned to California if the transmitter site is located approximately 3 miles north or northwest of the community. Our concern is, therefore, with Centralia which has no local aural service. Bryant should, therefore, indicate whether there are channels available for assignment to this community.

4. We believe that Bryant has made a sufficient public interest showing to warrant issuance of a notice of proposed rule making.

5. Accordingly, the Commission proposes to amend § 73.202(b) of the Commission's Rules, the FM Table of Assignments as follows:

§ 73.202 Table of assignments.

• • • • • •

(b) • • •

City	Channel No:
	Present	Proposed
Jefferson City, Mo.	261A, 295	261A, 295, 269A

• • • • • •

6. The Commission's authority to institute rule making proceedings; showing required; cut-off procedures; and filing requirements are contained in the attached Appendix and are incorporated into this Notice of Proposed Rule Making.

7. Interested parties may file comments on or before May 19, 1975, and reply comments on or before June 9, 1975.

Adopted: March 21, 1975.

Released: March 28, 1975.

APPENDIX

1. Pursuant to authority found in sections 4(i), 5(d)(1), 303 (g) and (r), and 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 0.281(b)(6) of the Commission's rules, it is proposed to amend the FM Table of Assignments, § 73.202(b) of the Commission's rules and regulations, as set forth in the notice of proposed rule making to which this Appendix is attached.

2. Showings required. Comments are invited on the proposal discussed in the notice of proposed rule making to which this Appendix is attached. In initial comments, proponent will be expected to answer whatever questions are presented in the Notice. The proponent of the proposed assignment is expected to file comments even if he only resubmits or incorporates by reference its former pleadings. He should also restate his present intention to apply for the channel if it is assigned, and, if authorized, to build the station promptly. Failure to file may lead to denial of the request.

3. Cut-off procedures. The following procedures will govern the consideration of filings in this proceeding.

(a) Counterproposals advanced in this proceeding itself will be considered, if advanced in initial comments, so that parties may comment on them in reply comments. They will not be considered, if advanced in reply comments. (See § 1.420(d) of Commission Rules.)

(b) With respect to petitions for rule making which conflict with the proposal in this Notice, they will be considered as comments in the proceeding, and Public Notice to this effect will be given as long as they are filed before the date for filing initial comments herein. If filed later than that, they will not be considered in connection with the decision in this docket.

4. Comments and reply comments; service. Pursuant to applicable procedures set out in §§ 1.415 and 1.420 of the Commission's rules and regulations, interested parties may file comments and reply comments on or before the dates set forth in the Notice of Proposed Rule Making to which this Appendix is attached. All submissions by parties to this proceeding or persons acting on behalf of such parties must be made in written comments, reply comments, or other appropriate pleadings. Comments shall be served on the petitioner by the person filing the comments. Reply comments shall be served on the person(s) who filed comments to which the reply is directed. Such comments and reply comments shall be accompanied by a certificate of service. (See § 1.420 (a), (b) and (c) of the Commission rules.)

5. Number of copies. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.419 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and fourteen copies of all comments, reply comments, pleadings, briefs, or other documents shall be furnished the Commission.

6. Public inspection of filings. All filings made in this proceeding will be available for examination by interested parties during regular business hours in the Commission's Public Reference Room at its headquarters, 1919 M Street NW., Washington, D.C.

TELEVISION SERVICE FOR STATE OF NEW JERSEY

Order Extending Time for Filing Comments and Reply Comments

In the matter of petition for inquiry into the need for adequate television service for the State of New Jersey.

1. On January 30, 1975, the Commission adopted a notice of inquiry and notice of proposed rule making in the above-entitled proceeding. Publication was given in the Federal Register on February 12, 1975, 40 Fed. Reg. 6513. The dates for filing comments and reply comments are presently April 14 and May 14, 1975, respectively.

2. On March 20, 1975, Metromedia, Inc., by its attorneys, requested that the time for filing comments be extended to and including June 13, 1975. Metromedia states that the notice raises a number of fundamental and complex issues relating to the present level of television service enjoyed by New Jersey residents and various alternative methods for increasing such service. It adds that it intends to submit factual data relating to existing television program service, and technical limitations upon making additional and/or different television assignments, but that it cannot do so within the time period presently prescribed.

3. We are of the view that the public interest would be served by extending the time in this proceeding. Accordingly, it is ordered, That the dates for filing comments and reply comments are extended to and including June 13, 1975, and July 11, 1975, respectively.

4. The action is taken pursuant to authority found in sections 4(i), 5(d)(1), and 303(r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and §§ 0.281 and 1.46 of the Commission's rules.

Adopted: March 26, 1975.

Released: March 28, 1975.

FEDERAL ENERGY ADMINISTRATION

[10 CFR Part 213]

ALLOCATIONS FOR THE PERIOD BEGINNING MAY 1, 1975

Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Under the Mandatory Oil Import Program established pursuant to Proclamation No. 3279, as amended, the next allocation period for imports not subject to license fees under section 3(a)(1)(i)-(ii) of the Proclamation will commence on May 1, 1975. Section 8 of the Proclamation provides that for this allocation period, the maximum levels of imports subject to allocation and license, to which license fees under section 3(a)(1)(i)-(ii) shall not be applicable, shall be reduced to eighty percent (80%) of the levels established during the calendar year 1973. In accordance with Proclamation No. 3279, as amended, the Federal Energy Administration (FEA) hereby proposes to amend Part 213 of Chapter II, Title 10 of the Code of Federal Regulations, to provide for the commencement of the next allocation period, and to reduce accordingly the levels of fee-exempt allocations.

Virtually no substantive changes are proposed with respect to regulations governing the current allocation period apart from those required by the Proclamation, although the closing date for applications for allocations has been changed from March 31 to April 21 preceding the allocation period, and § 213.28 (Canadian imports-Districts I-IV) has been revised to reflect amendments to § 213.33 which is currently in effect with respect to Canadian imports.

Interested persons are invited to participate in this rulemaking by submitting data, views, or arguments with respect to the proposed regulations set forth in this notice to Executive Communications, Room 3309, Federal Energy Administration, Box CQ, Washington, D.C. 20461.

Comments should be identified on the outside of the envelope and on documents submitted to FEA Executive Communications with the designation "Allocations For the Period Beginning May 1, 1975." Twenty-five copies should be submitted. All comments received by 4:30 e.d.t. April 15, 1975, and all relevant information, will be considered by the Federal Energy Administration before final action is taken on the proposed regulations. Any information or data considered by the person furnishing it to be confidential must be so identified and submitted in writing, one copy only. The FEA reserves the right to determine the confidential status of the information or data and to treat it according to that determination.

The public hearing in this proceeding will be held at 9:30 a.m. on Monday, April 14, 1975 in Room 2105, 2000 M Street NW., Washington, D.C., in order to receive comments from interested persons on the matters set forth herein.

Any person who has an interest in the proposed amendments issued today, or who is a representative of a group or class of persons that has an interest in today's proposed amendments, may make a written request for an opportunity to make oral presentation. Such a request should be directed to Executive Communications, FEA, and must be received before 4:30 p.m., Tuesday e.d.t. on April 8, 1975. Such a request may be hand delivered to Room 3309, Federal Building, 12th & Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D.C., between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. The person making the request should be prepared to describe the interest concerned; if appropriate, to state why he is a proper representative of a group or class of persons that has such an interest; and to give a concise summary of the proposed oral presentation and a phone number where he may be contacted through April 11, 1975. Each person selected to be heard will be so notified by the FEA before 4:30 p.m., e.d.t., April 10, 1975 and must submit 100 copies of his statement to Allocations Regulations Development Office, FEA, Room 2214, 2000 M Street NW., Washington D.C. before 4:30 p.m., e.d.t., on April 11, 1975.

The FEA reserves the right to select the persons to be heard at these hearings, to schedule their respective presentations and to establish the procedures governing the conduct of the hearings. The length of each presentation may be limited, based on the number of persons requesting to be heard.

An FEA official will be designated to preside at the hearings. These will not be judicial or evidentiary type hearings. Questions may be asked only by those conducting the hearings, and there will be no cross-examination of persons presenting statements. Any decision made by the FEA with respect to the subject matter of the hearings will be based on all information available to the FEA. At the conclusion of all initial oral statements, each person who has made an oral statement will be given the opportunity, if he so desires, to make a rebuttal statement. The rebuttal statements will be given in the order in which the initial statements were made and will be subject to time limitations.

Any interested person may submit questions, to be asked of any person making a statement at the hearings, to Executive Communications, FEA, before 4:30 p.m., e.d.t., April 11, 1975. Any person who wishes to ask a question at the hearings may submit the question, in writing, to the presiding officer. The FEA or the presiding officer, if the question is submitted at the hearings, will determine whether the question is relevant, and whether the time limitations permit it to be presented for answer.

Any further procedural rules needed for the proper conduct of the hearings will be announced by the presiding officer.

A transcript of the hearings will be made and the entire record of the hearings, including the transcript, will be retained by the FEA and made available for inspection at the Administrator's Reception Area, Room 3400, Federal Building, 12th & Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D.C., between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Any person may purchase a copy of the transcript from the reporter.

Since these proposed amendments merely implement Proclamation No. 3279, as amended, FEA does not anticipate that the comments received will lead to substantial changes in the final regulations. Therefore, in view of the fact that the amended regulations can become final only a few days prior to the April 21 deadline for application, importers are encouraged to file applications on the basis of these proposed amendments. FEA will hold such applications for processing as soon as the amended regulations become effective.

As required by section 7(c)(2) of the Federal Energy Administration Act of 1974, a copy of this notice has been submitted to the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency for his comments concerning the impact of this proposal on the quality of the environment. The Administrator had no comments on this proposal.

L. 87-794, as amended; Proclamation No. 3279, 24 FR 1781, as amended by Proclamation No. 4210, 38 FR 9645, Proclamation No. 4227, 38 FR 16195, Proclamation No. 4317, 39 FR 35103, Proclamation No. 4341, 40 FR 3956, and Proclamation No. 4355, 40 FR 10437)

In consideration of the foregoing, it is proposed to amend Part 213, Chapter II of Title 10 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as set forth below.

Issued in Washington, D.C., March 31, 1975.

ROBERT E. MONTGOMERY, Jr.
General Counsel,
Federal Energy Administration.

1. Section 213.5 is amended in paragraph (a) to read as follows:

§ 213.5 Applications for allocations and licenses.

(a) Applications for all allocations not subject to license fee of imports of crude oil, unfinished oils, or finished products for the allocation period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976, except for applications made pursuant to § 213.10, must be filed with the Director in such form as he may prescribe, not later than April 21, 1975.

* * * * *

2. Section 213.9 is amended in paragraphs (a), (b), and (f) to read as follows:

§ 213.9 Allocations; petrochemical plants; Districts I-IV and District V.

(a) For the allocation period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976, each eligible person with a petrochemical plant in Districts I-IV shall receive an allocation not subject to license fee but subject to supplemental fee of imports of crude oil and unfinished oils equal to the average barrels per day of petrochemical plant inputs to his petrochemical plants in these districts during the calendar year 1974 multiplied by 11.2 percent × .80.

(b) For the allocation period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976, each eligible person with a petrochemical plant in District V shall receive an allocation not subject to license fee but subject to supplemental fee of imports of crude oil and unfinished oils equal to the average barrel per day of petrochemical plant inputs to his petrochemical plants in this district during the calendar year 1974, multiplied by 11.9 percent × .80.

* * * * *

(f) Pursuant to section 3A of Presidential Proclamation 3279, as amended by Proclamation 4175, interim allocations were made for the allocation period January 1, 1973 through December 31, 1973 to all persons who had received an allocation under former section 9 of Oil Import Regulation 1 (now § 213.9) for the allocation period January 1, 1972 through December 31, 1972. To the extent that such interim allocations were not charged against and deducted from the regular allocation made to a person pursuant to former section 9 for the allocation periods starting January 1, 1973 and extending through April 30, 1975, such interim allocation will be charged against and deducted from the allocation made under this section for the period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976.

3. Section 213.12 is amended in paragraphs (a), (b), and (e) to read as follows:

§ 213.12 Allocations; refiners; Districts I-IV and the Virgin Islands.

(a) For the allocation period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976, the Director shall make allocations not subject to license fee but subject to supplemental fee as provided in paragraph (b) of this section and within the quantities available under applicable levels established in Proclamation 3279, as amended, of imports into Districts I-IV among eligible persons having refinery capacity in these districts or the Virgin Islands. With respect to the Virgin Islands qualified refinery inputs shall be limited to crude oil charged to the refinery.

(b) Each eligible applicant shall receive an allocation not subject to license fee but subject to supplemental fee of imports of crude oil based on refinery inputs for the calendar year ending December 31, 1974. The allocation shall be computed according to the following schedule:

Average barrels per day input	Percent of input		Number of days
0 to 10,000	21.7		.....
10 to 30,000	13.0		.....
30 to 100,000	7.6		.....
100,000 plus	3.8	×	366

In addition, any imports of crude oil available for allocation pursuant to this section but not allocated pursuant to the above schedule shall be allocated to each eligible applicant in the same proportion that each eligible applicant's allocation as determined pursuant to the above schedule bears to the total of imports of crude oil allocated pursuant to the above schedule; however, no person shall receive an allocation in excess of 100 percent of such person's refinery inputs.

* * * * *

(e) Pursuant to section 3A of Presidential Proclamation 3279, as amended by Proclamation 4175, interim allocations were made for the allocation period January 1, 1973 through December 31, 1973 to all persons who had received an allocation under § 213.12 for the allocation period January 1, 1972 through December 31, 1972. To the extent that such interim allocations were not charged against and deducted from the regular allocation made to a person pursuant to § 213.12 for the allocation periods starting January 1, 1973 and extending through April 30, 1975, such interim allocation will be charged against and deducted from the allocation made under this section for the period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976.

• • • • •

4. Section 213.13 is amended in paragraphs (a), (b), and (e) to read as follows:

§ 213.13 Allocations; refiners; District V; Guam and American Samoa.

(a) For the allocation period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976, the Director shall allocate, as provided in paragraph (b) of this section and within the quantities available under applicable levels established in Proclamation 3279, as amended, imports into District V among eligible persons having refinery capacity in that district, Guam or American Samoa. With respect to Guam or American Samoa, qualified refinery inputs shall be limited to crude oil charged to the refinery.

(b) Each eligible applicant shall receive an allocation not subject to license fee but subject to supplemental fee of imports of crude oil based on refinery inputs for the calendar year ending December 31, 1974. The allocation shall be computed according to the following schedule:

Average barrels per day input		Percent of input	Number of days
0 to 10,000	×	67.5
10 to 30,000	×	16.9
30,000 plus	×	5.6	× 366

In addition, any imports of crude oil available for allocation pursuant to this section but not allocated pursuant to the above schedule shall be allocated to each eligible applicant in the same proportion that each eligible applicant's allocation as determined pursuant to the above schedule bears to the total of imports of crude oil allocated pursuant to the above schedule; however, no person shall receive an allocation in excess of 100 percent of such person's refinery inputs.

• • • • •

(e) Pursuant to section 3A of Presidential Proclamation 3279, as amended by Proclamation 4175, interim allocations were made for the allocation period January 1, 1973 through December 31, 1973 to all persons who had received an allocation under § 213.13 for the allocation period January 1, 1972 through December 31, 1972. To the extent that such interim allocations were not charged against and deducted from the regular allocation made to a person pursuant to § 213.13 for the allocation periods starting January 1, 1973 and extending through April 30, 1974, such interim allocation will be charged against and deducted from the allocation made under this section for the period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976.

5. Section 213.15 is amended in paragraph (d) to read as follows:

§ 213.15 Allocations of residual fuel oil—District I.

• • • • •

(d) For the allocation period May 1, 1974 through April 30, 1975, each eligible applicant under this section shall receive an allocation not subject to license fee but subject to supplemental fee of imports of residual fuel oil into District I to be used as fuel in District I computed according to the following formula:

Applicant's average B/D allocation made pursuant to §.213.15 for the allocation period May 1, 1974 through April 30, 1975.
Average B/D allocations made pursuant to § 213.15 to all applicants for the allocation period May 1, 1974 to April 30, 1975. × 2,320,000 B/D

• • • • •

6. Section 213.16 is amended in paragraph (a) to read as follows:

§ 213.16 Finished products.

(a) For the allocation period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976, there is allocated to the Department of Defense 16,000 average barrels per day of imports of finished products not subject to license fee but subject to supplemental fee into Districts I–IV and 6,000 average barrels per day of imports of finished products not subject to license fee but subject to supplemental fee into District V. For the same allocation period, there is allocated 15,000 average barrels per day of imports of finished products not subject to license fee but subject to supplemental fee into Districts I–IV pursuant to Section 9 of Proclamation No. 3279, as amended, as that relates to the long-term allocation in subparagraph (5) of paragraph (k) of section 11 of the Proclamation.

7. Section 213.20 is amended in subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) as follows:

§ 213.20 Allocations of crude oil and unfinished oils—Puerto Rico.

(a) • • •

(2) For the allocation period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976, each eligible applicant under this paragraph shall receive an allocation not subject to license fee but subject to supplemental fee to import crude and unfinished oils into Puerto Rico computed according to the following formula:

Applicant's allocation pursuant to § 213.20(a) not subject to license fees of imports of crude and unfinished oils into Puerto Rico for the allocation period May 1, 1974 to April 30, 1975, expressed in B/D.
Total allocations pursuant to § 213.20(a) not subject to license fees of imports of crude and unfinished oils into Puerto Rico for the allocation period May 1, 1974 to April 30, 1975, expressed in B/D. × 181,777 B/D

• • • • • • •

8. Section 213.21 is amended in subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) and in subparagraph (2) of paragraph (b) to read as follows:

§ 213.21 Allocations of finished products—Puerto Rico.

(2) For the allocation period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976, each eligible application under this paragraph shall receive an allocation not subject to license fee but subject to supplemental fee to import finished products, other than residual fuel oil to be used as fuel in Puerto Rico, into Puerto Rico, computed according to the following formula:

Applicant's allocation pursuant to § 213.21(a) not subject to license fees of imports into Puerto Rico of finished products (other than residual fuel oil to be used as fuel in Puerto Rico) for the allocation period May 1, 1974 to April 30, 1975, expressed in B/D.
Total allocations pursuant to § 213.21(a) not subject to license fees of imports into Puerto Rico of finished products (other than residual fuel oil to be used as fuel in Puerto Rico) for the allocation period May 1, 1974 to April 30, 1975, expressed in B/D. × 1,150 B/D

(b) • • •

(2) For the allocation period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976, each eligible applicant under this paragraph shall receive an allocation not subject to license fee but subject to supplemental fee to import residual fuel oil to be used as fuel in Puerto Rico, into Puerto Rico, computed according to the following formula:

Applicant's allocation pursuant to § 213.21(b) not subject to license fees of imports into Puerto Rico of residual fuel oil to be used as fuel in Puerto Rico for the allocation period May 1, 1974 to April 30, 1975, expressed in B/D.
Total allocations pursuant to § 213.21(b) not subject to license fees of imports into Puerto Rico of residual fuel oil to be used as fuel in Puerto Rico for the allocation period May 1, 1974 to April 30, 1975, expressed in B/D. × 1,319 B/D

9. Section 213.28 is revised as follows:

§ 213.28 Canadian imports—Districts I–IV.

(a) As used in this section, the term "Canadian imports" means imports from Canada of crude oil which has been produced in Canada and unfinished oils which have been derived from crude oil or natural gas produced in Canada and which have been transported into the United States by overland means or over waterways other than ocean waterways.

(b) To be eligible for an allocation of imports under this section, a person must have in Districts I–IV a facility capable of processing Canadian imports.

(c) The Director shall, in accordance with the terms of paragraph (d)(1) of this section make allocations for the allocation period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976 of not to exceed 677,600 average barrels daily of Canadian imports into Districts I–IV.

(d)(1) The Director shall make allocations not subject to license fees but subject to supplemental fee of Canadian imports to eligible applicants who received allocations of such imports for the period May 1, 1974 through April 30, 1975 pursuant to § 213.33 or from the Oil Import Appeals Board under § 213.26, or from both. Each such applicant shall be entitled to an allocation of Canadian imports calculated in accordance with the following formula:

Sum of each eligible applicant's allocation of Canadian imports for the allocation period May 1, 1975 to April 30, 1975, pursuant to § 213.33 and § 213.26, expressed in B/D.
Sum of all allocations of Canadian imports for the allocation period May 1, 1974 to April 30, 1975 pursuant to § 213.33 and § 213.26, expressed in B/D. × 677,600 B/D

(2) The Director shall issue before May 1, 1975 to each eligible applicant a license equal to one half of the allocation calculated pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. Such licenses shall expire on October 31, 1975 unless extended by the Director. The Director shall issue before November 1, 1975 a second license to each eligible applicant equal to the remainder of the allocation calculated pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. Such licenses shall expire on April 30, 1976.

(e)(1) Except as provided for in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph a person who imports Canadian imports must process all such imports in his own facility. For the purpose of this paragraph, blending by mechanical means does not constitute processing.

(2)(i) Canadian imports may be exchanged on a barrel for barrel basis for other Canadian imports but each person receiving crude oil or unfinished oils in the exchange must process the crude oil or unfinished oil received in his own facilities. Settlements, credits, monetary, or accounting adjustments reflecting the relative values of the oils involved in the exchange are permissible.

(ii) Canadian imports which are sold to meet the requirements of regulations published by the Federal Energy Administration shall not be subject to the provisions of paragraph (e) of this section.

(f) If a person who receives an allocation of Canadian imports under this section fails to import the total quantity of imports specified in the allocation, or if he fails to process all such imports (or Canadian imports received in exchange for such imports) in his facilities before July 1, 1976, or if he fails to meet the requirement of paragraph (e) of this section, then any allocation of Canadian imports for Districts I–IV to which such person may otherwise be entitled for the first allocation period beginning after April 30, 1976 shall be reduced by the Director by the amount of Canadian imports which such person has failed to import, or by the amount of Canadian imports and exchanged oil which such person has failed to process in his facilities before July 1, 1976 or by the amount of Canadian imports by which he failed to meet the requirements of paragraph (e) of this section, except that the Director need not make such a reduction to the extent that (1) such person demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Director that such failures were without such person's fault and were beyond his control, or (2) such person on or before September 1, 1975, in writing relinquishes all or part of an allocation made under this section and returns to the Director licenses issued thereunder.

(g) Any allocation relinquished by a person pursuant to paragraph (f) of this section shall be reallocated to all eligible applicants in the same proportion that each received an allocation under paragraph (d)(1) of this section.

(h) A person to whom an allocation is made by the Director under this section shall report and certify in writing to the Director, not later than July 15, 1975, (1) the total quantity of Canadian imports which that person imported during the period May 1, 1974 through April 30, 1975, pursuant to an allocation made under § 213.33 and (2) the quantity of such imports that were processed in his facilities before July 1, 1975. The amount so reported and certified shall be subject to verification by the Director. If a person to whom an allocation is made under this section fails to file by July 15, 1975 the written report and certification required by this paragraph, the Director shall suspend all licenses issued under an allocation made under this section until the written report and certification are received.

(i) An allocation made pursuant to this section shall not be sold, assigned or otherwise transferred.

(j) An application for an allocation under this section shall be made by letter or telegram to the Director, Oil Imports, P.O. Box 7414, Washington, D.C. 20044, unless an application has been previously filed. Applications must have been received by April 15, 1975. An application must contain the following information which shall be certified by an officer of the applicant:

V 40 65 APR 3 75 XUM

(1) The nature of each of the applicant's facilities in which Canadian imports will be processed.

(2) The location of each such facility.

(3) The total barrels of Canadian imports and other qualified imports processed in each such facility during the calendar year ending December 31, 1974.

10. Section 213.32 is amended in paragraph (d) to read as follows:

§ 213.32 Allocations of low sulphur residual fuel oil—District V.

• • • • •

(d) For the allocation period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976, each eligible applicant under this section shall receive an allocation not subject to license fee but subject to supplemental fee to import low sulphur residual fuel oil into District V to be used as fuel in District V computed according to the following formula:

Applicant's average B/D allocation made pursuant to § 213.32 for the allocation period May 1, 1974 through April 30, 1975.
Average B/D allocations made pursuant to § 213.32 to all applicants for the allocation period May 1, 1974 through April 30, 1975. × 60,480 B/D

• • • • •

11. Section 213.34 is amended in paragraphs (b) and (e) to read as follows:

§ 213.34 Allocations of No. 2 fuel oil—District I.

• • • • •

(b) For the allocation period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976, 40,000 barrels per day of imports of No. 2 fuel oil, which is manufactured in the Western Hemisphere from crude oil produced in the Western Hemisphere, will be available for allocations in District 1 to eligible persons having qualified terminal inputs of No. 2 fuel oil in this district.

• • • • •

(e) For the allocation period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976, each eligible applicant under this section shall receive an allocation of imports not subject to license fee but subject to supplemental fee into District I of No. 2 fuel oil according to the following formula:

Applicant's allocation of No. 2 fuel oil into District I made pursuant to § 213.34 or § 213.26 for the allocation period May 1, 1974 through April 30, 1975.
Total of all allocations of No. 2 fuel oil into District I made pursuant to § 213.34 or § 213.26 for the allocation period May 1, 1974 through April 30, 1975. × 40,000 B/D

• • • • •

12. Section 213.36 is amended in paragraphs (a), (c), and (d) to read as follows:

§ 213.36 Canadian imports, District V.

(a) For the allocation period May 1, 1975, through April 30, 1976, the Director shall allocate, as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, approximately 224,000 average barrels daily of Canadian imports into District V among eligible persons having refinery capacity in this district.

• • • • •

(c)(1) The Director shall make allocations not subject to license fee but subject to supplemental fee of Canadian imports to each eligible applicant for the allocation period beginning May 1 of each year on the basis of the pro rata share of the allocation of Canadian imports into District V made to each applicant for the calendar year 1973, relative to the total of all allocations of Canadian imports made to all applicants for the calendar year 1973.

(c)(2) The Director shall issue before May 1, 1975 to each eligible applicant a license equal to one half of the allocation calculated pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. Such licenses shall expire on October 31, 1975 unless extended by the Director. The Director shall issue before November 1, 1975 a second license to each eligible applicant equal to the remainder of the allocation calculated pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. Such licenses shall expire on April 30, 1976.

§ 213.38 Imports of Canadian natural gas products—Districts I–IV.

• • • • •

(c) For the allocation period May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976, the Director shall make allocations not subject to license fee but subject to supplemental fee to eligible applicants in accordance with the following formula:

Eligible applicant's imports of Canadian natural gas products in 1973
Total of Canadian natural gas products imported by all eligible applicants in 1973 × 90,400 B/D

FEDERAL EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY BID CONDITIONS FOR FEDERAL AND FEDERALLY ASSISTED CONSTRUCTION

New Format

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to sections 201, 205, 207, 301, and 303 of Executive Order 11246 (30 FR 12319), as amended, by Executive Order 11375 (32 FR 14303), it is proposed that the existing Model Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Bid Conditions be revised as set forth below. These proposed Bid Conditions, like the present Model Federal EEO Bid Conditions, would incorporate by reference the various negotiated affirmative action hiring and/or training plan (hometown plans) established pursuant to Executive Order 11246, as amended, and approved by the Office of Federal Contract Compliance. The proposed new Model Federal EEO Bid Conditions, if adopted, would be included in all nonexempt federal and federally assisted construction contracts awarded in areas presently covered by negotiated hometown plans or Part II of the present Model Federal EEO Bid Conditions. Federal contracting and administering agencies would be directed by the Director, Office of Federal Contract Compliance to use only the new Model Federal EEO Bid Conditions set forth below, if adopted in final form.

The principal distinction between the proposed format and the existing Bid Conditions is that the Bidder's Certification is deleted. Failure of a bidder to commit itself, prior to bid opening, to minimum affirmative action requirements by properly completing the Bidders' Certification requires rejection of the bid. Deletion of the Bidders' Certification requirement will eliminate the possibility of passing over an otherwise responsive low bidder because of its failure to properly complete the Certification. Other proposed changes will clarify prospective contractors' and subcontractors' obligations under the Bid Conditions.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments, suggestions, or arguments concerning the proposed new Model Federal EEO Bid Conditions to Mr. Philip J. Davis, Director of the Office of Federal Contract Compliance, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, D.C. 20210, on or before May 5, 1975.

The proposed new Model Federal EEO Bid Conditions read as follows:

BID CONDITIONS, AFFIRMATIVE ACTION REQUIREMENTS, EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

For all Non-Exempt Federal and Federally-Assisted Construction Contracts to be Awarded in [ ]

NOTICE

EACH BIDDER, CONTRACTOR OR SUBCONTRACTOR (HEREINAFTER THE CONTRACTOR) MUST FULLY COMPLY WITH EITHER PART I OR PART II, AS APPLICABLE, OF THESE BID CONDITIONS AS TO EACH CONSTRUCTION TRADE HE INTENDS TO USE ON THIS CONSTRUCTION CONTRACT AND ALL OTHER CONSTRUCTION WORK (BOTH FEDERAL AND NON-FEDERAL) IN THE [ ] AREA DURING THE PERFORMANCE OF THIS CONTRACT OR SUBCONTRACT. THE CONTRACTOR COMMITS HIMSELF TO THE GOALS FOR MINORITY MANPOWER UTILIZATION IN EITHER PART I OR PART II, AS APPLICABLE, AND ALL OTHER REQUIREMENTS, TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THESE BID CONDITIONS BY SUBMITTING A PROPERLY SIGNED BID.

Part I: The provisions of this Part I apply to contractors with respect to those construction trades for which they are parties to collective bargaining agreements with a labor organization or organizations and who together with such labor organizations have agreed to the [ ] Area Construction Program for equal opportunity (but only as to those trades as to which there are commitments by labor organizations to specific goals of minority manpower utilization) between [ ], together with all implementing agreements that have been and may hereafter be developed pursuant thereto, all of which documents are incorporated herein by reference and are hereinafter cumulatively referred to as the [ ] Plan.

Any contractor using one or more trades of construction employees must comply with either Part I or Part II of these Bid Conditions as to each such trade. Thus, a contractor may be in compliance with these conditions by his participation with his union in the [ ] Plan as to trade "A", provided there is set forth in the [ ] Plan a specific commitment by that union to a goal of minority manpower utilization for such trade "A", thereby meeting the provisions of this Part I, and by the contractor's commitment to Part II in regard to trade "B" in the instance in which it is not included in the [ ] Plan and, therefore, cannot meet the provisions of this Part I.

Part II: A. Coverage. The provisions of this Part II shall be applicable to those contractors who:

1. Are not or hereafter cease to be signatories to the [ ] Plan referred to in Part I hereof;

2. Are signatories to the [ ] Plan but are not parties to collective bargaining agreements;

3. Are signatories to the [ ] Plan but are parties to collective bargaining agreements with labor organizations who are not or hereafter cease to be signatories to the [ ] Plan;

4. Are signatories to the [ ] Plan but are parties to collective bargaining agreements with labor organizations who together have failed to execute a specific commitment to goals for minority manpower utilization as provided in the [ ] Plan; or

5. Are no longer participating in an affirmative action plan acceptable to the Director, OFCC, including the [ ] Plan.

6. Are signatories to the [ ] Plan but are parties to collective bargaining agreements with labor organizations who together have failed to make a good faith effort to comply with their obligations under the [ ] Plan and, as a result, have been placed under Part II of the Bid Conditions.

B. Requirement—An Affirmative Action Plan. Those contractors described in paragraphs 1 through 6 above will be eligible for award of a contract under these Bid Conditions pursuant to the goals and timetables for minority manpower utilization,[1] and specific affirmative action steps set forth in Sections B.1 and 2 of this Part II.

1. Goals and Timetables. The goals of minority manpower utilization required of the contractor are applicable to each trade not otherwise bound by the provisions of Part I hereof which will be used on the project in [ ] (hereinafter referred to as the [ ] area):

Goals of minority manpower utilization expressed in percentage terms

Until [ ]	[ ]	[ ] to [ ]
From [ ] to [ ]	[ ]	[ ] to [ ]
From [ ] to [ ]	[ ]	[ ] to [ ]
From [ ] to [ ]	[ ]	[ ] to [ ]
From [ ] to [ ]	[ ]	[ ] to [ ]
From [ ] to [ ]	[ ]	[ ] to [ ]

In the event that under a contract which is subject to these Bid Conditions any work is performed in a year later than the latest year for which acceptable goals of minority manpower utilization have been determined herein, the goals for [ ] shall be applicable to such work.

The percentage goals of minority manpower utilization above are expressed in terms of manhours of training and employment as a proportion of the total manhours to be worked by the bidder's contractor's and subcontractor's entire work force in that trade on all projects (both federal and non-federal) in the [ ] Area during the performance of its contract (i.e. the period beginning with the first day of work on the federal or federally assisted construction contract and ending with the last day of work).

The manhours of minority work and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract in each trade and minorities should be employed evenly on each of a contractor's projects. Nevertheless, failure of a contractor to employ minorities evenly on each of his projects shall not constitute noncompliance, provided that the percentage of minority manhours employed by the contractor in his aggregate work force in the [ ] area meets or exceeds his commitment to the goals for minority manpower utilization in this Part II and the contractor has not violated the Equal Opportunity Clause of this contract in the assignment of minorities to his projects. The transfer of minority employees or trainees from [1] "Minority" is defined as including Negroes, Spanish Surnamed Americans, Orientals and American Indians, and includes both minority men and minority women.

V 40165 APR 3 75 XUM

employer-to-employer or from project-to-project for purpose of meeting the contractor's goal shall be a violation of these Bid Conditions. In meeting the goals of minority manpower utilization required of contractors pursuant to this Part II, every effort shall be made to find and employ qualified journeymen. However, apprentices and trainees shall be employed on all projects subject to the requirements of these Bid Conditions pursuant to Department of Labor regulations concerning labor standards provisions applicable to contracts covering federally financed and assisted construction.

In order that the nonworking hours of trainees and apprentices may be counted in meeting the goal, such trainees and apprentices must be employed by the contractor during the training period, the contractor must have made a commitment to employ the trainees at the completion of their training subject to the availability of employment opportunities, and the trainees must be trained pursuant to established training programs which must be the equivalent of the training programs now or hereafter provided for in the [ ] Plan with respect to the nature, extent, and duration of training offered.

The contractor shall be deemed to be in compliance with the requirements, terms, and conditions of this Part II if he meets or exceeds his commitment to the goals for minority manpower utilization in his aggregate work force in the [ ] area for each trade for which he is committed to a goal under this Part II. The contractor's commitment to the goals for minority manpower utilization as required by this Part II constitutes a commitment that he will make every good faith effort to meet such goals.

2. Specific Affirmative Action Steps. No contractor shall be found to be in noncompliance solely on account of his failure to meet his goals, but shall be given the opportunity to demonstrate that he has instituted all the specific affirmative action steps specified in this Part II and has made every good faith effort to make these steps work toward the attainment of his goals within the timetables, all to the purpose of expanding minority manpower utilization in his aggregate work force in the [ ] area. Contractors subject to this Part II who fail to achieve their commitments to the goals for minority manpower utilization must have engaged in affirmative action directed at increasing minority manpower utilization and which shall be at least as extensive and as specific as the following steps:

a. The contractor shall notify community organizations when the contractor has employment opportunities available and shall maintain records of the organizations' response.

b. The contractor shall maintain a file of the names and addresses of each minority worker referred to him and what action was taken with respect to each such referred worker, and if the worker was not employed by the contractor, the reasons therefor. If such worker was sent to the union hiring hall for referral or if such worker was not employed by the contractor, the contractor's file shall document this and the reasons therefor.

c. The contractor shall promptly notify the _____ (agency) when the union or unions with whom the contractor has a collective bargaining agreement has not referred to the contractor a minority worker sent by the contractor or the contractor has other information that the union referral process has impeded him in his efforts to meet his goal.

d. The contractor shall participate in training programs in the area, especially those funded by the Department of Labor.

e. The contractor shall disseminate his EEO policy within his own organization by including it in any policy manual, by publicizing it in company newspapers, annual reports, etc., by conducting staff, employee and union representatives' meetings to explain and discuss the policy; by posting of the policy; and by specific review of the policy with minority employees.

f. The contractor shall disseminate his EEO policy externally by informing and discussing it with all recruitment sources; by advertising in news media, specifically including minority news media and by notifying and discussing it with all subcontractors and suppliers.

g. The contractor shall make specific and constant both written and oral recruitment efforts directed at all minority organizations, schools with minority students, minority recruitment organizations and minority training organizations within the contractor's recruitment area.

h. The contractor shall make specific efforts to encourage present minority employees to recruit their friends and relatives.

i. The contractor shall validate all tests and other selection requirements as required by the Testing and Selection Order (41 CFR Part 60-3).

j. The contractor shall make every effort to promote afterschool, summer and vacation employment to minority youth.

k. The contractor shall develop on-the-job training opportunities and participate and assist in any association or employer-group training programs relevant to the contractor's employee needs consistent with its obligations under this Part II.

l. The contractor shall continually inventory and evaluate all minority personnel for promotion opportunities and encourage minority employees to seek such opportunities.

m. The contractor shall make sure that seniority practices, job classifications, etc., do not have a discriminatory effect.

n. The contractor shall make certain that all facilities and company activities are nonsegregated.

o. The contractor shall continually monitor all personnel activities to ensure that his EEO policy is being carried out.

p. The contractor shall solicit bids for subcontracts from available minority subcontractors engaged in the trades covered by these Bid Conditions, including circulation of minority contractor associations.

3. Subsequent Signatory to the [ ] Plan. Any contractors subject to the requirements of this Part II at the time of the submission of his bid who, together with the labor organization with whom he has a collective bargaining agreement, subsequently becomes a signatory to the [ ] Plan, either individually or through his association, will be deemed bound to his commitment to the [ ] Plan from that time until and unless he once again becomes subject to the requirements of Part II pursuant to Section A.1–6.

4. Non-discrimination. In no event may a contractor utilize the goals and affirmative action steps required by this Part II in such a manner as to cause or result in discrimination against any person on account of race, color, religion, sex or national origin.

Part III: Compliance and Enforcement: In all cases, the compliance of a contractor will be determined in accordance with his obligations under the terms of these Bid Conditions. Therefore, contractors who are governed by the provisions of either Part I or Part II shall be subject to the requirements of that Part regardless of the obligations of his prime contractor or lower tier subcontractors.

All contractors performing or to perform work on projects subject to these Bid Conditions hereby agree to inform their subcontractors of their respective obligations under the terms and requirements of these Bid Conditions, including the provisions relating to goals of minority employment and training.

A. Contractors Subject to Part I. A contractor covered by Part I of these Bid Conditions shall be deemed to be in compliance with Executive Order 11246, as amended, the implementing regulations and his obligations under Part I provided the contractor together with the labor organization or organizations with which the contractor has a collective bargaining agreement meet the goals for minority manpower utilization to which they committed themselves in the [ ] Plan, or can demonstrate that every good faith effort has been made to meet the goal. In that event, no formal sanctions or proceedings leading toward sanctions shall be instituted unless the Office of Federal Contract Compliance determines that the contractor has violated a substantial requirement in the [ ] Plan including the failure of such contractor to make a good faith effort to meet his fair share of the trade's goal for minority manpower utilization. Such failure shall be deemed to be noncompliance with the Equal Opportunity Clause of the contract, and shall be grounds for imposition of the sanctions and penalties provided for in Executive Order 11246, as amended.

The OFCC shall review Part I contractors' employment practices during the performance of the contract. Further, if OFCC determines that the [ ] Plan no longer represents effective affirmative action, it shall be solely responsible for any final determination of that question and the consequences thereof.

Where OFCC finds that a contractor failed to comply with the requirements of the [ ] Plan and his obligation under Part I of these Bid Conditions, it shall take such action and impose such sanctions as may be appropriate under the Executive Order and its regulations. When OFCC proceeds with such formal action it has the burden of proving that the contractor has not met the requirements of these Bid Conditions. The failure of the contractor to comply with his obligations under the Equal Opportunity Clause of his contract including failure to meet his fair share of his trade's goal shall shift to him the requirement to come forward with evidence to show that he has met the good faith requirements of these Bid Conditions by instituting at least the specific affirmative action steps listed in Part II, Section 2, and by making every good faith effort to make those steps work toward the attainment of his trade's goals within the timetables set forth in the [ ] Plan. The pendency of such formal proceedings shall be taken into consideration by federal agencies in determining whether such contractor can comply with the requirements of Executive Order 11246, as amended, and is therefore a "responsible prospective contractor" within the meaning of basic principles of Federal procurement law.

B. Contractors Subject to Part II. In regard to Part II of these Bid Conditions, if the contractor meets the goals set forth therein or can demonstrate that he has made every good faith effort to meet these goals, the contractor shall be presumed to be in compliance with Executive Order 11246, as amended, the implementing regulations and his obligations under Part II of these Bid Conditions. In that event, no formal sanctions or proceedings leading toward sanctions shall be instituted unless the agency otherwise determines that the contractor is not providing equal employment opportunities in violation of the Equal Opportunity Clause of this contract.

Where the agency finds that the contractor failed to comply with the requirements of Executive Order 11246, as amended, the implementing regulations and the obligations under Part II of these Bid Conditions, the agency shall take such action and impose such sanctions as may be appropriate under the Executive Order and its regulations. When the agency proceeds with such formal action it has the burden of proving that the contractor has not met the requirements of these Bid Conditions. The contractor's failure to meet his goals shall however, shift to him the requirement to come forward with evidence to show that he has met the "good faith" requirements of these Bid Conditions by instituting at least the specific affirmative action steps listed in Part II, Sections 2 and by making every good faith effort to make those steps work toward the attainment of his goals within the timetables. The pendency of such formal proceedings shall be taken into consideration by federal agencies in determining whether such contractor can comply with the requirements of Executive Order 11246, as amended, and is therefore a "responsible prospective contractor" within the meaning of the basic principles of Federal procurement law.

C. Obligations Applicable to Contractors Subject to Either Part I or Part II. It shall be no excuse that the union with which the contractor has a collective bargaining agreement providing for exclusive referral failed to refer minority employees. Discrimination in referral for employment, even if pursuant to provisions of a collective bargaining agreement, is prohibited by the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. It is the policy of the Office of Federal Contract Compliance that contractors have a responsibility to provide equal employment opportunity if they wish to participate in federally-involved contracts. To the extent they have delegated the responsibility for some of their employment practices to a labor organization and, as a result, are prevented from meeting their obligations pursuant to Executive Order 11246, as amended, such contractors cannot be considered to be in compliance with Executive Order 11246 (as amended), its implementing rules and regulations.

Part IV: General Requirements. Contractors are responsible for informing their subcontractors, regardless of tier, as to their respective obligations under Parts I and II hereof, as applicable. Whenever a contractor subcontracts a portion of the work in any trade covered by these Bid Conditions, he shall include these Bid Conditions in such subcontracts and each subcontractor shall be bound by these Bid Conditions to the full extent as if he were the prime contractor. The contractor shall not be accountable for the failure of his subcontractor to fulfill his requirements. However, the prime contractor shall give notice to the Associate Assistant Regional Director of the Office of Federal Contract Compliance of the Department of Labor and to the contracting agency of any refusal or failure of any subcontractor to fulfill his obligations under these Bid Conditions. Failure of compliance by any subcontractor will be treated in the same manner as such failure by the prime contractor. Contractors hereby agree to refrain from entering into any contract or contract modification subject to Executive Order 11246, as amended, with a contractor debarred from, or who is determined not to be a "responsible" bidder for Government contracts and federally-assisted construction contracts pursuant to the Executive Order.

The contractor shall carry out such sanctions and penalties for violation of these Bid Conditions and the Equal Opportunity Clause including suspension, termination and cancellation of existing subcontracts as may be imposed or ordered pursuant to Executive Order 11246, as amended, and its implementing regulations by the agency or the Office of Federal Contract Compliance. Any contractor who fails to carry out such sanctions and penalties shall be deemed to be in noncompliance with these Bid Conditions and Executive Order 11246, as amended.

Nothing herein is intended to relieve any contractor during the term of his contract from compliance with Executive Order 11246, as amended, and the Equal Opportunity Clause of his contract, with respect to matters not covered in the [ ] Plan or in Part II of these Bid Conditions.

The procedures set forth in these Bid Conditions shall not apply to any contract which the head of the contracting or administering agency determines is essential to the national security and its award without following such procedures is necessary to the national security. Upon making such a determination, the agency head will notify, in writing, the Director of the Office of Federal Contract Compliance within thirty days.

Requests for exemptions from these Bid Conditions must be made in writing, with justification, to the Director, Office of Federal Contract Compliance, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, D.C. 20210, and shall be forwarded through and with the endorsement of the agency head.

Contractors must keep such records and file such reports relating to the provisions of these Bid Conditions as shall be required by the contracting or administering agency or the Office of Federal Contract Compliance.

For the information of bidders, a copy of the [ ] Plan may be obtained from the contracting officer. A list of trades which are currently participating in the [ ] Plan may be obtained from OFCC, the contracting agency, or the administering agency.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 17th day of March 1975.

RICHARD F. SCHUBERT,
Acting Secretary of Labor.

BERNARD E. DELURY,
Assistant Secretary for Employment Standards.

Director, Office of Federal Contract Compliance.

USAF SCIENTIFIC ADVISORY BOARD Meetings

MARCH 28, 1975.

The USAF Scientific Advisory Board Study Group on Management and Support of Air Force Command, Control and Communications was instructed by the Secretary of the Air Force on March 12, 1975 to complete its report within 45 days. The Study Group was tasked to provide independent advice and insight into current and projected Air Force capabilities for research, development and acquisition of command, control and communications programs and systems and to develop alternatives for near- and far-term action to strengthen these capabilities. The study results will have a major impact on impending decisions concerning the reorganization and realignment of certain activities of the Air Force Systems Command. The Air Force installations possibly affected include Griffis AFB, New York, Hanscom AFB, Massachusetts, Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio, and Kirtland AFB, New Mexico. USAF employees and other citizens at these locations and their Congressional representatives are already aware of the issues to be addressed and have expressed considerable concern over the outcome of the Study Group's proposals. Interested parties will have an opportunity to present their views at open meetings of the Study Group. Because of the importance of resolving these matters at the earliest possible date, the Study Group attempted to begin its work as soon as possible consistent with the need for timely notice to the public and the availability of the members to attend meetings.

The initial notices of the meetings of the Study Group published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 21 and March 24, 1975, fell from one to three days short of the 15 days notice specified in OMB Circular A-63, paragraph 8.b(3). However, in consideration of the welfare of the employees involved, it is essential that the Study Group move ahead as quickly as possible. In view of the above, and consistent with the specific provision in paragraph 8.b(3) concerning shorter notice in emergency situations, and the determination by the Department of the Air Force that the importance and urgency of the Study Group's tasks described above created such an emergency situation, the original notices did not meet the 15-day criteria. Special steps were also taken to inform interested employees and members of the general public through direct notice to their Congressional representatives.

DEFENSE SCIENCE BOARD TASK FORCE ON ACCURACY

Advisory Committee Meeting

The Defense Science Board Task Force on Accuracy will meet in closed session on 21 and 22 April at the Pentagon, Washington, D.C.

The mission of the Defense Science Board is to advise the Secretary of Defense and the Director of Defense Research and Engineering on overall research and engineering and to provide long range guidance in these areas in the Department of Defense.

The Task Force will undertake a review of the accuracy of U.S. and Soviet strategic offensive systems to determine the confidence that can be placed in our present estimates of accuracy and it will recommend an R&D program which can lead to improved accuracy.

In accordance with section 10(d) of Appendix I, Title 5, United States Code, it has been determined that this Task Force meeting concerns matters listed in section 552(b) of Title 5 of the United States Code, specifically Subparagraph (I) thereof, and that accordingly this meeting will be closed to the public.

Dated: March 31, 1975.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

[36-130-6292-2]

FRANKLIN COUNTY, WASH.

Off-Road Vehicle Area Designation and Closure of Lands to Motorized Vehicles

Notice is hereby given that in furtherance of the purpose of Executive Order 11644 (37 FR 2877, February 9, 1972) relating to the use of off-road vehicles on public lands and by authority of regulations under 43 CFR 6290 implementing Executive Order 11644, the following described lands under administration of the Bureau of Land Management are designated as closed to off-road motorized vehicles and motorized vehicle use excepting emergency, law enforcement, and federal or other government vehicles while being used for official or emergency purposes.

The area affected by this designation and closure notice is located approximately fifteen air miles northeast of Pasco, Washington, in the area known as Juniper Forest. This area is more specifically described as:

WILLAMETTE MERIDIAN

T. 10 N., R. 32 E.,
Sec. 6, portion of
T. 11 N., R. 32 E.,
Secs. 29, 32
Secs 20, 21, 28, 30, 31, and 33, portion of all.

The described area aggregates approximately 3,454 acres in Franklin County.

This area is unique to the state of Washington in that it contains the largest concentration of Western Juniper (Juniperus occidentalis) in association with barren sand dunes in the state. The use of national resource lands at Juniper Forest by motorized vehicles could damage unstable sand dunes and fragile vegetative resources. It is concluded that closure of the area is necessary to preserve this unique natural phenomenon. The area was previously closed to off-road vehicle use by notice of the Bureau of Land Management, Spokane, Washington, District Manager dated February 14, 1972.

This notice and further closure shall become effective on June 1, 1975.

The exterior boundaries of the closed area are fenced and vehicle closure signs are posted. Maps showing the closed area are posted in the Post Office and the Franklin County Courthouse in Pasco, Washington, and in the Spokane District Office of the Bureau of Land Management located in Room 551, U.S. Courthouse, Spokane, Washington.

Dated: March 27, 1975.

INVESTIGATION OUTLINE

Title. Investigations of the Movements and Ecological Requirements of the Colorado Squawfish and Humpback Sucker in the Yamp and Upper Green Rivers.

Personnel. Clair B. Stalnaker, Assistant Leader, Utah Cooperative Fishery Unit. Richard S. Wydoski, Leader, Utah Cooperative Fishery Unit.

Two Graduate Assistants to be selected.

Cooperating Agencies. Utah Cooperative Fishery Unit, U.S.D.I., Utah State University, Utah Division of Wildlife Resources, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, U.S.D.I., National Park Service, U.S.D.I.

1. Spawning areas for the above endangered species will be delineated and ecological parameters described as related to reproductive success. Year-class strength of these two fishes will be evaluated and possible correlations with long-term turbidity, temperature, and sediment data being collected by the U.S. Geological Survey.

2. This agreement is subject to the condition that the Contractor shall not begin those phases of the prescribed research that may cause the death of any species listed by the Secretary as endangered or threatened until the Contractor shall have been issued the necessary permits to be excluded from the provisions of Section 9(a) of the Endangered Species Act of 1973.

3. Principal Investigator. Dr. Clair B. Stalnaker, Assistant Unit Leader, Utah Cooperative Fishery Unit, Logan, Utah 84321.

4. Reporting. A comprehensive final report will be prepared by the Project Leader and presented to the Coordinating Committee upon conclusion of the project.

5. Payment. In lieu of Articles III and IV of the General Provisions, the following shall apply:

a. Quarterly calendar reimbursement payments in arrears for amounts expended for salary of a graduate research assistant assigned to the project will be made upon receipt of an invoice in triplicate. The Contractor further agrees that no overhead or indirect costs will be required for this project. General supervision and administrative expenses or other overhead costs shall be considered to be part of the Contractor's previously consummated Cooperative Agreement, dated July 1, 1970, establishing the Utah Cooperative Unit. Final quarterly payment will be withheld upon receipt of the final project report.

Documents and other information submitted in connection with this application are available for public inspection during normal business hours at the Service's office in Suite 600, 1612 K Street NW., Washington, D.C.

Interested persons may comment on this application by submitting written data, views, or arguments, preferably in triplicate, to the Director (FWS/LE), Fish and Wildlife Service, Post Office Box 19183, Washington, D.C. 20036. All relevant comments received on or before May 5, 1975 will be considered.

Dated: March 28, 1975.

Availability of Supplement to Draft Environmental Statement; Correction

Federal Register Document 75-6509 appearing at pages 11787 and 11788 in the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 13, 1975, is a notice of availability of a supplement to the draft environmental statement for Land Use Plans, Eightmile-Blue Creek Units, Six Rivers National Forest, California, USDA-FS-R5-DES (Adm)-75-5(S). The third paragraph of this notice briefly described the content of the supplement. The following changes should be made in this notice:

1. On page 11788, first line, first word "alternative" is corrected to read "alternatives."

2. The notice is revised to include additional information concerning the content of the supplement by adding the following sentence immediately at the end of the fourth line, page 11788:

Consideration of completion, noncompletion, or modification of the Dillon-Flint and Chimney Rock Sections of the Gasquet-Orleans Road has been added.

Dated: March 26, 1975.

LOWER AMAZON-FLAT CREEK WATERSHED PROJECT, OREGON

Availability of Negative Declaration

Pursuant to section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, part 1500.6(e) of the Council on Environmental Quality Guidelines (38 FR 20550) August 1, 1973; and part 650.8(b)(3) of the Soil Conservation Service guidelines (39 FR 19651) June 3, 1974; the Soil Conservation Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, gives notice that an environmental impact statement is not being prepared for the remaining planned channel construction in the lower Amazon-Flat Creek Watershed project, Lane County, Oregon.

The environmental assessment of this Federal action indicates that the project will not create significant adverse local, regional, or national impacts on the environment and that no significant controversy is associated with the project. As a result of these findings, Mr. James W. Mitchell, State Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, USDA, 1218 SW Washington Street, Portland, Oregon 97205, has determined that the preparation and review of an environmental impact statement is not needed for the remaining channel construction, lower Amazon-Flat Creek project.

The project concerns a plan for watershed protection, flood prevention, and irrigation. The planned works of improvement covered in this negative declaration include conservation land treatment and work on twenty-nine miles of previously modified channels and three miles of natural intermittent streams.

The environmental assessment file and the authorized work plan are available for inspection during regular working hours at the following location:

Soil Conservation Service, USDA
1218 SW Washington Street
Portland, Oregon 97205

Single copy requests for the negative declaration should be directed to the above address.

No administrative action on implementation of the proposal will be taken until April 18, 1975.

POND CREEK WATERSHED, FLORIDA

Availability of Negative Declaration

Pursuant to section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969; part 1500.6(e) of the Council on Environmental Quality Guidelines (38 FR 20550) August 1, 1973; and part 650.8(b)(3) of the Soil Conservation Service Guidelines (39 FR 19651) June 3, 1974; the Soil Conservation Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, gives notice that an environmental impact statement is not being prepared for the Supplemental Watershed Work Plan Agreement No. 4, Pond Creek Watershed, Santa Rosa County, Florida.

The environmental assessment of this federal action indicates that the project will not create significant adverse local, regional, or national impacts on the environment and that no significant controversy is associated with the project. As a result of these findings, Mr. W. L. Heard, State Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, USDA, Room 590, Milner Building, P.O. Box 610, Jackson, Mississippi 39205, has determined that the preparation and review of an environmental impact statement is not needed at this time for this project.

The project concerns a plan for watershed protection and flood prevention. The remaining planned works of improvement covered by this negative declaration include conservation land treatment supplemented by four floodwater retarding structures, outlet channels for two of these structures totaling about 1.7 miles, and work on approximately 6.2 miles previously constructed channels on Coonewah Creek, a tributary of Town Creek.

The environmental assessment file is available for inspection regular working hours at the following location:

YANTIC RIVER WATERSHED PROJECT, CONNECTICUT

Availability of Draft Environmental Impact Statement

Pursuant to section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969; Part 1500 of the Council on Environmental Quality Guidelines (38 FR 20550, August 1, 1973); and Part 650 of the Soil Conservation Service Guidelines (39 FR 19650, June 3, 1974); the Soil Conservation Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, has prepared a draft environmental impact statement for the Yantic River Watershed Project, New London County, Connecticut, USDA-SCS-EIS-WS-(ADM)-75-1-D-CT.

The environmental impact statement concerns a plan for watershed protection, flood prevention, and recreation. The planned works of improvement include conservation land treatment, supplemented by channel work, three water control structures, and recreation development. The channel work will involve about 1.3 miles which flows through an industrial, commercial, and urban area. The work consists of 0.8 miles of reinforced concrete channel and 0.4 miles of earth channel on previously modified and natural perennial channel and 0.1 miles of double-box reinforced concrete conduit on previously modified intermittent channel. The recreational development will provide 149,500 visitor-days of recreation annually.

A limited supply of copies is available at the following location to fill single copy requests:

OFFICE OF COASTAL ZONE MANAGEMENT

Public Hearing on Draft Environmental Impact Statement

Notice is hereby given that the Office of Coastal Zone Management, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), U. S. Department of Commerce, will hold two public hearings for the purpose of receiving comments on the draft environmental impact statement pertaining to the coastal zone management program of the mid-coast segment, State of Maine, which has been submitted to the Secretary of Commerce for approval under the Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972, as amended. A hearing will be held at the Wiscasset Municipal Building, Wiscasset Maine, at 7:30 p.m., on May 5, 1975 and at the Ellsworth City Hall, Ellsworth Maine, at 7:30 p.m., on May 6, 1975. The views of members of the public and interested organizations are invited. Both written and oral statements will be accepted. Presentations will be scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis; but priority will be given to those who have prepared statements. Time will be alloted at the end of the meeting for those without statements who wish to be heard. In order that the maximum opportunity be afforded all those who wish to be heard, presentations may be limited to a maximum of ten minutes or as otherwise appropriate. No audio-visual equipment will be available. Office of Coastal Zone Management staff may wish to question speakers.

Persons or organizations wishing to be heard on this matter should contact the Office of Coastal Zone Management as soon as possible in order that an appearance schedule may be drawn up and definite times established for presentations. The address is: Office of Coastal Zone Management, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, Rockville, Maryland 20852, 301/496-8896.

Written comments may also be submitted by mail to the Office of Coastal Zone Management. Such written comments must be received before May 12, 1975 in order to be considered for inclusion in the final environmental impact statement.

Copies of the draft environmental impact statement may be obtained from the Office of Coastal Zone Management, and copies of the statement as well as of the Maine coastal zone management program, with supporting documents, are also available for inspection by the public at the following locations:

OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH

Availability of Validated Sampling and Analytical Methods for Certain Substances

The National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH) and the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) are engaged in a joint Standards Completion Project, the purpose of which is to issue completed standards for the chemical substances listed in Tables G-1, G-2, and G-3 of 29 CFR 1910.93 except for those substances for which criteria documents exist or are planned. As OSHA has declared (40 FR 4930), the exposure limits listed in § 1910.93 are not at issue, and no changes to these limits will be proposed or made in the standards issued as part of the Standards Completion Project. Rather, as stated by OSHA, the new standards will establish requirements for, among other things, monitoring employee exposure, medical surveillance and methods of compliance.

The National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health is engaged in validating sampling and analytical methods for use in monitoring the exposure of workers to the substances in the Tables referred to above. The sampling procedure is the method by which samples of various substances are collected while the analytical procedure is the method for measuring airborne concentrations of such substances where there is a need for such measurements in the workplace. These methods have been validated by NIOSH as meeting the accuracy requirements which the standards are expected to prescribe (See, for example, 29 CFR 1910.93q(d)(4), 39 FR 35890 at 35896). It is noted that OSHA will not require that any specific method be used and that a particular method is not the sole method which may be used to collect and analyze samples. NIOSH intends to modify its sampling and analytical methods as advancements in science and technology occur.

Notice is hereby given of the availability from NIOSH of a validated sampling and analytical method for the following chemical substances:

Substance	Method No.
Acetone	S1
2-Butanone	S3
Cyclohexanone	S19
Ethyl butyl ketone	S16
Hexone	S18
Methyl-n-amil ketone	S15
2-Pentanone	S20

A copy of the sampling and analytical method for any substance listed may be obtained by sending a request to Office of Technical Publications, NIOSH, Post Office Building, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202, specifying the substance and method number.

Dated: March 28, 1975.

EDWARD J. BAIER,
Acting Director, National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health.

CHLORZOXAZONE IN COMBINATION WITH CODEINE PHOSPHATE AND ACETAMINOPHEN, AND IN COMBINATION WITH PREDNISOLONE AND ACETAMINOPHEN

Withdrawal of Approval of New Drug Applications

In a notice of opportunity for hearing (DESI 11300) which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of June 27, 1974 (39 FR 23290) pursuant to the Drug Efficacy Study, the Director of the Bureau of Drugs proposed to issue an order withdrawing approval of the drug products described below. The basis of the proposed action was the lack of substantial evidence that the products are effective for their labeled indications for use in minor musculo-skeletal disorders. No one contested the proposed action and approval of the new drug applications is now being withdrawn.

NDA 11-528; Parafon with Prednisolone Tablets containing chlorzoxazone, acetaminophen, and prednisolone; and NDA 11-985; Parafon with Codeine Tablets containing chlorzoxazone, codeine phosphate and acetaminophen; both products formerly marketed by McNeil Laboratories, Inc., Camp Hill Road, Fort Washington, PA 19034.

All identical, related, or similar drug products, not the subject of an approved new drug application, are covered by the applications reviewed and are subject to this notice (21 CFR 310.6). Any person who wishes to determine whether a specific product is covered by this notice should write the Food and Drug Administration, Division of Drug Labeling Compliance (HFD-310), 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20852.

Neither the holder of the applications nor any other person filed a written appearance of election as provided by said notice. The failure to file such an appearance constitutes election by such persons not to avail themselves of the opportunity for a hearing.

The Director of the Bureau of Drugs, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act (sec. 505, 52 Stat. 1053, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 355), and under authority delegated to him (21 CFR 2.121), finds that on the basis of new information before him with respect to the drug products, evaluated together with the evidence available to him when the applications were approved, there is a lack of substantial evidence that the drug products will have the effects they purport or are represented to have under the conditions of use prescribed, recommended, or suggested in their labeling.

Therefore, pursuant to the foregoing finding, approval of new drug applications No. 11-528 and 11-985, and all amendments and supplements applying thereto is withdrawn effective April 14, 1975.

Shipment in interstate commerce of the above-listed products or of any identical, related, or similar product, not the subject of an approved new drug application, will then be unlawful.

Dated: March 27, 1975.

J. RICHARD CROUT,
Director, Bureau of Drugs.

DIRECT SKY BLUE INJECTION

Opportunity for Hearing on Proposal To Withdraw Approval of New Drug Application

A notice (DESI 8430) was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of November 7,

V 40 65 APR 3 75

1970 (35 FR 17213), pursuant to the evaluation of a report received from the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council, Drug Efficacy Study Group, in which the Food and Drug Administration announced its conclusion that the drug product described below is probably effective for use as an aid in identification of regional lymph nodes for complete excision during surgery, for studies of lymphatic distribution, and to detect leakage from an injured lymphatic duct; and possibly effective in delineating the thoracic duct during surgery, but that additional evidence is required to establish its effectiveness. No such evidence having been submitted, the Director of the Bureau of Drugs now proposes to withdraw approval of the product. Persons desiring to request a hearing must do so by May 5, 1975.

NDA 8-430; Direct Sky Blue Injection formerly marketed by Wyeth Laboratories, Inc., Post Office Box 8299, Philadelphia, PA 19101.

On the basis of all of the data and information available to him, the Director of the Bureau of Drugs is unaware of any adequate and well-controlled clinical investigation, conducted by experts qualified by scientific training and experience, meeting the requirements of section 505 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 355) and 21 CFR 314.111(a)(5), demonstrating the effectiveness of the drug.

Therefore, notice is given to the holder(s) of the new drug application(s) and to all other interested persons that the Director of the Bureau of Drugs proposes to issue an order under section 505(e) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 355(e)), withdrawing approval of the new drug application(s) (or if indicated above, those parts of the application(s) providing for the drug product(s) listed above) and all amendments and supplements thereto on the ground that new information before him with respect to the drug product(s), evaluated together with the evidence available to him at the time of approval of the application(s), shows there is a lack of substantial evidence that the drug product(s) will have the effect it purports or is represented to have under the conditions of use prescribed, recommended, or suggested in the labeling.

In addition to the holder(s) of the new drug application(s) specifically named above, this notice of opportunity for hearing applies to all persons who manufacture or distribute a drug product which is identical, related, or similar to a drug product named above, as defined in 21 CFR 310.6. It is the responsibility of every drug manufacturer or distributor to review this notice of opportunity for hearing to determine whether it covers any drug product he manufactures or distributes. Any person may request an opinion of the applicability of this notice to a specific drug product he manufactures or distributes that may be identical, related, or similar to a drug product named in this notice by writing to the Food and Drug Administration, Bureau of Drugs, Division of Drug Labeling Compliance (HFD-310), 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Md. 20852.

In addition to the ground(s) for the proposed withdrawal of approval stated above, this notice of opportunity for hearing encompasses all issues relating to the legal status of the drug products subject to it (including identical, related, or similar drug products as defined in § 310.6) e.g., any contention that any such product is not a new drug because it is generally recognized as safe and effective within the meaning of section 201(p) of the act or because it is exempt from part or all of the new drug provisions of the act pursuant to the exemption for products marketed prior to June 25, 1938, contained in section 201(p) of the act, or pursuant to section 107(c) of the Drug Amendments of 1962; or for any other reason.

In accordance with the provisions of section 505 of the act (21 U.S.C. 355) and the regulations promulgated thereunder (21 CFR 310, 314), the applicant(s) and all other persons subject to this notice pursuant to 21 CFR 310.6 are hereby given an opportunity for a hearing to show why approval of the new drug application(s) should not be withdrawn and an opportunity to raise, for administrative determination, all issues relating to the legal status of a drug product named above and of all identical, related, or similar drug products.

If an applicant or any other person subject to this notice pursuant to 21 CFR 310.6 elects to avail himself of the opportunity for a hearing, he shall file (1) on or before May 5, 1975, a written notice of appearance and request for hearing, and (2) on or before June 2, 1975, the data, information, and analyses on which he relies to justify a hearing, as specified in 21 CFR 314.200. Any other interested person may also submit comments on this notice. The procedures and requirements governing this notice of opportunity for hearing, a notice of appearance and request for hearing, a submission of data, information, and analyses to justify a hearing, other comments, and a grant or denial of hearing, are contained in 21 CFR 130.14 as published and discussed in detail in the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 13, 1974 (39 FR 9750), recodified as 21 CFR 314.200 on March 29, 1974 (39 FR 11680).

The failure of an applicant or any other person subject to this notice pursuant to 21 CFR 310.6 to file timely written appearance and request for hearing as required by 21 CFR 314.200 constitutes an election by such person not to avail himself of the opportunity for a hearing concerning the action proposed with respect to such drug product and a waiver of any contentions concerning the legal status of any such drug product. Any such drug product may not thereafter lawfully be marketed, and the Food and Drug Administration will initiate appropriate regulatory action to remove such drug products from the market. Any new drug product marketed without an approved NDA is subject to regulatory action at any time.

A request for a hearing may not rest upon mere allegations or denials, but must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine and substantial issue of fact that requires a hearing. If it conclusively appears from the face of the data, information, and factual analyses in the request for the hearing that there is no genuine and substantial issue of fact which precludes the withdrawal of approval of the application, or when a request for hearing is not made in the required format or with the required analyses, the Commissioner will enter summary judgment against the person(s) who requests the hearing, making findings and conclusions, denying a hearing.

All submissions pursuant to this notice shall be filed in quintuplicate with the Hearing Clerk, Food and Drug Administration (HFC-20), Room 4-65, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20852.

All submissions pursuant to this notice, except for data and information prohibited from public disclosure pursuant to 21 U.S.C. 331(j) or 18 U.S.C. 1905, may be seen in the office of the Hearing Clerk during regular business hours, Monday through Friday.

This notice is issued pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 505, 52 Stat. 1052-1053, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 355), and under authority delegated to the Director of the Bureau of Drugs (21 CFR 2.121).

Dated: March 27, 1975.

J. RICHARD CROUT,
Director, Bureau of Drugs.

GASTROINTESTINAL DRUG CONTAINING OXETHAZAINE AND ALUMINUM HYDROXIDE GEL

Withdrawal of Pertinent Part of New Drug Application

A notice of opportunity for hearing (DESI 12186) was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of July 16, 1974 (39 FR 26305) in which the Director of the Bureau of Drugs proposed to issue an order withdrawing approval of the drug product described below. The basis of the proposed action was the lack of substantial evidence that the product is effective for use in certain gastrointestinal disorders. The proposed action was not contested and approval of that product is now being withdrawn.

That part of NDA 12-186 pertaining to Oxaine Suspension containing oxethazaine and aluminum hydroxide gel; Wyeth Laboratories, Division American Home Products Corp., Post Office Box 8299, Philadelphia, PA 19101.

All identical, related, or similar drug products not the subject of an approved new drug application, are covered by the application reviewed and are subject to this notice (21 CFR 310.6). Any person who wishes to determine whether a specific product is covered by this notice should write the Food and Drug Administration, Division of Drug Labeling Compliance (HFD-310), 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20852.

The July 18, 1974 notice of opportunity for hearing also included Wyeth Laboratories' Oxaine M Suspension containing oxethazaine, aluminum hydroxide gel, and magnesium hydroxide. American Home Products Corporation (of which Wyeth Laboratories is a division) requested a hearing concerning Oxaine M and that specific product may continue to be marketed pending a ruling on the request for hearing.

No other person filed a written appearance of election as provided by said notice. The failure to file such an appearance constitutes election by such persons not to avail themselves of the opportunity for a hearing.

The Director of the Bureau of Drugs, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 505, 52 Stat. 1053, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 355), and under authority delegated to him (21 CFR 2.121), finds that on the basis of new information before him with respect to the drug, evaluated together with the evidence available when the application was approved, there is a lack of substantial evidence that the drug product will have the effects it purports or is represented to have under the conditions of use prescribed, recommended, or suggested in its labeling.

Therefore, pursuant to the foregoing finding, approval of those parts of new drug application No. 12-186 pertaining to Oxaine Suspension and all amendments and supplements applying thereto is withdrawn effective April 14, 1975.

Shipment in interstate commerce of the above-listed product or of any identical, related, or similar product, not the subject of an approved new drug application, will then be unlawful.

Dated: March 27, 1975.

PIPRADROL HYDROCHLORIDE TABLETS

Notice of Withdrawal of Approval of New Drug Application

A notice of opportunity for hearing (DESI 9366) was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of October 11, 1974 (39 FR 36628) pursuant to the Drug Efficacy Study in which the Director of the Bureau of Drugs proposed to issue an order withdrawing approval of the new drug application for the drug product described below containing pipradrol hydrochloride. The basis of the proposed action was the lack of substantial evidence that the product is effective for its labeled indications. The drug has been used to relieve depression. The proposed action was not contested and approval of the new drug application is now being withdrawn.

NDA 9-366; Meratran Tablets, containing 1.0 milligram or 2.5 milligrams pipradrol hydrochloride per tablet; Merrell-National Laboratories, Division of Richardson-Merrell, Inc., 110 Amity Road, Cincinnati, OH 45215.

All identical, related, or similar drug products, not the subject of an approved new drug application, are covered by the application reviewed and are subject to this notice (21 CFR 310.6). Any person who wishes to determine whether a specific product is covered by this notice should write the Food and Drug Administration, Division of Drug Labeling Compliance (HFD-310), 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20852.

Merrell-National Laboratories responded to the aforesaid notice, waived the opportunity for a hearing and stated that the product was deleted in June, 1974.

No other person filed a written appearance of election as provided by said notice. The failure to file such an appearance constitutes election by such persons not to avail themselves of the opportunity for a hearing.

The Director of the Bureau of Drugs, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 505, 52 Stat. 1053, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 355), and under authority delegated to him (21 CFR 2.121), finds that on the basis of new information before him with respect to the drug product, evaluated together with the evidence available to him when the application was approved, there is a lack of substantial evidence that the drug product will have the effects it purports or is represented to have under the conditions of use prescribed, recommended, or suggested in its labeling.

Therefore, pursuant to the foregoing finding, approval of new drug application No. 9-366 and all amendments and supplements applying thereto is withdrawn effective on April 14, 1975.

Shipment in interstate commerce of the above-listed product or of any identical, related, or similar product, not the subject of an approved new drug application, will then be unlawful.

Dated: March 27, 1975.

TALBUTAL TABLETS (30 MG. AND 50 MG.)

Withdrawal of Approval of Pertinent Parts of New Drug Application

A notice of opportunity for a hearing was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of September 17, 1974 (39 FR 33388) in which the Director of the Bureau of Drugs proposed to withdraw approval of talbutal tablets, described below, in strengths of 30 mg. and 50 mg. The basis of the proposed action was lack of substantial evidence that these strengths of talbutal are effective for their claimed uses. Talbutal has been used as a sedative. A hearing was not requested and this notice withdraws approval of 30 mg. and 50 mg. talbutal tablets. A notice stating that 120 mg. talbutal tablets are regarded as effective for patients with insomnia was also published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of September 17, 1974 (39 FR 33389). The 120 mg. strength is not affected by this notice.

NDA 9-410; Lotusate Tablets containing talbutal (30 mg. and 50 mg.); formerly marketed by Winthrop Laboratories, Division of Sterling Drug, Inc., 90 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10016.

Neither the holder of the application nor any other person filed a written appearance of election as provided by said notice. The failure to file such an appearance constitutes election by such persons not to avail themselves of an opportunity for hearing.

All identical, related, or similar products, not the subject of an approved new drug application, are covered by the new drug application reviewed and are subject to this notice (21 CFR 310.6). Any person who wishes to determine whether a specific product is covered by this notice should write to the Food and Drug Administration, Bureau of Drugs, Division of Drug Labeling Compliance (HFD-310), 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20852.

The Director of the Bureau of Drugs, pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 505, 52 Stat. 1053, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 355), and under the authority delegated to him (21 CFR 2.121) finds that on the basis of new information before him with respect to the drug product, evaluated together with the evidence available to him when the application was approved, there is a lack of substantial evidence that the drug product will have the effects it purports or is represented to have under the conditions of use prescribed, recommended, or suggested in its labeling.

Therefore, pursuant to the foregoing finding, approval of those parts of NDA 9-410 providing for 30 mg. and 50 mg. talbutal tablets, and all amendments and supplements applying thereto, is withdrawn effective April 14, 1975.

Shipment in interstate commerce of the above-listed drug products or of any identical, related, or similar product, not the subject of an approved new drug application will then be unlawful.

Dated: March 27, 1975.

Office of Education

DOMESTIC MINING AND MINERAL AND MINERAL FUEL CONSERVATION FELLOWSHIPS

Proposed Criteria for Funding Applications for Fiscal Year 1975

Pursuant to the authority contained in Title IX, Part D, of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1134n et seq.), notice is hereby given that the Commissioner of Education, with the approval of the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, proposes to issue the criteria set forth below which will be used to evaluate applications submitted by institutions of higher education under section 961 of Title IX, Part D of the Act.

Section 961(a) (1) of Part D of Title IX authorizes a fellowship program "to assist graduate students of exceptional ability who demonstrate a financial need for advanced study in domestic mining and mineral and mineral fuel conservation including oil, gas, coal, oil shale, and uranium."

Fellowships will be allocated to institutions of higher education which are approved on the basis of the criteria set forth below. These institutions in turn will recommend eligible students to the Commissioner for his selection. Two specific types of fellowships will be allocated and awarded: fellowships for graduate or professional study leading to an advanced degree and fellowships for research incident to the presentation of a doctoral dissertation. The latter type of fellowships will be awarded to students who have completed all course work required for granting of a doctoral or equivalent degree and comprehensive examinations where appropriate, and whose doctoral dissertation proposal has been approved. An institution of higher education may apply for an allocation of either or both types of fellowships.

The proposed criteria read as follows:

(a) The Commissioner will approve programs of study and allocate fellowships to such programs under Title IX, Part D of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, on the basis of the following criteria:

(1) The extent to which the proposed training program is concerned with the following national priorities:

(i) Programs which are designed to improve surface and underground mining technology and which give due attention to mine safety and health and to the protection and restoration of the environment.

(ii) Programs to promote conservation and to develop improved secondary and tertiary recovery techniques for coal, oil, and gas.

(iii) Programs to promote mineral conservation through improved techniques and efficiency in metallic and non-metallic mineral extraction, process energy consumption, and recycling and secondary uses of metallic and non-metallic materials.

(iv) Programs to develop technologies to allow increased utilization of coal through gasification, liquefaction, and direct combustion.

(v) Programs to develop techniques to maximize the production of oil from oil shale deposits.

(vi) Programs to develop improved methods for discovery of new deposits of coal, oil, gas, oil shale, uranium, and/or alternative mineral fuel resources.

(2) The extent to which the proposed program has as a principal or significant objective the education of persons for domestic mining and mineral and mineral fuel conservation careers, and the extent to which such program is in effect and of high quality, or can readily be put into effect and may reasonably be expected to be of high quality.

(3) The extent to which it is demonstrated that the proposed program will achieve its objectives.

(4) The extent to which relevant supervised practicum, internship, or field research experiences are integrated into the proposed program of training.

(5) The extent to which the background, education, research interests, and experience of the faculty and administrative staff of the proposed program qualify them to plan and implement a successful program of domestic mining and mineral and mineral fuel conservation education.

(6) The extent to which the named director of the proposed program has clear responsibilities and time to devote to the program.

(7) The extent to which other institutional resources (such as facilities, equipment, libraries, etc.) are adequate to support the proposed program.

(8) The extent to which there is substantial evidence of realistic commitment to domestic mining and mineral and mineral fuel conservation education by those most involved in the proposed program, including the institution's administration.

(9) The extent to which specific evidence is provided which demonstrates past success of graduates from the program in entering careers in domestic mining and mineral and mineral fuel conservation.

(10) The extent to which procedures are planned to measure the effectiveness and success of the proposed program.

(11) The extent to which the program has developed criteria for identifying students with exceptional ability and financial need.

(b) Types of fellowships that will be awarded.

(1) Fellowships awarded for graduate or professional study leading to an advanced degree. Institutions may apply for an allocation of fellowships for periods of up to three years for study leading to a graduate or professional degree. Most of the fellowships of this type will be awarded for graduate study leading to a masters degree.

(2) Fellowships for research incident to the presentation of a doctoral dissertation. In making recommendations to the Commissioner, institutions receiving an allocation of fellowships of this type will be expected to give highest consideration to applicants whose dissertation topic is in one of the national priority areas listed above in paragraph (a) (1).

(c) Criteria for determining financial need. In determining whether a student has financial need for purposes of this fellowship program, the institution will consider the student's projected costs for the year including tuition, fees, books, materials and supplies, plus other reasonable costs that a student might have for room and board in comparison with what the student's resources might be.

(20 U.S.C. 1134n, 1134o)

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments, suggestions, or objections regarding these criteria to the Division of Training and Facilities, U.S. Office of Education, 7th and D Streets SW., Room 4674, ROB-3, Washington, D.C. 20202. Comments received in response to this notice will be available for public inspection at the above office on Mondays through Fridays between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. All relevant material must be received not later than May 5, 1975.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE AND AREA STUDIES FELLOWSHIPS

Criteria for Funding Applications for Fiscal Year 1975

On pages 39899 and 39900 of the FEDERAL REGISTER of November 12, 1974, there was published a Notice of Proposed Rule Making which set forth criteria to be used in evaluating applications for a quota of fellowships for Fiscal Year 1975 under section 601(b) of the National Defense Education Act of 1958 as amended (20 U.S.C. 511(b)). Interested persons were given 30 days in which to submit written comments, suggestions, or objections regarding the proposed criteria.

No objections have been received and the proposed criteria are hereby adopted without change and are set forth below.

Effective date. The Notice of Proposed Rule Making was transmitted to Congress on November 6, 1974 pursuant to section 431(d) of the General Education Provisions Act. (20 U.S.C. 1232(d)). The time period set forth therein for congressional action has expired without such action having been taken. Therefore these criteria shall become effective on the date of their publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance Programs: 13.434 Foreign Language and Area Studies—Fellowships)

Dated: March 16, 1975.

T. H. BELL,
U.S. Commissioner of Education.

Approved: March 31, 1975.

CASPAR W. WEINBERGER,
Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

The criteria read as follows: In addition to evaluation on the basis of the criteria found in the Office of Education General Provisions at 45 CFR 100a.26(b) the Commissioner will evaluate applications for quotas of foreign language and area studies fellowships from institutions of higher education in accordance with the following criteria:

(a) The quality of the institution's existing foreign language and area studies program as evidenced by course offerings, faculty, and library holdings;

(b) The degree to which the institution proposes to have intra-institutional cooperation with other foreign language and area programs and the nature and extent of coordination with the institution's professional schools and other special university programs;

(c) The degree of institutional commitment to the development of the program, as evidenced by faculty appointments, university scholarships and teaching assistantships, and funding of library acquisitions;

(d) The degree requirements of the institution's foreign language and area studies programs with special emphasis on the extent to which that degree requires proficiency in one or more foreign languages;

(e) The extent to which the institution's foreign language and area studies program provides extracurricular activities which enhance the student's foreign language proficiency and knowledge of the world area he is studying; and

(f) Lowest priority will be given to applications for fellowships in French, German, or Iberian Spanish.

TALENT SEARCH—SPECIAL SERVICES FOR DISADVANTAGED STUDENTS

Criteria for Funding Applications for Fiscal Year 1975

On pages 41536 and 41537 of the FEDERAL REGISTER of November 29, 1974, there was published a notice with regard to criteria for the selection of applications for funding for fiscal year 1975 under the Talent Search and Special Services for Disadvantaged Students Programs. Interested persons were given 30 days in which to submit comments, suggestions, or objections regarding the proposed criteria.

No comments, suggestions, or objections have been received; therefore, the criteria are hereby adopted without change and are set forth below.

Effective date. The Notice of Proposed Rule Making was transmitted to Congress on November 25, 1974, pursuant to section 431(d) of the General Education Provisions Act. (20 U.S.C. 1232(d)) The time period set forth therein for congressional action has expired without such action having been taken. Therefore these criteria shall become effective on the date of their publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: March 3, 1975.

T. H. BELL,
U.S. Commissioner of Education.

Approved: March 31, 1975.

CASPAR W. WEINBERGER,
Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

CRITERIA FOR TALENT SEARCH

The Commissioner will select applicants to be funded under the Talent Search Program on the basis of the criteria set forth in 45 CFR 100a.26(b), as well as the following criteria:

(a) Continuation awards. A request for funds for the continuation of a project begun in a prior fiscal year and containing an approved multiyear work plan will be given priority over an application for the initiation of a new project. Requests for continuation awards will be approved only if (1) satisfactory progress, as indicated by site visits, progress reports and other relevant data, has been made in implementing the approved work program; (2) the project, in conformity with the funding criteria against which the original proposal was evaluated, is achieving the approved goals and objectives; and (3) the project has been successful, and continues to offer promise of success, in placing students suffering from financial or cultural need in postsecondary educational institutions.

Before any proposal for the continuation of a project is evaluated, all required reports, including fiscal audits, data collection forms, quarterly fiscal reports, and semi-annual and annual narrative reports must be received and accepted by the appropriate Office of Education staff.

(b) New awards. A request for funds for the initiation of a new project will be evaluated on the following criteria: (1) The extent to which the target area of the project is characterized by (i) high concentration of secondary school dropouts; (ii) low level of postsecondary school attendance; (iii) persons having family income at or below the Federal poverty level; and (iv) students from low-income families having low aspiration levels and special needs resulting from cultural isolation, language disabilities, and educational deficiencies;

(2) The scope and variety of methods to be used in the recruitment of Talent Search youth;

(3) Evidence of prior involvement with the community to be served;

(4) Evidence of the ability of the applicant to work with members of the academic community in the area to be served, especially in the area of admissions and financial aid, as reflected by previous and projected activities of the applicant;

V 40 65 APR 3 75 XUM

(5) The method to be utilized to impact upon the target community in terms of (1) expanding options for postsecondary opportunities; and (2) securing admissions and financial assistance for target students;

(6) A comprehensive plan for providing counseling services;

(7) A comprehensive plan outlining how other educational and community resources will be utilized in providing services which the Talent Search project cannot itself provide; and

(8) Evidence that the project staff is sensitive to the ethnic or racial backgrounds of project participants.

(c) National Demonstration Awards. The Commissioner will select a limited number of applications to be funded as Talent Search National Demonstration awards on the basis of the criteria specified in part (b) above and these additional criteria:

(1) The proposed project is national or inter-regional in scope, neither duplicates nor competes with existing regional or national programs, nor consolidates existing regional or inter-regional educational activities under the aegis of a single agency or institution;

(2) The proposal presents a clearly new or experimental technique or design for the recruitment of disadvantaged students for postsecondary education, and clearly demonstrates a degree of replicability, and provides for an evaluation of the results in such form as to be readily utilized by other educational programs concerned with the recruitment of disadvantaged students for postsecondary education;

(3) The proposed project would provide a service not readily available on a local or regional basis for that recruitment; and

(4) The proposed project would be able to provide a variety of educational opportunities and options for postsecondary educational careers for the disadvantaged.

It is expected that approved activities as set forth in a work plan for projects funded under this paragraph will be accomplished within a maximum 3-year period.

It is anticipated that awards made pursuant to this notice will be primarily grants. However, applications from profit-making organizations will be considered as unsolicited proposals and will be evaluated in accordance with the criteria set forth in this proposed rulemaking. Successful applications from profit-making organizations will be funded under contracts.

(20 U.S.C. 1070d-1)

CRITERIA FOR SPECIAL SERVICES FOR DISADVANTAGED STUDENTS

The Commissioner will select applicants to be funded under the Special Services for Disadvantaged Students Program on the basis of the criteria set forth in 45 CFR 100a.26(b), as well as the following criteria:

(a) Continuation awards. A request for funds for the continuation of a project begun in a prior fiscal year and containing an approved multi-year work plan will be given priority over an application for the initiation of a new project. Requests for continuation awards will be approved only if (1) satisfactory progress, as indicated by site visits, progress reports and other relevant data, has been made in implementing the approved work program; (2) the project, in conformity with the funding criteria against which the original proposal was evaluated, is achieving the approved goals and objectives; and (3) the project has been successful, and continues to offer promise of success, in enabling students to initiate, resume or continue their post-secondary education with adequate financial aid.

Before any proposal for the continuation of a project is evaluated all required reports, including fiscal audits, data collection forms, quarterly fiscal reports, and semi-annual and annual narrative reports must be received and accepted by the appropriate Office of Education staff.

(b) New awards. A request for funds for the initiation of a new project will be evaluated on the following criteria: (1) Evidence of the enrollment at the institution of physically disabled and/or low-income students who, by reason of deprived educational, cultural, or economic background, or physical handicap, or students who by reason of limited English-speaking ability, are in need of supportive special services to assist them to initiate, continue, or resume their postsecondary education;

(2) Evidence of the availability and distribution of financial assistance to meet the needs of low-income students enrolled in the applicant institution;

(3) Delineation of a clear and precise plan for the selection of students which must include a comprehensive assessment of the supportive services needed by the the student. In the event a project will include students who by reason of limited English-speaking ability are in need of bilingual supportive services, the proposal must include a plan whereby such students will be selected for participation in the project on the basis of the difficulty the student has in speaking and understanding instruction in the English language.

(4) Evidence of institutional policies in such areas as retention, grading, course options, and other administrative and academic policies which have as their purpose the maximization of a student's chances for a successful completion of postsecondary education;

(5) A work program including (i) a comprehensive counseling program, including student personal, career and academic counseling; (ii) special classes, remedial and other activities that have as their purpose the preparation of students to compete with sufficient academic skills at the institution; (iii) a comprehensive plan for providing tutorial services; (iv) a comprehensive plan to provide other services necessary to meet the educational needs of those students participating in the project; and/or (v) a comprehensive work program for students of limited English-speaking ability participating in the project which includes (a) provision for a program of English language instruction for students of limited English-speaking ability and usage participating in the project; and (b) necessary remedial instruction and tutoring, as well as personal, career and academic guidance and counseling, in order to permit students of limited English-speaking ability to pursue successfully postsecondary education;

(6) A comprehensive plan for staff selection and training;

(7) A comprehensive plan to orient the institutional community to the goals and objectives of the Special Services Program;

(8) A method of assessing and documenting the effects of the project services on the progress made by students participating in the project or former student participants of the project; and

(9) A comprehensive plan for the utilization of institution and community resources available to the project.

(c) National Demonstration Awards. The Commissioner will select a limited number of applications to be funded as Special Services for Disadvantaged Students National Demonstration awards on the basis of the criteria specified in part (b) above and these additional criteria:

(1) The proposed project is national or inter-regional in scope, neither duplicates nor competes with existing regional or national programs, nor consolidates existing regional or inter-regional educational activities under the aegis of a single agency or institution;

(2) The proposal presents a clearly new or experimental technique or design for the provision of special services for students from deprived educational, cultural, or economic backgrounds, students with physical disabilities, or students of limited English-speaking ability enrolled at the institution which is the beneficiary of the award, and clearly demonstrates a degree of replicability, and provides for an evaluation of the results in such a form as to be readily utilized by other educational programs concerned with the provision of special supportive services for eligible students enrolled at the institution;

(3) The proposed project would provide a service not readily available on a local or regional basis for those services; and

(4) The proposed project would be able to provide a variety of educational opportunities and options for postsecondary educational careers.

It is expected that approved activities as set forth in a work plan for projects funded under this paragraph will be accomplished within a maximum 3-year period.

It is anticipated that awards made pursuant to this notice will be primarily grants. However, applications from profit-making organizations will be considered as unsolicited proposals and will be evaluated in accordance with the criteria set forth in this proposed rulemaking. Successful applications from profit-making organizations will be funded under contracts.

Office of Interstate Land Sales Registration

[Docket No. N-75-272]

LAUREL MOUNTAIN VILLAGE SUBDIVISION

Hearing

In the matter of Laurel Mountain Village Subdivision, OILSR No. 0-3146-44-212, Docket No. 75-159.

Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. 1706(d) and 24 CFR 1720.160(d) notice is hereby given that:

1. Laurel Mountain Development Corporation, Alan Patterson, President, its officers and agents, hereinafter referred to as "Respondent," being subject to the provisions of the Interstate Land Sales Full Disclosure Act (Pub. L. 90-448) (15 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.), received a Notice of Proceedings and Opportunity for Hearing issued January 21, 1975, which was sent to the developer pursuant to 15 U.S.C. 1706(d), 24 CFR 1710.45(b)(1) and 1720.125 informing the developer of information obtained by the Office of Interstate Land Sales Registration alleging that the Statement of Record and Property Report for Laurel Mountain Village Subdivision, located in Somerset County, Pennsylvania, contain untrue statements of material fact or omit to state material facts required to be stated therein as necessary to make the statements therein not misleading.

2. The Respondent filed an Answer received February 7, 1975, in response to the Notice of Proceedings and Opportunity for Hearing.

3. In said Answer the Respondent requested a hearing on the allegations contained in the Notice of Proceedings and Opportunity for Hearing.

4. Therefore, pursuant to the provisions of 15 U.S.C. 1706(d) and 24 CFR 1720.160(d), it is hereby ordered That a public hearing for the purpose of taking evidence on the questions set forth in the Notice of Proceedings and Opportunity for Hearing will be held before Judge James W. Mast, in Room 7146, Department of HUD, 451 7th Street, SW., Washington, D.C., on April 4, 1975, at 10 a.m.

The following time and procedure is applicable to such hearing: All affidavits and a list of all witnesses are requested to be filed with the Hearing Clerk, HUD Building, Room 10150, Washington, D.C., 20410 on or before March 28, 1975.

6. The Respondent is hereby notified that failure to appear at the above scheduled hearing shall be deemed a default and the proceedings shall be determined against Respondent, the allegations of which shall be deemed to be true, and an order Suspending the Statement of Record, herein identified, shall be issued pursuant to 24 CFR 1710.45(b)(1).

This notice shall be served upon the Respondent forthwith pursuant to 24 CFR 1720.440.

Dated: March 26, 1975.

By the Secretary.

JAMES W. MAST,
Administrative Law Judge.

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Federal Highway Administration

WALT WHITMAN AND BENJAMIN FRANKLIN BRIDGE TOLLS

Inclusion of Documents

MARCH 26, 1975.

The Order of the Federal Highway Administrator, dated February 10, 1975, announced that the Administrator was considering reopening the record in this proceeding and directed that the Delaware River Port Authority submit certain documents for possible inclusion in the record. These documents were received and, further, pursuant to the Order of February 10, 1975, transmitted to all parties of record with opportunity afforded said parties to submit their comments, objections, and briefs concerning the documents.

The Administrator received comments from the City of Philadelphia, Motorists for Lower Tolls, the Automobile Club of Southern New Jersey, the Delaware River Port Authority and Public Counsel. After due consideration of these comments, the Administrator hereby determines that the following documents shall be labeled and made a part of the official record in this proceeding:

(1) Exhibit 136—Official Statement of the Delaware River Port Authority relating to the $47,815,000 bond issue, dated June 15, 1974.

(2) Exhibit 137—Financial Statement of the Delaware River Port Authority for calendar year 1974.

(3) Exhibit 138—Traffic counts by toll classes of vehicles—revenue classes of vehicular traffic.

(4) Exhibit 139—Delaware River Port Authority 1975 Capital and Operating Budget Report.

The inclusion of these documents in the official record will enable the Administrator to proceed to a final determination as to the reasonableness and justness of tolls to be charged for the transit of vehicles over bridges operated by the Delaware River Port Authority. All conditions and toll schedules heretofore established by the Administrator shall continue in effect on an interim basis.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on March 26, 1975.

NORBERT T. TIEMANN,
Federal Highway Administrator.

MUSTANG AND COUGAR SEAT BACK PIVOT ARM HINGE PIN BRACKET FAILURES

Rescheduling of Pubic Proceeding

Pursuant to section 152 of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966 as amended (Pub. L. 93-492, 88 Stat. 1470; October 27, 1974), 15 U.S.C. 1412, the Associate Administrator, Motor Vehicle Programs, has made an initial determination that a defect relating to motor safety exists with respect to failures of seat back pivot arm hinge pin brackets in 1968 and 1969 Mustang and Cougar model automobiles manufactured by the Ford Motor Company because such failures can result in loss of vehicle control, accident, or personal injury.

A public proceeding initially set for April 8, 1975 (40 FR 12308) has been rescheduled at the request of Ford Motor Company for 10 a.m., April 22, 1975, in Room 6332, Department of Transportation Headquarters, 400 Seventh Street SW., Washington, D.C. 20590, at which Ford will be afforded an opportunity to present data, views and arguments to establish that the alleged defect does not exist or does not affect motor vehicle safety.

Interested persons are invited to participate through written or oral presentations. Persons wishing to make oral presentations are requested to notify Mrs. Nancy Martus, Office of Defects Investigation, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Washington, D.C. 20590, Telephone (202) 426-2850, before the close of business (4:15 p.m.) on April 18, 1975. A transcript will be kept and exhibits may be accepted. There will be no cross examination of witnesses.

The agency's investigative file in this matter is available for public inspection during regular working hours (7:45 a.m.-4:15 p.m.) in the Technical Reference Division, Room 5108, 400 Seventh Street SW., Washington, D.C. 20590.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 26494; Order 75-3-101]

INTERNATIONAL AIR TRANSPORT ASSOCIATION

Order Relating to North Atlantic Air Fares

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C. on the 27th day of March 1975.

An agreement has been filed with the Board, pursuant to section 412(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (the Act) and Part 261 of the Board's Economic Regulations, between various air carriers, foreign air carriers, and other carriers, embodied in the resolutions of the Joint Traffic Conferences of the International Air Transport Association (IATA). The agreement proposes fares over the North Atlantic to be effective April 1, 1975 through March 31, 1976.

Essentially, the agreement would hold first-class, economy-class, 14/21-day excursion, year-round group inclusive tour fares, and winter group inclusive tour fares to the levels previously agreed at Montreux, and would make relatively limited reductions from those levels in certain promotional fares.[1] The 22/45-day excursion fares between New York and London would be reduced by three percent, the Advance-Purchase Excursion (APEX) fares by 6 to 9 percent, and the affinity group fares by two percent. These percentage reductions become less as the structure extends outward to points beyond London. For example, between New York and Rome the affinity group fares remain at the Montreux level, the 22/45-day excursion fares are reduced by one to two percent, and the peak-season APEX fare is reduced by two percent. In addition, the winter group inclusive tour fare for U.S.-originating travel would be extended through May 22, 1975 and would be reintroduced for travel commencing September 16, 1975, at higher levels during these shoulder periods than those applying in the winter season.[2] Finally, affinity group fares to Spain and Portugal would be reduced from Montreux levels by up to 8 percent for Madrid and from 2 to 10 percent for Lisbon, and one free stopover in each direction would be permitted for travel to Spain and Portugal on these fares.

[1] The Montreux fare agreement, which proposed new North Atlantic fares for the period November 1, 1974 through March 31, 1976 was approved by Order 74-10-106, October 21, 1974. However, that agreement was not implemented by the carriers due to the absence of an effective charter rate floor. Interim fares were approved for the period through March 31, 1975, by Orders 74-10-151 and 75-1-24. A comparison of the Montreux and proposed fares is set forth in the Appendices, which are filed as part of the original document.

The APEX fares are subject to substantially the same conditions contained in the Montreux agreement. Sales would be limited to 20 percent of each carrier's total weekly economy-class capacity, and the number of seats to be made available on any one flight cannot exceed 50 percent of the economy-class seating capacity of that flight or 80 seats, whichever is greater. Reservations, full payment, and issuance of tickets must be completed not later than two calendar months prior to commencement of outbound travel. A change in reservation, cancellation, or failure to use confirmed APEX space as ticketed (other than the death of a prospective passenger prior to departure time) is subject to a nonrefundable charge equal to 10 percent of the fare or $50, whichever is higher.

Finally, the agreement proposes the reintroduction of youth fares between the United States and Europe at levels generally reflecting the combination of normal U.S.-Canada fares and Canada-Europe youth fares.[3]

Order 75-2-29, dated February 6, 1975, established dates for the submission of carrier justifications and comments from any interested persons. Carrier justifications have been received and evaluated as well as the comments from interested persons and the matter now stands ready for Board decision.

All three of the U.S. IATA member carriers, National Airlines, Inc. (National), Pan American World Airways, Inc. (Pan American) and Trans World Airlines, Inc. (TWA), urge approval of the agreement both because of the alleged benefits to the public and the carriers alike and because of the fact that this agreement represents the best compromise attainable considering the divergent views of the many carriers involved. The carriers note that attempts to secure a North Atlantic fare agreement date back to June 1974 and that after many months of conference negotiation and interim agreements, the proposed structure was finally settled upon.

All three carriers urge approval of the agreement in toto, including the youth fares which are not proposed as an interlocked part of the structure. Pan American and TWA anticipate better results under the proposed versus the Montreux agreements without youth fares. Under the Montreux agreement, the anticipated return on investment based on present operating authority would have been 2.03 percent for Pan American and 4.7 percent for TWA. Under the basic fare structure here under consideration, these returns are expected to be 4.03 percent and 5.8 percent, respectively. National projects a virtually identical return under the Montreux or revised fare package: 19.6 percent and 19.4 percent for the forecast year.

Both Pan American and TWA lay particular stress on reintroduction of youth fares to and from the United States, essentially resting their argument on the drain through Canadian gateways of traffic and revenues which are the rightful entitlement of U.S. carriers. Pan American estimates that the proposed youth fares will generate a traffic increase of 156 million revenue passenger-miles, and a net revenue gain of $9.1 million. TWA estimates a traffic increase of 210 million revenue passenger-miles, and a net revenue gain of $10.2 million. Both further contend that the proposed residency requirements for sale of peak-season youth-fare traffic out of Canada would be ineffective from an enforcement standpoint and so will have little effect in reducing diversion of U.S.-Europe traffic through Canada.

Comments in opposition to the agreement have been submitted by the National Air Carrier Association (NACA), the International Air Carrier Association (IACA) and the Puget Sound Traffic Association. The American Society of Travel Agents, Inc. (ASTA) and the Department of Transportation (DOT) have filed comments supporting the agreement.[3a]

Essentially, NACA and IACA reiterate arguments made against previously agreed IATA fare structures for scheduled service, that the fares for normal services are too high and that those for excursion and other special-fare services are too low.[4] The latter are argued to be below full cost, require subsidization by normal-fare passengers, and threaten the ability of charter carriers to sustain economic charter services. NACA refers to repeated adjurations by the Board on the need for cost-related fares in scheduled service, and urges disapproval of those low-level fares designed to be charter competitive and an overall investigation of the North Atlantic fare structure.

The Department of Transportation (DOT) and the American Society of Travel Agents (ASTA) both urge approval of the agreement as the best of available alternatives; the latter acknowledging the need for the fare increases involved and also contending that disapproval would lead to a chaotic situation for carriers, agents, and the traveling public. The DOT states that, all things equal, it would be disposed to urge disapproval of the agreement as unresponsive to the basic need for a cost-related fare structure. However, it concludes that the proposed fare structure promises to be more compensatory than continuation of present fares or an open-rate situation and that, at improved load factors, Pan American could earn a reasonable return on investment. Finally, while opposing youth fares in principle, DOT suggests that the competitive situation vis-a-vis Canada and alleged diversion of this traffic through Canadian gateways may provide a sufficient basis for approval of youth fares for originating U.S. travel. Like NACA, the DOT also urges that the Board institute a formal investigation of the North Atlantic fare structure.

Finally, the Puget Sound Traffic Association requests that approval of the agreement be conditioned to require that fares between Seattle and Europe be no greater on a cents-per-mile basis than fares between Los Angeles and Europe; and that, in no event, should Seattle-Europe fares be greater on a per-mile basis than Vancouver-Europe fares. The Association cites the Board's decision in Agreements Adopted by IATA Relating to North Atlantic Cargo Rates Case, Docket 20522, as precedent; cites the fact that Seattle is common rated with more distant California gateways in IATA transpacific fare and rate agreements to Seattle's disadvantage; and that maintaining lower fares from Vancouver (only 92 miles distant from Seattle) will only serve to perpetuate an inequitable and unduly prejudicial practice.

The agreement here before us represents the culmination of negotiations first undertaken in June 1974 and continuing into January 1975. It was hammered out against a background of unprecedented general inflation, fuel prices which had escalated approximately 200 percent within a scant year, and a decline in traffic which achieved alarming proportions in the final quarter of 1974 and shows no sign of reversal in 1975. The year 1974 also saw the first absolute decline in traffic experienced in the post World War II era. Initially, an agreement was arrived at (known as the Montreux agreement) covering the off-peak winter season just past and the up-coming year from April 1, 1975 with which we are now concerned. This agreement was tied to imposition of an assured level of minimum charter rates but did not become effective because the latter did not materialize. In the interim period, carriers have implemented much of the Montreux agreement (not including the APEX fare) as it related to winter services.[5]

The Board's decision approving the Montreux agreement was made against the background of the unique economic

[2] The fares would also be available during the month of August for travel from the United States to points in the Azores, Canary Islands, and Madeira.

[3] The agreement provides in the event of disapproval of U.S.-originating youth fares, Canadian-originating youth fares during peak season shall not be available to holders of U.S. Passports unless they produce an official Canadian Immigrant Visa or Canadian Student Visa issued at least three months prior to the date of commencement of travel or documentary evidence of their residence in Canada for not less than three months.

circumstances alluded to above and the conviction that disapproval would lead only to further deterioration in the financial position of our two major international carriers. The decision to approve the agreement, however, was taken not without considerable misgiving, despite the substantial increases in fare level considered essential by the Board in certain of the promotional fares, most notably the 22/45-day excursion fare. In essence, the Board concluded that while the Montreux package did not accomplish the longer-range objectives necessary to achieve a soundly based cost-related and nondiscriminatory fare structure, it represented an acceptable agreement for the immediate period ahead. We have since stated that, in our opinion, the lowest fare available on the North Atlantic should be that previously agreed to at Montreux for the restricted APEX service, and that the fare structure should not be one which produces an aggregate yield below that which would have resulted from the Montreux package. We have also since reiterated our view that affinity group fares to the Iberian peninsula should be set at levels comparable to other areas, and that youth fares should not be reinstated from the United States.

The agreement we are here called upon to approve does, in fact, propose fare levels below those contemplated in the Montreux agreement, and also proposes to reinstate youth fares (to which we speak subsequently). On the other hand, both Pan American and TWA project more favorable results than expected under the Montreux package even without youth fares. Pan American now anticipates a return of 4.03 percent on investment, versus 2.03 percent under the Montreux structure; TWA, 5.2 percent versus 4.7 percent. Both carriers have provided their justifications on the basis of their recently approved route realignment. Adjusting Pan American's load factor to that projected by TWA, 52.7 percent, would increase its return to 4.51 percent.[8] National, on the other hand, projects minimal changes in its return on investment under the new package; from 19.6 percent to 19.4 percent under the Montreux versus the present proposal.[9]

Evaluation of the agreement is admittedly more difficult than would normally be the case in view of the significant realignment of operations only very recently implemented by Pan American and TWA. There is, in a word, no historical comparison which would be of particular value in assessing the potential economies of the agreement. However, our review of the carriers' projections discloses nothing apparently unreasonable, nor anything that would dissuade us from the conclusion that the overall fare structure will be at least as remunerative as the Montreux package which we have previously approved. Certainly it promises to be substantially more remunerative than the fares in effect last summer and, undoubtedly, more remunerative than could result from an open-rate series of individual carrier filings.

We are also constrained to recognize that the agreement represents a compromise of quite different basic philosophies heightened by the fact that, contrary to the Montreux package, it is not predicated upon a controlled level of charter rates. We cannot ignore the practical fact that the European community and its national carriers hold the strong view that scheduled services must be priced competitively with charter services. The Board, on the other hand, is just as strongly of the opinion that an economically sound pricing system requires that scheduled and charter services each be priced independently according to the respective costs of each service. This obviously is a fundamental dichotomy of approach which calls for continuing study and analysis by all concerned. On the other hand, it does not, in our opinion, dispose of the immediate question of whether or not the agreement before us warrants approval.

In essence, we conclude that it would be unrealistic to expect that disapproval would advance a consensus between the U.S. and the European community on the basic approach which should be followed in pricing North Atlantic services. Accordingly, while we remain of the opinion that much needs to be done if the pricing structure is to be put on a sound economic footing, we have examined the specific provisions of the fare package from the point of view of the U.S. traveler and the U.S. carriers and are prepared to approve this one-year agreement (except as discussed hereafter).[10] Our action is based on a number of salient considerations in addition to those detailed in Order 74-10-106 on the Montreux package. The new agreement will afford the traveling public a range of prices that should prove useful to the carriers in seeking to restore traffic growth (even though the categories of different promotional fares are more prolix than we believe necessary). We are also concerned about providing the carriers with much needed additional revenue. In this regard, we cannot ignore the fact mentioned earlier that there has been a marked deterioration in the world-wide traffic situation since the Board approved the Montreux agreement in October. Our domestic carriers have responded to this traffic softening by proposing various discount fares in an effort to generate additional traffic without undue diversion of existing traffic, and a number of these proposals have been allowed to go into effect.[11] Traffic declines on the North Atlantic are considerably more severe than those which have been experienced domestically,[12] and fares somewhat lower than might otherwise be justifiable may be acceptable in the immediate period ahead. Moreover, we are not persuaded by the contention that charters will be unable to compete with APEX service. Our review of 1975 charter rates on file with the Board indicates that the peak-season differential generally ranges upward from $100 compared with the New York-London APEX fare. In light of the foregoing, we cannot find that the relatively modest decreases from the Montreux agreement in some of the promotional fares are unwarranted.

The exceptions to our approval relate to (1) affinity group fares to Spain and Portugal, (2) fares applicable to the Miami-London route, and (3) fares to and from Seattle. We have previously stated that we would be unable to approve a continuation of affinity group fares to the Iberian peninsula which are significantly out of line with comparable fares to other points in Europe.[13] The agreement here before us nevertheless perpetuates this disparity. Despite the general practice of common faring between Lisbon and London from New York, the Lisbon affinity group fares are proposed at levels $51, $54 and $101 below the London levels (winter, shoulder and peak season respectively) and result in discounts in excess of 50 percent from economy fares in all three seasons. In addition, while these fares to other points in Europe do not permit stopovers, one free stopover in each direction would be permitted for travel to Spain and Portugal. On the basis of our analysis, we conclude that the fare levels contemplated are not sufficient to cover the cost of providing the service, particularly when the circuity resulting from the stopover provision is taken into account.[14]

In approving the Montreux agreement, the Board expressed serious reservation about the level of Miami-London fares in light of National's projected return of 19.4 percent and the statement that it would earn 18.7 percent without the proposed increase. The increased fares were reluctantly approved in view of the possibility that selective disapproval might cause the total agreement to fall. We further noted that portions of the overall structure are not so easily severable, and that the effect of precluding fare increases to National could cause an adverse competitive impact upon Pan American and TWA as well as the foreign carriers. We have reconsidered our decision in light of the fact that National again projects a return under the proposed fares in excess of 19 percent and now conclude that this portion of the agreement should not be allowed to become effective. To accomplish this result, we will condition our approval of the New York-London fares (except APEX fares) to preclude their use in the construction of through fares between Florida and London.[15]

On the basis of our analysis, we are of the opinion that the Puget Sound Traffic Association has raised a valid point with respect to fares between Seattle and Europe. A comparison of the proposed fares between Seattle and London (4,799 miles), on the one hand, and between Vancouver and London (4,723 miles), on the other hand, indicates a discrepancy per passenger-mile which favors Vancouver over Seattle despite virtually the same length of haul. A similar comparison of fares to Rome produces a like result. Accordingly, we will impose a condition similar to that discussed above with respect to Florida fares whereby all transatlantic air fares proposed to/from New York (the U.S. fare construction point) will be disapproved insofar as they would be used in the construction of through fares to/from Seattle.[16]

Pan American and TWA argue forcefully that youth fares are an important ingredient of the total fare package. Both contend that the proof-of-Canadian-residency requirement on peak-period sales in Canada cannot be effectively enforced and that a substantial diversion of U.S.-originating youth-fare travel through Canada will continue. TWA estimates the potential value of this traffic to be an improvement in revenues of $10.3 million while Pan American projects a revenue improvement of $9.1 million representing increases in ROI of 1.7 and 1.2 percentage points, respectively. Both carriers will realize marginal results at best on the North Atlantic after interest payments even with the youth fares, and on a system basis both are in a loss position. In these circumstances, we conclude that it would not be prudent to accept the risk of a $19.4 million drain of revenues through Canadian gateways.

Canadian gateways are adjacent to the United States and readily accessible, and we are not persuaded that the Canadian residency requirement can, in fact, be effectively enforced since carriers would have no incentive to do so. Moreover, this requirement would, in any event, apply only during the three-month peak season. In these circumstances, we have concluded that approval is warranted to permit the U.S. carriers to compete for U.S. youth traffic on an equal footing.

Finally, the Board has concluded that it is now appropriate to institute an evidentiary proceeding on North Atlantic fares. The IATA agreements in recent years have rather steadily moved away from what the Board considers an economic, cost-based structure, despite our repeated admonitions, and there have been repeated challenges to the validity of the inter-relationship of the various fares within the structure. In our opinion, the need for an investigation of fare level and structure has been amply demonstrated; and we believe that it should be one of broad scope. In addition to the overall question of the promotional fare structure appropriate to adequate development of the market, the Board intends to explore such matters as the appropriate charge for stopovers on the various fares, the impact of circuitous travel on fare level, and the issue raised by the Seattle fares we are herewith disapproving. The Board will shortly issue an order of investigation which will specifically delineate the issues to be explored.

The Board, acting pursuant to sections 102, 204(a), 404(b), 412 and 1002 of the Act, makes the following findings:

1. It is not found that the following resolutions set forth in Agreement C.A.B. 24944 are adverse to the public interest or in violation of the Act:

3. It is not found that the following resolutions set forth in Agreement C.A.B. 24944 are adverse to the public interest or in violation of the Act except insofar as New York-London fares are used to construct through fares to and from points in Florida and insofar as transatlantic fares to and from New York are used to construct through fares to and from Seattle, Washington:

[8] National and TWA anticipate passenger load factors of 54.7 percent and 52.7 percent, respectively, while Pan American projects a load factor of only 47.6 percent. For the year 1974, National, Pan American and TWA had load factors of 50.6 percent, 50.8 percent and 51.5 percent, respectively.

[9] These rates of return result from revisions to National's original justification and are based on a yield reduction attributable to pro-rates of 5.15 percent. In its initial justification, National projected returns of 24.1 percent and 24.4 percent. These higher projections appear more reasonable in view of National's actual yield of 6.48 cents per revenue passenger-mile experienced in the fourth quarter of 1974.

[10] In connection with the APEX fare, we note that, although the passenger would be required to make his reservation, pay in full and receive his tickets not later than two months prior to travel, no protection is apparently afforded the passenger in the event a carrier alters itsschedules within the 60-day period. We will therefore condition our approval of this resolution to provide that, in the event of schedule changes not acceptable to the passenger, he will be given the option within the 60-day period to rebook over the same itinerary without penalty or to obtain a full refund.

[11] For example, the Board has recently permitted carriers to introduce Bicentennial excursion fares in all markets of 750 miles or more throughout the continental United States (Order 75-2-124), and has permitted a number of discount fares to/from the Florida market.

[12] Pan American and TWA combined traffic over the North Atlantic suffers an absolute decline of about 17 percent in 1974, compared with a modest 2.37 percent growth in domestic trunkline traffic (passenger miles).

[13] Order 74-10-151. These fares were first approved only for the period through January 1975. Our earlier approvals granted during a period of active IATA negotiations cannot be relied upon as justification for such an important structural deviation throughout the year.

[14] For example, one logical routing would be New York-Lisbon-Barcelona-Madrid-New York, a distance of 7,872 miles. The fare during the shoulder season would be $340 or 4.32 cents per passenger-mile before deducting agent's commission of seven percent, and 4.02 cents per passenger-mile after commission. On the other hand, we estimate that the cost of providing this trip at an average load factor of 52.5 percent would be 5.27 cents per passenger-mile. Even at a passenger load factor of 60 percent, the anticipated peak season revenue of 4.7 cents per passenger-mile would be less than the cost of providing the service.

[15] It is the Board's intention that the August 1, 1974 New York-London fare levels will be used for Florida-London construction purposes along with the proportionals here proposed which will be approved. We estimate that the resulting fares will produce a reduction of approximately 5 percent in National's revenue, and a reduction of 3.5 percentage points in its return on investment.

[16] We recognize that this action and that with respect to Florida-London fares and affinity group fares to and from Spain and Portugal will require recalculation of the many fares which provide the traveling public the full range of transatlantic services and, accordingly, will temporarily approve the agreement in this regard for one month to afford the carriers a period of time to resolve the matter.

[Docket 27686; Order 75-3-125]

PUROLATOR SKY COURIER, INC.

Order of Suspension and Investigation

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C. on the 31st day of March 1975.

By tariff revisions[1] filed February 28 and marked to become effective April 1, 1975, Purolator Sky Courier, Inc. (Purolator), an air freight forwarder, proposes, inter alia, to increase its excess-valuation charge from 15 to 25 cents for each $100, or fraction thereof, by which the declared value of a shipment exceeds 50 cents per pound or $50 per shipment, whichever is higher.

No justification has been submitted by the forwarder for the proposed charge.

Most major forwarders currently have in effect an excess-value charge of 15 cents per $100 on their domestic traffic. The Board has suspended, pending investigation, a number of previous proposals to increase excess-valuation charges above this level where no showing has been made that existing excess-value revenues do not cover the amount of claim expense stemming from the declarations of excess value.[2] Furthermore, the Board, after hearing in Imperial Air Freight Services, Inc., Increased Excess Value Charges, Docket 23538, found a proposed increase in the excess-valuation charge from 15 to 25 cents per $100 unlawful, essentially upon the above grounds, and ordered it canceled (Order 72-4-141, April 26, 1972). As noted above, Purolator has not submitted any data on the relationship between its excess-values revenues and losses attributable to declarations of excess valuation or any other statement supporting its proposal.

Upon consideration of all relevant factors, the Board finds that the proposed charge may be unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, unduly preferential, unduly prejudicial, or otherwise unlawful, and should be investigated. The Board further concludes that the proposal should be suspended pending investigation.

Accordingly, pursuant to the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, and particularly sections 204(a), 403, 404, and 1002 thereof,

It is ordered that: 1. An investigation be instituted to determine whether the provisions in Rule No. 80(b) on 2nd Revised Page 5 of C.A.B. No. 3 (Sky Courier, Inc. Series) issued by Purolator Sky Courier, Inc., and rules, regulations, or practices affecting such provisions, are or will be unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, unduly preferential, unduly prejudicial, or otherwise unlawful, and, if found to be unlawful, to determine and prescribe the lawful provisions and rules, regulations, or practices affecting such provisions;

[2] E.g., Orders 73-8-89, 72-5-92, and prior orders cited therein. In all these cases, the suspended matter was canceled by the carriers.

2. Pending hearing and decision by the Board, Rule No. 80(b) on 2nd Revised Page 5 of C.A.B. No. 3 (Sky Courier, Inc. Series) issued by Purolator Sky Courier, Inc. is suspended, and its use deferred to and including June 29, 1975, unless otherwise ordered by the Board, and that no changes be made therein during the period of suspension, except by order or special permission of the Board;

3. The proceeding herein designated Docket 27686, be assigned for hearing before an Administrative Law Judge of the Board at a time and place hereafter to be designated; and

4. Copies of this order shall be filed with the tariffs and served upon Purolator Sky Courier, Inc., which is hereby made a party to Docket 27686.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[Docket No. 27621 etc.; Order 75-3-116]

UNITED AIR LINES INC.

Order of Suspension, Investigation, and Consolidation

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C. on the 28th day of March 1975.

Priority reserved air freight rates proposed by United Air Lines, Inc., Dockets 27621, 27627.

Priority Reserved Air Freight Rates Investigation, Docket 26838.

Rules and practices relating to the acceptance and carriage of live animals in domestic air freight transportation, Docket 26310.

By tariff revisions filed February 28 and marked to become effective April 1, 1975, United Air Lines, Inc. (United) proposes a tariff establishing rates and rules for a new online priority reserved freight service. The proposed rates are 130 percent of the applicable westbound general commodity rates at the 100-, 1,000-, 2,000-, and 3,000-pound weight-breaks, and the minimum charge per shipment is set at 130 percent of the westbound 100-pound general commodity charge. Rates for so-called premium-rated commodities are to be established in effect by adding the regular freight premium to the priority freight rates.

The proposed service contains the following features:

1. Priority reserved air freight will be boarded ahead of regular air freight;

2. Subject to advance confirmation, a shipper may reserve online space on a requested flight(s);

3. Space may be reserved for shipments of any size, weight, or commodity which can presently be carried in regular space-available service;

4. Transportation is guaranteed aboard the requested flight(s), subject to a refund of the premium if the shipment is not transported as requested; and

5. In addition to the refund for failure to transport as requested, under certain conditions, the carrier will reserve space and provide priority boardings on the next flight on which reservable space is available.

Under United's proposal, a reservation for a shipment must be requested of the carrier not less than 6 hours nor more than 48 hours prior to the scheduled departure of the flight on which space is requested. The shipment must be tendered to the carrier's air freight terminal at least 90 minutes prior to the scheduled departure of the flight on which the shipper requests that the shipment be transported. In addition, a request by the shipper to cancel or amend a reservation must be received by the carrier not less than 6 hours prior to the scheduled departure of such flight from the origin of the shipment. The proposal bears an expiry date of August 31, 1975.

Complaints requesting suspension and investigation of United's proposal have been filed by the American Association of Zoological Parks and Aquariums (AAZPA) and the Zoological Action Committee (ZooAct),[1] and the Pet Industry Parties (PIP).

The complainants variously contend that (1) the proposed rates for warm-blooded animals would be set at 137 percent of the westbound general commodity rates, as opposed to a level of 130 percent for most other priority traffic; (2) the assessment of a 7 percent premium on top of a priority rate which is 30 percent higher than the applicable general commodity rate results in assessing live-animal shippers twice for the same services and that there is no cost justification for recouping these costs more than once; (3) the Board, by Order 75-1-80, previously suspended a United priority freight rate proposal that included such a "double" premium on certain traffic and questioned United's cost data as they relate to any premium in excess of 30 percent; and (4) the proposal also lacks cost justification as related to the "double" premium rates.

[1] AAZPA and Zoo Act filed a joint complaint.

The complainants further assert that (5) United's cost justification relies heavily on bald statements that its priority service involves "inherent increased cost," and the noncapacity costs for such services "will be significantly greater" than experienced for regular freight. But nowhere has United attempted, as required under the Board's Economic Regulations, to quantify or estimate its costs of proposed air express service versus air freight service. Rather, the carrier has relied heavily on findings involving services of REA Air Express—a service which has many characteristics which significantly differ from a single carrier online service as proposed by United; and (6) the proposed rules regarding the acceptance and carriage of live animals contain conflicting provisions and restrictions which are discriminatory on their face and are in derogation of United's obligation as a common carrier.

In support of its proposal, United contends, inter alia, that (1) the proposed service provides a means whereby extra-fast transportation is made available, pursuant to published tariffs, on an airport-to-airport basis; (2) the proposal provides guarantee and refund features consistent with Order 74-6-135; (3) both Continental and Western have similar priority freight rates currently in effect, and the proposed tariff matches the existing structure of these carriers; (4) directional and developmental rate reductions are not provided in the tariff because United believes that developmental rates of a directional nature are unwarranted in a priority reserved freight tariff; (5) the proposed priority rates are fully cost-justified and accurately reflect the value of the new service, (6) based upon an expected annual volume of 210,000 shipments at an average charge of $40.00 per shipment, the new service should produce $8.4 million annually, or $1.9 million more than United would obtain if this traffic moved at regular air freight rates; and (7) the proposed priority service is not intended as a substitute for regular air freight, but is intended to satisfy the need of any shipper requiring superior guaranteed service for shipment of a highly "time-sensitive" nature, and the proposal provides a basis for discussing a coordinated interline priority service.

In its answer to PIP's complaint, United asserts, inter alia, that the priority premium proposed for live animals does not constitute charging twice for the same services because (1) the carrier's proposal adds the premium for live animals to the basic premium, and (2) the priority services are not already subsumed under the services provided for regular freight. The carrier states, furthermore, that Continental and Western were permitted by the Board to apply the priority premium to the exception rating, resulting in even higher percentages for live animals. United also declares that commercial shippers, like PIP's members, will typically use regular service; that the validity of Parsons' cost figures relied upon by PIP has not yet been determined, and that such cost figures do not in fact uphold PIP's contention that live-animal handling costs are less than for general freight; that PIP is in error in stating that United currently has a reserved air freight service that is similar to the proposed priority service; and that United has clearly justified a 30 percent premium on the basis of costs. With respect to the complaint against Rules 14, 20, and 22, United asserts that identical rules were not suspended by the Board for general freight, although they were placed under investigation.

The Board has concluded that there are significant questions as to the legality of some of the proposed rates, and whether the proposed service is subject to unreasonable and discriminatory limitations. Among other things, the Board is concerned with (1) the high premiums for eastbound traffic, which vary to almost 100 percent above the regular rates; (2) the excessive premiums that would be effected in markets which have weight-breaks other than those proposed in this tariff; (3) the establishment of minimum charges per shipment at a level that results in rates as high as 500 percent above current minimum charges for regular freight; (4) the application of premium ratings on top of a priority rate which is at least 30 percent above the applicable general commodity rate; and (5) the adequacy of the cost justification in support of the proposed priority freight rates and charges.

More specifically, United's proposed priority rates, as stated, are priced at 130 percent of the applicable westbound general commodity rates at the 100-, 1,000-, 2,000-, and 3,000-pound weight-breaks. Since the carrier's eastbound rates in numerous markets are below its westbound rates, the proposed structure results in premiums substantially above 30 percent in these eastbound markets. In the Honolulu-to-Chicago market, for example, the proposed priority rates amount to rates of 35.4, 31.4, 36.8, and 46.2 percent above the rates at the 100-, 1,000-, 2,000-, and 3,000-pound weight-breaks, respectively. Moreover, the proposed rate structure results in premiums above current 200-, 250-, or 500-pound weight-breaks in any direction that are much higher than 30 percent. In some instances, these rates amount to over 100 percent above current levels.[2] United has not presented cost data to support rates of the above levels.

United's proposal provides for a minimum charge per shipment equal to 130 percent of the applicable westbound 100-pound general commodity charge. The proposed minimum charges result in excessively high charges (in both westbound and eastbound markets) ranging from 50 to over 500 percent above existing minimum charges, and appear arbitrary, excessive, and unjustifiably greater than costs, especially in the case of long-haul shipments of law weight,[3] as illustrated below:

Market	Existing minimum charge	Proposed minimum charge	Percentage increase
Boston to Honolulu	$17.00	$106.00	527.1
Chicago to Los Angeles	16.00	35.60	122.5
Los Angeles to Chicago	16.00	32.35	102.1

With respect to commodities that now are transported at exception ratings involving percentages above the general commodity rates, United's proposal would add those exception ratings to the 30 percent premium proposed. Thus, the rating for live animals would, in effect, be determined by applying the exception rating of 10 percent to the priority premium of 30 percent, arriving at a rate of almost 140 percent of the current general commodity rate.[4] But, to a certain extent, the current exception ratings reflect the cost of a priority handling.

Another example of where United's proposal would involve a premium of over 30 percent is those shipments moving at specific commodity rates. Such shipments would incur increases as high as over 100 percent if the shippers wished priority service.

United has submitted support for the 30 percent premium but does not even purport to cover those situations where the premiums would be in excess of 30 percent.

United's proposed tariff contains numerous rules regarding the acceptance of traffic, packaging, marking, etc. The Board's order of investigation in Rules and Practices Relating to the Acceptance and Carriage of Live Animals in Domestic Air Freight Transportation, Docket 26310, Order 74-1-79, as amended and clarified by Order 74-7-26, made it clear that the scope of that proceeding would include the provisions of tariffs, except as to rates, including rules, regulations, or practices affecting such provisions required to be filed by Order 73-6-103 as modified by Order 73-8-68 for application to live-animal shipments. A number of these rules, including those protested by the complainants, have been repeated in the instant tariff proposal, and it is the Board's intention that these provisions be included in the scope of Docket 26310.

In view of the foregoing and upon consideration of all relevant factors, the Board finds that the proposed tariff[5] may be unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, unduly preferential, unduly prejudicial, or otherwise unlawful, and should be investigated. The Board further concludes that it should be suspended pending investigation. We shall consolidate such investigation, to the extent not included in Docket 26310, into Docket 26838, Priority Reserved Air Freight Rates Investigation, involving the priority rates of Continental Air Lines, Inc. and Western Air Lines, Inc.

On the basis of matter now before it, the Board believes that any premium in excess of a straight 30 percent above current rates at all weights now in effect, including minimum charges, would be excessive, and should not be permitted to become effective, pending investigation.

Accordingly, pursuant to the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, and particularly sections 204(a), 403, 404, and 1002 thereof,

IT IS ORDERED, That:

1. An investigation be instituted to determine whether the rates, charges, and provisions in Tariff C.A.B. No. 245 issued by Airline Tariff Publishing Company, Agent, and rules, regulations, or practices affecting such rates, charges, and provisions, are, or will be, unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, unduly preferential, unduly prejudicial, or otherwise unlawful, and, if found to be unlawful, to determine and prescribe the lawful rates, charges, and provisions, and rules, regulations, or practices affecting such rates, charges, and provisions;

2. Pending hearing and decision by the Board, the rates, charges, and provisions in Tariff C.A.B. No. 245 issued by Airline Tariff Publishing Company, Agent, are suspended and their use deferred to and including June 29, 1975, unless otherwise ordered by the Board, and that no changes be made therein during the period of suspension, except by order or special permission of the Board;

3. The investigation instituted herein is hereby consolidated into Docket 26838, Priority Reserved Air Freight Rates Investigation;

4. Except to the extent granted herein, the complaints of the American Association of Zoological Parks and Aquariums and the Zoological Action Committee in Docket 27621 and the Pet Industry Parties in Docket 27627 are hereby dismissed; and

5. Copies of this order shall be filed with the tariffs and served upon American Association of Zoological Parks and Aquariums and the Zoological Action Committee, which are hereby made parties to Docket 26838.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board:

[SEAL] EDWIN Z. HOLLAND,
Secretary.

[FR Doc.75-8530 Filed 4-2-75;8:45 am]

[2] For example, in the Los Angeles-to-Honolulu market the proposed priority rates amount to 88.7 and 101.7 percent above current general commodity rates at the 250- and 500-pound weight-breaks.

[3] Conceptually, the basing of the minimum charge upon an assumed weight is not consistent with the Board's decision relating to general commodity rates in Minimum Charges per Shipment of Air Freight, Order 72-4-105, dated April 19, 1972.

[4] In fact, United's proposed priority rates for exception-rated commodities results in adding 30 percentage points to the exception rating percentage of the general commodity rates. For example, for live animals, the exception rating would be 107 percent, which multiplied by 130 percent equals 139.1 percent. The latter is practically equal to 110+30 percent, or 140 percent.

[5] It appears impracticable to suspend only a portion of the tariff.

RECEIPT OF APPLICATIONS FOR PESTICIDE REGISTRATION

Data To Be Considered in Support of Applications

On November 19, 1973, the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (38 FR 31862) its interim policy with respect to the administration of section 3(c)(1)(D) of the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act (FIFRA), as amended. This policy provides that EPA will, upon receipt of every application for registration, publish in the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice containing the information shown below. The labeling furnished by the applicant will be available for examination at the Environmental Protection Agency, Room EB-31, East Tower, 401 M Street, SW, Washington DC 20460.

On or before June 2, 1975, any person who (a) is or has been an applicant, (b) believes that data he developed and submitted to EPA on or after October 21, 1972, is being used to support an application described in this notice, (c) desires to assert a claim for compensation under section 3(c)(1)(D) for such use of his data, and (d) wishes to preserve his right to have the Administrator determine the amount of reasonable compensation to which he is entitled for such use of the data, must notify the Administrator and the applicant named in the notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER of his claim by certified mail. Notification to the Administrator should be addressed to the Information Coordination Section, Technical Services Division (WH-569), Office of Pesticide Programs, 401 M Street, SW, Washington DC 20460. Every such claimant must include, at a minimum, the information listed in the interim policy of November 19, 1973.

Applications submitted under 2(a) or 2(b) of the interim policy will be processed to completion in accordance with existing procedures. Applications submitted under 2(c) of the interim policy cannot be made final until the 60 day period has expired. If no claims are received within the 60 day period, the 2(c) application will be processed according to normal procedure. However, if claims are received within the 60 day period, the applicants against whom the claims are asserted will be advised of the alternatives available under the Act. No claims will be accepted for possible EPA adjudication which are received after June 2, 1975.

Dated: March 27, 1975.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[FCC 75-334; Transmittal No. 12303; Docket Nos. 19129 and 19989]

AMERICAN TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH CO.

Memorandum Opinion and Order

By the Commission:

In the matter of American Telephone and Telegraph Company, revisions to tariffs F.C.C. No. 259, 260, 263 and 267; American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Associated Bell System Companies, charges for interstate telephone service, Transmittal Nos. 10089, 11027 and 11637; American Telephone and Telegraph Company (Long Lines Department), Transmittal No. 11935; and revisions of the wide area telecommunications service (WATS) tariff F.C.C. No. 259. (See also 38 FR 7355)

1. The Commission on March 6, 1975 released a Memorandum Opinion and Order, FCC 75-253, which rejected tariff revisions filed by The American Telephone and Telegraph Company (AT&T). These revisions were designed to produce, without proper justification, a rate of return in excess of that prescribed by the Commission in Phase I, Docket 19129.[1] However, in the same Order we permitted AT&T to file new tariff revisions to reflect undisputed increased debt costs and changes in its capital structure.[2] We further designated for an expedited hearing the question of AT&T's present cost of equity and its proper rate of return.

2. Because we rejected the tariff, we had no filing before us and therefore could not consider and determine whether a hearing was required on issues such as rate structure revisions. We did state our view, however, that the public interest required that Phase II of Docket No. 19129 and the outstanding inquiries into Private Line Services (Docket No. 18128) and Wide Area Telecommunications Service (WATS) (Docket No. 19989) be concluded as rapidly as possible.

3. On March 7, 1975 AT&T filed Transmittal No. 12303 in response to the above-mentioned order. The tariff revisions accompanying the transmittal were designed to produce overall revenue increases of 4.3 percent in Message Telecommunications Service (MTS), 4.4 percent in WATS[3] and 4.4 percent in Private Line Service. The rate structure changes made in the instant filing are essentially the same as those contained in the rejected tariff revisions (Transmittal No. 12241). These changes are discussed in detail in paragraphs 4–6 of our March 6, 1975 Order and need not be repeated here.

4. After careful study of the new revisions, we believe that an investigation is warranted into the proposed rate structure of WATS and MTS.[4] Since the previous rate structures for both services are currently in hearing, it is appropriate to include the new revisions in the two open dockets, 19129 (MTS) and 11989 (WATS). Consistent with our previous view, however, no action is to be taken on these new issues which will significantly delay the resolution of the issues already pending in these dockets. Therefore, although we are including an inquiry into the new WATS and MTS rate structures into the respective proceedings, we shall leave to the discretion of the Administrative Law Judge presiding over each of these dockets whether the new filings can be considered in the current phase of the respective proceedings without significantly delaying the conclusion of that phase, or whether the new issues should be considered as a separate phase in these proceedings, to be addressed either concurrently or subsequent to the issuance of a decision on the existing hearing issues.

5. Accordingly, it is ordered, That revisions in the rate structure of MTS and WATS filed by AT&T in Transmittal No. 12303 are added to the issues under investigation in Dockets No. 19129 and 19989, respectively;

6. It is further ordered, That the Administrative Law Judges presiding over the proceedings in Dockets 19129 and 19989 shall, by subsequent orders, prescribe the procedures for investigation of such revisions;

7. It is further ordered, That, without in any way limiting the scope of the investigation, it shall include consideration of the following:

(1) Whether the charges, classifications, practices, and regulations published in the aforesaid tariff revisions are or will be just and reasonable within the meaning of section 201(b) of the Act;

(2) Whether such charges, classifications, practices and regulations are free from unjust and unreasonable discrimination and do not make or give any undue or unreasonable preference, prejudice, or disadvantage to any particular person, class of persons, or locality, within the meaning of section 202(a) of the Act;

(3) Whether the revised tariff schedules conform to the requirements of section 203 of the Act: and

(4) If any of such charges, classifications, practices, or regulations are found to be unlawful, whether the Commission, pursuant to section 205 of the Act, should prescribe charges, classifications, practices and regulations for the service governed by the tariffs, and if so, what should be prescribed.

Adopted: March 24, 1975.

Released: March 27, 1975.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] VINCENT J. MULLINS,
Secretary.

BELO BROADCASTING CORP. AND WADECO, INC.

Memorandum Opinion and Order

By the Review Board:

In re applications of Belo Broadcasting Corporation, WFAA–TV, Dallas, Texas, for renewal of broadcast license; Wadeco, Inc., Dallas, Texas, for construction permit for new television broadcast station. (See also 40 FR 3242)

[1] 38 FCC 2d 213 (1972).

[2] These tariffs went into effect on March 9, 1975.

[3] The revisions modify the previous pricing structure of MTS and WATS so as to increase some rates, particularly over shorter distances, and decrease others.

[4] Since the rate structure of Private Line Services remains essentially unchanged, we see no need to examine at the present time the changes made to AT&T Tariffs F.C.C. No. 260 and 267.

1. Now before the Review Board is a seventh motion to enlarge issues, filed December 11, 1974, by Belo Broadcasting Corporation (Belo), requesting addition of financial, air hazard, site suitability, Rule 1.514, and two misrepresentation issues against WADECO, Inc. (WADECO), as well as modification of a financial issue designated against WADECO.[1]

2. Financial and Misrepresentation Issues. In support of its requests, Belo relies on a recent WADECO amendment whereby WADECO amended its application to indicate net total cash available of $3,612,500, representing an increase in a loan commitment from Caruth C. Byrd from $3,000,000 to $3,500,000, as well as stock subscription agreements of $73,170 and paid-in capital of $126,830. This amendment also lists construction costs and first three months operating expenses of $3,260,250, including, inter alia, a new transmitter site and tower construction costs of $600,000.[2] Belo urges that the costs of tower construction as well as other expenses, are underestimated and that the loan increase is insufficient to cover WADECO's true costs of construction and operation. As to construction costs, Belo argues that, due to the size and configuration of the proposed site, a standard guying system cannot be used. The resulting increased cost, Belo contends, together with additional expenses for a transmitter building, land clearing, roads, power lines, and carport, add $257,000 to WADECO's estimate.[3] Belo also states that, under the terms of the Byrd agreement, one-eighth of the principal will have to be repaid at the end of the first year the loan is outstanding, and, thus, by Belo's calculations, one-eighth of the true tower construction costs would be $107,125. Finally, in this regard, Belo argues that first-year interest would amount to $119,960. Next, Belo also attacks various other WADECO cost estimates. Thus, Belo challenges WADECO's estimate of $625,000 for "down payment on equipment," arguing that this estimate is based on 1971 figures and can no longer be relied upon; similarly, Belo disputes WADECO's estimate of $1,618,250 for its first three months of operation on the grounds that inflation has "ballooned" television station operating costs. Belo also charges that WADECO has already exceeded its estimate of $150,000 for legal costs; that the budgeted $8,000 for engineering costs will have to be increased in view of WADECO's new proposal to build its own transmitter and studios; and that additional expenses incurred since WADECO's initial estimate of preoperating expenses have invalidated that original estimate.[4] And, Bello alleges, WADECO has failed to include first-year payments to its equipment supplier in the amount of $117,526. Accordingly, Belo concludes that WADECO has underestimated its costs by at least $443,000. With respect to available funds, Belo challenges WADECO's reliance on $200,000 in paid-in capital and stock subscription agreements; rather, asserts petitioner, only $148,000 is available[5] and more than that has already been spent, making WADECO presently insolvent.[6] Furthermore, Belo contends, interest on the $3,500,000 Byrd loan must be discounted over one year, rather than the three months calculated by WADECO, and adjusted for current interest rates, thereby reducing available loan money to $3,010,000. After deducting first-year principal repayments, concludes Belo, WADECO has only $2,720,500 to meet costs of construction and three months operating expenses of $3,703,860 and, therefore, a general financial issue must be specified.[7]

3. In opposition, WADECO initially criticizes the Belo petition for lack of specificity in allegations regarding the equipment down payment,[8] engineering costs, and inflation. Next, WADECO supplies an affidavit of its consulting engineer, in which he avers that he has received a firm estimate from a tower construction company stating that it will construct the required tower on WADECOs presently proposed site for $651,496.[9] In reference to the transmitter building, WADECO states that it has always proposed to lease rather than build but that, if it were to decide to build, adequate facilities could be constructed for $9,000. And, in this regard, WADECO asserts that Belo's allegations as to access roads, etc., also lack specificity and, at any rate, the items mentioned are either readily available or not needed.[10] Next, WADECO contends that all further legal costs will be deferred until six months after the proposed station begins operations and, therefore, this expense should not be included in calculating the cost of the first three months' operation.[11] Furthermore, according to WADECO, the life insurance payments and consulting fees paid to James Wade are already included in the pre-operating expense estimate and no further consulting fees are contemplated. Finally, in this regard, WADECO contends that Belo's calculations of payments due to WADECO's equipment supplier are incorrectly based on a one-year period, rather than the applicable three month period, citing Orange Nine, Inc., 7 FCC 2d 788 (1967). Turning to Belo's attack on the funds available to WADECO, opposer alleges that the $52,000 deductions from available stock subscriptions proposed by Belo are incorrect because these issuances are attributable to pre-operating expenses; therefore, the alleged "loss of income" is offset by an equal reduction in expenses.[12] WADECO also contends that Belo has incorrectly computed the interest on the Byrd loan on a one-year basis instead of the required first three-month period and has ignored the one-year moratorium on principal repayments specified by the loan agreement. Finally, WADECO submits that it currently has $32,970 in outstanding and available stock subscriptions and therefore can in no sense be considered "insolvent".[13] In sum, WADECO concludes that the only valid cost adjustments are the $51,496 increase in the tower construction estimate and possibly $9,000 to erect a transmitter building, and WADECO's available funds are adequate to cover these increases.

4. The Broadcast Bureau supports addition of the requested financial issue on the basis of Belo's allegations regarding WADECO's estimates for tower construction, interest payments on equipment,

[1] Also before the Board are the following related pleadings: (a) opposition, filed January 10, 1975, by WADECO; (b) Broadcast Bureau's comments, filed January 10, 1975; and (c) reply, filed January 27, 1975, by Belo. Because Belo's petition is based on new information contained in two recent WADECO amendments and a recent hearing session, the Board believes that good cause for the late filing has been demonstrated.

[2] Other estimated expenses include:

Down payment on equipment	$625,000
Legal costs	150,000
Engineering costs	8,000
Pre-operating expenses	259,000
Three months cost of operation	1,618,250

[3] Two affidavits from its consulting engineer support Belo's figure.

[4] According to Belo, these new expenses include a $2,000 per month consulting fee to James Wade and $16,436 in insurance premiums to Wade.

[5] By Belo's analysis, 30,000 shares (at $1 dollar a share) will be issued without payment to Byrd as consideration for his new $3,500,000 commitment and 22,000 shares are to be issued without payment as consideration for "consulting services" to James Wade.

[6] And, in this regard, Belo also asks for a misrepresentation issue on the grounds that WADECO continues to assert that it presently has new and existing capital of $200,000 for construction and operation of the proposed station when, in fact, asserts Belo, WADECO has only the aforementioned $148,000.

[7] Belo also requests that, in view of the $500,000 increase in the Byrd loan commitment, a previously specified issue going to the availability of the $3,000,000 Byrd commitment be modified to take into account the increased commitment.

[8] WADECO states that because the equipment commitment letter has not been withdrawn, it may still be relied upon.

[9] WADECO concedes that this exceeds its original estimate of $600,000, but contends that its available funds are adequate to meet the increase. A copy of the tower manufacturer's letter is included.

[10] In support, WADECO relies on the affidavit of its consulting engineer which states that the proposed site is relatively flat and that the cost of site clearance would be minimal; that roads and carports will not need to be built; and that electrical power is available.

[11] A statement of counsel in support is attached.

[12] And in response to Belo's requested misrepresentation issue in this regard, note 6, supra, WADECO asserts that any change in the availability of stock subscription funds has been previously fully revealed and, therefore, can provide no basis for a misrepresentation issue.

[13] WADECO also supplies an affidavit from its secretary-treasurer indicating that it also has $21,540 available in "unrefunded investments."

V 40 65 APR 3 75 XUM

and attorney's fees. However, the Bureau opposes inquiry into the alleged increases due to inflation and interest rates. In reply, Belo initially argues that WADECO's opposition indicates a disproportionately high deferral of expenses to the second year of operation and that inquiry should be permitted on that basis as well as its first-year estimates.[14] Also, Belo asserts that WADECO's opposition indicates that a number of expenses have now been attributed to "pre-operating expenses" for the first time and now exceed the estimated $259,000.

5. The Review Board will deny the requested financial issue. In a renewal proceeding such as the one now under consideration, our analysis of WADECO's financial showing begins with the proposition that an applicant must establish its ability to meet its costs of construction and operation for a three-month period until the previously established revenues can be generated. RKO General, Inc. (WOR–TV), 47 FCC 2d 827, 30 RR 2d 1155 (1974); and Orange Nine, Inc., supra. Thus, a number of Belo's allegations as to costs falling due beyond this period must be rejected. These include interest and principal payments on the Byrd loan,[15] payments to the equipment supplier, and the additional attorney's fees which have been deferred until six months after WADECO commences operations. Also, WADECO's cost estimates are not unreasonable on their face and, in our view, petitioner has failed to raise any sufficiently substantial and/or specific question as to those costs. Cf. CBS, Inc., 49 FCC 2d 1214, — RR 2d — (1974). Thus, in response to Belo's allegations concerning the costs of tower construction, WADECO has supplied a detailed estimate from a tower construction firm which indicates that it will construct the proposed tower at a price ($651,496) far below the estimate supplied by Belo.[16] Moreover, while Belo's estimate of $227,000 expenses for additional facilities in connection with the tower is supported by affidavit, WADECO has supplied a detailed affidavit from its consulting engineer indicating that its guying proposal is feasible (see paragraph 9, infra), and that such facilities as roads and power hook-ups are readily available.[17] Similarly, as to the transmitter building, although WADECO has not provided the terms of its proposed lease arrangements, its surplus funds would easily absorb the cost.[18] Turning to Belo's allegations concerning inflation and interest rates, the Board notes that we have previously stated "that it would be difficult, if not impossible, for an applicant to predict future interest rates with any exactitude . . ."[19] and we, therefore, continue to believe that these fluctuations do not provide a basis for inquiry particularly where, as here, the applicant's initial projections were reasonable. We also consider this principle equally applicable to the rate of inflation and its effect on equipment prices, particularly where there has been no showing of substantially increased costs.[20] In this connection, we note that Belo concedes that it is unable to provide specific allegations. However, there is no indication that Belo could not have provided information as to increased costs of equipment in general. Accordingly, we conclude that Belo has failed to demonstrate an adequate basis for further inquiry into WADECO's costs of construction and first three months of operation. Nor can we agree with Belo's attack on the funds available to WADECO. First, as noted, WADECO proposes to rely on a loan commitment in the amount of $3,500,000 from Caruth C. Byrd and, after deducting $88,000 for the first three months interest on this loan, it represents $3,412,000 in funds available to WADECO.[21] In addition, even after deducting for shares issued without payment,[22] WADECO has $148,000 in outstanding stock subscriptions. Thus, by the Board's calculations, WADECO shows a total of $3,560,000 in available funds. Therefore, even after adding the $51,000 increased tower construction costs to WADECO's proposed costs of $3,260,250 (see para. 1 and note 2, supra), we calculate that WADECO shows a substantial surplus of over $200,000 in available funds. Furthermore, in this regard, we believe this cushion is sufficient to absorb any reasonable increase in expenditures. Finally, with respect to WADECO's second-year costs, we note that the average figures for revenues and profit in the Dallas area are substantial[23] and, in our view, more than adequate to meet second-year loan and equipment cost commitments.[24] For these reasons the requested financial issue will be denied.

Air Hazard Issue

6. Belo's request for an air hazard issue is based on a recent WADECO amendment whereby the FAA indicated that "further aeronautical study" would be necessary to determine whether the proposed WADECO tower would be a hazard to air navigation. Subsequently, on December 4, 1974, however, WADECO amended its proposal by reducing the height of its proposed tower and the FAA issued a "Determination of No Hazard to Air Navigation."[25] Accordingly, the Board is of the opinion that no further inquiry is warranted at this time.[26]

Site Suitability Issue

7. In support of its request for an issue going to the suitability of WADECO's proposed tower site, Belo initially reiterates its contention (paragraph 2, supra) that the site is too small for its proposed purpose if a standard guying system is used. Belo also alleges that WADECO has not shown access to the site in terms of easements and that an aerial photo indicates no buildings, roads, power or telephone lines are present and that extensive "clearing" of the area would be necessary before the site could be utilized as proposed. Accordingly, Belo believes that WADECO has failed to establish the suitability of its proposed site.

8. In opposition, WADECO asserts that Belo's allegations fail to demonstrate that the terrain, location, or size of the site present any insurmountable problem for construction of the proposed tower. Thus, WADECO again notes (paragraph 3, supra) that a qualified tower construction company has stated that it can readily construct on the proposed site and that a consulting engineer has [14] In support of its request for inquiry into WADECO's second-year financing, Belo cites Robert Cowan Wagner, 38 FCC 2d 1187, 26 RR 2d 429 (1973); 5 KW, Inc., 33 FCC 2d 895, 23 RR 2d 1015 (1973); Greenfield Broadcasting Corp., FCC 71–1049, 32 FCC 2d 135; and A–C Broadcasters, 10 FCC 2d 256, 11 RR 2d 359 (1967).

[15] WADECO has provided for three months' interest payments and it is also to be noted that payments on principal on the Byrd loan are subject to a one-year moratorium.

[16] In this regard, as demonstrated infra, we believe that sufficient total funds are available to WADECO to cover the approximately $50,000 increase over the estimate in its recent amendment. Also, we are given no reason to doubt that this estimate includes the necessary "engineering" costs.

[17] Moreover, costs of land clearance and other necessary improvements at the site can be paid for out of surplus funds.

[18] It also appears that WADECO's substantial pre-operational expense budget is sufficient to cover recent fees and insurance premiums to James Wade.

[19] See Belo Broadcasting Corporation, 44 FCC 2d 703, 29 RR 2d 238 (1974).

[20] With particular regard to the equipment down payment, we point out that in an earlier Memorandum Opinion and Order in this proceeding, 47 FCC 2d 706, 29 RR 2d 238 (1974), we rejected a previous Belo contention that the equipment supplier's letter was no longer valid. Belo has provided no new basis for challenging this conclusion.

[21] As noted earlier, the availability of this commitment is already in issue, and failure to satisfy this issue would warrant denial of the application. At this point, however, we will simply grant Belo's unopposed request to modify the availability issue to take into account the increased commitment for 3 to 3.5 million dollars.

[22] Because WADECO promptly informed the Commission of these commitments, no motive for deception is apparent; we will therefore deny the requested misrepresentation issue.

[23] See, in this regard, note 1 of the designation Order, FCC 73–542, released May 24, 1973.

[24] The cases relied upon by Belo in support of its request for inquiry into WADECO's second-year financing, note 14, supra, involve applications for new facilities or situations where the deferral of expenses was much greater than in the present situation.

[25] This amendment was accepted by the Presiding Judge by Memorandum Opinion and Order, FCC 75M–20, issued January 2, 1975.

[26] We note that the FAA ruling has been appealed and is not yet final. However, in the absence of some indication that the ruling will not routinely become final, we believe that specification of an issue at this time is premature.

averred that use of the site will not necessitate the building of roads and that electrical power is readily available. Furthermore, states Belo, access is easily obtained from a road "which lies only 1,000 feet to the south" of the site. The Bureau also opposes the requested inquiry.

9. The Board will deny the requested site suitability issue. In our view, Belo's allegations wholly fail to support its contention that WADECO's proposed site cannot accommodate its tower. First, the tower construction company provides unqualified assurance that it can construct as proposed, and, second, the consulting engineer indicates that the present site can accommodate the proposed tower, will not necessitate the building of roads, and that power connections are easily accessible. Finally, as to easements, as well as provision for site clearance, in the absence of specific allegations that they will not be forthcoming, we do not believe that this provides a basis for present inquiry.

Rule 1.514 and Misrepresentation Issues

10. Initially, Belo refers to a February 22, 1974, WADECO amendment which contains the $3,000,000 Byrd commitment. Belo notes that Byrd's attached "statement of assets and liabilities" lists non-liquid assets including "land—interests owned in land—city of Dallas . . ." amounting to $10,000,000. At hearing, Belo asserts, Byrd testified that, if needed to meet his commitment, he would sell certain of these lands, including a one-half interest in a tract of undeveloped land in Dallas. Further, notes Belo, at the hearing, a local real estate developer, Dallas Addison, appraised the tract. However, asserts Belo, under the terms of an agreement made in 1970 between Byrd and Raymond D. Nasher, a real estate developer, the latter holds a long-term lease under which he is to pay no rent until the tract is zoned commercially and is given until October 31, 1975, to request such zoning. And, Belo avers, only if commercial zoning is not forthcoming would Nasher's lease terminate. In Belo's view, this lease agreement clearly has an important bearing on Byrd's interest in the tract and its marketability and, therefore, should have been reported under Rule 1.514.[27] Moreover, Belo asserts, Addison's appraisal is deficient because he was not informed of the lease agreement beforehand. Finally, Belo argues that Byrd's testimony that he could readily liquidate his interest in the tract in question, while knowing of the lease agreement, amounts to a material misrepresentation. The Broadcast Bureau supports addition of the misrepresentation issue but opposes addition of the Rule 1.514 issue.[28]

11. The requested Rule 1.514 and misrepresentation issues will be denied. First, in the total circumstances as described above, we do not believe that the existence of the lease amounts to a lien or prior obligation upon Byrd's one-half interest in the tract. Belo has not supplied any specific allegations as to how the existence of the lease would hinder the sale of the land and the Board sees no factual basis for such a conclusion. In fact, the real estate appraiser, upon learning of the lease, testified that it actually increased the value of the land. Thus, the existence of the lease, whether or not it expires, will not apparently hinder the marketability of the land. Accordingly, we fail to see how this lease can be construed as a lieu or prior obligation which necessitated reporting under Rule 1.514. Similarly, as to the requested misrepresentation issue, Byrd's testimony that he could sell the tract has not been shown to be misleading; we will therefore not authorize any further inquiry into this matter.

12. Accordingly, it is ordered, That Belo Broadcasting Corporation's seventh motion to enlarge issues, filed December 11, 1974, is granted to the extent indicated herein, and is denied in all other respects; and

13. It is further ordered, That Issue 1(c) is modified to read as follows:

1(c) Whether the applicant will have available a $3,500,000 loan from Caruth C. Byrd, and, if so, the effect of the terms and conditions of that loan on the applicant's financial qualifications.

Adopted: March 21, 1975.

Released: March 27, 1975.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] VINCENT J. MULLINS,
Secretary.

[FR Doc.75–8664 Filed 4–2–75;8:45 am]

[27] Section III, page 3 of FCC Form 301 requires, inter alia, that when the applicant relies upon non-liquid assets, a statement must be submitted showing the extent to which such assets have liens or prior obligations against them.

[28] In reference to the Rule 1.514 issue, the Bureau argues that Belo has failed to demonstrate that Byrd intended to rely on the particular tract in question at the time of the filing of the amendment showing non-liquid assets.

[Docket No. 20382; FCC 75–294]

CABLE TV, INC.

Memorandum Opinion and Order Designating Application for Hearing on Stated Issues and Order to Show Cause

In re applications of Cable TV, Inc., Linton, Indiana, CAC–319, IN010; Cable TV, Inc., Bloomfield, Indiana; CAC–320, IN008; Cable TV, Inc., Dugger, Indiana; Docket No. 20382, CAC–321, IN009; for certificates of compliance.

1. On May 5, 1972, Cable TV, Inc., filed the above-captioned applications for certificates of compliance to expand its carriage of television broadcast signals on the subject cable systems by the inclusion of the signal of Station WGN–TV (Ind., Channel 9), Chicago, Illinois.[1] On April 19, 1973, the applicant filed amendments to these applications requesting further that it be allowed to add the signal of Station WIIL–TV (ABC, Channel 38), Terre Haute, Indiana, to the subject cable systems.[2] Cable TV presently carries the following television broadcast signals on the above-mentioned cable systems:

WTWO (NBC, Channel 2), Terre Haute, Indiana; WTHI–TV (CBS, Channel 10), Terre Haute, Indiana; WIIL–TV (ABC, Channel 38), Terre Haute, Indiana;[3] WTTV (Ind., Channel 4), Bloomington, Indiana; WTIU (Educ., Channel 30), Bloomington, Indiana; WTVW (ABC, Channel 7), Evansville, Indiana; WRTV (NBC, Channel 6), Indianapolis, Indiana;[4] WISH–TV (CBS, Channel 8), Indianapolis, Indiana; WLWI (ABC, Channel 13), Indianapolis, Indiana; WHAS–TV (CBS, Channel 11), Louisville, Kentucky.

2. The community of Linton is located within both the Terre Haute, Indiana, smaller television market and the Indianapolis-Bloomington, Indiana, major television market (#16). Bloomfield is located only within the Indianapolis-Bloomington market, and Dugger is located only within the Terre Haute market. A more detailed discussion of the effect of these locations follows, infra. On June 16, 1972, Illiana Telecasting Corporation, licensee of Television Broadcast Station WTWO, Terre Haute, filed an "Objection to Application for Certificates of Compliance" in opposition to the above-described applications. Illiana contended that Bloomington, Indiana, was an inappropriate community upon which to base a major television market reference. It further argued that, notwithstanding the Bloomington market, the communities of Linton and Dugger are located outside any major television market. Therefore, it concluded, the applicant's proposed carriage of WGN–TV was inconsistent with the signal carriage provisions of Subpart D of the Commission's cable television rules. It further contended that the applicant could not rely upon any "grandfathered" right to carry this signal pursuant to former § 74.1105 of the Com-

[1] The population (1970 census) and number of subscribers (reported as of December 31, 1973) for each of the subject communities and cable systems is as follows:

	Population	Subscribers
Linton	5,439	1,632
Bloomfield	2,565	494
Dugger	1,120	106

[2] WIIL–TV began service on April 3, 1973. On August 28, 1973, the applicant filed a "Request for Special Temporary Authorization" to allow it to immediately initiate carriage of WIIL–TV on the subject cable systems. On December 21, 1973, the applicant filed a "Notice of Intent to Carry Local TV Signal" pursuant to the provisions of § 76.11(a) and subsequently added WIIL–TV to its systems at Linton and Dugger.

[3] WIIL–TV is presently carried on the systems in Linton and Dugger, as noted in footnote 2, supra, but it is not now carried in Bloomfield.

mission's prior regulations because the notices provided by the applicant under that procedure were defective in that they failed to include reference to the system at Dugger and were not served as required upon the holder of a television broadcast station construction permit for Terre Haute (now WIIL–TV). On June 30, 1972, Sarkes Tarzian, Inc., licensee of Television Broadcast Station WTTV, Bloomington, filed a similar objection against these applications on essentially the same basis. On the same date, McGraw-Hill Broadcasting Co., licensee of Television Broadcast Station WRTV, Indianapolis,[4] filed an opposition to the above-mentioned objections. McGraw-Hill filed a further comment on October 19, 1973, in connection with Cable TV's amended request to carry WIIL–TV. In this later filing, it argued that the signal of WIIL–TV could not be carried on the Bloomfield cable system because that community was located outside of the Terre Haute market, but within the Indianapolis-Bloomington market. Having initiated service too recently to have been listed in the Commission's rules as "significantly viewed," it argued, WIIL–TV was not an appropriate station for carriage on that cable system under § 76.61 of the rules.

Cable TV, Inc., made several attempts, prior to initiation of the Commission's current cable regulations, to serve and file notices of operation and proposed signal carriage pursuant to the provisions of former § 74.1105 of the prior rules. Former § 74.1105 provided that no CATV system could commence operations or add carriage of a distant television broadcast signal (those not placing at least a predicted Grade B contour over the subject system) without serving appropriate notices on the licensees or permittees of stations placing predicted Grade B contours over the subject system and the licensees or permittees of 100 watt or higher power translators operating in the subject community, and filing copies of such notices with the Commission. Former § 74.1105 became effective in March 1966. The Commission's records reflect that applicant filed such notices on May 9, 1966, October 26, 1967, and March 29, 1972.[5] None of these notices make reference to the cable system at Dugger. Only the notices of March 1972 make reference to the carriage of KGN–TV. The 1966 and 1967 notices were apparently not served, as required, upon the construction permittees of three educational Television Broadcast Stations, WVUT, Vincennes, Indiana, WUSI–TV, Olney, Illinois, and WTIU, Bloomington, Indiana, all of which placed predicted Grade B contours over Linton, and in the cases of WVUT and WTIU over Bloomfield. A more complete description of these notices has been appended to this document.

4. The Commission notes that at the time of the applicant's 1967 notice the Terre Haute, Indiana, television market was ranked as the 99th largest in the United States.[7] Prior to this time it had not been ranked within the top 100 markets, nor has it subsequently.[8] Pursuant to the provisions of former § 74.1107, effective at that time, cable systems located within the predicted Grade A contour of a television broadcast station licensed to one of the 100 largest markets could not add carriage of distant signals without prior Commission approval upon appropriate showings. As all the communities here involved were within the predicted Grade A contours of Terre Haute stations in 1967, no distant signals could have been authorized in that year by the mere service and filing of § 74.1105 notices. The 1966 notice makes reference to the Linton system, so that only the signal of WHAS–TV, Louisville, added to this system pursuant to the 1967 notice, must be considered to have been carried in violation of former § 74.1107. The Bloomfield system, however, first initiated service pursuant to the 1967 notice, so that all of the distant signals carried on that system at that time could be considered in viqlation of that section.

5. In the context of our current signal carriage rules, permissible signal carriage on the subject systems would include the following:

For the system at Dugger: WTWO, WTHI–TV and WIIL–TV, Terre Haute (Section 76.59(a)(1)); and WTTV and WTIU, Bloomington (Sections 76.59(a)(6) and (2));

For the system at Linton: WTWO, WTHI–TV and WIIL–TV, Terre Haute; WTTV and WTIU, Bloomington (§ 76.61(a)(1)); WTVW, Evansville (§ 76.61(a)(5)); and WRTV, WISH–TV and WLWI, Indianapolis (§ 76.61(a)(4));

For the system at Bloomfield: All those signals listed above for the Linton system with the exception of WIIL–TV, Terre Haute, which is not currently listed as "significantly viewed" in Greene County. Carriage of any other existing or proposed signals would require justification pursuant to the grandfathering signal carriage provisions of § 76.65 of the Commission's rules. That section provides that signals lawfully carried or authorized as of March 31, 1972, need not be removed from cable systems even if their carriage is otherwise inappropriate under the current signal carriage regulations. A strict analysis of Cable TV's actions since 1966 with regard to the subject cable systems at Linton and Bloomfield forces the conclusion that of its existing signal carriage, only WHAS–TV, Louisville, cannot be considered consistent with either the provisions of the current signal carriage rules or the "grandfathering" rights established by § 76.65. The proposed carriage of WGN–TV would likewise be inappropriate on any of the subject systems since the current rules provide no justification for its carriage and the applicant's attempts to legitimize its carriage by means of § 74.1105 notices in March 1972, must be considered ineffective. Although Illiana's contention that Bloomington is an inappropriate major market reference must be rejected, it should be noted that carriage of WGN–TV on the Bloomfield and Linton systems would nonetheless be prohibited because WGN–TV is located in Chicago, the third closest top-25 market to Bloomfield (§ 76.61(b)(2)). The Dugger system is located in a smaller market and already carries the only independent television station to which it is entitled (§ 76.59). The notice procedures of former § 74.1105 were unavailable after February 1972 (Greater Lawrence Community Antenna, Inc., FCC 73–205, 39 FCC 2d 935 (1973); Tele-Media Company of Lake Erie, FCC 74–120, 45 FCC 2d 395 (1974)), and the applicant apparently failed to serve its March 1972, notices on several parties specified by former Section 74.1105: the licensees of Television Broadcast Stations WVUT, Vincennes, Indiana, and WUSI–TV, Olney, Illinois, and the construction permittee of Station WIIL–TV, Terre Haute. Although our decisions in Greater Lawrence and Tele-Media, supra, provided waivers of the strict application of § 76.65 to allow carriage of the requested signals in those instances, no such relief is warranted here. In Greater Lawrence a defective notice had been filed as early as February 25, 1972, and a proper filing followed on March 6 pursuant to the Commission's direction. In Tele-Media a proper filing was made on March 1, only one day late, and several other factors supported waiver, such as the facts that the community there involved was barely inside any television market and none of the "local" television stations objected to the carriage of the signal in question. In the instant case the initial filing of notices was already late and the subsequent proper filing was not until March 29. Moreover, none of the extenuating factors presented in Tele-Media arise here. No "grandfathering" rights pursuant to § 76.65 can be accorded to carriage of any of the signals on the system at Dugger because of the applicant's apparent failure to provide any notices of its operations there at any time. Moreover, as the Dugger system first began service in 1969 without notice, its very operation appears to be improper.

6. The Commission finds that equitable considerations require the approval, nunc pro tunc, of Cable TV's existing signal carriage on its systems at Linton and Bloomfield. Cable TV apparently acted in good faith, albeit unsuccessfully, in attempting to serve and file § 74.1105 notices for these systems in 1966 and 1967. We note that the three parties that the applicant failed to serve with these notices were construction permittees at the time and that their predicted Grade B contours may have been more difficult for the applicant to have determined. We note further that none of these parties has subsequently opposed the applicant's operations or applications. With the exception of Station WHAS–TV, all of the signals presently carried on these two systems may be justified under the current rules.[9] The applicant's failure to meet the provisions of former § 74.1107 in 1967 should not require the deletion of WHAS–TV from these systems. In this context we note that the § 74.1105 notices served at that time generated no oppositions and even the present objections do not suggest removal of this signal. Moreover, Terre Haute's ranking as one of the 100 largest television markets at that time was singular and fleeting. Our often expressed reluctance to disrupt established viewing patterns further supports this conclusion.[10] In regard to the applicant's proposal to add the signal of Station WIIL–TV to its system at Bloomfield, we observe that, although the current Rules prevent our authorization of this signal at this time, there appears to be a likelihood that the signal is "significantly viewed" in Greene County and a showing to this effect by the applicant in the context of an amendment to our "significantly viewed" list (§ 76.54) would allow such authorization.

7. Cable TV's operations at Dugger must be considered a continuing violation of the Commission's rules. Its initiation of service there without notice was in derogation of our former Rules and its present signal carriage prohibits its certification at this time. Any authorization of its operations would have to be in the context of a request for special relief pursuant to the provisions of § 76.7. The Dugger cable system must be treated in all respects as a cable system that had not commenced operations prior to the effective date of our current cable regulations, March 31, 1972. It consequently must obtain a certificate of compliance, and meet all the qualifications of a new cable system in its application for such a certificate. See Crystal Cablevision, Inc., FCC 74–948, 48 FCC 2d 713 (1974).

In view of the above, we find that a partial grant of the above-captioned applications for certificates of compliance for the applicant's cable systems at Linton and Bloomfield, Indiana, and a denial of the above-capitoned application for a certificate of compliance for Dugger, Indiana, would be consistent with the public interest. Furthermore, we find, sua sponte, that an Order requiring Cable TV, Inc., to show cause why it should not be ordered to cease and desist from operation of its cable television system at Dugger, Indiana, in violation of the Commission's rules, would be likewise consistent with and required by the public interest.

Accordingly, it is ordered, That the above-described objections and oppositions filed by Illiana Telecasting Corporation, Sarkes Tarzian, Inc., and McGraw-Hill, Inc., against the grant of the above-captioned applications for certificates of compliance, are granted.

It is further ordered, That the above-captioned "Application[s] for Certificate[s] of Compliance" for cable television systems at Linton and Bloomfield, Indiana, (CAC–319 and CAC–320) filed by Cable TV, Inc., are granted in part and denied in part to the extent indicated above, and appropriate certificates of compliance until March 31, 1977, be issued.

It is further ordered, That the above-captioned "Application for Certificate of Compliance" for a cable television system at Dugger, Indiana, (CAC–321) filed by Cable TV, Inc., is denied.

It is further ordered, That pursuant to sections 312 (b) and (c) and 409(a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. 312 (b) and (c), and 409(a), Cable TV, Inc., is directed to show cause why it should not be ordered to cease and desist from further violations of Part 76 of the Commission's rules and regulations on its cable television system at Dugger, Indiana.

It is further ordered, That Cable TV, Inc., is directed to appear and give evidence with respect to the matters described above at a hearing to be held at Washington, D.C., before an Administrative Law Judge at a time and place to be specified by subsequent Order, unless the hearing is waived in which event a written statement may be submitted.

It is further ordered, That Illiana Telecasting Corporation, Sarkes Tarzian, Inc., McGraw-Hill Broadcasting Company and the Chief, Cable Television Bureau are made parties to this proceeding.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission SHALL SEND copies of this Order by Certified Mail to Cable TV, Inc.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
VINCENT J. MULLINS,
Secretary.

APPENDIX

Cable TV, Inc., filed the following notices, pursuant to former Section 74.1105 of the Commission's rules, on the dates indicated:

May 19, 1966. Notices of intention to operate CATV systems at Brazil, Linton, Jasonville and Worthington, Indiana, indicating proposed carriage of the following television broadcast signals:

These notices were served upon the following stations: WTWO, WCIA, WAVE–TV, WTTV, WFBM–TV, WISH–TV, WTHI–TV and WLWI.

October 26, 1967. Notices of intention to operate CATV systems at Linton and Bloomfield, Indiana, indicating proposed carriage of the following television broadcast signals:

These notices were served on each of the above stations.

March 1, 1972. Notices of intention to add carriage of Stations WGN–TV, Chicago, Illinois, and WXIX–TV, Cincinnati, Ohio (Newport, Kentucky), to cable television operations at Linton and Bloomfield, Indiana.

These notices were served upon the following stations: WTWO and WTHI–TV, Terre Haute; and WTTV and WTIU, Bloomington.

These notices were returned to the applicant for failure to include the appropriate filing fees.

March 29, 1972. The above-described notices, originally filed on March 1, 1972, were resubmitted with the appropriate filing fees.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE AND WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH CO.

Memorandum Opinion and Order

By the Commission:

1. The Commission has before it a complaint filed on February 16, 1973 by the United States Department of Defense (DOD) against The Western Union Telegraph Company (WU) requesting a refund of alleged unreasonable rates and charges for the leased Technical Control Equipment (TCE) provided to it at Robins Air Force Base, Georgia. On November 3, 1972 WU filed certain revisions to its Tariff F.C.C. No. 254 (Transmittal No. 6814) which became effective on December 6, 1972. DOD alleges that these charges are in violation of section 201(b) of the Communications Act (47 U.S.C. section 201(b)). DOD further states, among other things, that WU charges include a sum for equipment which had been fully depreciated and an income tax allowance even though WU has not and does not pay any income tax. DOD further alleged that WU used a factor of 20.8 percent of Tariff Code 6792 and 16 percent for Tariff Code 6797. As a result of these charges based on an alleged inflated rate base and alleged exhorbitant rates of return, DOD claims that it was overcharged $4,224.21 for Tariff Code 6792 and $2,322.17 for Tariff Code 6797 TCE service through December 16, 1972. It therefore requests an order requiring WU to cease and desist from imposing these alleged unlawful rates and charges and for damages in the amount of $6,546.48 or such other amounts as may be shown by the evidence, plus interest.

2. WU's answer timely filed on May 6, 1974[1] denies DOD's allegations that it

[5] Cable TV's notices of March 1972 were originally filed on March 1, but were rejected for failure to include the appropriate filing fees.

[7] American Research Bureau figures based on net weekly circulation as of November 1966, and March 1967.

[8] ARB net weekly circulation figures as of November 1966, and March 1966, show Terre Haute's ranking as 102. ARB statistics for 1968–1972 also indicate that Terre Haute was not within the 100 largest markets during that period. The Commission's listing of major markets, standardized in the 1972 cable rules, does not include Terre Haute.

violated section 201(b) of the Act or made unreasonable charges for TCE service. It also states that only page 226 of the revisions filed under Transmittal No. 6214 relates to TCE and that the codes of service involved herein were discontinued as of August 31, 1973. It denies that it used an unreasonable rate of return for either tariff code. WU further states that its treatment of income tax must be viewed not only with regard to TCE, but also in the light of its private line services and other common carrier activities. WU argues that DOD's approach as to federal income taxes and rate development would result in reducing its earnings on its private line services to the point where it would not earn a fair return on such services or for its common carrier activities in general. WU further argues that under DOD's rationale DOD would receive a windfall through the application of tax differentials generated by other activities and services provided by WU. Moreover, WU asserts that DOD fails to show how it derived the sums claimed for damages. While contending that its method of rate making and rate of return were appropriate and reasonable, WU states that its treatment of income tax should not operate to require it to lower its rates, since it was not earning a fair rate of return for its private line services or its communications services as a whole during the period encompassed by the complaint. WU contends that DOD's complaint failed to state a cause of action or a prima facie violation of the Communications Act and should be denied or dismissed.

3. We reject WU's claim that DOD has failed to state a cause of action. The complainant identifies, with reasonable certainty, the nature of the service in question, and alleges sufficient facts to raise questions as to whether the total charges for TCE service were just and reasonable and not in violation of section 201(b) of the Act. Therefore, we shall set the complaint for hearing. In the expectation that the parties herein may be able to negotiate a settlement of their differences without the necessity to utilize our limited and taxed hearing resources, the Administrative Law Judge designated to preside over this proceeding is hereby instructed to provide a reasonable period before the date established for the commencement of these hearings, so that the parties have a further opportunity to reach such an accord in whole or in part.

4. Accordingly, pursuant to sections 201(b), 202(a), 206–209 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, this matter is designated for hearing at a time and place to be specified, and that the Administrative Law Judge to be designated to preside at the hearing shall, upon close of the record, prepare an initial decision which shall be subject to the submittal of exceptions and requests for oral argument as provided in 47 CFR §§ 1.276 and 1.277 after which the Review Board shall issue its decision as provided in 47 CFR § 0.365.

5. It is further ordered, That the issues in this proceeding shall be as follows:

(a) whether any charge, practice, classification, or regulation for TCE service provided by WU to DOD through December 16, 1972 was unjust or unreasonable within the meaning of section 201(b) of the Act;

(b) whether, in the light of the evidence adduced under the foregoing issue, DOD is entitled to monetary damages, and, if so, what damages and interest should be awarded; and

(c) to determine, in the light of the foregoing, whether any other action should be taken by the Commission and, if so, the nature thereof.

6. It is further ordered, That the United States Department of Defense, The Western Union Telegraph Company and the Chief, Common Carrier Bureau are hereby designated parties to this proceeding.

7. It is further ordered, That, DOD shall have the burden of proof as to the issues.

8. It is further ordered, That a copy of this order shall be served on the United States Department of Defense and The Western Union Telegraph Company.

Adopted: March 19, 1975.

Released: March 27, 1975.

[Docket No. 20363; File No. BR-2690; FCC 75-306]

RADIO MARION, INC.

Application for Hearing

In re application of Radio Marion, Incorporated; Docket No. 20363, File No. BR-2690; for renewal of license for station WJAM-AM, Marion, Alabama.

1. We have before us for consideration: (i) the above-captioned license renewal application for Radio Station WJAM-AM, Marion, Alabama; (ii) a petition to deny that application, filed March 1, 1973, by Albert Turner, individually and as President of the Perry County Civic League (hereinafter petitioners)[1]; (iii) an opposition pleading, filed July 16, 1973, by the licensee; and (iv) a reply to that opposition from petitioners, filed September 7, 1973.[2]

2. Radio Station WJAM-AM is a five kilowatt station operating daytime only in Marion, Alabama, and is the only radio station licensed to either Marion or surrounding Perry County. Data from the United States Census Bureau indicates that in 1970, 58.9% of the residents in Perry County were Black (9,033 out of 15,383) and that 41.8% of the residents of Marion were Black (1,782 out of 4,289). Station WJAM's license expired on April 1, 1973, and the licensee timely-filed its renewal application on January 2, 1973. The timely-filed petition to deny seeks to raise the following issues: inadequate programming service to the station's Black community in both past and proposed programming and failure to ascertain adequately the needs of the community. As indicated below, we are persuaded that petitioners present several substantial and material questions of fact surrounding both the past and proposed operation of WJAM. Accordingly, we cannot make the required finding that the renewal of WJAM's license will serve the public interest.

ASCERTAINMENT

3. Petitioners make several allegations to the effect that the licensee's ascertainment survey is inadequate to satisfy the requirements of the Commission's Primer.[3] For instance, petitioners contend that WJAM did not provide information regarding the ethnic composition of the area of service as Questions 9 and 10 of the Primer require.[4] It is further alleged that in its application the licensee mentioned neither a group devoted to achieving bi-racial understanding, nor a

[1] The standing of petitioners to file the instant petition to deny license renewal for Station WJAM-AM has not been challenged by the licensee and, finding that petitioners have met our requirements for standing, we accordingly will accept their petition as a timely-filed document entitling them to party-in-interest status.

[2] At the time petitioners filed their reply they also filed a Motion to Strike the licensee's amendment to the renewal application which had been filed on June 15, 1973. On March 15, 1973, the Commission requested additional information from the licensee regarding the subject application, and asked that the information be filed as an amendment to the application. Petitioners wish to have that amendment stricken, or in the alternative, have the Commission "grant such further and other relief as it may deem appropriate." Basically petitioners argue that this amendment represents an abuse of the Commission's rules that allow, as a matter of right, amendment of applications prior to designation for hearing (See § 1.522(a) of the Commission's rules, 47 CFR 1.522(a).) We are not persuaded that this amendment meets any of petitioners' arguments in support of its request and accordingly we will accept it and pass upon its content in the context of the subject application. Since the Commission generated this amendment, it cannot be stated that the licensee, through the amendment, is attempting to upgrade a deficient application. Further we do not feel that this amendment represents a pattern of dilatory conduct by the licensee, nor does our acceptance of it amount to allowing belated upgrading after a challenge has been initiated. Chuck Stone v. FCC 466. 2d 316 (D.C. Cir. 1972). The amended information was requested by the Commission before processing of the petition to deny had begun, even though the petition's filing preceded our March 15, 1973 letter.

[3] The Report and Order in the matter of Primer on Ascertainment of Community Problems by Broadcast Applicants, 27 FCC 2d 650 (1971).

[4] According to petitioners, about 1,800 or 40% of Marion's 4,300 people are Black and 60% of the Perry County residents are Black (9,000 of 15,000). These figures comport with U.S. Census data (See Paragraph 2, supra).

group made up predominantly of Blacks, nor one whose primary purpose is to work with Black people. Petitioners assert that there is no way of determining whether the licensee even attempted to consult with a cross-section of community leaders. Petitioners fault the licensee's statement that leaders were chosen without regard for "age, race, sect, national origin, or creed." Petitioners feel that this attitude of the licensee ignores Question 13(a) of the Primer, which requires stations to consult with leaders who are representative of the composition of the community. Petitioners also allege that the licensee has failed to list the community leaders it attempted to consult in the ascertainment survey. It is further alleged that the licensee's ascertainment procedure was inadequate because the community leader survey was conducted through mailed questionnaires rather than face-to-face interviews. Petitioner states that only two of the 21 community leaders were Black, and neither of the Blacks consulted reside in Marion, the community of license. Petitioners' final point regarding ascertainment is that the WJAM survey was in the hands of Sarah M. Mullins, a part-time employee and copywriter, rather than a management-level employee as required by Question 11(a) of the Primer.

4. By letter dated March 15, 1973, the Commission brought to the licensee's attention several matters regarding its ascertainment efforts, including exclusive use of mailed questionnaires, without personal interviews, in the community leader survey. On June 15, 1973, the licensee amended the application in response to the Commission's letter and incorporated this amendment into its opposition pleading. According to the amendment, a new community leader and general public survey was conducted between April 19–26, 1973. In that survey, 22 community leaders were personally interviewed as were 25 members of the general public; of these 47 persons, 40.43 percent were Black. The licensee notes that this new survey is "in addition to prior ascertainment activities." (Amend. p. 2).

5. In their reply, petitioners argue that the licensee's two ascertainment efforts raise candor and good faith issues. Initially, petitioners note that both the petition to deny and the Commission's March 15th letter point out that mailed questionnaires to community leaders will not, standing alone, comply with the Primer. The Primer requirement for "personal consultations" was interpreted by the licensee to mean "personal mailed questionnaires" rather than questionnaires sent to "occupant." Petitioners find that this explanation "raises a serious question as to whether this licensee has not simply elected to callously disregard the Commission's requirements in the hope of escaping detection, only mending its ways when caught." (Reply p. 32). Also petitioners disagree with the licensees' statement that the new survey was "in addition to prior ascertainment activities" since, according to petitioners, 11 of the original 22 leaders were again contacted in the April 19–26 survey. While the licensee states that about 40 percent of the 47 persons interviewed in the second survey were Black, petitioners argue that the licensee should have submitted racial data for each individual rather than the group figures indicated. Additionally, petitioners contend that the licensee has failed to list the person or persons who actually conducted the survey and has failed to provide demographic material indicating the composition of the community.[5] Finally, petitioners argue that the second survey failed to fulfill the purpose of the Primer. Specifically, petitioners point out that the second survey, containing three pages, asked only one question out of eleven on community problems, and that appeared on the third page after the interviewee's signature.[6] Also, petitioners ask whether the questionnaire was used as the basis for discussion rather than the discussion itself, since, it seems to the petitioners, the interviewee completed the questionnaire rather than the licensee: "The licensee seems only to have substituted personal delivery of the questionnaire." (Reply p. 37).

6. The Communications Act requires that as a prerequisite to the grant of an application for renewal of a broadcast license, the Commission must find that the station will be operated to serve the public interest during the upcoming license term. The Commission has stated that the principal ingredient of the licensee's obligation to operate in the public interest is the diligent, positive, and continuing effort to discover and fulfill the tastes, needs, and desires of his community. Report and Statement of Policy re: Commission En Banc Programming Inquiry, 44 FCC 2303, 2316 (1960) (1960 Programming Policy Statement). In order to determine whether the licensee has met this obligation, the Commission designated Section IV-A (radio) and section IV-B (television) of Part I of the renewal application to require the licensee to state the methods he used to ascertain his community's needs and interests (i.e. problems), those problems which his station plans to meet during the coming license period, and typical illustrative programs which he will present to meet those problems. In a Report and Order released February 23, 1971, the Commission adopted the Primer, supra, wherein we sought to clarify our policies and provide guidelines for the fulfillment of our requirements with respect to the ascertainment process. The Primer prescribes the methods a licensee must employ to ascertain the needs and interests of his community. Briefly stated, he first must determine the composition of the community, indicating its economic, social, racial, ethnic, and other significant characteristics. Thereafter, he must consult with the leaders of the significant segments that comprise the community and with a random sample of the general public. The purpose of these consultations is to elicit from the interviewees what they believe to be the problems faced by the community. Having completed the surveys, the licensee must list all the problems ascertained and then evaluate them to determine which problems merit treatment by the station. Finally, the licensee must propose programming designed to meet those problems.

7. A review of the application for renewal of WJAM's license discloses that the licensee has failed both in its original ascertainment survey and in its amendment to submit any data indicating the racial composition of Marion and Perry County.[7] In its original application the licensee indicated that Marion has six international service clubs, three historical clubs, five local service clubs, five garden and home demonstration clubs, and eight Scout clubs. Additionally, the licensee pointed out that Judson College and Marion Institute are located in its city of license and that three major industries recently relocated in Marion. Finally, the licensee noted that the major source of income for persons within its service area comes from agriculture, education and forestry. Aside from this data, which comes from its original application, the licensee has provided no additional demographic statistics in its amendment. Except for the licensee's own population estimate, we have no information on the community's size and its minority, racial, or ethnic group breakdown. Also, this application, as amended, contains neither information on the existence of economic, professional, social, political, cultural or other significant groups nor any other factors or activities that make this particular area distinctive. We find the licensee's failure to mention any details concerning the area's Black population extraordinary in view of the large Black population within WJAM's service area. While we allow the licensee great discretion in formulating and submitting compositional information, we do require that an accurate picture of the community result. Without such information, we are unable to review the actual ascertainment efforts of the licensee since we are unable to determine whether a representative sample of community leaders and members of the general public have been contacted. Based upon the information before use we are unable to determine whether the licensee contacted such a sample.

8. In this case the licensee's original survey indicated that community leaders

---

[5] In its original survey, the licensee indicated that Marion has a population of 6,000 and Perry County a population of 19,000. There was no breakdown of the racial composition of the area in either survey.

[6] The mailed questionnaire contained four questions on community problems out of nine questions altogether.

[7] In view of the wide discrepancies between licensee's submitted population data and the U.S. Census figures (Paragraph 2, supra), we must question licensee's care in preparing the scant compositional matter it did offer in support of its renewal application.

V 40-65

were consulted without regard for "age, race, sect, national origin or creed," though Question and Answer 13(a) of the Primer clearly requires these factors to be taken into account to the extent they reflect the composition of the community. While the second survey apparently was not conducted with the same misplaced "neutrality" and included 22 community leaders and 25 members of the general public, the licensee merely submitted a list of 47 names with corresponding occupations and organization memberships for each interviewee. The licensee states that 40.43 percent of the 47 are Black. Such a survey is unacceptable since it does not separate community leaders from members of the general public, nor does it provide identifying racial or other compositional data on community leaders.

9. It is expected that licensees submit accurate ascertainment surveys, and the Commission adopted the Primer to this end. However, WJAM, whose original ascertainment survey was found unacceptable by the Commission, has once again failed to submit a properly documented survey.[8] This repeated failure to conform with the requirements of the Primer and to provide the Commission with data that adequately presents relevant information raises substantial and material questions of fact surrounding the licensee's ascertainment efforts, and we propose to inquire further into these efforts in an administrative hearing.[9]

PAST PROGRAMMING

10. Petitioners allege that the programming broadcast by Station WJAM–AM during its past license term was not responsive to the needs and interests of Perry County residents, particularly the county's Black population. More specifically, petitioners submit that their analysis of the station's program logs for 1970–1973 composite week reveals that WJAM devoted only 50 minutes to minority-oriented program.[10] According to petitioners, not only is WJAM's public service programming for the Black community inadequate, but those few programs were also broadcast in fringe time at early morning hours on Sunday; religious programs catering to White audiences, however, were more conveniently scheduled.[11] Petitioners further allege that all WJAM religious programs for Black audiences are paid for by members of the Black community, while some of the programs originating from local White churches are broadcast free of charge. Petitioners contend that the licensee disregards the wants, needs, and problems of Perry County Blacks, except for events of the most routine nature. For instance, after the 1971 integration of Perry County schools, Blacks organized a boycott closing the schools for several weeks. During this period a Black high school principal's house was shot up, and a bi-racial commission was created by court order to resolve this crisis. Petitioners allege that WJAM provided no coverage of the boycott, marches, meeting, demonstrations or shootings during this period.[12]

11. Petitioners point to several misleading or inconsistent statements made by WJAM in its renewal application. Though the licensee alleges that the "Hill Program" features a live Negro minister, petitioners contend that he is White. Petitioners also allege inconsistencies between WJAM's renewal application and its program log. While the licensee claims one hour 57 minutes of "public affairs" during the composite week, the program logs show only one hour 30 minutes of such programming, even including the licensee's sign-on and sign-off as public affairs presentations. Though the renewal application states that nine hours 31 minutes of "all other" programs were aired during the composite week, the petitioners claim that the program log for that week indicates only nine hours eleven minutes of such programs. Finally, petitioners allege that the licensee's listing of "Gospel Ship" as a typical and illustrative program for the license term, in language identical to its 1970 description, is highly misleading. In 1970, "Gospel Ship" was a two-hour Monday through Saturday music and public affairs program hosted by a Black announcer, Erskine Clemons. In 1973, however, "Gospel Ship" was a 15-minute Sunday religious program aired at 7:45 a.m.

12. As a final comment on WJAM's programming during the 1970–1973 license term, the petitioners point out that the licensee has failed to perform in accordance with its promise to the Commission at its last renewal in 1970:

	1970 proposal		Performance during composite week

In addition, WJAM provided only 201 public service announcements during the composite week, though it had promised 275 per week in 1970.

13. In opposition, the licensee denies that it has ever "intentionally, accidentally, or otherwise provided only minimal broadcast service" to Perry County's Black community. In an affidavit attached to the licensee's opposition, Mr. Erle W. Hanna, General Manager of WJAM since August 1, 1971, states that since he has held that position, no Black has requested and been refused time to broadcast a program or announcement.[13] The licensee charges that petitioner's allegation that WJAM broadcast only one hour 35 minutes (later amended to 50 minutes) of programming aimed at the Black community is unsupported by any evidence or documentation. Mr. Hanna states that the three white churches in Marion have always sponsored and paid for the 11 A.M. worship service broadcasts.[14] In response to the allegations about specific programs made by petitioners, the licensee admits that "Tubbs Program" has been off the air from seven to eight months because the Tubbs Funeral Home cancelled the program it had sponsored. Mr. Hanna states

[8] The original survey efforts were conducted by a part-time employee and copywriter, contrary to the standards of the Primer, and in its amendment the licensee merely states that the second survey was conducted by "principals" but does not elaborate on who these principals are. Under these circumstances, we cannot dismiss petitioners' objections regarding WJAM's survey methods.

[9] Though eleven of the 22 community leaders consulted in the second survey were also interviewed in the original survey, we do not find any fault with that aspect of the survey. We agree with the petitioners that the licensee was overstating when it said the new survey was "in addition to prior ascertainment activities," but this does not evidence a lack of candor or good faith sufficient to justify further exploration in an administrative hearing.

[10] The programs involved were: "Gospel Ship" a 15-minute program aired at 7:45 a.m. on Sunday; "Word of God" a 15-minute program broadcast at 7:00 a.m. on Sunday; "Community Hour" a 15-minute program aired at 7:30 a.m. on Sunday; and the five minute "Tubbs Program" broadcast at 10:05 a.m. on Sunday. Originally, the petitioners also included the 45-minute program "Hill Program" as a presentation appealing to the Black community. However, when petitioners discovered that the program was hosted by a White man rather than a Black man as indicated by the licensee they revised downward the amount of programming appealing to Black audiences from one hour 35 minutes to 50 minutes. Petitioners also allege that both "Word of God" and "Tubbs Program" have been off the air for from seven to eight months, leaving only 30 minutes per week currently devoted to the Black community.

[11] Such religious programs include: "Time of Worship" (presented at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday); "Sunday Worship" (presented at 11:00 a.m. on Sunday); "Good News Program" (presented at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday); and "Morning Devotional" (presented at 8:15 a.m. each weekday).

[12] Petitioners claim that the licensee became estranged from the local Black community when WJAM discontinued the broadcast of local high school football games after Perry County schools and teams were integrated in 1971. These football broadcasts were replaced by baseball games played in an all-White private Little League, a programming change which the petitioners feel shows a disregard for the Blacks of Perry County.

[13] According to Mr. Hanna, petitioner Albert Turner has never set foot in his office during this time, though Hanna claims he is always willing to discuss radio programming with Mr. Turner or with anyone else.

[14] The licensee adds that on April 26, 1973, the Reverend Mr. Johnson of the Berean Baptist Church, a Black congregation in Marion, asked if WJAM would broadcast his church service at a similar time as it does the services of the local White churches. Mr. Hanna agreed as long as the broadcasts would be on a rotating basis with the other area congregations. However, Johnson stated that he would not start broadcasting his church's service until some time in the future. Mr. Hanna states that during his tenure as General Manager no Black minister has ever asked to appear on WJAM's 8:15 a.m. weekday "Morning Devotional."

that he is unaware of the program "Word of God," since it has not been aired since he has been General Manager. Mr. Hanna also admits that the host of "Hill Program" is a White male and not a "local Negro minister" as indicated in the license renewal application. Finally, commeting on the "Gospel Ship" allegation, the licensee states that although the program had been a two-hour, Monday-through-Saturday music and public affairs program, it is now a 15-minute Sunday morning religious program hosted by a Black announcer for several years. "Obviously, in preparing a portion of the renewal application, current exhibits were typed from former exhibits and are not correct. There was no intent to mislead the Commission, or the Petitioners." (Hanna affidavit p. 7). Despite the cancellation of certain programs, the licensee claims that it appeals to the Black population of Perry County by playing music of Black entertainers.

14. In conclusion, the licensee states that any person—regardless of race—who writes in or calls in a news item or announcement will have it aired.[15] Mr. Hanna adds that "(i)f the Black community does not feel that we are broadcasting their news items, then it's their fault. If they get the items to us they will be broadcast just as they have been in the past. There are only five people on our staff and we do not have the time to go out and gather news. We have to depend on anyone wanting news items broadcast getting them to us." (Hanna affidavit p. 9).[16]

15. The licensee denies that it failed to cover events surrounding the 1971 school crisis and submits a letter to this effect dated September 4, 1973, from Hilton J. Ishee, Assistant Superintendent of the Marion City Board of Education, to Erle Hanna of WJAM.[17] It is further pointed out that no one presently employed at WJAM worked there during the school boycott of 1971, and, further, Mr. E. H. Huntley, the General Manager at that time, is now deceased. In response to petitioners' comments on certain sports events, Mr. Hanna states that since WJAM operates day-time only, there is little public-interest value in recording football games played on Friday night for broadcast on Saturday morning. Furthermore, after only one game and part of another, the remainder of the 1971 football season was cancelled because of a shortage of players. The licensee alleges that Little League baseball games of an all-White private league were broadcast only a short time because WJAM often had to sign off the air before a game was completed. A secondary reason alleged for the cancellation of the Little League broadcasts was the unavailability of an announcer for the games.

16. Responding to petitioners' allegations that the licensee failed to perform as promised in 1970, Mr. Hanna states that a public affairs proposal of six hours and 45 minutes is too high for a small-town, daytime-only station. (He alleges that the previous general manager, who made this proposal in 1970, may have included programs that were not truly public affairs programs.) Mr. Hanna also maintains that the broadcast of 201 public service announcements during the composite week "is a far better record than most radio stations, daytime or full-time," even though the licensee had proposed 275 in its 1970 application. (Hanna affidavit p. 9).

17. In their reply pleading petitioners focus on one main point as indicative of the licensee's indifferent efforts to serve all listeners within its service area: "(T)he licensee attempts to shift to the Black community of Marion and Perry County the burden of seeking out broadcast services. The license does not recognize that it has an affirmative obligation to seek out members of the Black community and to attempt to provide programming for the Black community." (Reply p. 13) Petitioners find evidence of this attitude in Mr. Hanna's allegations that Blacks have never been refused air time, or that Blacks have never requested more time than is currently being broadcast, or that the licensee has always been willing to discuss programming with anyone. In addition to its alleged failure to fulfill its obligation to the community, petitioners contend that the licensee also fails to take seriously its obligation to scrupulously prepare its renewal application so that all items mentioned are accurate and clear. An example of this latter point is Mr. Hanna's affidavit wherein he states that the "Word of God" program "has not been on the air since (he has) been Manager," (Hanna affidavit p. 7) even though the program was logged as having been broadcast during the composite week (Sunday, October 17, 1971, 7 a.m.).

18. Petitioners contend that the licensee's reliance upon Black music as a method of reaching Black listeners should not be considered by the Commission in determining whether the station rendered service in the public interest to significant groups within its service area.[18] Regarding WJAM's alleged lack of coverage of the 1971 school crisis, petitioners argue that there remains a substantial and material question of fact since, by the licensee's own admission, no one now employed by the station was so employed at the time of the alleged events. The letter from Hilton Ishee fails to cure this deficiency since it is not in affidavit form setting forth specific allegations of fact sufficient to indicate that the licensee did in fact provide coverage or that such coverage was in the public interest. Finally, petitioners contend that the licensee has not adequately responded to the allegation that the 1970 programming proposals were not met during the license term, and therefore a substantial and material question of fact remains to be resolved in a hearing.

19. At the outset, we point to a fundamental misconception underlying petitioners' criticism of WJAM's program service: the apparent assumption that a station must divide its programming coverage according to the racial composition of its community. This theory, which has been specifically rejected by the Commission on a number of occasions,[19] overlooks the fact that the major portion of a station's programming may be directed to the public as a whole rather than to individual racial groups within that public. A licensee's primary obligation is to the community as a whole. Of course, in fulfilling that obligation, he may well choose, in his good faith discretion, to present particular programs designed to meet the specific problems of identifiable groups within the service area. The amount of such specifically-oriented programming need not be corrected to the representation of a particular group or groups in the population; rather, it is a function of the licensee's evaluation of the relative importance of all of the problems of the entire service area. And in making that evaluation a licensee is allowed broad discretion to use his good faith judgment. This policy has been consistently applied by the Commission in evaluating claims of inadequate programming in cases similar to the instant situation. For example, in Capitol Broadcasting Company, 38 FCC 1135, 1139 (1965), the Commission offered the following response to assertions that the renewal applicant had failed to serve the needs and interests of the Black community within its service area:

> There is no requirement that a licensee divide his programming so that, in Jackson for example, 55 percent would be of interest to the white community and 45 percent to the Negro, any more than [15] Examples given are: "Trading Post," presented at 12:15 p.m. weekdays and Saturday; a community news program presented three times a day; and other news broadcasts.

[16] The licensee also offers the opinion of Mr. Obie Scott, the father of Mrs. Martin Luther King, Jr., as an indication of how Perry County's Black community approves of WJAM's programming. During the ascertainment survey Mr. Scott completed a questionnaire in which he stated that WJAM was doing a good job, though it has inadequate religious programs, and that to his knowledge no request for assistance to his group, the Marion Merchants Association, has ever been denied by the licensee.

[17] At the time of the school crisis, Mr. Ishee was principal of the Francis Marion High School. He states that during the crisis, E. H. Huntley, then General Manager of WJAM, gave daily coverage of the situation by interviewing Ishee, students, civil rights leaders, and law enforcement officers. Mr. Huntley, according to Mr. Ishee, recorded such interviews on magnetic tape and broadcast the recording daily.

[18] Petitioners feel that Obie Scott's opinion is not only general and conclusory in nature, but it offers no specific primary facts in support of the ultimate question of whether WJAM is serving the public interest. Petitioners further contend that the licensee relies only on selected excerpts of Mr. Scott's opinion.

there is a requirement that each minority group (e.g., Irish, Jewish, Polish, etc.) be afforded a specified portion of a Chicago TV station's time, proportionate to the group's percentage of the total Chicago population. Such a pattern of operation would be "broadcast segregation."

20. We reaffirm here our holding that separate programming for the minority and majority is not feasible and would, in fact, constitute a policy of segregation. However, we also recognize that the problems of minorities cannot be ignored. They must be taken into consideration by broadcasters in planning their program schedules to meet the needs and interests of the communities they are licensed to serve. Time-Life Broadcasting Corp., supra. As in certain other areas of a licensee's performance, we accord the licensee wide discretion in its programming practices. However, we do believe that in order to serve the public interest, a licensee must address some of the needs and interests present in its community as discovered in its ascertainment survey. In this programming a licensee must afford reasonable opportunity for the presentation of minority viewpoints. In the present case we are unable to conclude that this licensee has served the public interest through its past programming. The licensee has provided us with no information indicating presentation of programming conforming to our definition of "public affairs." Petitioners, by implication, have raised the possibility that "Community Hour" does contain conforming material. (Pet p.7). In any event, absent further description or explanation from the licensee, we are unable to resolve the questions raised without the benefit of an evidentiary hearing.

21. The licensee has indicated in its composite week logs that two hours and 55 minutes of programming were devoted to public affairs. (At the same time, in its renewal application, the licensee claims one hour 57 minutes of public affairs during that representative week.) Having carefully reviewed the instant application, its amendments, and the parties' pleadings in this case, we are unable to conclude that any of the programs cited by the licensee as public affairs programs are in fact public affairs programs. That is, none of WJAM's programs clearly deal with topics that fit our "public affairs" definition. On March 15, 1973, we informed the licensee by letter that four of its public affairs programs were incorrectly classified according to our program category definitions.[20] It remains our opinion that none of these programs are public affairs presentations. The following programs were logged as "public affairs" contrary to our interpretation of that classification: "Trading Post" (77 composite week minutes) which the licensee—in its June 15, 1973 amendments—admits was misclassified; the "sign-on" and "sign-off" of WJAM (28 composite week minutes); "Market Report" and "World News" (25 and 15 composite week minutes respectively) which are clearly news programs requiring classification as such; "Veterans Column" (15 minutes) which is described as providing aid and news to veterans, and "County Extension" (also 15 minutes) which, according to the licensee's description, would be more appropriately classified as news or educational rather than public affairs. Consequently, we find that WJAM presented no discernible public affairs programming during its composite week, which included over 83 on-the-air hours.

22. Turning to the licensee's list of typical and illustrative programs broadcast during the past license term (Exhibit No. 7), we again are unable to find any programming efforts designed to focus on local needs, interests and problems. Listed as public affairs programs—in addition to the logged items listed in Note 20, supra—were: "Civitan Day" (all day once yearly), "Full day of broadcast on WJAM by local Civitan Club;" and "Spelling Bee" (30 minutes once a year), "spelling contest." Our reading of both the above programs and the composite week logs indicates that the licensee scheduled no program in which local needs and interests were either discussed or presented in some fashion. We cannot renew—at least, not without further inquiry—the license of a station that appears to operate in such a fashion. We will require the assistance if a hearing before acting further in the instant application. At present we are unable to find that a grant of WJAM's renewal will serve the public interest.

DISCRIMINATORY PROGRAMMING

23. In addition to their general allegation that the licensee's past programming failed to serve the public interest, petitioners allege discriminatory programming practices by the licensee against Blacks in the community. From all the information available to us at this time, it appears that all religious programs designed to serve the Black community were paid for either by the ministers or religious organizations involved. The same was not true, however, for White religious broadcasts, many of which were carried by WJAM free of charge. The licensee acknowledges this practice and states that it has been followed since the station went on the air. The licensee also states that free air time recently has been offered to a Black congregation on a rotating basis with other White churches. The licensee further notes that at least one association of White ministers was paying for its time. There is no evidence that any group's request for time has been flatly denied or discriminatorily refused. (See affidavit of Mr. Hanna.) Also, petitioners contend that the licensee's failure to cover a local school boycott by Blacks shortly after Perry County schools were desegregated provides further evidence of racial discrimination in programming. The licensee responds with a letter from a local high school principal who states that the events were covered by WJAM and that he and others were interviewed by the station. On this issue, petitioners have clearly fallen far short of submitting specific allegations of fact supported by affidavits from person or persons with personal knowledge thereof sufficient to show that a grant of the application would be prima facie inconsistent with the public interest. Section 309(d)(1) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. 309(d)(1). We believe that petitioners' allegations have failed to present a prima facie question of fact to which the licensee must respond. The licensee need not respond to general, unspecific allegations. We are not here presented with the factual situation found in Storz Broadcasting Company, 48 FCC 2d 1223 (1974) where a clear question of fact existed supported by affidavits from each party.[21]

LACK OF CANDOR

24. Petitioners have also charged the licensee with lack of candor and/or deceptive practices in connection with both the operation of WJAM and the completion of the subject renewal application. These allegations, however, fail to raise an issue for reasons discussed below. Initially, petitioners argue that several aspects of the licensee's past programming are deceptive. The 45-minute "Hill Program" is described by WJAM as featuring a "local-live Negro minister," which the licensee in its opposition admitted was incorrect. Additionally, though the licensee's General Manager states in his affidavit that the "Word of God" program has not been presented while he has been at the station, petitioners point out that this program is logged as having been broadcast during the composite week. Third, the length and type of programs in the licensee's log do not correspond to the station's claims in the application. Finally, the description of "Gospel Ship" in the licensee's application is highly misleading according to petitioners. While many of these allegations concern errors admitted by [20] These four programs were: "Trading Post," "Tubbs Program," "Home Makers Club," and "Spelling Bee." We also note that on March 9, 1970, the Commission has sent WJAM a similar letter informing the licensee that four of its public affairs programs were incorrectly classified. Two of these four programs, "Tubbs Program" and "Home Makers Club," were again noted in our March 15, 1973, letter. It has therefore been brought to the licensee's attention on two separate occasions that its public affairs programming fails to meet our definition, yet, the licensee continues to categorize two of its programs as public affairs.

[21] Petitioners' charges of racial discrimination in programming high school football and Little League baseball games fail to raise substantial or material questions of fact. The broadcast of football games in 1971 became impossible when the school cancelled the games remaining on its schedule after the second game of the season, and the licensee cancelled baseball coverage when the games ran past station sign-off. In the absence of any challenge to these reasons by petitioners, we find that both instances fail to raise issues for hearing.

the licensee in its program descriptions, we do not believe they represent such a careless disregard of the public interest as to require further inquiry. This conclusion is not to suggest that repeated behavior of a similar nature will escape future administrative review, but only to point out the less substantial nature of these allegations by comparison with other charges made.

PROMISE VS. PERFORMANCE

25. Finally, we believe that petitioners' allegation regarding WJAM's public affairs performance during the composite week, as measured against its 1970 public affairs proposals, does merit further consideration in an administrative hearing. While prospective programming proposals are not "binding" to the last decimal point, they do represent one of the major aspects of the renewal application upon which this Commission places great reliance in making the statutory finding that a grant of the application would be in the public interest. These proposals cannot be disregarded during the license term without adequate and appropriate representations from the licensee regarding, for example, the changing needs of its service area. "In short, a licensee cannot disregard his proposals in the hope that he will simply be permitted to 'upgrade' when called to account." KORD, Inc., 31 FCC 85, 88 (1961). Here the licensee's composite week public affairs programming varied substantially from its 1970 proposals.[22] The licensee's argument, contained in its opposition that the 1970 proposals exceed reasonable possibilities of performance hardly meets our objection. Percentages listed in the renewal application regarding future performance by a licensee must be lived up to, and if, as here, a licensee feels that his estimates cannot be achieved, it will be his obligation to so inform this Commission before such changes occur. Accordingly, we find that petitioners have raised a substantial and material question of fact necessitating further inquiry.

PROPOSED PROGRAMMING

26. Petitioners submit that the licensee's proposed public service programming will not serve the public interest due to reductions in broadcast time far below its 1970 proposals:

[22] In 1970, WJAM proposed to broadcast six hours, 45 minutes of public affairs programming (8.23 percent of its broadcast week) and during the composite week, according to the renewal application, broadcast one hour, 57 minutes (2.34 percent). However, as noted above, we are unable to conclude that any of the composite week public affairs programming conformed to our usage of the term "public affairs programming."

	1970 proposals		Performance during composite week		1973 proposals
	Hours: Minutes	Percent	Hours: Minutes	Percent	Hours: Minutes	Percent
News	8:30	10.37	9:28	11.37	9:14	11.26
Public affairs	6:45	8.23	1:57	2.34	1:47	2.17
All other	12:30	15.25	9:31	11.43	9:11	11.20
Total	27:45	33.85	20:51	25.14	20:12	24.63
PSA's	275		201		210

More specifically, petitioners argue that the licensee has not proposed programs to deal with specific problems as ascertained. Petitioners conclude that the licensee "has not proposed a single program in response to the needs it has ascertained." (Petition, p. 18) According to petitioners, the licensee has listed three primary needs that it has ascertained but none of the proposed programs in response to these needs meet the Commission's requirements and, therefore, a hearing should be held to determine whether the proposed programming is responsive to ascertained needs of the community.

27. The licensee's response to petitioners' objection to the proposed programming again points out that comparing 1973 proposals to those of 1970 is not meaningful since the 1970 proposals contained misclassified programs which accounted for the high hourly proposals. Nevertheless, the licensee argues that its proposals will sufficiently meet the area's needs and interests, which is the significant factor to be considered in evaluating proposed programming. Additionally, the licensee incorporates its June 15th amendment to the application, wherein are listed proposed programs (including their time, duration, and frequency) that will address specific ascertained needs and interests.

28. In their reply, petitioners note that the licensee has failed even to address the issue of proposed programming reductions and does not attempt to justify the inadequate proposals "in light of the virtual exclusion of blacks from the licensee's programming." (Reply p. 31) Petitioners argue that a hearing is required to explore whether these reductions will serve the public interest. Finally, petitioners contend that several of the proposed programs listed in the June 15th amendment are nowhere described—making their evaluation impossible.

29. In reviewing a licensee's programming proposals in the context of a petition to deny, several guidelines must be recalled. Initially, the Primer "requires the applicant to state the title, time segment, duration, and frequency of broadcast of the proposed broadcast matter." 27 FCC 2d 650, 675. Additionally, Question and Answer 29 notes that the applicant should describe "the community problem or problems" the proposed programs will address. "Statements such as 'programs will be broadcast from time to time to meet community problems,' or 'news, talk and discussion programs will be used to meet community problems,' are clearly insufficient. Applicants should note that they are expected to make a positive, diligent and continuing effort to meet community problems." Ibid.[23] Next, the programs proposed in response to the community's ascertained needs are largely left to the good faith discretion of the licensee in fulfilling its public interest obligation. "Absent evidence that the licensee's percentage proposals will not meet ascertained community problems or that the licensee has abused its discretion, the Commission will not seek to second guess the licensee." Mahoning Valley Broadcasting Corp., 39 FCC 2d 52, 61 (1972). Our granting the licensee wide discretion in programming matters takes cognizance of the fact that not all problems ascertained merit treatment, nor can they be dealt with through the station's programming. Therefore, we focus our attention on the station's overall programming.

30. Petitioners have attacked the fact that WJAM's proposals for public affairs and other programs are significantly lower than those proposed in 1970 and even lower than the prograing carired in these categories during the composite week.[24] The Commission has never established a quantitative minimum standard to govern a particular program type. Westinghouse Broadcasting Company, Inc., 31 RR 2d 1299 (1974); RadiOhio, Inc., 38 FCC 2d 721 (1973), affirmed sub nom Columbus Broadcasting Coalition v. FCC, 505 F. 2d 320 (D.C. Cir., 1974). The amount of programming in any category is left to the good faith discretion of the licensee in responding to the ascertained needs and interests of the community. In its amended ascertainment survey, the licensee lists 30 problems of Marion and Perry County as mentioned by the 47 persons interviewed. The licensee provides the following descriptions for its proposed programs.[25]

"Trading Post"—a listing of lost and found items.

[23] In this regard, the licensee's initial proposed programming data contained in the application is "clearly insufficient." The application contained no specific programming plans as required by the Primer, and instead set out general intentions centering on nonprogramming efforts to meet community needs and interests. Since the proposed programming portion of the application was amended substantially, our focus will center upon the revised version.

[24] Petitioners' allegations regarding the decrease in PSA's for the coming license term do not raise a prima facie question of fact, for here, as in other areas of programming, the Commission will not play a numbers game absent specific facts to indicate that the public interest will not be served through the licensee's proposals. Columbus Broadcasting Coalition v. FCC, 505 F. 2d 320 (D.C. Cir. 1974).

[25] It should be pointed out that these descriptions are not taken from the licensee's amended survey but rather from Exhibit No. 7 in the application, which contains a listing of typical and illustrative programs carried during the past license term.

31. As indicated above, 17 of the 30 ascertained problems will be addressed by the licensee's proposed programs. Close examination reveals the following: six problems will be dealt with solely through station editorials; four problems will be discussed through some combination of editorials and news reports; two problems will receive attention in PSA's; and the remaining five problems have separate and distinct programs proposed. Initially, we should point out that a station's use of editorials, news reports, and PSA's to meet ascertained needs of the community is permitted by our Primer, supra. However, the Primer does indicate that reliance upon editorials, news reports, and PSA's is a question of degree. Sole reliance will raise questions as to the adequacy of the proposals. The licensee's obligation to serve the needs and interests of its service area is greater than merely providing information on these problems through editorials, news reports, and PSA's. This conclusion "is founded on the recognition that our society is confronted with many complex problems that cannot be met by the brief comment afforded by announcements." 27 FCC 2d 650, 676. Also, as discussed above, the Commission affords the licensee wide discretion in proposing programs to meet community needs and interests. While the needs of minority groups within a station's service area need not be satisfied solely through programs designed specially for that group, the licensee's responsibility to serve the public interest does include an obligation to serve the special needs and interests of sizable minority groups existing within the station's service area. Capitol Broadcasting Company, 38 FCC 1135 (1966). In Alabama Educational Television Commission, 32 RR 2d 539, 554 (1975), we held that a licensee's failure to serve the needs and interests of a 30 percent minority community was "fundamentally irreconcilable with the obligations which the Communications Act places upon those who receive authorizations to use the airwaves." Here with a Black population outnumbering the White population in Perry County, the licensee will be held to an even higher obligation in terms of service to the "minority" community.

32. After careful review of the licensee's proposals and petitioners' allegations, we are persuaded that a substantial and material question of fact exists as to whether the licensee's proposed programming will adequately serve the public interest. Our conclusion in this regard largely rests on the fact that of the 30 ascertained needs and interests discovered by the licensee, only five problems will be given any attention in programming beyond editorials, news reports, or PSA's. Moreover, an analysis of the programs that will address these five problems provides little indication that WJAM will serve Marion and Perry County. Problem Number 12 (better educational facilities) will receive attention over WJAM from the local Civitan Club only once a year. We also fail to see how the area's employment situation will be adequately treated through "Trading Post" as described by the licensee. Similarly, "Veterans Column" as summarized seems to relate to the area drug problem only in a tenuous manner. Finally, with regard to Problem Number 9 (better race relations), the licensee has failed to even provide descriptions for two of the four proposed programs (i.e., "Grand Old Gospel Hour" and "Lee Funeral Home Program"). It appears to us that the licensee, after its ascertainment survey was completed, merely pitted present programs against ascertained problems. When no program existed, instead of creating new presentations to deal with problems (as envisioned by the Primer), the licensee merely indicated editorials, news reports, or PSA's, as dealing with certain ascertained needs. We have already indicated the licensee's unsatisfactory performance during the past license term in broadcasting to meet community needs. Now, with a cut in proposed public affairs programming—and with editorials, news reports, and PSA's providing the bulk of programming for ascertained needs—it is necessary to inquire further into WJAM's proposed programming at a hearing.

33. Accordingly, it is ordered, That pursuant to section 309(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-captioned license renewal application, is designated for hearing at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent Order, upon the following issues: (1) To determine whether the composition of Marion and Perry County, Alabama is reflected to a reasonable degree in the licensee's community leader and general public surveys.

(2) To determine whether the ascertainment of community needs survey was conducted by appropriate personnel of Radio Marion, Incorporated.

(3) To determine whether the ascertainment survey conducted by Radio Marion, Incorporated reasonably could have been expected to disclose the needs, interests and problems of WJAM's service area.

(4) To determine whether Radio Marion, Incorporated—in the past license term (1970–1973)—has broadcast programming serving the needs, interests and problems of WJAM's service area.

(5) To determine whether Radio Marion, Incorporated's programming for the past license term reasonably conformed to its proposals as set forth in its 1970 renewal application.

(6) To determine whether Radio Marion, Incorporated's programming proposals as set forth in the subject renewal application reasonably will meet community needs, interests and problems as ascertained.

(7) To determine whether, in light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, a grant of the subject license renewal application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

34. It is further ordered, That the petition to deny the above-captioned license renewal application, filed by Albert Turner, individually and on behalf of the Perry County Civic League, is granted to the extent indicated above.

35. It is further ordered, That petitioners' Motion to Strike filed September 7, 1973, IS DENIED.

36. It is further ordered, That Albert Turner and the Perry County Civic League are made parties to the hearing ordered herein.

37. It is further ordered, That in accordance with section 309(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the burden of proceeding with the introduction of evidence shall be on the parties respondent as to Issues (1) through (6). The burden of proceeding with respect to Issue (7), and the burden of proof with respect to all of the issues herein shall be upon Radio Marion, Incorporated.

38. It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, Radio Marion, Incorporated and petitioners, pursuant to § 1.221(c) of the Commission's rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within twenty (20) days of the mailing of this Order, file with the Commission in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in the Order.

39. It is further ordered, That Radio Marion, Incorporated shall, pursuant to section 311(a)(2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 1.594 of the Commission's rules, give notice of the hearing within the time and in the manner prescribed in such rules, and shall advise the Commission of the publication of such notice as required by § 1.594(g) of the rules.

[Docket No. 20380; File No. 159-A-L-64; FCC 75-286]

SELMA FLYING SERVICE, INC.

Application for Hearing

In the matter of application of Selma Flying Service, Inc., for an aeronautical enroute station to be located at Selma, Alabama; Docket No. 20380, File No. 159-A-L-64.

1. Selma Flying Service, Inc. (Selma) has filed an application for an aeronautical enroute station to be located at Selfield Airport, Selma, Alabama. Aeronautical Radio, Inc. (ARINC) filed a petition to deny the Selma application on July 29, 1974. Selma opposed the ARINC petition to deny by a letter received at the Commission on August 19, 1974, to which ARINC replied on August 27, 1974. Selma, in turn, rebutted the ARINC reply of August 27, 1974, by a pleading submitted September 17, 1974.

2. This series of pleadings is unusual and, as ARINC points out in its reply of August 27, 1974, not fully in accord with the Commission's procedural rules.[1] Notwithstanding this objection, we believe it is necessary and desirable to treat as much of the pleadings received as we legally can in the interest of fully treating the fundamental policy and public interest questions raised by both ARINC and Selma in their respective filings.

3. Accordingly, we hereby waive the provisions of § 1.45 of the rules, on our own motion, in order to address the issues raised by these pleadings. The factual allegations made in the informal opposition and reply of Selma will not be treated except as they may be officially noticed. However, the public interest or policy arguments made by Selma will be treated as informal comments in support of its application. In so deciding, we are following a long standing practice of avoiding strict application of the Commission's procedural rules against applicants in the Safety Services who utilize communications which are ancillary to their businesses, especially in cases, such as the instant case, where such applicants are not represented by counsel and where service on all other parties in interest has been accomplished.

4. The pleadings associated with the Selma application raise policy and factual issues. Regarding policy considerations, ARINC sets forth at length in its pleadings, its own historical role in the development and operation of the aeronautical enroute system in the United States. It cannot be gainsaid that ARINC's historic role in such development and its current dominance of the system are very significant. In this connection, ARINC protests "private use of the aeronautical enroute service" by Selma. Whatever the merits of such arguments may be, they are not appropriate to this proceeding. ARINC does not deny that Selma is an eligible applicant in the enroute service. Arguments concerning the proper role of ARINC in this service relative to other applicants should be considered in context of a Notice of Inquiry or Notice of Proposed Rule Making. Consequently, we find that Selma is eligible to be licensed in the enroute service.

5. ARINC further protests the Selma application on the following grounds:

(a) Because existing ARINC service can adequately serve Selma, the application should be dismissed pursuant to § 87.291(b) of the rules.[2]

(b) Selma did not prosecute its application for an aeronautical advisory station in Dockets 19969–19970, released June 12, 1974 (FCC 74M–679) and the consideration of the current license may be barred for 12 months by Section 1.916 of the rules insofar as the application involves "service of the same kind to substantially the same area."

(c) Information on file with the Commission indicates Selma Flying Service may have engaged in the unlicensed operation of aeronautical advisory station KSP–8 held by the City of Selma after that license expired on September 13, 1971.

6. In its Petition to Deny, ARINC makes the following statements regarding the adequacy of existing [ARINC] service:

. . . ARINC has stations throughout Alabama including stations as near as Montgomery, Birmingham, and Tuscaloosa. In addition . . . the area of Selma is criss-crossed by ARINC aeronautical enroute networks. There is a network operating on 131.85 MHz coming from Birmingham to Montgomery to Meridian, crossing Selma directly. There is another network operating on 128.85 MHz coming in from Memphis to Montgomery and Mobile. Finally, there is a network on 130.2 MHz coming from Chattanooga to Montgomery to Mobile and on to New Orleans. Of course, to the extent that additional facilities may be necessary to meet the specific communications requirement of the applicant or others, ARINC stands ready to implement service, without delay, upon reasonable request pursuant to § 87.291(a) of the rules. From the information now supplied, it would appear that the aeronautical enroute communications requirements at Selma, Alabama, can be "adequately served" by existing ARINC stations, and the application should be dismissed.

7. ARINC is not a common carrier and, consequently, is not obligated to serve Selma on tariffed terms. Conversely, Selma Flying Service is not obligated to seek service from ARINC. Rather, as has already been noted, Selma is entitled and eligible to apply for an enroute station in its own right. In considering whether existing service is adequate, therefore, it is necessary to consider not only whether ARINC's existing system can adequately serve Selma operationally, but also whether financial or other service terms of present ARINC service offerings to Selma are adequate or are otherwise in accordance with the rules.

8. Section 87.291(a) of the rules defines the scope of service of aeronautical enroute stations. Among other things, this rule requires licensees of enroute stations to provide all necessary non-public service to any aircraft licensee "who makes cooperative arrangements for the operation and maintenance of the aeronautical enroute stations which are to furnish such service and for shared liability in the operation of such stations." Consequently, it is necessary to determine the financial or other provisions relating to shared liability in the operation of such stations as would furnish service to Selma and to determine whether or not these provisions are adequately related to costs. Consequently, an issue will be designated below to determine the facts regarding ARINC's service offering to Selma, pursuant to ARINC's obligation under § 87.291(a) of the rules and to determine whether or not such offering fulfills ARINC's duty to provide service to Selma.

9. It is undisputed that Selma did not prosecute its application for an aeronautical advisory station in Dockets 19969 and 19970. Selma attributes its failure to do so to the press of other business. In any event, no evidence exists that Selma was or is abusing the Commission's processes. Further, should Selma fail to prosecute its instant application, it can and will be dismissed for that reason in accordance with standard procedure. ARINC's contention that the aeronautical enroute and aeronautical advisory services are services of the same kind for purposes of § 1.916 of the rules is without merit nor does ARINC maintain that Selma does not intend to operate an aeronautical enroute station.

10. ARINC's contention that Selma Flying Service may have engaged in unlicensed operation of aeronautical advisory station KSP–8 is more problematical. We note, however, that the license for that station was held by the City of Selma and not by Selma Flying Service. Ordinarily, therefore, the City of Selma, as the licensee or former licensee of the station (after the license had expired) would be responsible for illegal operation of its station. Further, Selma states that no unlicensed operation has occurred under present management. In order to determine the facts regarding this matter, we will designate an issue below to determine whether or not such unlicensed

[1] Specifically, the Selma opposition to ARINC's petition to deny was not submitted within 10 days of the filing of the petition to deny, as required by § 1.45(a) of the rules. Further, no provision is made for a "reply to a reply" unless specifically requested or authorized by the Commission. See § 1.45(c) of the rules. Lastly, Selma's informal opposition and reply are unsupported by affidavit as required by section 309(d)(1) of the Communications Act and § 1.962(g) of the rules.

[2] This rule provides as follows:

"Only one aeronautical enroute station in the Domestic Service will be authorized at any one location and only one aeronautical enroute station in the International Service will be authorized at any one location. For this purpose 'a location' means an area which can be adequately served by the particular station." (Emphasis supplied.)

operation occurred; whether, if it did, it can fairly be charged to Selma and its present management; and, if so, whether such conduct was serious enough to disqualify Selma as a licensee of an aeronautical enroute station.

11. Accordingly, it is ordered, That the above-captioned application of Selma Flying Service is designated for hearing at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent Order on the following issues:

(a) To determine whether or not an existing station or stations can adequately serve Selfield Airport operationally within the meaning of § 87.291(b) of the Commission's rules.

(b) To determine the facts concerning the service offerings of ARINC to Selma, pursuant to ARINC's duty to provide service pursuant to § 87.291(a) of the Commission's rules.

(c) To determine whether or not ARINC's proposed charges are related to costs or are otherwise reasonable in accordance with the requirement for shared liability in the operation of such ARINC stations as would provide service to Selma.

(d) To determine, in light of the evidence adduced under issues (b) and (c) above, whether an existing ARINC station or stations will adequately serve Selma Flying Service in accordance with § 87.291 (a) and (b) of the rules.

(e) To determine whether or not Selma Flying Service is engaged in unlicensed operation of aeronautical advisory station KSP-8, held by the City of Selma after September 13, 1971.

(f) To determine, in light of the evidence adduced under issue (e) above, whether or not such unlicensed operation of station KSP-8 which may have occurred, is reasonably and fairly chargeable to the present management of Selma Flying Service.

(g) To determine in light of the evidence adduced under issue (f) above, whether such unlicensed operation of station KSP-8 which may reasonably and fairly be chargeable to the present management of Selma Flying Service is sufficiently grave to warrant denial of the present application.

(h) To determine in light of all of the evidence whether or not the grant of the application of Selma Flying Service would be in the public interest, convenience and necessity.

12. It is further ordered, That the burden of proof and the burden of proceeding with the introduction of evidence on issues (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) is on Aeronautical Radio, Incorporated, and on issues (f) and (g) of Selma Flying Service. Issue (h) is conclusory.

13. It is further ordered, That the Petition to Deny filed herein by ARINC IS GRANTED to the extent indicated herein and in all other respects IS DENIED.

14. It is further ordered, That to avail themselves of an opportunity to be heard ARINC and Selma Flying Service, pursuant to § 1.221(c) of the Commission's rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within twenty (20) days of the mailing of this Order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date set for hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this Order.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. E-8851]

ALABAMA POWER CO.

Tariff Change

MARCH 26, 1975.

Take notice that Alabama Power Company on March 19, 1975 tendered for filing proposed changes in its FPC Electric Tariff, Original Volume No. 1. The proposed changes to the Company's tariff constitute a change in the fuel cost adjustment clauses applicable to Revision No. 1—Rate Schedules REA–1 and MUN–1. The Company states that the revised fuel cost adjustment clauses are filed in accordance with and pursuant to FPC Order No. 517 in Docket No. R–479 issued November 13, 1974. Alabama requests that its proposed revised fuel cost adjustment clause be permitted to become effective on April 18, 1975, or the earliest date thereafter as permitted by existing contracts with affected municipal and cooperative customers.

Copies of the filing were served upon the public utility's jurisdictional customers, all parties of record in Docket No. E–8851, the Alabama Public Service Commission and the Southeastern Power Administration.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said application should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before April 16, 1975. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Provided however, that parties who have already been permitted to intervene in this proceeding need not file further petitions to intervene. Copies of this application are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

KENNETH F. PLUMB,
Secretary.

[Docket No. CI75-542]

AMERADA HESS CORP.

Application

MARCH 27, 1975.

Take notice that on March 12, 1975, Amerada Hess Corporation (Applicant), 1200 Milan, 6th Floor, Houston, Texas 77002, filed in Docket No. C175–542 an application pursuant to section 7(b) of the Natural Gas Act for permission and approval to abandon the sale of casinghead gas to Warren Petroleum Company (Warren) from a well located in the Eunice-Monument Field, Lea County, New Mexico, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant states that under a certain percentage-of-sales casinghead gas contract between Applicant and Warren, Applicant sells casinghead gas produced from a well located in the Eunice-Monument Field to Warren. The application indicates that said well was reclassified as a gas well in an oil pool by the New Mexico Oil Conservation Commission. Applicant states that as an oil well the casinghead gas produced therefrom was dedicated to a contract with Warren; however as a gas well the gas-well gas therefrom is dedicated to Northern Natural Gas Company pursuant to a Gas Purchase Contract dated June 21, 1974, on file with the Commission as Applicant's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 30.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 11, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that permission and approval for the proposed abandonment are required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

ARKANSAS LOUISIANA GAS CO.

Proposed Change in Rates

MARCH 27, 1975.

Take notice that on March 18, 1975, Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company ("Arkla") tendered for filing Fifth Revised Sheet No. 4 to its FPC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1 to become effective May 1, 1975.

Arkla states that the instant filing was made pursuant to the purchased gas cost adjustment provisions of Arkla's tariff in order to reflect a change in Arkla's deferred cost adjustment pursuant to section 13 of the General Terms and Conditions of Arkla's FPC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1.

Arkla states that it has submitted schedules containing computations supporting the rate changes to be effective May 1, 1975. Arkla further states that copies of its filing were served on Arkla's jurisdictional customers and the State Commission of Oklahoma and Kansas.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before April 9, 1975. Protests will be considered by the Commission to determine appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

ARKANSAS LOUISIANA GAS CO.

Filing of Revised Tariff Sheet

MARCH 27, 1975.

Take notice that on March 17, 1975 Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company (Arkla) tendered for filing Fifth Revised Sheet No. 4 to its FPC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1 to become effective May 1, 1975.

Arkla states that the instant filing was made pursuant to the purchased gas cost adjustment provisions of Arkla's tariff in order to reflect a change in Arkla's deferred cost adjustment pursuant to section 13 of the General Terms and Conditions of Arkla's FPC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1.

Arkla submitted schedules containing computations purporting to support the rate changes to be effective May 1, 1975. Arkla states that copies of its filing were served on Arkla's jurisdictional customers and the State Commissions of Oklahoma and Kansas.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission in acordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before April 9, 1975. Protests will be considered by the Commission to determine appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. [Docket No. IT-5959]

BONNEVILLE POWER ADMINISTRATOR

Application for Amendment of Presidential Permit

MARCH 26, 1975.

Take notice that Bonneville Power Administrator (Administrator), having his principal office at Portland, Oregon, filed an application with the Federal Power Commission in Docket No. IT–5959 on August 21, 1974, as subsequently supplemented, pursuant to Executive Order No. 10485, dated September 3, 1953, for further amendment of his Presidential Permit which authorizes certain facilities of Bonneville Power Administration, U.S. Department of the Interior (BPA), at the United States-Canadian border for the transmission of electric energy between the United States and Canada.

The Administrator's Presidential Permit, as signed by the President of the United States on October 27, 1945 and modified by the amendment signed by the Acting Chairman of the Federal Power Commission on November 30, 1965, authorizes the Administrator to construct, operate, maintain and connect one 230 kv transmission line and one 500 kv transmission line at the border between the State of Washington and the Province of British Columbia, Canada, near Blaine, Washington, where such lines interconnect overhead with the electric transmission system of British Columbia Hydro and Power Authority (B.C. Hydro) for the exchange of excess hydroelectric energy and the interchange of electric energy for emergency and breakdown relief. In his application, the Administrator states that BPA's 230 kv line has been retired and removed and that it has been replaced by a 500 kv line which occupies the right-of-way formerly utilized by the 230 kv line and interconnects with B.C. Hydro's facilities at the international border as did the 230 kv line. The aforedescribed changes in BPA's transmission facilities increase the firm capacity of the BPA–B.C. Hydro interconnection from 400,000 kw to 2,000,000 kw. The Administrator now seeks modification of his permit, as amended, for the purposes of securing, in substance, approval of the removal of the 230 kv line and authorization for the construction, operation, maintenance and connection of the additional 500 kv line. In the event that the subject application is granted, two adjacent overhead 500 kv lines will be covered by the Administrator's permit.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 18, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, petitions to intervene or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Persons wishing to become parties to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file petitions to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules. The application is on file with the Commission and available for public inspection.

COLUMBIA GAS TRANSMISSION CORP.

Order Granting Interventions

MARCH 27, 1975.

On January 16, 1975, the Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) tendered for filing proposed changes in its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1 as follows: Nineteenth Revised Sheet No. 16; Sixth Revised Sheet No. 64 A; Tenth Revised Sheet No. 64 B.

Columbia's filing was noticed by the Commission on January 22, 1975, with protests and petitions to intervene due on or before February 7, 1975. An untimely petition to intervene was filed by Basin Petroleum Corporation.

Having reviewed the above petition to intervene, we believe that the petitioner has sufficient interest in the proceedings to warrant intervention.

The Commission finds: It is desirable and in the public interest to allow the above-named petitioner to intervene.

The Commission orders: (A) The above-named petitioner is hereby permitted to intervene in these proceedings subject to the rules and regulations of the Commission; Provided, however, That participation of such intervenor shall be limited to matters affecting asserted rights and interests as specifically set forth in the petition to intervene; and Provided, further, That the admission of such intervenor shall not be construed as recognition by the Commission that they might be aggrieved because of any order or orders of the Commission entered in this proceeding.

(B) The intervention granted herein shall not be the basis for delaying or deferring any procedural schedules heretofore established for the orderly and expeditious disposition of this proceeding.

(C) The Secretary shall cause prompt publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[Docket No. CP75-262]

COLUMBIA GULF TRANSMISSION CO. AND TENNESSEE GAS PIPELINE COMPANY, A DIVISION OF TENNECO INC.

Application

MARCH 27, 1975.

Take notice that on March 6, 1975, Columbia Gulf Transmission Company (Columbia Gulf), P.O. Box 683, Houston, Texas 77001, and Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company, a Division of Tenneco Inc. (Tennessee), P.O. Box 2511, Houston, Texas 77001, filed in Docket No. CP75–262 a joint application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of 40.6 miles of offshore pipeline facilities (referred to as Project 643) necessary to connect gas reserves in the West Cameron Blocks 642 and 643 area to Applicants' respective systems, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicants state that the proposed facilities will be an extension of Applicants' existing 16.8 mile 30-inch diameter pipeline extending from East Cameron Block 273 to Applicants' jointly-owned Blue Water Project in Vermilion Block 245 (certificated in Docket No. CP73–48, 49 FPC 1307) and will consist of the following: (a) approximately 30.4 miles of 30-inch pipeline extending from the terminus of Applicants' existing 30-inch pipeline in East Cameron Block 273 to a point in West Cameron Block 601, and

[1] Should a central gathering pipeline platform be required in the future Applicants indicate that it would be installed at the intersection of the 24- and 30-inch pipelines in Block 601.

V 40 165
APR 3 75
XUM

These facilities are estimated by Applicants to cost $3,462,392 in the aggregate, which cost will be shared equally by Applicants and will be financed from funds on hand by Columbia Gulf and from funds on hand and borrowing upon revolving credit by Tennessee. In addition, Applicants state that they will share jointly and equally the 150,000 Mcf per day capacity in the proposed Project 643 facilities, as well as all operating costs associated therewith. It is stated that Columbia Gulf will design and construct, and Tennessee will operate the facilities.

The application indicates that Columbia Gulf transports gas purchased by Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia Transmission). Columbia Gulf states that Columbia Transmission has purchase rights or options to 100 percent of the natural gas reserves in West Cameron Blocks 642 and 594 and East Cameron Blocks 370, 371 and 313. It is estimated that recoverable natural gas reserves of approximately 93,596,000 Mcf, with initial deliverability of 45,000 Mcf per day, will be available from Block 642 and that reserves of approximately 60,000,000 Mcf are available from Blocks 370 and 371. Columbia Gulf also states that Columbia Transmission has purchase rights to a ⅓ interest in West Cameron Block 595 which interest is estimated to represent approximately 50,000,000 Mcf of gas. In addition, it is stated that Columbia Transmission has purchase rights to partial interests in the gas from West Cameron Blocks 616 and 630 and East Cameron Blocks 335 and 373. The application indicates that Exxon Company, U.S.A., holds the major portion of the retained interest in these latter four blocks and that the estimated total of gas reserves underlying these blocks is 500,000,000 Mcf.

Tennessee states that of the reserves represented by Tenneco Oil Company's (Tenneco) 50 percent share in West Cameron Block 643 (which are estimated to approximate 113,417,000 Mcf of gas) 75 percent (or 85,063 Mcf) are committed to Tennessee, with an expected initial deliverability of 17,500 Mcf per day. Tennessee states that with respect to the 28,354,000 Mcf of gas retained by Tenneco, Tennessee will, upon receipt of the necessary authorization, transport such volume onshore for Tenneco.

Tennessee further states that it will actively negotiate with Texaco Inc. for the remaining 50 percent of the Block 643 reserves. Moreover, Tennessee indicates that it has a call on part of Tenneco's interest in reserves in East Cameron Block 354; on Texaco Inc.'s interest in West Cameron Blocks 576, 629, 638 and 648 and East Cameron Block 293; and on Odeco, et al.'s interest in East Cameron Block 351. Also, it is stated that Tennessee is negotiating with Tenneco for a commitment of the latter's 50 percent interest in East Cameron Block 374 and Vermilion Blocks 389 and 409.

All of the above blocks are in the vicinity of the proposed Project 643 pipeline. Applicants state that the capacity to be made available by the proposed facilities is necessary to enable them to attach, in early 1976, the gas reserves to be available in West Cameron Blocks 642 and 643, as well as additional reserves from the above-described nearby blocks as they become available, and to move such volumes through Applicants' Blue Water Project and then onshore to Applicants' respective pipeline systems.

With a view toward maximizing utilization of facilities in offshore Louisiana, § 2.65(b) of the Commission's General Policy and Interpretations provides that pipeline cost shall be included in cost-of-service at an average unit cost based upon a 60 percent load factor. Applicants request the Commission to waive the applicability of § 2.65(b) in the instant proceeding. In support of their request, Applicants urge that there is great potential for gas acquisition by both Applicants in the area of the proposed facilities and that Columbia Gulf proposes to attach some of those reserves (West Cameron Block 595 gas reserves) in the near future.

The application indicates that in keeping with Commission policy as expressed in Order Nos. 465 (48 FPC 1550) and 499 (50 FPC ——), Tennessee has extended advance payments to producers in order to stimulate natural gas exploration. Tennessee submits that its participation in Project 643 should be considered in terms of its advance payment program.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 14, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Secretary.

[Docket No. CP75-65]

COLUMBIA GULF TRANSMISSION CO.

Petition To Amend

MARCH 26, 1975.

Take notice that on March 10, 1975, Columbia Gulf Transmission Company (Petitioner), P.O. Box 683, Houston, Texas 77001, filed in Docket No. CP75-65 a petition to amend the order of the Commission issued in the subject docket on December 23, 1974 (52 FPC——), pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act, as implemented by § 157.7(b) of the regulations thereunder (18 CFR 157.7 (b)), to include the amended definition of "gas-purchase facilities" and the increased budget-type expenditure limitations set forth in Order No. 522 issued January 16, 1975 (53 FPC——), all as more fully set forth in the petition which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

On December 23, 1974, Petitioner was authorized to construct, during the period January 6, 1975, to January 1, 1976, and operate facilities necessary to take into its system gas purchased by Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation. Total expenditures for the facilities are limited to $7,000,000, with no single onshore project to exceed a cost of $1,000,000 and no single offshore project to exceed a cost of $1,750,000. Petitioner requests the Commission to amend the order issuing its certificate to allow it to construct and operate single gas-purchase facilities, as that term is redefined in Order No. 522, costing up to $1,500,000 onshore and $2,500,000 offshore, consistent with the increased budget-type expenditure limitations of Order No. 522.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said petition to amend should on or before April 11, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

CONSOLIDATED GAS SUPPLY CORP.

Order Granting Late Intervention

MARCH 26, 1975.

On November 5, 1973, the Consolidated Gas Supply Corporation (Consolidated) tendered for filing certain proposed Tariff Sheets designed to implement the recovery of the fixed costs imbedded in its effective rates and charges which it would otherwise fail to recover because of the decrease in the volume of sales on which its rates are predicted as a result of gas shortage curtailments. Consolidated's filing was noticed by the Commission on December 26, 1973, with protests and petitions to intervene due on or before January 7, 1974.

Timely petitions to intervene were filed by Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation, New York State Electric and Gas Corporation, the Pavilion Natural Gas Company, Public Service Commission of New York, Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation, and Southern Tier Gas Corporation. Said petitioners were granted intervention by Commission order dated May 10, 1974. An untimely notice of intervention was filed by the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio on February 20, 1975.

Having reviewed the above late notice of intervention, we believe that the petitioner has sufficient interest in the proceedings to warrant intervention.

The Commission finds: It is desirable and in the public interest to allow the above-named petitioner to intervene.

The Commission orders: (A) The above-named petitioner is hereby permitted to intervene in these proceedings subject to the rules and regulations of the Commission; Provided, however, That participation of such intervenor shall be limited to matters affecting asserted rights and interests as specifically set forth in the notice of intervention; and Provided, further, That the admission of such intervenor shall not be construed as recognition by the Commission that it might be aggrieved because of any order or orders of the Commission entered in this proceeding.

(B) The intervention granted herein shall not be the basis for delaying or deferring any procedural schedules heretofore established for the orderly and expeditious disposition of this proceeding.

(C) The Secretary shall cause prompt publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[Docket No. E-8522]

DELMARVA POWER AND LIGHT CO.

Order Accepting Rate Settlement

MARCH 26, 1975.

On November 30, 1973, Delmarva Power and Light Company (Delmarva) and its two wholly-owned subsidiaries, Delmarva Power and Light Company of Maryland (Maryland) and Delmarva Power and Light Company of Virginia (Virginia) tendered for filing proposed changes in the intercompany Power Supply Agreement.[1] The present Agreement provides for a self-adjusting cost-of-service and is designed to allocate among the three companies the fixed charges and variable costs of generation and power supply, transmission, production, materials and supplies for the integrated system. The proposed changes would increase the rate of return contained in the agreement from 6.0 percent to 9 percent, reduce Delaware production expenses by $1,102,906, and increase Maryland and Virginia production expenses by $887,760 and $215,146 respectively based on 1973 figures. The Agreement effectuates no further change in the aggregate power supply costs of revenues. Delmarva requested an effective date of January 1, 1974, for the Agreement.

By Commission order issued December 28, 1973, the proposed changes were suspended for one day and made effective January 2, 1974, subject to refund. The record in this proceeding consists of Delmarva's direct and rebuttal evidence, Staff evidence and the evidence presented by the Delaware, Virginia and Maryland State commissions.

On January 7, 1975, Delmarva filed a Motion for Approval of Settlement with the Commission. The January 7, 1975, motion was noticed on January 22, 1975, with comments, protests or petitions to intervene due on or before February 7, 1975.

The Settlement provides that the over-all rate of return provided for in the Agreement as filed November 30, 1973, should be reduced from 9.0 percent to 8.625 percent. If the over-all return was applied to the capitalization listed in Appendix A, the return on common equity would be 12.58. The Settlement provides that the over-all 8.625 percent return is not to be considered a precedent for any future rate proceeding before any state commission. Finally, the Settlement provides that the settlement rates shall be effective January 2, 1974, and that Delmarva shall make the appropriate refunds if the Commission approves the Settlement.

Based upon our review of the record in this proceeding, including the filings made by Delmarva, the evidence presented by the parties and the settlement agreement itself, we find that the proposed settlement agreement is a just and reasonable resolution of the issues presented in this proceeding and should therefore be approved.

The Commision finds: Approval of the Settlement Agreement in this docket filed with this Commission on January 7, 1975, is just and reasonable and in the interest of the public in carrying out the provisions of the Federal Power Act.

The Commission orders: (A) the settlement agreement in this docket, filed with the Commission on January 7, 1975, is hereby approved and made effective as of January 2, 1974.

(B) The settlement agreement as filed by Delmarva on January 7, 1975, is hereby incorporated by reference.

(C) Delmarva shall file within 30 days from the date of this order revised rate schedules pursuant to, and in conformity with the settlement agreement.

(D) Delmarva is hereby required to make appropriate refunds, including interest at 7 percent per annum of any excess charges collected under the suspended rates.

(E) This order is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been made or which will hereafter be made by the Commission, and is without prejudice to any claims of contentions which may be made by the Commission, its staff, or any party or person affected by this order, in any proceeding now pending or hereinafter instituted by or against Delmarva or any person or party.

(F) The Secretary shall cause prompt publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

Acting Secretary.

[Docket No. E-9294]

DETROIT EDISON CO.

Order Accepting Proposed Rate Increase for Filing, Suspending Use Thereof and Establishing Procedures

MARCH 27, 1975.

On February 28, 1975, Detroit Edison Company (Detroit), tendered for filing a proposed increase in rates to seven wholesale customers within the State of Michigan.[1] The proposed increase would result in approximately $7.6 million in added revenues to the company, based upon estimated sales for the year ending March 31, 1976. Detroit has requested an effective date of April 1, 1975 and explains that the proposed increase is made necessary by rapidly increasing costs and the inability to finance its construction program.

An examination of Detroit's filing indicates that the company claims a 9.77 percent rate of return with a return on common equity of 14.5 percent; makes a direct assignment of certain transmission facilities to wholesale customers; uses deferred fuel accounting; has proposed a change in the design of its rates; and has normalized the tax effect of capitalized items and interest associated with construction work in progress in its income tax computation. Included within Detroit's filing is a new fuel clause in purported compliance with Commission Order No. 517.

Notice of Detroit's proposed rate increase was issued on March 11, 1975 with protests and petitions to intervene due on or before March 21, 1975. No such protests or petitions have yet been received.

Our review indicates that the proposed changes have not been shown to be just and reasonable and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, preferential or otherwise unlawful. Accordingly, we shall suspend the proposed changes for sixty days and establish hearing procedures to determine the justness hearing procedures to determine the justness and reasonableness of Detroit's filing.

The Commission finds: (1) It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the Federal Power Act, particularly sections 205, 206, 307, 308 and 309 thereof, that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the proposed rates, charges and conditions of service contained in Detroit's rate increase application filed February 28, 1975.

(2) Good cause exists to accept for filing and suspend Detroit's proposed revised tariff sheets for sixty days, to become effective May 30, 1975, subject to refund.

The Commission orders: (A) Pursuant to the authority of the Federal Power Act, particularly sections 205 and 206 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Federal Power Act (18 CFR Chapter I), a public hearing shall be held on August 26, 1975, at 10 a.m., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, concerning the lawfulness of the rate charges and conditions of service contained in Detroit's rate increase application filed February 28, 1975.

(B) Pending a hearing and final decision thereon, Detroit's proposed revised tariff sheets are hereby accepted for filing, suspended for sixty days and the use thereof deferred until May 30, 1975.

(C) On or before July 8, 1975, the Commission Staff shall serve its prepared testimony and exhibits. On or before July 29, 1975, the Intervenor shall serve their testimony and exhibits. On or before August 15, 1975, Detroit shall serve its rebuttal testimony and exhibits.

(D) A Presiding Administrative Law Judge to be designated by the Chief Administrative Law Judge for that purpose, (See Delegation of Authority, 18 CFR 3.5(d)), shall preside at the hearing in this proceeding, shall prescribe relevant procedural matters not herein provided, and shall control this proceeding in accordance with the policies expressed in the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(E) Nothing contained herein shall be construed as limiting the rights of parties to this proceeding regarding the convening of conferences or offers of settlement pursuant to § 1.18 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(F) The Secretary shall cause prompt publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. RP75-39]

EL PASO NATURAL GAS CO.

Order Granting Untimely Intervention

MARCH 27, 1975.

On December 16, 1974, El Paso Natural Gas Company (El Paso) tendered for filing a proposed change in rates which would increase jurisdictional revenues by approximately $70,000,000 annually. Notice of said rate filing was issued with comments, protests, and petitions due on or before January 6, 1975.

On February 28, 1975, Southern California Edison (Edison) submitted an untimely petition to intervene in the above-referenced docket. In support of its petition to intervene, Edison states it is one of the largest customers of Southern California Gas Company (a gas distributor largely supplied by El Paso), and as such, Edison has a substantial legal interest in the outcome of the pending rate case. Edison further states that it did not receive a copy of the notice of rate change until after the January 6, 1975 deadline for filing responses to the rate filing.

Our review indicates that Edison has a substantial interest in the disposition of these proceedings and that good cause exists to grant the instant untimely petition to intervene.

The Commission finds: It is desirable and in the public interest to allow the above named petitioner to intervene.

The Commission orders: (A) The above mentioned petitioner is hereby permitted to intervene in this proceeding, subject to the Rules and Regulations of the Commission; Provided, however, That the participation of such intervenor shall be limited to matters affecting the rights and interests specifically set forth in its petition to intervene; and Provided, further That the admission of such intervenor shall not be construed as recognition that they might be aggrieved because of any order or orders issued by the Commission in this proceeding.

(B) The intervention granted herein shall not be the basis for delaying or deferring any procedural schedules heretofore established for the orderly and expeditious disposition of this proceeding.

(C) The Secretary shall cause prompt publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

[Docket No. CP75-270]

EL PASO NATURAL GAS CO.

Application

MARCH 26, 1975.

Take notice that on March 12, 1975, El Paso Natural Gas Company (El Paso), P.O. Box 1492, El Paso, Texas, 79978, filed an application in Docket No. CP75-270 pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of certain tap facilities and the sale and delivery of gas to Southern Union Gas Company (Southern Union) for resale to the Pueblo of Laguna, a right-of-way grantor on El Paso's interstate system, all as more fully set forth in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The application states that in order for Southern Union to serve a number of unincorporated villages located on the Laguna Indian Reservation, El Paso proposes to install a total of three right-of-way grantor taps and to deliver additional volumes at two existing locations as follows:

Tap	Villages served	Natural gas requirements (each of the first full 3 years of operations)
		Peak day (Thousand cubic feet at 14.73 lb/in²a)	Annual Proposed:
Casa Blanca	Casa Blanca, Paraje, Harrisburg	137	10,260
Seama	Seama, Philadelphia, New York	158	9,200
Old Laguna	Old Laguna, Paguate	400	25,760
Existing:
Laguna-Acoma School	New Laguna, Encinal	133	7,950
Burnell Co. meter station	Mesita	34	7,000
Totals		862	60,170

El Paso states that all five taps are located on its 30-inch O.D. Permian-San Juan pipeline in Valencia County, New Mexico. The application indicates that El Paso will construct at each of the proposed tap locations a 1-inch tap and valve assembly with appurtenances at a total estimated cost of $3,180, which cost will be financed from working funds. It is stated that peak day deliveries during 1974 were 93 Mcf of gas at the existing Laguna-Acoma School tap and 46 Mcf of gas at the existing Burnell Company meter station tap.[1]

El Paso states that the instant proposals are necessary to accommodate a request for gas service which El Paso has received from the Pueblo of Laguna, Laguna Indian Tribe, located in Valencia County, a right-of-way grantor who has exercised a prior right to request such services. El Paso further states that it will sell and deliver the gas to Southern Union for resale and delivery to said right-of-way grantor for Priority 1 purposes at the five delivery points.

According to El Paso the sale and deliveries which are the subject of this application will be made in accordance with a service agreement in effect between El Paso and Southern Union and will be consistent with the priorities of service and curtailment provisions as prescribed by the Commission in Docket No. RP72-6 and in effect from time to time. The rates which shall apply to such sales and deliveries are those contained in rate schedules of El Paso's FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, or applicable superseding tariff.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 14, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be necessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

KENNETH F. PLUMB,
Secretary.

[Docket No. CI75-551]

EXCHANGE OIL & GAS CORP.

Application

MARCH 27, 1975.

Take notice that on March 14, 1975, Exchange Oil & Gas Corporation (Applicant), 16th Floor, 1010 Common Street, New Orleans, Louisiana 70112, filed in Docket No. CI75-551 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act authorizing the sale for resale and delivery of natural gas in interstate commerce to Texas Gas Transmission Corporation (Texas Gas) from a portion of the Ship Shoal Block 23 Field, offshore, Terrebonne Parish, Louisiana, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file and open to public inspection.

Applicant proposes to sell to Texas Gas natural gas from the Ship Shoal Block 23 Field for one year at a rate of 75 cents per Mcf at 14.73 psia, within the contemplation of § 2.70 of the Commission's General Policy and Interpretations (18 CFR 2.70). Applicant estimates sales volumes of 5,000 Mcf of gas per month. The application states Applicant originally made a sale of gas to Texas Gas for a sixty-day emergency period which ended February 17, 1975, within the contemplation of § 157.29 of the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.29). Applicant alleges its proposed sale is necessary to assist Texas Gas in maintaining adequate, continuous, and firm gas service on its pipeline system during 1975 and thereafter.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 14, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

GULF STATES UTILITIES CO.

Service Agreement

MARCH 26, 1975.

Take notice that on March 17, 1975, the Gulf States Utilities Company (GSU) tendered for filing an agreement for Wholesale Electric Service with Houston County Electric Cooperative. This contract is for a three year period to continue thereafter on a year to year basis. The rate schedule included in this agreement is the schedule currently being considered in FPC Docket No. E-8121 and thus subject to be changed as a result of such proceeding. GSU states that this new contract form contains the same language as the agreement with Kirbyville Light and Power Company (FPC Schedule 110) which was accepted for filing by letter dated July 1, 1974, under Docket No. E-8817.

INDIANAPOLIS POWER & LIGHT CO.

Application

MARCH 27, 1975.

Notice is hereby given that on March 20, 1975, Indianapolis Power & Light Company (Applicant) filed an application with the Commission seeking an order pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act, authorizing the issuance of up to $51,000,000 principal amount of unsecured short-term promissory notes.

Applicant is incorporated under the laws of Indiana with its principal business office in Indianapolis, Indiana, and is primarily engaged in generating, distributing and selling electric energy within the City of Indianapolis, and adjacent communities, towns and rural areas.

Applicant proposes to issue the Notes from time to time after the authorization thereof by the Commission, with a final issue date for all such Notes of December 31, 1976, and a final maturity date of June 30, 1977. Each note will carry a maturity date of not more than twelve months after the date of issuance thereof. The notes to be issued to commercial paper dealers will be issued at the prevailing published discount rate, in various amounts, but not to exceed $35,500,000 aggregate principal amount and will have maturity dates of not more than nine months from the date of issuance thereof, excluding any days of grace. The notes issued to commercial banks will bear interest at a rate not to exceed the prevailing prime commercial lending rate of commercial banks.

The net proceeds to be received from the initial issuance of the notes will be applied to the payment of part of the cost of Applicant's 1974–1979 construction program. Construction expenditures are estimated to be $121,622,758 for 1975, $126,502,478 for 1976, and an aggregate of $447,381,074 for the years 1977, 1978 and 1979.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 21, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, petitions to intervene or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Persons wishing to become parties to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file petitions to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules. INTERSTATE POWER CO.

Filing of Stipulation and Settlement Agreement

MARCH 26, 1975.

Take notice that on March 19, 1975, Interstate Power Company (Interstate) submitted for filing for approval by the Commission, a proposed stipulation and settlement agreement for electric service from Interstate to thirteen firm municipal wholesale customers in Illinois, Iowa and Minnesota. This settlement has been reached by Interstate and Commission Staff pursuant to Settlement Conference held at the Commission offices on February 14, 1975, pursuant to notice. This settlement agreement provides for settlement of all issues arising in this rate proceeding.

The settlement allows Interstate an annual increase of $172,795. Interstate had sought an annual increase of $193,986. The settlement includes a revised cost of service, and First Revised Sheet No. 1, cancelling Original Sheet No. 1, which is Interstate's firm municipal Wholesale Rate 499, and a revised fuel adjustment clause in conformity with Commission Order 517, and a determination of fuel adjustment under current and proposed fuel adjustment clauses. Interstate in its settlement agreement proposes to refund any excess collected under its proposed rate, as provided for by Commission Order 513.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before April 25, 1975. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

[Docket No. CP74-292]

INTERSTATE TRANSMISSION ASSOCIATES (ARCTIC), ET AL.

Supplement to Application

MARCH 26, 1975.

Take notice that on February 26, 1975, Interstate Transmission Associates (Arctic) (ITAA), Pacific Interstate Transmission Company (Pacific Interstate), 720 West Eighth Street, Los Angeles, California 90017, and Northwest Alaska Company (Northwest Alaska), 315 East Second South, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111, (collectively referred to as Applicants) filed in Docket No. CP74-292 the second supplement to their application filed in the subject docket on May 14, 1974, pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act by which supplement Applicants 1) amend previously filed Exhibit C (Partnership Officials) and Exhibit Z-I (Environmental Report); 2) initially submit Exhibit I (Market Data), Exhibit L (Financing), Exhibit N (Revenues-Expenses-Income), Exhibit O (Depreciation) and Exhibit P (Tariff and Cost of Service); and 3) request that the name Northwest Alaska Company be substituted for the name Northwest Energy Company in the application and first supplement thereto in the subject docket, all as more fully set forth in the supplement which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

By their application of May 14, 1974, Applicants seek authorization to construct and operate, as a contract carrier of natural gas, an 877-mile gas transmission system, as one in a series of interrelated projects, to make available to markets in the lower 48 states volumes of natural gas from northern Alaska and the Mackenzie Delta area of northern Canada. Applicants propose to transport the volumes of gas delivered to them by Canadian Arctic Gas Pipeline Limited for the account of Pacific Interstate and Northwest Alaska from a point near Kingsgate, British Columbia, to appropriate delivery points through the States of Idaho, Washington, Oregon and Nevada to a point on the California-Nevada border near Oasis, California.

Applicants state that Northwest Alaska and Northwest Energy Company filed on February 5, 1975, a motion to substitute Northwest Alaska for Northwest Energy Company as party applicant in Docket Nos. CP74-292 and CP74-293.

Applicants also state that ITAA will have a policy committee to make all determinations regarding the affairs of ITAA. The policy committee will consist of two members; one from Pacific Interstate and one from Northwest Alaska.

The application indicates that the Environmental Report contains supplementary information and certain corrections to the original Environmental Report, as supplemented, previously filed in this docket. Applicants state that most of the revisions reflect changes necessitated by the reduction in pipeline diameters proposed in the first supplement to the application. According to Applicants such revisions include revised compressor station locations, revised socio-economic considerations, and revised environmental impact. In addition, Applicants submit for the first time alternative pipeline routes between Lyons Ferry, Washington, and La Grande, Oregon. The route between these two points now preferred by Applicants differs from the route they initially preferred.

The market data submitted by Applicants indicate that three natural gas suppliers (Southern California Gas Company, Northwest Pipeline Corporation and El Paso Natural Gas Company) serving the area through which Applicants' proposed pipeline will pass face increasing gas shortages through 1984. Based on existing supply conditions, the data indicate that the proportion of said three suppliers' requirements which can be served will decline from 61 percent in 1975 to 28 percent in 1984.

In Exhibit L Applicants submit that based on 1974 costs with no provisions for escalation, an assumed debt interest rate of 10 percent and an equity return of 16 percent, $456,000,000 in first mortgage bonds and $152,300,000 of equity investment will provide the necessary permanent financing for the construction of the proposed facilities. Applicants anticipate that the equity will be contributed by Pacific Interstate and Northwest Alaska and that the bonds will be placed in private sale.

Under its pro forma tariff ITAA proposes to render transportation service on a cost-of-service basis. ITAA estimates that its cost-of-service will average approximately $120 million per year during the first seven years of operations (four years of partial operations and three years of full operations) and will total approximately $2.6 billion over the 25-year project life. Over those 25 years, ITAA estimates, the cost of transportation will average 0.029 cent per Mcf-mile which equals a unit cost of 26.4 cents per Mcf of gas delivered to the California border. Based upon those expected revenues, Applicant expects its return on equity will average approximately $23.5 million during the first three years of full operations.

In Exhibit O Applicant proposes an annual rate of depreciation of 4 percent which is based on the assumption that the gas purchase contracts relating to the instant project will have 25-year lives.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said supplement should on or before April 17, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules. Persons who have heretofore filed protests, petitions to intervene, or notices of intervention in the instant docket docket or in the consolidated proceeding in Docket No. CP75-96 need not file again.

Secretary.

[Project No. 2444]

LAKE SUPERIOR DISTRICT POWER CO.

Application for Surrender of Minor License

MARCH 27, 1975.

Public notice is hereby given that application for surrender of minor license has been filed under the Federal Power Act (16 U.S.C. 791a–825r) by Lake Superior District Power Company of Ashland, Wisconsin (correspondence to: Mr. K. S. Austin, President, Lake Superior District Power Company, 101 West Second Street, Ashland, Wisconsin 54806 and Mr. Glen H. Bell, Aberg, Bell, Blake, and Metzner, S.C., 222 West Washington Avenue, Madison, Wisconsin 53703) for White River Project No. 2444 located on the White River, a tributary of the Bad River which flows into Lake Superior, in White River Township, Ashland County, Wisconsin near Ashland, Washburn and Odanah, Wisconsin.

The White River Project as licensed in an order issued May 3, 1966, for a term effective April 1, 1962, and expiring December 31, 1993, consists of an 800-foot long, 30-foot high earth dam with a concrete spillway and headrace section near the center. The concrete section contains two sluiceways controlled by radial gates 25 feet wide and 26½ feet high. The project also consists of a 45-acre reservoir at normal high water elevation 712.13 (U.S.G.S.); a 7-foot diameter redwood penstock from the dam to a steel surge tank at the powerhouse; a 39 by 60 foot powerhouse with two turbines rated at 900 hp each and each directly connected to a 500 kw generator; a substation; and appurtenant facilities.

Applicant states that the wood penstock collapsed when it was dewatered during an inspection on April 19, 1974, due to the reservoir being drawn down. Applicant states that it would not be economically feasible to perform the construction necessary to restore the plant to operation. Applicant therefore desires to surrender the subject license.

Applicant plans to remove all project structures and facilities, except the earth dam and the concrete portion of the spillway section. The dam and spillway will be retained for the State Highway 112 bridge which currently crosses the river utilizing these facilities.

The reservoir is not used for water supply, but is used by small boats and canoes, principally for fishing.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make protest with reference to said application should on or before May 12, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, petitions to intervene or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to a proceeding. Persons wishing to become parties to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file petitions to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules. The application is on file with the Commission and available for public inspection.

Compliance Filings

MARCH 27, 1975.

Take notice that on March 10, 1975 Missouri Power and Light Company (MP&L), pursuant to Paragraph (A) of the Order issued December 31, 1974 in the above-referenced docket, tendered what it alleges to be a revised fuel adjustment clause which is in compliance with FPC Order No. 517, along with revenue comparisons which purport to show the effect under MP&L's original proposed "MESWR" rate with the fuel adjustment clause not in compliance with Order No. 517, and the proposed "MESWR" rate with the fuel adjustment clause which is in conformance with Order No. 517. MP&L further states that since the fuel cost for the test year ended February 28, 1974 was approximately 38¢ M/Btu as compared to the 36¢ M/Btu fuel adjustment base as proposed in the original filing, a $.0004 or .04¢ was added to the basic tariff so the revenue produced under the "MESWR" rate would be the same using the fuel adjustment in compliance with Order No. 517 and the fuel adjustment as originally proposed.

V 40165 APR 3 75 XUM

On March 13, 1975 MP&L filed data intended to further clarify and revise its proposed fuel adjustment computations. The revisions submitted were as follows:

(2) Sales (S) shall be all Kwh sold, excluding inter-system sales. Where for any reason, billed system sales cannot be coordinated with fuel costs for the billing period, sales may be equated to the sum of (a) generation, (b) purchases, (c) interchange-in, less (d) energy associated with pumped storage operations, less (e) inter-system sales referred to in (1) (d) above.

Total sales will be computed by dividing the Kwh delivered to the System by $\frac{1}{(1-.025)}$ or 1.025 to reflect wholesale losses of 2.5 percent.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before April 9, 1975. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

[Docket No. CP75-161]

NATURAL GAS PIPELINE CO. OF AMERICA

Petition To Amend

MARCH 26, 1975.

Take notice that on March 4, 1975, Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (Petitioner), 122 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60603, filed in Docket No. CP75-161, a petition to amend the order issued in said docket on February 14, 1975 (53 FPC ——), pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act, as implemented by § 157.7(b) of the Commission's regulations thereunder (18 CFR 157.7(b)), so as to include the construction and operation of budget-type facilities for the purposes stated in the expanded definition of gas purchase facilities in accordance with the Commission's Order No. 522 issued January 16, 1975, at Docket No. RM75-2 (53 FPC ——), all as more fully set forth in the petition to amend on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

By order issued February 14, 1975, the Commission authorized Petitioner to construct during the calendar year 1975 and operate budget-type gas purchase facilities pursuant to § 157.7(b). By order No. 522 the Commission amended § 157.7 (b) to change the definition of gas purchase facilities to include not only the facilities necessary to connect the facilities of an independent producer or other similar seller with the system of Petitioner, but also the facilities necessary to connect the facilities of an independent or other similar seller with the system of another natural gas company authorized to transport gas for the account of or for the exchange of gas with Petitioner. Petitioner seeks to enlarge the definition of the gas purchase facilities that it is authorized to construct pursuant to the aforesaid February 14, 1975, order so as to correspond to the definition promulgated by Order 522.

Petitioner submits that the subject proposal will give Petitioner added flexibility and will serve to encourage the use of transportation and exchange agreements which can result in cost savings to the consumer.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said petition to amend should on or before April 11, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

[Project No. 287]

NORTH COUNTIES HYDRO-ELECTRIC CO.

Issuance of Annual License

MARCH 26, 1975.

On December 30, 1972, North Counties Hydro-Electric Company, Licensee for Dayton Project No. 287, located in La Salle County, Illinois, on the Fox River, filed an application for a new license under section 15 of the Federal Power Act and Commission Regulations thereunder §§ 16.1–16.6).

The license for Project No. 287 was issued effective April 11, 1924, for a period ending April 10, 1974. Since the original date of expiration, the Project has been under annual license. In order to authorize the continued operation and maintenance of the Project pursuant to section 15 of the Act, pending completion of Licensee's application, and Commission action thereon, it is appropriate and in the public interest to issue an annual license to North Counties Hydro-Electric Company for continued operation and maintenance of Project No. 287.

Take notice that an annual license is issued to North Counties Hydro-Electric Company (Licensee) under section 15 of the Federal Power Act for the period April 11, 1975, to April 10, 1976, or until Federal takeover, or the issuance of a new license for the project, whichever comes first, for the continued operation and maintenance of Dayton Project No. 287, subject to the terms and conditions of its present license.

PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

Further Extension of Procedural Dates

MARCH 25, 1975.

On March 17, 1975, the Cities of Alameda, Healdsburg, Lodi Lompoc, Santa Clara and Ukiah, California (Cities), and the Northern California Power Agency jointly filed a motion to extend the procedural dates fixed by order March 14, 1974, as most recently modified by notice issued July 8, 1974, in the above-designated matter. The motion states that the parties have been notified and have no objections.

Notice is hereby given that the procedural dates in the above matter are modified as follows:

Service of Cities and Northern California Power Agency testimony, June 3, 1975.
Service of staff's testimony, July 2, 1975.
Service of evidence rebuttal, August 5, 1975.
Hearing, August 19,1975 (10 a.m., e.s.t.).

[Docket No. E-9316]

PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

Tariff Filing

MARCH 26, 1975.

Take notice that on March 11, 1975, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PGandE) tendered for filing an agreement between PGandE and Sierra Pacific Power Company (Sierra) dated November 11, 1974. The agreement specifies operating relationships which will be made necessary due to Sierra's construction of a 230 KV interconnection with Utah Power and Light Company (Utah), and Sierra's intention of establishing its own control area as defined by the IEE Standard No. 94, Definition of Terms for Automatic Generation and Control of Electric Power Systems.

In addition, PG&E states that the agreement contains provisions under which PGandE will furnish emergency assistance to Sierra in the form of sales of capacity and energy under certain conditions and that such emergency assistance will be made available to Sierra at its request if sufficient capacity and energy is available to PGandE, and service to PGandE's own customers or its commitments to other parties will not be impaired or jeopardized by furnishing of such emergency assistance.

The agreement further specifies that the rate schedule become effective as of the date of its execution; and, therefore, PGandE requests that the prior notice requirement contained in § 35.11 of the Commission's regulations under the Federal Power Act be waived to allow this agreement to become effective as of November 25, 1974.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practices and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before April 18, 1975. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of the filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

Issuance of Annual License

MARCH 26, 1975.

On May 1, 1970, Pacific Gas and Electric Company, Licensee for Potter Valley Project No. 77, located on the Eel and Russian Rivers in the Mendocino National Forest, Lake and Mendocino Counties, California, filed an application for a new license under section 15 of the Federal Power Act and Commission regulations thereunder (§§ 16.1–16.6).

The license for Project No. 77 was issued effective April 15, 1922, for a period ending April 14, 1972. Since the original date of expiration, the Project has been under annual license. In order to authorize the continued operation and maintenance of the Project pursuant to section 15 of the Act, pending completion of Licensee's application and Commission action thereon, it is appropriate and in the public interest to issue an annual license to Pacific Gas and Electric Company, for continued operation and maintenance of Project No. 77.

Take notice that an annual license is issued to Pacific Gas and Electric Company (Licensee) under section 15 of the Federal Power Act for the period April 15, 1975, to April 14, 1976, or until Federal takeover, or the issuance of a new license for the project, whichever comes first, for the continued operation and maintenance of Project No. 77, subject to the terms and conditions of its present license.

[Docket No. E-9328]

PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT CO.

Supplemented Agreement

MARCH 26, 1975.

Take notice that Pacific Power & Light Company (Pacific) on March 17, 1975, tended for filing, in accordance with § 35.13 of the Commission's regulations a supplement to Pacific's Surplus Energy Sales Agreement (designated FPC Rate Schedule No. 97) with the Department of Water Power of the City of Los Angeles (Los Angeles).

Pacific states that:

1. This supplement establishes the arrangement for the provisional delivery of surplus energy schedules by Pacific to Los Angeles and the return thereof upon request by Pacific,

2. these arrangements are made to protect Northwest firm power requirements and to assist in refilling of reservoirs,

3. there is no change in rates by this filing, and

4. no estimate of quantities of energy to be delivered or revenues to be derived therefrom can be made.

Pacific requests waiver of the Commission's notice requirements to permit the supplement to the rate schedule to become effective December 18, 1973, which it claims is the date of commencement of service.

A copy of this filing was supplied to the California Public Utility Commission.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said application should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commissions rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before April 11, 1975. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this application are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

[Docket No. RP67-18]

PANHANDLE EASTERN PIPE LINE CO.

Petition for Order Releasing Refunds Held in Escrow

MARCH 25, 1975.

Take notice that on February 21, 1975, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia), as successor to The Ohio Fuel Gas Company (Ohio Fuel), filed herein a petition requesting the Commission to issue an order releasing refunds held by Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company (Panhandle) pursuant to the Commission's order of July 5, 1967 in the above-referenced docket. The refunds in question total $285,633.64 plus interest pursuant to Panhandle's escrow agreements executed September 1, 1967, and April 19, 1968.

In its petition, Columbia states as follows:

I. On July 5, 1967, the Commission issued an order in Panhandle's Docket No. RP67-18 approving reduced rates and requiring refunds. The Commission order stated that:

(F) Panhandle shall make refunds to its jurisdictional customers in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement relating to refunds, except that it shall retain the amounts attributable to gas purchased by The Ohio Fuel Gas Company pending further order of the Commission.

As a result of the Commission order, on September 1, 1967, Panhandle filed an escrow agreement placing in escrow $270,249.58 (Attachment 1) to reflect its refund obligation to Ohio Fuel applicable to the period October 1, 1965, through June 30, 1967. The total refund obligation to Ohio Fuel is made up of the following:

(1) Refund of difference between reduced settlement rates of Panhandle and amounts paid for the period Jan. 1, 1967, through June 30, 1967	$144,390.70
(2) Refund due to the effect of deducting the balance in account 282 from rate base for the period Oct. 1, 1965, through Dec. 31, 1966	83,383.31
(3) Flow-through of Trunkline refund dollars per Trunkline's agreement as to rates in docket No. RP67-17, for the period Oct. 1, 1965, through Dec. 31, 1966	42,475.57
Total refund obligation placed in escrow	270,249.58

II. Ohio Fuel reflected the reduced rates of Panhandle in its Rate Reduction No. 1 effective January 1, 1967, which was filed with the Commission on February 16, 1968. Sheet 1 of Schedule 4 of Attachment 2, n. 1, details the Panhandle rates in effect before and after the Panhandle Settlement. Panhandle halted collection under its presettlement rates on June 30, 1967. Ohio Fuel's rate reduction and initial refund were made pursuant to the Stipulation and Agreement approved by the Commission's order issued January 25, 1968 in The Ohio Fuel Gas Company, Docket No. RP68-7, for the period November 1, 1966 through January 31, 1968. This fact is shown in Refund Report No. 1 in Docket No. RP66-7, letter of Ohio Fuel Gas Company to the Federal Power Commission dated March 19, 1968 (Attachment 3).

III. As noted previously Panhandle holds $270,249.58 in escrow which Attachment 1 details, showing the portion of the Panhandle refund which applies to the reduction of rates between January 1 and June 30, 1967. This subtotal under Section 1 of Attachment 1 is $144,390.70. It is this portion of the total Panhandle refund that was the subject of the Rate Reduction No. 1 in Ohio Fuel Docket No. RP66–7. Since Ohio Fuel customers have already received the benefit of the refund for the period January 1, 1967 through June 30, 1967, Columbia intends to retain the $144,390.70.

V 40 165 APR 3 75 XUM

The remaining balance of $125,858.88 ($270,249.58 less $144,390.70) will be refunded to customers formerly supplied by Ohio Fuel (presently Columbia Zone 4). Columbia intends to flow-through all refunds in excess of $144,390.70 which are now subject to escrow agreements in this Docket. In addition to the escrow agreement executed by Panhandle on September 1, 1967, a second escrow agreement was also executed by Panhandle on April 19, 1968 (Attachment 4).

The settlement agreement in Docket No. RP67–18 dated April 10, 1967, approved by Commission order on July 5, 1967, provides in Article V that Panhandle shall refund the amounts collected during 1967 in its rates relating to the amount included for the potential increase in federal income taxes, if such an increase were not made effective on or before January 1, 1968. The April 19, 1968, escrow agreement was made to fulfill Panhandle's obligation to refund since no increase in federal income taxes was enacted for 1967. As set forth in Attachment 4, the amount placed in escrow applicable to Ohio Fuel is $15,384.06. This amount will be refunded by Columbia to customers formerly supplied by Ohio Fuel (presently Columbia's Zone 4).

V. Pursuant to Article IV of Ohio Fuel's Rate Settlement Agreement, as approved by the Commission order issued March 5, 1969, Ohio Fuel was not obligated to pass on refunds until they total $400,000. In addition, in the event refunds are retained more than 90 days, the Rate Settlement Agreement provided that said refunds be invested in short-term government securities and the interest earned thereon apportioned among the jurisdictional customers upon distribution. However, in order to timely flow-through the applicable amounts to be received from Panhandle, $141,242.94 plus earnings ($125,858.88—that portion of the amount covered by escrow agreement dated September 1, 1967, subject to refund by Columbia, and $15,384.06—per escrow agreement dated April 19, 1968), Columbia requests that it be allowed to place these amounts plus accrued earnings in Account 191 when received from Panhandle. In this manner, the benefit of these refunds will flow to Columbia's customers formerly supplied by Ohio Fuel (presently Columbia's Zone 4) in Columbia's next semiannual PGA calculation. It is also requested that Columbia be granted a waiver of the obligation to invest said refund amounts in short-term government securities.

Any person desiring to be heard and to make any protest with reference to said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before April 21, 1975. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Columbia's petition is on file with the Commission and available for public inspection.

[Docket No. CP75–263]

SOUTHWEST GAS CORP.

Application

MARCH 26, 1975.

Please take notice that on February 7, 1975, Southwest Gas Corporation (Applicant) P.O. Box 1450, Las Vegas, Nevada, 89101, filed in Docket No. CP75–263 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of certain facilities on its Northern Nevada transmission system near Lake Tahoe, Nevada, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant seeks authority to upgrade and replace certain existing transmission facilities, to construct and operate up to 20 taps, to install facilities for cathodic protection, to install up to five gates for the protection of priority 1 and 2 customers during peak periods on its Northern Nevada mainline transmission system, to install telemeter equipment and to install and maintain flow control equipment.

The application states that the construction and operation of the facilities will allow Applicant to fulfill its contractual obligations to furnish natural gas to its right-of-way grantors, to maintain and reinforce Applicant's existing transmission facilities, to upgrade such facilities when required by applicable law, to increase high-priority utilization of Applicant's existing gas supply and to make natural gas service available to isolated small-usage customers who have no available source of alternate fuel.

Applicant states that the aggregate cost of the proposed facilities will be approximately $300,000, which will be financed from funds on hand. Applicant further states that the instant proposal will not affect the status of any of its facilities and operations that are exempt from the provisions of the Natural Gas Act pursuant to section 1(c) of the Act.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 14, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Secretary.

[Project No. 460]

TACOMA, CITY OF, WASHINGTON

Application for New Major License for Constructed Project

MARCH 26, 1975.

Public notice is hereby given that application for new major license was filed on November 5, 1974, under the Federal Power Act (16 U.S.C. 791a–825r) by City of Tacoma, Washington (correspondence to: A. J. Benedetti, Director of Public Utilities, P.O. Box 11007, Tacoma, Washington 98411), for its constructed Cushman Project No. 460, located in Mason and Pierce Counties, Washington, near the towns and cities of Hoodsport, Shelton, and Gig Harbor, on the North Fork Skokomish River. The project affects lands of the United States within Olympic National Forest, Skokomish Indian Reservation, and Olympic National Park.

The Cushman Project has a total installed capacity of 124,200 kw and consists of two developments:

Cushman No. 1 Development consists of: (1) Cushman No. 1 Dam, a 260-foot high, 400-foot long concrete arch dam (with 45-foot high thrust blocks) which is flanked on both sides by non-overflow gravity sections, and a 180-foot long earthfill dam with a core wall on the left bank; (2) a reservoir extending nine miles upstream and having a total storage of 453,350 acre-feet and a usable storage of 372,000 acre-feet at elevation 735 feet; (3) a power intake structure located upstream from the arch dam to the left of the river channel; (4) a 17-foot diameter pressure tunnel which extends 420 feet from the intake to two 12-foot diameter penstocks, which lead to Cushman No. 1 powerhouse; (5) Cushman No. 1 powerhouse which is approximately 134 feet long and 74 feet wide, containing two identical generating units each rated 21,600 kW; (6) a switchyard containing two 13.2-115 kV step-up transformer banks and four 115 kV circuit breakers; (7) two 115 kV transmission lines extending approximately five miles to the two transmission lines extending from Cushman No. 2; and (8) appurtenant facilities.

Cushman No. 2 Development consists of: (1) Cushman No. 2 Dam, a 230-foot high, 320-foot long concrete arch dam flanked by a low, gravity section on the left abutment and a thrust block on the right abutment; (2) a narrow reservoir with normal elevation at 480 feet extending approximately two miles upstream to the Cushman No. 1 powerhouse; (3) a power intake structure located on the left abutment; (4) a 17-foot diameter pressure tunnel extending 2.5 miles from the intake to three 12-foot diameter steel penstocks which lead to the Cushman No. 2 powerhouse; (5) Cushman No. 2 powerhouse which is approximately 181 feet long and 101 feet wide, containing three generating units each rated 27,000 kW; (6) a switchyard containing two 12.6–115 kV step-up transformer banks and four 115 kV circuit breakers; (7) two 115 kV transmission lines extending approximately 37 miles from Cushman No. 2 to the Pearl Street Substation located within the City of Tacoma; and (8) appurtenant facilities.

Power produced by this project is integrated into Applicant's electric system for use in the City of Tacoma, Washington.

928 acres of project lands have been designated by Applicant for public recreation and are or will be developed, operated and maintained by the State of Washington or private interests under leases or use permits. The Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission has developed the Lake Cushman State Park on 565 acres of project land. The Lake Cushman Resort Company will continue to operate its 10-acre development. Another entity, the Lake Cushman Company, has leases to develop 307 acres in four recreation areas. Current recreational facilities include camp and picnic units, boat ramps, and cabins. Additional camp units and boat camp units, as well as tennis courts and snowmobile facilities, are planned for these areas and two additional recreation areas.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before June 23, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR § 1.8 or § 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules. The application is on file with the Commission and is available for public inspection.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 308 and 309 of the Federal Power Act (16 U.S.C. § 825g, § 825h) and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, specifically § 1.32(b) (18 CFR § 1.32(b)), as amended by Order No. 518, a hearing may be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no issue of substance is raised by any request to be heard, protest or petition filed subsequent to this notice within the time required herein and if the applicant or initial pleader requests that the shortened procedure of § 1.32(b) be used. If an issue of substance is so raised or applicant or initial pleader fails to request the shortened procedure, further notice of hearing will be given.

Under the shortened procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for applicant or initial pleader to appear or be represented at the hearing before the Commission.

Petition for Declaratory Order or Emergency Relief

MARCH 26, 1975.

Public notice is hereby given that on March 19, 1975, the City of Springfield, Tennessee, (Springfield), filed in Docket No. RP74–91–3, pursuant to § 1.7 of this Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a petition requesting that the Commission issue a declaratory order "to effectuate" the Commission's order of August 12, 1974, in the instant proceeding; or in the alternative, Springfield seeks emergency relief to have its curtailment period quantity entitlement (CPQE) for the April–October 1975 curtailment period increased from 156,201 Mcf to 283,867 Mcf.

On June 17, 1974, Springfield, which owns and operates a municipal gas distribution system and is totally dependent on Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company, A Division of Tenneco Inc. (Tennessee) for its gas supply, filed a petition for emergency relief and interim relief pendente lite, in the instant proceeding. In its initial filing Springfield stated that in submitting its "End Use Reports and Estimated Sales", in 1973, it had made an "honest mathematical error" in computing its requirements, and mistakenly stated its requirements for the April–October 1974 curtailment period at 156,201 Mcf whereas its actual takes in prior April–October periods exceeded the 156,201 figure. The correct figure, as set forth by Springfield was 283,867 Mcf. On August 12, 1974, the Commission issued an order[1] increasing Springfield's April–October 1974 CPQE to 283,867 Mcf.

Springfield states that Tennessee has refused, to date, to increase Springfield's April–October 1975 CPQE above the 156,201 Mcf. Springfield states that Tennessee has refused to increase its April–October CPQE "in view of the Commission's Opinion No. 712", which set volumetric limitations at the volumes estimated by Tennessee's customers in preparing market data for the CP73–115 proceeding. To this end Springfield requests the Commission issue a declaratory order increasing its April–October CPQE to 283,867 Mcf.

In this event the Commission declines to grant Springfield's request for declaratory relief, it requests in the alternative that it be granted emergency relief on the same grounds as set forth in its June 17, 1974, filing. Springfield adds, that to limit it to an April–October CPQE of 156,201 Mcf would force Springfield to curtail high priority "human needs" customers prematurely; or require it to purchase penalty gas at $10.00 per Mcf. Either action; it is alleged, would cause Springfield and its consumers irreparable injury.

Additionally, Springfield requests the Commission grant its petition without the need for formal hearings since it "would result in a great saving of time and money to Springfield and all concerned", but that if the Commission decides formal hearings are necessary that it be granted interim relief pendente lite by increasing its April–October CPQE to 283,867 Mcf.

A shortened notice period in this proceeding may be in the public interest. Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before April 10, 1975. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition for leave to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

TRANSWESTERN PIPELINE CO.

Order Granting Late Petition To Intervene

MARCH 26, 1975.

On February 25, 1975, Midwest Gas Users Association (Midwest) filed a petition for leave to intervene out of time in the above-captioned proceeding.

On December 28, 1973, Transwestern Pipeline Company (Transwestern) tendered for filing proposed changes in its FPC Gas Tariff. Transwestern's filing was noticed on January 14, 1974 with all comments, protests and petitions to intervene due on or before January 30, 1974.

In support of its petition Midwest states that it only recently became aware of the fact that zoning and rate design issues arising out of Transwestern's sales of gas may have a potentially adverse impact upon Cities Service Gas Company (Cities Service) who serves Midwest, and thus may require Midwest to pay increased costs for gas.

Midwest states that it is fully prepared to accept the record as it finds it and will be amenable to any future schedule established by the Commission. Midwest further states that its intervention will create no additional delays in the procedure.

The Commission finds: Participation by Midwest in this proceeding may be in the public interest and good cause exists for permitting such intervention.

The Commission orders: (A) The above-mentioned petitioner is hereby permitted to intervene in this proceeding, subject to the rules and regulations of the Commission, Provided, however, That the participation of such intervenor shall be limited to matters affecting the rights and interests specifically set forth in its petition to intervene; and Provided, further, That the admission of such intervenor shall not be construed as recognition that it might be aggrieved because of any order or orders issued by the Commission in this proceeding.

(B) The late intervention granted herein shall not be the basis for delaying or deferring any procedural schedules heretofor established for the orderly and expeditious disposition of this proceeding.

(C) The Secretary shall cause prompt publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

TRUNKLINE GAS CO.

Order Granting Interventions

MARCH 27, 1975.

On May 15, 1974, the Trunkline Gas Company (Trunkline) tendered for filing proposed changes in its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1. Trunkline's filing was noticed by the Commission on May 28, 1974, with protests and petitions to intervene due on or before June 6, 1974.

An untimely petition to intervene was filed by Central Indiana Gas Company, Inc., on March 3, 1975. Having reviewed the above petition to intervene, we believe that the petitioner has sufficient interest in the proceedings to warrant intervention.

The Commission finds: It is desirable and in the public interest to allow the above-named petitioner to intervene.

The Commission orders: (A) The above-named petitioner is hereby permitted to intervene in these proceedings subject to the rules and regulations of the Commission; Provided, however, That participation of such intervenor shall be limited to matters affecting asserted rights and interests as specifically set forth in the petition to intervene; and Provided, further, That the admission of such intervenor shall not be construed as recognition by the Commission that they might be aggrieved because of any order or orders of the Commission entered in this proceeding.

(B) The intervention granted herein shall not be the basis for delaying or deferring any procedural schedules heretofore established for the orderly and expeditious disposition of this proceeding.

(C) The Secretary shall cause prompt publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

VIRGINIA ELECTRIC AND POWER CO.

Cancellation of Supplemental Agreement

MARCH 26, 1975.

Take notice that on March 17, 1975, Virginia Electric and Power Company (Virginia) tendered for filing a cancellation of a supplemental agreement servicing Northern Neck Electric Cooperative (Northern Neck) from Virginia's Lottsburg Delivery Point. Virginia states that the delivery point load was transferred permanently by Northern Neck to Virginia's Garner Delivery Point and, accordingly, Supplement No. 80–7, dated March 20, 1967, for Lottsburg Delivery Point is cancelled effective March 4, 1975.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 9, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, petitions to intervene or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Persons wishing to become parties to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file petitions to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules. The application is on file with the Commission and is available for public inspection.

WEST TEXAS UTILITIES CO.

Filing of Revised Fuel Clause

MARCH 27, 1975.

Take notice that on March 20, 1975, West Texas Utilities Company (West Texas) tendered for filing a revised fuel adjustment clause in response to the Commission Secretary's letter of March 4, 1975. Said letter was written by the Secretary in response to West Texas' revised fuel adjustment clause filing of January 30, 1975.

West Texas states that the March 20, 1975, filing "is made in order to comply with the Commission's regulations contained in Order 517 . . ."

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before April 14, 1975. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

FIRST INTERNATIONAL BANCSHARES, INC.

Order Approving Acquisition of Bank

First International Bancshares, Inc., Dallas, Texas, a bank holding company within the meaning of the Bank Holding Company Act, has applied for the Board's approval under section 3(a)(3) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(a)(3)) to acquire 100 per cent of the voting shares (less directors' qualifying shares) of the successor by merger to San Jacinto State Bank, Pasadena, Texas ("Bank"). The bank into which Bank is to be merged has no significance except as a means to facilitate the acquisition of the voting shares of Bank. Accordingly, the proposed acquisition of shares of the successor organization is treated herein as the proposed acquisition of the shares of Bank.

Notice of the application, affording opportunity for interested persons to submit comments and views, has been given in accordance with section 3(b) of the Act. The time for filing comments and views has expired, and the Board has considered the application and all comments received in light of the factors set forth in section 3(c) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)).

Applicant, the largest banking organization in Texas, controls 23 banks with aggregate deposits of $3.2 billion, representing approximately 8.2 per cent of the total commercial bank deposits in the State.[1] Consummation of this proposal would increase Applicant's share of Statewide deposits by approximately .1 of one per cent and would not have an appreciable effect upon the concentration of banking resources in the State.

Bank is the 28th largest of 144 banking organizations in the Houston banking market,[2] and holds approximately $44.5 million in deposits, or about .5 of one per cent of the total commercial bank deposits in the market. Applicant is the sixth largest banking organization in the Houston market and controls five subsidiary banks with approximately 4.0 per cent of the total market deposits. The three largest banking organizations in the market control, respectively, approximately 20, 18, and 9 per cent of total market deposits. Although Applicant and Bank operate in the same market, consummation of the proposal would not result in the elimination of significant existing competition. Applicant's closest subsidiary is approximately 12 miles west of Bank, and it appears that there is no significant service area overlap between it and Bank, nor is there any such overlap between Applicant's other subsidiaries in the market and Bank. Furthermore, it does not appear likely that significant competition would develop between Bank and any of Applicant's bank subsidiaries in the foreseeable future due to the large number of banks in the market and Texas branching law. Ease of entry into the market would not be significantly diminished as numerous medium-size banks remain as attractive entry vehicles for other bank holding companies. The Board concludes, therefore, that competitive considerations are consistent with approval of the application.

The financial and managerial resources and future prospects of Applicant, its subsidiaries, and Bank are regarded as generally satisfactory and consistent with approval. Applicant's acquisition of Bank would give Bank access to Applicant's wide range of banking expertise, particularly in such areas as investment advisory services, trust services, and factoring, and would improve Bank's access to capital markets as a member of a bank holding company. Considerations relating to the convenience and needs of the community to be served lend weight toward approval. It is the Board's judgment that the proposed acquisition would be in the public interest and that the application should be approved.

On the basis of the record, the application is approved for the reasons summarized above. The transaction shall not be made (a) before the thirtieth calendar day following the effective date of this Order or (b) later than three months after the effective date of this Order, unless such period is extended for good cause by the Board, or by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas pursuant to delegated authority.

FIRST NATIONAL BOSTON CORP.

Proposed Retention of Certain Assets of the New York Data Center Division of Condura Corp.

First National Boston Corporation, Boston, Massachusetts, has applied, pursuant to section 4(c)(8) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(c)(8)) and § 225.4(b)(2) of the Board's Regulation Y, for permission to retain assets of the New York Data Center division of Condura Corporation, Chicago, Illinois, acquired by the 50 per cent owned indirect subsidiary of Applicant, First of Boston Computeristics, Inc., Boston, Massachusetts. Notices of the application were published on January 3 and 7, 1975, in The Boston Globe and The New York Times, respectively, newspapers circulated in Boston, Massachusetts and New York City. Applicant states that the proposed subsidiary engages in the activities of providing bookkeeping or data processing services for the internal operations of First National Boston Corporation and its subsidiaries; storing and processing banking, financial, or related economic data, such as performing payroll, accounts receivable or payable, or billing services for others; and providing all such other data processing services and engaging in all such other activities as are presently permissible as incidental activities under the regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. In addition, activities of First of Boston Computeristics, Inc. have been expanded by licensing savings accounting programs to various banks throughout the United States. Such activities have been specified by the Board in § 225.4(a) of Regulation Y as permissible for bank holding companies, subject to Board approval of individual proposals in accordance with the procedures of § 225.4(b).

Interested persons may express their views on the question whether consummation of the proposal can "reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects, such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices." Any request for a hearing on this question should be accompanied by a statement summarizing the evidence the person requesting the hearing proposes to submit or to elicit at the hearing and a statement of the reasons this matter should not be resolved without a hearing.

The application may be inspected at the offices of the Board of Governors or at the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston.

Any views or requests for hearing should be submitted in writing and received by the Secretary, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 20551, not later than April 28, 1975.

FRONTIER BANCORPORATION OF DENVER, INC.

Order Approving Formation of Bank Holding Company

Frontier Bancorporation of Denver, Inc., Denver, Colorado, has applied for the Board's approval under section 3(a)(1) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(a)(1)) of formation of a bank holding company through acquisition of 92.5 per cent of the voting shares of Frontier Bank of Denver, Denver, Colorado ("Bank").

Notice of the application, affording opportunity for interested persons to submit comments and views, has been given in accordance with section 3(b) of the Act. The time for filing comments and views has expired, and the Board has considered the application and all comments received in light of the factors set forth in section 3(c) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)).

Applicant, a recently organized corporation, was formed for the purpose of becoming a bank holding company through the acquisition of Bank, the 229th largest banking organization in Colorado, with deposits of approximately $5.4 million.[2] Bank is the 66th largest bank in the Denver banking market,[3] controlling less than .1 of one per cent of total deposits in commercial banks in that market. The purpose of the proposed transaction is to convert ownership in Bank from individuals to a corporation owned by essentially the same individuals. Since Applicant has no present operations or subsidiaries, consummation of the proposal would not eliminate existing or potential competition nor have an adverse effect on other area banks. Accordingly, the Board concludes that competitive considerations are consistent with approval of the application.

The financial condition and managerial resources of Applicant and Bank are regarded as generally satisfactory and the prospects of each appear favorable. Therefore, banking factors are consistent with approval of the application. Although there will be no immediate change or increase in the services offered by Bank upon consummation of the proposal, considerations relating to the convenience and needs of the communities to be served are consistent with approval of the application. It is the Board's judgment that consummation of the proposed transaction is consistent with the public interest and that the application should be approved.

On the basis of the record, the application is approved for the reasons summarized above. The transaction shall not be made (a) before the thirtieth calendar day following the effective date of this Order or (b) later than three months after the effective date of this Order unless such period is extended for good cause by the Board or by the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City pursuant to delegated authority.

By order of the Board of Governors,[1] effective March 26, 1975.

OLD KENT FINANCIAL CORP.

Order Denying Acquisition of Bank

Old Kent Financial Corporation, Grand Rapids, Michigan, a bank holding company within the meaning of the Bank Holding Company Act, has applied for the Board's approval under section 3(a)(3) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(a)(3)) to acquire all of the voting shares of the successor by merger to National Lumberman's Bank and Trust Company, Muskegon, Michigan ("Bank"). The bank into which Bank is to be merged has no significance except as a means to facilitate the acquisition of the voting shares of Bank. Accordingly, the proposed acquisition of shares of the successor organization is treated herein as the proposed acquisition of the shares of Bank.

By Order dated January 25, 1974, the Board of Governors denied the subject application (39 FR 5374). Thereafter, on August 9, 1974, the Board granted a Request for Reconsideration filed by Applicant, pursuant to § 262.3(g)(5) of the Board's rules of procedure (12 CFR 262.3(g)(5)), whereby the Board agreed to reconsider the application.

Notice of the Board's action agreeing to reconsider the application to acquire Bank has been given (39 FR 30080). The time for filing comments and views with respect to the application has expired. The Board has reconsidered the application, together with all comments received and the supplemental material submitted by Applicant in connection therewith, in light of the factors set forth in section 3(c) of the Act.

Applicant, the seventh largest banking organization in Michigan, controls four banks with aggregate deposits of approximately $858.3 million, representing about 3 per cent of the total deposits in commercial banks in the State.[1] Acquisition of Bank ($111.1 million in deposits) would increase Applicant's share of deposits in the State by less than one per cent and would not significantly increase the concentration of banking resources on a State-wide basis.

Bank, the second largest of three banks headquartered in the city of Muskegon, has about 24 per cent of the total commercial bank deposits in the Muskegon-Grand Haven banking market, and is the second largest of five banks in that market.[2] The first and third largest banks in the market (which are also headquartered in Muskegon) control, respectively, about 32 and 19 per cent of total deposits in commercial banks in the market. The fourth and fifth largest banks in the market are headquartered in Grand Haven and each control approximately 12 per cent of total deposits in commercial banks in the market.[2]

Applicant's lead bank, Old Kent Bank and Trust Company ("Old Kent"), is located in Grand Rapids, which is approximately 35 miles east of Muskegon. Old Kent (deposits of about $768 million) is the largest banking organization in the Grand Rapids banking market with 49 per cent of the commercial bank deposits in that market. Although Bank and Old Kent are located in separate banking markets, the Board, in its earlier Order with respect to this application, noted that Old Kent derived some loans, deposits and trust accounts from Bank's service area and that Bank derived deposits from Old Kent's service area. The Board concluded that consummation of the proposal would eliminate existing competition between Old Kent and Bank and the probability of increased competition developing between them in the future.

In connection with the reconsideration of this application, Applicant submitted in response to a Board request additional data that indicated the amount of business that both banking organizations obtained from each other's respective market areas, the geographic definition of which had been previously published by the Board.[4] On the basis of this new data, the Board believes that the amount of business that Old Kent obtains from Bank's market area is meaningful, especially for such banking services as commercial accounts, dairy, and farm accounts, large certificates of deposit and trust business. It further appears from the record that Old Kent is an active competitor in Bank's relevant market area for certain banking services. The influence of Old Kent in the relevant market is partially explained by Old Kent's significant position in the neighboring market and the television advertising pattern for the region. There are no television stations located along the lake shore and television coverage for the region is transmitted only from Grand Rapids. Old Kent advertises from the Grand Rapids stations throughout the Muskegon-Grand Haven area while banks located in the Muskegon-Grand Haven area do not appear to advertise extensively through those stations. The record shows that Old Kent has met with some success in obtaining certain business from the relevant market and, in the Board's view, Old Kent is in a position to exert an even greater competitive influence in Bank's market in the future. Accordingly, the Board concludes that consummation of the proposal would eliminate existing competition as well as the probability of increased competition developing between Bank and Old Kent in the future.

In its previous action on this application, the Board also concluded that consummation of the proposed acquisition would eliminate the likelihood that Applicant would enter the market de novo and thus would have an adverse effect on potential competition. In the reconsideration request, Applicant argued that the Board was in error in not taking into consideration an application filed with the Regional Administrator of National

APR 3 75

Banks for the formation of a de novo national bank to be located in Norton Shores. However, that de novo application has now been withdrawn and the Board continues to be of the view that Norton Shores is a section of the relevant market which is capable of supporting new entry. In addition, the Board believes Applicant is one of the most likely entrants into the Muskegon-Grand Haven banking market in view of its relative size, its proximity to the market, and its penchant for expanding in western Michigan. Furthermore, Applicant has the resources and expertise to enter the relevant market de novo. In view of the foregoing, the Board reaffirms its conclusion that consummation of the proposed acquisition would have an adverse effect on potential competition in the Muskegon-Grand Haven banking market.

The Board previously concluded that competitive considerations relating to this application weighed sufficiently against approval that it should not be approved unless the anticompetitive effects were outweighed by considerations relating to the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of Applicant and Bank or the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. In addition to the foregoing, the Board expressed concern, and continues to be of the view, that approval of the proposed acquisition would perpetuate a trend whereby Applicant would become dominant in a four-county region in western Michigan (approximated by Kent, Ottawa, and Muskegon Counties, plus the lower one-third of Newaygo County). The Grand Rapids, Holland, Fremont and Muskegon-Grand Haven banking markets are all located within this four-county region. Applicant is the leading organization in the Grand Rapids market and has made significant acquisitions in the adjacent Holland and Fremont markets. As noted above, Applicant is already capable of exerting a competitive influence on the Muskegon-Grand Haven market by virtue of its significant presence in Grand Rapids. Applicant's proposal to acquire the second largest bank in the Muskegon-Grand Haven banking market would increase Applicant's share of the total deposits in the four-county region from 37 per cent to about 42 per cent, more than twice the share (18 per cent) of the second largest banking organization in the region.[1] In the Board's opinion, the subject proposal would inhibit competition by enhancing Applicant's significant position in the region, thereby increasing the size disparity among the banking organizations in this section of the State and increasing the concentration of banking resources in the region. Also, approval of this proposal would remove Bank as an entry vehicle for a bank holding company not already represented in the region—an alternative that, if accomplished, would serve to promote competition in the region. Further, in view of the fact that Applicant's resources are finite, consummation of the proposed acquisition would detract from Applicant's ability to enter and compete in other markets in the State outside of the western region of Michigan.

Accordingly, based on the foregoing and the facts of record, the Board continues to be of the view that the anticompetitive effects flowing from Applicant's proposal are such that approval of the subject application would not be in the public interest and that the application should be denied unless the anticompetitive effects of the proposal are outweighed by positive considerations in the record.

The financial and managerial resources and future prospects of Applicant and its subsidiary banks are regarded as satisfactory and consistent with approval of the application. Bank has sound financial resources and has recently retained sufficient earnings to strengthen its capital position. In view of the foregoing, Bank appears to be a viable independent competitor and the importance of Applicant's proposed assistance by injecting equity capital into Bank is mitigated. While Applicant has the resources to assist Bank with management succession, it appears that any problems encountered by Bank in this area could be remedied by other less anticompetitive means than the proposed acquisition by Applicant. Accordingly, the Board does not regard considerations relating to the banking factors as providing significant weight toward approval of the application.

With respect to convenience and needs considerations, Applicant has indicated that it would effect changes in Bank's services in such areas as trust services, farm lending, international services, and services for larger commercial customers. However, no evidence has been presented that the banking needs of the public in the relevant market are not presently being met. Thus, in the Board's view, such considerations are consistent with, but do not lend substantial weight toward, approval of the application.

On the basis of the foregoing, the Board continues to find that anticompetitive effects flowing from Applicant's proposal are not outweighed by considerations relating to banking factors or relating to the convenience and needs of the community to be served.

Accordingly, on the basis of the record in this case and for the reasons set forth hereinbefore, the Board's Order of January 25, 1974, is hereby affirmed, and the subject application is denied.

By order of the Board of Governors,[2] effective March 26, 1975.

Secretary of the Board.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[AA1921-Inq.-1]

BUTADIENE ACRYLONITRILE RUBBER FROM JAPAN

Inquiry and Hearing

Having received advice from the Treasury Department on March 24, 1975, that, during the course of determining whether to institute an investigation with respect to butadiene acrylonitrile rubber from Japan in accordance with section 201(c) of the Antidumping Act, 1921 (19 U.S.C. 160(c)), it concludes from the information available to it that there is substantial doubt whether an industry in the United States is being or is likely to be injured, or is prevented from being established, by reason of importation of this merchandise into the United States, the United States International Trade Commission on March 28, 1975, instituted inquiry AA1921-Inq.-1, under section 201(c)(2) of the Act, to determine whether there is no reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is being or is likely to be injured, or is prevented from being established, by reason of the importation of such merchandise into the United States.

Relevant portions of the Treasury Department advice are as follows:

Information available to Treasury indicates that through 1973 and 1974 domestic production capacity has been at 95 percent utilization with imports from Japan during 1974 amounting to less than 1 percent of domestic consumption. U.S. production decreased in late 1974 and early 1975, but this would appear to be much more attributable to the decline in domestic automobile production than to imports from Japan.

Preliminarily, margins of sales at less than fair value appear to range from 20 to 35 percent on imports from Japan during 1974 of roughly $677,000. Total imports for 1974 were valued at approximately $7 million, with domestic production of $140 million during the same period.

Hearing. A public hearing in connection with the inquiry will be held in the Commission's Hearing Room, International Trade Commission Building, 8th and E Streets NW., Washington, D.C. 20436, beginning at 10 a.m., e.d.t., on Friday, April 11, 1975. All parties will be given an opportunity to be present, to produce evidence, and to be heard at such hearing. Requests to appear at the public hearing should be received by the Secretary of the Commission in writing, at its office in Washington, D.C., not later than noon Wednesday, April 9, 1975.

Written statements. Interested parties may submit statements in writing in lieu of, and in addition to, appearance at the public hearing. A signed original and nineteen true copies of such statements should be submitted. To be assured of their being given due consideration by the Commission, such statements should be received no later than April 11, 1975.

PORTABLE ELECTRIC TYPEWRITERS FROM JAPAN

Investigation and Hearing

Having received advice from the Treasury Department on March 19, 1975, that portable electric typewriters from Japan are being, or are likely to be, sold at less than fair value, the United States International Trade Commission on March 27, 1975, instituted investigation No. AA1921-145 under section 201(a) of the Antidumping Act, 1921, as amended (19 U.S.C. 160(a)), to determine whether an industry in the United States is being or is likely to be injured, or is prevented from being established, by reason of the importation of such merchandise into the United States.

Hearing. A public hearing in connection with the investigation will be held in the Commission's Hearing Room, International Trade Commission Building, 8th and E Streets NW., Washington, D.C. 20436, beginning at 10 a.m., e.d.t., on Tuesday, May 13, 1975. All parties will be given an opportunity to be present, to produce evidence, and to be heard at such hearing. Requests to appear at the public hearing should be received by the Secretary of the Commission, in writing, at its office in Washington, D.C., not later than noon Friday, May 9, 1975.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

OFFICE OF STANDARDS DEVELOPMENT

Public Meeting

Notice is hereby given that the Office of Standards Development of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission will conduct a public meeting to discuss a working draft revision of its Regulatory Guide 8.8, "Information Relevant to Maintaining Occupational Radiation Exposures As Low As Practicable (Nuclear Reactors)". Regulatory Guide 8.8 was initially issued in July 1973.

Regulatory Guide 8.8 outlines the information needed by the NRC staff in license applications and safety analysis reports for nuclear reactors concerning the maintenance of occupational radiation doses as low as practicable. The working draft revision of the guide contains considerably more detailed information than the initial version and includes sections on management organization and policies, personnel qualifications and training, design, health physics programs, and health physics equipment, instrumentation, and facilities.

A copy of the "Working Draft, Revised Regulatory Guide 8.8" is available to members of the public at the Commission's Public Document Room at 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D.C. Single copies may be obtained upon request addressed to the Acting Director, Office of Standards Development, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555.

The public meeting to discuss the working draft revision of Regulatory Guide 8.8 will be held on April 25, 1975, in Rooms P-114/118 of the Commission's offices at 7920 Norfolk Avenue, Bethesda, Maryland. The meeting will start at 9:00 a.m. and end at 5:00 p.m.

The meeting is intended to provide opportunities for the NRC staff (1) to explain to NRC licensees and other interested persons its views on the information needed to permit the staff to evaluate applications for nuclear reactor licenses from the standpoint of maintaining occupational radiation exposures as low as practicable, as reflected in the working draft revision of the guide, and (2) to benefit from industry experience in the further development of the guide.

Interested persons are invited to attend the public meeting and ask questions or present oral or written statements on the working draft revision of the guide. Any person who intends to make an oral statement at this meeting should notify the Acting Director, Office of Standards Development, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555, by April 22, 1975. It is expected that such statements will be limited to 10 minutes.

Persons desiring additional information regarding the meeting should contact Mr. Robert E. Alexander of the Commission's Office of Standards Development, telephone (301) 443-6977.

Dated at Bethesda, Md. this 28th day of March 1975.

For the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

ROBERT B. MINOGUE,
Acting Director, Office of Standards Development.

CHICAGO BOARD OPTIONS EXCHANGE, INC.

Proposed Amendments to Option Plan

Notice is hereby given that the Chicago Board Options Exchange, Inc. ("CBOE") has filed amendments to its Option Plan pursuant to Rule 9b–1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (17 CFR 240.9b–1). The CBOE proposes to amend Rule 13.3(b)(iii)(d), which concerns and would, according to CBOE, amend the net capital treatment applicable to proprietary account positions in short listed options that are "spread" either by a long listed option of the same class or by another security which is convertible into or exchangeable for the underlying security. The proposed amendments are being made for the reasons set forth in sections 3 and 4 of the CBOE's letter of February 6, 1975 commenting on the proposed amendments to Rule 15c3–1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (17 CFR 240.15c3–1) set forth in Release No. 11094 and are in conformity with the suggestions made by CBOE in that letter. A copy of this letter is available in the Commission's Public Reference Room under file number S7–533.

Under CBOE's present net capital rule, the long and short option contracts included in spread positions in proprietary accounts are treated, on a contract for contract basis, as follows; the market value of the long options is included in capital subject to a 30% deduction. The premium realized from the writing of the option on the short side of the spread is also included in capital, and the short option is subject to a deduction for the amount, if any, by which the exercise price of the long option exceeds the exercise price of the short option. CBOE is of the opinion that while this treatment protects against the larger risks on the short, CBOE is of the opinion that its defect is, in many instances, establishment of a spread service to increase a member firm's net capital when, in fact, the spread entails at least a limited degree of risk. The CBOE offers the following example to express their views regarding their proposed amendments. A member firm could purchase a July IBM 160 at 38 and sell an April IBM 160 at 32 (with the stock at 190) and thereby increase its capital by $2,060 (that is, by the $3,200 premium it receives from the sale of the April option less 30% of the market value of the July option). Moreover, the member's capital would, according to CBOE, be increased further if the price of IBM common stock should thereafter rise. For example, assume that the price of IBM common stock rose 30 points, that the July IBM 160's then sold at 62 and that the April's sold at 61. In this example, the capital of the member would increase by an additional $1,680 (that is, by the additional $2,400 in market value of the July option reduced by the 30% haircut, while there would be no deduction resulting from the increased value of the April option).

CBOE's amendment is intended to provide that the long option in a spread should be valued at not more than the amount by which the market value of the long option exceeds the market value of the short option (and in no event more than the exercise price of the short option). Under this approach, CBOE's preceding example suggests the member who purchased the July option at 38 and sold the April option at 32 would be required to deduct $180 from his net capital as a result of the transaction (since the July option would be valued at $600 and would be haircut by 30 percent) to reflect the limited risk inherent in the transaction—namely, the loss of the $600 paid for the July option in excess of the proceeds received in the writing of the April option.

With respect to spreads where the long option expires prior to the short, the proposed amendment, according to CBOE, is intended to prevent increments to capital in instances where the market value of the short exceeds the market value of the long. To accomplish this, the proposed amendment provides for a deduction on the short option of not less than 130 percent of the amount by which the market value of the short exceeds the market value of the long. Thus, if a member purchased the April option at 32 and sold the July option at 38, the capital deduction, according to CBOE, would be $780 (130 percent of $600) so long as both options remained outstanding and exercisable, and there would be a net decrease of $180 in net capital. When the April option expired, the July option, according to CBOE, would be treated as an uncovered short. However, so long as both positions remain outstanding, the risk that the spread in market values of the two options would widen, it is hoped by the CBOE, would be provided for the 130 percent deduction.

The proposed amendments will become effective upon the 30th day after this notice appears in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or upon such earlier date as the Commission may allow unless the Commission shall disapprove the change in whole or in part as being inconsistent with the public interest or the protection of investors.

All interested persons are invited to submit their views and comments on the amendments to CBOE's plan either before or after it has become effective. Written statements of views and comments should be addressed to the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549. Reference should be made to file number 10–54. The amendment is, and all such comments will be, available for public inspection at the Public Reference Room of the Securities and Exchange Commission at 1100 L Street NW., Washington, D.C.

Dated: March 27, 1975.

CHICAGO BOARD OPTIONS EXCHANGE, INC.

Proposed Amendments to Option Plan

Notice is hereby given that the Chicago Board Options Exchange, Inc. ("CBOE") has filed amendments to its Option Plan pursuant to Rule 9b–1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (17 CFR 240.9b–1). The changes include two amendments to CBOE Rule 6.47, which deals with the priority on split price transactions, and an amendment to Interpretation .01 of Rule 6.42, which concerns the fractions in which bids and offers may be made with respect to certain low priced options.

The first proposed amendment to Rule 6.47 would, according to CBOE, exclude bids and offers in the Board Broker's book from being subject to the priority now afforded to split price orders. This proposed amendment by CBOE would have the effect of making absolute the priority afforded public customers' orders in the Board Broker's book under Rule 6.45. While CBOE believes that the concept of split price priority remains sound, it also believes that this priority should be subordinate to, rather than prevailing over, the priority accorded to public orders in the Board Broker's book. In other words, the proposed amendment intends to readdress the conflict between two types of priority and would make clear that public orders in the Board Broker's book have priority in a split price situation.

The second proposed amendment to Rule 6.47 is, according to CBOE, to provide that a member who purchases or sells a given number of options at a certain price may be accorded priority for the purchase or sale of a greater number of contracts than he purchased or sold in the previous transaction, as opposed to the present language which affords such priority only on a unit-for-unit basis. This proposed amendment, CBOE believes, is designed to provide an incentive to make a better market than other members in a trading crowd by enabling the member on the other side of the transaction to purchase from or sell to the member with priority a greater number of contracts than was involved in the first transaction.

The third proposed amendment to Interpretation .01 to Rule 6.42, will, according to CBOE, raise the option price below which trading in 1/16ths is permitted to $3.00 from the present $2.00. CBOE believes that its experience generally and with the split price priority rule in particular has shown that, in respect of options trading between $2.00 and $3.00, just as those trading below $2.00, 1/16ths is a more realistic interval. The proposed amendment is intended to provide investors with a greater flexibility in trading lower priced options and would permit Market-Makers to make better, tighter markets in lower priced options.

The proposed amendment will become effective upon the 30th day after this notice appears in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or upon such earlier date as the Commission may allow unless the Commission shall disapprove the change in whole or in part as being inconsistent with the public interest or the protection of investors.

All interested persons are invited to submit their views and comments on the amendments to CBOE's plan either before or after they have become effective. Written statements of views and comments should be addressed to the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549. Reference should be made to file number 10–54. The amendments are, and all such comments will be, available for public inspection at the Public Reference Room of the Securities and Exchange Commission at 1100 L Street, NW, Washington, D.C.

QUOTATION INFORMATION

Written Request Sent to Registered National Securities Exchanges

The Securities and Exchange Commission today announced that it had sent the following letter to all registered national securities exchanges:

V 40 0165 APR 3 75 XUM

DEAR (PRESIDENT OF EACH NATIONAL SECURITIES EXCHANGE): As you are aware, the Commission, on February 2, 1972, in its statement on the Future Structure of the Securities Markets, announced certain regulatory initiatives it intended to effect to assist in the evolution towards a central market system for listed securities.[1] This statement was based on a number of years of hearings and special studies[2] and on the data and testimony submitted therein, as well as on the Commission's experience gained through the years of administering the Federal securities laws.

As "an essential step toward formation of a central market system," the Commission in its Policy Statement on the Structure of a Central Market System called for the "[i]mplementation of a nationwide disclosure or market information system to make universally available price and volume in all markets and quotations from all market makers."[3] The first steps in the development of such a system have already been taken. The Commission has adopted Rule 17a–15 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Act"), governing the reporting of market information on transactions in listed securities,[4] and has declared effective pursuant to that Rule a joint plan governing the reporting of last sale information on a consolidated basis.[5] Pursuant to that plan, a pilot phase of a consolidated last sale reporting system began on October 18, 1974 and work is proceeding toward full implementation of that system.

As you are also aware, the Commission republished for public comment proposed Rule 17a–14 under the Act which provides for the reporting of all bids and offers in listed securities by requiring national securities exchanges, national securities associations, and broker-dealers that are not members of any such organizations to make quotations in such securities available on a real-time, current and continuing basis in accordance with the terms and provisions of a plan filed with and declared effective by the Commission.[6] The Commission is deferring any further consideration of proposed Rule 17a–14, however, until it has had an opportunity to observe the effects of the action discussed below.

The Commission has determined that quotation information, such as that currently provided by some exchanges to their members, is essential to broker-dealers, whether members or not, in discharging their duty of reasonable diligence in the execution of customers' orders. A broker-dealer that is prohibited from access to that information is severely disadvantaged thereby. In addition, quotation information is of significant value to the market place as a whole insofar as a quotation reflects the considered judgment of a market professional as to various factors affecting the market, including the current price levels and size of buying and selling interest. Thus, restrictions on dissemination of that information detract from the efficiency of the market place in reflecting all available fundamental and market information respecting an issuer's securities. Finally, quotation information is of considerable value to investors, both individual and institutional, in determining the best market for execution and in understanding the market forces at work at any given time.

For these reasons, among others, the Commission believes that it is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors, to ensure fair dealing in securities traded upon national securities exchanges, and to ensure the fair administration of such exchanges, that the rules and practices of such exchanges that restrict, are interpreted to restrict or have the effect of restricting, access to or use of such quotation information as is currently or may be in the future disseminated by such exchanges to any quotation vendor (i.e., any person, other than a market maker or specialist, who is engaged in the business of disseminating, on a real-time or current and continuing basis, quotations for listed securities, whether distributed through an electric communications network or displayed on a terminal or other device or otherwise) should be eliminated.

Accordingly, the Commission hereby formally requests, pursuant to the authority vested in it under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and particularly sections 2, 6, 10, 11, 17, 19 and 23 thereof,[7] to eliminate those which restrict, are interpreted to restrict or have the effect of restricting, access to or use of such quotation information as is currently, or may be in the future, disseminated by your exchange to any quotation vendor, with such changes to be effective on or before May 1, 1975.[8]

Because we believe that the interests of public investors require the prompt implementation of the above-described rule and/or practice changes, we request that your Board of Directors approve the requested changes not later than April 11, 1975, with such changes to become effective, after appropriate exchange procedures, not later than May 1, 1975. If the boards of directors of all the national securities exchanges registered with the Commission do not take such action on or before April 11, 1975, the Commission will commence appropriate proceedings promptly to determine whether it should exercise its authority to alter or supplement the rules and practices of exchanges in the manner described above. In that event, the Commission will afford you and other interested persons an opportunity to submit views, data and arguments in order to facilitate the Commission's consideration of whether to exercise its authority in this matter and whether to exercise it in the manner described above. The procedures for that purpose would be specified prior to the commencement of such proceeding.

For the Commission.

Sincerely,

RAY GARRETT, JR.,
Chairman.

WESTGATE CALIFORNIA CORP.

Suspension of Trading

MARCH 27, 1975.

It appearing to the Securities and Exchange Commission that the summary suspension of trading in the common stock (class A and B), the cumulative preferred stock (5 percent and 6 percent), the 6 percent subordinated debentures due 1979 and the 6½ percent convertible subordinated debentures due 1987 being traded otherwise than on a national securities exchange is required in the public interest and for the protection of investors;

Therefore, pursuant to section 15(c)(5) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, trading in such securities otherwise than on a national securities exchange is suspended, for the period from March 28, 1975 through April 6, 1975.

By the Commission.

[License No. 06/06–5176]

Issuance of License To Operate as a Small Business Investment Company

On February 14, 1975, a notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 6838) stating that Edict Investment Corporation, located at 3453 Magazine Street, New Orleans, Louisiana 70115, had filed an application with the Small Business Administration pursuant to 13 CFR 107.102 (1975) for a license to operate as a small business investment company under the provisions of section 301(d) of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, as amended.

Interested parties were given to the close of business on March 1, 1975, to submit their written comments to SBA.

Notice is hereby given that, having considered the application and all other pertinent information, SBA has issued License No. 06/06–5176 to Edict Investment Corporation pursuant to section 301(d) of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, as amended.

Dated: March 26, 1975.

[License No. 09/12–5149]

PALO ALTO CAPITAL CO.

License Surrender

Notice is hereby given that Palo Alto Capital Company (Palo Alto), 611 Hansen Way, Palo Alto, California 94303, has surrendered its license to operate as a small business investment company pursuant to 13 CFR 107.105 (1975).

Palo Alto, a California corporation, was licensed by SBA on October 16, 1969, to operate solely as a small business investment company under the provisions of section 301(d) of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, as amended, (15 U.S.C. 661 et seq.), and the SBA regulations issued thereunder.

The license surrender is pursuant to a certain Plan of Reorganization and Exchange Agreement (the Plan) entered into as of the 27th day of September 1974, by and between Palo Alto and its sole stockholder and Opportunity Capital Corporation of California (Opportunity), licensed by SBA to operate as a small business investment company on September 23, 1971, and located at 235 Montgomery Street, Suite 1226, San Francisco, California 94104. Under the Plan, all of the outstanding shares of stock of Palo Alto are to be acquired by Opportunity in exchange for stock of Opportunity, following which Palo Alto is to be merged with Opportunity.

The transactions contemplated by the Plan having been consummated and Palo Alto having been merged with and into Opportunity, the surrender by Palo Alto of its license is hereby accepted under the authority vested by the Act and pursuant to the cited regulation.

Dated: March 25, 1975.

[Declaration of Disaster Loan Area 1120]

RHODE ISLAND

Declaration of Disaster Loan Area

Whereas, it has been reported that during the month of January, because of the effects of a certain disaster, damage resulted to property located in the State of Rhode Island;

Whereas, the Small Business Administration has investigated and received reports of other investigations of conditions in the area affected;

Whereas, after reading and evaluating reports of such conditions, I find that the conditions in such area constitute a catastrophe within the purview of the Small Business Act, as amended.

Now, therefore, as Administrator of the Small Business Administration, I hereby determine that:

1. Applications for disaster loans under the provisions of section 7(b)(1) of the Small Business Act, as amended, may be received and considered by the office below indicated from persons or firms whose property situated in the City of Providence, Providence County, suffered damage or destruction resulting from a fire which occurred January 3, 1975.

Office: Small Business Administration, District Office, 57 Eddy Street, Providence, Rhode Island 02903.

2. Applications for disaster loans under the authority of this declaration will not be accepted subsequent to May 23, 1975. EIDL applications will not be accepted subsequent to December 24, 1975.

Dated: March 24, 1975.

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION

AUTOMOBILES AND ADAPTIVE EQUIPMENT FOR CERTAIN DISABLED VETERANS AND MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES

Standard Design and Test Criteria for Safety and Quality

Notice is hereby given of the proposed publication of the VA Standard Design and Test Criteria for Safety and Quality of Special Automotive Driving Aids (Adaptive Equipment) for Standard Passenger Automobiles for implementation of 38 U.S.C. 1903(d) which states that the adaptive equipment shall not be provided under chapter 39, title 38, United States Code unless it conforms to minimum standards of safety and quality prescribed by the Administrator.

The VA Standard Design and Test Criteria provides detailed information as to the scope, classification and limitations; applicable document references (Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standards); VA Standards; installation on passenger automobiles; sampling and inspection by the manufacturer and VA test procedures.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments regarding the VA Standard Design and Test Criteria to the following office. Testing equipment and techniques may also be viewed at the same site.

VA STANDARD DESIGN AND TEST CRITERIA FOR SAFETY AND QUALITY OF SPECIAL AUTOMOTIVE DRIVING AIDS (ADAPTIVE EQUIPMENT) FOR STANDARD PASSENGER AUTOMOBILES

Special automotive driving aids required	Right leg	Left leg	Both legs	Right arm	Left arm
A. Brake and accelerator			X
B. Dimmer switch	X	X	X
C. Left foot accelerator	X
D. Parking brake		X	X	X	X
E. Steering assists [1]				X	X
F. Turn lever, right hand operated					X
G. Shift lever, left hand operated				X

[1] Steering assists are add-on devices for use with standard automotive steering wheels, e.g., Spinner Knob, Quad Grip, Flat Quad Spinners, Open-Top Quad Spinner, Latch-Type Quad Spinner, Ring-Type Spinner, Yoke-Type Spinner, etc. These items might be useful to disabled drivers with nearly average upper extremity strength and mobility, but who require some assistance in steering a motor vehicle.

1.0 Scope, Classification, and Limitations—1.1 Scope. These standards relate to special automotive driving aids (adaptive equipment), other than those provided by the automobile manufacturer, for operating passenger automobiles used by handicapped drivers. Maximum safety and suitability to drivers and the general public is of primary concern.

1.2 Classification. Special automotive driving aids (adaptive equipment) includes a variety of devices to enable handicapped persons to drive automobiles. Devices covered in this standard are those specifically needed for safely operating an automobile as follows: SPECIAL AUTOMOTIVE DRIVING AIDS REQUIRED FOR LOSS OR PARALYSIS OF LIMB.

1.3 Limitations. These standards are limited to those hand control systems and devices and the foot control shown in 1.2 above. Passenger vehicles equipped with hand controls should also be equipped with an automatic transmission, with or without power steering, and with or without power brakes.

2.0 Applicable Documents—2.1 Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standards. Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standards were not originally promulgated to apply to the variety of special equipment used by handicapped drivers. Because the following FMVSS's establish desirable measures for adaptive automotive equipment they are interpreted in the document to cover all drivers.

2.1.1 FMVSS No. 101 requires that all essential controls be within reach of the driver when restrained by a lap belt and upper torso constraint, and that these controls be appropriately identified.

2.1.2 FMVSS No. 105 specifies requirements for hydraulic service brake, emergency brake, and parking brake systems intended to provide adequate braking performance under normal and emergency conditions.

2.1.3 FMVSS No. 107 specifies that automobile surfaces which are in a position to reflect sunlight into the driver's eyes shall have a dull finish.

2.1.4 FMVSS No. 124 establishes requirements for the return of a vehicle's throttle to the idle position when the driver removes his foot from the accelerator control, or in the event of a breakage or disconnection, in the accelerator control system.

2.1.5 FMVSS No. 201 requires protection from internal impact, generally through the elimination of sharp surfaces and the use of padding. Adaptive control equipment installed to an automobile shall not diminish the effectiveness of existing internal protection, and shall be padded or otherwise designed to minimize injury to the driver or passenger upon impact.

2.1.6 FMVSS No. 203 requires that steering systems yield forward in the event of frontal impact to minimize injuries to the driver.

2.1.7 FMVSS No. 302 specifies the use of burn resistant materials in passenger compartments.

2.2 Society of Automotive Engineers Standards and Recommended Practices. SAE Standard J575(e) Test for Motor Vehicle Lighting Devices and Components (Corrosion Test, ASTM B117). SAE Recommended Practice J556 Automobile Wiring.

3.0. Tentative Veterans Administration Standards—3.1 Qualifications. Special automotive driving aids provided by the VA for veteran users shall be qualified by tests conducted periodically at VAPC. The tests set forth in the following sections shall be applied.

3.2 Major Components. Among major components to be tested are:

(a) Linkages.

(b) Terminal Brake and Accelerator Connectors.

(c) Control Lever.

(d) Attachment Hardware.

(e) Accessories, including Dimmer Switch, Horn Button, or any other adaption designed to operate automotive auxiliary equipment.

3.3 Strength of Materials—3.3.1 Standard. All components shall be constructed to prevent permanent deformation under the stress of normal usage which varies greatly depending on whether power brakes are used.

3.3.2 Specification. Fully assembled and installed hand control systems shall not be permanently deformed under a static load of 150 lbs. (667.2 newtons) applied to the handle of the Control Lever (FMVSS 105).

3.3.3 Tests—3.3.3.1 Test 1. A static load of 150 lbs. (667.2 newtons) is applied to the handle of the control lever to stimulate brake actuation of the adaptive system. The load shall remain on the control lever for a period of 30 to 35 seconds. Changes in alignment or deformation shall be determined by inspection and measurement.

3.3.3.2 Test 2. Fatigue life is simulated in the laboratory by applying 80% of the 150 lb. proof load, i.e., a 120 lb. (533.8 newton) force 250,000 times to actuate brake and accelerator controls of an assembled hand control system. One (1) complete cycle of brake and accelerator actuation shall be accomplished in 1.0–2.0 seconds to simulate average time responses required in driving an automobile. Periodic inspection of the test in intervals of 50,000 cycles are made, and changes in alignment, wear, or loosening of fasteners are recorded.

3.3.3.3 Test 3. In cases where Test 2 is not feasible (e.g. individual components or linkage sub-assemblies), acceptable strength is verified by generating a 4.6 g load (2.54 mm displacement at 30 Hz, i.e., ± 1.27 mm from zero reference) through the test sample on a laboratory shaker. The vibratory motion is maintained for 2 hours in each the axial and transverse direction of assembly. Components that could be adversely affected by the heat produced at 30 Hz (e.g. rubber parts) shall not be included in this cyclic test.

3.4 Resistance to Corrosion—3.4.1 Standard. All components of adaptive automotive driving aids shall be resistant to corrosion. In addition, the provisions of FMVSS No. 107 in regard to "specular gloss" shall apply. All components shall be plated or otherwise treated with glare-free industrial finishes. Each system or device submitted for evaluation shall be accompanied by a statement describing the finish material and process.

3.4.2 Test 4. A fully assembled sample unit shall be subjected to a salt spray (fog) test in accordance with the latest ASTM B 117, Method of Salt Spray (Fog) Testing, for a period of 50 hours, consisting of two periods of 24 hour exposure and 1 hour drying time each. (Reference SAE Standard J575 (e) "Test for Motor Vehicle Lighting Devices and Components"). Immediately after the preceding test has been completed, there shall be no evidence of sufficient corrosion to affect the proper functioning of the device or to soil hands or clothing.

3.5 Fasteners—3.5.1 Standard. All fasteners required for the assembly and complete installation of an adaptive control system in a particular model passenger automobile shall be provided by the manufacturer. Fasteners shall be designed or treated for resistance to vibration.

3.5.2 Specification. All fasteners of an assembled hand control system shall remain tightened securely within a 15% preload torque drop under vibratory motion producing a 4.6 g load (2.54 mm displacement at 30 Hz, i.e., ±1.27 mm from zero reference) in the axial and transverse direction of assembly.

3.5.3 Test 5. Resistance to vibration shall be tested in the laboratory by vibrating of the fully assembled control system, including all installation hardware. A vibratory force causing 2.54 mm displacement (±1.27 mm from zero reference) at 30 Hz shall be applied in the axial and transverse direction of the assembly for 80 minutes each. Locking torques of all fasteners shall be measured prior to testing, and changes in pre-load values shall be recorded after completion of the vibration test. The fasteners shall retain preload torques within a 15% allowable variation after testing.

3.6 Electrical Components and Wiring—3.6.1 Standard. All electrical components and wiring included on adaptive automotive control systems shall conform to applicable SAE Standards or SAE Recommended Practices, e.g., SAE J556—Automobile Wiring.

3.6.2 Specification. Two wire or single wire systems shall be termed respectively "insulated-return" and "ground-return" systems. All electrical systems shall be designed and packaged to protect the driver against injury resulting from accidental shock, short-circuits, electrical fires, etc.

3.6.3 Test 6. Electrical components and wiring shall be considered integral parts of a control system, and shall be tested for fatigue resistance and resistance to vibration during the performance of (3.3.3.2), Test 2, (3.3.3.3), Test 3 and (3.5.3) Test 5. Any loosening of assembly hardware, or damage sustained by an electrical component during testing shall disqualify the entire system from acceptance.

3.7 Safety—3.7.1 Sharp Edges and Projections—3.7.1.1 Standard and Specification. All adaptive automotive control systems shall be free of sharp edges and jagged projections to minimize injuries and damage to clothing of both handicapped and non-handicapped drivers (FMVSS 201).

3.7.1.2 Test 7. All fully assembled systems shall be visually inspected in a laboratory set-up (simulator). All hazardous features shall be a cause for rejection of a device.

3.7.2 Conventional Use of Motor Vehicle—3.7.2.1 Standard. All adaptive control devices shall be designed to permit the conventional use of the standard automotive controls by non-handicapped drivers.

3.7.2.2 Specification. Brake and accelerator pedals shall remain unobstructed after adaptive controls have been properly installed according to the manufacturer's instructions.

3.7.2.3 Test 8. Acceptability of a particular design shall be verified by observation in the laboratory, where it shall be clearly demonstrated that brake and accelerator connecting hardware shall not obstruct control pedals used by drivers in the normal mode.

3.7.3 Neutral Position of Control System—3.7.3.1 Standard and Specification. Hand control systems shall be balanced so that neither the brake nor the accelerator are actuated in the hands-off mode (FMVSS 124).

3.7.3.2 Test 9. Acceptability of a particular device shall be verified in the laboratory by means of a simulated automotive installation.

3.8 Mode of Operation—3.8.1 Acceleration and Brake Motion—3.8.1.1 Standard and Specification. Adaptive hand control systems shall be designed to require distinctly different motions for acceleration and brake actuation.

3.8.1.2 Test 10. Functional adequacy shall be verified by observation in the laboratory where it shall be evident that distinctly different motions for actuation of the accelerator and brake pedals are provided.

3.8.2 Restriction of Accelerator Motion for Mechanically Linked Hand Controls—3.8.2.1 Standard and Specification. Adaptive hand control systems shall not permit actuation of the accelerator by forward inertial movement of the driver.

3.8.2.2 Test 11. Acceptability of an adaptive automotive hand control system shall be verified by observation in the laboratory, where it shall be evident that the accelerator cannot be actuated by a forward push away from the driver.

4.0 Installation of Adaptive Equipment to Passenger Automobiles—4.1 Method of Attachment—4.1.1 Standard. Manufacturers shall specify the appropriate method of installation for each type of automobile for which his device is designed.

4.1.2 Specification. A brochure containing written and graphic instructions for installing each control system shall be provided by the manufacturer for each type, year and make of automobile for which his product is intended.

4.2 Certified Installation. Upon completion, the installation must be certified as complete and safe. The VA strongly urges that installation be accomplished by highly experienced auto mechanics who have familiarized themselves with these devices.

4.3 Safety Features of the Automotive Steering Column. Installation of an adaptive hand control system shall not interfere with the collapsibility of the steering column or any other safety features of the automobile. The collapse of a steering column in the event of a collision shall not expose the driver to hardware normally behind the steering wheel. In such cases, it is assumed that the driver impacts with the steering wheel (FMVSS 203).

4.4 Alterations of the Passenger Vehicle. The use of adaptive equipment shall not result in alterations of the passenger automobile which impair or reduce other safety features. Although it is desirable not to deface the interior, this desire is of secondary importance to assuring the secure attachment of all devices.

4.5 Installation Instructions. Complete installation instructions shall be packaged with each adaptive automotive control device (4.1), including a parts list of components. The instructions shall be clear and free of ambiguity, and shall be supplemented by photos and illustrations to facilitate the installation of the device. The manufacturer's concern for proper installation shall be clearly stated. A source of assistance and/or information (phone number and address) shall be provided.

V 40 165
APR 3 75

4.6 Use Instructions. Complete instructions on the operation and use of the driving controls shall be packaged with each driving aid. These instructions shall be supplemented by photos and illustrations as needed. Suitable caution on gaining familiarity with a new driving method shall be given prominence.

5.0 Sampling and Inspection by the Manufacturer—5.1 Sampling. Samples of adaptive automotive driving aids shall be submitted before the end of November of each year to be tested for contract qualifications. These samples shall be compatible with passenger type motor vehicles listed by the manufacturer of adaptive equipment for the calendar year ahead. The manufacturer shall supply the VA Prosthetics Center, New York, N.Y. 10001 with one (1) complete production sample of each device submitted for compliance testing, free of charge. These samples will not be returned to the manufacturer, nor will they be issued to handicapped drivers. Samples submitted for testing before the end of November which fail to qualify may be resubmitted after appropriate modifications for retesting within 90 days of the initial submission date. The VA Prosthetics Center will at times purchase production samples for additional testing, as required.

5.2 Inspection by the Manufacturer. In view of the implied seriousness of in-service failures, quality control inspections made by the manufacturer shall be 100% on every part packaged and commercially sold. Evidence of quality assurance shall be included with every item sold, and can be in the form of a seal, inspection stamp, tag, or any other legible identification. The responsibility of product liability rests with the manufacturer of every adaptive device. Uninspected items shall be returned to the manufacturer.

5.2.1 Identification Marking. All adaptive devices shall bear a serial number and the name and address of the manufacturer. This may be engraved or placed on a permanently affixed tag which will remain visible after installation of the components.

5.2.2 Warranty. A statement of warranty shall be packaged with each adaptive device, assuring the quality of materials and workmanship of the product for at least one (1) year from the date of installation. The warranty shall state that if defects are found during the warranty period, the device will be replaced or a refund made by the seller.

5.2.3 Claims Made. Advertising literature shall reveal the adaptive equipment manufacturer's name and address. All claims of approval by private groups, local, state or federal government shall be specific as to the approving agency and the acceptance test protocol. Such claims shall be documentable on request. Furthermore, all claims of scientific merit shall be clearly stated and documentable on request.

5.2.4. Other Literature. All promotional and technical literature shall clearly describe the types of driving aids available and the types of disabilities they will service.

6.0 Distributors of Adaptive Automotive Control Equipment. A distributor of adaptive automotive driving aids is subject to the same standard as the manufacturer with regard to claim of approval or scientific merit (see standard 5.2.3). All literature on driving aids furnished by the seller shall contain the seller's name and address.

7.0 Test Procedure.—7.1 Static Testing (Test 1). Static testing shall be conducted by applying a force of 150 lbs. (667.2 newtons) to the handle of the control lever. The force shall be directed to simulate brake actuation of the fully assembled adaptive control system. The test sample is mounted on a Laboratory Simulator and positioned within the test space of the test machine load frame (INSTRON or equivalent). The readout and recording instrumentation of the test machine shall indicate that the 150 lbs. (667.2 newtons force) is being applied for a period of 30 to 35 seconds. Changes in alignment, loosening of parts, or permanent deformations indicate failure of the complete system.

7.2 Fatigue Life Cycling (Test 2). Cycling is accomplished using a combination axial and torsional testing machine (INSTRON or equivalent). The testing machine is programmed to control a force of 120 lbs. (533.8 newtons) delivered by a hydraulic actuator to the handle of the Control Lever of a completely assembled adaptive automotive hand control system. The particular hand control system is fully assembled on a Laboratory Simulator and positioned within the test space of the test machine load frame. The readout and recording instrumentation of the test machine verifies that the required test load is applied to simulate brake and accelerator actuation within 1.0 to 2.0 seconds per cycle. Since the required motions for actuation of adaptive automotive brake and accelerator controls vary considerably for particular hand controls, the cyclic test machine shall be programmed to provide linear and rotary motion as needed. The test machine is biaxial, and therefore capable of applying and controlling axial and torsional loads simultaneously. A fatigue life cyclic test of 250,000 machine cycles shall be completed, applying mutually exclusive motions for acceleration and brake actuation. The cyclic program is monitored throughout the test with periodic inspection of test samples at intervals of 50,000 cycles, to either assure that satisfactory progress of fatigue life cycling is being made, or discontinue further testing.

7.3 Resistance to Vibration (Tests 3, 5, and 6). Resistance to vibration testing shall be conducted on individual components (under Test 3) or on the completely assembled adaptive automotive control system (Tests 5 and 6) installed in a laboratory simulator. The laboratory simulator, including the particular adaptive device, is mounted on a vibration testing machine for testing in the axial as well as transverse direction of component assembly. The vibration testing machine is set up to produce a 2.54 mm displacement (±1.27 mm from zero reference) at 30 Hz, resulting in an approximate 4.6 g load. All fasteners, wiring and hardware including resistance-to-vibration type coatings, etc., shall be included in simulating an installation of the particular device in a passenger automobile.

7.4 Laboratory Simulator. The laboratory simulator is a mechanical test jig that permits simulated set-up of a variety of adaptive automotive driving aids submitted to the VA Prosthetics Center, New York, N.Y., for evaluation or compliance testing. Essentially, the laboratory simulator includes a standard automotive steering wheel, accelerator pedal, brake pedal, as well as a rigid non-automotive steering column attached to part of a simulated fire wall. The jig shall be used to carry out Fatigue Life Testing (3.3.3.2 Test 2), Resistance to Corrosion Testing (3.4.2 Test 4), Resistance to Vibration Testing (3.5.3 Test 5), Testing of Electrical Components and Wiring (3.6.3 Test 6), as well as all other compliance tests depending on visual inspection of an assembly or mode of operation of the particular adaptive automotive system.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

IRREGULAR-ROUTE MOTOR COMMON CARRIERS OF PROPERTY

Elimination of Gateway Letter Notices

MARCH 28, 1975.

The following letter-notices of proposals to eliminate gateways for the purpose of reducing highway congestion, alleviating air and noise pollution, minimizing safety hazards, and conserving fuel have been filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission under the Commission's Gateway Elimination Rules (49 CFR 1065), and notice thereof to all interested persons is hereby given as provided in such rules.

An original and two copies of protests against the proposed elimination of any gateway herein described may be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission on or before April 14, 1975. A copy must also be served upon applicant or its representative. Protests against the elimination of a gateway will not operate to stay commencement of the proposed operation.

Successively filed letter-notices of the same carrier under these rules will be numbered consecutively for convenience in identification. Protests, if any, must refer to such letter-notices by number.

No. MC 2633 (Sub-No. E3) (Correction), filed May 12, 1974, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER February 13, 1975. Applicant: CROSSETT, INC., P.O. Box 946, Warren, Pa. 16365. Applicant's representative: M. A. Burgett (same as above). Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Liquid petroleum products, in bulk, in tank vehicles, from Bolivar, Wellsville, Buffalo, and points within ten miles of Buffalo, Ithaca, Rochester, and Syracuse, N.Y., and points within five miles thereof, to points in that part of Ohio on or bounded by a line beginning at Lake Erie and extending along U.S. Highway 21 to junction U.S. Highway 30, thence along U.S. Highway 30 to junction Ohio-Pennsylvania State line, thence along Ohio-Pennsylvania State line to junction Ohio Highway 165, thence along Ohio Highway 165 to junction Ohio Highway 14, thence along Ohio Highway 14 to Lake Erie. The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateways of points in Erie County, Pa., and points within 15 miles thereof. The purpose of this correction is to expand the territorial description.

No. MC 2633 (Sub-No. E9) (Correction), filed May 12, 1974, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER February 13, 1975. Applicant: CROSSETT, INC., P.O. Box 946, Warren, Pa. 16365. Applicant's representative: M. A. Burgett (same as above). Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Liquid petroleum products, in bulk, in tank vehicles, from those points in Ohio north and east of a line beginning at Lake Erie and extending along Ohio Highway 14 to junction Ohio Highway 165, thence along Ohio Highway 165 to the Ohio-Pennsylvania State line, to points in Tioga and Potter Counties, Pa. The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateways of Warren, Pa., and points within seven miles thereof, and Olean, N.Y. The purpose of this filing is to include the destination points.

No. MC 2633 (Sub-No. E10) (Correction), filed May 12, 1974, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER February 13, 1975. Applicant: CROSSETT, INC., P.O. Box 946, Warren, Pa. 16365. Applicant's representative: M. A. Burgett (same as above). Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Liquid petroleum products, in bulk, in tank vehicles, from those points in Ohio on and east of a line beginning at Lake Erie and extending along U.S. Highway 14 to junction Ohio Highway 165, thence along Ohio Highway 165 to the Ohio-Pennsylvania State line. The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateways of Warren, Pa., and points within seven miles thereof, and Bolivar and Wellsville, N.Y. The purpose of this correction is to expand the territorial description.

No. MC 2633 (Sub-No. E12) (Correction), filed May 12, 1974, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER February 12, 1975. Applicant: CROSSETT, INC., P.O. Box 946, Warren, Pa. 16365. Applicant's representative: M. A. Burgett (same as above). Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Liquid petroleum products, in bulk, in tank vehicles, from points in Erie and Crawford Counties, Pa., to points on the United States-Canada International Boundary line between and including Buffalo and Youngstown, N.Y. The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateways of Buffalo, Tonawanda, North Tonawanda, and those points between Buffalo and Tonawanda which are within two miles of the Niagara River, N.Y. The purpose of this correction is to expand the territorial description.

No. MC 2633 (Sub-No. E15) (Correction), filed May 12, 1974, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER February 12, 1975. Applicant: CROSSETT, INC., P.O. Box 946, Warren, Pa. 16365. Applicant's representative: M. A. Burgett (same as above). Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Petroleum products, in bulk, in tank vehicles, as described in Appendix XIII to the report in Descriptions in Motor Carrier Certificates, 61 M.C.C. 209 (except those named in Appendix XV thereof), from points in Beaver County, Pa., to points in Chautauqua, Erie, and Niagara Counties, N.Y. The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateway of Freedom, Pa. The purpose of this correction is to correctly describe the destination points.

No. MC 2368 (Sub-No. E49) (Correction), filed May 29, 1974, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER February 25, 1975. Applicant: BRALLEY-WILLETT TANK LINES, P.O. Box 495, Richmond, Va. 23204. Applicant's representative: Ward W. Johnson (same as above). Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Vegetable oils (except liquid cocoa butter), in bulk, in tank vehicles, from points in that part of Virginia on, east, and north of a line beginning at the Virginia-Maryland State line and proceeding south along U.S. Highway 15 to junction Interstate Highway 64, thence along Interstate Highway 64 to junction Interstate Highway 264, thence along Interstate Highway 264 to the Atlantic Ocean, to points in South Carolina on and south of Interstate Highway 26. The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateway of Richmond, Va. The purpose of this correction is to include Virginia as the origin state.

No. MC 2368 (Sub-No. E52) (Correction), filed May 29, 1974, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER February 25, 1975. Applicant: BRALLEY-WILLETT TANK LINES, P.O. Box 495, Richmond, Va. 23204. Applicant's representative: Ward W. Johnson (same as above). Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Vegetable oils (except liquid cocoa butter), in bulk, in tank vehicles, from points in that part of Virginia on and south of a line beginning at the Virginia-West Virginia State line and proceeding east along Virginia Highway 311 to junction U.S. Highway 460 at Roanoke, Va., thence along U.S. Highway 460 to junction U.S. Highway 360, thence along U.S. Highway 360 to junction Interstate Highway 64, thence along Interstate Highway 64 to junction Interstate Highway 264, thence along Interstate Highway 264 to the Atlantic Ocean, to points in the District of Columbia. The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateway of Richmond, Va. The purpose of this correction is to include Virginia as the origin state.

No. MC 3246 (Sub-No. E1), filed May 12, 1974. Applicant: MASTERTON TRANSFER CO. INC., 3000 Pennsylvania Ave., Warren, Pennsylvania. Applicant's representative: Ronald W. Malin (same as above). Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Machinery, machinery parts, iron and steel tanks, furnaces, boilers, steel shelving, and factory equipment (except commodities requiring special equipment and commodities in bulk); (a) between points in Erie, Chautauqua, and Cattaraugus Counties, New York, on the one hand, and, on the other, points and places in New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, District of Columbia, New York City, and Nassau and Suffolk Counties, New York, (b) between points in Chautauqua and Cattaraugus Counties, New York, on the one hand, and, on the other, points and places in Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Rhode Island, (Warren, Pa.)*; (2) iron and steel tanks, machinery, machinery parts, and such commodities requiring specialized handling or rigging because of size or weight, (a) between points in Erie, Chautauqua, and Cattaraugus Counties, New York, on the one hand, and, on the other, points and places in New Jersey, New York City, and Nassau and Suffolk Counties, New York, (b) between points in Ohio, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in New Jersey and New York, (c) from points in Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Rhode Island, to points in Ohio, Chautauqua and Cattaraugus Counties, New York, (d) from points in West Virginia, to points in Niagara, Erie, Chautauqua, Cattaraugus, Orleans, Genesee, Wyoming, Allegany, Monroe, Livingston, Wayne, Ontario, Yates, Steuben, Seneca, Schuyler, Chemung, Cayuga, Tompkins, Tioga, Oswego, Onondaga, Cortland, Broome, Jefferson, Lewis, Oneida, Madison, and Chenango Counties, New York, (e) from points in Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, and the District of Columbia, to points in Niagara, Orleans, Erie, Genesee, Wyoming, Chautauqua, Cattaraugus, and Allegany Counties New York, (f) from points in Indiana, Illinois, and Michigan, to points and places in New York and New Jersey. (Warren, Pa.)*.

(3) Materials (or use in, or incidental to, the construction and maintenance of telephone lines, when requiring specialized handling or rigging because of size or weight, (a) between points in Erie, Chautauqua, and, Cattaraugus, New York, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, District of Columbia, New York City, and Nassau and Suffolk Counties, New York, (b) between points in Pennsylvania situated on and south of a line beginning at the Ohio-Pennsylvania State line and extending along U.S. Highway 422 to junction U.S. Highway 19 thence along U.S. Highway 19 to junction Pennsylvania Highway 488 near Portersville, Pa. thence along Pennsylvania Highway 488 via Prospect, Pa. to junction U.S. Highway 422, thence along U.S. Highway 422 to junction U.S. Highway 22, and thence along U.S. Highway 22 to junction U.S. Highway 220 in Duncansville, Pa., and thence on and west of the line extending along U.S. Highway 220 from junction U.S. Highway 22 to Duncansville, Pa. to the Pennsylvania-Maryland State line, on the one hand, and, on the other, points and places in Illinois and Michigan, (d) between points in Warren and McKean Counties, Pennsylvania, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in New Jersey, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, the District of Columbia and New York (except points in New York within 120 miles of Warren, Pennsylvania), (Warren, Pa.)*.

(4) Machinery, machinery parts, and iron and steel tanks (except commodities requiring special equipment, and commodities in bulk), (a) from points in Warren County, Pa., to points in New Jersey, Ohio, and New York State (except the New York State Counties of Erie, Chautauqua and Cattaraugus) (b) from points in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Virginia, West Virginia, Delaware, New Jersey, Connecticut, Maryland, Washington, D.C., and New York (except Erie, Chautauqua and Cattaraugus Counties, N.Y.), to points in Warren County, Pennsylvania. (Warren, Pa., and Chautauqua or Cattaraugus Counties, N.Y.)* The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateways marked with asterisks above.

No. MC 9789 (Sub-No. E1), filed May 19, 1974. Applicant: DYER TRANSPORT, INC., P.O. Box 2744 Terminal Annex, Spokane, Wash. 99220. Applicant's representative: Roger L. Bond, P.O. Box 3010, St. Paul, Minn. 55165. Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Machinery and machinery parts, between points in Minnesota on and west of U.S. Highway 71, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Idaho, Oregon, and Washington. The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateway of the state of Idaho and that part of Montana west of a line extending from the boundary of the United States and Canada along U.S. Highway 89 to Livingston, Mont., thence east along U.S. Highway 10 to Laurel, Mont., thence south along U.S. Highway 310 to the Montana-Wyoming State line.

No. MC 9789 (Sub-No. E2), filed May 19, 1974. Applicant: DYER TRANSPORT, INC., P.O. Box 2744, Terminal Annex, Spokane, Wash. 99220. Applicant's representative: Roger L. Bond, P.O. Box 3010, St. Paul, Minn. 55165. Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Machinery, (a) between points in Oregon west of the Cascade Mountains, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Washington on and east of U.S. Highway 395 and the city of Clarkston, Washington; (b) between points in California on, north, and west of U.S. Highway 50, on the one hand, and, on the other, (1) points in Minnesota on and west of U.S. Highway 71, (2) points in Montana on and west of a line extending from the boundary of the United States and Canada along U.S. Highway 89 to Livingston, Mont., thence along U.S. Highway 10 to Laurel, Mont., thence along U.S. Highway 310 to the Montana-Wyoming State line; (c) between points in California on, north, and west of U.S. Highway 50 within the counties of Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, Napa, Sacramento, San Francisco, and Solano, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Oregon in the counties of Baker, Umatilla, Union, and Wallowa, and the towns of Ontario, Nyssa, and Vale, Oreg., and points in Washington in and east of Okanogan, Chelan, Douglas, Grant, and Benton Counties. The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateways of (a) Idaho; (b) (1) Idaho, and that part of Montana as described in paragraph (b) above, and (b) (2) Idaho; and (c) Idaho.

No. MC 9789 (Sub-No. E3), filed May 19, 1974. Applicant: DYER TRANSPORT, INC., P.O. Box 2744 Terminal Annex, Spokane, Wash. 99220. Applicant's representative: Roger L. Bond, P.O. Box 3010, St. Paul, Minn. 55165. Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Heavy machinery; (a) between points in California on and west of U.S. Highway 395, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Idaho on and west of U.S. Highway 93 and points in Montana on and west of a line extending from the United States-Canada International Boundary line along U.S. Highway 89 to Livingston, Mont., thence along U.S. Highway 10 to Laurel, Mont., thence along U.S. Highway 310 to the Montana-Wyoming State line; (b) between points in California in and north of Monterey, Kings, Tulare, Fresno, and Mono Counties, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Idaho; (c) between points in California in and south of Marin, Napa, Solano, Sacramento, Amador, and Alpine Counties, and the commercial zones of Santa Rosa, Petaluma, and Sonoma (all in Sonoma County), on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Oregon in and east of Baker, Umatilla, and Union Counties, and the points of Ontario, Nyssa, and Vale, Oreg., and points in Washington in and east of Okanogan, Chelan, Douglas, Grant, and Benton Counties; (d) between points in California in and south of San Luis Obispo, Kings, Fresno, and Mono Counties, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Washington in Island, San Juan, Yakima, Kittitas, Skagit, Whatcom, Snohomish Counties, and the commercial zone of Seattle, Wash.; and (e) between points in California in and south of the counties of Ventura, Los Angeles, Mono, Inyo, and San Bernardino, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Washington in King, Kitsap, Clallam, and Jefferson Counties (that portion lying east of the Olympic National Park only), and the commercial zone of the city of Tacoma, Wash. The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateways of: in (a), (c), (d), and (e) above, California (on and north of U.S. Highway 50); and Idaho; and in (b) above California (on and north of U.S. Highway 50).

No. MC 9789 (Sub-No. E4), filed May 19, 1974. Applicant: DYER TRANSPORT, INC., P.O. Box 2744 Terminal Annex, Spokane, Wash. 99220. Applicant's representative: Roger L. Bond, P.O. Box 3010, St. Paul, Minn. 55165. Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: (1) Commodities, the transportation of which, because of size or weight requires the use of special equipment, and of related machinery parts and related contractors' materials and supplies when their transportation is incidental to the transportation of commodities which by reason of size or weight requires special equipment; (2) General commodities (except motor vehicle and motor vehicle cabs and bodies, and except Classes A and B explosives), moving in the same vehicle and at the same time in mixed loads with commodities the transportation of which, because of size or weight, require the use of special equipment (otherwise authorized), when the mixed load moves on a single bill of lading from a single consignor; and (3) Self-propelled vehicles, each weighing 15,000 pounds or more (except motor vehicles as defined in Section 203 (a) (13) of the Interstate Commerce Act, and vehicles moving in driveaway service), and related machinery, tools, parts, and supplies moving in connection wherewith. Restriction: Restricted in (1), (2), and (3) to the transportation of such commodities as contractors' equipment, heavy and bulky articles, machinery and machinery parts, articles requiring specialized handling or rigging, and machinery, materials, supplies, and equipment, used or useful in road construction, mining, logging, and sawmill operations, and restricted against the transportation of boats, between points in Montana east of a line extending from the United States-Canada International Boundary line along U.S. Highway 89 to Livingston, Mont., thence along U.S. Highway 10 to Laurel, Mont., thence along U.S. Highway 310 to the Montana-Wyoming State line, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Idaho in Boundary, Bonner, Kootenai, Benewah, Latah, Nez Perce, Lewis, Adams, Washington, Gem, Payette, Canyon, and Ada Counties. The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateways of Washington-Idaho State line and Oregon-Idaho State line.

No. MC 9789 (Sub-No. E5), filed May 19, 1974. Applicant: DYER TRANSPORT, INC., P.O. Box 2744 Terminal Annex, Spokane, Wash. 99220. Applicant's representative: Roger L. Bond, P.O. Box 3010, St. Paul, Minn. 55165. Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: (1) Heavy machinery, the transportation of which, because of size or weight, requires the use of special equipment; (2) Heavy machinery (except motor vehicles and motor vehicle cabs and bodies, and except Classes A and B explosives), moving in the same vehicle and at the same time in mixed loads with commodities the transportation of which, because of size or weight, require the use of special equipment (otherwise authorized), when the mixed load moves on a single bill of lading from a single consignor; and (3) Heavy machinery, which is self-propelled and which individually weighs 15,000 pounds or more (except motor vehicles as defined in Section 203(a) (13) of the Interstate Commerce Act, and vehicles moving in a driveaway service), (Restricted in (1), (2), and (3) against the transportation of boats), between points in California (except points in Inyo, San Bernardino, Riverside, Orange, San Diego, and Imperial Counties), on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Montana lying on, east, and north of a line extending from the United States-Canada International Boundary line along U.S. Highway 89 to Livingston, Mont., thence along U.S. Highway 10 to Miles City, Mont., thence along U.S. Highway 12 to the Montana-South Dakota State line. The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateways of California (on and north of U.S. Highway 50), Idaho, and Oregon.

No. MC 9789 (Sub-No. E6), filed May 19, 1974. Applicant: DYER TRANSPORT, INC., P.O. Box 2744 Terminal Annex, Spokane, Wash. 99220. Applicant's representative: Roger L. Bond, P.O. Box 3010, St. Paul, Minn. 55165. Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Wooden skids, heavy timbers, wood piling, lumber and wood construction poles, (a) between points in Montana, North Dakota, and Minnesota, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Idaho, Washington, and that part of Oregon east of the Cascade Mountains, restricted to the transportation of those commodities listed above which require specialized handling, or are heavy and bulky, or are used or useful in road construction, mining, logging, and sawmill operations; and (b) between points in Oregon lying west of the Cascade Mountains, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Montana, North Dakota, and Minnesota, restricted to the transportation of those commodities listed above, the transportation of which because of size or weight requires the use of special equipment, otherwise authorized, when the mixed load moves on a single bill of lading from a single consignor). The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateway of (a) that part of Montana west of a line extending from the boundary of the United States and Canada along U.S. Highway 89 to Livingston, Mont., thence along U.S. Highway 10 to Laurel, Mont., thence along U.S. Highway 310 to the Montana-Wyoming State line; and (b) Montana.

No. MC 9789 (Sub-No. E7), filed May 19, 1974. Applicant: DYER TRANSPORT, INC., P.O. Box 2744 Terminal Annex, Spokane, Wash. 99220. Applicant's representative: Roger L. Bond, P.O. Box 3010, St. Paul, Minn. 55165. Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Machinery, equipment, materials, and supplies used in or in connection with the discovery, development, production, refining, manufacture, processing, storage, transmission, and distribution of natural gas and petroleum, and their products and by-products; machinery, equipment, materials, and supplies, used in or in connection with, the construction, operation, repair, servicing, maintenance, and dismantling of pipelines, including the stringing and picking up thereof (except the stringing and picking up of pipe in connection with the main or trunk pipelines), restricted to contractors' equipment, heavy and bulky articles, machinery and machinery parts, or articles requiring specialized handling or rigging, between points in Minnesota on and west of U.S. Highway 71, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Idaho, Washington, and that part of Oregon lying east of the Cascade Mountains. The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateways of that part of Montana west of a line extending from the boundary the United States and Canada along U.S. Highway 89 to Livingston, Mont., thence along U.S. Highway 10 to Laurel, Mont., thence along U.S. Highway 310 to the Montana-Wyoming State line.

No. MC 9789 (Sub-No. E8), filed May 19, 1974. Applicant: DYER TRANSPORT, INC., P.O. Box 2744, Terminal Annex, Spokane, Wash. 99220. Applicant's representative: Roger L. Bond, P.O. Box 3010, St. Paul, Minn. 55165. Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Machinery, equipment, materials, and supplies used in or in connection with the discovery, development, production, refining, manufacture, processing, storage, transmission, and distribution of natural gas and petroleum and their products and by-products; machinery, equipment, materials, and supplies used in, or in connection with, the construction, operation, repair, servicing, maintenance, and dismantling of pipelines, including the stringing and picking up thereof (except the stringing or picking up of pipe in connection with main or trunk pipelines), restricted to those commodities the transportation of which, because of size or weight, requires the use of special equipment, and of related parts, materials, and supplies when their transportation is incidental to the transportation of commodities which by reason of size or weight, require special equipment, or when moving in the same vehicle and at the same time in mixed loads with commodities the transportation of which, because of size or weight, requires the use of special equipment, otherwise authorized, but not including motor vehicles and motor vehicle cabs and bodies, or Classes A and B explosives, when the mixed loads moves on a single bill of lading from a single consignor, or, self-propelled vehicles, each weighing 15,000 pounds or more (Except motor vehicles as defined in Section 203(a) (13) of the Interstate Commerce Act, and except vehicles moving in driveaway service), and related machinery, tools, parts, and supplies moving in connection therewith, between points in Minnesota on and west of U.S. Highway 71, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Oregon and Washington. The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateway of Montana.

No. MC 9789 (Sub-No. E9), filed July 3, 1974. Applicant: DYER TRANSPORT, INC., P.O. Box 3010, St. Paul, Minn. 55165. Applicant's representative: Roger L. Bond (same as above). Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Machinery, between points in California in and north of Sonoma, Lake, Yolo, Sutter, Placer, and El Dorado Counties, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in the Spokane, Wash., commercial zone. The purpose of this filing is to eliminate the gateway of Idaho.

BELLEFONTE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO.

Notice of Abandonment

MARCH 24, 1975.

Bellefonte Central Railroad Company, Abandonment Between Chemical and State College, in Centre County, Pennsylvania.

The Interstate Commerce Commission hereby gives notice that: 1. By order served February 7, 1975, applicant was required to publish a notice in Centre County, Pennsylvania, that an environmental threshold assessment survey was made in the above-entitled proceeding and based on that assessment it was determined that the proceeding does not constitute a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment within the meaning of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), 42 U.S.C. 4321, et seq. 2. No comments in opposition, of an environmental nature, were received by the Commission in response to the February 7, 1975, order and subsequent notice. 3. This proceeding is now ready for further disposition within the Office of Hearings or the Office of Proceedings as appropriate.

CENTRAL OF GEORGIA RAILROAD CO.

Notice of Abandonment

Central of Georgia Railroad Company. Abandonment of operations between Lafayette and Roanoke, in Chambers and Randolph Counties, Alabama.

Upon consideration of the record in the above-entitled proceeding, and of a staff-prepared environmental threshold assessment survey which is available to the public upon request; and

It appearing, that no environmental impact statement need be issued in this proceeding because this proceeding does not represent a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment within the meaning of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, 42 U.S.C. 4321, et seq.; and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That applicant be, and it is hereby, directed to publish the appended notice in a newspaper of general circulation in Chambers and Randolph Counties, Ala., on or before April 4, 1975, and certify to the Commission that this has been accomplished.

And it is further ordered, That notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the Office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D.C., and by forwarding a copy to the Director, Office of the Federal Register, for publication in the Federal Register.

Dated at Washington, D.C., this 18th day of March, 1975.

[Notice AB 28]

CENTRAL OF GEORGIA RAILROAD COMPANY ABANDONMENT OF OPERATIONS BETWEEN LAFAYETTE AND ROANOKE, IN CHAMBERS AND RANDOLPH COUNTIES, ALABAMA

The Interstate Commerce Commission hereby gives notice that by order dated March 18, 1975, it has been determined that the proposed abandonment of operations of the Central of Georgia Railroad Company between Roanoke and Lafayette, in Chambers and Randolph Counties, a distance of 18.76 miles all in Alabama, if approved by the Commission, does not constitute a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment within the meaning of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), 42 U.S.C. 4321, et seq., and that preparation of a detailed environmental impact statement will not be required under section 4332(2)(C) of the NEPA.

It was concluded, among other things, that the environmental impacts of the proposed action are considered insignificant because environmental effects resulting from this action will include increased air pollution and energy consumption but the effects will be insignificant or beneficial based on specifics of the line and traffic, the availability of nearby alternate rail service in the area, and the presence of an adequate highway system throughout the region. Since abandonment of operations would not authorize physical removal of track or related rail structures, impacts related to disposal of the right-of-way and its future use would be avoided.

This determination was based upon the staff preparation and consideration of an environmental threshold assessment survey, which is available on request to the Interstate Commerce Commission, Office of Proceedings, Washington, D.C. 20423; telephone 202-343-2086.

Interested persons may comment on this matter by filing their statements in writing with the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C., 20423, on or before April 21, 1975.

This negative environmental determination shall become final unless good and sufficient reason demonstrating why an environmental impact statement should be prepared for this action is submitted to the Commission by the above-specified date.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILWAY COMPANY ABANDONMENT OF THE POMEROY BRANCH

The Interstate Commerce Commission hereby gives notice that by order dated March 20, 1975, it has been determined that the proposed abandonment of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company's line and track between Oldtown and Gallipolis, a distance of 62.84 miles, line and track near Pomeroy, a distance of 3.05 miles, and operations only between Gallipolis and Pomeroy, a distance of 17.8 miles, all in Hocking, Vinton, Gallia and Meigs Counties, Ohio, if approved by the Commission, does not constitute a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment within the meaning of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), 42 U.S.C. 4321, et seq., and that preparation of a detailed environmental impact statement will not be required under section 4332(2) (C) of the NEPA.

It was concluded, among other things, that the environmental impacts of the proposed action are considered insignificant because adequate highways exist in the area to accommodate any increase in motor carrier traffic necessary to replace current rail operations, the resulting air pollution, intrusive noise, fuel consumption, and safety hazard alterations would be minor, and there are no historic or major ecological impacts involved.

This determination was based upon the staff preparation and consideration of an environmental threshold assessment survey, which is available on request to the Interstate Commerce Commission, Office of Proceedings, Washington, D.C. 20423; telephone 202-343-2086.

Interested persons may comment on this matter by filing their statements in writing with the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C. 20423, on or before April 30, 1975.

MOTOR CARRIER, BROKER, WATER CARRIER AND FREIGHT FORWARDER APPLICATIONS

MARCH 28, 1975.

The following applications (except as otherwise specifically noted, each applicant (on applications filed after March 27, 1972) states that there will be no significant effect on the quality of the human environment resulting from approval of its application), are governed by Special Rule 1100.247[1] of the Commission's general rules of practice (49 CFR, as amended), published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of April 20, 1966, effective May 20, 1966. These rules provide, among other things, that a protest to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission within 30 days after date of notice of filing of the application is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Failure seasonably to file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding. A protest under these rules should comply with section 247(d) (3) of the rules of practice which require that it set forth specifically the grounds upon which it is made, contain a detailed statement of protestant's interest in the proceeding (including a copy of the specific portions of its authority which protestant believes to be in conflict with that sought in the application, and describing in detail the method—whether by joinder, interline, or other means—by which protestant would use such authority to provide all or part of the service proposed), and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests not in reasonable compliance with the requirements of the rules may be rejected. The original and one (1) copy of the protest shall be filed with the Commission, and a copy shall be served concurrently upon applicant's representative, or applicant if no representative is named. If the protest includes a request for oral hearing, such requests shall meet the requirements of section 247(d) (4) of the special rules, and shall include the certification required therein.

Section 247(f) of the Commission's rules of practice further provides that each applicant shall, if protests to its application have been filed, and within 60 days of the date of this publication, notify the Commission in writing (1) that it is ready to proceed and prosecute the application, or (2) that it wishes to withdraw the application, failure in which the application will be dismissed by the Commission.

Further processing steps (whether modified procedure, oral hearing, or other procedures) will be determined generally in accordance with the Commission's general policy statement concerning motor carrier licensing procedures, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of May 3, 1966. This assignment will be by Commission order which will be served on each party of record. Broadening amendments will not be accepted after the date of this publication except for good cause shown, and restrictive amendments will not be entertained following publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of a notice that the proceeding has been assigned for oral hearing.

[1] Copies of Special Rule 247 (as amended) can be obtained by writing to the Secretary, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C. 20423.

[Docket No. SD-111]

ADVISORY COMMITTEE MANAGEMENT

Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Pursuant to section 8(a) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Pub. L. 92-463, 86 Stat. 770, 5 U.S.C. App. I), Executive Order 11769 of February 21, 1974, and the Office of Management and Budget Circular No. A-63, Revised, March 27, 1974, which requires each agency to establish uniform guidelines and management controls for the agency's advisory committees, Chapter I of Title 22, Code of Federal Regulations, is amended by adding a new Part 8 entitled Advisory Committee Management.

The new Part 8 contains the Department of State's regulations for the establishment, operation, renewal and termination of its advisory committee. It also assigns responsibilities to State Department offices with respect to these matters.

Although this regulation is not subject to the rulemaking procedures of 5 U.S.C. 553, the Department is offering interested persons the opportunity to submit such written views, and comments as they may desire. All communications received on or before April 30, 1975, will be given consideration. Communications should be addressed to the Advisory Committee Management Officer, Management Systems Staff, Room 2238, Department of State, Washington, D.C. 20520.

The proposed Part 8 for Chapter I, Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations, is to read as set forth below:

Sec.
8.1 Authorities.
8.2 Policy.
8.3 Scope.
8.4 Definitions.
8.5 Creation of a committee.
8.6 Membership.
8.7 Security.
8.8 Chartering of committees.
8.9 Meetings of advisory committees.
8.10 Reports.
8.11 Records.
8.12 Financial records.
8.13 Availability of records.
8.14 Public inquiries.

§ 8.1 Authorities.

(a) Regulatory Authorities. (1) These regulations are issued to implement the Federal Advisory Committee Act, P.L. 92-463, which became effective January 5, 1973, and Office of Management and Budget Circular No. A-63 of March 27, 1974. These regulations also are in accordance with Executive Order 11769 of February 21, 1974, and the responsibilities of the Secretary of State under 22 U.S.C. 2656.

(2) These regulations apply to any advisory committee which provides advice to the Department of State or any officer of the Department. However, to the extent that an advisory committee is subject to particular statutory provisions, which are inconsistent with the Federal Advisory Committee Act, these regulations do not apply.

(b) Delegated Authority. (1) The Deputy Under Secretary for Management has been designated by the Secretary (Delegation of Authority No. 125 signed November 7, 1972) to have full responsibility for the Committee Management function.

(2) The Advisory Committee Management Officer in the Management Systems Staff administers the Committee Management Program for the Deputy Under Secretary for Management.

§ 8.2 Policy.

(a) Advisory Committees are to be used for obtaining advice and recommendations on matters for which they were established, and may be utilized only when the information sought is not otherwise efficiently and economically available.

(b) Unless provided otherwise by statute or Presidential directive, advisory committees shall be utilized solely for advisory functions and any decision taken pursuant to the advice or recommendation of an advisory committee is the responsibility of the appropriate Department officer. For the purposes of this provision, "Presidential directive" includes an executive order or executive memorandum.

(c) Meetings of advisory committees will be open to the public unless there is a compelling reason which requires nondisclosure of the subject matter in accordance with public law (5 U.S.C. 552 (b)).

§ 8.3 Scope.

(a) The Federal Advisory Committee Act applies to committees "established" by the Government and to committees "utilized" though not established by the Government.

(1) The President and the Congress, or the Department in consultation with the Office of Management and Budget, may establish a group which shall be known as an advisory committee for the purpose of obtaining advice or recommendations and which shall be subject to the Federal Advisory Committee Act throughout its existence.

(2) Though not established by the President or the Department, a group utilized for the purpose of obtaining advice or recommendations must file a charter prior to a meeting, and otherwise conform to the requirements of the Act during any meetings or other contacts with the Department.

(b) One requisite for coverage of either type (established or utilized) under the Federal Advisory Committee Act is that the group can be defined as a committee as set forth in the definition of a committee, as contained in § 8.4 of these regulations, and have all or most of the following characteristics:

(1) The purpose, objective or intent is that of providing advice to any officer or organizational component of the Department;

(2) Has regular or periodic meetings;

(3) Has fixed membership (membership may include more than one full time Federal officer or employee but is not comprised wholly of Government personnel);

(4) Has an organizational structure (e.g., officers) and a staff.

(c) Where a group provides some advice to an agency, but the group's advisory function is incidental to and inseparable from other operational functions such as making or implementing decisions, the Federal Advisory Committee Act does not apply.

(d) Where the advisory function of a group is separable from its operational function, the group is subject to the Act to the extent that it operates as an advisory committee.

§ 8.4 Definitions.

(a) The Federal Advisory Committee Act defines advisory committee as any committee, board, commission, council, conference, panel, task force, or other similar group, or any subcommittee or other subgroup thereof, which is—

(1) Established by statute or reorganization plan, or

(2) Established or utilized by the President, or

(3) Established or utilized by one or more agencies, in the interest of obtaining advice or recommendations for the President or one or more agencies or officers of the Federal Government, except a committee composed wholly of full-time officers and employees of the Government.

(b) A formal sub-group or sub-committee independently possesses significant requisites of an advisory committee, i.e., fixed membership, periodic meetings, et cetera.

(c) An informal sub-group or sub-committee is one that facilitates the activities of its advisory committee. For example, during a particular meeting, the advisory committe may divide itself into sub-groups to permit simultaneous discussion of different topics.

§ 8.5 Creation of a Committee.

(a) A bureau or an office designated or desiring to sponsor an advisory committee will prepare a memorandum to the Advisory Committee Management Officer setting forth the purpose, organization (including subgroups), proposed balanced membership (see § 8.6), and a justification for the need of the particular committee.

(b) The Advisory Committee Management Officer will review the request and will make an action recommendation to the Deputy Under Secretary for Management through the Director of the Management Systems Staff.

(c) If the Deputy Under Secretary for Management approves the request, it will be submitted to the Committee Management Secretariat of the Office of Management and Budget for approval. The OMB Secretariat will usually take action within 15 days.

(d) The Advisory Committee Management Officer will advise the sponsoring bureau or office of the approval for or rejection of the request to establish the advisory committee.

(e) After OMB approval the intent to establish an advisory committee, containing a description of the committee and a statement of why it is in the public interest to create it, will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER at least 15 days prior to filing the committee charter.

§ 8.6 Membership.

(a) The act requires a balanced membership in terms of the points of view represented. Members are selected for their expertise in the committee's functions and should be chosen from different vocations having knowledge in the subject.

(b) It is Department policy that members will be selected without regard to national origin, religion, race, sex, or color.

(c) The committee office will keep the Advisory Committee Management Officer currently advised of a committee's membership including vacancies.

§ 8.7 Security.

(a) All officers and members of a committee must have a security clearance for the subject matter level of security at which the committee functions.

(b) The responsible committee office will provide the Advisory Committee Management Officer with each member's security clearance level and date of issue.

(c) The substantive office sponsoring an advisory committee is responsible for access to and removal from official premises of classified material in accordance with the Department's security regulations (5 FAM 940 and 973). Any questions arising involving security procedures are to be presented to the Office of Security for guidance and resolution.

§ 8.8 Chartering of committees.

(a) Requirements. (1) Each advisory committee, whether established or utilized, must have a charter approved by the Deputy Under Secretary of State for Management and filed with the Advisory Committee Management Officer, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and the House Foreign Affairs Committee, and in the case of a Presidential advisory committee only with the Committee Management Secretariat of OMB before it can hold a meeting.

(2) Formal subgroups may be chartered separately or the requisite information set forth in the charter of the parent committee.

(3) Informal subgroups may not require a charter; however, the charter of the parent committee must cover this aspect of its organization.

(4) The Advisory Committee Management Officer will, at the time a charter is filed, furnish a copy of the filed charter to the Library of Congress.

(b) Contents. Each committee charter shall contain: the official name and acronym, if any; the objectives, scope of activity, and full description of duties; the authority for such functions; the Department official (by title) to whom the committee reports; the relationship to or with other committees; the committee organization, composition of membership and officers' responsibilities; a description of the type of minutes, with their certification of accuracy, and records to be maintained; the estimated annual operating costs in dollars and man-years, and the source and authority for these resources; the period of time that will be required by the committee to accomplish its stated purpose; the estimated number and frequency of meetings; the termination date; and the filing date of the charter.

(c) Termination and Renewal. (1) An existing advisory committee will be automatically terminated at the end of a 2-year period (i.e., date specified in charter) unless its charter is renewed, except for a statutory committee which has provisions providing to the contrary.

(2) The Deputy Under Secretary for Management will make a determination, based on a comprehensive review, whether or not a committee will be continued.

(3) The OMB Secretariat will be advised of the determination and reasons therefore 60 days prior to the charter expiration date of the committee. If the Secretariat concurs, the Advisory Committee Management Officer will publish in the FEDERAL REGISTER the Department's intent to continue those advisory committees so designated by the Deputy Under Secretary for Management.

(4) Each office responsible for an advisory committee it wishes to continue will prepare a new charter and submit it to the Advisory Committee Management Officer before October 1 biennially.

(5) No advisory committee shall meet, advise or make recommendations between the expiration date of its charter and the date its new charter is filed.

(d) Amendments. (1) The charter of a committee may be amended, as necessary, to reflect current information on organization, composition, activities, et cetera.

(2) A proposed amendment must be approved prior to any committee activity to which the proposed amendment relates.

§ 8.9 Meetings of advisory committees.

(a) Applicability. The term "meeting" covers any situation in which all or some of the members of an advisory committee convene with a representative of the Department to transact committee business or to discuss matters related to the committee. This is applicable to an advisory committee and to its subordinate components.

(b) Designated Department Official. (1) No advisory committee may hold a meeting in the absence of the designated full-time Department or other U.S. Government officer.

(2) The designated Department or other U.S. Government officer has the following responsibilities:

(i) Prepares or approves the agenda for all meetings;

(ii) Calls or approves in advance the calling of the meetings;

(iii) Adjourns any meeting whenever they determine that adjournment is in the public interest.

(c) Notice of Meetings. (1) All advisory committee meetings, open or closed, will be publicly announced except when the President of the United States determines otherwise for reasons of national security.

(2) Notice of each such meeting shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and in a Department of State Press Release at least 15 days prior to the meeting date.

(3) The responsible committee office will prepare the notice and press release, obtaining clearances as set forth in (i) and (ii) below, and deliver to the Advisory Committee Management Officer for action:

(i) Open meeting—clearance within initiating office/bureau;

(ii) Closed meeting—clearance within initiating office/bureau including its legal adviser, and the Bureau of Public Affairs at the Bureau level.

(4) The Deputy Under Secretary for Management will determine if an advisory committee may hold a closed meeting, after a request for a meeting not open to the public is cleared by the Advisory Committee Management Officer and the Office of the Legal Adviser.

(5) After the clearances set forth in § 8.9(c) (3) and (4), a notification of meeting may also be provided by the office/bureau to any persons or organizations known to be interested in the activities of the committee.

(6) The office sponsoring the committee is responsible for meeting publishing date requirements. Overall normal processing time prior to a meeting date is 25 days for an open meeting and 47 days for a closed meeting.

(d) Contents of Notice. (1) The content of the Federal Register public notice and the Department of State press release will be identical.

(2) An open meeting announcement will state the name of the committee; the date, time, and place of the meeting; the agenda or summary thereof; that the meeting will be open to the public; the extent to which the public may participate in the meeting, either orally or in writing; seating space available; and the name and telephone number of a committee officer to whom inquiries may be directed, including arrangements for those attending if the meeting is in a secure building.

(3) A closed meeting announcement will state the name of the committee, the date of meeting and the reason or reasons which justify the closing of the meeting in the public interest.

(e) Closed Meetings. (1) An advisory cordance with the Federal Advisory Committee Act when the President or Department determines that the meeting is concerned with matters listed in section 552(b) of Title 5, United States Code.

(2) Any determination to close all or a part of a meeting must be based upon specific reasons. If a meeting is to cover separable matters, not all of which are within the exemptions of 5 U.S.C. 552(b), only the portion of the meeting dealing with exempt matters may be closed.

(3) When a meeting or portion of a meeting is to be closed to the public, the

V 40 65
APR 3 75
XUM

notice should state the reasons for the closing.

(4) The written request in accordance with § 8.9(c) 4) for a determination by the Deputy Under Secretary for Management that a committee may hold a closed meeting must be submitted at least 47 days before the scheduled date of the meeting unless the Deputy Under Secretary for Management determines that a shorter period of time is necessary.

(f) Cancelled Meetings. (1) The cancellation of a scheduled committee meeting must be publicized without delay.

(2) The responsible committee office will prepare a public notice and press release and hand-carry them to the Advisory Committee Management Officer as soon as the decision to cancel the meeting is made.

(3) The notice and press release will state the name of the advisory committee, identify the meeting that is cancelled, and state why it is cancelled. The FEDERAL REGISTER data, if known, concerning the announcement should be cited.

(g) Rescheduled Meetings. (1) When it is not feasible to hold an advisory committee meeting on the date that has been announced such meeting may be rescheduled for a later date by utilizing the same procedure as set forth in § 8.9(f) except the word rescheduled is substituted for cancelled.

(h) Minutes. (1) Detailed minutes of each advisory committee meeting, including subgroups, shall be kept.

(2) The minutes for an open meeting shall as a minimum cover the following items: the time and place of the meeting; a listing of advisory committee members and staff and agency employees present at the meeting; a complete summary of matters discussed and conclusions reached; copies of all reports received, issued, or approved by the advisory committee; a description of the extent to which the meeting was open to the public; an explanation of the extent of public participation, including a list of members of the public who presented oral or written statements; and an estimate of the number of members of the public who attended the meeting.

(3) The minutes for a closed meeting shall include all that is required for an open meeting except those items relating to the presence of the public.

(4) The chairman of each advisory committee shall certify the accuracy of the committee minutes.

§ 8.10 Reports.

(a) There are two categories of reports on advisory committees. One category is concerned with management and the other with advisory activities.

(b) Management reports include:

(1) Comprehensive Review. An annual review shall be conducted on a calendar year basis to determine the essentiality of the committee. The results of that Review are included in the Annual Report. The due date is October 1.

(2) Annual Report. A calendar year report which covers the status of the committee. It is a component report for the President's annual report to the Congress. The due date is December 31.

(3) Report of Closed Meeting(s). A summary of the activities and related matters discussed by a committee during a closed meeting shall be prepared annually. It is to be as informative as possible for the public consistent with section 552(b) policy of the Freedom of Information Act.

(4) Other Reports. Other management reports that may be required, such as requests from the Office of Management and Budget, Congressional Committees, et cetera, will be submitted in accordance with the requested due date.

(c) Advisory activities reports are reports issued by the committee. They are to be submitted, when prepared in final as a committee document or published, on a current basis.

(d) All reports are submitted to the Advisory Committee Management Officer.

(1) The Comprehensive Review is signed by the responsible committee officer and approved by the bureau/office policy making officer. It is submitted in original only.

(2) The Annual Report will be prepared on Standard Forms 248 and 249 in original and one copy. (Instructions for preparation are printed on the back of the forms.)

(3) The Report of Closed Meeting(s) is signed by the committee chairman and submitted in original and 8 copies.

(4) The advisory activities reports are submitted in 9 copies each, except Presidential advisory committee reports are submitted in 12 copies.

§ 8.11 Records.

(a) The records of an advisory committee consist of all papers and documents which are prepared for or by and/or made available to the committee, and are maintained by the office responsible for the committee. Such records are inter alia agenda, drafts, minutes, notices, press releases, reports, studies, transcripts, and working papers.

(b) The Advisory Committee Management Officer maintains the Department's official records relating to the management of all committees.

§ 8.12 Financial records.

Accurate records will be kept by the responsible committee office of all operating and salary costs of a committee. (See instruction item 17 on SF-248).

§ 8.13 Availability of records.

The records of a committee are to be made available upon request in accordance with the Department's regulations promulgated in accordance with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act (40 Federal Register 7256–7259, February 19, 1975.)

§ 8.14 Public inquiries.

Public inquiries concerning the implementation of the Federal Advisory Committee Act and the management of the advisory committees of the Department should be addressed to the Advisory Committee Management Officer, Management Systems Staff, Department of State, Washington, D.C. 20520.

Title 3—The President

PROCLAMATION 4361

National Farm Safety Week, 1975

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

The demand for agricultural products is at an all-time high both here and abroad. In addition to supplying food for the tables of over 213 million Americans, America's farms and ranches are seen by many millions of people abroad as a source of nourishment. Our agricultural abundance is possible not only because of the blessings of fertile soil and advanced technology, but also because of the capable, hard-working, innovative people in whose hands these immense food and fiber resources are entrusted.

Maintenance of a high level of agricultural production is not without such impediments as shortages of some supplies needed for production, adverse weather and accidents. Farmers and ranchers may not be able to control shortages or nature. But they can do a great deal to control accidents which seriously injure and kill thousands of farm and ranch residents each year. Along with the human suffering and material losses to farm and ranch families, accidents handicap our efforts to feed and clothe our people and help alleviate hunger in the world. Maximum production will be possible only when accident numbers are reduced to a minimum.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GERALD R. FORD, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate the week beginning July 25, 1975, as National Farm Safety Week. During this week and the ensuing year, I urge all who live and work on the Nation's farms and ranches to plan for accident prevention and to implement their plans with intelligence and resolve. Further, I invite all who work with and serve our agricultural producers to back these personal accident prevention efforts with every possible encouragement and educational aid. Any strategy to reap full production from our agricultural enterprises must include planning for the safety of those who live and work on our farms and ranches, not only when in the field but also when at home, at play or on the Nation's public roads.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this second day of April, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred seventy-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred ninety-ninth.

Gerald R. Ford

rules and regulations

This section of the FEDERAL REGISTER contains regulatory documents having general applicability and legal effect most of which are keyed to and codified in the Code of Federal Regulations, which is published under 50 titles pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 1510.

The Code of Federal Regulations is sold by the Superintendent of Documents. Prices of new books are listed in the first FEDERAL REGISTER issue of each month.

Title 7—Agriculture

CHAPTER IX—AGRICULTURAL MARKETING SERVICE (MARKETING AGREEMENTS AND ORDERS; FRUITS, VEGETABLES, NUTS), DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

[Lemon Reg. 686]

PART 910—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

Limitation of Handling

This regulation fixes the quantity of California-Arizona lemons that may be shipped to fresh market during the weekly regulation period April 6–12, 1975. It is issued pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and Marketing Order No. 910. The quantity of lemons so fixed was arrived at after consideration of the total available supply of lemons, the quantity of lemons currently available for market, the fresh market demand for lemons, lemon prices, and the relationship of season average returns to the parity price for lemons.

§ 910.986 Lemon Regulation 686.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and order No. 910, as amended (7 CFR Part 910), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) The need for this regulation to limit the quantity of lemons that may be marketed during the ensuing week stems from the production and marketing situation confronting the lemon industry.

(i) The committee has submitted its recommendation with respect to the quantity of lemons it deems advisable to be handled during the ensuing week. Such recommendation resulted from consideration of the factors enumerated in the order. The committee further reports the demand for lemons continues about the same as last week, with some supplies remaining from the holiday to be cleared up. Average f.o.b. price was $5.59 per carton the week ended March 29, 1975, compared to $5.63 per carton the previous week. Track and rolling supplies at 113 cars were down 25 cars from last week.

(ii) Having considered the recommendation and information submitted by the committee, and other available information, the Secretary finds that the quantity of lemons which may be handled should be fixed as hereinafter set forth.

(3) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this regulation until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this regulation is based became available and the time when this regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for lemons and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this regulation, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this regulation effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this regulation will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on April 1, 1975.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in California and Arizona which may be handled during the period April 6, 1975 through April 12, 1975, is hereby fixed at 235,000 cartons.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," and "carton(s)" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674))

Dated: April 2, 1975.

CHARLES R. BRADER,
Deputy Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

CHAPTER XVIII—FARMERS HOME ADMINISTRATION, DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

SUBCHAPTER F—SECURITY SERVICING AND LIQUIDATIONS

[FmHA Instruction 465.1]

PART 1872—REAL ESTATE SECURITY

Subpart A—Servicing and Liquidation of Real Estate Security for Loans to Individuals and Certain Note-Only Cases

On pages 1253 through 1273 of the FEDERAL REGISTER of January 7, 1975, there was published a notice of proposed rulemaking to revise Subpart A of 7 CFR Part 1872 (38 FR 19385). This revision prescribes policies and procedures for servicing and liquidation of real estate loans and certain note-only cases. More responsibility and approval authority have been placed on the State Director, District Director, and County Supervisor so that the number of referrals to the National Office will be reduced.

Interested persons were given 30 days to submit comments, suggestions, or objections regarding this proposed revised Subpart A. No comments, suggestions or objections have been received. In addition to provisions contained in the proposal the following changes are now being made in § 1872.18:

1. Section 1872.18(b)(8) is changed to include transfer of property improved with RH funds to the person assuming the RH loan.

2. Section 1872.18(c)(2) is changed to delete a portion of the third sentence in subdivision (C)(ii).

3. Section 1872.18(g)(8) is changed to indicate when a new mortgage will be taken on transfers.

Effective date. This revision is effective April 4, 1975.

Dated: March 28, 1975.

FRANK B. ELLIOTT,
Administrator,
Farmers Home Administration.

As revised, Subpart A reads as follows:

Subpart A—Servicing and Liquidation of Real Estate Security for Loans to Individuals and Certain Note-Only Cases

Sec.

1872.1 General.
1872.2 Preservation of security property and protection of liens.
1872.3 Subordination of FmHA mortgage to permit refinancing, extension, reamortization, increase in amount of existing prior lien, or to permit a prior lien.

AUTHORITY: (7 U.S.C. 1989); (42 U.S.C. 1480); (42 U.S.C.) (5 U.S.C. 301); delegation of authority by the Secretary of Agriculture, 7 CFR 2.23; delegation of authority by the Assistant Secretary for Rural Development, 7 CFR 2.70; delegations of authority by Director, OEO, 29 FR 14764, 33 FR 9850.

Subpart A—Servicing and Liquidation of Real Estate Security for Loans to Individuals and Certain Note-Only Cases

§ 1872.1 General.

(a) Purpose. The purpose of this subpart is to delegate authority and prescribe policies and procedures for servicing and liquidating real estate security for Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) loans to individuals including loans on leasehold interests, and certain note-only cases, except Rural Rental Housing (RRH) and Labor Housing (LH) loans to individuals operating under a loan agreement, or to Business and Industrial (B&I) loans. This subpart does not apply to loans subject to an FmHA Contract or Guarantee.

(b) General policies. Real estate security will be serviced in a manner to accomplish the loan objectives and protect the Government's financial interest. To accomplish these purposes, the real estate security will be serviced in accordance with the security instruments and related agreements, including any authorized modifications, provided the borrower has reasonable prospects of accomplishing the loan objectives, properly maintains and accounts for the security, and otherwise meets the loan obligation, including loan repayment, in a satisfactory manner. When the above conditions are not satisfied, or it is determined that the loans must be liquidated for other reasons, and sufficient legal grounds for liquidation exist, prompt action will be taken to liquidate the security to protect the Government's financial interest.

(c) Borrower's responsibility. Each borrower is responsible for repaying principal and interest on a timely basis pursuant to the loan documents, paying real estate taxes, providing adequate property insurance, maintaining, protecting, and accounting to the FmHA for all real estate security, and complying with other loan requirements.

(d) County Supervisor responsibilities. The County Supervisor is responsible for informing each borrower of his responsibilities in connection with the loan, seeing that the security is being properly maintained and accounted for, and for servicing the security in accordance with this Subpart. When a borrower fails to maintain, protect, or account for the security as required by the loan documents, or makes unauthorized disposition or use of any security, prompt action will be instituted to protect the FmHA's interest. The County Supervisor will obtain any legal advice he needs from the Office of the General Counsel (OGC) through the State Director. In cases that have been referred to the OGC for legal action, no further action will be taken by the County Supervisor or other MmHA personnel without prior clearance with the OGC. If the case has been referred to the U.S. Attorney, clearance with the U.S. Attorney will be obtained through the OGC.

(e) Servicing insured loans—(1) Servicing actions. Servicing actions for insured loans will be the same as for direct loans except that in voluntary conveyance, and foreclosure cases, when the insured note is not held in the county office, the Finance Office will be requested to obtain assignment of the insured loan to the insurance fund as provided in § 1872.19 and § 1872.20 respectively, and when an insured Farm Ownership (FO) mortgage running to the lender as mortgagee is not held by the FmHA under trust assignment, or declaration of trust, or in the insurance fund (called insured FO mortgage held by the lender in this subpart) and a written subordination or partial release or other servicing document is requested, the document will be executed by the holder on a form prepared or approved by the OGC. In such cases, contacts with the holder will be made by the State Director and the holder's execution of the document will constitute his consent.

(2) Execution of documents by Government. The County Supervisor is authorized to execute all necessary forms, satisfactions, releases, and other documents required to complete any transactions in this subpart after the action has been approved by the appropriate approval official. The documents will be executed in behalf of the United States in the following form:

(i) "United States of America," when the mortgage names the United States as mortgagee, or when a mortgage running to the lender is not under a trust or declaration of trust and the note is held by the insurance fund.

(ii) "United States of America, for Itself and as Trustee," when an FO mortgage is held by the FmHA under a trust assignment or declaration of trust, regardless of whether the note is held by a lender or by the insurance fund.

(f) Consent of lienholders. When this subpart requires the consent of other lienholders, before the FmHA consents to a transaction which affects the security of its lien, such consent will be obtained and furnished to the FmHA by the borrower. The consent will, unless otherwise provided in a state supplement, include agreement as to the disposition of any funds involved in the transaction.

(g) Definitions. Unless otherwise indicated, the term "FmHA loans," "FmHA accounts," "FmHA interests," "FmHA security," "FmHA debts," and similar terms apply to indebtedness owed to or insured by the United States of America acting through the FmHA, and to related security instruments. The term "note" includes any note, bond, assumption agreement, or other evidence of indebtedness. The term "mortgage" includes deeds of trust and similar real estate security instruments and chattel security instruments where appropriate.

"County Supervisor" means "County Supervisor" and "Assistant County Supervisor" when in the opinion of the County Supervisor the Assistant County Supervisor has been sufficiently trained to competently perform the required actions and has delegated such authority to the Assistant County Supervisor in writing.

§ 1872.2 Preservation of security property and protection of liens.

(a) Inspection of security. The County Supervisor will inspect farm real estate security every three years for accounts that are current. More frequent inspections will be made when a borrower is delinquent or otherwise in default or when problems exist involving the security property. Security on nonfarm tracts will be inspected only if liquidation action is likely to be taken, the property has been abandoned, when necessary to protect the interest of the Government, or whenever requested by the borrower. If all or part of the security is located in another County Office area, the County Supervisor for that area may be requested to inspect the property.

(b) Action by FmHA for account of borrower. When necessary to protect the interest of the Government, actions will be taken by FmHA for the account of the borrower as provided below. Any advances made for such purposes will be paid by Standard Form 1034, "Public Voucher for Purchases and Services Other Than Personal," and charged to the borrower's account.

(1) Operation of security by lessee or caretaker. When prior approval is obtained from the State Director in any case, or the District Director in nonforeclosure cases, the County Supervisor will take possession of the property and will enter into a lease or caretaker's agreement for the account of the borrower on the best terms obtainable but not to exceed one year. Lease or caretaker's agreements will not be used as an alternative for, or as a means of delaying prompt liquidation of the loan. Lease agreements will be entered into on Form FmHA 465–2, "Lease of Security Property," and caretaker's agreements on Form FmHA 465–3, "Caretaker's Agreement (Real Property Only)."

(2) Taxes and assessments. Real estate taxes and assessments will be handled in accordance with Part 1863 of this chapter.

(3) Insurance. For FmHA loans secured by liens on real estate, property insurance will be obtained and serviced in accordance with requirements for the kind of loan involved, Subpart A of Part 1806 of this chapter, and when appropriate Subpart B of Part 1806 of this chapter.

(4) Maintenance. In abandonment and pending liquidation cases, the State Director may authorize emergency repairs necessary to protect the interests of the FmHA. Such repairs will be properly documented on Form FmHA 424–1, "Development Plan." In all other cases, complete information concerning the borrower's failure to adequately maintain the security property and the State Director's recommendation for continuing the loan will be submitted to the National Office for prior authorization to advance funds for needed repairs. If there is a prior lien, expenditures for maintenance will not be made unless the prior lienholder refuses to make them. Evidence of his unwillingness to do so should be included in the case file.

(c) Actions by third parties which affect security. The borrower will be expected to protect his own interest in condemnation, trespass, quiet title and other cases affecting the security. Third party actions include court or other actions in which the security property is involved. When the County Supervisor learns of any action taken by third parties which materially affects the security interests of the Government, he will send complete information concerning the action, the County Office case file, and his recommendations to the State Director. When the Government or the County Supervisor is made a party to a court action, or when any suit is brought to condemn, impose a lien upon, or otherwise affect any part of the FmHA real estate security, information furnished by the County Supervisor will include a copy of the petition or complaint, if available to him, a statement of account, a current appraisal report, the name and address of borrower's attorney, if any, and any other pertinent information. The State Director will, in all litigation cases and in any other case where appropriate, after receiving the advice of the OGC, advise the County Supervisor of the actions to be taken to protect the Government's interest. When the State Director determines that foreclosure or other actions which would cause the borrower to lose possession of the property is imminent he may give consideration to making a subsequent loan, as appropriate, or approving a subordination to permit another lender to make a loan to satisfy such action when necessary to enable the borrower to retain the property, provided he has the ability and resources necessary to overcome the problems that caused the action, and, the third party agrees to postpone further action pending the processing of a subsequent loan or subordination. The State Director will notify the County Supervisor of the actions to be taken to protect the Government's interest.

(1) Sale under prior lien foreclosure. When a prior lien foreclosure sale is to be held and the State Director determines that a substantial net recovery on the Government's interest can be made by acquiring and reselling the security, he will authorize a bid in accordance with § 1872.20(b)(4)(vi) and (vii). Such bid may provide for payment of the prior lien indebtedness and costs incidental to the sale which must be paid from the sale proceeds. When under state law it is necessary, prior to such foreclosure, to acquire the prior lienholder's rights to protect the Government's junior lien interest, and in other situations when it is advantageous to the Government to pay the prior lien in full before the foreclosure sale, payment of the prior lien and required costs may be made with the advice of the OGC, provided the Government will obtain a greater recovery of the secured debt (not an inventory profit) than it could by bidding at the prior lien foreclosure sale, and the FmHA account after acquisition of the prior lien will be liquidated as provided in § 1872.17. Information clearly supporting the action as being to the Government's financial advantage must be documented and made as part of the file.

(i) Lienholder debt. The prior lienholder will be contacted to determine the amount of his indebtedness including the cost of foreclosure sale and whether payment by SF–1034 is acceptable to him if the Government is the successful bidder at the sale. If the prior lienholder requires a cash payment, SF–1034 will be processed in sufficient time for the County Supervisor to receive a U.S. Treasury check before the sale. Requesting the check, payment of the bid, and payment of any other costs by using SF–1034 will be in accordance with the applicable portions of § 1872.20. The costs will be charged to the borrower's account.

(ii) Title evidence. Title evidence will be obtained prior to making a bid on the property or acquiring the prior lienholders rights.

(iii) Assignment. An insured loan which is not held by the insurance fund will, whenever possible, be assigned to the insurance fund before the foreclosure sale. Otherwise, the assignment will be completed as soon as feasible after the foreclosure sale.

(iv) Final reporting. (A) When FmHA enters a bid or is the successful bidder at the foreclosure sale, reporting actions will be in accordance with § 1872.20 of this subpart.

(B) When the State Director determines that no bid will be entered by FmHA, the County Supervisor will nevertheless attend the sale and make a narrative report to the State Director outlining the results of the foreclosure sale and plans for future servicing of the account. A narrative report will be sent to the Finance Office when no recovery is made by the Government. If the Government is to rely on its redemption rights, that fact will be indicated in the report.

(v) Servicing Government redemption rights. If the Government did not have an opportunity or for other reasons did not protect its interest at the time of the foreclosure sale by a prior lienholder and has any redemption rights, the State Director will determine whether to redeem the property before the redemption period expires. Such determination will be made after considering all factors including the value of the property or changes in its value after the sale and any other pertinent information. This determination will be made at a time sufficiently prior to expiration of the redemption period to permit exercise of the Government's rights. If redemption of the property is appropriate, the State Director's recommendation, accompanied by complete information showing the basis for not acquiring the security at the sale and factors which justify redemption of the property, should be sent to the National Office for prior consideration. The report should be accompanied by an opinion of the OGC stating that the redemption is legally authorized. If it is decided not to redeem the property, the right of redemption may be sold for its value by the State Director. There is no authority to dispose of redemption rights without consideration.

(2) Foreclosure sale subject to FmHA mortgage. If a lien junior to the FmHA lien is foreclosed and the property is sold subject to the FmHA mortgage, the account will be transferred under § 1872.18, if appropriate. Otherwise, it will be liquidated as provided in § 1872.17.

(d) Divorce actions. When borrowers with loans on farm are involved in a divorce action, the County Supervisor will submit the case to the District Director after the final divorce decree has been granted for his advice or concurrence in servicing the account. When borrowers whose loans are secured by a mortgage on a nonfarm tract are involved in a divorce action, the County Office file will be submitted to the District Director for advice when the County Supervisor is uncertain of the servicing actions needed to protect the Government's interest or if continuation of the loan with the remaining borrower is not authorized. A subsequent loan made as a result of a divorce action will be handled in accordance with § 1872.18(b)(14).

(e) Abandonment. When a borrower has removed his personal property from the farm or home or the County Supervisor believes security property has been abandoned by the borrower, he will immediately check with the neighbors, relatives in the area, the local post office, utilities offices, schools, and other appropriate sources to determine if the family has moved from the area and, if so, whether a forwarding address can be determined. If the security property is not being maintained, and available information indicates that it has been abandoned, the County Supervisor will immediately report the facts to the State Director and request authority to take possession of the property pending liquidation, make emergency repairs needed to prevent further deterioration of the property, and to enter into a lease or caretaker's agreement on behalf of the borrower. If the security property is not in need of emergency repairs, Form FmHA 465–7, "Report on Real Estate Problem Case," will be prepared and submitted through the District Director to the State Director for his consideration.

§ 1872.3 Subordination of FmHA mortgage to permit refinancing, extension, reamortization, increase in amount of existing prior lien, or to permit a prior lien.

(a) Reamortizing existing FmHA debts. Existing FmHA loans may be reamortized to permit a loan of another lender in lieu of a subsequent loan of the kind involved with prior approval of the District Director or State Director as applicable. The reamortization of each existing loan may be made only within the remaining period of that loan. Authority to reamortize an account will be granted when it is determined that the borrower cannot reasonably be expected to meet installments due unless the account is reamortized. When a loan is reamortized it will be processed in accordance with Subpart A of Part 1861 of this chapter.

(b) Use of other lenders' funds to reduce FmHA debts. In connection with a subordination primarily for other purposes, funds of another lender may be used to pay on an FO, Soil and Water (SW), Recreation Loan (RL), Operating Loan (OL), or Emergency loan (EM) only to the extent that is necessary to accomplish the objectives of the FmHA loan involved and to establish the borrower's operations on a sound basis within his ability to pay. Also, when a borrower owes any of the aforementioned loans and a Rural Housing (RH) loan, the funds of another lender may be used to pay the amount delinquent on the RH loan or to refinance the total RH debt when necessary. It is not intended that the FmHA lien will be subordinated for removal of a delinquency that the borrower could be expected to pay within five years. It is also the policy to only permit payment of that portion of the FmHA debt that is necessary to avoid failure in connection with obtaining additional resources essential to success. This authority will be used in those cases that will provide for meeting the FmHA objectives as specified in § 1872.1(b) of this subpart. In such cases, the narrative justification and the case file will be sent to the National Office prior to development of the subordination.

(c) Conditions for subordination. A subordination may be granted subject to the following conditions:

(1) Refinancing. The borrower is unable to refinance the FmHA debt on terms which he can reasonably be expected to meet;

(2) Objectives. The transaction will further the objectives for which the FmHA loan was made;

(3) Prior lien. The terms and conditions of the prior lien will be such that the borrower can reasonably be expected to meet them, as well as all other debts;

(4) Market value. The amount of any prior lien plus the balance of the FmHA debt will not exceed the market value of the security; except for an FO, RL, Land Conservation and Development (LCD), or SW loan, it will not exceed the market value of the security or $225,000, whichever is less. When the FmHA indebtedness was not fully secured by the market value of the security before the transaction, a subordination may be granted only if the market value of the total security will be increased by an amount at least equal to the amount of the additional advance. The $225,000 limitation will not apply to loans if, because of fire, flood, windstorm, or other casualties, the subordination is necessary for land development or for the repair or replacement of essential buildings to put the property in livable and operable condition or to protect it against further deterioration. However, the subordination will not permit the total indebtedness to exceed the present market value of the security;

(5) Stock. An assignment of the beneficial interest in any stock required in connection with a loan will be obtained as collateral security, when possible, and when needed for security; and

(6) Security. The FmHA secured indebtedness after the subordination will be adequately secured or will not be adversely affected by the transaction.

(d) Purposes of subordination. A subordination may be granted to:

(1) Refinance, extend, or reamortize. Refinance, extend, or reamortize an existing prior lien provided the amount of the indebtedness secured by the prior lien, as of the date of the transaction, is not increased by more than reasonable costs incident to loan closing, plus funds for the purchase of any required stock.

(2) Increase. Increase the amount of prior lien or permit a new prior lien when the funds will be used:

(i) Nonfarm tract. On a nonfarm tract securing RH loans for purposes for which RH nonfarm loans are authorized subject to the limitations that would be applicable if an RH loan were made. When the mortgage includes nonfarm property larger than a minimum adequate site, the subordination may be granted on the excess land for purposes not inconsistent with the purposes for which the loan was made.

(ii) Farm. On a farm which secures an FO loan only or an FO and any other type FmHA loan, for any purpose for which an FO loan can be made. Also, an RL, SW, RH, or EM loan may be subordinated for development or enlargement purposes and for any purpose for which that type loan may be made. However, if the RH loan was made to finance a dwelling and the loan is secured only by the dwelling and dwelling site, the RH loan will be subordinated only for purposes for which an RH nonfarm loan may be made.

(3) Requirements. Any transaction approved under §1872.3(d)(2) (i) or (ii) must meet the following additional requirements:

(i) The proposed use of the funds will improve the borrower's ability to repay the FmHA loan(s) or is necessary to place the operation on a sound basis.

(ii) In the case of either an FO loan or OL loan, the use of the funds will not result in the farm being larger than a family farm or family farming operation.

(iii) Any proposed development will be planned and performed in accordance with Part 1804 of this chapter or in a manner directed by the creditor which reasonably attains the objectives of Part 1804 of this chapter and is concurred in by the State Director.

(iv) Funds to be used for development or to acquire land will be handled as prescribed for FO loan funds in Part 1803 of this chapter, except that if the creditor will not permit the use of a supervised bank account, arrangements satisfactory to the FmHA which will assure that the funds will be spent for the planned purposes may be substituted.

(v) In cases of land purchase or exchange of property, the FmHA will obtain a valid mortgage on such acquired land. Title clearance and loan closing will be required the same as for an initial or subsequent FO loan as appropriate. The mortgage will be recorded when the subordination is delivered to the other lender, or immediately after the other lender records its mortgage.

(e) Request for subordination. When a borrower requests the FmHA to subordinate a mortgage Form FmHA 465–1, "Application for Partial Release, Subordination, or Consent," will be prepared. If an agreement to give notice of foreclosure is required for approval of an initial FmHA loan, an agreement with a new prior lienholder will be obtained as required in § 1807.2(f)(5) of this chapter. In case of an insured FO mortgage held by the lender, the holder's consent will be obtained in accordance with § 1872.1(e). Any junior lienholder's consent to the transaction and use of the proceeds will be obtained as provided in § 1872.1(f) of this subpart.

(f) Appraisal. A current appraisal report will be prepared when property is to be purchased or exchanged, or when the existing appraisal report is more than two years old or is inadequate to make the determination required in this subpart. When an appraisal is required by FmHA in connection with a subordination being granted to the Federal Land Bank (FLB), the appraiser may recommend, or the loan approval official may find, the market value of the total security to be equal to the market value of the real estate plus the value of the FLB stock. This determination will be recorded on a separate sheet and attached to the appraisal report. When a subordination is granted in connection with an FO, SW, or RL loan to permit a loan by another lender, the FmHA appraiser is authorized to use the appraisal report prepared for the other lender in determining the recommended market value of the property in accordance with Subpart A of Part 1809 of this chapter.

(g) Approval authority. The County Supervisor and District Director are authorized to approve transactions under § 1872.3 when the total indebtedness against the security after the transaction is completed does not exceed $100,000 and $160,000 respectively. The County Supervisor, however, may not approve transactions that involve refinancing of an FmHA debt. The State Director is authorized to approve transactions that exceed the approval authority of the County Supervisor and District Director. When a new appraisal is required for a farm, the employee who appraises the property cannot approve the transaction. Also, the Assistant County Supervisor may not approve a transaction when the appraisal is made by the County Supervisor in the same office.

(h) Processing. When the approval of the transaction by the State Director is required or when the County Supervisor or District Director desires advice before his approval of the transaction, the borrower's case folder with current documents to support the applicable determinations such as, where appropriate, Forms FmHA 431–2, "Farm and Home Plan," FmHA 431–1, "Long-Time Farm and Home Plan," FmHA 431–3, "Family Budget," FmHA 422–1, "Appraisal Report (Farm Tract)," FmHA 422–8, "Property Information and Appraisal Report—Rural Housing Nonfarm Tract," FmHA 440–2, "County Committee Certification or Recommendation," other necessary forms, and Form FmHA 465–1 will be sent to the State Office. Form FmHA 440–2 will be completed in all cases involving a subordination for the purchase of additional land except when the borrower is indebted only for a section 502 or 504 RH loan. After approval of the transaction, it will be closed in accordance with State Supplements to the maximum extent possible as provided in § 1872.25. However, when legal advice on an individual case is necessary, Form FmHA 465–1, any subordination form furnished in connection therewith, the original or a copy of the FmHA mortgage, the refinancing mortgage or agreement, and related documents will be submitted to the OGC for review and preparation of the necessary instruments and closing instructions. The documents and closing instructions will be sent to the County Office. If the signature of the State Director is required on some of the instruments, the docket and closing instructions will be routed through the State Office. The transaction will be completed in accordance with the closing instructions.

§ 1872.4 Consent by partial release, subordination, or otherwise, to sale or other disposition of portion of or interest in security, except leases.

The consent of FmHA or other lienholders may be in the form of a partial release, subordination, or other form of a partial release, subordination, or other form of written consent, depending on the circumstances. The consent authorized herein is applicable to the disposition of security or an interest in the security rather than to a release of security granted to a mortgagor upon his reduction of the debt from regular or other personal funds. A formal release may not be delivered for 15 days after the payment is received unless such payment is made in the form of cash, money order, certified check, or check from a reputable lending agency. Releases not delivered will usually be voided 30 days after notification to the requesting party that the release is available.

(a) Provisions of FmHA mortgages. In all FmHA mortgages except RH loan mortgages prepared before October 1, 1950, and a few OL, EM, Special Livestock (SL), and Water Facilities (WF) loans mortgages, the borrower has agreed not to sell, transfer, assign, mortgage, or otherwise encumber the security or any portion of or interest in it, without the prior written consent of the mortgagee. Furthermore, even in the case of the few RH, OL, EM, SL, and WF loan mortgages not requiring FmHA consent, any property, or any part thereof or interest therein which is subject to the FmHA mortgage and which is disposed of by the borrower without consent remains subject to the mortgage lien. In all FmHA mortgages the borrower expressly agrees not to engage, without prior consent, in certain specified transactions, including the cutting or removal of timber, or mining or removal of gravel, oil, gas, coal, or other minerals, except small amounts used by the borrower for ordinary domestic purposes.

(b) Consent and partial release and subordination forms. When FmHA consent is requested, it will be given by approving a completed Form FmHA 465–1 if the transaction meets the conditions of § 1872.4(c). Also, when requested, the FmHA will give a written partial release or subordination on Form FmHA 460–1, "Partial Release," approved by the OGC. Written consent of any prior or junior lienholders will be obtained by the borrower and delivered to the FmHA if any proceeds are not to be applied on liens in accordance with their priorities. When an insured FO mortgage is held by the lender, his consent will be obtained only if a written partial release, subordination, or other written servicing document is requested. Any such consent will be obtained in accordance with § 1872.1(f).

(c) Conditions of FmHA consent: FmHA consent may be granted and a partial release or subordination executed if the consideration is adequate for the security property being disposed of, or rights granted; orderly repayment of the FmHA indebtedness will not be impaired; the transaction will not interfere with successful operation of any farming enterprise or other enterprise providing repayment ability of the borrower; the market value of the security is adequate to secure the unpaid balance of the FmHA debts, or if the market value of the security before the transaction was inadequate to fully secure the FmHA debts, the FmHA's security interest is not adversely affected; and the provisions of § 1872.4 (d) and (e) and § 1872.11 are complied with. Exceptions to the foregoing sentence are provided in § 1872.4(c) (1) and (2).

(1) Condemnations. The conditions of consent as stated in paragraph (c) that the consideration is adequate for the security property being disposed of, or rights granted, and that orderly repayment of the FmHA indebtedness will not be impaired will not apply in condemnation cases after final judgment or award which is not appealed.

(2) Costs. In any case of consent, partial release, or subordination the County Supervisor may authorize the borrower to use a portion of the proceeds to pay customary incidental costs appropriate to the transaction and reasonable in amount which the borrower cannot arrange to pay from personal funds or cannot have the purchaser pay, including real estate taxes which must be paid to consumate the transaction. Such costs may, for example, include the following in justifiable cases: Costs of title examination, surveys, abstracts, title insurance, reasonable attorney's fees, and recording fees, reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs in condemnation cases, costs necessary to determine the reasonableness of an offer or asking price, such as fees for appraisal of minerals, land, or timber when the necessary appraisal cannot be obtained without costs, real estate brokers' commissions when a borrower can reasonably expect to obtain proceeds in an amount at least equal to the commission in excess of what could otherwise be obtained, or additional income tax which the borrower is required to pay for the year because of the capital gain or mineral royalty payments on the transaction. The amount of the estimated tax on the particular transaction will be deposited in the supervised bank account. Any deposited funds not needed to pay the borrower's adjusted tax liability for the year of the transaction will immediately be applied on the account as an extra payment. In any state in which it is necessary to obtain the insured note from the lender to present to the recorder before a release of a portion of the land from the mortgage, the borrower must pay any costs for postage and insurance of the note while in transit. The County Supervisor will advise the borrower when he requests a partial release that he must pay such costs. If the borrower is unable to pay the costs from personal funds, they may be deducted from the sales proceeds. The amount of the charge will be based on the statement of actual costs furnished by the lender. A subordination approval will also include additional advances by the lender as necessary for taxes, insurance, emergency repairs for maintenance, and liquidation expenses.

(3) Appraisals. When the official authorized to approve the transaction is uncertain whether a proposed consideration is adequate or for any other reason considers an appraisal necessary to complete Form FmHA 465–1, or when the transaction involves more than $5,000, a new appraisal report will be obtained in accordance with the applicable appraisal procedure. However, a new appraisal report need not be obtained if there is an appraisal report not over two years old in the case file which will permit the official authorized to approve the transaction to make the proper determination of the market value of the property being retained and the market value of the portion to be released. When a new appraisal is not required, the appraiser will indicate his determination of values and the basis for it in the comments section of the existing appraisal report. The notation will be initialed and dated. When a new appraisal report is required, it will be completed to show the present market value of the property being retained. Also, the present market value of the property being released will be shown under the comments section of the same appraisal report. Information regarding sales of comparable properties used in arriving at the present market value of the property being released will be shown in the comments section or on an attached sheet.

(i) Stationary units. If timber or minerals including sand, gravel, or stone, which appear to be worth more than $2,000 are to be sold on the basis of the timber stand or the mineral deposit rather than the units to be removed, the borrower will be encouraged to obtain the assistance of a qualified technician other than an FmHA employee to advise him of the quality or value of the timber or minerals and the manner in which they should be sold. Generally, such assistance can be obtained from State or Federal employees who are located in the area.

(ii) Units removed. When timber or minerals, including sand, gravel, or stone, are to be sold on the basis of the units to be removed, or when an easement or a right-of-way is to be sold or granted, the employee authorized to make the appraisal may insert, date, and initial a notation on the existing appraisal report instead of making a new appraisal report. The notation should show the unit value of timber or minerals, or the value of the easement or right-of-way, based on the consideration being paid for similar items in the area, and the manner in which the remaining property will be affected. If the market value of the remaining property is significantly decreased, a market value appraisal of the remaining property usually will be required.

(d) Authority of the County Supervisor and District Director. The County Supervisor and District Director are authorized to approve transactions under § 1872.4, except those specifically reserved to the State Director as set forth in § 1872.4(e), when the total indebtedness against the security does not exceed $100,000 and $160,000, respectively. Also, when liquidation in accordance with § 1872.17 is not pending, the County Supervisor is authorized to approve transactions when the entire proceeds (other than costs authorized in § 1872.4(c)(2), or normal income as defined in § 1872.11(b) will be applied on the liens in the order of their priority. The employee who appraises the property cannot approve the transaction. For example, if the Assistant County Supervisor makes the appraisal, the transaction may be approved by the County Supervisor; if the County Supervisor makes the appraisal, the transactions may be approved by the District Director. In case of a three percent loan for forestry purposes, the application for consent or release involving the harvest or sale of forest products will be forwarded to the District Director for approval if the harvest or sale is not in strict accordance with provisions of the initially-approved forestry plan, future repayments on the three percent advance are scheduled on any basis other than equal annual installments, there is a lien on the forest land prior to the lien of the FmHA, or there is a delinquency on any FmHA real estate loan. The County Supervisor and District Director are also authorized to approve transactions involving exchange of all or part of the security for other real estate, use of all or part of the proceeds for development or enlargement or as provided in § 1872.4(d)(3), sale of a portion of the security, except security for RH loans on nonfarm tracts, for its market value and on terms of not less than 10 percent down, and payments not to exceed 10 annual installments of principal plus interest at not less than eight percent per annum or the rate on the borrower's note, whichever is greater, and sale of a portion of the security for RH loans on nonfarm tracts for its market value on terms of not less than 10 percent down, and payments not to exceed five annual installments of principal plus interest at not less than eight percent per annum or the rate on the borrower's note, whichever is greater, provided: The Government's security rights, including the right to foreclose, are not impaired, the downpayment and subsequent payments are applied to the FmHA debts, prior liens, or are used as authorized in this Subpart, any security instruments the borrower obtained in the transactions are assigned to the FmHA, the property sold is not released prior to full payment of the account or receipt of the sale price with proper application or release of such proceeds, and unless appropriate reamortization is made in accordance with § 1861.9, Subpart A of this Chapter, and the borrower understands and agrees that such sale proceeds will not affect his primary and continued obligation for making payments under the note. In any case in which the proceeds under § 1872.11(a) will not be applied on prior liens or FmHA accounts secured by real estate liens, the following requirements must be complied with:

(1) Development or enlargement. Use of any proceeds for development or enlargement must be necessary to improve the borrower's debt-paying ability and to place his operation on a sound basis or otherwise further the objectives of the loan. In the case of an FO or OL loan, the use of proceeds for such purposes will not result in making the farm larger than a family farm.

(2) Development. Any proposed development work will be in accordance with Part 1804 of this chapter.

(3) Inadequately secured loans. When FmHA loans secured by a lien on real estate will be adequately secured after the transaction, proceeds not to exceed an amount equal to the equity in the security may, with the consent of other lienholders, be applied to inadequately secured FmHA loans, to reduce them to the extent that the security is adequately or up to $2,500 may be used for development of nonowned land essential to the borrower's operation whether or not it is taken as security for the loan. If funds are used on nonowned land it must be determined that the improvements are essential to his operation or repayment ability and that the borrower has tenure arrangements that will justify the use of such proceeds on that land. Proceeds released for payments on other

FmHA debts will be applied as extra payments unless the District Director approves a specific written request from the borrower to apply proceeds on a delinquency or currently maturing installment because the borrower is otherwise unable to make such payments. That part of the proceeds not applied to any prior lien or inadequately secured FmHA loan must be applied to the FmHA lien on the security property of the highest priority if not used to develop or enlarge the security.

(4) Funds. Funds to be used for development or enlargement will be handled in the manner prescribed in Part 1803 of this Chapter.

(e) State Director's authority. The State Director is authorized to approve transactions (1) that exceed the approval authority of the County Supervisor and District Director, or (2) involving an easement or fee title right-of-way granted or conveyed without monetary compensation or for a token consideration if the Government's security interests are not adversely affected.

(f) Processing. When the approval of a transaction by the State Director is required, or the County Supervisor or District Director desires advice in connection with his approval of the transaction, the borrower's case folder, Form FmHA 465–1, and any other information pertinent to the transaction will be sent to the State Office. In an exchange of security, the provisions of this subpart applicable to a sale of a portion of the security will apply to the property being released. The provisions of Subpart A of Part 1821 of this chapter applicable to the purchase of land will apply to land being acquired in connection with FO, RL, and SW loans. The provisions of that subpart applicable to the title clearance, security, and appraisals will apply to lands being acquired in connection with other loans.

§ 1872.5 Subordination of FmHA real estate mortgages to easements to the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife.

(a) General. The policies and procedures for subordinating FmHA mortgages on wetlands on which the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife obtain easements for waterfowl nesting habitats are set forth herein. Appendix I "Memorandum of Understanding Between Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife and the Farmers Home Administration," outlines the procedure to follow in processing of such subordinations.

(b) Authorization. When a request for a subordination is received from the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, the County Supervisor will handle the request in accordance with the steps outlined in Appendix I and applicable portions of §1872.3.

§ 1872.6 Subordination of FmHA's lien to the Commodity Credit Corporation's (CCC's) security interest taken for loans for farm storage and drying equipment.

The CCC makes loans under its Farm Storage and Drying Equipment Loan Program for the purchase, construction, erection, remodeling, or installation of either farm storage or drying equipment or both and requires that a loan of $10,000 or more, or any loan at the discretion of the approving committee, be secured by a lien on the real estate. When the CCC proposes to make a loan to an FmHA borrower and requests a subordination of the FmHA real estate lien, the request will be handled on an individual case basis in accordance with the authorizations and requirements of §1872.3 of this subpart. A borrower's request for the FmHA's consent to severance agreement or other similar instrument for an item or items to be acquired with a CCC loan will be handled in accordance with §1872.10 of this subpart.

§ 1872.7 Consent to junior liens.

(a) Policy. As a general policy, FmHA borrowers will be discouraged from giving junior liens on real estate securing an FmHA loan to other creditors. When consent is requested by a borrower, the County Supervisor may consent by executing Form FmHA 465–1 or other form approved by OGC for use in the state provided: The loan is necessary for the successful operation of the borrower's security property or because of his financial condition; the terms of the junior lien debt are such that its payment will not likely jeopardize payment of the FmHA loan; any operating plans made with the junior lienholder are consistent with any plans made by the FmHA with the borrower; and the junior creditor agrees in writing that he will not foreclose his mortgage before a discussion with the County Supervisor and after giving a reasonable specified period of notice to the FmHA.

(b) Servicing action. When a junior lien is placed on any property without FmHA's consent, and consent may not be granted in accordance with the policy indicated in § 1872.7(a), the FmHA may continue with the loan as long as the borrower makes payments on FmHA loans as agreed, properly maintains the security, and meets all other conditions of the loan. The County Supervisor will continue to service the loan to protect the Government's security interest.

§ 1872.8 Consent to borrower's granting lease of security.

When consent to a lease is required by the security instruments and a borrower requests FmHA's consent to lease all or a portion of the security, or the County Supervisor discovers that a borrower is leasing the security without consent, Form FmHA 465–1 will be prepared when the County Supervisor recommends approval of the lease. That form will show the terms of the proposed lease and will specify the use of proceeds including any proceeds to be released to the borrower. When another lienholder's mortgage requires consent to lease, his consent will be obtained as provided in § 1871.1(f). FmHA consent to the lease may be granted on the basis of the situation at the time of the proposed action when: the lease or its terms will not adversely affect the repayment of the loan or the Government's rights under the mortgage, leasing is not an alternative to, or means of, delaying liquidation action, the operation of all or a portion of the security under the lease will not adversely affect any applicable crop allotments, the lease and use of any proceeds will further the objectives of the loan, liquidation is not pending and rental income sufficient to make regular payments under the note, pay taxes and insurance, and maintain the security is assigned to FmHA for these purposes unless such payments are otherwise reasonably assured, the lease is advantageous to the borrower and is not to the Government's disadvantage, and if foreclosure action has been approved, consent to lease and use of proceeds will be granted only under directions by the OGC. In cases where the borrower leases property without consent and consent may not be granted in accordance with the above provisions, or when further approval of a lease cannot be granted in accordance with the conditions of this subpart, the case will be serviced promptly in accordance with § 1872.17 of this subpart unless the borrower corrects the violation. Consent to lease will be subject to the additional conditions specified below for each kind of lease:

(a) Leases of security for agricultural purposes—(1) County Supervisor's authority. When liquidation in accordance with § 1872.17 is not pending, the County Supervisor is authorized to approve annual leases on all or part of the security for borrowers with:

(i) RH or LH loans on farms, or SW, RL, or Other Real Estate (ORE) loans. For the purposes of this subpart, leases for an annual term with option to the lessor to renew for a longer term and to cancel at least at the end of each year, will be considered annual leases. The FmHA will reserve the right to withdraw the consent at the end of any year should liquidation or other servicing action be required by FmHA.

(ii) OL or FO loans. OL or FO loans provided:

(A) Failure to personally operate the security to be leased is due to old age, poor health, or death in the family and the borrower or his family will continue to occupy the security as a home, or

(B) The part of the security to be leased is insignificant to total farm acreage and is surplus to the borrower's need, for example, a surplus building, wasteland, or a few acres of land inconveniently located or otherwise unsuitable and unnecessary for the successful operation of the farm by the borrower. This will also include the leasing of small allotment acreages that are not feasible for the borrower to operate because of special equipment needs, additional labor requirements, or other economical or management reasons. It must be determined that the leasing of these allotted acres will not reduce the borrower's operation to less than that of a family farm. This is not intended to cover substantial amounts of allotted crop acres that are an important part of the total farming operation. It must also be determined that the alloted acreage in question cannot be economically disposed of by the borrower in accordance with § 1872.4 and § 1872.9 of this subpart.

(2) State Director's authority. The State Director is authorized to approve leases when the following conditions exist:

(i) Adverse conditions. Failure to personally occupy as his home or operate EM, FO, or OL security is due to conditions beyond the borrower's control and it is determined that the borrower will reoccupy and resume personal operation of the property within a reasonable period of time generally not to exceed five (5) years.

(ii) Pending liquidation. Liquidation in accordance with § 1872.17 is pending and the lease is to protect the Government's interests. Form FmHA 465–2 will be used and the rental income will be applied to the FmHA secured debt as extra payments or to prior lien(s). However, when the value of the property is adequate to cover the secured debts and foreclosure action has not been approved, the proceeds may be applied on unsecured or undersecured FmHA debts.

(iii) Time limit. Consent is not granted for a period in excess of one year unless a lease with longer terms is determined to be in the best interest of the borrower and the Government. Any lease for a term of more than five (5) years will require prior concurrence of the National Office.

(3) District Director's authority. The District Director is authorized to approve leases on the same basis as the State Director provided consent is not given for more than four (4) years without further authorization from the State Office.

(b) Lease of nonfarm tracts. When a borrower who received an RH loan on a nonfarm tract no longer occupies the dwelling purchased, improved, or constructed and given as security for the RH loan, the loan will be serviced promptly for liquidation in accordance with § 1872.17, unless it is determined that the borrower vacated the dwelling for reasons beyond his control and intends personally to reoccupy the dwelling within a reasonable period usually not to exceed three (3) years.

(1) County Supervisor's limit. When it is determined that a borrower's request for permission to lease his RH security meets the conditions outlined above, the County Supervisor is authorized to approve the leasing for two (2) consecutive one-year periods.

(2) District Director's limit. When the borrower does not resume personal occupancy of the dwelling within two (2) years, the County Supervisor may submit the case file, Form FmHA 465–1, and his recommendations to the District Director who may consent to annual leasing for an additional two-year period or may require immediate liquidation. When the borrower is willing to voluntarily liquidate the account, or if foreclosure is contemplated, the District Director is authorized to approve the leasing pending liquidation. If the lease is for a term of more than one (1) month it will provide for cancellation by 30 days' notice.

(3) State Director's authority. Requests for leases exceeding the time limits above may be submitted to the State Director for consideration. However, any lease for a term of more than five (5) years will require the prior concurrence of the national office.

(c) Leases of security under conditions other than specified in § 1872.8 (a), (b), (d), or (e). The State Director is authorized to grant consent to the lease of the security provided:

(1) Conditions. The lease is advantageous to the Government and the borrower and will not adversely affect the borrower's personal operation of the farm securing any FmHA loan or the occupancy of the dwelling by a borrower with an RH loan on a nonfarm tract, and the land or building to be leased is surplus to the borrower's needs.

(2) Time limit. Consent for lease is not granted for more than five (5) years without prior approval of the National Office. In any such case recommended by the State Director, the County Office case file, the justification for a lease for a longer period of time, and the reasons why a lease is preferable to disposition of the property will be sent to the National Office for consideration.

(d) Mineral leases. The County Supervisor, unless restricted by a State Supplement, or liquidation is pending, and the State Director in any case, are each authorized to consent on behalf of the Government and to execute recordable forms and such other forms as may be necessary, under the following conditions:

(1) Compensation damages. The lessee agrees in the lease or elsewhere, or is liable without any agreement, to pay adequate compensation for any damage to the real estate surface, improvements, and growing crops. When an oil and gas lease provides for payment of damage to growing crops and contains other provisions which are generally included in so-called "standard" lease forms that are used in the area, the State Director may determine that it will not be necessary to obtain any additional agreement for payment of damages if the value of the security likely will not be lessened. Damage compensation will be assigned to the FmHA by the use of Form FmHA 443–16, "Assignment of Income from Real Estate Security," or to the prior lienholder. However, the crop damage payment liability requirement may be omitted or deleted from the lease on small nonfarm tract cases.

(2) Assignments. Royalty payments are adequate and are assigned on Form FmHA 443–16.

(3) Lease amount. The bonus and rentals are at least equal to any minimum amounts established by a State Supplement. All or a portion of delay rentals and bonus payments may be assigned on Form FmHA 433–16 if needed for protection of the Government's interests.

(4) Lease forms. The lease, subordination, or consent form is prepared by or is acceptable to the OGC. If standard lease forms are acceptable, the use of such forms may be authorized in a State Supplement.

(e) Naval stores leases. The County Supervisor, unless liquidation is pending, and the State Director in any case, are each authorized to execute Form FmHA 465–1 giving FmHA consent to the lease of naval stores and to execute such other forms on behalf of the FmHA as may be necessary. No lease may be consented to unless it requires operation consistent with approved naval stores practices in the community and any State Supplement on this subject. When naval stores are not managed or operated by the borrower, an assignment of the proceeds will be taken on Form FmHA 443–16.

§ 1872.9 Transfer of upland cotton, peanut or tobacco allotments.

(a) General. Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) regulations pursuant to approved legislation permits the transfer of upland cotton, peanut, or tobacco allotments by one or more of the following transactions: Sale, lease, or transfer by the owner to another farm owned or controlled by him. These regulations require, among other things, that no allotment may be transferred from a farm which is subject to a mortgage or other lien, unless the transfer is agreed to by the lienholders. It is the policy of the FmHA to approve the transfer of any crop allotments permitted by the ASCS regulations if the conditions and requirements of this subpart can be met. FmHA personnel should familiarize themselves with the state ASCS policies and requirements concerning the sale, lease, or transfer of allotments to assure compliance with established FmHA policies and servicing of security.

(b) Authorization. The County Supervisor is authorize to approve a transfer of upland cotton, peanut, or tobacco allotment by execution of a completed Form FmHA 465–1. He is also authorized to execute the lienholder or mortgagee agreement on appropriate ASCS forms provided for this purpose for those cases in which he approves a transfer.

(c) Transfer by sale. Crop allotments enhance the value of a farm mortgaged to the FmHA and constitute basic security for the FmHA loan. Accordingly, when a borrower whose farm is mortgaged to the FmHA inquires about the sale of any of his allotted acres or requests the FmHA to sign the required lienholder or mortgagee agreement, the request will be treated the same as for a sale of a portion of the security and approval of the sale can be granted only in accordance with the applicable conditions and requirements of § 1872.4 of this subpart. The sale proceeds may be used only as authorized in that subpart after obtaining the concurrence of the employee authorized to permit use of the proceeds for other than application on the secured debt.

(d) Transfer of allotment by lease. The County Supervisor's authority to approve a lease of all or a portion of an allotment for a one-year period is contingent upon compliance with the policy outlined in the introductory statement of § 1872.8, except that the third example of item when FmHA consent may be granted will not be applicable. If the one-year lease is approved, the lease proceeds may be used as normal income. Leases for a period of more than one (1) year will be granted only with the concurrence of the District Director. When a lease is for more than one (1) year, an assignment of the rental proceeds should be obtained for application on the appropriate FmHA debt in accordance with the distribution formula for regular payments as outlined in § 1861.3 of Subpart A, Part 1861, Subchapter E of this chapter.

(e) Transfer of allotment by owner to other land owned or controlled by him. A transfer by an owner to land owned or controlled by him is normally interpreted by the ASCS as a permanent transfer and can be avoided only by stipulating in the mortgagee approval that the transfer is to be considered as a lease for the appropriate number of years. This type of transfer will be approved only as a lease under conditions outlined in § 1872.9(d) to assure that the crop allotment on the security is not adversely affected.

§ 1872.10 Severance agreements.

When a borrower requests the FmHA's consent to a severance agreement or other instrument of similar effect under which an item or items to be acquired by him through other credit will not become a part of the real estate securing the FmHA debt, such as a silo, storage bin, bulk milk tank, irrigation or a nonfarm enterprise facility or recreational equipment, or other income-producing facilities, and such equipment or facilities will be subject to a chattel lien, Form FmHA 465–1 will be completed. The County Supervisor, if the value of the item does not exceed $25,000, the District Director, if the value of the item does not exceed $50,000, and the State Director in any case, are each authorized to give FmHA consent by executing Form FmHA 465–1 and any necessary severance agreements provided the following determination are made: The financing arrangements are sound and proper, the transaction will not adversely affect the FmHA's security position and will be within the borrower's debt-paying ability, and the facility is not in excess of the borrower's needs, is modest in cost and design, and is otherwise in line with FmHA financing policies. In any case in excess of the County Supervisor's approval authority, the County Supervisor will forward to the District Director the Form FmHA 465–1, the borrower's case file, and his recommendations regarding the request. The OGC will be requested to approve a severance agreement submitted by the borrower not previously approved for use in the State and, when necessary, issue closing instructions. The State Director may request the OGC to prepare a severance agreement instrument for use in the State.

§ 1872.11 Disposition of proceeds of partial release, subordination, and consent transactions.

(a) Payment on FmHA account or prior lien or use for development or enlargement. Proceeds from the sale of a portion of the security, the granting of an easement or right-of-way, proceeds from leases referred to in §1872.8(a)(2)(ii), royalties and damage compensation payments, except for compensation for damages for growing crops, the sale of timber that clearly depletes the Government's security, other than that harvested on a selective cutting basis as authorized in §1872.11(b), naval stores production not managed by or under the supervision of the borrower, and all similar transactions will be either released for payment on the prior lien, applied as an extra payment on the FmHA loan as provided in Subpart A, Part 1861, Subchapter E of this chapter, used for replacement or repair of damages for which compensation was paid, or used as provided in § 1872.4(c)(2) and § 1872.4(d) of this subpart.

(b) Normal income. Proceeds from leases authorized in §1872.8, except lease proceeds referred to in §1872.8(a)(2)(ii), bonuses and rentals under mineral leases, proceeds from the sale of timber that is harvested on a selective cutting basis that does not deplete the Government's security, or from naval stores production managed by or under the supervision of the borrower, compensation to the borrower for growing crops, labor, or services in cutting, loading, and hauling of security, and all similar transactions will be considered as normal income and may be used for the same purposes as for normal income security as outlined in Subpart A, Part 1871, Subchapter F of this chapter. When forestry products income is received by the borrower, even though it is considered normal income, the County Supervisor must determine that amount of such proceeds that may be released to the borrower. In making such a determination, protection of the Government's security position must be fully considered in light of the amount of forest resources remaining, the unpaid balance of the loan, and any other debts owed the FmHA.

(c) Assignment. Any proceeds to be paid to the FmHA subsequent to the time of closing the transaction and not otherwise assigned or made payable to the FmHA will be assigned by the use of Form FmHA 443–16 or other assignment form approved by the OGC.

§ 1872.12 Assignment and release of soil bank or similar program payments.

The County Supervisor may take an assignment on income to be received under a Soil Bank or similar contract to protect the financial interest of the Government or to facilitate loan servicing. The assignment of all or a portion of the income from the assignment may be released to the borrower by the County Supervisor when not to the financial detriment of the Government, and payments due on all FmHA loans have been made from other income or the income is urgently needed to meet emergency or other justifiable uses.

§ 1872.13 Deceased borrower.

Decreased borrower cases will be handled in accordance with the policy outlined in § 1871.39 of Subpart B, Part 1871, Subchapter F of this chapter.

§ 1872.14 Bankruptcy and insolvency.

Bankruptcy and insolvency cases will be handled in accordance with the policy outlined in § 1871.38 of Subpart B, Part 1871, Subchapter F of this chapter. The handling of bankruptcy cases varies from state to state. Therefore, the State Director will issue a state supplement for more specific guidance when it will expedite the handling of such cases.

§ 1872.15 Servicing note-only cases.

Each loan made on a note-only basis without mortgage security will be serviced in a manner consistent with the best interests of the FmHA.

(a) Sale of real property on which improvements were made with note-only FmHA funds. Any loan evidenced only by an unsecured note will be collected by voluntary means at the time of the sale of the property, if possible. If such collection is not possible, the loan may be assumed by the purchaser of the property on the terms of the note if such assumption is determined to be in the FmHA's best financial interest. If such collection or assumption cannot be effected, consideration should be given to settling the account in accordance with Part 1864, Subchapter E of this chapter, if it is eligible, obtaining judgment, or classifying it as collection-only. In case of a judgment sale, the State Director with the advice of the OGC and the U.S. Attorney will authorize an employee to attend the sale and if appropriate enter a bid on behalf of the Government in accordance with § 1872.20(b)(4)(vi) and (vii) of this subpart.

(b) Assumption of note-only when real property securing another FmHA loan is involved. When a borrower has an FmHA loan secured by real estate, and another FmHA loan evidenced only by a note, and the entire secured real estate debt is to be assumed, all or a part of the unsecured note up to the present market value of the property in excess of existing liens must be assumed as appropriate under § 1872.18 of this subpart, if approval of assumption of the secured note and transfer of the real estate is approved. If the entire note-only account is assumed, it may be assumed by use of Form FmHA 460–9, "Assumption Agreement (Same Terms-Eligible Transferee)," in accordance with the terms of the existing note. Otherwise, it may be assumed by use of Form FmHA 460–5, "Assumption Agreement (New Terms)," by an applicant who meets the eligibility requirements for the type of loan involved and on terms applicable to such a loan. Form

APR 4 75

FmHA 460–5 or Form FmHA 460–9 will be modified as appropriate, with the advice of OGC. The loan approval official may require a note-only loan being assumed to be secured by obtaining a new mortgage.

(c) Deceased borrower cases. When a borrower dies while owing an FmHA unsecured note, the case will be handled in accordance with the applicable policies in Subpart B, Part 1871, Subchapter F of this chapter. If it is determined that there are no assets in the estate from which the claim can be collected and there are no survivors or others who will assume the account and continue to make payments on the note in accordance with its terms, the account will be settled immediately in accordance with Part 1864, Subchapter E of this chapter.

§ 1872.16 Release of FmHA mortgage without monetary consideration on basis of additional security or because of mutual mistake or nonexistence of evidence of indebtedness or valueless liens.

(a) Additional real estate, chattel, or miscellaneous security. Real estate, chattel, or miscellaneous items which were taken as additional security for a loan secured by real estate may be released by the State Director without consideration before the loan is paid in full, if the market value of the remaining security for the loan is clearly adequate to secure the unpaid balance of the loan. No part of the FO, RL, SW, EM, or RH farm or the borrower's dwelling for an EM, RH, FO, or RL loan is considered as additional security for this purpose. This subpart does not cover basic security for OL and EM loans and only permits release of real estate for such loans, when it was taken as additional security. It must be determined that there is reasonable assurance that orderly payments can be made on the FmHA indebtedness and:

(1) Release. The release is needed to help finance the borrower's operations; or

(2) Purposes. The purposes for which the loan was made would be facilitated; or

(3) Repayment. The borrower's ability to repay the loan will be improved.

(b) Release of real estate from mortgage because of mutual mistake. Land or buildings included in the mortgage through mutual mistake, when substantiated by the factual situation, may be released from the mortgage by the State Director. The release is contingent on the State Director with the advice of the OGC determining that a mutual error existed at the time such property was included in the Government's mortgage.

(c) No evidence of indebtedness. The FmHA mortgage may be released by the County Supervisor in situations where there is no evidence of an existing indebtedness secured by the mortgage in the records of the FmHA County, State, or Finance Office.

(d) Release of valueless liens. State Directors are authorized to release FmHA mortgages or other liens which have no present or prospective value or when their enforcement would likely be ineffectual or uneconomical. This authority does not extend to valueless judgment liens or valueless statutory redemption rights except with the consent of the OGC. The following will be obtained:

(1) Appraisal report. A market value appraisal report on the security prepared by an FmHA employee authorized to make appraisals.

(2) Lienholders. The names of the holders of prior liens on the property and the amount secured by each lien which is prior to the FmHA. Such information will be recorded in the running case record of the borrower's County Office case folder and submitted to the State Director for his review.

§ 1872.17 Liquidation action.

When the County Supervisor, with the advice of the District Director and the County Committee, except the County Committee will not be used for servicing sections 502 and 504 RH loans, determines that continued servicing of the loan will not accomplish the objectives of the loan or that for other reasons further servicing cannot be justified under the policy stated in § 1872.1(b), liquidation of the account(s) will be accomplished as expeditiously as possible.

(a) General. When the borrower is willing to voluntarily liquidate the account immediately by selling the property and paying the account in full, transferring the total security with an assumption of all or the appropriate portion of the debt under § 1872.18, selling the property for not less than its present market value under § 1872.17(h), or, conveying the security to the FmHA under § 1872.19, the County Supervisor may give him 60 days to accomplish such action. If the property is to be sold or transferred for its present market value which is less than the total secured debts against it, the County Supervisor will appraise the property immediately. If the unpaid FmHA security debt and any prior lien does not exceed $100,000, the County Supervisor will establish the present market value of the security. Otherwise, he will obtain the concurrence of the District Director for secured debts of not more than $160,000 and the concurrence of the State Director if the secured debts exceed $160,000.

(b) Problem case report. If the borrower is unwilling to take any of the actions specified in § 1872.17(a) or fails to carry out any such actions within 60 days, the County Supervisor will complete Form FmHA 465–7 and send it to the State Office through the District Director so that the District Director's recommendation may be attached. In cases involving only a Section 502 or 504 RH loan, the County Committee's recommendation on Form FmHA 465–7 will not be obtained. If the State Director agrees that forced liquidation is appropriate, he should approve such liquidation. The State Director may give the borrower additional time to make the sale, transfer, or voluntary conveyance before sending the case to the OGC for initiation of foreclosure action.

(c) Acceleration of account. When the State Director approves forced liquidation, the account should be accelerated and the borrower notified even though he gives the borrower additional time to voluntarily liquidate the account. He should place a time limit on the borrower which usually should not exceed three months in the first instance. The original period fixed by the State Director plus any extensions granted by him should in no case exceed one (1) year without prior concurrence of the National Office. Prior to granting any extension after the original period fixed by him, the State Director will require the County Supervisor to report the steps taken by the borrower to liquidate the account. If a sale is involved, the County Supervisor's report should indicate whether the borrower's asking price is reasonable and whether the asking price is delaying the sale unreasonably. Acceleration or granting time for voluntary liquidation as provided for above will not preclude exercise of the authority in § 1872.17(g). However, the above authority should never be used for the purpose of extending the liquidation period under § 182.17(f).

(d) Assignment. When an insured loan case is sent to the OGC to initiate liquidation action, the insured note will be simultaneously assigned to the fund.

(e) Multiple loans. When a borrower is indebted to the FmHA for more than one type of FmHA loan, a thorough study should be made of each loan and of the effect liquidation of one or more of the loans would have on any other loan. When liquidation of one or more FmHA loans secured by real estate is necessary and it will jeopardize the repayment of or the accomplishment of the purposes of other FmHA loans, all FmHA loans should be liquidated. For example, on an OL and FO loan, the liquidation action will be started simultaneously, and the liquidation of real estate and chattel security will be coordinated to the extent possible. However, the chattel security will be liquidated in accordance with Subpart B, Part 1871 of Subchapter F except that when an account(s) is secured by both real estate and chattels and the account(s) will be transferred, such transfer(s) will be accomplished in accordance with § 1872.18 of this subpart.

(f) Requirement. An RH borrower who obtained a loan on a nonfarm tract, or any FO or RL borrower who, without FmHA consent, does not personally operate the farm or recreational facility, or when required by the mortgage, does not live on the security property, is violating his agreements with FmHA. Such a borrower, if available, will be promptly contacted in person by the County Supervisor and advised of the violation and that it will be necessary to liquidate the account by payment in full, by refinancing or otherwise, unless definite agreements are reached to remove the violation by reoccupying or resuming personal operation of the property as required by the loan documents, or consent for lease is granted as authorized in § 1872.8 of this Subpart. If the borrower is not available for personal contact or definite agreements cannot be reached or consent to a lease is not authorized, the County Supervisor will write to the borrower at his last known address, notifying him of the violation and advise him that, because of the violation, it will be necessary to liquidate the account. The County Supervisor may authorize the borrower a reasonable period of time (60 to 90 days) in which to correct the violation. If during such period the borrower fails to remove the violation or take appropriate action for liquidation of the account in full, the case will be handled in accordance with § 1872.17 (b) and (c).

(g) Acceleration agreement. When liquidation of the account is necessary because of failure to refinance, or for other reasons, and the remaining loan repayment period exceeds ten (10) years for real estate loans, or two (2) years for OL and EM loans, the State Director may, in lieu of foreclosure, permit the borrower to pay the account under an acceleration agreement. For real estate loans other than RH loans on nonfarm tracts, the term of the agreement will not exceed ten (10) years. For OL, EM, and RH nonfarm loans, the term of the agreement will not exceed five (5) years. In either case, the balance of the debt will be scheduled for repayment in equal annual or monthly amortized installments of combined principal and interest, except that if annual payments are required, the first installment may be less than a full amortized installment if it is due substantially less than a full year after the date of the agreement and the borrower will not be able to pay the full amount. If the borrower owes a small amount and the remaining period of the loan is ten (10) years or less for real estate loans and two (2) years or less for OL or EM loans, the State Director may authorize acceleration of the account for a shorter period, as appropriate. Interest will be at the rate shown in the note. The State Director will determine that authorization for repayment of the debt under an accelerated repayment agreement is necessary to protect the Government's financial interest and the borrower can reasonably be expected to meet the accelerated payments, and the borrower will continue to comply with other requirements of the loan and security instruments. When an understanding to accelerate is reached with the borrower, Form FmHA 465–11, "Accelerated Repayment Agreement," will be completed and executed. Separate Forms FmHA 465–11 will be used for each type of loan and for direct or insured loans. If the borrower fails to meet any installment when due as provided in such an agreement, foreclosure action will be initiated.

(h) Cash sale. When a cash sale of mortgaged real estate will result in the secured debts not being paid in full, the County Supervisor is authorized to approve the sale for not less than the present market value of the property established in accordance with § 1872.17(a) and to release the Government's liens, provided:

(1) Substantial recovery. A substantial recovery can be made on the FmHA secured indebtedness based on a recent appraisal report showing the present market value of the property.

(2) Application. All the proceeds are applied on the mortgage debts in accordance with their respective priorities except authorized costs as specified in § 1872.4(c)(2).

(3) Release. The FmHA liens are not released by the County Supervisor until receipt of the appropriate sale proceeds for application on the Government's claim. The release will be made on forms approved or prepared by the OGC. If the debt is not paid in full and a deficiency judgment is not to be obtained, the case will be reclassified to collection only if the debt cannot be settled under the provisions of Part 1864 Subchapter E and the requirements of FmHA regulations concerning case classifications can be met. When a case is reclassified to collection only, Form FmHA 404–1, "Case Reclassification," and Form FmHA 450–10, "Advice of Borrower's Change of Address or Name," will be sent to the Finance Office.

§ 1872.18 Transfer of real estate security.

When the mortgage requires the consent of FmHA to any proposed sale or other transfer of real estate security for FmHA loans, the borrower should be reminded that before firm agreements have been reached with a purchaser of all or a portion of the security, the borrower and purchaser should contact the County Supervisor concerning the proposed sale. If the proposed sale would not result in the FmHA account being paid in full at the time of the sale, the County Supervisor should explain thoroughly the requirements of this section and § 1872.4 or 1872.17 as appropriate. When the transferor is receiving a substantial downpayment in connection with the sale of his property, the purchaser should be required to contact other sources of credit to secure a loan for repayment of the FmHA loan in full. When real estate security, including water rights, is sold and the mortgage requires FmHA consent to the sale and the transaction cannot be approved under the appropriate sections of this subpart the account will be liquidated as required in § 1872.17.

(a) Authority. County Supervisors, District Directors, and State Directors are authorized to approve transfers with assumption of FmHA accounts to eligible or ineligible transferees in accordance with § 1872.18 and release of liability when the secured debts do not exceed $100,000, $160,000, and $225,000 respectively. State Directors also are authorized to approve such transfers to and assumptions by ineligible transferees regardless of the amount of the outstanding FmHA debts or the amount of prior liens. Proposed transfers to, and assumptions by, eligible transferees which will exceed the authorizations and limitation of the State Director for an initial or subsequent loan of the same type, will be submitted to the National Office for prior authorization for approval.

(b) General policies. The following general policies will be applicable when an FmHA borrower transfers or proposes to transfer real estate which is security for an FmHS loan(s) and the loan account(s) is to be assumed by use of either Form FmHA 460–9 or Form FmHA 460–5.

(1) Agreement. Form FmHA 465–5, "Transfer of Real Estate Security," will be completed to reflect the agreement between the transferor and the transferee.

(2) Assignment. If an insured loan is involved, when applicable, the Finance Office will have the insured not assigned to the fund when the assumption agreement changes the terms of the note.

(3) Value. All transfers will be based on present market value. When the total secured FmHA debt(s) exceeds the present market value, the transferee will assume an amount equal to the present market value as determined in accordance with § 1872.1(a), less prior liens. Otherwise, the transferee will assume the total FmHA secured debt(s).

(4) Assumption agreement. Notwithstanding that part of § 1807.2(f)(8) regarding the effect of a wife's signature on a promissory note, a deceased borrower's spouse will execute an assumption agreement when the spouse is not already liable for the indebtedness because of not having signed the note(s) or would be absolved from liability under State law after having signed the note(s). The assumption agreement, when required in such cases, will be completed and sent to the Finance Office. The interest rate and terms of the assumption agreement of such a spouse usually will remain the same as they were in the note(s). If, however, the number of years over which a note was amortized needs to be extended to be within the repayment ability of the assuming spouse, the reamortization period may be extended but cannot exceed the repayment period applicable to the kind of loan being assumed calculated from the date of the original note. Authorization to continue the loan at the interest rate and terms authorized by this paragraph are contingent on a determination by the approval official that such rates and terms are necessary to carry out the purpose of the loan, or to protect the financial interest of the Government.

(5) Withdrawal of joint borrowers. When one of the joint borrowers (including the jointly liable former spouse of a divorced borrower) withdraws from the operation and conveys his interest in the security property to the remaining borrower who desires to assume the total indebtedness, the assumption, except for RH loans, will be made on the basis of the existing note(s) by use of Form FmHA 460–9 or, in case of an ineligible transferee, on Form FmHA 460–5 on terms applicable to ineligible applicants. For RH loans, an assumption agreement is not required. However, Form FmHA 450–10 will be submitted to the Finance Office when the account will be continued with the remaining borrower(s) under a different name. In either case, the former spouse or previous joint owner will be released of liability for the indebtedness if the conditions of § 1872.18(f) are met, except when a divorce decree awarded the security property to one spouse would be responsible for playing spouse would be responsible for paying all or part of the mortgage payments.

(8) Assumption with joint borrower. When the spouse or another member of a borrower's family who is eligible for the kind of loan involved will assume the indebtedness with one or more of the existing borrowers, the assumption will be made on the same basis as the existing note(s) by use of Form FmHA 460–9. Such assumptions are frequently made in accordance with all or the applicable requirements of this § 1872.18 when an aged couple has a son or daughter who will assist in operating the farm or live in the RH house, help make the payments, and obtain title to the property individually or jointly with the borrower(s), or subject to a life estate reservation by the existing borrower(s).

(7) Loan type. The kind(s) of loan will remain the same for all loans except that loans which are transferred to ineligible applicants will be classified as ORE.

(8) Conveyance of a portion of the security. Generally, title to all FmHA real estate security, including water rights, must be conveyed to the transferee not later than the date of closing the transfer. However, a transfer of a portion of the FmHA real estate security with an assumption of the total indebtedness may be approved, provided: The portion of the FmHA security transferred has a present market value at least equal to the total indebtedness owed by the borrower or such indebtedness is reduced by a cash payment to the present market value of such property, the transaction is advantageous to the Government, and in cases of RH loans, the property improved with RH funds is conveyed to the person assuming the RH loan. In such a transaction, the transferor will be released from personal liability for the debt. The security he retained will be released from the Government's lien.

(9) Multiple sales and assumption. When a request is made by a borrower to transfer the real estate security as parcels to two or more transferees with assumption of a portion of the debt, the County Supervisor may send the proposed action to the State Director for consideration if the County Supervisor recommends that such a transaction would be advantageous to the Government. In such a case, the total debt must be assumed by the transferee even though a portion of the security property may be retained by the transferor. The County Supervisor will submit to the State Director the complete factual information concerning the transaction. It will include appraisal reports showing the present market value of each portion to be transferred and such value of the total unit before subdivision, the amount of indebtedness to be assumed by each transferee, and the case file with other pertinent information outlining the reasons for the proposed actions.

(10) Dual security. When the account(s) is secured by both chattel and real estate, all the chattel security must be transferred, sold, or liquidated by the time of the transfer or the real estate, except that in case of EM or SL security, the real estate security may be transferred without transfer or liquidation of the chattel security upon prior approval of the National Office.

(11) Consent. The written consent of any lienholder must be obtained if required.

(12) Junior liens. When the full amount of the FmHA debits assumed, there must be no liens, judgments, or other claims against the security which are junior to any FmHA liens being assumed unless the State Director determines that such liens, judgments, or claims will not adversely affect the Government's security interest and that the transferee's ability to pay the FmHA debt will not be impaired thereby.

(13) Restriction. When less than the full amount of the FmHA debt is being assumed, there must be no liens, judgments, or other claims against the security which are junior to any FmHA loans being assumed.

(14) Loans. An initial or subsequent loan for which the transferee is eligible may be made in connection with a transfer, subject to the policies and procedures governing the kind of loan being made. When the transfer is being made to an eligible FO applicant, FO loan funds may be used to pay equity. When real estate security for an RH loan is transferred to a person eligible under Subpart A, Part 1822 of Subchapter B for an RH loan to purchase such real estate, RH loan funds may be used to pay the equity. This, however, does not include income producing lands or buildings. In lieu of the subsequent loan of the kind involved, the Government's lien may be subordinated to (1) enable the transferor to take a first mortgage to secure the amount of his equity payment, or, (2) to permit another lender to furnish funds needed in connection with the transfer. In such cases, the subordination will be processed in accordance with the applicable provisions of § 1873.3. The transferor may convey title to the property by warranty deed or, when he agrees to take a first lien to secure his downpayment, he may sell the property by purchase contract or similar instrument that meets the conditions of § 1821.7(a)(2). In such cases, prior lienholders' agreements will be obtained in accordance with § 1807.3(f)(5). When necessary to settle a divorce action, a subsequent loan may be made or a subordination may be granted to permit the remaining borrower to obtain a loan in an amount not to exceed the equity in the property.

(15) Payments. If a payment to the transferor is to be made in connection with the transfer, the total FmHA debt must be assumed unless the payment received by the transferor is applied on a prior lien or to the portion of the transferor's FmHA debt not assumed. When the full amount of the FmHA secured debt is being assumed and other FmHA debts owed by the transferor are not adequately secured, the State Director may, as a condition of approving the transfer, require that all or a part of any equity payment be applied on such debts.

(16) Downpayment. An eligible transferee will make a downpayment on the FmHA secured debts if he is financially able. When a payment is required the transfer will not be closed nor the appropriate assumption agreement executed prior to receipt of such payment.

(17) Date. The effective date of the transfer will be the actual date the transfer is closed. This is the date on which Forms FmHA 460–5 or FmHA 460–9 are signed. In connection with the use of either form, the unpaid principal balance and accrued interest will be shown in Table 1 and the accrued interest will be computed from Form FmHA 451–26, "Transaction Record," Form FmHA 451–31, "Borrower Transaction Record," or the monthly payment account Status Report. If Form FmHA 460–9 is used, the transferee will be informed of the amount of principal and interest owed. He also will be advised of the total amount paid as of the closing date which has not been credited to the account, the amount that would be required to be paid to place the account on schedule as of the previous installment due date, and any accounts that must be paid to bring any monthly payments up to date.

(18) Civil Rights Acts. "When the property transferred will continue to be used for the same or a similar purpose for which federal financial assistance was extended, except for property involving only one or more of the following programs: FO and OL loans for farm purposes; RH 502, 504, and 523 Self Help loans; and EO, SW, and EM loans to individuals; the transferee will sign a Form FmHA 400–4, 'Nondiscrimination Agreement.'"
